THE MUNICIPAL BOND MARKET.

The municipal bond market at the moment is dull. This is owing partly to money market conditions but also to the nearness of the November elections. Many places submit propositions for new bond issues only at the general election. Hence just preceding such election there is a sort of interregnum, old issues having been exhausted and new issues not yet authorized. Tight money always induces the withholding of some offerings. No doubt New York City in deferring its bond sale first set for October 3 had this consideration in mind.

We furnish below a record of the monthly sales for the last five years. For the nine months to September 30 the total runs ahead of last year and also ahead of all the other years given except 1897. Our figures do not embrace temporary loans, which, if included, would be counted over and over again. Some large bond offerings are in prospect the next few months Besides the New York City loans for $9,087,107, to be sold October 18, Pittsburg voters on September 19 approved propositions for $7,000,000 bonds. Philadelphia electors next month will decide on an issue of $12,000,000 for improvement of the water supply, and Denver, Col., will pass on the proposition to issue $4,700,000 water-works bonds.

BOND PROPOSALS—DETERMINING LEGALITY BEFORE BIDDING.

A few years ago (STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of October 1896 and April 1897) we made quite an extensive investigation into the methods in vogue for disposing of municipal bonds and receiving bids for the same. We showed wherein these methods were defective, and pointed out some of the changes that appeared called for in the interest of issuer and bidder alike. For one thing, it seemed desirable that the practice then growing up of exacting a cash deposit, either in the shape of money or a certified check, as a condition precedent to the receipt of bids, should be encouraged. In various other particulars there was call for amendment and improvement-in making the bids clear and unequivocal, in having a form not capable of being misconstrued or misunderstood, and in presenting the terms and conditions as to both bond and proposal with fullness and exactness.

In the time that has elapsed since then, there has been progress in all the directions here indicated. And the improvements have been mainly in the line suggested by us. The changes that have occurred or are in progress may be grouped under three heads. (1) The requirement of a deposit or money forfeit as a guaranty of good faith and to ensure performance of the contract is now met with in the vast majority of cases, instances where this provision is not inserted forming exceptions which prove the rule. (2) There is a growing disposition in favor of requiring bids to be made on official forms or blanks. (3) More and more there is a determination to insist that proposals must be absolutely free from all conditions, many issuers of bonds going so far as to bar out proposals made contingent upon the bonds being declared legal by counsel. That is, it is required that the intending purchaser shall satisfy himself of the legality of the issue before putting in an offer; in other words, that a proviso in the bid making acceptance of the bonds conditioned upon their being found in accord with legal requirements shall vitiate the bid and result in its rejection. The expediency of this last proviso we purpose considering in this article.

The incorporation in a proposal of reference to the legality of the bonds will to most persons appear rather superfluous. Obviously bids are always predicated upon the idea that the municipality has created an obligation in every way free from legal defects. Manifestly the bidder is not bargaining for an imperfect or defective security. If the issuer has not a valid obligation to offer, it is unable to fulfill its part of the contract, and as a necessary consequence it can not hold the bidder to his end of the contract or force him to take bonds which it either had no right to put out or which it had spoiled in the making. Hence, as far as those putting in bids are concerned, there would seem no occasion for mentioning the matter at all in the proposal, the bidder's position being as strong without that clause as with it.

But the question is broader than this. Who is to determine the point of legality, and how is it to be determined? Presumably the bidder will act in accordance with the advice of his counsel. As those offering to take the bonds are in the majority of cases municipal bond houses, making a specialty of dealings in this class of investments, and who for their own protection are obliged to consult the best authorities, an opinion thus obtained would, as a matter of course, be entitled to great weight. However, if the opinion were disputed, it would be by no means conclusive. Again, in the general competition for high-class investments, other parties have entered the field besides municipal bond dealers. In the smaller places particularly local moneyed people often actively compete with the regular dealers. It is conceivable that these parties, being novices at the business, might not be so well advised, because relying upon lawyers not altogether, qualified to express an opinion on such a point. Is the municipality to be bound by an utterance from such a source? Manifestly not. It is even possible that an opinion might be obtained to order by a bidder who had been awarded an issue and who subsequently repented of his bargain. We regret to say that it cannot be positively affirmed that a pretext of that kind is not sometimes resorted to, to the detriment of the municipality having bonds for sale.

