LABOR MONTHLY REVIEW

OF THE

U. S. BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS

VOLUME IV—JANUARY TO JUNE, 1917

WASHINGTON
GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE
1917
CONTENTS OF VOLUME IV.

No. 1.—JANUARY, 1917.

Convention proceedings of the American Federation of Labor.......................................................... 5-10
American Uniform Boiler Code Conference.......................................................... 10, 11
Industrial conciliation and antistrike legislation relating to public utilities in various countries............................................. 11-19
Conference on labor disputes and public service corporations................. 19-25
Occupational accidents resulting in death in Washington, D. C., January 1 to November 25, 1916.................................................. 9
25, 26
Conciliation work of the Department of Labor.................................................. 27
Federal employment work of the Department of Labor, October and November, 1916.................................................. 27-30
Work of State and municipal employment offices in the United States and of provincial employment bureaus in Canada.................................................. 30-34
Employment in selected industries, November, 1916............................................. 34-38
Employment in the State of New York in November, 1916............................................. 38, 39
Strikes and lockouts, January to November, 1916.................................................. 39-43
The Hart, Schaffner & Marx labor agreement.................................................. 43-45
Proposed reclassification of civil service employments in New York State.................................................. 45-47
Retail prices of food in the United States, October and November, 1916.................................................. 47-51
Increase of prices of commodities in Great Britain.................................................. 51-55
Food of munition workers in Great Britain.................................................. 55-56
South Carolina's bureau of marketing, by John G. Herndon, jr.................................................. 58-63
Vocational training of girls in New York.................................................. 63-66
Vocational guidance in Germany and Great Britain.................................................. 66-75
Maternal mortality in connection with childbirth.................................................. 75-84
Death rates and average age at death among members of certain trade-union benefit funds.................................................. 84-91
Diseases of occupation and vocational hygiene.................................................. 92-94
Work of the joint board of sanitary control, New York City.................................................. 94-97
A nonpoisonous dope for airplanes.................................................. 97, 98
Anthrax in New York State.................................................. 98-102
Miner's phthisis on the Witwatersrand, Transvaal.................................................. 102-105
Elementary first aid for the miner.................................................. 106, 107
Workmen's organizations in local antituberculosis campaigns.................................................. 107-111
Recent reports relating to workmen's compensation and accident insurance:
Illinois.................................................. 112-115
Iowa.................................................. 115-119
Pennsylvania.................................................. 119, 120
Rhode Island.................................................. 120-122
Massachusetts Homestead Commission.................................................. 122-127
Some recent housing literature.................................................. 127-130

9025°—17—16

203944
IV CONTENTS OF VOLUME IV.

Industrial housing at the twelfth annual convention of the American Civic Association ............................................. 130–133
Social insurance in Germany: Statistics of operation, 1914 .............................................................. 133–135

Employment conditions in foreign countries:
- Canada ........................................................................................................ 136, 137
- France ..................................................................................................... 137, 138
- Germany .................................................................................................. 138–146
- Great Britain ............................................................................................ 146, 147
- Netherlands ............................................................................................. 148
- Norway .................................................................................................... 148, 149
- Sweden .................................................................................................... 149

Washing facilities and baths for munition workers in Great Britain ............................................. 150, 151

Eight-hour law in Ecuador ................................................................................. 151, 152

Proposed creation of public State subsidized employment offices in Italy .................. 152–155

Immigration in October, 1916 ............................................................................. 155, 156

Official publications relating to labor:
- United States .......................................................................................... 156–164
- Foreign countries ..................................................................................... 164–171

Recent unofficial publications relating to labor ..................................................... 171–176

NO. 2—FEBRUARY, 1917.

Industrial poisons used in the making of explosives, by Dr. Alice Hamilton ................. 177–198

International relations of labor during the war ..................................................... 199–206

Compulsory health insurance and noncontributory old-age pensions recommended by Gov. McCall of Massachusetts ................................................................... 206–208

Power of State industrial commission to issue orders sustained by Wisconsin Supreme Court ..................................................................................................................... 208, 209

Conciliation work of the Department of Labor ......................................................... 210

Federal employment work of the Department of Labor, November and December, 1916 ............................................................................................................ 210–212

Work of State and municipal employment offices in the United States, and of provincial employment bureaus in Canada ........................................................................................................ 213–218

Employment in selected industries in December, 1916 .............................................. 218–224

Employment in the State of New York in December, 1916 ......................................... 224–227

Employment and wages in Ohio in 1915 ..................................................................... 227–230

Increases in wages in November and December, 1916 .............................................. 231–235

 Strikes and lockouts, January to December, 1916 ...................................................... 236–239

Laws of various countries for the adjustment of disputes between railroads and their employees ................................................................................................................ 239, 240

Retail prices of food in the United States, November and December, 1916 ............. 240–243

Retail prices in foreign countries:
- Austria ...................................................................................................... 244, 245
- Canada .................................................................................................... 245, 246
- France ..................................................................................................... 246
- Germany .................................................................................................. 247
- Great Britain ............................................................................................ 247, 248
- Italy .......................................................................................................... 249
- Netherlands ............................................................................................. 249, 250
- Scandinavian countries ........................................................................... 250, 251

Effect of the minimum wage in retail stores in Massachusetts ..................................... 251–256

Behind the scenes in a restaurant—the state of women restaurant employees .......... 256–261
CONTENTS OF VOLUME IV.

Recent reports relating to workmen's compensation and accident insurance:
- Massachusetts ................................................................. 261
- Nevada .............................................................................. 262-264
- Ohio ................................................................................. 264-266
- Texas ................................................................................ 266, 267

Conference of industrial physicians in Pennsylvania .......................... 267-272

Industrial hygiene at the Cincinnati meeting of the American Public Health Association, October 24-27, 1916 ............................................... 272-290

Gasoline engine exhaust-gas poisoning, by Dr. R. P. Albaugh, acting director, division of industrial hygiene, Ohio State Department of Health. 272-275

Dangers connected with the spray method of finishing and decorating, by Dr. R. P. Albaugh ........................................................................ 275-277

Munition-plant poisons (digest of paper by Archie Rice) ..................... 277-279

Modern chemical industries and public health (digest of paper by Dr.
Francis E. Pronczak) ................................................................. 279, 280 Cases of fatal poisoning by gases and fumes (digest of paper by Dr. Thomas

F. Harrington) ............................................................................ 280-283

Effect of atmospheric conditions upon fatigue and efficiency, by C.-E. A.
Winslow, professor of public health, Yale Medical School, and chairman,
New York City Commission on Ventilation .................................. 283-290

Dock employment in New York City ............................................... 290-294

British system of labor exchanges .................................................. 295, 296

Cost of living and the minimum wage in New South Wales ................. 296-299

Labor conditions in Hawaii .......................................................... 300

Immigration in November, 1916 .................................................... 301, 302

Official publications relating to labor:
- United States ........................................................................... 302-305
- Foreign countries ........................................................................ 305-309

Unofficial publications relating to labor .............................................. 309-314

List of employers who have reported the establishment of some form of welfare work ............................................................................................. 315-334

NO. 3.—MARCH, 1917.

Women in industry in Great Britain during the war ............................... 335-346

Extension of employment of women in Great Britain in 1916 .................. 347, 348

Conditions of wage-earning women and girls in Connecticut............... 348-352

Domestic service: Its advantages and drawbacks as a wage-earning occupation ............................................................................................. 352-358

Employment of women and boys in munition works in Italy ................. 358-360

Compulsory arbitration in munitions industry in France ......................... 360-365

Conciliation work of the Department of Labor ..................................... 365

New agreement in the dress and waist industry, New York City ............. 366-368

Federal employment work of the Department of Labor for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1916 .................................................................... 369-371

Work of State and municipal employment offices in the United States, and of provincial employment bureaus in Canada ...................................... 371-376

Public employment offices in Hungarian cities ...................................... 377

Employment in selected industries in January, 1917 ......................... 377-382

Employment in the State of New York in January, 1917 ....................... 382-384

Profit sharing in the United States ................................................... 384, 385

Retail prices of food in the United States .......................................... 385-390

Government control of food supplies in European countries ............... 390-407
Recent reports relating to workmen's compensation and accident insurance:

California.................................................. 407-410
Illinois.......................................................... 411, 412
Massachusetts.............................................. 412-417
New York...................................................... 417-421
Utah.............................................................. 421-424
Vermont......................................................... 424, 425
Report of the Massachusetts special recess commission on social insurance........................................ 426-430
Aged and dependent persons in Massachusetts.......................................................... 430-433
Accidents at metallurgical works in the United States during 1915........................................ 433, 434
Safety work of the New Jersey Department of Labor....................................................... 434, 435
Fifth Annual Safety Congress of the National Safety Council, Detroit, October 17-20, 1916........................................ 436-439
Preventive medicine and surgery, a new field of industrial hygiene.......................... 439-442
Medical supervision of factory employees................................................................. 442-445
Medical supervision of street-railway employees.............................................. 445, 446
The hospital and industrial hygiene........................................................................ 447
Relation of the public-health service to problems of industrial hygiene...................... 448, 449
Scientific management—its relations to labor welfare and why labor opposes it........... 449-453
Safe limit of carbon dioxide in the working atmosphere............................................. 453-455
State regulation of employment on public work, by Lindley D. Clark.................. 455-467
Vocational education survey of Minneapolis, Minn................................................... 467-469
Vocational education survey of Indianapolis, Evansville, and Jefferson County, Ind........................................ 469-476
Labor conditions in the State of Washington.......................................................... 476-479
Labor in Great Britain after the war.............................................................. 479, 480
Chinese labor in France............................................................................................ 480, 481
Immigration in December, 1916................................................................................. 481, 482
Immigration during the year ending June 30, 1916.................................................. 482-486
New law to regulate the immigration of aliens....................................................... 487, 488
Official publications relating to labor:
United States.................................................. 488-491
Foreign countries.................................................. 491-493
Unofficial publications relating to labor.............................................................. 493-496

Compulsory health insurance proposed by Social Insurance Commission of California.................................................. 497-507
Commission to study health and old-age insurance in Ohio........................................ 507, 508
Social insurance and the American Medical Association........................................ 509-512
Some objections to compulsory health insurance..................................................... 512-518
Experience of a typical establishment benefit fund.................................................. 518-520
Industrial unrest in Great Britain............................................................ 520-525
Government control of food supplies in France...................................................... 525-533
Government control of coal mines in Great Britain............................................... 533, 534
Effect of the war on the coal-mining industry in Great Britain.................................. 534, 535
Establishment by the British Government of a new department for the encouragement of scientific and industrial research........................................ 535, 536
Anthrax as an occupational disease..................................................................... 536-538
Effect of industrial conditions upon the eyesight of munition workers in Great Britain.................................................. 538-540
CONTENTS OF VOLUME IV.

