REVIEW OF JUNE—COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL EVENTS.

The Seventy-third Congress adjourned sine die at 11:45 p. m. on Monday, June 18. The Senate had adjourned at 11:05 p. m., and the House followed at 11:45 p. m. The Congress brought its labors to a close following a day of activity, leaving to the President the application of the final touches to bills of varying degrees and interest. Just before adjourning, both houses took final action on the National Housing bill, and sent it to President Roosevelt with the compliments of a Congress that had fulfilled, with but few exceptions, every desire of the executive department. In fact, it had wiped the legislative slate as clean as the oldest members of either house could remember, and had completed a large program of new legislation. It is said that while there have been a few exceptions, this Congress, in accomplishing its work, displayed a greater freedom from mere partisanship than any other Congress in the history of the country.

On the evening of June 28, in a national radio broadcast, President Roosevelt placed judgment on the progress of the recovery program in the hands of his listeners, by requesting each to compare his status now with that of a year ago. He said: "The simplest way for each of you to judge recovery lies in the plain facts of your own individual situation. Are you better off than you were last year? Are your debts less burdensome? Is your bank account more secure? Are your working conditions better? Is your faith in your own individual future more firmly grounded?" The speech was given on the eve of his departure for a cruise that will take him to Hawaii via the Panama Canal, and was in the form of a general review of accomplishments thus far, with a hint of plans for future betterment of the general welfare.

Highlights of legislation passed by the second session of the Seventy-third Congress included the following:

Expenditures—Appropriated more than $5,000,000,000, of which more than half is for relief.

Taxes—Plugged loopholes through which many of the wealthy avoided income taxes; reduced levies on small salaries.

Tariffs—Gave the President power to lower or raise duties 50% in concluding reciprocal trade pacts with foreign nations.

Money—Passed Gold Act, under which the President revalued the dollar at 59.06% of its former gold value; launched United States on policy of keeping 25% of monetary reserves in silver.

Stock Market—Brought exchanges under strict Federal control for first time in history.

Crime—Authorized Federal Government to go after gangsters and racketeers; voted $25,000 reward for capture of "public enemies."

Air Mail—Approved cancelation of old contracts and directed President to create a commission to outline new aviation policy.

Agriculture—Passed Bankhead and Kerr bills for compulsory control of cotton and tobacco production; adopted Frazier-Lemke bill giving farmers six years to redeem foreclosed property if creditors refuse to scale down mortgage debts; brought sugar and cattle under Agricultural Adjustment Administration control; placed unconditional guarantees on farm credit bonds.

Navy—Authorized construction of 101 new warships over next six years to bring Navy to treaty strength.

Home Aid—Passed Administration Housing bill for nation-wide compaign of modernization and construction, with Government partially guaranteeing private loans; placed full guarantee on Home Loan Corporation bonds.

Banking—Extended Federal bank deposit insurance for another year; amount of insured individual accounts raised from $2,500 to $5,000 July 1.

Labor—Empowered the President to set up boards to enforce collective bargaining guarantees under Recovery Act.

Industry—Authorized direct loans by Federal Reserve banks and Reconstruction Finance Corporation to small businesses that are unable to obtain bank credit.

Veterans—Over the President's veto, restored many reductions in compensation; defeated bonus.

Philippine Islands—Voted them independence, effective after 10- to 12-year preparatory period.

One of the bills which failed of enactment was the so-called Omnibus Banking bill. The bill, the purpose of which was to clarify and amend the Banking Act of 1933, was favorably reported during the early part of June by the Senate Banking and Currency Committee, but it was not until June 16 that "unexpected and energetic efforts" (we quote from Washington advices, June 17, to the New York "Times") were made by Senator Bulkley to drive the bill through the Senate, this, said the dispatch, throwing into confusion the plan to adjourn Congress.

On June 18, when the bill was withdrawn by Senator Bulkley, the Washington account to the "Times" said:

> Carrying out his part of the inter-party agreement [incident to adjournment], Senator Bulkley withdrew his omnibus banking bill even before a quorum had been called. It was Senator Bulkley's insistence upon passage of this bill that brought about the collapse of leadership in both parties when adjournment was in reach Saturday night, June 16.

There were also a number of other measures of relative importance, some of which were reported to have Administration support, which failed of passage as Congress adjourned, and among these were the following:

Tugwell-Copeland pure food and drug bill—originally reported to have the support of the Administration, but which died in the Senate after a House Committee failed to report it out.

Wagner labor disputes bill—requested by the President; substitute resolution passed with "emergency" authority voted to the President.

Oil Administration bill—House passed a substitute resolution authorizing an investigation of the oil industry in the next few months.

Amendments to broaden the licensing powers of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration—rejected by the Senate.

Frazier-Lemke mortgage bill, to provide for Federal acquisition of outstanding farm mortgages, estimated to require the issuance of more than $3,000,000,000 in greenbacks.

Unemployment insurance measure.

Connery 30-hour work week bill.

Old-age pensions.

Six-hour work day for all rail employees.

Patman Veterans' bonus bill—passed by the House, but rejected by the Senate; would have cost $2,400,000,000.

McLeod Bank "Pay-Off" bill to refund to depositors in closed banks about $1,815,000,000 of frozen deposits—vote in House prevented through parliamentary strategy of House leaders.

Proposed Birth-Control bill—rejected by the House Judiciary Committee.

President Roosevelt's Message to Congress on War Debts Owed United States by Foreign Governments.

On June 1 President Roosevelt addressed a message to Congress in which he reviewed the situation as to the war debts owed the United States by foreign governments. In his message the President said: "I can only repeat that I have made it clear to the debtor nations again and again

that 'the indebtedness to our Government has no relation whatsoever to reparations payments made or owed to them,' and that each individual nation has full and free opportunity individually to discuss its problems with the United States."

Earlier in his message the President made the statement that "the American people would not be disposed to place an impossible burden upon their debtors, but are nevertheless in a just position to ask that substantial sacrifices be made to meet these debts."

Reciprocal Tariff Bill Signed by President Roosevelt.

President Roosevelt on June 12 signed the reciprocal tariff bill, giving him authority to conclude trade agreements with other nations, under which he may lower or raise any existing tariff rates by as much as 50%. The bill was signed at 9:15 p. m., and became effective immediately, automatically repealing a number of the so-called "penalty" rates imposed under the Tariff Act of 1930 against countries which had charged higher rates on certain American exports than the United States collected against similar products. The late hour for signing the measure was fixed, it was explained at the White House, in order that all customs houses might be closed for the day, so that all could begin operations under new administrative regulations on June 13. Secretary of State Hull, Chairman Harrison of the Senate Finance Committee, Chairman Doughton of the House Ways and Means Committee, and Francis B. Sayre, Assistant Secretary of State, were present when the President signed the bill. The bill was approved by the Senate on June 4 by a vote of 57 to 33. The House, on March 29, passed a bill similar in general purposes; with amendments added by the Senate, the bill went back to the House, which, contrary to its usual course of sending the measure to conference, accepted the Senate amendments on June 6 by a vote of 154 to 53. Congressional action was thereupon completed on the bill and it was sent to the President for his signature.

President Roosevelt Signs Securities Exchange Act of 1934—Provides for Federal Regulation of Stock Exchanges—Commission of Five to Administer Act.

The bill for Federal regulation of stock exchanges (the Fletcher-Rayburn bill) was placed on the statute book on June 6, when President Roosevelt signed the bill—on which Congressional action was completed June 1. The bill in its entirety, besides providing for the regulation and control of security exchanges, also embodies amendments to the Securities Act of 1933. The new law provides for the creation of a commission of five members to administer the Stock Exchange Act, the members of which are to be appointed by President Roosevelt. The Commission will also take over from the Federal Trade Commission (60 days after the new members qualify) the administration of the Securities Act of 1933.

Effective Dates of Provisions of Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The New York Stock Exchange, in issuing to its members pamphlet copies embodying the text of the Securities Exchange Act of 1933 (signed by President Roosevelt on June 6), states that "all the provisions of the Act are effective July 1 1934, except those having a marginal note indicating a later effective date." These marginal notes, and the provisions they affect, are as follows:

President Roosevelt Signs Corporate Bankruptcy Bill Following Adoption of Conference Report by Congress—Clarifying Amendment Passed.

On June 7 President Roosevelt signed the corporate bankruptcy law, designed to facilitate the release of corporations from receivership. With the adoption on June 1 by the Senate of the conference report on the corporate bankruptcy bill, Congressional action on the measure was completed. The House adopted the conference report on May 29. The bill passed the Senate on May 4 without a record vote; it passed the House on June 5 1933 and was sent to conference to adjust the differences. The measure is designed to extend relief to financially distressed corporations through permitting reorganization without the necessity of bankruptcy or receivership proceedings in the courts. Before approving the bill May 4, the Senate by a vote of 37 to 11 defeated an amendment by Senator Frazier designed to assist bankrupt farmers.

Following the signing by President Roosevelt on June 7 of the Corporate Bankruptcy bill, Congress passed a clarifying amendment to the law. This amendment passed the Senate on June 14, while the House passed it on the following day, June 15. In the House on June 15 Representative Celler indicated that the amendment had been requested by Federal Judges all over the country.

President Roosevelt Signs Air Mail Bill Limiting New Contracts and Providing for Committee of Five to Formulate National Policy of Commercial Aviation—Temporary Contracts Not Affected.

President Roosevelt on June 12 signed the McKellar-Black air mail bill which creates a commission of experts designated to draft a policy of national commercial aviation. The new Act prescribes limitations on air mail contracts, which the Postmaster-General is authorized to conclude for a period of one year, and authorizes the President to appoint a committee of five persons who will conduct a study preparatory to formulating an aviation policy. It was stated in Washington that the new law will not have any effect on temporary air mail contracts already let by Postmaster-General Farley.

President Roosevelt Signs Silver Purchase Act.

President Roosevelt on June 19 signed the Silver Purchase Act of 1934, which declares it the policy of the United States to increase the proportion of silver to gold in the Nation's monetary stocks until one-fourth of the monetary value of such stocks shall be represented by silver. The Act imposes a tax of 50% on profits which result from speculative activities in silver. The Treasury Department on June 19 issued regulations designed to govern tax payments on transfers of interest in bullion under the Act.

Final Congressional approval of the Administration's silver bill, providing for a permissive increase in the nation's monetary stocks so that silver would represent one-fourth of the value of our monetary reserves, was given on June 13, when the House, without a record vote, concurred in Senate amendments to the measure and sent it to President Roosevelt for his signature. The House had originally approved the bill on May 31 by a vote of 263 to 77. On June 9 the Senate agreed unanimously to limit debate after 3 p. m. June 11 to 15 minutes each, and on June 11 the Senate passed the bill by a vote of 54 to 25.

Silver Bought in London "Largest Single Shipment of Its Kind," Says Secretary Morgenthau.

Associated Press advices, June 11, from Washington stated:

The Treasury has imported 5,000,000 ounces of silver from London and has it stored at the New York Assay Office.

Secretary Morgenthau described it as "the largest single shipment of its kind." The metal came on the President Harding and was taken directly to the Assay Office.

The silver was presumed to be part of the metals referred to by President Roosevelt in his message to Congress advocating the Silver bill. The President said at that time that some silver had been purchased. It was understood to have been paid for in gold out of the stabilization fund.

Order Placing Embargo on Silver Exports Except Under License Issued by Secretary of Treasury Morgenthau.

An order placing an embargo on exports of silver, except under license, was issued on June 28 by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau. The order is similar to that which was put into force a year ago in the case of gold exports. Secretary Morgenthau's order, which was issued with the approval of the President, barring exports of silver, except from licensing requirements, fabricated silver, ores and metals containing silver in relatively small amounts and foreign silver coins.

Regulations of Internal Revenue Bureau Governing Tax on Silver—Permits Brokers Acting for Foreign Customers to Report "On Information and Relief."

Supplementary regulations were issued by the Bureau of Internal Revenue at Washington on June 27 (incident to the tax on silver), permitting silver brokers dealing for the account of customers outside the United States to prepare memoranda required for these transactions and swear to them "on information and belief." It was pointed out in Washington advices, June 27, to the New York "Times" (from which the foregoing is taken), that under Regulation 85 the owner was required to submit a sworn memorandum giving the date of the silver transfer, the name and address of the person who transferred it, the one to whom it was transferred, the interest in the silver to be transferred, the price, the date and the manner of acquisition, whether or not a "wash sale" was involved and the allowed expenses.

President Roosevelt Signs Road Construction Bill, Authorizing $522,000,000 for Three-year Program.

President Roosevelt on June 18 signed the Hayden-Cartwright Bill, designed to stabilize highway construction with Federal and State funds. The Conference report on the bill was approved by the House and Senate on June 9. The Act authorizes expenditures of $522,000,000, and allocates $450,000,000 for Federal participation with the States in highway construction. Of this amount $200,000,000 will be used as a Federal grant, while the remaining $250,000,000 must be matched by the States before it can be expended. The balance of $72,000,000 will be applied over a period of three years to highway activities in National parks, National forests, Indian reservations and public lands. At the time of signing the bill, the President issued a statement stressing the determination of his Administration to stop outright grants of road funds to States for relief purposes. "Unmatched emergency grants," he said, "are to be abandoned and there is to be a return to the established plan which requires that the States shall meet the Federal Government half way in paying the cost of new construction."

Conference Report on Loans-to-Industry Bill Approved by Congress and Signed by President Roosevelt—Provides $580,000,000 for Loans by RFC and Federal Reserve Board—Maximum Maturity Set at Five Years.

The Senate and House, on June 16, approved a conference report on the Administration's bill to provide for Federal loans to industry, and sent the measure to the White House for President Roosevelt's signature. The President signed the bill on June 19. House approval, on June 16, was recorded by a vote of 190 to 4, while the Senate approved the report on the same date without a record vote.

The bill, as finally drawn, provides for loans for working capital to small industries in a total amount of $300,000,000 by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and approximately $280,000,000 by the Federal Reserve Board. Loans would have a five-year maturity, and the maximum amount that could be loaned to any one organization would be $500,000. The measure provides that the Federal Reserve banks will set up in each Federal Reserve District an Advisory Board of from three to five business men. It specifies that loans shall be made only to corporations "unable to obtain requisite financial assistance on a reasonable basis from the usual sources," and that they shall be made "on a reasonable and sound basis."

President Roosevelt Signs Bill Extending for One Year Temporary Plan for Deposit Insurance—Maximum Amount Raised to $5,000.

President Roosevelt on June 16 signed the bill extending for one year the temporary plan for deposit insurance. The measure was sent to the White House on June 12 when the Senate adopted the conference report which had been accepted by the House on the preceding day (June 11). Senate and House conferees reached agreement on June 7 on the disputed provisions of the bill. The measure extends the temporary Federal deposit insurance law for one year from July 1, covering deposits as large as $5,000, as compared with a maximum of $2,500 in the original law. It also authorizes the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to purchase and lend on assets in banks closed between Dec. 31 1929 and Jan. 31 1934, with assets appraised "in anticipation of an orderly liquidation over a period of years rather than on the basis of forced selling values in a period of business depression." The bill provides that banks which are members of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation but not of the Federal Reserve System may have until 1937 to become members of the latter. The deposit insurance plan is extended to include Alaska and Hawaii, and a separate fund is established for the insurance of deposits in mutual savings banks.

Congress Approves and President Signs Conference Report on Administration's Communications Control Bill—Measure Creates Seven-man Commission to Assume Regulatory Control of All Wire and Radio Services.

Congressional approval of the Administration's Communications bill was completed on June 9, when the Senate and House both approved a conference agreement; the President on June 19 signed the bill as agreed upon by the conferees. The bill was originally approved by the House on June 2, after the Senate had passed a similar measure on May 15. As finally approved on June 9, the bill creates a new Federal Communications Commission to assume the regulatory functions over communications which were formerly exercised by the Federal Radio Commission and the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

The new Commission (to be known as the Federal Communications Commission) will be composed of seven members, and is designed to regulate inter-State and foreign commerce in wire and radio communications so as to make available to the people of the United States "rapid, efficient, nation-wide and world-wide wire and radio." Charges were made before the conference report was adopted that the Administration was seeking through the bill to control the radio and was violating the freedom of the press.

President Roosevelt Signs National Housing Bill—National Retail Lumber Dealers Cut Prices 10%.

