

BOARD OF GOVERNORS
OF THE
FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Statement for the Press

For immediate release

September 4, 1941

In order to assist in the development of regulations relative to consumer credit, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System has engaged the services of Mr. Irvin Wesley, who is on leave of absence from the Lincoln Loan Corporation, Indianapolis, Indiana, of which he is executive vice president.

Mr. Wesley's entire business life has been spent in the field of consumer credit, and during the last fifteen years he has been in the personal finance business. He has been for ten years on the Board of Directors of the American Association of Personal Finance Companies and is at present one of the six members of the "Commission for Financial Institutions" for the State of Indiana.