Recent reports relating to workmen's compensation and accident insurance:
- Massachusetts: 541-543
- Washington: 543-548

Workmen's compensation cases in the United States Supreme Court: 549-552

Insurance monopoly for the Ohio Workmen's Compensation Fund: 552-554

Workmen's compensation in the United States and foreign countries: 554-556

Workmen's compensation law of Chile: 556, 557

Administration of labor laws in the Pacific States: 557-560

Operation of the minimum-wage law in the State of Washington: 560-569

Opportunities for women in domestic science: 570-572

Prizes for essays on social insurance and child labor: 573, 574

Employment problems in industry: 574-581

Federal aid for the promotion of vocational education: 581-583

Retail prices of food in the United States: 583, 584

Union wage scales and retail prices of food: 584, 585

Wholesale prices, 1890 to 1916: 585, 586

Wholesale prices in Great Britain: 586-588

Coal production, distribution, and consumption in the United States, 1915 and 1916: 588-590

Convict labor for road work: 591-595

New legal regulation of the labor contract in Austria: 596-600

 Strikes and lockouts in the United States, 1916: 600-615

Employment in selected industries in February, 1917: 616-619

Employment in the State of New York in February, 1917: 620, 621

Work of State and municipal employment offices in the United States and of provincial employment bureaus in Canada:

Federal employment work of the Department of Labor, December, 1916, and January, 1917:

Conciliation work of the Department of Labor:

Immigration in January, 1917:

Official publications relating to labor:
- United States:
- Foreign countries:

Unofficial publications relating to labor:

NO. 5.—MAY, 1917.

Protection of labor standards: 647-661

Migration of women's labor through the employment exchanges of Great Britain: 661-664

Juvenile employment committees of Great Britain: 664-667

Minimum wage in Massachusetts: 667-673

Brief of defendants in the Oregon minimum-wage case: 673-677

Recent Supreme Court decisions and the labor contract, by Lindley D. Clark: 677-697

Canadian Industrial Disputes Investigation Act in operation: 697-701

Retail prices of food in the United States: 701-703

Government control of food supplies in Germany: 703-727

Government control of food supplies in Italy: 727-744

Workmen's compensation legislation of 1917: New Mexico: 744-746

Some aspects of health insurance: 746-751

Opposition to health insurance: 751-754

Facts and fallacies of compulsory health insurance: 754-759

Proposed old-age pension and health insurance legislation in Massachusetts: 759-761

Modern insurance problems: 761-767
CONTENTS OF VOLUME IV.

| Page. |
|-----------------|-----------------|
| 767-769 | Labor sanitation conference, New York City |
| 770-771 | New ministries in the British cabinet |
| 772-779 | Truancy and irregular school attendance in Chicago |
| 779-782 | Employment in selected industries in March, 1917 |
| 782-784 | Employment in the State of New York in March, 1917 |
| 784-790 | Work of State and municipal employment offices in the United States and of provincial employment bureaus in Canada |
| 790-792 | Federal employment work of the Department of Labor, January and February, 1917 |
| 792, 793 | Conciliation work of the Department of Labor |
| 793-795 | Immigration in February, 1917 |
| 802-805 | Unofficial publications relating to labor |

NO. 6.—JUNE, 1917.

| Page. |
|-----------------|-----------------|
| 807-809 | Maintenance of existing labor standards |
| 810-827 | Labor in war time in Great Britain |
| 828-834 | Labor conditions in Canada as affected by the war |
| 835-841 | Restricted employment in specified occupations in Great Britain |
| 841-848 | Output in relation to hours of labor |
| 848-851 | Training for wage earners injured in industrial accidents in Massachusetts |
| 851-867 | What France is doing for her disabled soldiers and sailors |
| 867-874 | Vocational training for disabled soldiers in Canada |
| 874-876 | Pensions and money allowances to members of Canadian expeditionary forces since beginning of war |
| 876, 877 | Hours, fatigue, and health in British munition factories |
| 878, 879 | Employment of women and juveniles in Great Britain during the war |
| 879-882 | Extension of employment of women in Great Britain |
| 883, 884 | Welfare work in British munition factories |
| 884-888 | Juvenile education in Great Britain |
| 888-890 | Relaxation of school-attendance laws in Great Britain |
| 890-900 | Employment managers’ conference at Philadelphia |
| 900-902 | Employment and child labor in California |
| 903, 904 | Administration of child labor laws of New York |
| 905-907 | One day’s rest in seven for hotel and restaurant employees in Massachusetts |
| 907, 908 | Unemployment benefits in Italy |
| 909-911 | Establishment of a Government service for unemployment insurance and public employment in Holland |
| 911, 912 | Labor injunctions in Massachusetts |
| 912 | Extension of application of Canadian Industrial Disputes Investigation Act, 1907 |
| 915-921 | Government control of food supplies in France |
| 921-923 | Government control of food supplies in Germany |
| 928-945 | Government control of food supplies in Great Britain |
| 945-949 | High cost of living bonus in Germany |
| 949-952 | Retail prices of anthracite coal—report of Federal Trade Commission |
| 952-954 | Retail prices of food in the United States |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Retail prices of bread in the District of Columbia</td>
<td>954-957</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Supply of food in the District of Columbia</td>
<td>957-959</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cost of living in Massachusetts</td>
<td>959, 960</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Retail prices of food in foreign countries:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Australia</td>
<td>961</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Austria</td>
<td>961, 962</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Canada</td>
<td>962</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Chile</td>
<td>963</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>France</td>
<td>963, 964</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Germany</td>
<td>964</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Great Britain</td>
<td>964, 965</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Italy</td>
<td>965, 966</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Netherlands</td>
<td>966, 967</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Scandinavian countries</td>
<td>967-972</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Switzerland</td>
<td>972, 973</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Workmen's compensation legislation of 1917—Delaware and Utah</td>
<td>973-976</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Metal-mine accidents in the United States during 1915</td>
<td>976-979</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fatal accidents due to falls, in New York State</td>
<td>979, 980</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Safety bulletin service of the National Safety Council</td>
<td>980-983</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Anthracite coal agreement increases wages</td>
<td>983, 984</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bituminous coal agreement increases wages</td>
<td>984, 985</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Maternal mortality—a field for conservation</td>
<td>985-987</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Child mortality in England and Wales</td>
<td>988, 989</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Causes of death by occupation</td>
<td>989-991</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>United States Boys' Working Reserve</td>
<td>991-993</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>War employment work of the United States Department of Labor</td>
<td>993, 994</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>War employment work in Ohio</td>
<td>995-1002</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Plans for mobilization of female labor in time of war</td>
<td>1002-1004</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Employment in selected industries in April, 1917</td>
<td>1004-1008</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Employment in the State of New York in April, 1917</td>
<td>1008-1010</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Work of State and municipal employment offices in the United States and of provincial employment bureaus in Canada</td>
<td>1010-1016</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Federal employment work of the Department of Labor, February and March, 1917</td>
<td>1016-1018</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conciliation work of the Department of Labor</td>
<td>1018-1021</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Immigration in March, 1917</td>
<td>1021, 1022</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Official publications relating to labor:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>United States</td>
<td>1022-1031</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Foreign countries</td>
<td>1031-1035</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Unofficial publications relating to labor</td>
<td>1035-1039</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
INDEX TO VOLUME IV.

A.

Accident insurance:
Experience of a typical benefit II (F. C. Huyck & Sons, Albany, N. Y.) .................................................. 518-520
Germany, statistics of, 1885-1914 ........................................................................................................ 134
Italy. Report of commission charged with the study of reforms in workmen's accident insurance law, 1916 .................................................. 307
Recent reports relating to workmen's compensation and accident prevention ........................................ 112-122

Accidents:
Canada. Report of Department of Labor, year ending March 31, 1916 .................................................. 166
Coal mines, Colorado, 1916, State inspector of coal mines .................................................................. 1022
Kansas, July 1, 1914, to December 31, 1915 .................................................................................. 1024
United States, 1913 and 1916 ........................................................................................................ 360
Colorado. Coal mines, 1915 ........................................................................................................ 107
District of Columbia. Occupational accidents resulting in death, January 1 to November 25, 1916 .................................................. 22, 26
Fatal, due to falls in building work, New York .................................................................................. 979, 980, 1027
Great Britain. Form prescribed for notice of accident occurrence to be sent immediately to inspector of factories. Factory and workshop acts, 1910-1916 .................................................. 492
Pennsylvania. Bulletins (monthly), September, November, and December, 1916, department of labor statistics, 1916 .................................................. 414, 415
Indiana. Annual reports for the two years ending September 30, 1915. Department of mines and mining ........................................................................................................ 158
Kansas City (Mo.). Report of investigation of 300 industrial accidents in Kansas City .................. 634, 635
Massachusetts. Third annual report, year ending June 30, 1915, industrial accident board .................................................. 413-416
Metallurgical works, 1915, Bureau of Mines (United States) .................................................................. 433, 434
Metal mines in the United States during 1915 .................................................................................. 976-979
Michigan. Third annual report of inspector of mines, year ending September 30, 1916 .................................................. 161
Montana. Mines, 1915 ........................................................................................................ 1026
Pennsylvania. Bulletins (monthly), September, November, and December, 1916, department of labor and industry ........................................................................................................ 119, 120, 636
Coal mines, anthracite, 1915 ........................................................................................................ 1028
Physical examination as a factor in the prevention of accidents .................................................. 270-272
Quarries, in the United States during 1915. Bureau of Mines (United States) .................................................. 490
Rhode Island. Twenty-ninth annual report of commissioner of industrial statistics .......................... 120-122
Sweden. Report on, for 1913 ........................................................................................................ 641, 642
Training for wage earners injured in industrial accidents. Massachusetts ........................................................................................................ 848-851, 1025
Vermont. Report of factory inspector for the 2-month period ending August 31, 1916, 424, 425, 490
Year ending September 30, 1912, to year ending September 30, 1916 .................................................. 547, 548
And accident insurance. (See also Workmen's compensation.)
Aged and dependent persons in Massachusetts, report of a special inquiry relative to, 1913 .................................................. 430-433, 488
Bureau of Statistics .................................................. 430-433, 488
Agreements between employers and employees:
Anthracite coal agreement increases wages .......................................................................................... 983, 984
Bituminous coal agreement increases wages .......................................................................................... 984, 985
Collective agreements in Germany in 1914 .......................................................................................... 143, 144
Dress and waist industry (New York City), new agreement, January 9, 1917 .................................................. 366-368
Hart, Schaffner & Marx, labor agreement, May 1, 1916 .................................................................. 43-45
Agricultural conditions, Germany, during the war ........................................................................... 704, 705
Agricultural labor:
Boys' working reserve in the United States .................................................................................. 991-993
Sweden. Report for 1915 ........................................................................................................ 641
Agriculture:
Facts and recommendations regarding, resulting from vocational education survey of Jefferson County, Ind ........................................................................................................ 474-476

XI
Cost of living:

- American Federation of Labor, attitude on, thirty-sixth annual convention........................................... 8
- As a cause of industrial unrest, Great Britain, 1915................................................................. 520-521
- Germany, high cost of living bonus in............................................................................................... 945-949
- Minimum wages law, Germany, 1913 .................................................................................................. 296-299
- Cost of living, compensation of labor, account of meeting of, April 2, 1917 ........................................ 648-655
- Court decisions. (See Decisions of courts.)

D.

- Death rates:
  - And average age at death among members of certain trade-union benefit funds......................... 84-91
  - (See Mortality statistics.)

