SUBJECT: Revision of form 44-a, Monthly report of F.R. notes outstanding and on hand, and funds held as security.

Dear Sir:

There are enclosed herewith 50 copies of form 44-a (Revised September 12, 1919) for use in making future monthly reports of Federal Reserve notes outstanding and on hand also funds held as security for outstanding notes. The only changes in the form are the addition of the words "Gold Settlement Fund" after "Credit balance with Federal Reserve Board" (item ROLF), and the substitution of the code word RITT for BEET to designate Federal Reserve notes on hand, as well as the addition of a note explaining the character of information to be reported against item RITT.

Kindly acknowledge receipt.

Yours very truly,

Acting Assistant Secretary.
