CONTENTS OF VOLUME XVIII.

No. 80.—JANUARY, 1909.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Woman and child wage-earners in Great Britain, by Victor S. Clark, Ph. D.:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Introduction</td>
<td>1, 2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The factory laws</td>
<td>2-7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Administration of the factory laws</td>
<td>8-11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Proposed amendments</td>
<td>11, 12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The half-time system</td>
<td>12-23</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Employment of children outside of factories and workshops</td>
<td>23-27</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Street trading by children</td>
<td>27-36</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Outwork, sweating, and the minimum wage</td>
<td>36-47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Social and economic effect of legislation regulating the employment of women and children</td>
<td>47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Effect of provisions shortening hours of work</td>
<td>48-53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Influence of the factory acts upon the wages of women and children</td>
<td>53-65</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Influence of the factory acts upon distribution of employment among men, women, and children</td>
<td>65-71</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Influence of the factory acts upon the general welfare of workers</td>
<td>71-81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Influence of the factory acts upon industry</td>
<td>81-83</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conclusion</td>
<td>83-85</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Minimum Wage Act, 1908, New South Wales</td>
<td>86, 87</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Digest of recent reports of state bureaus of labor statistics:

- Illinois—Fourteenth Biennial Report: Working women in factories... 88
- Maryland—Sixteenth Annual Report: The child-labor law and its enforcement—Inspection of clothing and other manufactures—Free employment agency—Cost of living—Labor unions— Strikes and lockouts.... 89-91

Digest of recent foreign statistical publications:

- Germany—Report of Bavarian Statistical Bureau on cooperative societies in Bavaria.......................... 98-100
  Report on conditions of employment and the wages of employees in Magdeburg........................................ 100, 101
- Great Britain—Report of the Chief Inspector of Factories and Workshops for the year 1907................. 101-103
  Report on compensation for industrial diseases.................................................. 103, 104
  Reports on home work by select committees appointed in 1907 and 1908........................................... 104-110
IV CONTENTS OF VOLUME XVIII.

Digest of recent foreign statistical publications—Concluded.
Great Britain—Concluded. ................................................................. 110, 111

Italy—
Report of the Bureau of Labor on employment of women in industry. 111-114
Report of the Bureau of Labor on the manufacture of sulphur matches. 114-116
Spain—Report of the Institute of Social Reforms on the housing problem. 116-123

Decisions of courts affecting labor:
Decisions under statute law .................................................................. 124-163
Combinations to fix prices—restraint of trade—pools and trusts—construction and application of statute (Rohlf v. Kasemeier et al.)... 138-142
Employment of children—age limit—cleaning moving machinery (Sullivan v. Hanover Cordage Co.) .......................... 142, 143
Employment of children—certificate of age—violation of statute—persons liable (People v. Taylor) .................. 143, 144
Hours of labor of employees on railroads—regulation of commerce—state and federal statutes—constitutionality (State v. Missouri Pacific Ry. Co.) ................................. 144-146
Hours of labor of employees on railroads—regulation of commerce—state and federal statutes—validity (State v. Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Ry. Co.) ................................. 146-150
Hours of labor on public works—eight-hour law—constitutionality of statute (People ex rel. Williams Engineering and Contracting Co. v. Metz) ........................................ 150-155
Interference with employment—damages for procuring discharge—measure—grounds—rights of labor organizations (Carter v. Oster et al.) .................................................... 155-161
Labor organizations—boycotts—use of mails to defraud (United States v. Raish et al.) ................................. 161-163

Decisions under common law ............................................................. 163-186
Contract of employment—enforcement—restraint of trade—disclosure of secret processes (Taylor Iron and Steel Co. v. Nichole et al.)... 163-167
Employers' liability—course of employment—eating lunch on premises (Riley v. Cudahy Packing Co.) .................. 167, 168
Employers' liability—course of employment—leaving place of work for personal ends (Wilson v. Chesapeake and Ohio Ry. Co.) ...... 168, 169
Employers' liability—railroad companies—negligence—contributory negligence—proximate cause (Dortch v. Atlantic Coast Line R. R. Co.) .................................................. 169-171
Employers' liability—res ipsa loquitur—application of doctrine (La Bee v. Sultan Logging Co.) ................................. 171-173
Labor organizations—procuring expulsion of members—conspiracy—liability of one party only—damages (St. Louis Southwestern Ry. Co. v. Thompson) .................. 176-180
Labor organizations—strikes—legality—fines on members—intimidation of employees—employers' rights—injunction (L. D. Wilcutt and Sons Co. v. Bricklayers' Benevolent and Protective Union No. 3 et al.) 180-186

Laws of various States relating to labor, enacted since January 1, 1908 .... 187-194
CONTENTS OF VOLUME XVIII.

