THIRD ANNUAL REPORT

—OF THE—

STATE BANK COMMISSIONER OF ARKANSAS

To His Excellency, the Governor of Arkansas:

Sir—In compliance with the requirements of Sections 9 and 59 of Act No. 113, entitled "An Act for the Organization and Control of Banks, Trust Companies and Savings Banks," approved March 3rd, 1913, I submit herewith the third annual report of the work and business of the Bank Department of Arkansas for the time beginning January 1st, 1916, and ending December 31st, 1916.

This report embraces a statement of all receipts and expenditures, the name, officers, directors, domicile, capital, surplus, net profits and deposits of each bank, trust company and savings bank in the State, at the close of business November 17, 1916. New banks organized, banks closed, liquidated and consolidated, also statement showing progress of liquidation of those now being liquidated by the Department, together with a statement of all building and loan associations and a compiled statement of all investment companies under the supervision of the Department at the close of business November 30th, 1916, and a list of drainage districts adumbrated as provided for under Act 279, Section 30, Acts of 1909, during the year 1916, copy of the report of the examiner having been filed with the clerk of the circuit court in the county where the drainage district is located, as the law provides.

There are 391 banks under the supervision of the Department, all of which have been examined during the year once and many have received the second examination. There have been four reports of condition called for and in addition each bank was examined by an examining committee composed of stockholders of the respective institutions and a very complete and exhaustive report of the findings of the committee was made to the board of directors of each bank and a copy filed with this Department. This examination by a committee of their own stockholders was productive of good results and had the effect to put the active officers and board of directors on record as to the actual value of the bank's assets.

Realizing that to successfully supervise the State banks of Arkansas would require every available means and all obtainable knowledge bearing directly upon the question of banking, I sought admission to, and became a member of, the National Association of Supervisors of State Banks, which Association numbers among its members many men of ripe experience in bank supervision, who were ready and willing to impart to the younger and less informed members their knowledge and varied experiences gathered during many years of active work in the supervision of banks in their respective States, and through my association with these commissioners I have obtained valuable information bearing upon questions vitally affecting successful bank supervision and I have earnestly endeavored by suggestion, and otherwise, to convey to the banks the experience and knowledge thus obtained.

It was deemed advisable, in view of the fact that many banks had numerous accounts of depositors which had not been balanced, in some instances, for years, to require each bank to call in all outstanding pass-books and post them up to October 10th and make statements of all accounts up to that date, of those to whom pass-books had not been issued. This ruling had the effect to correct many errors of long standing and relieve congested condition of files caused by the accumulation of cancelled checks covering, in some instances, a period of several years, also was the means of verifying the accounts of all customers.

The banking law has been in effect three years and the privilege of administering the law affords us an opportunity to know the condition of the banks under the supervision of the Department, and it can truthfully be said that the State banks of Arkansas were never in a stronger or more satisfactory condition than they are at this time.

It is indeed gratifying to acknowledge the hearty co-operation and encouragement of the bankers throughout the State in the efforts of the Commissioner and other members of the Department in raising the standard of stability and efficiency. Co-operation between the bankers and the Department promotes the best results possible and I earnestly ask for a continuation of such a spirit of co-operation as has been shown in the past.

The Department consists of a Commissioner, Assistant Commissioner, four Examiners, Stenographer and Bookkeeper, an Assistant in charge of "Blue Sky" Department, and a Special Examiner for Drainage Districts. All of those associated with me have been diligent and faithful in the performance of their several duties and the efficient service rendered entitles them to my highest commendation and to the grateful thanks of the people of the State.

Very respectfully,

JOHN M. DAVIS,
State Bank Commissioner.