It is not to be inferred that in any or all of these cases the municipality would be without redress. If it chose to push the matter and the bidder were a responsible party, it could force him to abide by his offer. But it all comes to this, that the question of legality can be finally determined only by a court of law. Such a course might mean much inconvenience, and it certainly would mean considerable delay, a condition of things which bond issuers are usually very desirous of avoiding. Heretofore it has been the practice of bidders not to concern themselves about the question of legality until after the sale, when they would know whether the bonds were to be awarded to them or not. It can not be said either that the practice has worked any great hardship as a rule. It has been common enough to find defects in the bonds themselves or the proceedings leading up to their issue, but these were defects which the municipal officials were quick to recognize, when pointed out, and which they were very anxious to cure. The general result has been that the matter was arranged to mutual satisfaction after a minimum of delay. Of course it can not be denied that the bond seller has occasionally been the victim of unscrupulous bidders.

It has always been considered that bidders were perfectly free to determine the question of legality after an award to them. Nor is there any reason to think they are precluded from raising the question now in the courts, even where the municipality says they must satisfy themselves on that point beforehandalways providing the bidder is willing to take the risk of a decision against him. If the bonds are really illegal, the existence of a clause in the offering saying that intending purchasers are supposed to settle that question for themselves in advance could hardly serve to make them valid obligations. And if they are not valid, it will not be contended that a court of law could force a buyer to take them, no matter what the it a business to buy municipal bonds, there is plainly proviso in the offering or form of bid. He has contracted for a security; if that security is invalid, it does not exist, and he could not be compelled to pay the contract price for the mere paper.

It is not, however, from that point of view that the existence of the provision referred to possesses importance. The intending buyer is bound to take cognizance of it because it is made a condition precedent to the receipt of his bid. The question is not whether he is to have the right of appeal to the courts to determine if the bonds are legal, but whether, in case he fails to satisfy himself on the point of legality, he is to lose his right to bid. It will be observed that this is a totally different question. The municipality insists that if he has any doubts he must remove them before he makes his proposal to take the bonds. In brief, if he will not accede to this requirement, his bid will not be considered, and he loses all chance of obtaining the bonds. The force of this proposition was strikingly shown at the time of the New York City bond sale in August of last year. One of the largest and, as it happened, the highest bidder, stipulated that their proposal was to hold good only in case their counsel approved the legality of the issue. It will be noted that in this case there was no specific requirement on the part of the municipality that the legality of the issue should be settled in advance. But the syndicate proposing to buy the bonds undertook to reserve for itself the right to consider the question of legality subsequent to the receipt of the tenders and the making of the award. Nevertheless the city authorities ruled that a proposal qualified in that way was not unconditional, and they accordingly refused to consider it, and the bonds went to the next highest bidder. The question whether a bid contingent upon the legality of an issue is in fact a "conditional" bid, in the sense that the word is ordinarily understood, is an interesting one, and it would have been useful to have had a judicial ruling on the point. The award was contested but the case was never carried to a conclusion.

The right of a municipality to insist that bids will not be received except upon the distinct understanding that the intending purchaser has fully assured himself as to the legal status of the bonds is perhaps not open to question. Such a requirement would seem to be clearly within the sphere of official discretion and authority. Nor is it difficult to perceive the reasons for such a procedure or the advantages that accrue from it. To leave the question of legality open until an award has been made obviously involves more or less delay, even where the utmost expedition is used. In some cases it may involve very considerable delay, since custom prescribes no definite limit of time within which a party to whom an award has been made must reach a conclusion on this all-important point. Nor is it possible for the municipal authorities to act arbitrarily in the matter unless a date has been set beforehand; if a successful bidder says he needs more time to fully ascertain legality, it is not easy to say him nay. To insist that the whole matter shall be disposed of before the proposals are put in or else that his bid cannot be considered, obviates this difficulty and delay, and that is its object.