- Decisions of courts:
  - Labor contract and recent Supreme Court decisions (1917)................................................................. 677-697
  - Wisconsin Supreme Court, on power of State industrial commission to fix the hours of labor of women. 208, 209
  - Workmen's compensation statute, decisions of United States Supreme Court regarding, in New York, Washington, and Iowa................................................................. 549-552

- Denmark:
  - Bulletins of the statistical department, Vol. VIII, No. 18 (Nov. 25, 1916), and Nos. 1, 2, and 3 (1917)................................................................. 506-709
  - Conciliation and antistrike legislation relating to public utilities............................................................ 15, 16
  - Factory inspection service, report of, for 1915.................................................................................. 799
  - Reports of the Accidents Insurance Office for 1915........................................................................... 799
  - Statistical yearbook, 1916.................................................................................................................. 799
  - Unemployment insurance, legislation of, 1915............................................................................... 160, 161
  - Unemployment insurance funds, official reports on, April 1, 1915, to March 31, 1916.................... 798-799

- Department of Agriculture:
  - Cooperative stores in the United States, survey of, Office of Markets and Rural Organization........... 163
  - Marketing activities throughout the United States, summary of, Office of Markets and Rural Organizations................................................................. 163

- Department of Commerce:
  - Annual reports for 1916, of Secretary and of bureaus........................................................................ 637

- Department of Labor (United States):
  - Annual report of Secretary and reports of bureaus, fiscal year ending June 30, 1916....................... 798
  - Conciliation work, November, 1916, to May, 1917.......................................................................... 27, 210, 365, 369, 630, 792, 795, 1015-1021
  - Employment work. 27-30, 216-219, 369-371, 627-629, 792, 795-792, 1016-1018
  - Report relative to section 10 of the act creating the department, Document No. 1906, Sixty-seventh Congress, second session, Washington, 1917................................................................. 636, 637

- Department of the Interior:
  - War-time employment work of........................................................................................................ 903, 994

- Disability Insurance, article on, in Annals of American Academy of Political and Social Science for March, 1917..................................................................................................................... 776

- District of Columbia:
  - Accidents, occupational, resulting in death, January 1 to November 25, 1916.................................... 25, 26
  - Food supply in................................................................................................................................. 957-959, 1023
  - Insurance, superintendent of, annual report, 1916......................................................................... 157
  - Retail price of bread in.................................................................................................................... 954-957
  - Domestic science, opportunities for women in.................................................................................. 570-572
  - Domestic service, advantages and drawbacks as a wage-earning occupation................................... 352-358
  - Dyes and dyes, for airplanes, Office of Markets and Rural Organization........................................... 97, 98
  - Dress and waist industry, New York City, new agreement in, January 9, 1917............................... 366-368

- Dusts:
  - Miners' phthisis, due to inhalation of, methods of preventing. Transvaal........................................ 104, 105
  - Poisons and irritants originating in, New York City. Department of health, division of industrial hygiene................................................................. 1024, 1028

- Ecuador, eight-hour law in................................................................................................................. 151, 152

- Education, attitude of American Federation of Labor regarding public schools.................................. 9

- Efficiency, fatigue and, effect of atmospheric conditions on.................................................................... 283-290

- Eight-hour day:
  - Attitude of American Federation of Labor on.................................................................................... 8
  - Decision of Supreme Court on Adamson eight-hour law.................................................................. 678-682
  - Ecuador, eight-hour law.................................................................................................................. 151, 152
  - For employees of carriers engaged in interstate commerce. House Committee on Interstate Commerce, report No. 1184 to accompany H. R. 17700, September 1, 1916............................................... 305

- Emigration, Spain, transoceanic, 1911-1915....................................................................................... 801

- Employment:
  - Boys' working reserve in the United States....................................................................................... 991-993
  - Child labor and, in California............................................................................................................. 906-902
  - Convicts on road work, Bulletin No. 414, United States Department of Agriculture......................... 991-993

- Foreign countries, conditions in......................................................................................................... 136-149

- New York State, November, 1916, to April, 1917............................................................................. 38, 39, 224-227, 382-384, 620, 621, 702, 784, 1005-1010

- Ohio, 1915........................................................................................................................................... 227-229

- Porto Rico, report of governor, year ended June 30, 1916................................................................... 905-1002

- Problems of, in industry, discussed at employment managers' conference, February, 1917.............. 574-581

- Report of the investigation of, in Great Britain.................................................................................. 835-841

- Restrictions on leaving, decisions of courts regarding......................................................................... 688-690

- State registration of, on public work, laws and cases relating to....................................................... 455-467

- Women and boys, in munitions works. Italy.......................................................................................... 358-360

- Women after the war, Great Britain.................................................................................................... 345-346

- Women, extension of employment of, in 1916, Great Britain............................................................... 347, 348

- Great Britain...................................................................................................................................... 879-882

- to replace men, during the war, Great Britain................................................................................... 335-346

E.

- Ecuador, eight-hour law in................................................................................................................. 151, 152

- Education, attitude of American Federation of Labor regarding public schools.............................. 9

- Efficiency, fatigue and, effect of atmospheric conditions on.................................................................... 283-290

- Eight-hour day:
  - Attitude of American Federation of Labor on.................................................................................... 8
  - Decision of Supreme Court on Adamson eight-hour law.................................................................. 678-682
  - Ecuador, eight-hour law.................................................................................................................. 151, 152
  - For employees of carriers engaged in interstate commerce. House Committee on Interstate Commerce, report No. 1184 to accompany H. R. 17700, September 1, 1916............................................... 305

- Emigration, Spain, transoceanic, 1911-1915....................................................................................... 801

- Employment:
  - Boys' working reserve in the United States....................................................................................... 991-993
  - Child labor and, in California............................................................................................................. 906-902
  - Convicts on road work, Bulletin No. 414, United States Department of Agriculture......................... 991-993

- Foreign countries, conditions in......................................................................................................... 136-149

- New York State, November, 1916, to April, 1917............................................................................. 38, 39, 224-227, 382-384, 620, 621, 702, 784, 1005-1010

- Ohio, 1915........................................................................................................................................... 227-229

- Porto Rico, report of governor, year ended June 30, 1916................................................................... 905-1002

- Problems of, in industry, discussed at employment managers' conference, February, 1917.............. 574-581

- Report of the investigation of, in Great Britain.................................................................................. 835-841

- Restrictions on leaving, decisions of courts regarding......................................................................... 688-690

- State registration of, on public work, laws and cases relating to....................................................... 455-467

- Women and boys, in munitions works. Italy.......................................................................................... 358-360

- Women after the war, Great Britain.................................................................................................... 345-346

- Women, extension of employment of, in 1916, Great Britain............................................................... 347, 348

- Great Britain...................................................................................................................................... 879-882

- to replace men, during the war, Great Britain................................................................................... 335-346
INDEX TO VOLUME IV. XV

Employment managers' conference:
Indianapolis, February, 1917.  574-581
Philadelphia, Pa.  890-900

Employment offices:
Connecticut.  Report of the bureau of labor, for two years ending November 30, 1916.  795
Denmark, reorganization of the bureau of unemployment exchanges of Denmark by act of April 29, 1913.  166, 167
Federal trades work of.  (See Department of Labor (United States), employment work.)  138-141
Germany, work of, 1915.  70, 71
Great Britain, juvenile labor exchanges as part of the national system of labor exchanges.  295, 296
Hungary, law requiring public employment offices in large cities, March 19, 1916.  577
Italy, proposed creation of public subsidized employment offices.  152-155
Los Angeles, third annual report of the public employment bureaus, year ending June 30, 1916.  158
Milwaukee, Citizens' committee on unemployment and the public employment bureau of, fifth annual report of, year ending October 31, 1916.  633, 634
State and municipal, work of, in the United States and Canada, November, 1916, to April, 1917.  1060-1016
Switzerland, statistics of, 1911-1915.  169-171
Virginia, second annual report of the public employment bureau of the city of Richmond, for the year ending December 31, 1916.  798
Women's labor, migration of, through.  Great Britain.  661-664

Employment work, Federal.  (See Department of Labor, United States.)
England, conciliation and antistrike legislation relating to public utilities.  16

European war:
Effect of, on coal-mining industry in Great Britain.  534, 535
Great Britain, labor conditions in Canada.  534
(See also Cost of living; Retail prices.)
Food control, governmental, as a result of, in France.  525-533, 915-921 in Germany.  390-407, 928-945 in Great Britain.  727-744
in Italy.  898-927
Labor in war time in Great Britain.  390-407, 928-945
Ohio, war-time work in.  995-1002
Pensions and money allowances to the Canadian expeditionary forces since the beginning of the war.  874-876
Pensions and money allowances to the Canadian expeditionary forces since the beginning of the war.  874-876
Vocational training for disabled soldiers in Canada.  867-874
What France is doing for her disabled soldiers and sailors.  831-837
Evacuation, vocational education, in France.  469, 476, 488
Explosives, poisons used in the making of.  177-178
Eye injuries in munitions industry, Great Britain.  538-540

F.
Factory employees, medical supervision of.  442-445
Factory inspection:
Connecticut, fifth biennial report of the department of factory inspection for 1915 and 1916.  1023
Minnesota, fifteenth biennial report of department of labor and industries, 1915, 1916.  1025, 1026
Queensland, report of director of labor and chief inspector of factories and shops, for year ended June 30, 1916.  308
South Australia, report of chief factory inspector for the year ended December 31, 1915.  309
South Carolina, eighth annual report of commissioner of agriculture, commerce, and industries, for the year ending December 31, 1916.  490
Vermont, report of factory inspector for the 21-month period ending August 31, 1916.  424, 425, 490

Family budgets:
Canada, weekly, 1910-1916.  246
1915.  Yearbook  306
France, 1911-1916.  246
Washington (State), report of bureau of labor statistics and factory inspection for 1915, 1916.  477, 478, 491

Farm labor.  (See Agricultural labor.)
Fatigue:
Efficiency and effect of atmospheric conditions on.  Paper read at Cincinnati meeting of the American Public Health Association, October 24-27, 1916.  283-290
Hours, health, and, in British munitions factories.  876, 877

Federal employees.  (See Government employees.)
Federal registration service, Census Bureau, review of history and development of.  106, 164

Federal Trade Commission:
News-print paper industry, letter of submittal concerning and report on, March 3, 1917.  798
Retail prices of anthracite coal, report on.  949-952

Federation of Labor, American, proceedings of, at thirty-sixth annual convention, Baltimore, Md., November 13-25, 1916.  5-10
Finland, industrial conditions, annual report on, 1915.  638
Florida, labor inspector, second and third annual reports of (January 1, 1915, to December 31, 1916).  632

Food:
Ministry of, Great Britain, recently established.  770
Munition workers in Great Britain.  Health of Munition Workers' Committee.  56, 57
Retail prices of.  (See Retail prices.)