The Administration's housing bill, which is to be known as the National Housing Act, was signed by President Roosevelt on June 27. Coincident with the approval of the bill by the President a 10% reduction in the price of lumber and building material was announced by the National Retail Lumber Dealers' Association to aid the Administration's housing program. At the same time General Johnson ordered a revision of the "model mark-up" in the Retail Lumber Code to make possible reductions to consumers.

Legislative action on the Housing Bill was completed on June 18, when both House and Senate approved a conference report on the measure. The bill was originally passed by the House on June 13, by a vote of 176 to 19. The Senate passed the bill on June 16 by a vote of 71 to 12 and sent it to conference. The conference report was called up in the House at 10 o'clock on the night of June 18, and after a short debate was approved at 10.36 p. m. The documents were then taken to the Senate, where Senator Robinson moved the adoption of the report, which was approved without debate at 10.40 p. m.

The bill provides for a Federal Housing Administration, as specified in the Senate measure, rather than the Home Credit Insurance Corporation created by the House bill. The President is authorized to appoint a Federal Housing Administrator at a salary of $10,000, and he will direct the construction and modernization program contemplated by the legislation. The bill would make it possible for financial institutions to convert short-term mortgages to 20-year insured amortized mortgages to protect homeowners, and is designed to aid the renovation and construction of homes with private capital, but with Government aid and supervision.

In Six-line Amendment to Housing Bill Congress Votes to Itself Right to Borrow from HOLC.

We quote as follows Associated Press advices from Washington June 23:

In a six-line amendment to the Housing Bill, Congress voted itself the right, hitherto denied, to borrow money from the Home Owners Loan Corporation and various farm loan agencies.

This proposal originally was killed when it appeared as a separate bill. The amendment changes an act passed this year to enable members of Congress to receive Government benefit payments for crop reduction.

This Act, only six lines long, nullified provisions of the Criminal Code which subjected members of Congress to a $3,000 fine if they entered into contracts with the Government.

The result of the amendment would be to allow members who wish to claim they are in distress and cannot pay the mortgages on their homes, to obtain loans from the Home Owners Loan Corporation.

Similarly members may now borrow under the several farm relief acts.

Bill Providing for Establishment of Federal Credit Union System Passed by Congress and Signed by President.

The establishment of a Federal Credit Union System is provided for in a bill passed by the House on June 16, by a vote of 180 to 2; the Senate on the same date accepted the House amendments to the bill previously passed [May 10] by the Senate. The signing of the bill by President Roosevelt was announced on June 26.

President Roosevelt Signs Bill Providing for Free Foreign Trade Zones at American Ports.

On June 18 President Roosevelt signed the bill providing for duty-free foreign trade zones at American ports. From a Washington dispatch June 18 to the New York "Herald Tribune" we quote:

The Foreign-Trade Zone Act was described as a measure to expedite and encourage foreign commerce. It authorizes the Secretary of Commerce to permit States, municipalities, their agencies or corporations, partnerships and associations to establish, operate and maintain foreign-trade zones in or adjacent to ports of entry. Only one such zone may be established at one port, unless the port falls within more than one State, in which event one may be permitted for each State. Foreign and domestic merchandise, while in these zones for handling or processing, will be free from the operations of the customs requirements. They will be subject to these laws only if brought from the zones into non-free territory for domestic consumption.

President Signs Kerr Bill Designed to Control Tobacco Production Through Imposition of Taxes on Output Above Quotas.

The Kerr bill, designed to control tobacco production through a system of punitive taxation somewhat similar to that provided in the case of cotton by the Bankhead Act, was given final Congressional approval on June 18 and on June 28 the measure was signed by President Roosevelt. In approving the bill the Senate made several amendments to the legislation as passed by the House, but these were quickly accepted by the latter body on June 18. The final text of the bill would penalize tobacco growers who exceeded quotas allotted by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. Certain exceptions are permitted the Secretary of Agriculture in the case of growers who fail to sign voluntary contracts to cut production.

President Signs Labor Disputes Resolution Passed by Congress Designed to Enable President to Avert Strikes Through Boards to Investigate Controversies—Is Substitute for Wagner Bill.

A compromise labor disputes measure, designed to avoid strikes, and authorizing President Roosevelt to appoint boards to investigate labor controversies which may arise under the labor section of the National Industrial Recovery Act, was approved by both the House and Senate on June 16, and was signed by President Roosevelt on June 19. The legislation, introduced as a joint resolution, was proposed by the Administration as a substitute for the Wagner Labor Disputes Bill. It was passed by the House without a record vote, and on the roll call in the Senate only three Senators opposed it, but they later asked that their negative votes be changed to affirmative. The Senate added an amendment proposed by Senator LaFollette stating that nothing in the resolution shall prevent the right of employees to strike. This was readily accepted by the House. The life of the resolution is one year.

President Signs Frazier-Lemke Farm Bankruptcy Bill Passed by Congress.

On June 28 President Roosevelt signed the Frazier-Lemke farm bankruptcy bill. On June 18 both the Senate and House adopted the conference report on the bill, the Senate accepting the report by a vote of 60 to 16 and the House agreeing to the report without a record vote. The previous action on the bill was registered by Congress during the preceding week, when the Senate on June 13 passed the Frazier bill, and the House on June 16, by a vote of 133 to 16, passed the Lemke bill as a substitute for the Senate measure. In a Washington account June 18 to the New York "Times" it was stated that the bill, hitherto opposed by Administration leaders, but the sponsorship of which was adopted by Senator Long, was approved by Congress that day as the price to be paid for adjournment.

NLB Has Handled Cases Involving 2,000,000 Workers, of Whom 1,750,000 Have Had Disputes Satisfactorily Adjusted—Report Shows Two-thirds of Controversies Are in Connection with Section 7(a) of NIRA.

The National Labor Board and its 19 regional labor boards have handled cases of industrial disputes affecting 2,000,000 workers between the time of their organization late last summer and June 1, according to a report made public June 10 by Senator Wagner, Chairman of the National Labor Board. Of that number, 1,750,000 employees "have been returned to work, kept at work, or had their other disputes adjusted," the statement said. Senator Wagner revealed that about two-thirds of the total number of cases handled involved disputes over Section 7 (a) of the National Industrial Recovery Act, where provision is made for collective bargaining.

Maximum Amount of Individual Emergency Loan Increased to $400 in Drouth Areas of 15 Mid-Western States.

The maximum amount that may be loaned to one individual from the emergency crop loan fund of 1934 for the purpose of summer fallowing and for seed for winter wheat has been raised from $250 to $400 in the drouth areas of 15 mid-western States, according to a statement made at Washington, June 15, by S. M. Garwood, Production Credit Commissioner of the Farm Credit Administration. The statement said that a farmer or stockman who has already obtained an emergency crop loan and has satisfactory security may secure a supplemental advance for summer fallowing or for seed for winter wheat provided his total loan does not exceed $400.

Following are the 15 States in which are located the areas to which the new regulation applies:

Arizona, Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

Representatives of New York, Pennsylvania and five New England States, meeting at Concord, N. H., on May 29, signed the first inter-State compact in the history of the Nation as a step to protect women and minors in industry. Vermont was the only New England State to fail to sign the compact, but a representative of Vermont participated in conference as an observer. NRA to Adopt New Policy Eliminating Price Fixing—Many Codes to Be Revised in Accordance with Plan, Which Contemplates Enforcement of Anti-trust Laws Against Combinations Maintaining Prices.

The National Recovery Administration announced on June 7 that it will adopt a new policy that will require the revision of many codes to allow freer competition and to eliminate price fixing. The new plan contemplates the enforcement of the anti-trust laws against combinations designed to maintain prices. A minimum price would only be fixed in cases of definite emergency. Associated Press Washington advices of June 7 summarized the principles of the new policy as follows:

1. Wilfully destructive price cutting is forbidden, and any prices which appear unreasonably low may be investigated and a correction required if they are found to be unfair.

2. Fixing of even a minimum price will be allowed only in cases of demonstrable emergency, threatening destruction of business firms, employment or wage levels. Then only the National Recovery Administration shall have the right to determine what is the minimum price to be fixed and it shall be "the lowest reasonable cost"—not a profit-covering figure for the majority of enterprises.

3. Open price posting—which means letting all competitors know every other competitor's price—will be allowed only on these terms: That the prices be reported to a neutral, confidential agency; they shall become effective immediately without a waiting period for powerful competitors to argue the original proposal into line with their own figures; prices may not be revised upward for 48 hours, but they may be cut right away and so reported.

Bill Providing for Federal Regulation of Commodity Exchanges Fails of Passage by Congress—Measure Had Gone Through House.

President Roosevelt, in an Executive Order issued June 29, acted under the joint Congressional resolution granting him authority to settle labor controversies by appointing a board of three members to mediate in disputes until the expiration of the National Industrial Recovery Act. The new board bears the designation of the National Labor Relations Board, and it supplants the National Labor Board, the existence of which will terminate on July 9 under the President's order. The members of the new Board are Lloyd Garrison of Wisconsin, Chairman; Harry Alvin Millis of Illinois, and Edwin S. Smith of Massachusetts. They will receive a salary of $10,000 a year.

Machinery Established for Negotiating Reciprocal Tariff Pacts.

President Roosevelt, in an Executive Order signed on June 27 and made public June 29, outlined procedure whereby interested persons may present their views regarding contemplated reciprocal trade agreements before such agreements are actually concluded. All such persons, according to the Order, may give information to a committee, to be known as the Committee of Reciprocity Information, consisting of members appointed by the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Commerce, the Secretary of Agriculture, the National Recovery Administration, the Chairman of the Tariff Commission, and the special advisor to the President on foreign trade. President Roosevelt also announced on June 29 that Secretary of State Hull will be in charge of negotiating reciprocal treaties under the Tariff Bargaining Act. It was likewise announced that the Interdepartmental Committee on Foreign Trade Agreements held its first meeting on June 28, under the temporary chairmanship of Francis B. Sayre, Assistant Secretary of State.

President Roosevelt Signs Federal Procedure Act, Giving United States Supreme Court Power to Prescribe Uniform Rules for Federal Courts.

President Roosevelt on June 19 signed the Federal Procedure Act, giving to the United States Supreme Court the power to prescribe uniform rules of practice and procedure for Federal courts in actions at law. When Congress thus relinquished its right to establish procedure, it took what President Roosevelt described in a statement as "one of the most important steps ever taken in the improvement of our judicial system." The President added that under the Act a complicated system which had resulted in much confusion would be supplanted by "a simplified, flexible, scientific, correlated system of procedural rules prescribed by the Supreme Court."

Attorney-General Cummings, in a statement on June 19, expressed the hope that "the system of procedural rules prescribed by the Supreme Court for the Federal trial courts will serve as a model for the several States, and that eventually we shall have a uniform system of procedure throughout the country, in the Federal and State courts alike."

This amount will be taken from the $525,000,000 appropriated at the recent session of Congress and will be spent as follows: $12,500,000 for Civilian Conservation Corps camps; $25,000,000 for loans to farmers for seed, feed, freight, summer fallowing and similar purposes; $56,250,000 for Federal Emergency Relief Administration loans to States; $12,500,000 for the purchase of lands in drouth-stricken areas, and $43,750,000 for the "purchase, sales, gift or other disposition of seed, feed and livestock and for transportation thereof."

President Roosevelt Signs the Railway Pension Bill, Providing for Retirement of Railway Employees at 65 on Pensions.

President Roosevelt on June 27 signed the Railway Pension bill, providing for compulsory retirement with the payment of annuities. The measure creates a Railway Retirement Board of three members, to be appointed by the President. Railway employees who reached 65 years of age or who completed 30 years of service would be paid an annuity, based on the service paid, and determined by multiplying the number of years of service (not exceeding 30) by the following percentages of monthly pay: 2% of the first $50; 1½% of the next $100, and 1% of the compensation above $150. No portion of monthly compensation above $300 would be considered in determining the annuity to be paid. Retirement would be compulsory for employees at 65, but the railroad and the employee might, by an agreement with the Board, extend the time for retirement to 70 years. The Railway Pensions bill was originally passed in the Senate on June 14 by a vote of 65 to 0. It was approved by the House on June 15, and a conference report was accepted by both House and Senate on June 18.

Railroad Labor Bill Passed by Congress and Signed by President Roosevelt—Measure Amends Railway Labor Act of 1926.

Congress, just before adjournment, passed the Railroad Labor bill, which amends the Railway Labor Act of 1926. The newly-enacted measure was signed by President Roosevelt on June 21. It provides for the creation of a National Adjustment Board to mediate in railway labor disputes. The Adjustment Board is created with four divisions, each composed of an equal number of representatives of railroads and employees, and each permitted to choose a neutral member. The bill permits the establishment of regional or system boards of adjustment if the railroads and employees wish to create such boards voluntarily. The present Board of Mediation of five members is succeeded by a National Mediation Board of only three members.

President Roosevelt Appoints Board to Investigate Longshoremen's Strike—Pacific Coast Walkout Continues to Tie Up Shipping—Executive Order Names Agency Under Authority of New Law.

President Roosevelt, acting for the first time under the authority of a resolution approved June 19 which provides him with the power to establish boards to handle labor disputes, issued on June 26 an Executive Order creating the National Longshoremen's Board to investigate the longshoremen's strike which has hampered shipping on the Pacific Coast for several weeks. The strike began on May 9. The President's Executive Order carried the notation, "Approval recommended, Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor." Miss Perkins intervened in an effort to end the strike and suggested the appointment of the board. The President named as Chairman Archbishop Edward J. Hanna of San Francisco, while the other members are Edward F. McGrady, Assistant National Recovery Administration Administrator for labor, and O. K. Cushing, a San Francisco attorney.

The President created the new agency in connection with the Department of Labor, and ordered the Board to report regarding its activities and findings.

Intergovernmental Debts.

A new phase was reached in the war debts controversy on June 15, when the Governments that made token payments theretofore decided to join the list of countries in complete default, leaving only Finland to honor completely her engagements toward the United States Government. The phase now reached is one that almost all European countries regard as terminating the matter, with only a remote likelihood that payments on any scale, whatever, will be resumed in the future, but this hardly appears to be a reasonable interpretation of the problem and it seems quite certain that world recovery will lead to a revival of the question and new settlements. One new factor, which unquestionably led to defaults by all countries with the exception of Finland, appeared in the matter when the June 15 instalment date was reached. This is the Johnson Act, which prohibits loan transactions in the United States capital market in behalf of any country in complete or partial default on obligations to the United States Government. Attorney-General Cummings's ruling that countries making token payments would not thereby escape the stigma of default inclined the British Government to discontinue the token payment method of keeping the debts alive, and other countries that previously made token payments followed the precedent set by Great Britain. The net result, attributable purely to the Johnson Act, is a loss to the United States of payments approximating $10,000,000 which otherwise would have been made in June, and a further eclipse of the whole war debts question.

The payment received by the United States Government from Finland on June 15 amounted to $166,538, which is the full sum due from that country. It was made clear in dispatches from Helsingfors that Finland considers her debt to the United States in a special category, since it resulted from large grain shipments from America when the Finns were badly in need of assistance in 1918. Payment for the grain was made in cash at the time, but subsequently Finland required substantial amounts of foreign exchange and the United States was requested to repay the sums and fund the amount in a long-term loan. This was done, and in the circumstances no thought of repudiation is said to exist, even though Finland is quite as much pressed by the difficulties of the world depression as any other country .

British procedure in connection with the war debts was a matter of keen debate until that Government sent a communication to the United States on June 5 announcing that no payment would be forthcoming. The British decision was postponed until after President Roosevelt sent his long awaited war debts message to Congress on June 1, but when that communication failed to introduce new factors the decision to default was communicated without further delay. Italy, Czechoslovakia and other countries that had been making token payments adopted the policy of the British Government. The payment by Finland thus was the only one received against instalments due on June 15 of $174,647,439 and unpaid balances of $303,196,205 payable against previous instalments.