But there is another question that comes up, and that is a question of policy and expediency. Does it pay to insert a proviso of that kind and exact compliance with it? From the standpoint of those making an objection to such an arrangement. If they paid regard to it, they would be obliged to go to the trouble and expense of a legal investigation in every case where they put in a bid, whether they got the bonds or not. It may be thought that this is not a serious objection; that the larger bond houses hire their counsel by the year, and that this being so, it matters little whether such counsel are called upon to deliver a few opinions more or less. But this is a wholly mistaken view. It is true the counsel employed are thoroughly versed in the subject treated; know all the laws affecting bond issues in the different States, and can reach a thoroughly reliable conclusion with the expenditure of very little time and effort. It is equally true that such counsel cannot be engaged by the year. As a matter of fact, it is not the practice among municipal bond houses to obtain legal opinion in that way. The practice is to pay for each opinion separately, and the cost of these examinations varies, depending upon the work involved (though some attorneys gauge their fees by the amount of the issue), the charge running all the way from one or two hundred to a thousand dollars. As the regular bond houses put in hundreds of bids a month, it follows that they would have to incur an enormous expense in the aggregate if they had to secure legal advice in advance in case of every bid, whether the bonds went to them or not. If the requirement, therefore, should become at all general, it follows that one of two things must ensue. Either bids will be withheld in a great many cases, or the dealers will undertake to recoup their outlays by lowering their bids.

It is possible that the larger municipalities might not suffer. These are always to be put in a class by themselves. But the smaller places might not be so fortunate. It is to be remembered that bond houses are under no obligation to put in proposals, and if they do not care to incur the expense without assurance of an award, they are at liberty to pass the offering over. Doubtless this is precisely what would happen in case of the smaller places. It behooves these places, therefore, to be careful about insisting upon a requirement which might have the effect of narrowing competition and enhance to them the cost of borrowing. It is well to bear in mind, too, that the responsibility for delays in securing a legal opinion does not always rest with the bond houses-in fact, in the great majority of cases, the fault lies with the municipality itself. The successful bidder, if of character and standing, having obtained the award and in part paid for the purchase by his deposit check, would be positioned so as to be anxious to complete the purchase and market the security. The usual course for such a house, when an award has been made to it, is to write and procure certified copies of the ordinances and other proceedings leading up to the proposed issue. These are at once turned over to the attorney, and if he finds that all the requirements have been met with, the deal is quickly closed. If any papers are missing, or any legal step is apparently lacking in the process, this attorney opens communication with the legal adviser of the municipality. Subsequent delays are nearly always due to the officials themselves. These delays are apt to be greatest in the case of the smaller places, because the local legislative or municipal bodies meet only at long intervals and the officials move with unwonted slowness. But it ought to be possible to provide a remedy without resort to a requirement which, in the long run, would seem more likely to prove detrimental than beneficial.

Whether the arrangement is to be regarded with favor or not, it has been put in practice by a number of places. Doubtless the very incident related above with reference to New York's experience has had much to do with bringing about the step as a precautionary measure. It is noteworthy, too, that some of the minor places-precisely those which might be supposed to be most in danger of suffering from adherence to such a policy-are conspicuous as illustrations of the movement. The experiment is being tried in widely-separated localities. Extending our search back six months, to the time of the last issue of the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT, we find that Pendleton, Oregon, insisted on this proviso in the sale of its $150,000 bonds last June, it being required that bidders must satisfy themselves of the city's right to issue bonds before bidding. In Ohio this form of proposal seems to be more prevalent than anywhere else. Canton, Ohio, inserted such a clause both in its offering the present month and that of last July. The offering of Paulding County, Ohio, in April, and again in August, contained the provision referred to; so did the offering in September of Logan County, Ohio. The village of McConnelsville (Morgan County, Ohio), in inviting proposals last May for $10,000 4 per cent street improvement bonds, went so far as to say that each bidder must satisfy himself as to the legality of the bonds before bidding, and must so state in his bid. Mattoon (Ill.) School District No. 1 has also felt it incumbent to include the legality clause, as has Starbuck, Minn. Duluth, Minn., last June invited proposals for half a million bonds, and said that bids were to be unconditional, except that they might be conditioned on the favorable opinion of Messrs. Dillon & Hubbard, or other attorneys of note.