Food control governmental:
France, during the war.  525-533, 915-921
Germany, during the war.  777-778, 921-928
Great Britain, registration and control of food supplies on account of the war.  390-407, 928-945
Italy, during the war.  727-744
Food supply in the District of Columbia.  867-869, 1025
France:

Antistrike legislation relating to public utilities .................................................. 16, 17
Chinese labor in, 1916 .................................................................................................. 489, 484

Employment conditions in, April 1, 1916 ................................................................. 137, 138

Food control, governmental, during the war .......................................................... 525-531, 915-920
Labor, departmental committees for discussion of problems relating to, 1915 . 637
Munitions industry, compulsory arbitration and minimum wage in, report and decree of minister of munitions, January 17, 1917 ........................................................................ 360-365

Occupational hygiene, results of inquiries of labor and social welfare .................. 193
Retail prices of food and other commodities .......................................................... 246, 965, 964
What France is doing for its disabled soldiers and sailors ........................................ 851-867

Friendly Societies:

Queensland, thirty-first report of registrar of, 1916 ................................................ 433

Victoria (Australia), thirty-eighth annual report on, by Government statistician .... 642

Fumigate of mercury, poisoning from, in the making of explosives ......................... 194

Gasoline engine exhaust-gas poisoning, paper read at Cincinnati meeting of the American Public Health Association, October 23-27, 1916 ........................................................................ 227-275

Genoa, food-supply measures of the municipality of, during the war ...................... 739, 740

Germany:

Collective agreements, 1914 .................................................................................... 143, 144

Cost, high, of living bonus in .................................................................................. 945-949

Employment conditions in, 1915 ........................................................................... 128-129

Employment offices, work of, 1915 ....................................................................... 138-141

Food control, governmental, during the war ......................................................... 703-727, 921-928

Housing census of Berlin, December 1, 1919 .......................................................... 857

Journals of the Imperial Labor Office, October, 1915 ............................................ 167

Retail prices of food, October, 1916 ....................................................................... 247, 964

Social insurance system, statistics of operation of, 1914 .......................................... 167, 345

Statistical yearbook, 1915 ...................................................................................... 167, 168

Unemployment among members of trade-unions .................................................... 141, 142

Vocational guidance in ............................................................................................ 69-70

Girls, vocational training of, in New York ............................................................... 63-66

Government employees, wages of, attitude of American Federation of Labor regarding increase of, thirty-sixth annual convention ........................................ 7, 8

Great Britain:

Child mortality in England and Wales ................................................................. 988, 989
Coal mining industry, effect of war on .................................................................... 534-535
Coal mining industry, Government control of, on account of the war .................... 533-534

Defense of the Realm Regulations, March, 1917 .................................................. 1033

Education, board of, annual report for 1916, of the chief medical officer .......... 168

Employment, September, 1916 ............................................................................. 141, 147

— juvenile education in relation to, report of departmental committee on, after the war August 24, 1916 ................................................................. 638

Employment of women and juveniles during the war ............................................. 878, 879

Employment of women, extension of ..................................................................... 879-883

Employment of women in 1916, extension of ....................................................... 347-348

Establishment of a new department of scientific and industrial research, 1916 ........................................................................................................ 535, 536

Food control, governmental, regulations, orders, prohibitions, etc., affecting, on account of the war ................................................................. 390-497, 928-945

Health, report on, in Manchester, 1915 ............................................................... 306

Industrial unrest, causes and remedies, 1915 ....................................................... 520-525

Juvenile education in .............................................................................................. 523-524

Juvenile employment committees, nature and functions of ................................. 697-699

Labor after the war ................................................................................................. 479-480

Labor exchanges, system of .................................................................................. 956, 957

Labor in war time in ............................................................................................... 838-842

Maternal mortality in connection with childbearing, Local Government Board, 1914-15 ................................................................. 76, 78

Military duty, exemption from, decisions of tribunals in deciding questions of, 169

Government Board, 1916 .................................................................................... 638, 639

Mines and quarries, statistics of, for 1915 ................................................................ 492-500

Munitions factories, welfare work in ....................................................................... 883-884

Munitions workers, effect of industrial conditions upon health of ......................... 538-540

— hours, fatigue, and health among ......................................................................... 876, 877

— feeding of, Canteen committee of the central control board ............................... 188

— food of, Health of Munition Workers’ Committee ............................................... 56, 57

— washing facilities and baths for .......................................................................... 150, 151

National insurance audit department, report of, 1912-1914 and 1915 ................. 158

New ministries in the British cabinet ...................................................................... 770, 771

Nonpoisonous dope for airplanes ........................................................................... 97, 98

Restriction of employment in specified industries ................................................. 834-841

Retail prices of food and other commodities, increases in ..................................... 81-124, 247, 248, 964, 965

School attendance laws, relaxation of ................................................................... 888-890

Vocational guidance ............................................................................................... 70-71

Wages, conditions, up to December, 1916 ............................................................. 586-588

Women in industry, employment of, in order to replace the men, during the war .... 335-345

Women’s labor, migration of, through the labor exchanges ..................................... 691-694

H.

Hart, Schaffner & Marx, labor agreement, May 1, 1916 .......................................... 43-45

Hawaii:

Immigration, labor, and statistics, board of, fifth report, July 1, 1915, to June 30, 1916 ................................................................. 302, 303

Labor conditions in, statement of, by commissioner of immigration, labor, and statistics of Hawaii ................................................................. 300
INDEX TO VOLUME IV.

Health:
- Carbon dioxide in the atmosphere, temperature, humidity, etc., effect of, on ................................................................. 433-435
- Coupling in the discovery of a preventive disease and an effective medicine ................................................................. 439-440
- Findings of Social Insurance Commission of California regarding conditions of, January, 1917 ................................................. 499,500
- Hours, fatigue, and in, British munitions factories .................................................................................................................. 876,877
- Medical employment, results, of. Women's service .................................................................................................................. 424-445
- Mass. street railway employees. Experience of Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light Co. ................................................................. 445,446
- Old-age insurance in. Ohio. Appointment of commission to study, March, 1917 ........................................................................... 507,508
- Women, effect of working conditions during the war on health of. Great Britain ........................................................................ 340,341

Health hazards:
- Safety council, national, fifth annual safety council, Detroit, October 17-20, 1916 ...................................................................... 436-439
- Washington (State), report of bureau of statistics and factory inspection for 1915 and 1916 ......................................................... 478

Health insurance. (See Sickness insurance.)

House hold:
- Conciliation and antilegislature relation with to utilities .................................................. 17
- Unemployment insurance and public employment, establishment of a Government service ......................... 909-911
- Hospital, the, and industrial hygiene......................................................................................... 447

Hotels and restaurants:
- Connecticut, wages and conditions of women employed in, ...................................................................................................... 350,351
- One day's rest in seven for employees in. Massachusetts ........................................................................................................ 905-907,1025

Hours of labor:
- Decisions of courts regarding, recent .......................................................................................... 683-688
- Germany, as stipulated in collective agreements in force, December 31, 1914 ................................................................................. 144
- Hotels and restaurant employees, one day's rest in seven for. Massachusetts ................................................................................ 905-907,1025
- Massachusetts, report of special recess commission on social insurance, on hours of labor in 24-hours-day industries .................................................................................................................. 429,430,488
- Munitions factories, hours, fatigue, and health in. Great Britain ............................................................................................. 876,877
- Output in relation to ........................................................................................................................................................................ 941-948
- State employment of public work in relation to ............................................................................ 455-449

Wages and, in domestic service as compared with other occupations of women .............................................................................. 354-358

Women in industry, Wisconsin, decision of State Supreme Court on power of State industrial commission to issue orders concerning ............................................................................................................... 208,209

(See also Wages and hours of labor.)

House committee on:
- Interstate and foreign commerce. Eight-hour day for employees of carriers engaged in interstate commerce. Report No. 1184 to accompany H. R. 17700, September 1, 1916 .............................................................................................................. 305
- Labor. Hearing on resolution authorizing the Department of Labor to conduct an investigation of wages and labor conditions in the coal mining industry, 1917 ............................................................................................................. 1030
- Women's division in the Department of Labor, report accompanying H. R. 10339 (64th Cong., 2d sess., H. Rept. No. 1285) ............................................................................................................. 163
- Massachusetts, fourth annual report of housing commission, 1916 .............................................................................................. 795

Housing:
- American Civic Association, twelfth annual convention, Washington, D. C., December 13, 14, and 15, 1916 ....................................................................................................................................................... 130-133
- Germany, housing census of Berlin, December 1, 1916 .................................................................................................................... 167
- Massachusetts, fourth annual report of housing commission, 1916 .............................................................................................. 795
- Massachusetts, third annual report of the homestead commission .................................................................................................. 122-127
- Progress of housing reform in Brooklyn, report of bureau of charities tenement-house committee .................................................................................................................................................................................. 128,129
- Resolution of American Federation of Labor regarding ........................................................................................................ 9

Hygiene:
- Asylum, report of the committee on housing and social conditions in, New York, 1916 ............................................................................. 577
- Massachusetts, third annual report, January, 1916, State board of labor and industries ........................................................................... 159,160
- Preventive medicine and surgery, its development, accomplishments, aims .................................................................................. 439-442
- Rehabilitation of public service to problems of........................................................................... 445,449
- The hospital and .................................................................................................................................................................................... 447

Hygiene, vocational, and occupational diseases ........................................................................................................................................... 92-94

I.

Iceland:
- Agriculture, statistical report on, 1915 .............................................................................................................................. 639
- Fishing and hunting industries, report on, 1914 ........................................................................................................................ 630

Idaho:
- Farm markets, department of, laws governing the farm markets department .......................................................................................................................... 1023
- Report, 1916, second annual report ............................................................................................................................................... 1023

Mining industry, eighteenth annual report of, for 1916 .................................................................................................................. 1024

Illinois:
- Accidents, industrial, in, eighth and ninth reports, 1914 and 1915, bureau of labor statistics .............................................................................. 302-303
- Bureau, industrial, third annual report, June 30, 1916 ..................................................................................................................... 795
- Insurance, addresses and papers on, January, 1917. Insurance department .................................................................................. 632,633
- Mining, section of, Illinois Mining, Mining board, second and third annual reports, 1915 and 1916 ............................................................................. 158
- Prison industries, State board of, reports for 1915 and 1916 .............................................................................................................. 796
- Rules governing the sitting of the industrial board, revised January 1, 1916 ......................................................................................... 158
- Workmen's compensation, eighth and ninth reports, bureau of labor statistics, 1916 ............................................................................. 411,412

Immunization
to.
- Malaria, report of Attorney General .............................................................................................................................. 743
- New law to regulate, in United States (effective May 1, 1916) ............................................................................................................. 487,488
- Statistics of, United States, October, 1916, to March, 1917 ........................................................................................................... 155

Income tax:
- Annual report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue (United States) for year ending June 30, 1916 ...................................................................................................................................................... 1029

Year ended June 30, 1916 ........................................................................................................................................................................ 482-486,491