Both the legalistic and the practical aspects of the war debts problem again were surveyed in the statements and communications published in June. President Roosevelt, in his message to Congress on June 1, commented on the fact that the debts have gravely complicated our trade and financial relationships with the borrowing nations for many years. He remarked on the important part the loans played in the war and the subsequent reconstruction period and pointed out that the funds were borrowed from the citizens of the United States, through the Government, and that the citizens would have to be taxed to the degree payments are not made. Calling upon the debtors to make a determined effort to meet their obligations, he added that the American people would not be disposed to place impossible burdens upon their debtors. "The peoples of the debtor nations will also bear in mind," Mr. Roosevelt said, "that the American people are certain to be swayed by the use which the debtor countries make of their available resources—whether such resources would be applied for the purposes of recovery as well as for reasonable payments on the debts, or for purposes of unproductive nationalistic expenditures or like purposes." The American position that the debts have no relation whatever to reparations payments was reiterated and Mr. Roosevelt also declared again that the door always is open to individual discussion by any debtor of the problem with the United States Government. In a negative sense the message left no doubt that token payments would not permit the debtors to escape the stigma of default.

All doubts as to the British attitude were dispelled on June 5, when that Government sent a communication restating cogently the arguments advanced in December 1932, when it was stated that the whole system of inter-governmental war debt obligations had broken down. To date Britain has paid the United States twice what she received from her own debtors, it was remarked, and figures were cited to show that the present settlement imposes on the British people "a burden which is both inequitable in itself and unreasonable in relation to the treatment accorded other countries." The balanced budget attained in Great Britain is really of no significance in this connection, the note stated, as the problem is one of transfers, and "the attempt to transfer amounts of this magnitude would as its immediate effect cause a sharp depreciation of sterling against the dollar, which, as his Majesty's Government understand, would not be consistent with the monetary policy of the United States Government."

Taking all circumstances into consideration, the British Government would have been quite prepared to make a further payment in acknowledgement of the debts and without prejudice to their right again to present the case of its readjustment, on the assumption the President again would declare he did not consider Great Britain in default, the note stated. But it appears that in consequence of recent legislation no such declaration would now be possible, and in this situation the procedure adopted by common agreement in 1933 no longer is practicable. Setting forth the alternatives of complete payment or suspension, the British Government remarked with regret that "they could not accept the responsibility of adopting a course which would revive the whole system of inter-governmental debt payments." Resumption of full payments to the United States would necessitate corresponding demands by Great Britain for full payment from her own war debtors, it was remarked. "Such procedure," the note added, "would throw a bombshell into the European arena which would have financial and economic repercussions over all five continents and would postpone indefinitely the chances of world recovery. Accordingly, his Majesty's Government are reluctantly compelled to take the only other course open to them. But they wish to reiterate that, while suspending further payments until it becomes possible to discuss an ultimate settlement of inter-governmental war debts with a reasonable prospect of agreement, they have no intention of repudiating their obligations, and will be prepared to enter upon further discussions of the subject at any time when in the opinion of the President such discussion would be likely to produce results of value."

Secretary of State Cordell Hull's reply to the British note, made public on June 12, introduced a new factor into the situation for a time. In view of the emphasis placed by Britain on the transfer problem, Mr. Hull suggested that some discharge of the British war debt might be attempted by means of payments in kind, or in other words, in goods, Sympathetic note was taken of the British arguments, but in three particulars Mr. Hull felt it necessary to enter objections. He pointed out that Britain was not regarded as in default previous to June 15, by virtue of President Roosevelt's personal statements when token payments were made, and added that Britain would not have to pay the full instalment due as well as arrears of previous instalments in order to avoid the stigma of default. The Secretary of State also took exception to the linking of debts due the United States Government and the debts due Britain from her creditors. The complete independence of such transactions was emphasized, and Mr. Hull remarked that "the British Government undertook to borrow under its own name and on its own credit standing, and repayment was not made contingent upon the fate of debts due the British Government." Disappointment was expressed, finally, in the British intimation that further discussion will be postponed until such time as the President deems "results of value" likely. The United States Government adheres to the opinion that a situation of this kind necessarily calls for the initiation of proposals by the debtor and not by the creditor, the note stated. "For instance," the Secretary said, "no proposal has ever been presented to this Government looking toward payments in kind to an extent that might be found mutually practicable and agreeable."

A British answer, which is generally held to terminate the immediate exchange on the subject, was made June 28. It was admitted, in this communication, that no legal connection exists between the British debt and the sums due Britain from other countries. The note reiterated, however, that it would be impossible to contemplate a situation in which British obligations were paid in full, while demands for repayment of war obligations due the British Government remained in suspense. The suggested payments in kind would be subject to the same difficulties that were encountered in the German reparations payments system, as deliveries in kind are not really distinguishable from payments in cash in their effects. Payments in kind would be feasible only if they consisted of the indigenous products of the debtor country and if they were accepted by the creditor in an amount over and above the normal consumption of the same products, it was stated. Willingness was expressed to explore further the possibilities of payments in kind, but the note remarked that the British Government is unable to see any method that would commend itself to the United States Government. The primary question from the British viewpoint relates to the amount that should be paid, having regard to all the circumstances of these debts.

Germany Defaults.

Officials of the German Government and the Reichsbank issued on June 14 an announcement of a complete transfer moratorium, "until further notice," on long- and medium-term external indebtedness of the German Government as well as all German nationals, and by this action they inaugurated a diplomatic controversy which still is in progress. The so-called Dawes and Young loans of the German Government were included in the moratorium despite many warnings that such measures could not be viewed with equanimity by Great Britain, France and other countries that urged their central banks to aid in the flotations. The quasi-political character of the two external loans of the Reich is not open to question, and the concern of the British and French Governments quickly found expression in special measures for impounding exchange due Germans. It is the announced intention of Great Britain to pay such impounded sums to British holders of Dawes and Young plan bonds, unless arrangements can be made diplomatically for taking care of the debt service.

The German moratorium was not unexpected, since the Reichsbank reserves of gold and gold exchange have dwindled almost to the vanishing point, leaving a note cover that is purely nominal. At the debt conference in Berlin, during May, a virtual moratorium was announced by the German authorities on the long- and medium-term debts of German municipalities, corporations and banks for a period of six months. That conference was concluded with an offer by the Germans to pay 3% funding bonds for a period of six months, or scrip cashable at 40% of its face value after the expiration of the six months' period. Swiss and Dutch representatives at Berlin indicated that such terms would not prove acceptable, and the moratorium announcement disposed of any question of preferential treatment for bondholders in those countries. It also raised the problem of the Dawes and Young loans, since these were included in the moratorium, with the same offer as to funding bonds or scrip applicable to the holders of such obligations. Short-term debts and the standstill credits were not included in the moratorium.

International efforts promptly were started to protect the holders of the Dawes and Young bonds, with Britain and France taking the lead in so far as practical measures are concerned. Chancellor of the Exchequer Neville Chamberlain informed the British House of Commons that an Anglo-German clearing house would be established in London if no satisfactory arrangement is attained by July 1 through diplomatic negotiations. Under any clearing system of this nature, it was indicated, funds available would be used firstly for payments to British exporters for goods sold to Germans, and secondly for interest due on the Dawes and Young loans. "I should add," said the Chancellor, "that anyone who purchases German bonds now held by foreigners does so at his own risk." In compliance with this statement a Government bill was introduced in the British Parliament which would enable the London Government to take reprisals against any country in default to Britain. Without mentioning any country, it empowers the Government to establish clearing offices to collect and deal with "certain debts." The measure was passed without a record vote. The French Government considered the situation at Cabinet sessions, and is said to favor the imposition of surtaxes on German goods in order to make the necessary sums available for continued interest payments on Dawes and Young bonds held in France. A French trade commission was sent to Berlin to negotiate a new trade treaty with the Reich and the commission also was charged to discuss the service on the German debt. Pending the conclusion of such conversations no formal action was taken during June by the French authorities.

The British Government, in pursuance of its aim to adjust the matter diplomatically, if possible, dispatched to Berlin on June 22 a note inviting the Germans to send a debt commission to London for discussions on the debt service. It was remarked in this communication that British creditors were willing to make temporary concessions of an emergency character to overcome the transfer difficulties, but it was pointed out repeatedly that these difficulties are being aggravated by the political and economic policies of the Reich. Attention was called to the large scale repatriation of German bonds that has been in progress for some time, and it was added that "for reasons given a refusal to continue service on the Dawes and Young loans cannot be justified." Germany's credit will be destroyed by the default, it was argued, and this will gravely impair the possibilities of maintaining the imports of essential raw materials. The invitation was accepted by the German Government and a delegation arrived in London on June 27. There were some indications of progress at the end of the month, but the discussions were made difficult by events in Germany and final decisions were postponed.

The German case on the moratorium announcement was presented in identical notes to the Governments of the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy, Holland, Sweden, Switzerland and Belgium. Transfers have become impossible, these notes said, owing to the reduced holdings of gold and gold country exchange by the Reichsbank. An appeal was made for international co-operation to facilitate the building up of an export trade balance for Germany that would prove sufficient for meeting Germany's external debts. The plea was made that such action would stimulate the expansion of trade generally and would point the way to world-wide recovery. Regret was expressed at what was called the need for including the Dawes and Young loans in the moratorium, and it was remarked that "the German Government is fully conscious of the special obligations which it incurred with regard to these loans." It was emphasized that mark deposits for the full sums due would be made within the Reich.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull took up the defense of all American holders of German bonds in a well-documented reply to the German note. Mr. Hull's rejoinder, published on June 29, insists upon equal treatment of American investors with the holders of German external bonds in other countries, and it answers, point by point, the contentions of the German authorities that their moratorium declaration was due largely to policies adopted elsewhere. "This Government received with grave regrets," the note said, "the announcment that the losses already being borne by American investors in German securities are thus to be augmented. This action will be a further dislocation of the process of international finance on which the international trade of the world has developed, and a discouragement to international co-operation." Especially perturbing, the note indicated, are various suggestions that discrimination may be practiced between the various national groups of holders of German securities. Mr. Hull pointed out that terms of the agreements under which German loans were floated call, in general, for equal treatment of all investors. In the case of the German Government's external loans the credit of the Government is pledged on terms of unconditional equality to all investors. This requirement for equal treatment was emphasized several times in the communication.

Exception is taken by the Secretary of State to a number of the contentions in the German moratorium communication. Perhaps the most telling of the American rejoinders is the objection to the German historical survey, which intimated that the German transfer difficulties are due largely to the former reparations payments. The United States received no reparations payments from Germany, Mr. Hull reports. It is pointed out that the American loans to Germany were not political in any sense, but were for productive purposes. As such, they contributed greatly to the recovery of German trade and industry after the collapse of 1923. The German statement that unparalleled efforts were made to honor the German loans and that further payment depends upon increased absorption elsewhere of German goods also is questioned in the American note. Policies pursued by creditor countries are by no means the sole factors in a transfer situation such as now confronts the Reich, as the policies pursued by the debtor Government are at least equally important, Mr. Hull declared. "The German Government is no doubt aware," it was added, "that its policies have created opposition in many parts of the world, which has expressed itself in various trade conflicts and the probable reduction of Germany's capacity to transfer." The German policies unquestionably stimulated the desire of short-term creditors for liquidation of their lines in Germany, and this contributed to the transfer crisis, while additional reduction of exchange resources was occasioned by the substantial repurchases of German securities, it is contended. "The asserted anxiety of the German Government to make every effort to meet its obligations cannot be proven by a mere display of its depleted balances, but must be evidenced from an examination of the whole trend and operation of German policy," the note remarks. "For these and other reasons, the narrow and exclusive connection which the German Government seeks to establish between the payment of its external obligations to American investors and the current state of the direct bilateral commodity trade balance between the two countries seems to this Government a distinctly inadequate approach to the problem."

New Tariff Policy.

Some rather extensive changes in American tariff procedure may result from the new tariff bill, which President Roosevelt signed on June 13. Under this measure the Executive has wide powers to negotiate reciprocal trade agreements with foreign countries and to change our tariffs up to 50% in the process. This law will make it possible for Secretary of State Cordell Hull to continue negotiations for special agreements on which discussions were started last year. An agreement with Colombia actually is ready, and generally is looked upon as the model for further reciprocal agreements with other countries. The precise terms of the arrangement with Colombia never have been made known, but it was indicated by Mr. Hull on several occasions that the formula of the special agreements is that of favorable changes in the American import tariff on products which specific countries are best able to supply, in exchange for increased imports by such countries of American products. The Secretary of State also has declared on occasion that the proposed procedure will not cause any conflict with the most-favored-nation principle that is embodied in almost all our existing trade treaties. Washington dispatches of June 13 stated that an interdepartmental "tariff bargaining policy committee" will be formed to direct the negotiation of new reciprocal agreements. There will be two subcommittees to consider details of arrangements and to conduct hearings for domestic business interests that might be affected by any proposed rate changes.

In a statement issued after he signed the new measure, President Roosevelt described the Act as one of "broad wisdom." The unprecedented shrinkage of world trade has been an important element in the present world condition, he declared, and the new step should help to reverse the trend and aid recovery. "The use of the granted powers will require care to assure that each agreement makes a real contribution to recovery," the President continued. "Wise reciprocity between countries, each having regard to its own best interests, will be needed. Years have been spent in building barriers against mutual trade which have effectively impaired not only the foreign but also the domestic commerce of all countries. The restoration of healthier trade by the removal of mutual impediments will require time and patience, but progress should be sure from the beginning and should accelerate." George N. Peek, special adviser to the President on foreign trade, issued a report on June 13 in which the results of American foreign commerce over the last 38 years were summarized. Mr. Peek declared that the "trend in our international trade has been cumulatively disadvantageous to us," because the goods and services we furnished the rest of the world exceeded by $22,645,000,000 in the period the receipt of goods and services from other countries. The sum mentioned, as Mr. Peek admits, is now owed by foreign governments and their peoples to our own Government and people. The actual foreign indebtedness is computed at $24,702,000,000, consisting of $14,398,000,000 investments by United States citizens in foreign countries, and $10,304,000,000 war loan advances by the United States Government still outstanding, but an offset of $2,057,000,000 is provided by foreign holdings of United States securities.

Disarmament and European Diplomacy.

Discussions on the European land armaments problem again were conducted at Geneva early last month, but the results were quite as fruitless as all previous conversations have been. It was more than ever evident that the Geneva talks are nothing more than a thin veil over the ambitions of all leading Powers on the Continent to attain supreme military strength, and it is significant that the Geneva discussions hardly were ended when private conversations among diplomats were resumed. Among such private talks, foremost place must be given a visit of Chancellor Adolf Hitler of Germany to Italy, for conversations with Premier Benito Mussolini. Only brief and uninformative announcements of the results of the talks between the two Fascist Premiers have been made, but it seems quite certain that matters of high importance to all of Europe were surveyed. The French Foreign Minister, Louis Barthou, engaged in a series of visits to the capitals of France's Little Entente allies after the Geneva discussions terminated, and it is generally surmised that these were for the purpose of cementing the relationships.

The General Commission of the Geneva Disarmament Conference met in the League city late in May in order once again to seek a way to achieve agreement on a general convention for disarmament or for limitation of armaments. A clash between British and French representatives soon after the start of the meeting made it apparent that deep schisms exist, and after a series of private talks at Geneva arrangements were made for another postponement. A resolution was adopted June 11 providing for the appointment of four subcommissions which will gather data and survey the problem anew, presenting their findings at a further meeting of the general commission to be held next October. Even that resumption date is uncertain, as it will be for Arthur Henderson, the President of the Conference, to determine whether sufficient progress has been made to warrant further discussions this autumn.

With the land armaments problem in suspense, pending the outcome of private diplomatic negotiations, attention was turned later in June to the naval phase of the question, which is no less difficult than the land armaments phase. Diplomatic and technical experts of the British and United States Governments met in London on June 18 for discussions preliminary to the proposed naval conference of 1935. It soon appeared that the British Government is not content with present arrangements and desires a larger number of certain types of light, fast vessels than is permitted under the Washington and London naval treaties. This indication that Great Britain wants expansion in some directions was a distinct surprise in some quarters in the United States and it threw an additional cloud over the impending conference, which is already in deep shadow because of the known Japanese desires for a larger ratio than the 60% of British or American fleets accorded Tokio in the existing treaties. The discussions in London were continued, however, with Japanese diplomatic authorities in the British capital kept fully informed on developments.

The meeting between Premiers Hitler and Mussolini in Italy took place from June 14 to 16, inclusive, at a villa in Stra, near Venice. It was absolutely private, as the linguistic accomplishments of the Italian Premier made interpreters needless, and the information on the discussions made available is only what the two Premiers wished to have known. There is general agreement among European observers that the conference was a highly important matter, but the official communication usually issued on such occasions merely stated that the two Premiers carried on "in cordial spiritual collaboration an examination of general problems as well as those particularly affecting the two countries." Some Italian authorities stated after the meeting that it concerned especially the situation in Austria and the possibility of a German return to the League of Nations and the General Disarmament Conference. Speeches made by the two Premiers themselves soon after the conversations ended threw no real light on the affair.

