PREFACE

This issue of the Domestic Coin Pamphlet is a continuation of the annual historical series of United States coinage. In addition to the gold, silver, and minor coins, a fourth class is introduced--the composite or clad class in the three subsidiary denominations, authorized by Public Law 89-81, approved July 23, 1965.

The composite coins are identical in shape, size, and design with the same denominations in silver of nine-hundred thousandths fineness. The obverse designs continue to bear the familiar likeness of former Presidents of the United States--on the half dollar, John F. Kennedy--on the quarter dollar, George Washington--and on the dime, Franklin D. Roosevelt. The compositions of the new materials were specially developed, and are the first to be adopted in any of the world's coinage systems which are entirely satisfactory for use alongside coins of silver-copper alloy of .900 fine silver in slug rejectors utilizing the "eddy-current" principle for distinguishing genuine coins from counterfeits and slugs. The new materials provide coins of good appearance, with density, and electrical and magnetic properties such that they can be used in coin vending equipment widely used throughout the United States. The authorizing law, known as the Coinage Act of 1965, giving specifications of the new coins, appears on page 84. The first denomination to be manufactured by the Mint was the quarter dollar. President Lyndon B. Johnson's announcement of the initial distribution of this coin on November 1, 1965, is presented on page 90.

Also included in this issue of the Pamphlet is the annual series of foreign coins manufactured by the United States Mint for other governments, thus documenting the complete production record of the United States Mint, established under the Constitution in 1792.

The Act of Congress approved April 2, 1792, provided for coinage of gold, silver, and copper, and established the first United States Mint in the Nation's Capital, then the city of Philadelphia. Subsequent legislation set up branch Mints in various parts of the country. Headquarters were moved from Philadelphia to Washington, D.C. when the Act of Congress, approved by the President on February 12, 1873, established the several Mints and Assay Offices as a Bureau of the Treasury Department.

¹ Title II, section 204 of Public Law 89-81, approved July 23, 1965, provides in part, as follows: "No mint mark may be inscribed on any coins during the five-year period beginning on the date of enactment of the Coinage Act of 1965, except that coins struck at the Denver mint as authorized by law prior to such date may continue to be inscribed with that mint mark."

² Coinage operations at the San Francisco Mint were discontinued on Mar. 31, 1955. Public Law 87-534, July 11, 1962, changed the designation of the San Francisco Mint to the United States Assay Office at San Francisco. Title II, section 201 of Public Law 89-81, July 23, 1965, authorized coinage at the San Francisco Assay Office.

TITLE I--AUTHORIZATION OF ADDITIONAL COINAGE

Specifications.

Sec. 101. (a) The Secretary may coin and issue pursuant to this section half dollars or 50-cent pieces, quarter dollars or 25-cent pieces, and dimes or 10-cent pieces in such quantities as he may determine to be necessary to meet the needs of the public. Any coin minted under authority of this section shall be a clad coin the weight of whose cladding is not less than 30 per centum of the weight of the entire coin, and which meets the following additional specifications:

- (1) The half dollar shall have--
 - (A) a diameter of 1.205 inches;
 - (B) a cladding of an alloy of 800 parts of silver and 200 parts of copper; and
 - (C) a core of an alloy of silver and copper such that the whole coin weighs 11.5 grams and contains 4.6 grams of silver and 6.9 grams of copper.
- (2) The quarter dollar shall have--
 - (A) a diameter of 0.955 inch;
 - (B) a cladding of an alloy of 75 per centum copper and 25 per centum nickel; and
 - (C) a core of copper such that the weight of the whole coin is 5.67 grams.
- (3) The dime shall have--
 - (A) a diameter of 0.705 inch;
 - (B) a cladding of an alloy of 75 per centum copper and 25 per centum nickel; and
 - (C) a core of copper such that the weight of the whole coin is 2.268 grams.

(b) Half dollars, quarter dollars, and dimes may be minted from 900 fine coin silver only until such date as the Secretary of the Treasury determines that adequate supplies of the coins authorized by this Act are available, and in no event later than five years after the date of enactment of this Act.