No. 81.—MARCH, 1909.

Wholesale prices, 1890 to 1908: Page.
Introduction............................................................................................................ 195,196
Prices of commodities, 1908 compared with 1907........................................... 196-204
Prices of commodities, 1908 compared with previous years back to 1890. 204-210
Prices of commodities, by months, January, 1904, to December, 1908... 211-216
Influences affecting prices.......................................................... 216,217
Explanation of tables ........................................................................ 217-248
Table I.—Wholesale prices of commodities in 1908....................................... 249-299
Table II.—Monthly actual and relative prices of commodities in 1908 and base prices (average for 1890-1899)................................................................  300-324
Table III.—Monthly relative prices of commodities in 1908..................... 325-337
Table IV.—Average yearly actual and relative prices of commodities, 1890 to 1908, and base prices (average for 1890-1899). ................................. 338-364
Table V.—Yearly relative prices of commodities, 1890 to 1908........... 365-382

Digest of recent reports of state bureaus of labor statistics:
Kansas—
Twenty-second Annual Report, 1906: Wage-earners—Labor organizations—Stikes and labor difficulties—Manufactures .......................... 383,384
Twenty-third Annual Report, 1907: Wage-earners—Labor organizations—Stikes and labor difficulties—Manufactures .......................... 384,385
Twenty-fourth Annual Report, 1908: Wage-earners—Labor organizations—Stikes and labor difficulties—Manufactures .......................... 385,386
Massachusetts—
Thirty-eight Annual Report on the Statistics of Labor, 1907: Strikes and lockouts for the year ending September 30, 1906—Stikes and lockouts for the year ending September 30, 1907—Statistics of manufactures, 1905 and 1906—Free employment offices—Rates of wages and hours of labor.......................................................... 386-393
Twenty-second Annual Report on the Statistics of Manufactures, 1907 393-395
Nebraska—Tenth Biennial Report, 1905 and 1906............................................ 395
North Dakota—Eighth and Ninth Biennial Reports, 1906: Farm labor—
Coal mines...........................................................................................................  395,396
Pennsylvania—Annual Report of the Secretary of Internal Affairs, Part III, Industrial Statistic, 1907: Industrial accidents—General statistics of manufactures and mining—Iron, steel, and tin-plate production—
Coal mining—Textile industries .................................................. 396-400

Digest of recent foreign statistical publications:
Belgium: Monographs on the ceramic industries, the manufacture of glass, the india-rubber and asbestos industries, and the construction of machinery and electrical apparatus.......................................................... 401-403
France: Report on the material and social conditions surrounding home work in the making of undergarments and household linen in the city of Paris.......................................................... 403,404

Decisions of courts affecting labor:
Decisions under statute law.................................................. 405-424
Assignment of wages—future earnings—constitutionality of statute
(Mutual Loan Co. v. Martell).................................................. 405,406 Conspiracy—common law—effect of statues—elements of offense—interference with employment—fines of employers—extortion—recovery (State v. Dalton).................................................. 406-410

2313—NO. 82—09—16
VI CONTENTS OF VOLUME XVIII.

Decisions of courts affecting labor—Concluded.

Decisions under statute law—Concluded.

Employers' liability—railroad companies—acceptance of relief benefits—waiver—effect of statute (Goldenstein v. Baltimore and Ohio R. R. Co.)................................................................. 410-415

Employers' liability—“railroad hazards”—construction of statute (American Car and Foundry Co. v. Inzer)................................................................. 415

Employment of children—newspapers as merchandise—constitutionality of statute (District of Columbia v. Reider)....................................................... 416,417

Employment of labor—breach of contract by employee—recovery of wages earned (Latham v. Warwick).......................................................... 418

Mine regulations—sale of powder—commerce (Ex parte Williams)... 418,419

Payment of wages—weighing coal before screening—freedom of contract—equal protection of laws—constitutionality of statute (McLean v. State)................................................................. 419-424

Decisions under common law................................................................. 424-449

Contracts for exclusive redemption of wage checks—restraint of trade—monopoly—enforcement of contract (Stewart et al. v. Stearns & Culver Lumber Co.) 424-427

Employers' liability—excessive damages—incompetence of employees (Smith v. Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis Ry. Co.)....................................................... 427-429

Employers' liability—release—reliance on advice of company surgeon—fraud—evidence (St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern Ry. Co. v. Hambright)................................................................. 429-432

Employers' liability—safe place to work—sufficient discharge of employer’s duty—acts of service (Brown v. People's Gaslight Co.)... 432-434

Laws of various States relating to labor, enacted since January 1, 1908 ...... 450-469

No. 82.—MAY, 1909.