Digitized for FRASER
https://fraser.stlouisfed.org
Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis
XVIII INDEX TO VOLUME IV.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Wheat prices, July 31, 1914, to August 31, 1916, Department of statistics</td>
<td>168</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wholesale and retail prices of food for the fortnight ending August 31, 1916</td>
<td>168</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mines and mining, department of, annual report for the two years ending September 30, 1915</td>
<td>158</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vocational education survey of Richmond, report on</td>
<td>1024</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Indianapolis, vocational education survey</td>
<td>460</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Industrial diseases. (See Occupational diseases)</td>
<td>488</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Industrial disputes. (See Strikes and lockouts.)</td>
<td>1024</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Industrial pensions. (See Pensions.)</td>
<td>1024</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Industrial relations commission, final report and testimony submitted to Congress, volumes 6 to 11, 1916</td>
<td>205</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Industrial unrest, Great Britain, causes of, and attempts to diminish, 1915</td>
<td>520-523</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Injunction regulation legislation, attitude of Federation of Labor toward</td>
<td>8, 9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>International Association of Industrial Accident Boards and Commissions, account of Conference on Social Insurance called by, Washington, December 5-9, 1916</td>
<td>1-5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>International Federation of Trade Unions, relations, international, of labor organizations during war</td>
<td>199-206</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>International Typographical Union, mortality statistics of, 1886-1915</td>
<td>87-91</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>International yearbook, published by the Permanent Office of the International Statistical Institute</td>
<td>168</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Interstate Commerce Commission, statistics of common carriers, preliminary abstract of, year ending June 30, 1916, division of statistics of</td>
<td>637</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Invalidity and old-age pensions, Germany, statistics of, 1891-1914</td>
<td>435</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Iodine as a first-aid treatment for injuries</td>
<td>440</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Iowa: Report of bureau of labor statistics for the biennial period ending June 30, 1916</td>
<td>633</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Workmen's compensation, second biennial report of the industrial commissioner, June 30, 1916</td>
<td>115-119</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Workmen's compensation act, legal opinions on, 1916</td>
<td>633</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Irregularity of employment among longshoremen, New York City</td>
<td>290-294</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Italy: Antitrust legislation relating to public utilities</td>
<td>17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bulletin of the Labor Office (semimonthly), October 1, 1916, to December 1, 1916</td>
<td>109-307</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bulletin on emigration, issued by the commission on emigration, October 15, 1916</td>
<td>307</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Economic and financial measures enacted, during the war, in Germany, between July 31, 1914, and July 31, 1915</td>
<td>307</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Economic and financial measures enacted in Italy during the war, January 1, 1916, to June 30, 1916</td>
<td>169</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Employment of women and boys in munitions works</td>
<td>338-340</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Food control, governmental, during the war</td>
<td>727-744</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Retail prices of food</td>
<td>246-965</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Unemployment benefits in, during the war</td>
<td>907-968</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Workmen's accident insurance law, report of commission for the study of reforms in, 1916</td>
<td>207</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Japan: Education, minister of State for, forty-first annual report of, 1913-14</td>
<td>639</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sixteenth financial and economic annual, 1916, Department of finance</td>
<td>308</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Statistical report, thirty-second, of the department of agriculture and commerce, 1917</td>
<td>1033</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jefferson County (Ind.), vocational education survey</td>
<td>469-476</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Juvenile education in Great Britain</td>
<td>488</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Juvenile education, Great Britain, report of departmental committee on relation of juvenile education to employment after the war, August 24, 1916</td>
<td>638</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Juvenile employment committees, nature and functions of, Great Britain</td>
<td>604-605</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Juvenile labor exchanges, Great Britain, for guidance in the selection of occupations</td>
<td>70, 71</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kansas, coal mines, inspector of, report for period from July 1, 1914, to December 31, 1915</td>
<td>1024</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Labor after the war, Great Britain</td>
<td>479-480</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Labor camps in the Pacific States</td>
<td>588</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Labor, committee on. (See Council of National Defense.)</td>
<td>588</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Labor conditions: Canada, as affected by the war</td>
<td>827-834</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Chinese laborers in France, 1916</td>
<td>481</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Chinese in Britain, in war time</td>
<td>808-827</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hawaii, statement of commissioner of immigration, labor, and statistics</td>
<td>300</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Metal trades, as related to health of women, Great Britain</td>
<td>243-244</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Indonesia (State), tenth biennial report of bureau of labor statistics and factory inspection for 1915 and 1916</td>
<td>476-479</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Labor conference (Leeds, England), standards of labor legislation at</td>
<td>912-915</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Labor congress, proposed by the American Federation of Labor, to be held simultaneously with the peace conference at the end of the war</td>
<td>204-206</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Massachusetts—Concluded.

Old-age pensions, report of special inquiry relative to dependent persons, 1915, Bureau of Statistics........................................ 430, 433, 488
Old-age pension and health-insurance legislation in, report of special committee on social insurance of Boston Chamber of Commerce........................................ 759-761
Social insurance, report of special recess commission on, 1916................................................................. 429-430, 488
— report of special committee on, February, 1917................................................................. 1024
Steamer for breaching rules and regulations by the board of boiler rules, 1916................................................................. 533
Third annual report, July 1, 1914, to June 30, 1915, industrial accident board................................................................. 391
Training for wage earners injured in industrial accidents in, 1916................................................................. 848-851, 1025
Vital statistics, Massachusetts, with report of juvenile factory commission................................................................. 404
Workmen’s compensation insurance rates and accident prevention, report of the joint special recess committee on, February, 1917................................................................. 541-543
Workmen’s compensation recommendations regarding, to legislature of 1917, Industrial accident board................................................................. 261
— third annual report, year ending June 30, 1915, Industrial accident board................................................................. 412-417
Maternity allowances, Australia, statement regarding for 1916................................................................. 1031

Mortality:

A field for conservation. Children’s Bureau................................................................. 985-987, 1031
From childbirth, protection of, as a phase of health service for mothers................................................................. 747-748
Great Britain, in connection with childbirth. Local Government Board, 1914-15................................................................. 75-84

Medical organization under health insurance, article on, in American Labor Legislation Review for March, 1917. 748, 749

Medical supervision:

Factory employees........................................................................................................................................ 442-445
Occupational injury. Factory employees........................................................................................................ 445-446

Metal poisoning, cases of, in 28 plants in one year................................................................................................. 181

Metal trades, labor conditions in, as related to health of women. Great Britain................................................................. 343, 344

Michigan:

Health, State board of, report of the tuberculosis survey of, for the 12 months from October 1, 1915, to November 1, 1916................................................................. 633
— third annual report of inspector of mines, September 30, 1916................................................................. 976-979
Liberation of women’s, through the employment exchanges, Great Britain................................................................. 661-664
Milan, food-supply measures of the municipality of, during the war................................................................. 741-743
Migrant mothers, great British maternity and child welfare commission from 1914 to 1916. Local Government Board, 1916................................................................. 638
Miners’ phthisis. (See Phthisis, miners’)

Mines’ mining:

Accidents at metallurgical works, 1915. Bureau of Mines (United States). .................................................................................. 433, 434
Accidents in quarries during 1915, Bureau of Mines (United States). .................................................................................. 691
Colorado, population of, in the United States in 1890 and 1910, United States census, 1914................................................................. 553-560, 637
Colorado, coal mines, third annual report of State inspector of, 1916................................................................. 157
First-aid, elementary, for the miner, Bureau of Mines (United States). .................................................................................. 106, 107
Great Britain, mines and quarries, statistics of, 1916................................................................. 889
Indiana, annual reports for the two years ending September 30, 1915, department of mines and mining................................................................. 158
Michigan, third annual report of inspector of mines, year ending September 30, 1916................................................................. 976-979
Mine rescue apparatus (oxygen) and physiological effects on users, Bureau of Mines, 1917................................................................. 1033
Nebraska, State inspector of mines, biennial report, 1915, 1916................................................................. 489
New Zealand, annual reports of mines, 1916. Department of public works and mines................................................................. 800, 801
Ohio, mines and quarries, statistics of, 1915. Industrial commission................................................................. 264-266, 304
Pennsylvania. Anthracite mines, account of production, accidents, etc., 1915................................................................. 1028
South Africa, annual report of the governmental mining engineer, year ending December 31, 1915................................................................. 171
United States, mines and mining, twenty-sixth annual report, 1916................................................................. 102-105
(See also Coal-mining industry; Bureau of Mines (United States).

Minimum wage:

Great Britain, in connection with childbearing. Local Government Board, 1914-15................................................................. 75-84
Germany, according to collective agreements in force December 31, 1914, for skilled and unskilled adult male workers........................................................................ 143, 144
Massachusetts, effect of minimum wage decree (third) concerning women in retail stores................................................................. 261-268, 303
Minimum wage commission................................................................................................................................. 261-268, 303
— wages of women in men’s and women’s clothing industries and in hotels and restaurants, pamphlet on, issued by minimum wage commission, Boston, 1917................................................................. 697-673, 796
— wages of women, statement and decree of minimum wage commission concerning................................................................. 101
Oregon, brief of defendants in Oregon minimum wage case................................................................................................................................. 673-687
South Africa, report of the governmental mining engineer, 1915, 1916, industrial welfare commission................................................................. 297
Washington (State), operation of minimum wage law, second biennial report of the Industrial welfare commission, 1915, 1916................................................................. 590-599, 636
Minnesota, Minn., vocational education survey................................................................................................................................. 407-419
Mississippi, labor and industry, department of, biennial report, 1915, 1916................................................................. 1025, 1029

Missouri:

Accidents, report of investigation of 290 industrial accidents in Kansas City................................................................. 634-635
Children’s code commission—complete revision of the laws for the welfare of Missouri children................................................................. 498
Red book (thirty-second annual report of bureau of labor statistics for year ending November 5, 1915)................................................................. 651

Montana, labor and industry, department of, second biennial report, 1915, 1916................................................................. 1029

Mortality:

Causes of death by occupations........................................................................................................................................ 989-991
From diseases of the lungs caused by dusts................................................................................................................................. 299, 307
Mortality statistics, International Typographical Union, 1893-1915................................................................. 87-91
Mortality statistics, Massachusetts, annual report of the medical society and annual reports of the state board of health, 1915, 1916................................................................. 318
Muitions making:

France, arbitration, compulsory, and minimum wage in, Report and decree of minister of interior, January 17, 1917................................................................. 390-395
Hours, fatigue, and health in Great Britain................................................................. 876, 877

(See also Coal-mining industry; Bureau of Mines (United States).)
Index to Volume IV

O.

Occupational diseases: Page. 92-94

Anthrax, varieties, prevalence, and prevention of, in the United States. 536-538

Connecticut, report of bureau of labor for two years ending November 30, 1916. 793

Minnesota, report of persons suffering from occupational diseases, 1914-1915. 416-417

Minnesota. Fifteenth biennial report of the department of labor and industries, 1915, 1916. 1025

Transvaal. Miners’ pitblows on the Witwatersrand. 102-103

O. (See Poisoning, industrial.)

Ohio:

Boiler inspection laws and rules formulated by the board of boiler rules. 490

Employment, 1915. 227-229

Health and old-age insurance, appointment of commission to study, March, 1917. 508

Insurance fund, State, communication addressed to, December 22, 1916. Industrial commission 304

Wages in, 1915. 230

War-time employment work in. 985-1002

Workmen’s compensation benefits paid as a result of accidents in mines and quarries in 1915. 291-306

Workmen’s compensation fund, State, insurance monopoly for. 552-554

Oklahoma:

Workmen’s compensation law, operation of, first annual report on, State industrial commission. 796-797

— rules and regulations, August 1, 1915. Bulletin of State industrial commission. 706

Old-age and invalidity insurance, Germany, statistics of, 1894-1914. 135

Old-age and invalidity pensions, Sweden, report of operations under the law regarding, 1915. 801

Old-age insurance:

Health and, Ohio, appointment of commission to study, March, 1917. 817-848

Ontario:

Old-age pensions. 428, 429-436

Restrictions of employment in specified, Great Britain. 835-841

Output in relation to hours of labor. 841-848

Ottoman Empire, conciliation and antistrike legislation relating to public utilities. 17, 18

P.

Penitentiary. (See Convict labor.)

Philadelphia:

Employment managers’ conference. 800-809

Retail prices of food in, November and December, 1916, and January, 1917. 234, 389-390

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, papers read at conference of, February 17 and May 18, 1915. 267, 272

Social insurance and. Pamphlets issued by the American Medical Association. 509-512

Poisoning from, in the making of explosives. 187

— symptoms and effects of. 281

Pens. (See Punishment.)

