9:15 AM - ~~Stephen~~ Marris (OECD) called from Paris -- with two questions for you:

- 1) He would like to know whether you are planning to attend the Bellagio Group meeting on the 16th and 17th of February. He had been told that you were attending, and wanted to have confirmation.

(He knows this is dependent on whether you plan on attending the WP-3 and EPC meetings (Feb. 13-14-15); and asked further whether you had made any decision.)
- 2) His second question was whether you wished to express an opinion about the two possibilities for the location of this meeting -- whether to have it in some comfortable hotel outside of Paris (in Versailles or Fontainebleau area), with everybody staying in the same hotel. Or, it could be held in Paris, itself, where it would be less easy for everybody to be in the same hotel and to meet each other informally. If you have any particular preference between those two suggestions, it would be very interesting to know.

-- Mr. Marris can be reached in Paris about 5:00 pm or 5:30 p.m. (Paris time) this afternoon (11:00 am or 11:30 am Washington time). I told him I didn't know whether you would be in touch with him today with any firm answers - but that the questions would be passed on to you. (Paris - 524-8770)
