REVIEW OF JUNE.

The progress of the war with Spain and the collapse of the Leiter wheat deal, resulting in a severe break in the price of the cereal, have been the influences of chief moment during June. The developments in connection with the war have on the whole been very assuring. While progress has perhaps been slower than expected, and there has been some loss of life on our part in minor skirmishes, nothing occurred at any time during the month to disturb the even tenor of the markets.

The operations before Santiago de Cuba were of prime importance. Admiral Cervera and his fleet having taken refuge in the harbor of Santiago, plans had to be laid for the destruction or capture of this fleet, and as part of these plans the taking of Santiago itself finally became a necessity. Commodore Schley had on May 31 made an attack on the fortifications at the mouth of the harbor, doing considerable damage. But this was simply by way of reconnoissance to determine the character of the defenses and the presence of the Spanish fleet. After that there were frequent attacks, in a small way, on the batteries and forts in the vicinity of Santiago by one or more of the American ships, and also some formidable attacks by the whole fleet. These assaults in some instances did considerable damage, the Spanish cruiser Reina Mercedes being sunk as the result of one of them, but the arrival of the army from the United States under General Shafter had to be awaited before any decisive engagement could be undertaken.

On the morning of the 3d a most daring exploit was executed by Assistant Naval Constructor Hobson. He succeeded in sinking the collier Merrimac in the narrow channel at the entrance to the harbor of Santiago. The move was very carefully planned and carried out with great brilliancy in face of the fire of the Spaniards. Hobson had with him seven men, two of whom were slightly wounded by the Spanish fire. After the completion of their task, they fell into the hands of the enemy. Admiral Cervera seems to have been much impressed with the bravery of the attempt, for, under a flag of truce, after their capture he immediately notified Admiral Sampson of the fate of the gallant little band, and informed him that they would be held as prisoners of war and might be exchanged for Spaniards held in captivity. The Spanish authorities, however, placed obstacles in the way, and the exchange has not yet been effected.

On June 10 the first landing in force by Americans on Cuban soil took place in Guantanamo Bay, about 40 miles east of Santiago. Admiral Sampson, feeling the necessity for a base of supplies for the army and navy, determined to seize Guantanamo Bay for the purpose, and having accomplished this, on the 10th (in the afternoon) he sent a force of 900 marines ashore, who took possession of the Caimanera blockhouse, raising the American flag over it. The Spaniards (who had also previously and with great tenacity resisted the naval attacks) quickly took the aggressive, and unsuccessfully sought to storm the American camp. The fight was kept up for several days; and until the arrival of reinforcements the position of these marines was a most trying one, they being harassed day and night. In one of the earlier engagements Assistant Surgeon Dr. John Blair Gibbs and several others were killed. On the 20th, after many delays, the fleet of transports, carrying 16,000 United States troops under General Shafter, finally arrived off Santiago de Cuba. Gen. Shafter did not delay long in beginning operations, and about five thousand Cubans under Gen. Garcia rendered effective aid to the Americans. In an attack on the Spaniards by some dismounted troops of cavalry on the morning of the 24th, at La Quasina, within a few miles of Santiago, Sergeant Hamilton Fish, Jr., and others were killed.

At San Juan, Porto Rico, on the 22d Captain Sigsbee with the St. Paul repelled an attack by a Spanish cruiser and the Spanish torpedo boat destroyer Terror, which was hit three times and had to be towed into the harbor in a sinking condition. It was announced on the 24th that it had been determined to send Gen. Shafter additional reinforcements with the view to raising the strength of his army to 30,000 or 40,000 men. President McKinley on the 27th issued a proclamation extending the blockade of Cuban ports so as to include the whole of the southern coast from Cape Frances to Cape Cruz inclusive. He also declared a blockade of San Juan, Porto Rico.

In the campaign against the Philippine Islands the principal events were the embarking from San Francisco of the second and third detachments of the army and the sailing the latter part of the month of Gen. Merritt himself. The insurgents in the Philippines continued very active and overcame the Spaniards at nearly all points except Manila. The latter part of the month the Spanish fleet hastily improvised under Admiral Camara set sail from Cadiz, and reached the entrance to the Suez Canal, presumably on its way to the Philippines. The announcement was made on the 27th that a new United States squadron had been ormed under Commodore Watson, and that it was the intention to send this squadron to Spain.

The United States Senate, on the 4th, by a vote of 48 against 28, passed the War Revenue bill. Its form had been greatly changed. The amendment of the Senate Finance Committee proposing the issue of greenbacks was rejected. By a vote of 45 to 31 a substitute was adopted providing for the issue of $100,000,000 of certificates of indebtedness and $300,000,000 of bonds. The Finance Committee's amendment with reference to the coinage of the silver seigniorage had also been altered by the substitution of a clause providing for the coinage of the silver bullion at the rate of not less than $4,000,000 a month. The substitute was offered by Senator Wolcott and was adopted by a vote of 48 to 31. An entirely new provision incorporated was a tax of 10 cents a pound on tea. The bill also provided for the taxing of inheritances. The House of Representatives refused to concur in the Senate amendments and the bill therefore went to a conference committee. The conference made a number of minor changes, besides increasing the bond issue from $300,000,000 to $400,000,000, and also altered the silver coinage section so as to provide for the issue of only 1½ million dollars silver a month. The conference report was adopted in the House on the 9th by a vote of 154 to 107, and in the Senate on the 10th by a vote of 43 to 22. The President signed the bill on the 13th and the Secretary of the Treasury the same day invited subscriptions for $200,000,000 of the 3 per cent bonds authorized by the Act.