TITLE II--AMENDMENTS TO EXISTING LAW

Sec. 201. The first sentence of section 3558 of the Revised Statutes (31 U.S.C. 283) is amended to read: "The business of the United States assay office in San Francisco shall be in all respects similar to that of the assay office of New York except that until the Secretary of the Treasury determines that the mints of the United States are adequate for the production of ample supplies of coins, its facilities may be used for the production of coins."

San Francisco assay office, minting of coins.

Sec. 202. Section 4 of the Act of August 20, 1963 (Public Law 88-102; 31 U.S.C. 294), is amended by changing "$30,000,000" to read "$45,000,000".

77 Stat. 129.

Sec. 203. (a) Section 3 of the Act of December 18, 1942 (56 Stat. 1065; 31 U.S.C. 317c), is amended by striking "minor" each place it appears.

Repeal. (b) Section 9 of the Act of March 14, 1900 (31 Stat. 48; 31 U.S.C. 320), is repealed.

Sec. 204. (a) Section 3517 of the Revised Statutes (31 U.S.C. 324) is amended to read:

Inscriptions on coins.

"Sec. 3517. Upon one side of all coins of the United States there shall be an impression emblematic of liberty, with an inscription of the word 'Liberty', and upon the reverse side shall be the figure or representation of an eagle, with the inscriptions 'United States of America' and 'E Pluribus Unum' and a designation of the value of the coin; but on the dime, 5-, and 1-cent piece, the figure of the eagle shall be omitted. The motto 'In God we trust' shall be inscribed on all coins. Any coins minted after the enactment of the Coinage Act of 1965 from 900 fine coin silver shall be inscribed with the year 1964. All other coins shall be inscribed with the year of the coinage or issuance unless the Secretary of the Treasury, in order to prevent or alleviate a shortage of coins of any denomination, directs that coins of that denomination continue to be inscribed with the last preceding year inscribed on coins of that denomination, except that coins produced under authority of sections 101 (a) (1), 101 (a) (2), and 101 (a) (3) of the Coinage Act of 1965 shall not be dated earlier than 1965. No mint mark may be inscribed on any coins during the five-year period beginning on the date of enactment of the Coinage Act of 1965, except that coins struck at the Denver mint as authorized by law prior to such date may continue to be inscribed with that mint mark."

Repeal.

TITLE III--JOINT COMMISSION ON THE COINAGE

Sec. 301. The President is hereby authorized to establish a Joint Commission on the Coinage to be composed of the Secretary of the Treasury as Chairman; the Secretary of Commerce; the Director of Membership.

79 STAT. 258.	the Bureau of the Budget; the Director of the Mint; the chairman and ranking minority member of the Senate Banking and Currency Committee, and four Members of the Senate, not members of such committee, to be appointed by the President of the Senate; the chairman and ranking minority member of the House Banking and Currency Committee, and four Members of the House of Representatives, not members of such committee, to be appointed by the Speaker; and eight public members to be appointed by the President, none of whom shall be associated or identified with or representative of any industry, group, business, or association directly interested as such in the composition, characteristics, or production of the coinage of the United States.
Restriction,
Vacancies,	Sec. 302. No public official or Member of Congress serving as a member of the Joint Commission shall continue to serve as such after he has ceased to hold the office by virtue of which he became a member of the Joint Commission. Any vacancy on the Joint Commission shall be filled by the choosing of a successor member in the same manner as his predecessor.
Duties,	Sec. 303. The Joint Commission shall study the progress made in the implementation of the coinage program established by this Act, and shall review from time to time such matters as the needs of the economy for coins, the standards for the coinage, technological developments in metallurgy and coin-selector devices, the availability of various metals, renewed minting of the silver dollar, the time when and circumstances under which the United States should cease to maintain the price of silver, and other considerations relevant to the maintenance of an adequate and stable coinage system. It shall, from time to time, give its advice and recommendations with respect to these matters to the President, the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Congress.
Appropriation,	Sec. 304. There are authorized to be appropriated to remain available until expended, such amounts as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this title. Approved July 23, 1965.

