

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD

WASHINGTON

ADDRESS OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO
THE FEDERAL RESERVE BOARDDecember 31, 1935.
3-1127.SUBJECT: Summary Statement of Federal Reserve
Bank Personnel.

Dear Sir:

In accordance with the usual practice, please furnish the Board with a summary statement showing the number and salaries of officers and employees of your bank (including branches, if any) as of December 31, 1935, and January 1, 1936, made out in accordance with the attached form. The figures for December 31, 1935, which should not include any changes in either the number or salaries of officers or employees that become effective on January 1, 1936, will be published in the Board's 1935 annual report. The figures for January 1, 1936, should represent the number and annual salaries of officers and employees after all changes effective as of January 1 have been made.

Very truly yours,

Chester Morrill,
Secretary.