German Fascism.

German fascism entered a distinctly new phase in June, when, for reasons that are far from clear, Chancellor Adolf Hitler engaged in a wholesale "purging" of his semi-militaristic Nazi organization and the apparently indiscriminate killing of a number of former political leaders in the Reich. The movement, which culminated in the last days of June and the early days of July, resulted in the shooting of perhaps a score of prominent Germans and the arrest of hundreds more. As justification for his actions, Hitler and his lieutenants declared that a counter-revolt was sponsored by some of the elements in his own party, while some former political leaders outside the Nazi ranks who were killed are accused of engaging in treasonable relations with some unnamed foreign power. Several of his own most intimate political associates in the Nazi ranks were ordered shot by the Chancellor on June 30. General von Schleicher, former Chancellor of the Reich, was kill with his wife, the official version being that he resisted arrest. An aide of the Nationalist Vice-Chancellor, Franz von Papen, also was killed, while Colonel van Papen was placed under arrest. Foreign correspondents in Germany are agreed that the "explanations" furnished by the Nazis as justification for such actions leave much to be desired, as the closest investigation offers no real evidence that a counter revolt was being hatched. The official version that former Chancellor von Schleicher was shot while resisting arrest is regarded with equal skepticism. The attitude of President von Hindenburg to these developments was a matter of keen interest, and an acute sense of disappointment was felt throughout the world when the aged German President indicated, on July 2, his approval of the Chancellor's measures. Although the Fascist revolution in Germany was originally accomplished without bloodshed, it is evident that the period of peaceful development has passed and apprehension is felt everywhere regarding the excesses of the German Nazis, which now have taken the form of a "blood bath."

Perhaps the most significant incident leading up to the developments was a speech by Vice-Chancellor von Papen, delivered before students of the University of Marburg on June 17, in which a forceful demand was made for restoration of that freedom of speech and criticism which Chancellor Hitler suppressed last year. Colonel von Papen's address was interpreted outside Germany as revealing deep conflicts within the ruling regime. It was not published in Germany, as Minister of Enlightenment and Propaganda Goebbels decided on suppression of this remarkable speech. Nor was much information on the developments at the end of June placed before the German people. Colonel von Papen stated that open, manly discussions would be of more service to the German peoples than the present state of the German press. "It should, indeed, be a true service for the press to inform the Government where defects have crept in, where corruption is breeding, where grave mistakes have been made, where unfit men are holding office, where sins are being committed against the spirit of the German revolution," Colonel von Papen added. He expressed resentment against the "mysterious obscurity which at present seems to overspread German popular opinion," and declared that it is time for the statesman to call a spade a spade. Dilating upon the dangers of "reaction to coercion," he remarked: "It is a wholly reprehensible notion that a people could be united through terrorism." He scored, also, the "propaganda movement against so-called critics," and held that the German people "must not be kept everlastingly in leading strings."

Cuban Public Works Loans.

In an obviously strained and prejudiced opinion, submitted to the Havana Government by a special Cuban Commission, June 19, an attempt was made to cast doubt on the legality of $60,000,000 public works loans contracted by the Cuban Government in the United States in recent years. The loans affected include $40,000,000 public works 5½% bonds, due 1945, and held by investors in this country, and $20,000,000 5½% certificates representing bank advances made to the extent of 48 1/3% by the Chase National Bank, 26 2/3% by the National City Bank, and 25% by the Continental Illinois National Bank & Trust Co. These loans were made under an agreement reached Feb. 26 1930, and they are secured equally by a lien upon 90% of public works taxes in Cuba, subject only to the prior rights of holders of a small amount of 5½% serial certificates. The Cuban commission studying these loans was appointed last April in order to make recommendations, but it has no power of decision. It reached the astonishing conclusion that the financial transactions were in violation of the Cuban Constitution and other laws, and in doing so seemed to rely largely on the statement that transactions made after May 20 1929 were with a usurping Government, with the result that the loans were made to the Machado regime and not to the State.

The Chase National Bank issued, on June 19, a statement in reply to such findings. "The bank has consistently avoided political controversy in Cuba," the statement said. "It has dealt with existing Governments as Governments only, and not as political factions. The agreements made in connection with the public works financing were all examined by leading Cuban and American counsel, both at the time they were effected and in preparation for the recent investigations, and were declared by them to be valid and binding in all respects. All essential steps in the financing and all the agreements were made under the authority of the Cuban Congress and were specifically approved by it, consistently with the Constitution. Both at the time the agreements were made involving issues to the public and for more than three years thereafter, the then existing Government in Cuba was recognized by the United States as well as by every other important country in the world, and all intergovernmental matters were transacted with it. The bank is advised that there is no ground upon which these obligations can be lawfully repudiated." The purpose of the loans was cited in the statement, and it was added that all funds were duly paid out on orders, doubly certified, of responsible officers of the Cuban Republic.

Steel Trade Activity Curtailed Sharply to Meet Seasonal Demands —Uncertainty Over Extent of Summer Slump Also Affects Non-ferrous Metal Market.

The iron and steel trade showed a decided downward trend in production and prices toward the end of the month. An agreement having been entered into with the Government by representatives of the employers and employees providing for the appointment of a Board of Arbitration to settle their differences, settlement of the threatened steel strike was announced on June 28 by President Roosevelt. A drastic cut in prices of important steel products, largely those used by the automobile industry, which was announced on June 29, to become effective July 7, followed the reduction in raw steel producing activities of 20 to 25% during the last week of June. According to the new schedule filed with the American Iron and Steel Institute, steel bars are reduced $2 a ton at Pittsburgh and Cleveland, hot-rolled strip is off $3 a ton at Pittsburgh and Chicago and black sheets of all grades have been reduced $3 to $6 a ton at Pittsburgh and Gary. At the beginning of April, the price of steel bars was increased $3 a ton, while strip and sheets were advanced $5 to $8 a ton, effective on April 10 or later.

The American Iron and Steel Institute on June 4 reported the steel mills of the country as operating at 57.4% of capacity, the highest rate reached since it began publishing these figures on Oct. 23 1933. This compared with 56.1% reported for the week ended May 28 1934. The Institute's estimates showed a continued decline for each successive week during the month of June, falling to 56.9% for the week beginning June 11, 56.1% for the following seven days' period and 44.7% for the week of June 25. The latter figure was the lowest reported since April 2, when the rate of activity was 43.3% of capacity.

Sharp curtailment in steel production, which had been widely predicted in the trade following general price advances in April and May, has materialized according to expectations, said the "Iron Age" of June 28. While a 20% decline in output, or from 60% to 48% of capacity, in a single week was rather drastic, it is explained by the fact that raw steel production has recently been maintained at an artificially high rate in order to supply the diversified needs of finishing mills which must complete shipments against second quarter contracts this week in order to comply with code regulations, continued the "Age" further adding in part:

Current ingot production is particularly hard to gauge, as furnaces are being taken off daily and some companies began the week with a rate of output fully 20% higher than that at which they will finish the period. Declines have been general throughout the country, the only exceptions being at Birmingham and Detroit, where production is unchanged.

While the threat of a strike earlier in the month may have promoted the accumulation of slightly larger semi-finished steel inventories than probable rolling mill requirements seemed to warrant, this factor seems to have been somewhat overemphasized.

Building operations financed by Government funds are likely to be affected least by summer inactivity. Such projects are not influenced by code restrictions, and shipments of structural steel reinforcing bars, sheet steel piling and other building products will go on as usual during the next two months to jobs which are already under way. However, backlogs for this type of work are not especially heavy.

At Cleveland, a fair tonnage of sheets and strip steel has been placed with the understanding that if shipment cannot be made by June 30, July delivery at third quarter prices will be accepted.

The threat of labor troubles has practically ceased to be a factor in the current steel picture. This week's sharp drop in production indicates that operations are no longer being influenced, and the handling of the situation at Washington is believed to be entirely satisfactory.

The "Iron Age" composite price for steel scrap reached a new low for the year on June 5, declining to $10.67 a gross ton, as against $11.92 a month earlier and $10.08 at June 27 1933. The composite prices of finished steel and pig iron remained unchanged. Finished steel was quoted at 2.199c. a pound on June 26 1934 (price adjusted in line with code recognition of pipe preferentials) as compared with 1.904c. a year ago, while pig iron was $17.90 a gross ton as against $15.01 at the corresponding date last year.

The volume of business in nearly all major non-ferrous metals suffered greatly during the month, reflecting, said "Metal and Mineral Markets," uncertainty over the extent of the summer slump in trade in finished products. Copper, under code control, was firm, the uncertainty over the price situation being removed on June 14, when all sellers of copper moved up to the 9c. Valley basis on domestic business. The unexpected sharp rise in stocks of refined lead during the month of May did not have any apparent influence on the price structure of that metal until June 28. Zinc producers are awaiting definite word on the curtailment of concentrate production in the Tri-State district, which, if adopted, will virtually shut-down for two weeks, and then resume for two weeks, alternating on this basis to bring down the surplus. The immediate objective is understood to be an 85 to 90% shut-down in the Tri-State district during the month of July. Formation of a "buffer pool" in tin was announced on June 6 and buying by London operators was reported for this pool during the latter half of the month. Prices realized in the European copper market toward the end of the month ranged from 7.80c. c.i.f. to 7.97½c. Here in New York electrolytic copper rose sharply on June 12 from 8.25c. to 8.75c., which latter rate continued throughout the remainder of the month, with the exception of one day, June 13, when the price was reported as 8.587c. Lake copper also advanced on June 12 from 8.62½c. to 9.12½c., which latter remained the quotation for the rest of the month, except on June 13, when the price was 8.962c. Tin at New York continued its downward movement and at June 30 was quoted at 51.12½c., against 52.65c. at the close of May. Zinc at New York also showed a further falling off to 4.55c. on June 13, but closed the month higher, at 4.70c., which compared with 4.65c. at May 31. Lead at New York continued steady at 4.00c. up to June 28, when the price was reduced 15 points to 3.85c. a pound, and on the following day a further reduction to 3.75c. was announced.

Settlement of Threatened Steel Strike Announced by President Roosevelt—Representatives of Employers and Workers Agree to Appointment of Board to Investigate Labor Relations—President Establishes National Steel Labor Relations Board.

President Roosevelt on June 28 announced the settlement of the threatened steel strike, through the appointment of a board of three members to arbitrate differences between employers and workers. Representatives of steel company officials and of their employees agreed to the formation of such a board, the President said, and would accept its jurisdiction in their dispute. The President named as members of the newly-created National Steel Labor Relations Board: Judge Walter P. Stacy of North Carolina; Real Admiral Henry A. Wiley, retired, of New York, and James Mullenbach of Chicago. Agreement between employers and employees was negotiated by Secretary of Labor Perkins, and the President followed her suggestions in forming the board of arbitration.

In a statement issued at the White House, on June 28, the President said that the functions of the Board will be limited to labor relations in the steel industry. He added that the Board has been authorized to investigate cases of alleged violation of the collective bargaining clause of the National Industrial Recovery Act, to mediate in labor questions, to serve as a board of voluntary arbitration and by secret ballot to conduct labor elections to determine representatives for collective bargaining. The President said that he anticipated that the Board "will serve to maintain industrial peace with justice and to further the establishment of sound standards of labor relations in this important industry." He concluded by paying tribute to "the constructive and reasonable spirit" displayed by both employers and employees.

Hides, Leather and Footwear.

The First National Bank of Boston, in its "New England Letter," under date of June 30 1934, discusses these markets as follows:

"Stronger hide prices, sustained retail sales, relief from uncertainty following the adjournment of Congress and the approach of the fall buying season are largely responsible for lifting the shoe and leather trades out of a mid-season lull.

"Fall orders are beginning to appear in encouraging volume. While not sizable, trade reports indicate that they aggregate respectable totals. Manufacturers have stepped up operations somewhat but are reluctant to make advance commitments at this time. The price situation, due to expiring labor schedules, has been uncertain. and there may be more assurance about fall style leaders after the July Shoe Fair. Conditions should be clarified within a few weeks. In the fall Shoe Opening held at Chicago this month, footwear retailing up to $3.50 was the center of demand with less interest indicated in the higher quality merchandise. As to colors, black was predominant, with various shades of brown second, and blues third. Early indications are that suedes and pebble prints contrasting with plain and patent trims will feature the fall offerings. Blucher oxfords are steadily growing in popularity, especially in men's wear, and both custom and brogue types are stressing the narrow, stream-line effects. While production of shoes in April declined about 4%, the usual seasonal recession, it was the best April in a number of years, and for the first four months production was 17% ahead of a year ago. Stocks are believed to be satisfactory and the excellent consumer interest built up during the spring and summer together with prospects of heavier Government expenditures, indicate a busy fall.

"Sentiment in the leather trade has improved over a month ago. The uncertainty in fall shoe prices, however, has been reflected in the cautious, careful buying of manufacturers whose bids for leather are usually below tanners' replacement values. This feeling of indefiniteness has been a distinctly retarding influence. Spot business still commands some shading of prices, but the recent improvement in hide markets has resulted in a firmer undertone in quotations for the usual one to two months' deliveries. Total wettings as well as production of all cattle hide leathers declined about 4% during April, while consumption increased approximately 3%. The leather trade has had an unusually active spring season as is indicated by the fact that for the first four months of the year wettings, production and consumption ranged from 34% to 37% ahead of a year ago and better than any previous year since 1928.

"Possible effects of the drouth and Government relief measures designed to meet it played very important parts in the determination of hide prices during the past thirty days. The failure of the inflationary program to have a positive effect upon commodity prices, the unfavorable attitude of labor and the seasonal let-down in the shoe and leather industry were accompanied by a drop in hide prices from 11 cents in April to 8½ cents on June 1. Then it became apparent that earlier fears of an increased slaughter were exaggerated for many herds were moved to greener ranges and a large number of drouth cattle hides proved too inferior for the market. Hides rose from 8½ cents to 9½ cents on June 13. The total movement of cattle hides into sight is heavier than it has been in the past three years, and Federal inspected slaughter increased 15% in May and for the first five months is in excess of any previous period since 1928. Just when this movement will have spent itself is difficult to determine but hide brokers point out that the heavy kill now may mean a reduced supply for the winter and next year. Stocks, furthermore, are not heavy and the spread between foreign and domestic hide prices is favorable to our markets."

Lumber Movement Continues Slow—Lowest Since January.

The lumber manufacturing movement continued to recede to January levels during the month of June, due partly to the usual seasonal decline, partly to hand-to-mouth buying on the part of lumber retailers and largely on the Pacific Coast to the continued longshoremen's strike.

During the week ended June 23 1934, production, except for a holiday week, was lowest since February, according to telegraphic reports to the National Lumber Manufacturers Association from regional associations covering the operations of leading hardwood and softwood mills. Many mills are closed or closing for the annual Fourth of July shutdowns which promise to be longer than usual this year due to slow demand and Pacific Coast strikes. Reports from 1,378 mills for the week ended June 23 estimated production at 172,858,000 feet; shipments, 141,268,000 feet; orders, 133,024,000 feet. Reports received from 1,481 mills for the previous week showed a total production of 184,253,000 feet; shipments, 162,007,000 feet; orders, 144,700,000 feet. Reviewing lumber operations during the week ended June 23, the National Lumber Manufacturers Association further stated in part:

Orders for the week ended June 23 1934 were below production in all reporting regions except Southern Cypress and North Central Hardwood. Total softwood orders were 20% below softwood output; hardwood orders, 36% below hardwood production. As in the previous eight weeks, new business fell below that of the corresponding week of last year, all regions recording drastic declines. Total orders were less than half last year's volume at 54% below; production was 19% below that of last year's week and shipments were 45% below their 1933 record.

Reports from 1,628 mills on June 23 1934 give unfilled orders of 935,354,000 feet and gross stocks of 5,530,681,000 feet. The 524 identical mills report unfilled orders as 640,108,000 feet on June 23 1934, or the equivalent of 28 days' average production, as compared with 778,633,000 feet, or the equivalent of 33 days' average production on similar date a year ago.

Grains.

