STATE OF NEBRASKA, DEPARTMENT OF BANKING, LINCOLN, FEBRUARY 1, 1894.

To the Hons. J. S. Bartley, State Treasurer; Eugene Moore, Auditor of Public Accounts, and George H. Hastings, Attorney General, Members of the State Banking Board, GENTLEMEN: In compliance with your instructions I have the honor to submit herewith the Annual Report of the Department of Banking. It embraces the year commencing November 5, 1892, and ending December 19, 1893.

The records of the department show that at the close of the year the total number of banks (other than National banks) in active operation was 504. The total number of building and loan associations was 84.

The Appendix will show in detail all changes of banks and of building and loan associations which have occurred during the year, and the varying condition of the banks throughout the year can be compared in the summaries of the reports of the condition of such banks for the year 1892, and those made in response to the three calls required by law which were made during the year 1893.

The provisions of the act governing foreign building and loan associations have been rigidly enforced, and at the present time no foreign building and loan association is authorized to transact business in this state. The applications of all such foreign associations were denied on the general principle that the laws, charters, articles of incorporation, constitution and by-laws governing such associations did not afford as ample protection to the interests of their members as is afforded by the laws of this state to members of associations organized under the laws of the state of Nebraska.

In obedience to instructions of the State Banking Board a careful examination has been made of the articles of incorporation, constitution, and by-laws of the local building and loan associations doing business in this state, and such as have been found to contain any methods of transacting business contrary to law have been notified to make the necessary amendments so as to comply with the act of 1891.

In conclusion, I desire to call the attention of the Honorable Board to the general efficiency of the work performed by the corps of State Bank Examiners.

The growth of the department, and the additional duties imposed on the Board by the orders of the honorable the supreme court of the state of Nebraska, necessitates an increase in the number of employes in the department in order to perform the work intelligently and efficiently, and I respectfully request that your Honorable Board will recommend the next legislature to pass the necessary law to provide for such increase as, in your opinion, the importance and necessities of the situation demand.

I am, gentlemen, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

RICHARD H. TOWNLEY,

Clerk Department of Banking.