REMARKS OF THE PRESIDENT AT THE SIGNING CEREMONY OF THE COINAGE ACT OF 1965, THE WHITE HOUSE, JULY 23, 1965.

Distinguished members of Congress, ladies and gentlemen:

We gather here today for a very rare and historic occasion in our Nation's history.

When I have signed this bill before me, we will have made the first fundamental change in our coinage in 173 years. The Coinage Act of 1965 supersedes the Act of 1792. And that Act had the title: An Act Establishing a Mint and Regulating the Coinage of the United States.

Since that time our coinage of dimes, and quarters, and half dollars, and dollars have contained 90 percent silver. Today, except for the silver dollar, we are establishing a new coinage to take its place beside the old.

The new dimes and the new quarters will contain no silver. They will be composites, with faces of the same alloy used in our five cent piece that is bonded to a core of pure copper. They will show a copper edge.

Our new half dollar will continue our silver tradition. Eighty percent silver on the outside and 19 percent silver inside. It will be nearly indistinguishable in appearance from our present half dollar.

All these new coins will be the same size and will bear the same designs as do their present counterparts. And they will fit all the parking meters and all the coin machines and will have the same monetary value as the present ones.

Now, all of you know these changes are necessary for a very simple reason--silver is a scarce material. Our uses of silver are growing as our population and our economy grows. The hard fact is that silver consumption is more than double new silver production each year. So, in the face of this world-wide shortage of silver, and our rapidly growing need for coins, the only really prudent course was to reduce our dependence upon silver for making our coins.

If we had not done so, we would have risked chronic coin shortages in the very near future.

There is no change in the penny and the nickel. There is no change in the silver dollar, although we have no present plans for silver dollar production.

Some have asked whether silver coins will disappear. The answer is very definitely--No.

Our present silver coins won't disappear and they won't even become rarities. We estimate that there are now 12 billion--I repeat, more than 12 billion silver dimes and quarters and half dollars that are now outstanding. We will make another billion before we halt production. And they will be used side-by-side with our new coins.

Since the life of a silver coin is about 25 years, we expect our traditional silver coins to be with us in large numbers for a long, long time.

If anybody has any idea of hoarding our silver coins, let me say this. Treasury has a lot of silver on hand, and it can be, and it will be used to keep the price of silver in line with its value in our present silver coin. There will be no profit in holding them out of circulation for the value of their silver content.

The new coins are not going to have a scarcity value either. The mint is geared to get into production quickly and to do it on a massive scale. We can expect to produce not less than 3-1/2 billions of the new coins in the next year, and, if necessary, twice that amount in the following twelve months.

So, we have come here this morning to this, the first House of the land, this beautiful Rose Garden, to congratulate all of these men and women that make up our fine Congress, who made this legislation possible--the committees of both Houses, the leadership in both Houses, both parties, and Secretary Fowler and all of his associates in the Treasury.

I commend the new coinage to the Nation's banks and businesses and to the public. I think it will serve us well.

Now, I will sign this bill to make the first change in our coinage system since the 18th Century. To those members of Congress, who are here on this very historic occasion, I want to assure you that in making this change from the 18th Century we have no idea of returning to it.

We are going to keep our eyes on the stars and our feet on the ground.

PRESIDENTIAL ANNOUNCEMENT CONCERNING THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE NEW QUARTER, OCTOBER 30, 1965.

President Johnson announced today that circulation of the new 25 cent piece authorized by the Coinage Act of 1965 will begin Monday, November 1.

The new--nonsilver--quarter dollar will be added to the circulation of the traditional 90 percent silver quarter. Both the old and the new quarters are to circulate together.

Approximately 230 million pieces of the new quarter will be distributed during the week beginning November 1. Initial distribution will be backed by production that will rise from 28 million to 60 million pieces a week during November, and will be still higher thereafter.

The number of new quarters ready for initial distribution is 10 times current inventories of 25 cent pieces available for use. The supply of quarters will be augmented by continued production of silver 25 cent pieces.

Introduction of the nonsilver quarter will make the first basic change in the Nation's coinage since the United States monetary system was established in 1792. All coins above 5 cents value since then have contained 90 percent silver.