Although there were periods of strength, the general tendency of wheat markets during June was towards lower levels. Increased pressure of hedge selling against the new winter wheat crop, the heavy movement of new wheat in the Southwest, and insufficient speculative demand to absorb the offerings were largely responsible for the sagging prices. At the same time, outside interests were much inclined to take more cognizance of the decided change in world crop prospects, it being estimated that the reduction this year in the grain crops of all Europe, including Russia, will amount to around 1,400,000,000 bushels. Furthermore, despite the fact that further beneficial rains occurred in the Northwest, private reports covering the growing crop continued more or less pessimistic. All agreed that the early spring wheat had not recovered from the May drouth injury, but that the late-planted wheat still had a chance to make a fair crop, dependent, of course, upon the weather during the remainder of the season. Similar conditions existed in Canada. On June 11 the Department of Agriculture estimated the total yield of winter wheat at 400,000,000 bushels, compared with the previous month's forecast of 441,000,000 bushels. The report caused an upward movement in prices which was of short duration, as the rally soon prompted increased hedge selling. However, it is generally believed that the movement of new winter wheat in the Southwest is nearing its peak, and that pressure from this source will likewise diminish. In a preliminary survey, based upon the June crop figures, and a carryover of 265,000,000 bushels, the United States Department of Agriculture placed the total available supplies for the coming crop year at 765,000,000 bushels, which compares with 918,000,000 bushels a year ago and 1,129,000,000 bushels in 1932. In Chicago, the July option closed on June 30 at 89⅝c., compared with 103⅜c. at the opening on June 1. At Winnipeg, the July option closed at 76¼c., as against the opening of 83¾c. on June 1. Other grains also averaged lower during the month. July corn in Chicago closed at 59½c. on June 30, compared with an opening of 60¾c. on June 1. July oats closed at 43¾c. against an opening price of 47c. on June 1, while July rye closed at 65⅜c. compared with 66½c. the opening price on June 1.

Sugar.

Sales of Cuban raw sugar during June were reported as follows: On June 8 at 1.50c., which were the first since May 22, when sales were made at 1.43c. on the old duty basis. On June 13 sales were reported at 1.52c.; on June 19 at 1.63c.; on June 21 at 1.65c.; on June 22 at 1.68c., and on June 29 at 1.67c., 1.68c. and 1.72c. (the latter figure was the highest price reached since April 5 1930). All sales during June included the reduction of 50 points in the new duty on sugar, which became effective on June 8. The wholesale price for refined sugar here in New York was advanced on June 8 from 4.10c. to 4.65c., and was further increased to 4.75@4.80c. on June 25, and remained at the latter basis up to and including June 30. Quotations for refined sugar since June 8 included the new processing tax which went into effect on that day. The processing tax, as announced by the Department of Agriculture, amounts to 50c. per 100 pounds on 96 degrees test raw sugar and 53½c. per 100 pounds on refined sugar.

The "futures" market during June was subject to the influences of the Government's program for regulation of the sugar situation and the increasing seasonal demand. As a result, the market registered higher prices during the month. Demand in the July delivery was mainly for trade interests, who were believed to be covering hedges against sugar sold in the actual market. The signing of the Reciprocal Tariff bill by President Roosevelt, which cleared the way for new trade treaties, and improved demand for spot sugar, all helped to give a firmer undertone to the market. During the month the Philippine quota for 1934 was officially declared filled, and sugars in excess which will continue to arrive here have been ordered into bonded stores until 1935. It is estimated that the Puerto Rico quota will be filled by the end of July, which will leave the Cuban producers in a dominating marketing position for the next several months.

Coffee.

Coffee prices declined during the month, due to advices from Brazil indicating that the Government had withdrawn its support. No. 7 Rio was quoted on June 30 at 9½c. to 9⅝c., against 10⅜@10½c. May 31; 10¼c. April 30; 10½c. March 31; 11c. Feb. 28; 9½@9⅝c. Jan. 31; 8⅜c. Dec. 29 1933; 7½@7⅝c. Nov. 29; 7¼c. Oct. 31; 7½@7⅝c. Sept. 30; 7⅜c. Aug. 31, and 7¾c. There was no quotation Sept. 30 1932 for this grade, but earlier in September the price was 14c. bid. This compares with 12⅝c. Aug. 31; 10¼c. July 30; 9⅛@9⅝c. June 30; 9¾@10c. May 31; 9c. ### 525,000 Bags of Coffee Destroyed in Brazil During First Half of June.

Coffee destruction in Brazil during the first half of June totaled 525,000 bags, against 633,000 bags during the last half of May, according to advices to the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange. Since June 1931, the Exchange announced June 20, 28,439,000 bags, more than a year's supply for the world, has been destroyed. The Exchange continued:

That destruction has been at an increased rate during the last month and a half is indicated by the fact that 1,629,000 bags were reported destroyed by the National Coffee Department's Agencies since May 1, while during the first four months of the year, only 968,000 bags were eliminated.

World Coffee Consumption from July 1 1933 to May 31 1934 Increased 8.6% Over Similar 11-month Period Year Previous.

World consumption of coffee continues at a near record rate, deliveries for the 11 months of the crop year, July 1 1933 to May 31 1934, amounting to 22,631,321 bags against 20,835,620 bags in the similar 1932-33 period, a gain of 8.6%, according to the New York Coffee & Sugar Exchange. Under date of June 7, the Exchange further said:

United States consumption amounted to 11,365,321 bags, against 10,515,620 bags, a gain of 8%. Europe accounted for 10,156,000 bags, against 9,402,000 bags, an increase of 8%, while the rest of the world took 1,110,000 bags, a gain of 20.9%.

During the month of May this year 735,978 bags disappeared into consumptive channels in the United States; 898,000 in Europe, while 65,000 bags were delivered to other parts of the world. Last year the disappearance during May was 1,049,551, 831,000 and 78,000, respectively.

World Stocks of Coffee.

World stocks of coffee, including retained stocks in Brazil, totaled 31,117,796 bags on May 1 this year, compared with 26,089,133 bags on that date in 1933 and 36,158,366 bags in 1932, according to statistics released by the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange, on June 29. These are the first figures of total world stocks to be published since November 1933, because of the non-publication of figures on retained stocks in Brazil during the interval. A cable to the Exchange gives Brazil stocks as of May 1, 22,518,000 bags "retained," plus 3,721,000 bags in Brazilian ports. Of the retained stocks, 19,490,000 bags are held by the National Coffee Department, and, to all intents and purposes, out of the market. Privately-owned coffees, other than the port stocks, total 3,028,000 bags. Of the 19,490,000 bags controlled by the Department, 11,614,000 bags are pledged against the 1930-40 coffee loan, and 1,629,000 bags have been destroyed from May 1 to June 15, leaving stocks at the disposition of the Department on June 15, 6,247,000 bags.

Nicaragua Regulates Coffee Exports.

From Managua, Nicaragua, June 13, the New York "Times" reported the following:

The Government has issued a decree permitting coffee exporters to retain 20% of the foreign exchange derived from the exportation of coffee, but the other 80% must be delivered to the National Bank and other banks and be disposed of under the direction of the commission in control of foreign exchange. The exportation of dyes and hard woods is encouraged. Exporters of those products are permitted to retain 95% of the exchange.

Rubber.

Crude rubber showed renewed strength, helped by reports that an export tax of 5c. on Dutch native rubber had been imposed and native shipment quotas for four months beginning June 1 had been established. Later on reports of the formation of a buying pool in Singapore had a bullish effect. These favorable factors, however, were partly offset by labor difficulties in the domestic tire industry, as well as by the appearance of a less favorable consumption report for May, showing a recession this year earlier than usual. Another firming of prices occurred when the announcement was made that, for the purpose of strengthening restriction control, the Dutch East Indies Government would replace the export tax on native rubber with individual licensing of production.

Textiles.

Seasonal dulness characterized the textile markets, reflecting continued uncertainties regarding the outlook for the fall season. Retail trade remained spotty. While the initial fears concerning the bad effects of the drouth in important sections of the West subsequently proved to be somewhat exaggerated, no appreciable pick-up in sales occurred. This was particularly the case in the large urban centers, while reports from rural districts in general, and from Southern and Southwestern points in particular, made a relatively satisfactory showing. Trading in the wholesale markets improved slightly, partly as a result of actual or proposed curtailment of output in various lines. During the second half of the month, however, impending preparations for the usual semi-annual inventory taking slowed business down perceptibly. Stocks in jobbers' as well as in retailers' hands are said to be generally moderate, and an improved turnover is confidently anticipated to take place by the middle of the current month. Raw cotton in June showed a slow advancing trend, largely under the influence of rather unfavorable weather reports from the Southern belt. Lack of rain in the West and too much precipitation in the East has put an unfavorable aspect on growing conditions, for the time being, and in view of the sharply-curtailed area under cultivation, some thought is given to the possibility of crop scares developing in the near future. The settlement of the threatened textile strike also contributed to create a better feeling, as did the pushing of proposals to have the Government buy cotton for relief purposes, although no actual purchases have as yet been made. Private crop reports, released so far, predict an area of about 29,500,000 acres (as compared with 40,852,000 acres last year), and a crop of approximately 10,500,000 bales, against 13,047,000 bales raised in 1933-34. The Government report, to be published July 9, is expected to show about 29,000,000 acres under cultivation. Spot cotton here in New York was 11.80c. on June 1, and from this figure advanced to 12.30c. on June 12. A reaction carried the price to 12.10c. on June 22, but subsequently the market rallied to 12.45c. on June 26, with this quotation maintained on June 30. Mill demand was slow, reflecting the small cloth business and the sharp curtailment in output. Export demand continued to be disappointing. Print cloths at Fall River for 28-inch 64x60's was marked up June 6 from 4½c. to 4⅝c., and on June 11 was further advanced to 4¾c., and on June 16 to 4⅞c. Osnaburgs were 9⅝@9¾c. June 30 as against 9⅝c. on May 31. The report of the Census Bureau, issued June 14, and covering the month of May, showed that cotton consumption in the United States declined considerably as compared with the corresponding month in 1933. The amount consumed in May was given as 519,765 bales of lint and 63,878 bales of linters, compared with 512,703 bales of lint and 67,822 bales of linters in April 1934, and 620,561 bales of lint and 80,402 bales of linters in May 1933.

The woolen goods market continued inactive, with trading confined to some further spot purchases of tropical worsteds and flannels. Following the semi-annual inventory term, an improvement is anticipated, inasmuch as cutters' stocks of fabrics are reported to be very small. Although the proposal to shut down all productive machinery for a period of two weeks during July, to be followed by a mandatory 40-hour shift, was rejected by the industry, it is well known that actual curtailment in output has been practised for quite some time. Japanese double extra 13-15 deniers were quoted June 29 at $1.14@$1.19 against $1.18@$1.23 May 31; $1.22½@$1.27½ April 30; $1.33@$1.38 March 31; $1.45@$1.50 Feb. 28; $1.55@$1.60 Jan. 31; $1.37½@$1.42½ Dec. 29 1933; $1.40@$1.45 Nov. 29; $1.57½@$1.62½ Oct. 31; $1.82½@$1.87½ Sept. 29; $1.85@$1.90 Aug. 31; $1.83@$1.88 on July 31; $2.17½@$2.22½ on June 30; $1.65@$1.70 on May 31; $1.47½@$1.52½ April 29; $1.15@$1.20 March 31; $1.17½@$1.22½ Feb. 28; $1.15@$1.20 Jan. 31, all in 1933; $1.47½@$1.52½ Dec. 31 1932; $1.42½@$1.47½ Nov. 30; $1.55@$1.60 Oct. 31; $1.75@$1.80 Sept. 30; $2@$2.05 Aug. 31; $1.40@$1.45 July 30; $1.12½@$1.17½ June 30; $1.10@$1.15 May 31; $1.35@$1.40 April 30; $1.50@$1.55 March 31; $1.67½@$1.70 Feb. 29; $1.87½@$1.90 Jan. 30, all in 1932; $1.85@$1.90 Dec. 31 1931; $2.20@$2.25 on Nov. 30 and also on Oct. 31 1931, and with $4.70@$4.75 on Jan. 31 1930.

Producers Need Not Sell by June 30 Cotton Pledged as Security to Notes Held by CCC, Corporation Announces.

The Commodity Credit Corporation is in receipt of information that banks and lending agencies now holding cotton producers' notes are circularizing the producer-borrowers, intimating that the cotton should be sold before June 30 1934, the Corporation announced June 20. It is apparent that these circular letters, the Corporation said, are being sent by the banks and lending agencies, due to the fact that the Corporation's contract to purchase eligible cotton producers' notes expires June 30 1934. The Corporation stated that it is not necessary for producers to make sale of cotton pledged as security to notes held by the Corporation, unless they desire to do so.

Import Duty on Long Staple Cotton Reduced by Mexico.

The Mexican Government has reduced the import duty on cotton over 40 millimeters (about 1⅝ inches) long from 40 to 10 centavos per gross kilo, according to a cablegram dated June 16 from Commercial Attache Thomas H. Lockett, Mexico City, the United States Commerce Department announced June 19. There is also a surtax of 3% of the import duty, which will continue to apply.

Petroleum and Its Products.

Developments in Washington during June were featured by the adjournment of Congress without either the Senate or the House passing the oil measures sponsored by the Oil Administration and the subject of a personal request from President Roosevelt to Chairmen of the respective Committees in the two organizations handling the proposed Acts.

In the Senate the Thomas bill was reported favorably, but no further action was taken. The House Inter-State and Foreign Commerce Committee, which held hearings on the Disney bill, did not pass the measure, but instead appointed a subcommittee to investigate the oil industry and report to the next session of Congress. Such reports will be the basis for any further legislation affecting the petroleum industry, it was indicated.

The Investigating Committee was scheduled to start hearings in Tulsa, Okla., on July 9, which will continue until the following day, when a jump will be made to Oklahoma City, where the Committee is scheduled for a one-day stand. Additional hearings will be held at Austin, Tex., on July 12; Houston on July 13, 14 and 15, and at Tyler, Tex., on July 16, 17 and 18. Whether or not a preliminary survey of conditions in the Pennsylvania oil region will be made prior to the Texas trip has not definitely been decided as yet.

Despite the disappointment caused by the failure of the Thomas and Disney bills to pass in the recent session of Congress, Administrator Ickes did not let this hold him back from endeavoring to secure more complete control over the industry through amending the petroleum code.

The proposed amendment, sponsored by the American Petroleum Institute and approved by the Planning and Coordination Committee, follows:

"Upon a finding by the President or the Federal agency that inter-State commerce in crude petroleum or the products thereof is injuriously affected by an oversupply of crude petroleum in the United States, and that commerce in petroleum and the products thereof is such that any remedy to be effective in respect to inter-State commerce must incidentally apply in like manner to intra-State and foreign commerce, the President or the Federal agency may establish quotas in commerce for crude petroleum from all or any of the various pools and properties and storage sources in the United States, and while such quotas are in effect no person shall place in commerce or receive in commerce (foreign, inter-State or intra-State) by sale, exchange or consignment any crude petroleum in excess of quota and a violation of this provision shall be deemed unfair competition, an unfair trade practice, and a violation of this code."

Brief hearings on the proposed amendment to the code were held in Washington on June 27 before the Petroleum Administrative Board. The Board had not made known its decision on June 30. Administrator Ickes, in commenting on the amendment, pointed out that while it had been approved by the Planning and Co-ordination Committee, the Petroleum Administrative Board was under no obligation to accept this particular amendment and was free to suggest any possible alternative that it thought wise. The suggested amendment, however, contained practically all of the major points sought in the Thomas and Disney bills, and, if successful, would give Administrator Ickes the powers that he holds are necessary for adequate control of the oil industry to achieve the Administration's aim.

The Oil Administration did not make out so well in court decisions during June, with the only important ruling being distinctly adverse to its policies. The Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals at New Orleans, which last month overruled a decision handed down by a lower Federal court holding the petroleum code unconstitutional in a suit brought by several independent East Texas oil operators, granted the latter the right to appeal to the United States Supreme Court. A deadline of July 6 for filing of the appeal was set.

In Washington, Administrator Ickes hailed the news of this "stay order" as the possible cause of a general decline in crude oil prices following the lack of action by Congress on the requested legislation. In further comment on the ruling, Mr. Ickes said that "we now have no protection against the running of hot oil." As the month closed, however, Federal lawyers were in New Orleans seeking to have this ruling set aside.

