

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD
WASHINGTON

December 17, 1921.
St.2491.

SUBJECT: Revision of Form St. 92-a, Daily
Condensed Statement of Condition of F. R. Banks.

Dear Sir:

There are enclosed herewith 50 copies of revised form St. 92-a, condensed statement of condition of Federal Reserve Bank (daily TEND telegram), for use beginning with the report as of January 3, 1922.

It will be noted that hereafter it will not be necessary to telegraph separately figures of member banks' collateral notes and of customers' paper, secured by U. S. Government obligations and otherwise secured and unsecured. Holdings of discounted bills in the revised form are divided into two classes only, as is the case in the Board's weekly press statement, i. e., Bills discounted - secured by U. S. Government obligations, and Bills discounted - all other.

Very truly yours,

Walter L. Eddy,
Assistant Secretary.

Letter to each Federal Reserve Agent.