Pensions Ministry, Great Britain, recently established. 771

Per cent of persons suffering from consumption. 147

Philippines:

Children, industrial, conference of, papers read at, February 17 and May 18, 1915. 267-272

Minimum wage case, brief of defendants in. 673-677

Minimum wage, second biennial report, 1915, 1916, industrial welfare commission. 797

Minimum wage case, brief of defendants in. 673-677

Minimum wage, industrial welfare commission. 797

Minimum wage case, brief of defendants in. 673-677

Monthly bulletins, department of labor and industry, October, November, and December, 1916. 162, 383, 386

Monthly bulletin of department of labor and industry for September, 1916. 119, 120

Monthly bulletin of department of labor and industry for September, 1916. 119, 120

Money allowances and, to Canadian expeditionary forces since the beginning of the war. 874-876, 1033

Poisoning from, in the making of explosives. 187

— symptoms and effects of. 281

Philadelphia:

Employment managers’ conference. 800-809

Retail prices of food in, November and December, 1916, and January, 1917. 234, 389-390

Philippine Islands, sixteenth annual report of the Philippine Commission, year ending December 31, 1915. 797

Pittsia, miners’ on the Witwatersrand, Transvaal. 102-103

Policies, in the making of explosives. 187

Physical examination:

As a factor in the prevention of industrial injuries. 270-272

Physicians, industrial:

Pennsylvania, papers read at conference of, February 17 and May 18, 1915. 267, 272

Social insurance and. Pamphlets issued by the American Medical Association. 509-512

Piric acid, poisoning from, in the making of explosives. 186
INDEX TO VOLUME IV. XXIII

Poisoning, industrial:  Page.
- Blast-furnace gas, asphyxiation from, pamphlet issued by Bureau of Mines, 1916 .......... 1030, 1031
- Cases of, in 28 plants, in one year ................................................................. 161
- Fatal cases of, from gases and fumes ................................................................. 280-283
- Gas, blast-furnace, paper read at the Cincinnati meeting of the American Public Health Association, October 24-27, 1916 ................................................................. 277-279
- Prevention of, in the making of explosives ....................................................... 197, 198
- Sprayed method of finishing and decorating, disastrous to, connected with .......... 272-277
- Poisons used in the making of explosives ......................................................... 177-179

Portugal:
- Antistrike legislation relating to public utilities ................................................. 18
- Report of the industrial division of the department of public works relative to industrial establishments registered, 1913 and 1914 .............................................. 492

Preventive medicine and surgery, development, accomplishments, aims. Journal of the American Medical Association, Chicago, January 6, 1917 ......................................................... 430-442

Prices:
- Meat, regulation (indirect) of, through municipal and cooperative markets, during the war, France ................................................................. 530-532
- Wheat, bread and flour, governmental regulation of, during the war, France ........ 596-598
(See also Retail prices; Wholesale prices.)

Prison labor. (See Convict labor.)

Profits sharing, United States................................................................. 384-385

Publications, unofficial, relating to labor. ......................................................... 171, 309-314, 489-496, 642-646, 892-895, 923-939

Public Health Service (United States):
- Annual report of the Surgeon General for the fiscal year 1916 ...................... 305
- Its relation to problems of industrial hygiene .................................................. 448, 449
- Sleekness survey of, North Carolina ................................................................. 164
- Its relation to problems of industrial hygiene .................................................. 448, 449

Public service corporations and labor disputes, conference on, New York City, November 22 and 26, 1916 .......... 19-23

Public utilities, industrial conciliation and antistrike legislation relating to, in various countries .......... 11-19

Public welfare:
- As a consideration in labor disputes. Conference on labor disputes and public service corporations, New York City, November 22 and 23, 1916 .......... 21-24
- Kansas City, State board of, seventeenth annual report ......................... 635
- State regulation of employment on, laws and cases relating to ......................... 430-437

Q.

Queensland:
- Conciliation and antistrike legislation relating to public utilities .................... 13
- Factory inspection. Report of director of labor and chief inspector of factories and shops, for year ended June 30, 1916 ................................................................. 308
- Friendly societies, registrar of, thirty-first report, 1916 .................................. 483
- Cesar, giving report for 12 months ending June 30, 1915 .................................. 801
- Industrial Gazette, October 10, 1916. Department of labor ................................ 308
- Machinery and scaffolding, report of chief inspector of, year ended June 30, 1916 .... 309
- Workers' Compensation Act of 1916 ............................................................... 309
- Workers' compensation regulations of 1916 .................................................. 308

R.

Railway accidents. (See Accidents.)

Railway strikes and lockouts. Laws of various countries on the adjustment of disputes between railroads and their employees ........................................ 238, 240, 304
- Relief work, governmental, Queensland, report for 12 months ending June 30, 1915 .......... 801
- Restaurants, women employees in, conditions of, New York State .................. 208-209

Retail prices of anthracite coal, report of Federal Trade Commission ................. 949-952

Retail price of bread. District of Columbia .......................................................... 954-957

Retail prices of food and other commodities:
- Chicago, Ill., January 15, 1916 ................................................................. 387, 388
- Foreign countries ......................................................................................... 244, 251, 901-903
- Great Britain, increase in .............................................................................. 51-56
- New York City, November, 1916, January, 1917 ........................................ 305, 318, 399
- Philadelphia, January 15, 1917 .................................................................... 308, 390
- United States, October, 1916, to April, 1917 ............................................... 47-51, 240-243, 385-387, 583, 584, 701-705, 922-925
- (See also Food control, governmental.)

Retail stores, women in, effect of minimum wage decree on, Massachusetts ....... 251-258, 303

Roads, labor, worth annual report of the commissioner of industrial statistics ........ 120-122

Rome, food supply measures of the municipality of, during the war ................... 743-744

Russia, antistrike legislation relating to public utilities ....................................... 18

Russia, antistrike legislation relating to public utilities ....................................... 18

S.

Safety, industrial:
- Bureau of labor safety in the Department of Labor, advocated by the American Federation of Labor at its thirty-sixth annual convention ........................................ 7
- National electrical safety code, for examination, trial, and constructive criticism, second edition, November 15, 1915. Circular of the Bureau of Standards ........ 637

(See also Accidents.)

(See also Convict labor.)

(See also Employment offices.)

(See also Food control, governmental.)

(See also Preventive medicine and surgery.)

(See also Retail prices; Wholesale prices.)
INDEX TO VOLUME IV.

Ohio, boiler inspection laws and rules formulated by the board of boiler rules. Industrial commission. 490

Safety Council, National, fifth annual congress of, Detroit, October 17-20, 1916. 436-439

Safety orders (logging and sawmill), effective March 5, 1917, California industrial accident commission. 989-993

Safety orders (logging and sawmill), Washington, 1917. 623

Sanitary control, joint board of, work of, in coal, suit and skirt industry, and dress and waist industry. New York City. 94-97

Sanitation, industrial, conferences. New York City. 765-769

Scotland, vital statistics of, sixty-first annual report of registrar general for Scotland, 1915. 493

Scientific management, labor welfare and, reasons for opposition of labor to scientific management. 449-453

Scientific and industrial research, establishment of new department of, Great Britain, 1916. 535,536

School attendance: Irregular, in Chicago, causes of. Page. 772-779

Schools: Delaware, 1916. 1062

Senate committee on:

Scotland, vital statistics of, sixty-first annual report of registrar general for Scotland, 1915. 493

Shipbuilding, organization of labor for. 993,994

Shipping, Ministry of, Great Britain, recently established. 770,771

Shipping, Ministry of, Great Britain, recently established. 771

Shipping ministry, Great Britain, recently established. 771

South Carolina:

South Australia:

South Africa (Union of), mines and mining, annual report of governmental mining engineer for 1916. 304

Spirits, importation of, statistics of. 117

Strike council, New York City, annual report of, 1916. 51,52

Strikes and lockouts. 490

Street railway employees, medical supervision of. 445,446

Superintendent of labor, New York City. 208

Support of labor. 301

Supplementary health insurance and noncontributory old-age pensions, recommended by Gov. McCall of Massachusetts, inaugural address, 1917. 299-301

Supplementary health insurance, benefits of. 1-5

Supplementary health insurance and noncontributory old-age pensions, recommended by Gov. McCall of Massachusetts, inaugural address, 1917. 299-301

Supplementary health insurance, benefits of. 1-5

Supplementary health insurance and noncontributory old-age pensions, recommended by Gov. McCall of Massachusetts, inaugural address, 1917. 299-301

Supplementary health insurance, benefits of. 1-5

Supplementary health insurance and noncontributory old-age pensions, recommended by Gov. McCall of Massachusetts, inaugural address, 1917. 299-301

Supplementary health insurance, benefits of. 1-5

Supplementary health insurance and noncontributory old-age pensions, recommended by Gov. McCall of Massachusetts, inaugural address, 1917. 299-301

Supplementary health insurance, benefits of. 1-5

Supplementary health insurance and noncontributory old-age pensions, recommended by Gov. McCall of Massachusetts, inaugural address, 1917. 299-301

Supplementary health insurance, benefits of. 1-5

Supplementary health insurance and noncontributory old-age pensions, recommended by Gov. McCall of Massachusetts, inaugural address, 1917. 299-301

Supplementary health insurance, benefits of. 1-5

Supplementary health insurance and noncontributory old-age pensions, recommended by Gov. McCall of Massachusetts, inaugural address, 1917. 299-301

Supplementary health insurance, benefits of. 1-5

Supplementary health insurance and noncontributory old-age pensions, recommended by Gov. McCall of Massachusetts, inaugural address, 1917. 299-301

Supplementary health insurance, benefits of. 1-5

Supplementary health insurance and noncontributory old-age pensions, recommended by Gov. McCall of Massachusetts, inaugural address, 1917. 299-301

Supplementary health insurance, benefits of. 1-5

Supplementary health insurance and noncontributory old-age pensions, recommended by Gov. McCall of Massachusetts, inaugural address, 1917. 299-301

Supplementary health insurance, benefits of. 1-5

Supplementary health insurance and noncontributory old-age pensions, recommended by Gov. McCall of Massachusetts, inaugural address, 1917. 299-301

Supplementary health insurance, benefits of. 1-5

Supplementary health insurance and noncontributory old-age pensions, recommended by Gov. McCall of Massachusetts, inaugural address, 1917. 299-301

Supplementary health insurance, benefits of. 1-5
INDEX TO VOLUME IV. XXV

Strikes and lockouts—Concluded.
Coal-mining industry, United States, 1915 and 1916. ................................................... 590

Conciliation, industrial, and antistrike legislation relating to public utilities in various countries.  ....................................................................................................................... 11-19

Connecticut, twenty-fourth report of the bureau of labor, two years ending November 30, 1916. 795

France, munitions industry, compulsory arbitration and minimum wage in, report and decree of minister of munitions, January 17, 1917. 350-365

Labor disputes and public service corporations, conference on, New York City, November 22 and 23, 1916. 12-25

Porto Rico, report of governor, year ended June 30, 1916. 305

Railway, laws of various countries on the adjustment of disputes between railroads and their employees. 230, 240, 304

United States, 1916. .............................................................................................. 39-43, 239-239, 600-615

(See also Arbitration and conciliation; Antistrike legislation.)

Sulphur dioxide, symptoms and effects of poisoning from. ........................................... 282, 283

Sulphuric acid poisoning, cases of, in 28 plants in one year. ........................................ 181

Sulphuric ether, poisoning from, in the making of explosives. .................................... 191-192

Sweden:
Accidents, report on, for 1915. ........................................................................... 641, 642
Agricultural labor, report on, for 1915. ........................................................................ 661
Bulletins of social information. .................................................................................. 169, 493, 501
Cost of living, report showing results of investigation of, in Västerås. .............................. 501-502
Employment, 1916, second quarter. ............................................................................. 140
Forestry, report on conditions among persons employed in, 1913. .................................... 642
Insurance office, national, report for 1915. ................................................................... 640, 641
Labor conditions in barber shops, hairdressers' shops, and bathing establishments. ....... 797

Tetrachlorethane, Great Britain, poisoning from use in varnish applied to airplanes. .... 97, 98

Texas:
Labor statistics, bureau of, fourth biennial report, 1915, 1916. ......................... 1028, 1029
Workmen's compensation, report for year ending August 31, 1916. Industrial accident board. 306

Toluene, poisoning from, in the making of explosives. .............................................. 188, 189

Trade-unions. (See Labor organizations.)