"We have another weapon for use in enforcement of the code," Mr. Ickes stated, "in the new tax on crude oil. It supplies a means whereby the Treasury Department becomes a strong agency in stopping illegal production and refining of 'hot oil' as well as financing the Petroleum Administration." The tax referred to by Mr. Ickes is the tax of one-tenth of one cent a barrel on production and one-tenth of one cent a barrel on crude run through refineries, which became effective July 1. Revenue agents are empowered to examine books of oil operators which will enable them to check possible violations of proration rulings. Possibility of a revised method of enforcing the provisions of the code was suggested by Administrator Ickes in a statement issued late in the month following several conferences with Attorney-General Cummings.

Other major developments in Washington during the month included formal approval of the Pacific Coast marketing agreement, which became effective in the last week of June, further plans for curtailing production of "hot oil," and stabilization of the bulk gasoline markets by the Planning and Co-ordination Committee and an announcement that Oklahoma crude oil daily allowable for July and for the next four months would be cut 22,200 barrels as a penalty for heavy overproduction, which was held to have gone into storage in that State in recent months.

In Texas, highlight of the month's events was the discharge of R. D. Parker, chief enforcement agent of the Texas Railroad Commission, who had been in sole charge of the East Texas fields for several weeks. The Commission held that Mr. Parker had been negligent in his duties, with a resultant sharp spurt in "hot oil" output in that area, while Mr. Parker charged that political influences had hampered him and prevented him from accomplishing his duty. Mr. Parker joined the Texas Petroleum Council immediately following his discharge from the Railroad Commission. Governor Ferguson, through her husband, the former Governor of Texas, held the Railroad Commission and the Attorney-General directly responsible for the jump in "hot oil" production, and charged that the Commission, in discharging Mr. Parker, was attempting to "pass the buck." Possibility of a special session of the Texas legislature which would be asked to enact a measure creating a new State Oil Control Board was held out by the Governor.

In the labor field, the Sinclair organizations signed an agreement with the International Association of Oil Field, Gas Well and Refinery Workers, providing that for its one-year duration there would be no strikes or lockouts. If arbitration becomes necessary, the form it takes will be finally determined by the President of the American Federation of Labor, with which the oil workers' union is affiliated, and the employer.

There were no changes posted in crude oil prices during the month.

In the refined markets, developments during June were extended over a wide field, with California gasoline prices going up in the final week as the Pacific Coast marketing agreement was formally signed by Administrator Ickes; Chicago gasoline prices breaking sharply early in the month in a severe price-cutting war. and Texas bulk gasoline prices adversely affected by surplus stocks.

The price war which brought retail gasoline prices in Chicago area down 4c. a gallon in less than a week had not been stopped when the month ended, although the market was stabilized at the lower levels. Starting when independents advanced prices on June 4, only to immediately reduce them the next day, the war quickly brought prices below normal levels. The temporary truce, which developed around the middle of the month, was being observed by both factions on June 30.

In Texas, the plan of the Planning and Co-ordination Committee, which had as its object the dual aim of curtailing "hot oil" production and stabilizing the bulk gasoline market in the East Texas and Oklahoma areas, seemed likely to succeed as the month ended. The plan calls for the purchase of surplus stocks of gasoline held by the independent refiners in the East Texas area by the major companies in return for which the independents promise not to run "hot oil" and to observe all provisions of the petroleum code. Agreements on the pact, negotiated by Howard Bennette, National Co-ordinator of Refining Activities, had been signed by a large majority of the affected refiners at the end of the month, and early operation of the plan was held probable.

Changes in the nation's markets for refined products during June are reflected in the following price changes:

Gasoline and Kerosene.

June 4.—Shell Petroleum Co. advanced service station and tank wagon prices of gasoline in the Chicago area 2½ cents a gallon on regular and premium and 2 cents a gallon on third grade. All other major companies met the advance which followed a like markup by independent distributors earlier in the day.

June 5.—A 1-cent a gallon reduction posted in gasoline service station prices by independents was followed by a similar cut by major units who did not include premium grade in the reduction, all reductions effective in the Chicago area.

June 6.—An additional 1-cent a gallon cut in gasoline service station prices posted by independents was promptly met by all major companies, effective June 7 in the Chicago area.

June 7.—An additional 1-cent a gallon cut in Chicago gasoline service station prices was posted by some independents, bringing levels below those prevailing at the time of the original price advance Monday morning.

June 7.—Standard of Indiana and other major units cut tank wagon prices of gasoline in the Chicago area 2 cents a gallon to meet cut-price competition by independent distributors.

June 11.—Third-grade gasoline prices in the Ottawa District were reduced 3 cents a gallon to 22 cents an Imperial gallon and regular gasoline a like amount to 23 cents a gallon, taxes excluded. Premium grades of gasoline held unchanged.

June 12.—Standard Oil of New Jersey posted a reduction of ½-cent a gallon in No. 1 heating oil at New York to 5½ cents a gallon, effective June 5.

June 13.—Standard Oil of Indiana reduced service station prices of regular and third-grade gasoline in the Chicago area 1 cent a gallon to 15.3 and 13.8 cents a gallon, respectively, all taxes included. Premium grade held unchanged at 18.3 cents a gallon. All major companies met the cut with Shell Petroleum reducing all three grades 1 cent a gallon.

June 14.—Independent marketers reduced service station prices of regular and third-grade gasoline in the Chicago area 1 cent a gallon.

June 14.—Standard Oil of Indiana reduced premium grades of gasoline at service stations in the Chicago area 1 cent a gallon.

June 18.—Service station prices of gasoline were advanced 4½ cents a gallon in the Richmond, Va., area to-day to 20.1 cents a gallon for the regular grade, all taxes included.

June 25.—Standard Oil of California advances third-grade gasoline prices 2 cents a gallon and standard and premium grades 2½ cents a gallon, effective June 26. All companies followed the advance.

June 25.—All Detroit distributors reduced gasoline prices 1 cent a gallon on all three grades. Premium was held at 20 cents, regular at 18 cents and third-grade at 16½ cents a gallon, all taxes included.

June 26.—Gasoline prices were advanced 2½ cents a gallon at Memphis and Knoxville, Tenn

June 29.—Gasoline prices were reduced ½ cent a gallon in Rochester, N. Y., by all distributors.

June 29.—A reduction of 1 cent a gallon was posted in gasoline prices at Providence, R. I., by all distributors.

THE JUNE FINANCING OF THE U. S. TREASURY.

For the United States Treasury June was a month marked by the sale of an issue of 3% bonds and 2⅛% notes on the 15th, a drop in the cost of 183-day-bill financing to a new low at 0.07% and a decline in the average yield of its long-term bonds outstanding to a new low since before the world war at 2.80%.

The June 15 financing was singularly successful. It was characterized by the same policy which the Treasury has been pursuing under the present Administration, of not forcing the market by the size of issues and their interest rate and of maintaining a volume of excess member bank reserves so large as virtually to guarantee the success of any obligation offered for sale. On June 4 Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr., announced the terms of the June 15 financing. It was disclosed that $300,000,000 or thereabouts of 12-14-year 3% bonds of 1946-48, as well as $500,000,000 or thereabouts of five-year 2⅛% Treasury notes of Series A-1939, was being marketed. The response was so prompt and overwhelming that the subscription books were closed on June 5, except the books for the 3% bonds for the receipt of subscriptions for which payment was tendered in ¼% Treasury certificates of indebtedness of Series TJ-1934, maturing June 15, and 2⅛% Treasury notes of Series B-1934, maturing Aug. 1. Holders of these two issues were given the right to exchange them for the new 3% bonds, the Secretary of the Treasury reserving the right to increase the offering by an amount sufficient to allot in full such exchange subscriptions. On June 8 the books were closed for the receipt of exchange subscriptions.

The total amount of subscriptions received for the two issues was $7,935,401,200, of which $1,353,408,250 was allotted. Subscriptions to the 2⅛% notes amounted to $4,931,780,600, of which $528,591,700 was accepted, and tenders for the 3% bonds totaled $3,003,620,600, with allotments amounting to $824,816,550. A total of $171,978,500 of ¼% Treasury certificates of indebtedness, out of $175,000,000 issue maturing June 15, and $317,091,100 of the 2⅛% notes maturing Aug. 1, out of an issue aggregating $345,000,000, were offered in exchange for the new 3% bonds.

June 15 1934 is the date of both the new 3% bonds and 2⅛% notes and both bear interest from that date. On the bonds interest will be payable semi-annually on June 15 and December 15 of each year. The new 3% bonds mature on June 15 1948, but may be redeemed at the option of the United States on and after June 15 1946. The Treasury notes mature on June 15 1939 and cannot be called for redemption before that date. Once they were issued, both issues promptly went to a premium.

To take care in part of a maturity of $100,110,000 of discount bills on June 20, the Treasury sold as of the same date $75,226,000 of 182-day bills at the record low rate of 0.07%. Total subscriptions amounted to $234,994,000. It was the first bills sold by the Treasury since those dated May 23, when some 91-day bills were sold at an average rate of 0.06%, a new low, and some 182-day bills were marketed at an average rate of 0.13%. Another $75,353,000 issue of 182-day bills, dated June 27, brought an average rate of 0.07%, and a $75,000,000 issue of 183-day bills offered on June 29 and dated July 3, also sold at an average rate of 0.07%.

The details of the various Treasury bills sold in June are given in the following table:

COURSE OF THE STOCK MARKET DURING JUNE 1934.

The numerous influences which played on the stock market in June left two definite imprints on it: Prices closed a trifle higher on balance and, second, a new low in activity for a decade was reached. It is probable that the characteristic of dulness was the more important, for dealings were at such a low level as to make the stock market community heavily the loser in providing trading facilities. A liquidation of some of the trading machinery now being maintained appeared inevitable unless the market could be snapped out of its lethargy. It was something more than a coincidence that this unwillingness of the stock market circle to undertake new commitments occurred at a time when the stock exchange control bill was becoming law and the public was being kept in suspense more than three weeks as to the identity of the personnel of the regulatory commission.

For the entire month of June stock prices, as gauged by the stock average of the New York "Times," mirroring the movements of 50 issues, advanced 2.35 points, compared with a drop of 6.92 points in May and one of .77 of a point in April. It was the first time the average had closed higher since January. The greater part of the strength displayed by prices was manifested in the forepart of the month. On one day, the 8th, prices advanced more than they did for the entire month, or 3.33 points, against 2.35 points. The high for the month was 88.38 for the averages on June 19, while the low was 79.59 on June 2. The close was at 84.52. For the 25 railroad stocks used in compiling the average, the month's price peak was 37.07 on June 19, the low was 32.60 on June 2 and the last was 35.06. The 25 industrials established their high and low on the same dates, the former being 139.69 and the latter 126.59. The closing level was 133.99.

June volume in share trading on the New York Stock Exchange was only 16,800,155 shares, or approximately as much as was dealt in in one day back in October 1929 when the record was set during the panic. The total compared with one of 25,335,680 in May and with no less than 125,- 619,530 in June 1933. Not since 1920 was a lower volume registered for June, and then the total was 9,354,267. The high record for the month was reached a year ago. For the first six months the total number of shares traded was 213,276,322, against 340,859,129 in the previous year. With the exception of the 176,718,572-share total for the first half of 1932, it was the smallest volume for the period for any year since 1925. Bond trading was $110,000,000 lower in the year at $267,056,600 for June, but the total for last month was still the highest for any other year since 1926. The first six months' total, furthermore, was $2,058,161,700, the first time the volume had gone over the $2,000,000,000 mark since 1922. New York Curb Exchange sales for June totaled 3,522,430 shares, against 4,313,864 in May and 22,545,649 in June 1933. For the year to date the total was 38,357,641, compared with 49,455,147 a year ago.

The most sizable lift which stock prices experienced in June came on the 8th, when hopes rose high that the steel strike would be averted by co-operation on the part of the Administration and the labor leaders. The hopes proved not to be misplaced, but the passing of the strike threat had a sequel which had not been entirely bargained for. A few days after the possibility of a strike definitely passed the rate of steel production dipped from 56.1% to 44.7%. From this showing, it was evident that activity in the first two-thirds of June had held up because requirements were being anticipated by consumers wishing to be protected in case of a strike. Nevertheless, the stock market did not become perturbed thereat; it continued to drift aimlessly.

The improvement in the drouth situation and the consequent fall in wheat prices was of negative advantage at best to stocks. During June wheat dropped from 103¼c. to 89⅝c. without producing any alarm in the stock market, as it was realized that the spread of purchasing power in the wheat growing regions was being aided. Cotton moved up nearly 1 cent, and corn rallied strongly at the end of the month, after having been weak in the first three weeks, and closed ½ cent higher. The commodity price on which most eyes were focussed, however, was silver. This metal became still more closely watched after President Roosevelt, on June 19, signed the silver purchase bill. Already abundant evidence had been afforded that the Administration was buying silver in quantity, and after the signing of the bill Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau made it known that he intended to proceed vigorously with the carrying out of the purchase provisions of the legislation. Owing largely to Treasury buying, silver climbed in this country close to 2 cents an ounce in the futures market, while in London the gain was 1½d. net. A top price of 21⅛d. was achieved in London, the highest in about three years.

Items of an import favorable to the stock market included, in June, restoration of Kennecott Copper and Atchison shares to a dividend basis. Particularly in the case of the Atchison was this dividend action warmly greeted, and railroad issues became still more highly regarded when the Pennsylvania Railroad came forward with the declaration of another 50 cent dividend. There was no clear sign that the developments in Germany, including the declaration of the transfer moratorium and the "purging" of the Nazi party on the final day of the month, exerted any direct influence on the course of stock prices.

As to the fluctuations in individual stocks, United States Steel was at its lowest June 2, at 37⅜, and at its highest June 16, at 43¼, with the close June 30 at 38⅝. Steel preferred moved up from 79⅛ June 2 to 89 June 13, with the close June 30 at 83¼. American Tel. & Tel. was at its lowest June 2, at 111½, and at its highest June 13, at 120⅛, with the close June 30 at 113. J. I. Case Threshing Machine rose from 47¼ June 1 to 55¾ June 9, with the close June 30 at 49⅞. General Electric rose from 19⅛ June 1 to 21¼ June 9, with the close June 30 at 19⅞. Allied Chemical & Dye rose from 130 June 2 to 142 June 19, with the close June 30 at 131. Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing was at its lowest June 2 at 32⅛, and at its highest June 16, at 39¼, with the close June 30 at 36⅛. Consolidated Gas of New York moved up from 31⅛ June 2 to 35⅞ June 19, with the close June 30 at 33⅜. In the railroad list, New York Central rose from 25⅞ June 2 to 32¾ June 19, with the close June 30 at 28⅝. Delaware & Hudson was at its lowest June 2, at 49, and at its highest June 19, at 57, with the close June 30 at 53 bid. Union Pacific moved up from 119 June 1 to 127 June 19, with the close June 30 at 123. Southern Pacific was at its lowest June 2, at 20⅛, and at its highest June 18, at 26⅛, with the close June 30 at 24. Baltimore & Ohio rose from 21¼ June 2 to 26 June 16, with the close June 30 at 23¾. Chesapeake & Ohio moved up from 45¼ June 2 to 48⅝ June 16, with the close June 30 at 47½. Southern Railway was at its lowest June 2, at 23¼, and at its highest June 19, at 28⅜, with the close June 30 at 24.

In the bond market for the month of June high-grade investment issues continued to manifest their strength of previous months and steadily advanced to new high levels. However, among the less high-grade corporation bonds, the trend of prices inclined toward the more or less irregular course of the stock market. In the following table we show, as usual, the fluctuations for the month in the different issues of United States obligations, and also for a large list of railroad and industrial bonds, and a considerable number, likewise, of foreign bond issues.

