FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD

WASHINGTON

June 15, 1918.

In accordance with the provisions of Executive Order No. 1962, June 9, 1914, the offices of the Federal Reserve Board will be closed at one o'clock P. M. on all Saturdays during the period from June 15 to September 15, 1918. No time will be allowed for luncheon on Saturdays during the same period.

The Executive Order in question contains the following provision:

"Provided, however, that this order shall not apply to any bureau or office of the Government, or to any of the clerks or other employees thereof, that may for special public reasons be excepted therefrom by the head of the Department having supervision or control of such bureau or office, or where the same would be inconsistent with the provisions of existing law."

H. PARKER WILLIS.

Secretary.