The collapse in wheat came suddenly and unexpectedly. The letting down of the price of the May option on May 31 fifty cents a bushel had occasioned some comment, but it was accepted as indicative rather of a wise policy than of possible embarrassment. So far, however, from having completely closed out his deals on that day Leiter was still carrying very large amounts and buying more in the attempt to sustain the market. On the 13th the announcement came that the elder Leiter, who had been furnishing the cash for the undertaking, had refused to put up any more money, and as a consequence the speculation came to an end. The July option here in New York, which on June 1 opened at 106 and on the 11th had closed at 92¾, quickly dropped to 81⅜ on the 13th. The price continued to decline after that, the July option touching 75½ on the 20th. The close was at 79⅞ cents. Leiter made arrangements with P. D. Armour for taking over his holdings, and the latter, it is believed, disposed of the greater part by the end of the month.

An event of much encouragement was the victory for sound money achieved in the Oregon election on the 6th. The issue was sharply defined, the Republicans having declared unqualifiedly for the gold standard, while the fusion ticket declared squarely for silver. The Republicans carried the State by 10,574 plurality, on a total vote of 84,753, where in 1896 McKinley had only 2,000 plurality.

The money market continued in a state of pronounced ease, and rates dropped to very low figures.

The foreign exchange market showed considerable irregularity. The early part of the month the tendency of sterling was upward, and the decline in the Bank of England and open market discount rates served to lessen the difference between long and short; the latter part of the month rates declined, though with an upward reaction again at the close.

In the stock market the most potent influence no doubt was the decline in the price of wheat. This precipitated a sharp break in stocks as its first effect, after which quietness developed, the tone remaining strong and no difficulty being experienced in advancing special stocks. Bonds were active and higher.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

MONTHLY AND YEARLY RECORD.

The following tables furnish a complete record of the New York Stock Exchange transactions for the past month and for the year 1898. They need no extended introduction, as they are self-explanatory. The tables embrace every security (excepting only State bonds) dealt in on the Exchange. We give bonds first, using the classification adopted in the official list. As to prices the form is our own, and we think it will be found to contain just the facts desired by our readers and to present them in the most convenient way for study and reference. All quotations in the column headed, "Price about January 3, 1898," were made on that date except those in italics, which are the nearest in January, 1898.

MONTHLY AND YEARLY RECORD.

The following tables furnish a record of Boston Stock Exchange transactions in railroad securities for the past month and for the year 1898. Also a record of transactions in mining stocks for the past month and for the year 1898. The railroad securities which are active on the New York Stock Exchange are omitted from this list. We give the securities in alphabetical order under the three general headings, Railroad Bonds, Railroad Stocks and Mining Stocks.

☞ In comparing New York and Boston prices, it should be noted that bond prices in New York are flat prices—that is, the price includes the accrued interest, while in Boston accrued interest must be paid in addition to price. It should also be remembered that New York stock prices are per cent while those in Boston are dollars per share.

GENERAL QUOTATIONS

—OF—

BONDS AND STOCKS.

1. In the following twenty-seven pages of tables quotations are given for all securities listed on any Stock Exchange in the United States; also for all leading unlisted and inactive securities for which we have been able to obtain reliable prices.

2. Quotations from all Stock Exchanges are as near as possible for the last day of June Of course the coupon, if there be one, maturing between the date of quotation and the date of this publication, is not deducted from the price.

3. Bond prices marked thus (§) indicate that the purchaser must pay accrued interest in addition to the price given The method of quoting on the New York Stock Exchange is to quote the prices flat (that is to include the accrued interest in the price), and hence in the tables below no mark is now affixed where this method of quoting is followed.

4. Stock prices marked thus (†) are per share. All others are per cent except bank stock prices.

5. It should be borne in mind in the use of these tables that the quotations for many inactive and unlisted securities are merely nominal, but in all cases the figures are obtained from sources which are considered reliable.

6. The following abbreviations are often used, viz.; "M.," for mortgage; "g.," for gold; "g'd.," for guaranteed; "end.," for endorsed; "cons.," for consolidated; "conv.," for convertible; "s. f.," for sinking fund; "l. g.," for land grant.

☞Notice Change.—We no longer affix a mark to prices quoted flat, but only to those which require payment of accrued interest in addition to the price. Designating mark in this instance is (§).

MUNICIPAL BONDS.

Prices marked (*) are flat prices—that is, the purchaser does not pay accrued interest in addition. In all other cases accrued interest must be added to the price.

The figures in the column "to net" indicate the basis on which the securities sell or the interest rate which the securities if held to maturity, will net to the purchaser at the present market price.

It should be borne in mind that municipal bonds are not subject to such decided fluctuations in value as are securities which form a basis for speculation.
