Dear Mr. Volcker:

Congressman James Blanchard has informed me that he spoke to you recently concerning the National Association of Attorneys General Convention that we are holding this year at Mackinac Island, Michigan.

As the host of that convention, I would like you to be our guest to speak to the Attorneys General of every state in the union, as well as the territories. I feel that this is the type of group that would appreciate your message, and be able to readily understand the nature of your public trust.

Mackinac Island is a unique place. If you have not had the opportunity to visit here, I think you would appreciate it. Depending on how much time you could be with us, there is great beauty, historical lore, and I could have you taken to fishing grounds within an hour or two of the Island by experts.

Dear Paul:

We, in Michigan, are most grateful for your visit to our meeting of the National Association of Attorneys General. The top lawyers for all of our states and territories greatly appreciated your message and your presence.

On a personal side, I hope that you had a good time. I was gratified to get the report that despite the storm you caught a couple of big fish before your return to Washington.

If your coming to see us provided some pleasant diversion and relaxation, I would be most pleased, because you certainly pleased me and all of my guest Attorneys General.

Sincerely yours,

Richard L. Masters, Secretary-Treasurer RLM

SUBJECT: Summer Meeting
The Grand Hotel, Mackinac Island, Michigan
July 15 - 18, 1982

The Association's 1982 annual meeting, which Attorney General Frank J. Kelley will host, will be held this year from July 15-18, (Thursday through Sunday) at the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island, Michigan. Attorney General Kelley and his staff are planning an outstanding conference of informative business sessions and enjoyable social events for you and your family during your stay on Mackinac Island.

Business Program

Enclosed is a preliminary program. Please note that the Executive Committee will meet on July 14 from 2:00-5:00 p.m., and all Attorneys General are invited to attend. Subcommittee meetings will begin at 1:00 p.m. on July 15, so please schedule your arrivals accordingly. If there is sufficient interest, special children's and spouses' activities will be planned.

Hotel Reservations

Please make your hotel reservations by June 25 directly with the Grand Hotel. A hotel registration form is enclosed. After June 25 the hotel will release the extra rooms. Please note the following items regarding hotel arrangements:

1. Guest room rates are based on a Full American Plan. The rates include three meals per day, and are charged on a per person basis rather than on a per room basis.
2. A limited number of guest rooms are available for NAAG meeting attendees at the Grand Hotel for the night of July 14, and for those who wish to stay over the night of July 18.
3. Please direct any questions or special requests regarding rooms to Mr. Mark J. Zelenak at the Grand Hotel. He can be reached at 906/847-3331.

Pre-registration Information Form

Please complete the enclosed Pre-registration Information Form and return it as soon as possible, along with your registration fee, to Ms. Mary Jilka at the Secretariat's office in Lexington, Kentucky.

Registration Fees

Please make your check payable to "NAAG 1982." At its June 27, 1981 meeting, the Executive Committee set registration fees as follow:

- A. Each Attorney General, each staff member of an Attorney General's office, and all other governmental registrants (with spouse and children included in the fee paid by the registrant)..... $225.
- B. Each non-governmental registrant (with spouse and children included in the fee paid by the registrant)..... $350.

Transportation

Mackinac Island is reached by flying to the nearest airport and taking a limousine to the ferry, which transports passengers to the Island. Following is a breakdown of specific travel arrangements available.

The nearest airport to Mackinac Island is Emmet County Airport in Pellston, Michigan. The only scheduled airliner serving the area is Republic Airlines. At the present time it has one direct flight (#597) which departs from Chicago weekdays at 9:35 a.m. and arrives at the Emmet County Airport at 12:02 p.m. Limousine service from the airport to the Mackinaw City boat docks (30-minute ride) will be arranged. Mackinac Island is reached by an 18-minute ferry ride from the Mackinaw City boat docks. Special arrangements for conference participants have been made with Shepler's Mackinac Island Ferry (see schedule on enclosed leaflet). The special conference round trip fare will be $4.75 per adult and $3.50 for children (under 11 years old). No reservations are required.

There is also an airport on Mackinac Island not served by a commercial airline. Access to the Mackinac Island airport, weather conditions permitting, is via the Emmet County Airport.

