Directory of National Unions and Employee Associations, 1975

U.S. Department of Labor
Bureau of Labor Statistics
1978

Supplement to Bulletin 1937
Preface

Unions and employee associations, like most organizations, change officers and officials through elections, resignations, retirements, or deaths. They move their headquarters, reorganize or add to their functions, and merge with other organizations.

This Supplement includes all such changes that have come to the attention of the Bureau since the 1975 Directory was issued. The changes were obtained from a variety of sources, including publications of the organizations. Some labor organizations informed the Bureau by letter. The Bureau is grateful for this practice because it improves the usefulness of the Directory by providing accurate and timely information. Information in this supplement is current through February 2, 1978.

Nine organizations that were listed in the basic Directory have been deleted and eight organizations have been added to this Supplement as follows:

NATIONAL UNIONS AND EMPLOYEE ASSOCIATIONS

A total of 170 national labor unions and 35 professional and State employee associations as defined in the following paragraph are listed in this section. Listings of major subordinate or semiautonomous branches of unions are indented below the parent union or association.

All 106 AFL-CIO national unions are listed, in addition to 64 unions not affiliated with the AFL-CIO. Unions in the latter category were included if information indicated that they had negotiated contracts with different employers in more than one State or, in the case of Federal Government unions, exclusive bargaining rights under Executive Order 11491. Employee associations which represent their members in collective bargaining were included if they a) reported membership in more than one State, or b) represented members in two or more major cities of any individual State. The Assembly of Governmental Employees and the National Federation of Independent Unions are listed under Other Federations of National Unions and Employee Associations on p. 15.

Unions and associations were asked to report their average annual dues-paying membership for 1974 and 1975, and the number of locals in operation at the end of 1975. If an organization did not report membership, the space for membership was left blank. For membership of nonreporting AFL-CIO affiliates, paid per capita membership as reported in the 1975 convention proceedings was used and is indicated by an asterisk. Membership totals of major subordinate or semiautonomous branches of labor organizations are reported separately and are not included in the figure shown for the parent organization with the exception of the Actors and Artistes (AFL-CIO), and the National Education Association (Ind.).

Wherever possible, each organization is listed alphabetically by the key word or words identifying the craft or industry organized by the union. Union affiliation is indicated by (AFL-CIO) for American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations, or (Ind.) for unaffiliated or independent unions. Affiliates of the National Federation of Independent Unions and of the Assembly of Governmental Employees are identified by footnotes.

Most unions and associations provided the necessary information for an adequate listing. For some, information was supplemented by reference to official union sources such as convention proceedings, officers’ reports, or journals. In an effort to maintain current listings, all recent changes other than those related to membership and locals were incorporated wherever possible.