Transvaal:
Conciliation and antistrike legislation relating to public utilities. ................................. 19

Trinitrotoluene: Poisoning from, in the making of explosives. ........................................ 191-194

Triton poisoning. (See Tritrotoluene.) ................................................................. 275, 276

Trunacyl, irregular school attendance and. ................................................................. 772-779

Tuberculosis:
Effect of compulsory health insurance on mortality from........................................... 756, 757

Transvaal. Miners' phthisis in connection with ......................................................... 107, 108

Workmen's organizations in local antituberculosis campaigns. ................................. 107-111

Turpentine poisoning, danger of, connected with the spray method of finishing and decorating. ................................................................. 275-277

Typographical Union, International, mortality statistics of, 1885-1915. 87-91

U.

Unemployment:
Among members of trade-unions. Germany. ......................................................... 141, 142

— Great Britain. ................................................................................................. 147

— Norway. ........................................................................................................ 148, 149

Massachusetts, report of special recess commission on social insurance. .................. 427, 428, 488

(See also Employment.)

Unemployment benefits in Italy during the war. .......................................................... 907, 908

Unemployment insurance and public employment, establishment of a Government service for. 908-911

Unemployment insurance funds, Denmark, official reports on, April 1, 1915—March 31, 1916. 798, 799

Union labor. (See Labor organizations.)

Union scale of wages and hours of labor, 1907-1915. ................................................. 554, 565

Utah:
Third report, 1915, 1916, bureau of immigration and statistics. ............................... 797

Workmen's compensation, report of employers' liability commission, March 1, 1916. 421-424, 490

Workmen's compensation legislation of 1917. .......................................................... 975, 976
XXVI  INDEX TO VOLUME IV.

V.

Varnish, poisoning from, danger of, connected with the spray method of finishing and decorating. 275-277
Ventilation, carbon dioxide, safe limit of, in working atmosphere, and effects of temperature and humidity on physical condition. 453-455

Vermont: Workmen's compensation, reports of factory inspectors, for the year ending 1916. 424, 425, 490

Victoria (Australia): Friendly societies, thirty-eighth annual report on, 1915. 642
Yearbook, 1915-16. Thirty-sixth issue. 802

Virginia:
Employment offices, second annual report of the public employment bureau of the city of Richmond, for the year ending December 31, 1916. 798
Nineteenth annual report. Bureau of labor and industrial statistics. 636

Vital statistics, Census Bureau, registration of, Federal, problems and defects of, review of. 163, 164

Vocational education:
Federal aid for the promotion of, act for, approved February 23, 1917, by the United States Congress. 581-583
France, regulation of, for the mitigation of unemployment. 491
Germany. Vocational guidance. 66-70
Labor conditions in, tenths biennial report of bureau of labor statistics and factory inspection, for 1915 and 1916. 476-479, 491
New York. Vocational training of girls. 61-66
New York City. Trade schools, 1915-16. 1027
Pennsylvania. Annual report of the industrial commission of the state of Pennsylvania, ending July 3, 1916. 400
Soldiers, disabled, vocational training for. Canada. 887-894
Workers relieved by war entertainers injured in industrial accidents in Massachusetts. 848-851, 1065

Vocational education survey:
Indianapolis, Evansville, and Jefferson County, Ind. 463-470, 488
Minneapolis, Minn. 461-469

W.

Wage rates, changes in, in selected industries, November, 1916, to April, 1917. 36-38, 221-223, 239-242, 362, 368, 718, 781, 782, 1007, 1008

Wages:
Berlin, Germany, male workers placed by central employment bureau, year ended March 31, 1916. 145, 146
Connecticut, women and girls in various industries. 349-352
Dress and walis industry, New York City, new agreement regarding wages, January 9, 1917. 366-368
Hart, Schaffner & Marx, labor agreement, May 1, 1916. 43-45
Hawaii, statement of commissioner of immigration, labor, and statistics. 300
Longshoremen, New York City, report of mayor's committee on unemployment, October 16, 1916. 291
Maryland, works, regulations regarding. France. 362-365
New York State, changes in, December, 1916. 224-227
New York, nonpayment of, exploitation of labor through, in Pacific States. 558
North Carolina, thirteenth annual report of department of labor and printing, 1916. 796
Ohio, 1915. 230
Ohio, mines and quarries, 1915. Report of industrial commission. 264-265, 301
Portof Rio, report of governor for year ended June 30, 1916. 304
Railway employees, effect of Adamson Eight-Hour Law upon. 679-682
South Australia, report of chief inspector of factories, year ended December 31, 1915. 309
Stockton public schools, San Joaquin county, California, statement of, for year ending July 3, 1916. 460-462
Sweden, agricultural laborers, 1915. 641
Various laws affecting. 686-688
Women employed in restaurants, New York State. 256-261
Women employed in restaurants, New York State. 256-261
Women in industrial employments, during the war. Great Britain. 341, 343
Women engaged in domestic science work. 570-572
Women in industrial employments, during the war. Great Britain. 341, 343
Union scale of wages and hours of labor. 354-355
Wages and hours of labor, domestic service, as compared with other occupations of women. 354-355
War, European. (See European war.)

Washington (State):
Insurance department, special report on. Bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices, department of the auditor of state. 701
Labor conditions in, tenth biennial report of bureau of labor statistics and factory inspection, for 1915 and 1916. 476-479, 491
Minimum wage law, operation of, second biennial report of the industrial welfare commission, 1916. 490-491, 496
Workmen's compensation, fifth annual report on, industrial insurance department. 546-548
Welfare work in British munitions factories. 388-394
Western Australia, conciliation and anti-trust legislation relating to public utilities. 141-144
West Virginia, report of State compensation commission to June 30, 1916. 1029

Wholesale and retail prices of food and other commodities, Canada. Report of department of labor, year ending March 31, 1916. 165, 172
Wholesale prices:
Great Britain, up to December, 1916. 586-588
United States, 1909-1916. 885, 886
Wisconsin:
Decision of Supreme Court on power of State industrial commission to issue orders regulating hours of labor of women. 205, 209
Unemployment, citizens' committee on, and the public employment bureau of Milwaukee, fifth annual report, year ending October 31, 1916. 633, 634
Women in industry, hours of labor of, notice of petition relative to, filed with industrial commission, January 19, 1917. Industrial commission. 636
INDEX TO VOLUME IV.

Women in industry:
- Connecticut, conditions of wage-earning women and girls. ........................................ 348-352
- Domestic service, advantages and drawbacks of, as a wage-earning occupation for women. 353-358
- Effect of minimum wage law on, Washington (State). .................................................. 562-569,636
- Extension of employment of, in 1916. Great Britain ...................................................... 347-348
- Great Britain, Dr. C. C. Morison on. .................................................................................. 125-126
- Great Britain, employment of women and juveniles in, during the war. ... 878-879
- employment of women during the war, and replacement of men by women. .............. 333-346
- Gerard, Donald, mortality as affected by the employment of married women in industry. Local Government Board, 1914-15. ................................................................. 78-82
- Hours of labor of, notice of petition relative to, filed with industrial commission, January 13, 1917. Wisconsin Industrial Commission. .......................................................... 636
- -- Wisconsin, decision of State supreme court on power of State industrial commission to issue orders concerning. .......................................................... 208,209
- Italy. Employment of women and girls in munitions works ........................................... 552-554
- Legislation relating to, in the Pacific States. ................................................................. 599
- Massachusetts, wages of women in women’s clothing factories, statement and decree of minimum wage commission concerning. .......................................................... 161
- Migration of labor (women’s) through the labor exchanges. Great Britain. .............. 661-664
- Minimum wage decree (Massachusetts), effect of, on women in retail stores. .......... 251-258,303
- Mobilization of female labor, plans for, in time of war. ................................................ 1000-1004
- Restaurant employees, women, study of. Consumers’ League of New York City. ... 258-261
- Wages and opportunities for women in domestic science work .................................... 570-572
- Wages of, in men’s and women’s clothing industries and in hotels and restaurants, Massachusetts, minimum wage commission, pamphlets on, issued by, Boston, 1917. .... 962-673,796
- Woman’s division in the Department of Labor. House Committee on Labor, report accompanying H. R. 16358 (64th Cong., 2nd sess., H. Rept. No. 1205). .......................................................... 163

(See also Hours of labor; Minimum wage.)

Work accident insurance, supervision of, article on, in Annals of American Academy of Political and Social Science for March, 1917. .................................................. 765,766

Workmen’s compensation:
- Austria, labor contract, legal regulation of, affecting compensation. .......................... 590-596
- California, report of industrial accident commission, year ending June 30, 1916. .... 407-410
- Chile. List providing for compensation of injuries, December, 1916. ............................ 535-536
- Decisions of United States Supreme Court regarding laws pertaining to, in New York, Washington, March 6, 1917. ................................................................. 549-552
- Development of, in the Pacific States. ............................................................................. 559
- Discussion of, at thirty-sixth annual convention, American Federation of Labor ... 7
- -- Eighth and ninth reports, bureau of labor statistics, 1916. ........................................ 411,412
- Iowa. Second biennial report of the industrial commissioner, June 30, 1910. .... 115-119
- Legislative committee on, in Delaware and Utah. ....................................................... 972-973
- -- in New Mexico and other States. .................................................................................. 744-746
- Massachusetts, recommendations to legislature of 1917, industrial accident board. ..... 261
- -- Third annual report, year ending June 30, 1915, industrial accident board. .... 412-417
- Medora for insuring, article on, in Annals of American Academy of Political and Social Science for March, 1917. ................................................................. 762,763
- Ohio. Insurance monopoly for the State workmen’s compensation fund. .............. 592-594
- Oklahoma, workmen’s compensation law, operation of, first annual report on, State industrial commission. ................................................................. 790,797
- Ontario. Workmen’s compensation act, with amendments of 1915 and 1916. .... 402
- -- Workmen’s compensation board, report for 1915. .................................................. 493
- Queensland. ‘Workers’ compensation regulations of 1916. Department of justice. 308
- Recent reports relating to accident insurance and. ....................................................... 112-122
- Rhode Island. Twenty-ninth annual report of the commissioner of industrial statistics. ................................................................. 123-122
- United States and foreign countries. ............................................................................. 554-557
- Washington (State). Fifth annual report of the Industrial insurance department, 1916. 543-548
- Workmen’s compensation rates, article on, in Annals of American Academy of Political and Social Science, for March, 1917. ................................................................. 763,764
- Workmen’s organizations in local antituberculosis campaigns. ................................ 167-170
SERIES OF BULLETINS PUBLISHED BY THE BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS.

(The publication of the annual and special reports and of the bimonthly bulletin has been discontinued, and since July, 1912, a bulletin has been published at irregular intervals. Each number contains matter devoted to one of a series of general subjects. These bulletins are numbered consecutively in each series and also carry a consecutive whole number, beginning with No. 101. A list of the series, together with the individual bulletins falling under each, is given below. A list of the reports and bulletins of the Bureau issued prior to July 1, 1912, will be furnished on application.)

Wholesale Prices.
No. 1. Wholesale prices, 1890 to 1912. (Bul. 114.)
No. 2. Wholesale prices, 1890 to 1913. (Bul. 149.)
No. 3. Index numbers of wholesale prices in the United States and foreign countries. (Bul. 173.)
No. 4. Wholesale prices, 1890 to 1914. (Bul. 181.)
No. 5. Wholesale prices, 1890 to 1915. (Bul. 200.)