If there is sufficient interest, efforts will be made to arrange for a non-stop charter flight between Chicago and Pellston. Please indicate your interest on the attached Pre-registration Information Form and an anticipated arrival time in Chicago. The charter planes would hold 50 passengers and would cost $230 round trip.

No cars are allowed on Mackinac Island. Storage and services for passenger cars will be handled by the Shepler's Mackinac Island Ferry Company during your stay on the Island. Arrangements for automobile rentals (for use before or after the convention) may be made with Hertz Rent-A-Car at the Emmet County Airport.

Dress

Temperatures of 70-75° are likely during the day, and there is a cool breeze in the evenings. Casual attire (slacks, shorts, swimwear) is appropriate for daytime. The hotel requires coats and ties for men in the evenings, and dresses or dressy pantsuits for women.

We hope that you will be able to join us at Mackinac Island. If you have any questions, please feel free to call Ray Marvin at 202/624-5454 or his deputy, Lynne Ross at 202/624-5456; or Rick Masters or Mary Jilka at 606/252-2291.

Dear Mr. Volcker

Pursuant to my phone call of today, this letter is a reminder that you will be receiving an invitation to speak to the National Association of Attorneys General on July 17th at Mackinac Island in Michigan. As I mentioned to you, my former boss, Michigan Attorney General Frank Kelley, will be extending the invitation.

I took the liberty of informing him that if he could get John Voelker there at Mackinac Island to chat with you, it might be more enticing. I also reminded him that scheduling for top officials in Washington was very difficult and the fact that you would give the invitation careful consideration by no means meant that you would be able to attend.

Thanks for taking my call and for your time today.