We thus have a good many instances where the requirement under discussion has formed part of the offering. Nevertheless, the experiment has not been tried long enough or wide enough to permit of distinct conclusions as to its working. The attitude of bond houses with reference to it seems to vary. Some ignore it altogether-that is, do not incur the expense of obtaining legal opinion before submitting their bid; those who adopt this course do so confident that, if the bonds are not legal, they cannot be compelled to take them in any event. Other houses adopt a different policy. They feel sure of the soundness of the opinion that an illegal obligation can not be forced upon them, but they know that the municipality having their check, it could only be recovered at the end of a long litigation. This is a risk they do not care to incur. Hence they either do not bid at all, or where the offering is large they combine with other houses and secure an opinion, and divide the expense among them. On the whole the requirement would seem of questionable advantage, and the experiment will be watched with interest.

INDIANA DEBT LIMIT AND GRAVEL ROAD BONDS.

Some of our subscribers have written us asking how we reconcile the statement in our STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT saying that Indiana counties and municipalties are limited in their debts to two per cent of the assessed value of the property within their jurisdiction, with the fact that a number of counties apparently report an aggregate indebtedness in excess of that ratio. The provisions of the Indiana Constitution are plain and explicit as to the limitation. Article 13 of that instrument (which article was adopted March 14 1881 as an amendment) declares that "no political or municipal corporation in this State (Indiana) shall ever become indebted, in any manner or for any purpose, to an amount in the aggregate exceeding two per centum on the value of the taxable property within such corporation, to be ascertained by the last assessment for State and county taxes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness." There is a proviso giving the authorities power in certain contingencies to incur obligations necessary for the public defense, but it does not apply in this instance.

While this Constitutional mandate exists, however, and manifestly can not be disregarded, there appears to be a special kind of bond which, according to the ruling of the Supreme Court of Indiana—the tribunal of final jurisdiction-does not come within the terms of the prohibition in question, since provision for the payment of the bonds and interest is made in other ways than from the funds of the county. This apparently is the explanation of the fact that aggregate indebtedness in some few of the counties runs above the two per cent limit. In the cases where this seeming anomaly exists, it will be found as a rule there is a considerable amount of so-called gravel road bonds included in the total. Additional gravel road bonds are being authorized all the time even where the existing bond issues of that class, together with the other obligations outstanding, form a total in excess of the two per cent limit. It is obvious therefore that in the opinion of the Legislature and the authorities a different rule applies to these gravel road bonds from that which prevails with regard to other indebtedness. As a matter of fact, the view that these bonds belong in a distinct class has the sanction of the Indiana Supreme Court, as already stated.

The question came up in a case which was decided at the May term of the Court in 1887, and that ruling has ever since been accepted as controlling in other similar cases. The case was that of Strieb vs. Cox, Treasurer, et al. Strieb was a citizen and taxpayer of Grant County, in the Hoosier State, and he attacked the validity of $43,000 bonds issued by the county for the construction of what was known as the Marion and Huntington free gravel road. One of the allegations of the bill of complaint was that at the time of the issue of the bonds (to meet the expense of the improvement) the aggregate indebtedness of Grant County already exceeded two per cent of the taxable property within the county. The Court therefore carefully examined into the question. First it referred to the provision of law under which the bonds were issued. Authority was given under an Act of March 3 1877 as amended by an Act which took effect March 3 1881. This law provided for the construction by boards of county commissioners of gravel, macadamized or paved roads, upon petition of a majority of the resident land owners along the line of the road, and authorized the issue of bonds by the county to raise the money required for the purpose, said bonds to be paid by taxing land adjacent to the road. In view of the importance of the question it seems desirable to quote in full the section of the law relating to bond issues under it just as the Supreme Court did in passing upon it. The section constitutes Section 5097 of the official Revised Statutes of 1881. It is as follows:

SECTION 5097.—For the purpose of raising the money necessary to meet the expense of said improvement, the Commissioners of the County are hereby authorized to issue the bonds of the County, maturing at annual intervals after two years, and not beyond eight years, bearing interest at the rate not to exceed six per cent per annum payable semi-annually; which bonds shall not be sold for less than their par value. Said assessment shall be divided in such manner as to meet the payment of principal ind interest of said bonds, and so be placed upon the duplicate for taxation against the lands assessed, and collected in the same manner as other taxes; and when collected, the money arising therefrom shall be applied to no other purpose than the payment of said bonds and interest: Provided, That no bonds shall be delivered or money paid to any contractor, except on estimate of work done, as the same progresses or is completed, and said road or improvement shall be kept in repair, as other State and County roads are; Provided, further, That the amount of such bonds outstanding at any one time shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousard dollars principal.

The language of this section deserves to be carefully studied. It will be observed it provides for a species of special assessment bond, payment of which is assessed on the property benefited. The bond thus bears analogy to the district improvement bond authorized outside the debt limit in Illinois in the case of cities and villages subject to overflow. That bond is described in the STATE AND CITY SUP-PLEMENT on page 95. In this Illinois instance, however, it will be noted there is the additional provision that the consent of the property owner must be endorsed under seal on the back of the bond, which is then recorded in the Recorder's office in the county and becomes a lien against the property until paid off and discharged—the record to be a notice of the lien the same as real estate mortgages are a notice.

It is not necessary, however, to go into the question. of analogy with somewhat similar bonds in other The Indiana Supreme Court in the case States. referred to of Strieb vs. Cox, disposed of the whole question in clear and unambiguous language. The Court reached the conclusion that "the bonds issued by the Board of Commissioners of Grant County, under the provisions of the section quoted, and pursuant to the authority thereby conferred, did not and do not constitute an indebtedness of such county, and did not and do not evidence an indebtedness incurred by such county within the inhibition of Article 13 of our (the Indiana) State Constitution." The Court pointed out that such bonds are not payable by the county or out of the general funds of the county tleasury. They are payable out of the particular fund to be raised by the collection of the assessments made on the lands adjacent to such free gravel road, "divided in such manner as to meet the payment of principal and interest of said bonds," and placed as divided upon the tax duplicates against the lands assessed, "and collected in the same manner as other taxes," which fund, when so collected, "shall be applied to no other purpose than the payment of said bonds and interest." No other provision is made by law for the payment of either the bonds or the interest thereon; and the bonds and interest are made payable out of the particular fund to be derived from the collection of the assessments made on the lands adjacent to such free-gravel road, and from no other source, and such fund is pledged by the statute for the payment of said bonds and interest.

From all this the Court thought it was manifest that the Legislature intended that the entire cost and expense of constructing any free gravel, macadamized or paved road, and all the bonds of the county issued for the purpose of raising the money necessary to meet the expense of such improvement, should be borne and paid out of the particular fund to be raised by and from the collection of the assessments made on the lands adjacent to such road. The Court says it is true the law provides that the preliminary expenses of such an improvement may be paid out of the county treasury, but it is also provides that the amount so paid must be refunded out of the particular fund to be raised from the assessments on adjacent lands.

United States Debt and Its History.

The following is a statement of the debt of the United States past and present. To add to its usefulness we give references to the laws authorizing each of the issues of bonds outstanding to-day, and likewise, so far as we deem it needful, citations from those laws.