Retail Prices and Cost of Living.
No. 1. Retail prices, 1890 to 1911: Part I. (Bul. 105: Part I.)
No. 2. Retail prices, 1890 to 1911: Part II—General tables. (Bul. 105: Part II.)
No. 3. Retail prices, 1890 to August, 1912. (Bul. 108.)
No. 4. Retail prices, 1890 to October, 1912. (Bul. 110.)
No. 5. Retail prices, 1890 to December, 1912. (Bul. 113.)
No. 6. Retail prices, 1890 to February, 1913. (Bul. 115.)
No. 7. Sugar prices, from refiner to consumer. (Bul. 121.)
No. 8. Retail prices, 1890 to April, 1913. (Bul. 125.)
No. 9. Wheat and flour prices, from farmer to consumer. (Bul. 130.)
No. 10. Retail prices, 1890 to June, 1913. (Bul. 132.)
No. 11. Retail prices, 1890 to August, 1913. (Bul. 136.)
No. 12. Retail prices, 1890 to October, 1913. (Bul. 138.)
No. 13. Retail prices, 1890 to December, 1913. (Bul. 142.)
No. 14. Retail prices, 1890 to December, 1914. (Bul. 155.)
No. 15. Butter prices, from producer to consumer. (Bul. 164.)
No. 16. Retail prices, 1907 to June, 1915. (Bul. 184.)
No. 17. Retail prices, 1907 to December, 1915. (Bul. 197.)

Wages and Hours of Labor.
No. 1. Wages and hours of labor in the cotton, woolen, and silk industries, 1890 to 1912. (Bul. 128.)
No. 2. Wages and hours of labor in the lumber, millwork, and furniture industries, 1890 to 1912. (Bul. 129.)
No. 3. Union scale of wages and hours of labor, 1907 to 1912. (Bul. 131.)
No. 4. Wages and hours of labor in the boot and shoe and hosiery and knit goods industries, 1890 to 1912. (Bul. 134.)
No. 5. Wages and hours of labor in the cigar and clothing industries, 1911 and 1912. (Bul. 135.)
No. 6. Wages and hours of labor in the building and repairing of steam railroad cars, 1890 to 1912. (Bul. 137.)
No. 7. Union scale of wages and hours of labor, May 15, 1913. (Bul. 143.)
No. 8. Wages and regularity of employment in the dress and waist industry of New York City. (Bul. 146.)
No. 9. Wages and regularity of employment in the cloak, suit, and skirt industry. (Bul. 147.)
No. 10. Wages and hours of labor in the cotton, woolen, and silk industries, 1907 to 1913. (Bul. 150.)
No. 11. Wages and hours of labor in the iron and steel industry in the United States, 1907 to 1912. (Bul. 151.)
No. 12. Wages and hours of labor in the lumber, millwork, and furniture industries, 1907 to 1913. (Bul. 153.)
No. 13. Wages and hours of labor in the boot and shoe and hosiery and underwear industries, 1907 to 1913. (Bul. 154.)
No. 14. Wages and hours of labor in the clothing and cigar industries, 1911 to 1913. (Bul. 161.)
No. 15. Wages and hours of labor in the building and repairing of steam railroad cars, 1907 to 1913. (Bul. 166.)
No. 16. Wages and hours of labor in the iron and steel industry, 1907 to 1913. (Bul. 168.)
No. 17. Union scale of wages and hours of labor, May 1, 1914. (Bul. 171.)
No. 18. Wages and hours of labor in the hosiery and underwear industry, 1907 to 1914. (Bul. 177.)
No. 19. Wages and hours of labor in the boot and shoe industry, 1907 to 1914. (Bul. 178.)
No. 20. Wages and hours of labor in the men's clothing industry, 1911 to 1914. (Bul. 187.)
No. 21. Wages and hours of labor in the cotton, woolen, and silk industries, 1907 to 1914. (Bul. 190.)
No. 22. Union scale of wages and hours of labor, May 1, 1915. (Bul. 194.)
No. 23. Street railway employment in the United States. (Bul. 204.)
No. 24. Union scale of wages and hours of labor, May 15, 1916. (Bul. 214.) [In press.]
No. 25. Wages and hours of labor in the iron and steel industry, 1907 to 1915. (Bul. 218.) [In press.]
Employment and Unemployment.
No. 1. Proceedings of the American Association of Public Employment Offices. (Bul. 192.)
No. 2. Unemployment in the United States. (Bul. 195.)
No. 3. Proceedings of Employment Managers’ Conference. (Bul. 196.)
No. 4. Proceedings of the Conference of Employment Managers’ Association of Boston. (Bul. 202.)
No. 5. The British system of labor exchanges. (Bul. 206.)

For material relating to these subjects, but not included in this series, see Miscellaneous series, Nos. 1, 10, 12 (Buls. 109, 172, 183).

Women in Industry.
No. 1. Hours, earnings, and duration of employment of wage-earning women in selected industries in the District of Columbia. (Bul. 116.)
No. 2. Working hours of women in the pea canneries of Wisconsin. (Bul. 118.)
No. 3. Employment of women in power laundries in Milwaukee. (Bul. 122.)
No. 4. Hours, earnings, and conditions of labor of women in Indiana mercantile establishments and garment factories. (Bul. 180.)
No. 5. Summary of the report on condition of woman and child wage earners in the United States. (Bul. 175.)
No. 6. Effect of minimum-wage determinations in Oregon. (Bul. 176.)
No. 7. The boot and shoe industry in Massachusetts as a vocation for women. (Bul. 180.)
No. 8. Unemployment among women in department and other retail stores of Boston, Mass. (Bul. 182.)
No. 9. Dressmaking as a trade for women. (Bul. 183.)
No. 10. Employment of women and juveniles in Great Britain during the war. (Bul. 223.)

For material relating to this subject, but not included in this series, see Miscellaneous series, Nos. 2, 3, 8 (Buls. 117, 118, 167).

Workmen’s Insurance and Compensation (including laws relating thereto).
No. 1. Care of tuberculous wage earners in Germany. (Bul. 101.)
No. 2. British National Insurance Act, 1911. (Bul. 102.)
No. 3. Sickness and accident insurance law of Switzerland. (Bul. 103.)
No. 4. Law relating to insurance of salaried employees in Germany. (Bul. 107.)
No. 5. Workmen’s compensation laws of the United States and foreign countries. (Bul. 126.)
No. 6. Compensation for accidents to employees of the United States. (Bul. 155.)
No. 7. Compensation legislation of 1914 and 1915. (Bul. 185.)
No. 8. Compensation laws of the United States and foreign countries. (Bul. 203.)
No. 9. Proceedings of the Third Annual Meeting of the International Association of Industrial Accident Boards and Commissions. (Bul. 210.)
No. 10. Proceedings of the Conference on Social Insurance called by the International Association of Industrial Accident Boards and Commissions. (Bul. 212.) [In press.]
No. 11. Effect of workmen’s compensation laws in diminishing the necessity of industrial employment of women and girls. (Bul. 217.) [In press.]

Industrial Accidents and Hygiene.
No. 1. Lead poisoning in potteries, tile works, and porcelain enameled sanitary ware factories. (Bul. 104.)
No. 2. Hygiene of the painters’ trade. (Bul. 120.)
No. 3. Dangers to workers from dusts and fumes, and methods of protection. (Bul. 127.)
No. 4. Lead poisoning in the smelting and refining of lead. (Bul. 141.)
No. 5. Industrial accident statistics. (Bul. 157.)
No. 6. Lead poisoning in the manufacture of storage batteries. (Bul. 165.)
No. 7. Industrial poisons used in the rubber industry. (Bul. 179.)
No. 8. Report of British departmental committee on danger in the use of lead in the painting of buildings. (Bul. 188.)
No. 10. Anthrax as an occupational disease. (Bul. 205.)
No. 11. Causes of death by occupations. (Bul. 207.)
No. 12. Hygiene of the printing trades. (Bul. 209.)
No. 13. Accidents and accident prevention in machine building. (Bul. 216.) [In press.]
No. 14. Industrial poisons used or produced in the manufacture of explosives. (Bul. 219.) [In press.]
No. 15. Hours, fatigue, and health in British munition factories. (Bul. 221.)

Conciliation and Arbitration (including strikes and lockouts).
No. 1. Conciliation and arbitration in the building trades of Greater New York. (Bul. 124.)
No. 2. Report of the industrial council of the British Board of Trade on its inquiry into industrial agreements. (Bul. 133.)
No. 3. Michigan copper district strike. (Bul. 139.)
No. 4. Industrial court of the cloak, suit, and skirt industry of New York City. (Bul. 144.)
No. 5. Conciliation, arbitration, and sanitation in the dress and waist industry of New York City. (Bul. 145.)
No. 6. Collective bargaining in the anthracite coal industry. (Bul. 191.)
No. 7. Collective agreements in the men’s clothing industry. (Bul. 193.)

Digitized for FRASER
https://fraser.stlouisfed.org
Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis
Labor Laws of the United States (including decisions of courts relating to labor).

No. 1. Labor legislation of 1912. (Bui. 111.)
No. 2. Decisions of courts and opinions affecting labor, 1912. (Bui. 112.)
No. 3. Labor laws of the United States, with decisions of courts relating thereto. (Bui. 148.)
No. 4. Decisions of courts and opinions affecting labor, 1913. (Bui. 152.)
No. 5. Labor legislation of 1914. (Bui. 166.)
No. 6. Decisions of courts affecting labor, 1914. (Bui. 169.)
No. 7. Labor legislation of 1915. (Bui. 186.)
No. 8. Decisions of courts affecting labor, 1915. (Bui. 189.)
No. 9. Labor laws and their administration in the Pacific States. (Bui. 211.)
No. 10. Labor legislation of 1916. (Bui. 213.) [In press.]

Foreign Labor Laws.

No. 1. Administration of labor laws and factory inspection in certain European countries. (Bui. 142.)

Vocational Education.

No. 1. Vocational education survey of Minneapolis. (Bui. 199.)

For material relating to this subject, but not included in this series, see Wages and hours of labor series, No. 9 (Bui. 147); Conciliation and arbitration series, No. 5 (Bui. 145); Miscellaneous series, Nos. 6, 7 (Buis. 159, 162).

Miscellaneous Series.

No. 1. Statistics of unemployment and the work of employment offices. (Bul.169.)
No. 2. Prohibition of nightwork of young persons. (Bul. 117.)
No. 3. Ten-hour maximum working day for women and young persons. (Bul. 118.)
No. 4. Employers’ welfare work. (Bui. 123.)
No. 5. Government aid to home owning and housing of working people in foreign countries. (Bul. 188.)
No. 6. Short-unit courses for wage earners, and a factory school experiment. (Bul. 159.)
No. 7. Vocational education survey of Richmond, Va. (Bul. 162.)
No. 8. Minimum-wage legislation in the United States and foreign countries. (Bul. 167.)
No. 9. Foreign food prices as affected by the war. (Bul. 170.)
No. 10. Unemployment in New York City, N. Y. (Bul. 172.)
No. 11. Subject index of the publications of the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics up to May 1, 1915. (Bul. 174.)
No. 12. Regularity of employment in the women’s ready-to-wear garment industries. (Bul. 183.)
No. 13. Profit sharing in the United States. (Bul. 205.)
No. 14. Welfare work in British munition factories. (Bul. 222.)