The pressure of funds to find employment continued unabated, resulting in yields on prime short term investments approaching the vanishing point and in those on medium and long-term investments showing further reductions. Excess reserves of all member banks in the first half of the month reached a new high of close to $1,800,000,000, but subsequently there was a temporary reduction of approximately $200,000,000, due largely to Treasury operations connected with the sale of new security issues on the quarterly tax date. The Silver Purchase Act of 1934 will have the effect of further increasing the excess of bank reserves as the silver certificates issued thereon by the Treasury are passed on to the commercial banks and thence to the Federal Reserve banks to add to the member bank reserve account. Gold received here in June totaled $61,682,000, compared with imports of $27,719,000 in May 1934 and $562,000 in June 1933. Yields on the best grade bonds have now reached levels below those prevailing at the beginning of 1928 and in 1931, and are the lowest in many years. Total deposits of the weekly reporting member banks stood at $18,362,000,000 on June 27, representing a gain of $2,347,000,000 since the first of the year. The major portion of this gain has been invested in United States Government securities, which increased from $5,205,000,000 to $6,665,000,000. Discount holdings of the 12 Reserve banks declined further from $33,700,000, May 30 to $27,015,000 June 27, while bills bought in the open market, which stood at $5,178,000 May 30, remained practically stationary at $5,215,000 June 27. United States Treasury financing during June included the sale of $528,591,700 of 2⅛% 5-year notes and $824,816,550 of 3% 12-14-year bonds. This transaction, after allowing for the bonds exchanged for outstanding Treasury securities, increased the net interest-bearing debt of the United States by $865,000,000 in June, following a decline of $119,000,000 in the previous three months, due to the profit realized through the devaluation of the dollar. Treasury bill financing in June had no net effect on the outstanding debt as maturities of $150,000,000 of 91-day bills were replaced with new issues in the same amount of 182-day bills, on which the average yield was only 0.07%, a new low rate on this type of security. On the Stock Exchange, the official rate for call loans remained unchanged at 1%. Outside loans after having been freely available for some time at ¾%, during the last week of the month stiffened temporarily to 1%, but at the end of the month the rate again softened to ¾%, although some loans continued to be closed at 1%. Bankers' acceptances, Treasury discount bills and other prime short-term papers continued in good demand.

Commercial paper continued to meet with active investment demand on the part of the banks, and although the amounts of new material acquired by the dealers increased somewhat, especially toward the end of the month, the supply remained considerably below the volume required to fill all orders. At the beginning of the month the dealers generally were quoting average grade prime four-to six-months' paper at 1% with some sales at ¾%. Subsequently sales at the ¾% rate became increasingly important, and around the middle of the month a prevailing range of ¾ to 1% was established.

Under date of June 13 the Federal Reserve Bank of New York announced that returns received by the bank from commercial paper dealers showed a total of $141,500,000 of open market commercial paper outstanding on May 31, comparing with $139,400,000 on April 30 1934 and with $60,100,000 on May 31 1933.

Rates for bankers' acceptances continued at the extreme low rates established last April. The American Acceptance Council on June 15 published its usual survey of the acceptance market and found that for the fourth successive month, bankers' acceptances, yielding to the current stagnation in the demand for money and credit, fell off sharply during the month of May. The shrinkage amounted to $44,338,623, leaving a total on May 31 of $568,790,514, as compared with $668,811,328 May 31 1933. In announcing the figures, Robert H. Bean, Executive Secretary of the Council, stated that the greater part of the reduction from last year's figures comes in the drop in the volume of bills based on foreign transactions, which are now $73,000,000 below last year's total. The survey under review shows a reduction of $26,585,397 in bills created for the purpose of financing goods stored in domestic warehouses. The second largest reduction is in export acceptances, which went off $13,789,975. Acceptances based on goods stored in or shipped between foreign countries declined $6,698,305 and acceptances created for the purpose of financing imports declined $2,264,157. Slight increases were noted in the volume of acceptances covering domestic shipments and for the purpose of creating dollar exchange. The causes behind the drop for export acceptances and for warehouse acceptances are identical and may be definitely traced to temporary conditions resulting from abnormally low yields on bills and on acceptance credit costs, which does not make it profitable for credit takers to use the acceptance market at this time. The fact that the volume of commercial paper identified with domestic financing and the volume of exports of merchandise both show an increase in recent months, at the time the volume of bankers' acceptances for these two purposes show a sharp decline, substantiates the point that during this abnormal period commercial financing is diligently seeking the lowest possible cost.

As in recent months, the discount market suffers from a severe bill drouth. The Federal Reserve System, with only about $5,000,000 in bills, with practically no bills held for the account of foreign correspondents and a dealers' portfolio of less than $3,000,000, establishes a condition which has not existed in the American discount market in 20 years. On May 31 the accepting banks alone held a total of $507,303,923, made up of $281,169,423 of other banks' bills purchased and $226,134,500 of their own bills. This unusually heavy volume of bills locked up by accepting banks amounts to nearly 90% of all the outstanding volume. It would be to the very great benefit of the discount market and of the banks themselves if there were released each day a moderate proportion of the banks' holdings of their own bills, purchasing in return an equal amount of other banks' bills. The present tieing up of the discount market is a severe penalty on the discount market dealers whose operations in bills are now at the lowest point on record. Rates for bankers' acceptances on every day of the past month were quoted at ¼% bid 3-16% asked for 30-day, 60-day and 90-day bills; ⅜% bid and ¼% asked for 120-day bills, and ½% bid and ⅜% asked for 150-day and 180-day bills. The New York Federal Reserve Bank, in its "Monthly Review," discussed conditions in the market for bankers' acceptances as follows: "As for several months past, the discount market for bills was extremely quiet in June. Very few bills came into the market, due both to the tendency of accepting banks to hold as investments the new bills created and also to the decrease in the total volume of bills outstanding. The dealers' portfolios of bills remained at a minimum, as whatever small amounts of bills did find their way into the market were quickly absorbed by purchasers, mostly at a yield of ⅛%. No general buying and selling rates were quoted by the dealers, who continued the practice initiated in April of quoting rates only on application."

THE RETURNS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS—BROKERS' LOANS IN NEW YORK CITY.

The development of chief interest in the Federal Reserve's condition in June was the shifting about of the system's Government bond portfolio in connection with the June 15 financing of the Treasury. These changes came to light in the statement of condition for the week ended June 20. They showed the most considerable addition to the Federal Reserve's holdings of long-term Treasury bonds in a long while.

In the one week the system's investment in Treasury bonds rose from $406,416,000 to a new high at $472,206,000. Simultaneously, the regional banks' holding of Treasury notes dropped from $1,202,264,000 to $1,192,609,000, or $9,655,000, and the amount of Treasury certificates and bills in their portfolio fell from $821,726,000 to $765,365,000 on June 20, a decline of $56,361,000. In the following week, that ended June 27, a slight decrease of $2,953,000 occurred in the system's bonds, yet there took place again a turning from short to somewhat longer maturities.

On this latter occasion, the rearrangement of the securities portfolio consisted of a decline of $23,516,000 in certificates and bills and an increase of $26,563,000 in notes. From May 30 to June 27 a reduction of $65,621,000 took place in the Federal Reserve's certificates and bills, an increase of $2,682,000 occurred in its notes and a $63,059,000 gain was recorded in its long-term bonds. This greater concentration of investment in the longer term field is a result in good part of the compulsion which the Federal Reserve feels itself to be under to look to its earnings. The yields it is able to get on the certificates and bills and notes are quite low now, or non-existent, and so the system is turning to the longer dated issues. By so turning, of course, the banks of issue are able to lend encouragement to the easing of the long-term interest rates, a development which they believe to be desirable. In addition, the path is made more smooth for the great lot of long-term financing which the Treasury must undertake before the current spending program of the Administration is carried out.

While this is the first time that the Federal Reserve is shown to have increased its stake appreciably in long-term Treasury issues, as a matter of record it should be pointed out that there was some enlargement of the system's bond holdings last November and again in April. At each time the Federal Reserve exchanged some Fourth 4¼s for new bonds. As the Fourth 4¼s were already carried under the heading of bonds, even though they had been called for redemption and were really a short-term security, the adjustments in the portfolio were not revealed at the time.

On the credit side, June was not a month of significant change. The volume of Federal Reserve credit in use was $5,000,000 lower, chiefly as a result of the $6,685,000 decrease in bills discounted to a low of $27,015,000. The bills bought in the open market showed little change at $5,215,000, consisting almost altogether of unliquidatable foreign currency bills. Government securities on balance held at $2,430,274,000.

The volume of member bank reserve balances moved up in the week ended June 13 to a new all time high at $3,895,108,000, giving the entire membership excess reserves of about $1,780,000,000, a level never before exceeded or even equalled. A drop of $126,552,000 in member bank balances with the system occurred in the week ended June 20, owing to subscriptions in cash to new Treasury issues. A $67,989,000 upturn in member bank reserves was shown in the final week of the month, and for the four weeks ended June 27 these balances had a gain of $73,616,000.

One of the most influential factors in building up reserve balances was, as before, the Treasury's gold policy. In the four weeks ended June 27 the country's monetary gold stock increased $70,000,000. The gold certificates deposited with the Federal Reserve by the Treasury in this period, however, were higher by $133,717,000, indicating that substantial use was being made again of the "profit" realized at the end of January in the revaluation of the dollar. A net decline of $37,000,000 in currency circulation added a like amount to the member bank reserve total, and a $4,000,000 decline was recorded in non-member deposits, etc. Treasury deposits with the Federal Reserve, on the other hand, were $82,760,000 higher in the four-week period, while Treasury cash and deposits with the Federal Reserve, combined, increased $26,000,000 net. Federal Reserve note circulation was up $4,390,000. Another decline, this time of $14,075,000, took place in the Federal Reserve bank note circulation.

Brokers' loans had a gain of $102,000,000 from May 30 to June 27, the total moving up from $915,000,000 to $1,017,000,000. Loans placed by local reporting banks for own account were $104,000,000 higher at $847,000,000. Loans placed for account of out-of-town banks were $2,000,000 higher at $166,000,000. Loans for account of others fell from $8,000,000 on May 30 to $4,000,000 on June 27. The Street loan total, as compiled by the New York Stock Exchange, increased $65,853,441 to $1,082,240,126, which compares with $1,088,226,359 on April 30 and with $780,386,120 on June 30 1933.

COURSE OF STERLING EXCHANGE DURING JUNE 1934.

Sterling exchange was under pressure throughout June, continuing a course which developed around the end of March. This pressure was due chiefly to operations originating on the Continent and coming largely from Paris. It reflected to a great extent the complete restoration of confidence in the French franc. French and other Continental owners of funds and gold in London continued to withdraw their balances in large amounts for redeposit and employment in France and other European countries. This movement offset whatever seasonal factors might have favored a stronger sterling. Meanwhile the expansion of trade in Great Britain called for large imports, a feature of international trade which, under normal conditions, would have come to an end some months earlier. The usual tourist requirements were at an exceptionally low ebb, owing largely to the changed relation of the United States dollar to the European currencies, so that this factor failed to relieve the pressure from other quarters. Heavy purchases of gold in London by American and foreign interests, in addition to heavy purchases of silver for American account, likewise failed to counterbalance the withdrawal of funds and gold from the London market. Speculative transactions were at a minimum, and as during many previous months, regular business requirements predominated in a thin and frequently listless market. Rates ruled lower than in May, but fluctuations were within comparatively narrow limits considering the general demoralization of foreign exchange and foreign trade relations.

In commenting on the foreign exchange situation in June, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York said, in its "Monthly Review" for July 1:

"After recovering somewhat in the early part of June, foreign exchange quotations turned gradually downward from about June 9 to 25, but subsequently a moderate advance occurred. Sterling, which had receded seven cents in May, declined three cents in the opening days of June, but quickly regained this loss. As a result of subsequent irregular fluctuations, quotations around the end of June were little different than at the close of May. The French franc was quoted below the estimated gold import point at the beginning of the month, but following moderate shipments of gold from Paris to New York, recovered to above the gold point and remained there for the balance of the month. Belgas, guilders, and Swiss francs generally moved in accord with sterling and French francs.

"The reichsmark, which was subject to varied influences during June, fell precipitously from a close of $0.3904 on the 1st to $0.3765 on the 5th, but after a period of irregularity rose rapidly near the end of the month to $0.3940 on the 27th. Lire turned strong early in the month, shortly after the announcement of stricter foreign exchange regulations, and registered a new high closing rate since mid-February at $0.0868½ on June 6, but subsequently the rate declined to a level only slightly above the closing May quotation.

"There was no change in the prevailing relationship between sterling and the Scandinavian, Japanese and Argentine exchanges, but Brazilian milreis again moved independently, and did not go below $0.0850. Aside from the silver currencies, which gained slightly with the price of silver, the Canadian dollar was the principal currency which showed strength in this market, rising from $1.0025 on June 1 to a high of $1.0166 on June 18, and closing the month above $1.01."

The British Exchange Equalization Fund seemed to have intervened very little in the market, and not at all to prevent the downward movement of sterling in terms of francs. or gold. Its only purpose in operating seemed to have been to keep the decline orderly. Paris comment on numerous occasions during May had been indicative of dissatisfaction with the way in which the Equalization Fund had been working. Complaints were made that the fund was active enough whenever sterling tended to become firm, but seemed to be operating with reluctance whenever the pound showed a downward trend. The French bankers feared that if the pound depreciated too much against dollars, President Roosevelt might again be induced to increase the American gold price, depreciating the dollar toward the 50c. level. These fears were recurrently expressed in foreign markets during June.

Throughout May the London check rate on Paris was generally fairly well above 77 francs to the pound, but on May 31 dropped to 76.98 francs to the pound. Under normal conditions, or under conditions which prevailed prior to September 1931, the average rate for London checks on Paris would be 124.21 francs to the pound. On May 31 and on June 1 the London check rate on Paris was 76.98 francs to the pound. The rate steadily weakened, with some fluctuations from day to day, until on June 26 the average quotation for the day dropped to 76.277 francs to the pound, having been quoted in London that day as low as 76.24. a week earlier the rate had dropped momentarily from 76.35 to 76.25 francs to the pound. These were the lowest gold quotations ever recorded for sterling. In keeping with the low sterling-franc rate the pound made a low for the month of $5.02⅞, on June 26, the high for the month having been $5.07⅞, on June 7. These figures compare with the high for sterling in May of $5.13⅞, on May 9, and the low of $5.06½, on May 31.

The relative steadiness of sterling with respect to the dollar is reflected in the dollar equivalent for gold in the London open market, which shows very little change from May. On June 1 the London price for gold converted into dollars was $34.77. The lowest price during the month appeared twice, on June 4 and June 14, at $34.75, and the highest on June 9, at $34.86. In British quotations the gold price had a range of from 137s. 1½d., on June 1, to 138s. 2½d., on June 26. In February the London price had touched 140s. per fine ounce. On a percentage basis of the new dollar parity the dollar-sterling rate and the price paid for gold in London shows a slightly narrower range than in May. In January the dollar had a value in London of 3% to 4% above the value placed upon it by Washington. In June the differential was only from 32/100% to 75/100% in favor of the dollar. This premium on the new dollar, even at 32/100%, has been far below the point at which gold could be imported from London to New York on a basis of profitable exchange. Nevertheless, more than £6,126,000 of gold available in the London open market was engaged for American account. Of the total of £9,550,000 available, £3,324,000 was taken in the second half of the month for unknown destination, believed to have been for European gold hoarders and to have been left for the most part on deposit with the London banks, though doubtless some of this gold was shipped to Paris.

The relative firmness of dollars to sterling is due in large part to the fact that the balance of payments is greatly in favor of the United States and that there has undoubtedly been a continued repatriation of American funds abroad and of European funds attracted to New York by United States Government offerings, as the opportunities for the employment of money in London or on the Continent are greatly curtailed.

The following tables give the London check rate on Paris from day to day, the price of gold in shillings and pence in the London open market, the price paid for gold by the United States, and the London gold price converted into dollars:

Only slight changes were reported in the Bank of England's gold holdings during June. In the week ended June 6 the bank reported an increase of £13,759; in the week ended June 13, an increase of £27,985; in the week ended June 20, an increase of £19,395, and in the week ended June 27, a decrease of £5,783. Details of the gold movement to and from the United States are outlined as follows in the "Monthly Review" of the New York Federal Reserve Bank for July 1:

"Gold imports purchased by the New York Assay Office during June amounted to $59,000,000, or double the volume imported in May. The principal amounts received were $28,300,000 from England, $12,000,000 from India, $9,300,000 from France, $6,700,000 from Canada, $2,200,000 from Mexico, and $350,000 from Holland. Pacific Coast imports of gold totaled $2,200,000, representing shipments from China. In addition, the United States monetary gold stock was increased by the release of $1,300,000 of gold previously earmarked at this bank for foreign account, and by receipts of scrap gold by the mints and assay offices averaging about $1,300,000 weekly, and of newly-mined domestic gold averaging $2,000,000 a week. In the aggregate, the monetary gold stock rose approximately $75,000,000 during June to a new high figure of more than $7,850,000,000."

