

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

Travelers Leaving the Country

Instructions have been issued by the Treasury Department to collectors of customs to permit travelers leaving the country to carry on their persons or in their baggage:

- (a) United States notes, national-bank notes, Federal reserve notes, or Federal reserve bank notes not to exceed $1,000 for each adult;
- (b) Subsidiary silver coins not to exceed $100 for each adult, such coin to be in lieu of a like amount of notes under (a) above.

Collectors of customs have been informed that in dealing with travelers they may act in accordance with these regulations, without communicating with the Federal Reserve Board or with the Federal Reserve Bank of their district.

Travelers who desire to take with them silver dollars or gold coin, or gold or silver certificates in any amount, must obtain a license from the Federal Reserve Bank of their district, from which application blanks may be obtained. Whenever such licenses are issued, the Federal Reserve Bank will give due notice to the collector of customs at the port from which the applicant expects to leave the United States, and collectors of customs have been notified that in dealing with travelers to whom such licenses have been issued they may act without communicating with the Federal Reserve Board.