Mortality from consumption in occupations exposing to municipal and general organic dust, by Frederick L. Hoffman:

Introduction................................................................. 471-475

Occupations with exposure to municipal dust............................................. 475-497

Street cleaning and refuse disposal............................................................. 475-481

Drivers and teamsters.................................................................................... 481-487

Coachmen, cabmen, and men employed in omnibus service.................... 488-490

Subway employees......................................................................................... 490-495

Summary of conclusions regarding occupations with exposure to municipal dust................................................................. 495-497

Occupations with exposure to general organic dust........................................ 498-627

Grain handling and storage........................................................................ 498-503

Flour milling................................................................................................... 503-518

Bakers and confectioners.............................................................................. 518-537

Starch manufacture....................................................................................... 537-541

The tobacco industry.................................................................................... 541-545

The manufacture of cigars and cigarettes.................................................... 545-571

The manufacture of snuff............................................................................. 571-574
CONTENTS OF VOLUME XVIII. VII

Mortality from consumption, etc.—Concluded.

Occupations with exposure to general organic dust—Concluded. Page.

Leather workers................................................................. 574-580
Tanners, curriers, and beamers............................................ 580-584
Saddle and harness makers............................................... 584-587
Glove making........................................................................ 588-592
Boot and shoe makers....................................................... 592-603
Cork cutting and grinding.................................................. 603-606
Manufacture of pearl and bone buttons.............................. 606-615
Comb manufacture............................................................. 615-623
Summary of conclusions regarding occupations with exposure to organic dust.................................................. 623-627

Appendix (23 tables).................................................................. 628-638

Digest of recent reports of state bureaus of labor statistics:
Maine—Twenty-second Annual Report, 1908: Factories, mills, and shops built—Child labor............................................. 639,640
Maryland—Seventeenth Annual Report, 1908: Child labor—Free employment agency—Cost of living—Strikes and lockouts—In labor circles—Unemployment—Immigration........................................ 640-642
North Dakota—Tenth Biennial Report, 1908: Farm labor—Coal mines.. 646,647
Oregon—Third Biennial Report, 1907-8: Labor organizations—Strikes and lockouts—Industries—Accidents........................................ 647
Rhode Island—Twenty-first Annual Report, 1908: Strikes and lockouts—Manufactures..................................................... 647,648

Digest of recent foreign statistical publications:
Canada: Wage-earners, by occupations................................... 649-651
Italy:
Report of the Bureau of Labor on night work in bakeries........ 651-656
Supplementary report of the Bureau of Labor on abolition of night work in bakeries................................................ 656,657
New South Wales: First Annual Report of the Director of Labor, 1906... 657-659
Roumania: Economic progress of the Kingdom during the reign of Charles I, 1866 to 1906.................................................... 659-661

Decisions of courts affecting labor:
Decisions under statute law.................................................. 662-671
Employers' liability—"railroad hazards"—construction of statutes (American Car and Foundry Co. v. Inzer)........................................ 664,665
Examination and licensing of barbers—constitutionality of statute—delegation of powers—equal protection of laws (State v. Armeno).................................................. 665-668
Examination and licensing of barbers—constitutionality of statute—mechanical pursuits (Jackson v. State).................................................. 668-670
Decisions of courts affecting labor—Concluded.

Decisions under common law................................................................. 671-684

Employers’ liability—dangerous instrumentalities—degree of care—extraordinary occurrences—“act of God”—negligence—presumptions as to contributory negligence—assumption of risk (Brown v.
West Riverside Coal Co.)................................................................. 671-675

Employers’ liability—i njuries caused by third persons—liability between themselves of joint wrongdoers—release by parents for i njuries to minor (Galveston, Harrisburg, and San Antonio Ry. Co.
v. Pigott)........................................................................................................ 675-679

Interference with employment—trade competition—unjustifiable acts—motive (Tuttle v. Buck)............................................................. 679-682

Labor organizations—suspension of members—interference with employment—conspiracy—damages (Campbell et al. v. Johnson)..... 682-684

Laws of various States relating to labor, enacted since January 1, 1908..... 685

Cumulative index of labor laws and decisions relating thereto.............. 687, 688

Index to volume 18.................................................................................. 689-695