Canadian exchange continued relatively firm in terms of the dollar, and funds on Montreal were at a slight premium throughout the month. On June 1 Montreal funds were at a premium of ¼@11/32%. The range for the month was from ¼% to 1¾%, and on June 30 the premium was 1 1/16%.

THE CONTINENTAL AND OTHER FOREIGN EXCHANGES.

Exchange on the Continental countries followed much the same course as was evident in April and May. The French franc continued to maintain a most satisfactory position, while the German mark rapidly approached a crisis. The French franc receded from the high ground occupied in the two previous months with respect to the United States dollar, but continued firm as the leading gold currency. It receded below the gold point against the dollar for a short time early in the month, resulting in a shipment of $9,300,000 in gold from Paris to New York. The recession from parity, however, was far from approaching the lower gold point so closely as to make the shipments excessively attractive to the banking institutions involved.

The strength of the franc is indicated by its relation to sterling. On June 26 the franc was so strong against the pound that the London check rate on Paris fell to an all-time low of 76.24 francs to the pound, whereas prior to the abandonment of gold by Great Britain in 1931 the normal rate ruled around 124.21 francs to the pound. The movement, which began early in the year, of Continental withdrawals from London continued strong during June. Not only were French funds repatriated from London, but other Continental funds were also withdrawn and deposited in Paris, taking the ultimate form of additional gold coverage for the Bank of France. Meanwhile the almost complete restoration of confidence in the French position brought about the return of hoarded gold in large amounts from French nationals. Both the British Equalization Fund and the Bank of France frequently intervened in the market to protect the franc from too sharp an advance against sterling.

The Paris market was exceptionally free from disquieting rumors until toward the end of the month, when there was a resurgence of riotous political disturbances in the larger French cities, with the exception of Paris itself. Owing to the way in which sterling had been steadily slipping against the franc and to renewed rumors that the United States might further devalue the dollar by again increasing its gold price, the money devaluation forces in France, representing chiefly the export interests, became somewhat more articulate in the last week of the month.

The strength of the French position at the beginning of the month was revealed emphatically by the reduction in the rediscount rate of the Bank of France from 3% to 2½% which took place on May 31. This reduction was justified by the great accumulation of gold in the Bank of France, which had resulted in an increase in gold holdings for 12 successive weeks up to June 1, aggregating 3,537,382,816 francs for the period. This movement of gold continued unabated throughout June. The Bank of France statement for the week ended June 1 showed an increase in gold holdings of 811,518,381 francs; for the week ended June 8, an increase of 368,013,552 francs; for the week ended June 15, an increase of 284,325,737 francs; for the week ended June 22, an increase of 271,141,044 francs, and for the week ended June 29 an increase of 347,000,000 francs. The last addition constituted the seventeenth successive weekly increase in the bank's gold holdings, bringing the aggregate increase for the period to 5,619,000,000 francs, and making the bank's total gold holdings on June 29, 79,548,000,000 francs. Its proportion of gold on hand to sight liabilities was 79.12% on that date, compared with 77.80% a year earlier, and with legal requirement of 35%. Cable transfers on Paris were 6.53¾ on June 1, the low for the month, and touched a high of 6.62¼ on June 11. Paris cable transfers ranged on June 30 between 6.59¼@6.59¾.

The situation of the German mark is, of course, profoundly affected by the German debt moratoria, which were decreed on June 14 to take effect on July 1, and need not be discussed here.

There are no less than five different kinds of marks in addition to the so-called "free" mark, which is quoted from day to day in the foreign exchange columns of the press. This is the mark supposed to have full gold value (present dollar parity, 40.33). The volume of free marks available and their price is really manipulated by the Reichsbank. Marks that are paid for imports and part of the marks hitherto raised for foreign debt service have really their full gold value, that is, the Reichsbank exports gold to insure the legal value of one pound of fine gold equaling 1,932 marks as prescribed by the bank law of 1924. But marks used for a great many other purposes, divided by decree into some 30 categories of use or application, cannot be converted into gold of any amount. These marks are divided into various classes: "Old deposit marks," "credit blocked marks," "note blocked marks," "securities blocked marks," "registered marks," and "scrip marks." These classified "marks" give a fictive value to the free mark.

NOTICE.—Cash and deferred delivery sales are disregarded in the month's range, unless they are the only transactions of the month, and when selling outside of the regular monthly range are shown in a footnote in the month in which they occur. No account is taken of such sales in computing the range for the year.

The tables on pages 19 to 41 furnish a complete record of the transactions on the New York Stock Exchange during June 1934 and the range since Jan. 1. They need no extended introduction, as they are self-explanatory. The tables embrace every security dealt in on the Exchange. We give bonds first, using the classification adopted in the official list, The black-faced letters in the column headed "Interest Period" indicate in each case the month when the bonds mature.

In accordance with the rule adopted by the New York Stock Exchange in 1909, all quotations for interest-paying bonds are at a price to which accrued interest must be added. The exceptions to the rule are income bonds and bonds on which interest is in default. A few other bonds, like the Holland-America Line 6s, for special reasons, are also quoted "flat," but where this is the case the quotation "flat" will be found against the name of the issue. This method of quoting bonds became effective Jan. 2 1909.

NOTE.—State and City Securities.—Sales of State and City securities occur very rarely on the New York Stock Exchange and usually only at long intervals, dealings in such securities being almost entirely at private sale over the counter. The Stock Exchange record hence is imperfect and misleading. Bid and Asked quotations, however, by active dealers in these securities will be found on a subsequent page under the general head of "United States & Municipal Bonds."

During the entire month, and for some time past, there have been rumors of probable devaluation of the "free" mark. These rumors were borne out by official utterances during the month. That the mark will not be devalued has been strongly reiterated in other equally important quarters. The development of the German debt situation during the past year, the declaration of the moratoria on June 14, and the steady exhaustion of the Reichsbank's gold coverage disclosed in June the purely nominal position of the gold mark. Strangely enough, after the declaration of the moratoria the free mark showed erratic firmness, for the market interpreted the moratoria as in the nature of a release from pressure for the Reichsbank. The mark closed on June 1 at 39.05. In the first week of June it registered a low of 37.62, and during the last week of the month showed a range of between 38.19 and 39.46, with the range on June 30 at 38.65@38.81. The Reichsbank's statement for the first quarter of June showed a decrease in gold holdings of 18,969,000 reichsmarks; for the second quarter, a decrease of 16,809,000 reichsmarks; for the third quarter, a decrease of 21,839,000 reichsmarks, and for the last quarter, ended June 30, a decrease of 2,309,000 reichsmarks. The bank's total gold holdings are now down to 70,178,000 reichsmarks, compared with 188,719,000 reichsmarks a year ago, and with 832,209,000 reichsmarks at the end of June 1932. On June 30 1933 the proportion of gold and foreign currency to note circulation was down to 7.5%. It fell successively from 3.7% on May 31 to 3.4% on June 7; 2.9% on June 15; 2.3% on June 23, and 2.0% on June 30.

Italian lire were generally firmer in June, although still well below dollar parity. The pressure against lire was reflected chiefly in the Continental gold currencies, especially during the last half of the month. Dispatches from Rome stated that no exaggerated importance should be attached to passing weakness of the lira, for the technical position of the unit remains sound and the Italian authorities are in good position to maintain the lira at a stabilized rate. The last returns of the Bank of Italy showed that the adverse pressure against lire was still considerable, the gold reserves having declined 40,000,000 lire further during the first 10 days of June. Italian opinion is that the lira will be able to maintain the gold standard so long as France holds out. It is claimed that the lira is now sufficiently protected by recent exchange restrictions aimed at preventing circulation of the unit and outflow of capital. The power of the Bank of Italy to supervise exchange operations was increased in June. A new restriction introduced made it compulsory for Italian nationals to make declarations of their foreign holdings. The par of the lira is 8.91c. The lira closed on June 1 at 8.59c. In the first week of the month it went to a high of 8.69c., and touched its low for the month during the last week, when it had a range of between 8.52¼ and 8.57, having ranged on June 30 between 8.55@8.56.

Austrian exchange is one of the minor units in New York. Fluctuations have been rather narrow, and governed largely by the cross rates between Vienna, Milan and Zurich. Interest attaches to it at this time because of the reduction in the Austrian bank rate on June 27 from 5% to 4½%. The decrease in the Austrian rate, as foreign exchange markets are at present constituted, has no special bearing on foreign exchange or money trends.

Exchange on the countries neutral during the war followed much the same trends as have prevailed for the past few months. The Scandinavian currencies moved strictly in sympathy with sterling exchange, to which they are closely allied by commercial interests. The gold bloc units, the Holland guilder and the Swiss franc, were firm throughout the month in terms of all other currencies and in comparison with the dollar, although at all times below dollar parity. Both the Swiss and the Dutch financial situations are very satisfactory, and official utterances in both countries give reassurance of the strong adhesion of both to the gold standard. Money became so plentiful in Amsterdam that rates were reduced early in the month following upon three successive reductions made in May. In the first week of June the private discount rate in Amsterdam was decreased from 15/16% to 11/16%, and on the same date, June 4, the buying rate on prime guilder acceptances was reduced from 1% to ¾%. Par of the guilder is 68.06. The unit ranged this month between 67.64 and 68.04. Guilder cables on Amsterdam sold at 67.76@67.81 on June 30, against 67.60@67.78 on June 1. Par of the Swiss franc is 32.67. The range this month was between 32.46 and 32.59. Swiss francs for cable transfers were 32.50@32.52 on June 30, against 32.47@32.50 on June 1. Cable transfers on Sweden were 26.00@26.02 on June 30, against 26.13@26.16 on June 1.

Exchange on the South American countries was without feature, with quotations largely nominal because so little of the South American business is conducted through New York. Though these units continue under the control of government boards, a steadily increasing degree of freedom has been allowed during the past few months. This is especially true of Argentine paper pesos. The Argentine-American Chamber of Commerce recently forwarded a resolution to the United States Secretary of State urging that the State Department consider arranging with the Argentine Government for settlement of American balances now impounded in Argentina. The nominal or official rate for Argentine paper pesos continued around 33½@34, but the unofficial market had a range during the month of June between 23.60@25.30. Brazilian milreis continued to move independently of the relationships existing between sterling and the major exchanges. Milrei cable transfers were steady throughout the month, with a range of between 8.40@8.53.

Exchange on the Far Eastern countries was influenced largely by the course of silver in the case of the Chinese currencies, while Japanese yen, as usual, were inclined to follow very closely the fluctuations in sterling exchange. Silver was firm throughout the month. The London price on June 30 was 21d. per pound, against 19 9/16d. on May 31. The Chinese currencies were firm in consequence of the ruling silver prices, and the Shanghai dollar for checks sold at 34.14@34 7/16 on June 30, against 32.38@32¾ on June 1. The Hong Kong dollar was 37,72@38 5/16 on June 30, against 36.06@36 5/16 on June 1. Yen checks sold at 29.83@29.92 on June 30, against 30.05@30.12 on June 1.

General Quotations

OF BONDS AND STOCKS

In the earlier part of this publication complete records of the dealings on the leading stock exchanges of the country, for the latest month and for the calendar year to date, are furnished. In this department of General Quotations we combine in one comprehensive whole, securities of all classes and descriptions, not only those dealt in on the exchanges, but also leading unlisted and inactive securities. The following is an index to the different classes of securities quoted:

| | Page | | Page | | Page |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Exchange Seats | 89 | Joint Stock Land Bank Securities | 115 | Railroad Stocks | 77 |
| Federal Land Bank Bonds | 96 | Mining Stocks | 90 | Real Estate Bonds | 95 |
| Foreign Government Bonds | 97 | Municipal Bonds (Domestic) | 96 | Real Estate Trust and Land Stocks | 91 |
| Industrial Bonds | 87 | Canadian | 98 | Textile Stocks | 90 |
| Industrial Stocks | 91 | Public Utility Bonds | 79 | Title Guarantee and Safe Deposit Stocks | 91 |
| Insurance Stocks and Scrip | 90-116 | Public Utility Stocks | 84 | United States Government Securities | 96 |
| Investment Trust Securities | 78 | Railroad Bonds | 73 | United States Territorial Bonds | 96 |

Quotations for all securities are as near as possible for the closing day of the month preceding the date of issue. As the New York Stock Exchange began with Jan. 2 1909 to quote all bond prices "and interest," we have adopted the same method and no longer employ a designating mark to indicate the fact except where there is a deviation from this rule. The reader will understand, therefore, that unless the letter "f" is prefixed to the price, he must pay accrued interest in addition to the price. This, however, does not apply to income bonds or bonds in default, in which cases the price includes the interest, should there be any.

The letter "f" prefixed to bond prices denotes that the quotation is a flat price—that is, that the accrued interest forms part of the price, and therefore the purchaser does not have to provide for it separately in making payment. As already stated in the case of income bonds and bonds in default, the price is always "flat," and no designating mark is employed to indicate the fact.

Quotations for equipment bonds are based on average maturities.

Quotations for guaranteed stocks are "and dividend"; that is, the accrued dividend must be paid in addition to the price.

It should be borne in mind in the use of these tables that the quotations for many inactive and unlisted securities are merely nominal, but in all cases the figures are obtained from sources which are considered reliable.

The following abbreviations are often used, viz.: "M" for mortgage, "g" for gold, "gu" for guaranteed, "end" for endorsed, "cons" for consolidated "conv" for convertible, "s f" for sinking fund, "l g" for land grant, "op" for optional.

The black-faced type in the letters showing the interest period indicates the month when the bonds mature.

NOTICE.—All bond prices are "and interest" except where marked "f" and income and defaulted bonds.

Industrial and Miscellaneous Securities

Under the heading "Industrial and Miscellaneous Securities" we include all issues which do not appear under the previous two headings, namely "Railroads" and "Public Utilities." In the case of stocks, however, we put "Textile Manufacturing," "Insurance," "Mining," "Real Estate and Land," "Title Guarantee and Safe Deposit Companies" under separate heads, then follow with the rest of the "Industrial and Miscellaneous."

NOTICE.—All bond prices are "and interest" except where marked "f" and income and defaulted bonds.

Quotations for all securities are as near as possible for the closing day of the month preceding the date of issue.

United States and Municipal Bonds

Quotations are as near as possible for the last day of the month preceding the date of issue.

In reporting below prices for State and municipal securities, we give bid and asked quotations wherever they can be obtained. The custom, however, is to quote municipal securities on the basis of the return they yield per annum. Therefore in most cases it will be found that instead of actual prices we have inserted in the column headed "To Net" certain figures to indicate the interest rate at which business in the bonds is being done. Thus 4.35% means that the particular security can be bought or sold at a price that will yield the purchaser or seller 4.35% per annum to the maturity of the issue. Where two figures appear, as, for instance, "4.25% to 4.35%," the rate of return varies according to the maturity—the shorter maturities yielding the lowest rate, and the longer maturities yielding the highest return. Where, however, a range for basis prices appears, and the higher figure of the range is given first—thus, "5.00 to 4.75"—then the higher yield is meant to be the bid price and the lower yield the asked price. It is proper to add that as far as the different maturities are concerned, it not infrequently happens now, owing to the unsettled state of the municipal bond market, that no distinction is made between the different maturities, all being quoted alike.

In State and municipal bonds the custom has always been to quote them "and interest"; that is, the accrued interest must in all cases be added on.

Note.—Owing to the present demoralized condition of the municipal bond markets, brokers and dealers find it difficult, and in many cases almost impossible, to make quotations for municipal bonds. Bid prices, especially for the smaller municipalities, are practically out of the question and sales or terms are simply a matter of bargaining between buyer and seller. In fact, the absolute lack of demand often causes good bonds to be offered at a most any price.

STATE AND NATIONAL BANK STATEMENTS

Quotations in this department are given per share, not per cent, except for stocks of Canadian Institutions, and are as near as possible for the closing day of the month preceding date of issue, though often are nominal. An asterisk (*) denotes sales.

Figures of deposits, capital and profits for the National banks are from the Comptroller's last call; for all other institutions they are the latest obtainable, direct returns being procured by us where no periodic statements are required. For the Clearing House banks of New York, deposits are taken from the latest weekly statement.