The new quarters will be placed into use in the way that coins normally move into circulation, by distribution, on the basis of needs for coins, through the 36 Federal Reserve Banks and branch banks to commercial banks, and from commercial banks to individuals and businesses. As the new coinage is to circulate interchangeably with silver coins, deliveries of quarters to commercial banks, now and in the future, will consist of both the nonsilver and the silver coins.

The Mint has allocated initial supplies of the new quarters to the Reserve Banks on the basis of the population of the areas served by each Reserve Bank or branch bank. Plans call for deliveries of further supplies of the new coin from the Mint to Reserve Banks to continue on this basis.

Faster than anticipated production of the new quarters permitted their introduction about a month earlier than previously expected. The initial 230 million of the new coins being distributed by the Federal Reserve Banks was made in 70 days following the beginning of production on August 23. This initial supply is equal to a third of the record output of 714 million quarters produced in the full 12 months of fiscal year 1965, which ended last June. Production of the new quarters will rise to a quarter of a billion pieces a month hereafter.

The new quarter dollar is a three-layered coin. The outer faces are the same alloy used for the 5 cent piece--75 percent copper and 25 percent nickel. The cupronickel faces are bonded to a core of pure copper, giving the new coin a copper colored edge.

The new 25 cent piece is full legal tender, equal in all monetary respects to the silver quarter. It was engineered to work in all coin operated devices set to operate with silver coins.

The new quarter is the same size as the silver quarters, and bears the same design. The head of George Washington appears on one side with the date, and the words "Liberty" and "In God We Trust"; on the other side, an eagle with spread wings, clutching a bundle of arrows, above crossed olive branches, and the words, "Quarter Dollar," "United States of America," and "E Pluribus Unum."

All United States silver coins now being produced are dated 1964. The new coins will be dated 1965 until all shortages disappear.

NOTE: The announcement was released at Austin, Tex.

Directors of the United States Mint since April 2, 1792

Historical Note: The Director of the Mint is appointed by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The length of the term of office was not fixed by law from 1792 to 1873. The Act of February 12, 1873 fixed the term of the Director to five years.

Record of foreign coinage production by United States Mints for other countries from 1876 through 1965

INTRODUCTION

The United States Mints were first permitted to manufacture coins for foreign governments in 1874. The authorizing act of Congress reads as follows:

"It shall be lawful for coinage to be executed at the mints of the United States for any foreign country applying for the same, according to the legally prescribed standards and devices of such country, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe; and the charge for the same shall be equal to the expenses thereof, including labor, materials, and use of machinery, to be fixed by the Director of the Mint, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided, That the manufacture of such coin shall not interfere with the required coinage of the United States." (Jan. 29, 1874, Ch. 19, 18 Stat. 6.)

The first foreign coinage order was executed for the Government of Venezuela during the U.S. Government fiscal year 1876. To date, United States Mints at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; San Francisco, California; New Orleans, Louisiana; and Denver, Colorado have produced more than 7.0 billion coins for 37 foreign countries. The greatest number of foreign coins produced in a single year was in 1945 when more than 1.8 billion coins in 27 different denominations were struck for nine countries. Summaries by country and year precede individual country tables which give the following information: Year of coinage, mint, denomination, number of coins produced, metallic composition, and the gross weight and diameter of each denomination. Coins are manufactured to conform to the standards and specifications that are required by the decrees or laws of the various foreign countries. Certain foreign coinage details are prerogatives of the governments concerned rather than the United States Mints which function only in a manufacturing capacity.

NOTES

Production figures in some instances were officially recorded only on a U.S. Government fiscal year basis before 1906. A fiscal year extends from July 1st of one year through June 30th of the following year. Two calendar years combined in the date column of a country table therefore indicate that the coins were produced either in the latter half of the first named year or the first half of the second year, or in both periods. It is further noted that dates appearing on coins may or may not coincide with the year when struck.

The metallic composition of base-metal coins is given on a percentage basis, the proportion of the metals adding to 100 percent. The composition of coins containing precious metals is expressed as fineness of gold or silver in parts per thousand, the remainder is usually an alloy of copper.