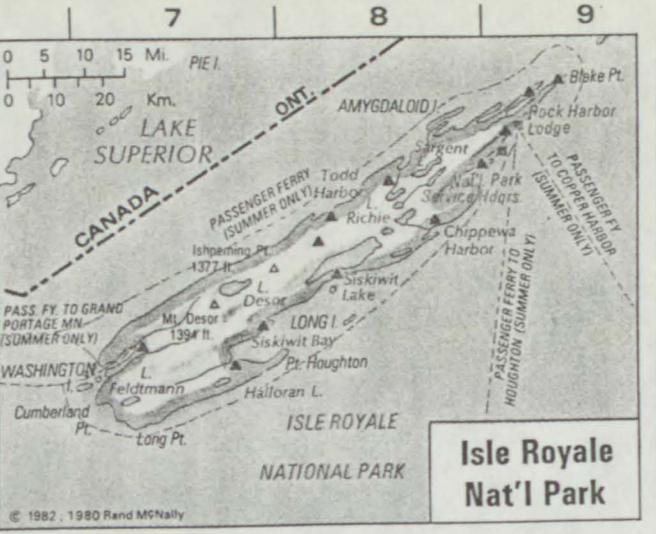

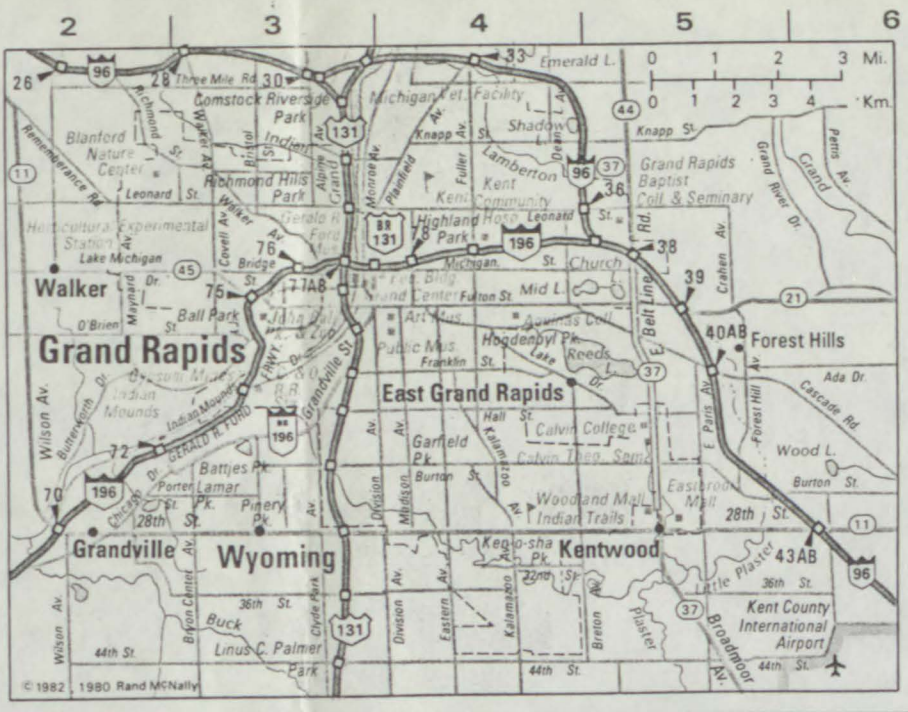

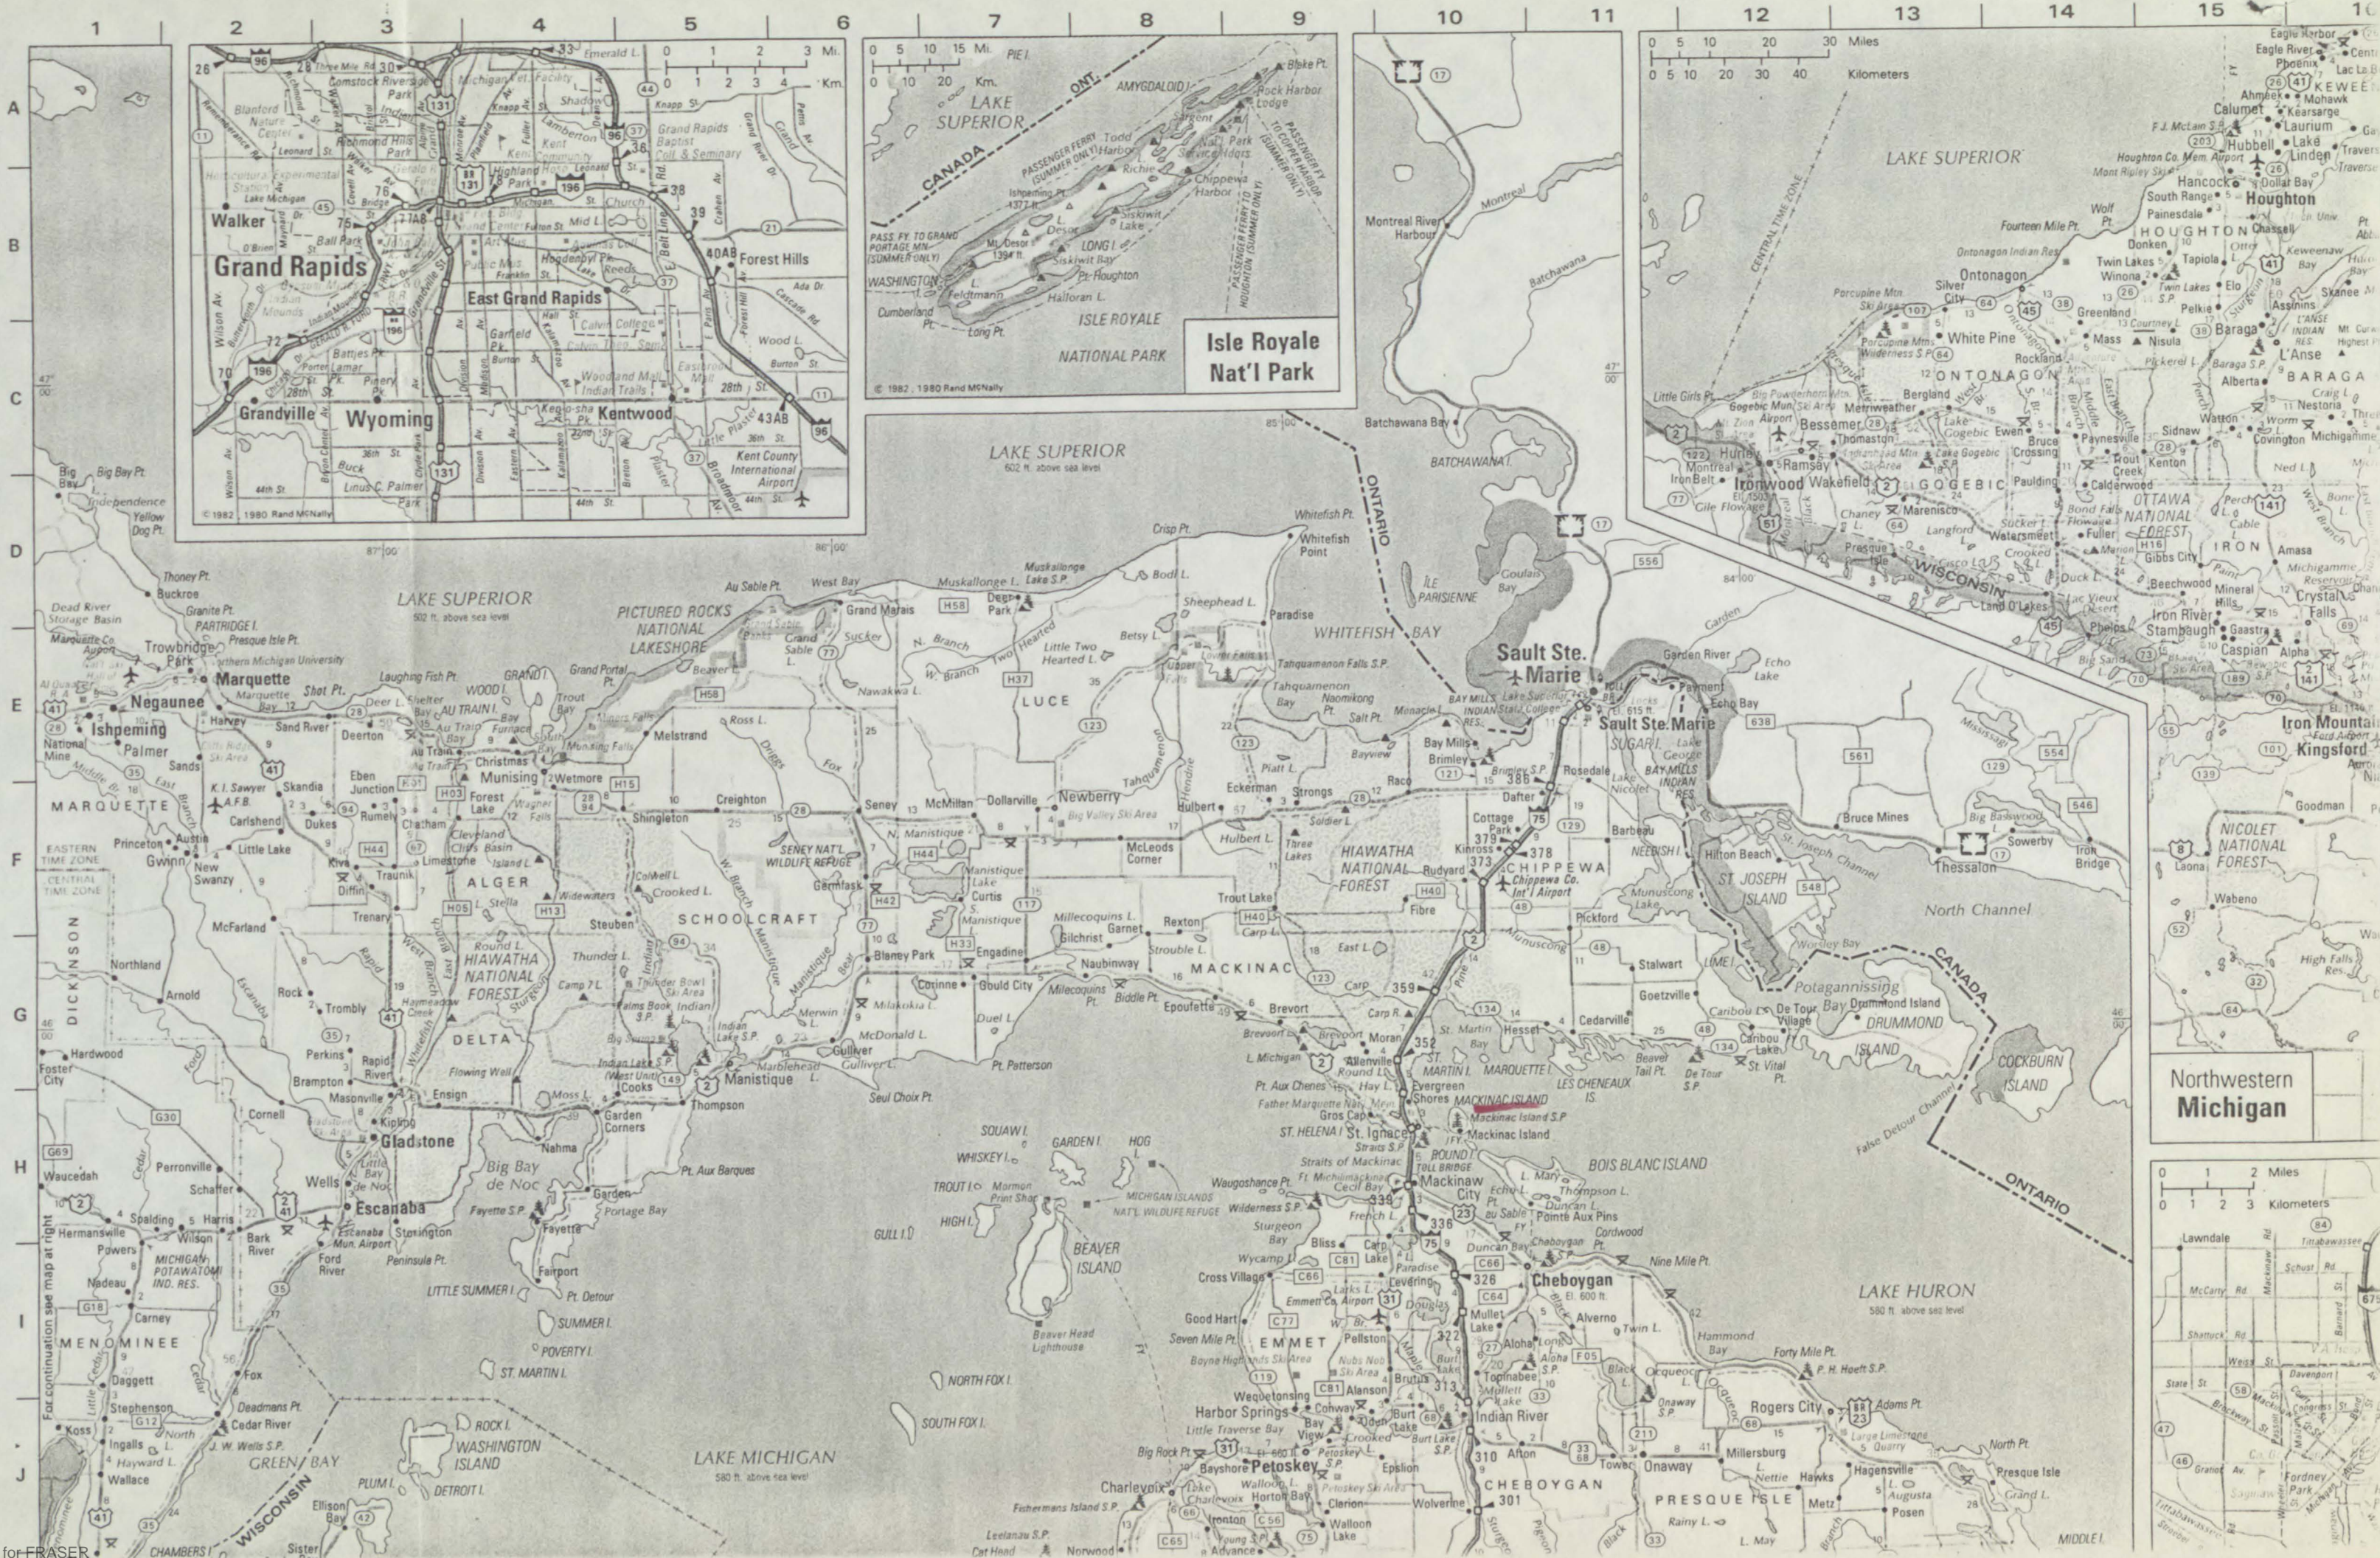

Sincerely,

JAMES J. BLANCHARD
U. S. Congressman