All our figures, except when otherwise noted, represent the status at the close of business June 30 or the beginning of business on July 1 of each fiscal year. To conform to that feature and yet furnish information through which any reader can always have the data for a correct exhibit of the debt situation at any past or future day, and make an accurate comparison with previous years, we present, FIRST, the details as they stood at the close of the last fiscal year ending June 30 1899; SECOND, the changes in those details since June 30 1899 down to October 1 1899; THIRD, the items of interest-bearing debt, &c., at the beginning of each fiscal year since July 11876; FOURTH, we publish in the CHRONICLE every month-usually the first or second Saturday-the full detailed Government statement of the debt as reported by the Treasurer on the last day of the previous month; some months lack of space forces us to delay the publication to a later week,

With these data at his command, it would seem as if any inquirer could satisfy himself fully with reference to every point which might become of importance for him to know respecting the United States debt.

Aggregate June 30 1899 of debt bearing no interest. $389,433,653 66

The foregoing shows that the Government debt on June 30 1899 was made up of (1) interest-bearing debt, $1,046,048,750, of (2) debt on which interest has ceased, $1,218,300 26, of (3) debt bearing no interest, $389,433,653 66, making total gross debt $1,436,700,703 92; subtracting from the total the net cash balance in the Treasury ($281,330,468 73) at the same date (June 30 1899) we have the net debt as it stood at the close of the last fiscal year, $1,155,320,235 19. To bring down the interest. bearing debt to October 1 1899-which, as stated, was $1,046,048,750 on June 30 1899-we must add to the Funded Loan of 1907 $350 and deduct from the Refunding Certificates $250 (a net addition of $100 to reach the total of the interestbearing debt October 1 1899, which was $1,046,048,850).

For later and future details of the debt, see the same as issued every month in the CHRONICLE, the first or a later Saturday. We now add, first, references to and citations from the laws which are the authority for the debt as it stands to-day; second, the two tables on the next page, which exhibit all the particulars of the total debt of the United States on June 30 of each year from 1876 to 1899, and on October 1, 1899; third, the Pacific Railroad bonds, which are never included in the Treasury debt statements.

"FUNDED LOAN OF 1891" (Column 1) 4¹₂ per cents, continued at 2 per cent. The bonds of this issue still outstanding were issued in exchange for the 4¹₂ per cent funded loan of 1891 by mutual agreement between the Secretary of the Treasury and the holders, and were made redeemable at the pleasure of the Government. Amount issued was $25,364,500 and they are all outstanding to-day.

"FUNDED LOAN OF 1907" (Column 2) 4 per cents. The act of July 14, 1870, authorized the issue of 1,000 million dollars of bonds at 4 per cent, payable in coin of the present standard value, at the pleasure of the United States after thirty years; these bonds to be exempt from all taxes or duties of the United States, as well as from taxation in any form by or under State, municipal or local authority. Bonds to be sold at not less than par in coin, and proceeds to be applied to the redemption of outstanding 5-20s, par for par. Outstanding (October 1 1899), $559,652,650.

"REFUNDING CERTIFICATES" (Column 3).—Act of February 26 1879 authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue in exchange for lawful money of the United States certificates of deposit of the denomination of ten dollars, bearing interest at the rate of 4 per cent, and convertible at any time, with accrued interest, into the 4 per cent bonds described in the Refunding act; the money so received to be applied only to the payment of the bonds bearing interest at a rate not less than 5 per cent. On March 12 1879 the issue of these certificates and their exchange into 4 per cent bonds were authorized; the certificates were to draw 4 per cent interest from April 1 1879 and were converted to be applied only to the payment of the issue being $40,012,750. Of these there were still outstanding on October 1 1899 a total of $37,580
"LOAN OF 1904."—(Column 4.) The act of January 14 1875 authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to use any surplus revenues from time to time in the Treasury not other wise appropriated, and to issne, sell, dispose of, at not less than par in coin, either of the descriptions of bonds of the Assistant Treasurer of the United States at New York, the outstanding legal-tender notes when presented in sums of not less than fity dollars. Under this authorization, and for the purpose mentioned, there were issued in February, 1894, payable in 10 years, $50,000,000 more for similar bonds for the same purpose. There are now outstand ing $100,000,000.

