10:45 AM- ✓ Dr. Wallich called from New Haven concerning the discussion leaders for the Consultants' Meeting on Friday, November 10. He proposes Tom Willett to talk on that part of the agenda which deals with the link of monetary and trade; and Art Laffer or Jack Bennett on capital controls. For topics on the need for objective criteria, and the topic on reserves, adjustment and convertibility, he thinks these need no discussion because you will have discussed them; and the Consultants, in any case, will not be in a good position to lead a discussion on these. Do you agree? YES _____

2:30 PM - The Secretary is seeing Tom Willett (Cornell University) -- who is being considered for Dr. Schmidt's position -- at 11:00 AM on Thursday, August 31, and Mr. Hennessy has asked that we also set up an appointment for an interview by you on that same day. I have informed his office that you may not be in Washington on August 31 -- and have indicated that any appointment scheduled now would have to be ~~contingent~~ contingent on your availability. On that basis, I have given Mr. Willett a tentative appointment at 10:30 AM on August 31. Mr. Hennessy is also arranging a luncheon on that date for Mr. Willett - and would like you and Mr. Bennett to join them. Your calendar has been noted.

3:10 PM - Marie Courtney of the New York Times Foreign Desk called for Clyde Farnsworth, their Economic Correspondent based in Paris. Mr. Farnsworth is going to be in the U. 11:15 AM - Hans Widenmann called again. He said he wanted to call one important matter to your attention, should you not know about it -- the controversy between Mr. Schiller and the head of the Bundesbank. He has documents which you may, or may not, have seen, which you should know about before the IMF Meetings. He would like to have lunch with you at the Madison, and invite Mr. Bennett also. He is leaving New York about 12:45 p.m. this afternoon and expects to arrive at the Madison by 4:30 p.m. or 5:00 p.m. and asked that you call him there. (785-1000)

12:15 PM - Mr. Bennett would like to see you.

1:25 PM - Bob Holland called, as you had suggested that he touch base with you if there were any reactions to the Treasury letter to Congressman Gross. He said ~~x~~the staff had one reaction. Substantively, they had no comment to make. They think, in the reference to the Board's legal authority, it is better to refer to a crisp 2-page legal opinion of the FOMC's General Counsel (copy will be sent to you) -- rather than to the longer, more diffuse document from their General Counsel that was used in the 1962 hearings.
