August 20, 1935.

SUBJECT: Holidays during September, 1935.

Dear Sir:

On Monday, September 2, Labor Day, the offices of the Federal Reserve Board and all Federal Reserve banks and branches will be closed.

The Board is advised that the following holidays will also be observed during September:

Head office and direct settling branches:

Monday, September 9,	San Francisco Los Angeles	(Admission Day (in California)
-------------------------	------------------------------	-----------------------------------

Thursday, September 12	Baltimore	(Defenders Day (in Maryland)
---------------------------	-----------	---------------------------------

Other branches:

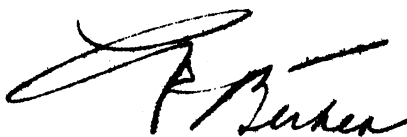

Tuesday, September 24	Oklahoma City	(Special election
--------------------------	---------------	-------------------

On the dates given the offices mentioned will not participate in either the transit or the Federal Reserve note clearing through the Gold Settlement Fund. Please include transit clearing credits for the head office and direct settling branches on each of the holidays with your credits for the following business day. No debits covering shipments of Federal Reserve notes for account of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco should be included in your note clearing of September 9.

Please notify branches.

Very truly yours,
