

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD
WASHINGTON

December 17, 1921.
St. 2490.

SUBJECT: Revision of Form St. 1752, Weekly Report of Silver and Minor Coin.

Dear Sir:

There are being forwarded to you today copies of revised form St. 1752, weekly report of silver and minor coin held by the Federal reserve bank or branch.

It will be noted that the revised statement, copy of which is attached hereto, calls for holdings of standard silver dollars in addition to subsidiary silver and minor coin, also that hereafter the amounts of new coin are to be telegraphed as well as of total holdings. The first report on the revised form should be submitted as of January 4, 1922.

Kindly notify branches accordingly.

Very truly yours,

Walter L. Eddy,
Assistant Secretary.

Letter to each Federal Reserve Agent.