¹¹LOAN OF 1925."-(Column 5.) Sales of bonds included under this designation were effected (1) in February 1895 to the amount of $100,000,000. In a message to Congress under date of February 1895 (published in the CHRONICLE February 1895, page 244), President Cleveland stated that "in pursuance of Section 3700 of the Revised Statues the dotails of an arrangement have this day been concluded whereby bonds of the United States anthorized under the act of July 14 1875, page and the dotails of an arrangement have this day been concluded whereby bonds of the United States anthorized under the act of July 14 1875, page been concluded whereby bonds of the United States anthorized under the act of July 14 1875, page been to be issued for the purchase of gold coin amounting to a sum slightly in excess of $65,000,000, to be delivered to the Treasury of the United States, which sum added to the gold now held in our reserve will so restore such reserve as to make it amount to something more than $100,000,000. Such a premium is to be allowed to the Government upon the bonds as to fix the rate of interest upon the amount of gold realized at 34, per cent per annum. At least one-half of the gold to be obtained is to be supplied from abroad." Section 3700 of the Revised Statutes is as follows: "See 3700. The Secretary of the Treasury may purchase column with any of the bonds or notes of the United States authorized by law at such rates and upon such terms as he may deem most advantageous to the public interest." For a construction of the "Refunding Aet of 1870" and of the "Besumption Aet of 1875," see CHRONICLE, February 18 1893, page 265. The issue in February 1896 was an ordinary offering, open to all bidders, of $100,000,000 of the same bonds as the forcgoing-same in date, same in time of maturity, same in rate of interest and time of interest payments. Consequently both issues are called the "Loan of 1925," of which there are outstanding $162,315,400. "Interest payments. Consequently both issues are called the "Loan of 192

⁽¹ TEN-TWENTIES OF 1898."-(Column 7.) The bonds included under this head are an issue of $200,000,0003 per cents. They were authorized by Act of June 13 1-95, and are known as the "War loan." The law provided that in allotting said bonds the individual subscrip-tions of the lowest amount must be first allotted. On the day the Act was signed a Treasury circular was issued (see circular in CURONICLE of June 18 1893, page '163,) inviting subscriptions for 32 days, from June 13 to July 14, for the amount of bonds stated, in both coupon and regis-tered form, coupons in denominations of $20, $100, $500 and $1,000, and registered in denominations of same amounts, and also in $5.000 and $10,0-10, dat d August 1 1898, redeemable in coin at the pleasure of the United States after ten years from date of issue, and due and payable August 1 1918. See circular for further details Subscriptions reached the amount of $1,325,003,003. The total amount issued at this date are d the amount new substanting (October 1 1800) is $108 678 720. and the amount now outstanding (October 1 1899) is $198,678,720.

STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT.

In April, 1895, we gave a table showing the debt of the United States on the first day of July 1856, and every subsequent year. It is not necessary to repeat all those figures. We have determined on this occasion to begin our statement with 1876, as that year antedates all of the issues now outstanding, and yet carries the record sufficiently far back to show the nature and extent of the Government securities when the latest refunding operations began. It has the advantage, too, of giving separate and distinct each issue of bonds now outstanding. The statement is subjoined.

Note 1.—The annual interest charge is computed upon the amount of outstanding principal at the close of the fiscal year, except in the case of October 1, for which the total is of that date, and is exclusive of interest charge on Pacific Railway bonds. NOTE 2.—The figures for July 1 1879 were made up assuming pending funding operations to have been completed.

PACIFIC RAILROAD DEBT.—Two other classes of bonded debt must be referred to which have never been included in the total of Government debt—we mean the Pacific Railroad debt and the Cherokee certificates of indebtedness. To show the situation of these two classes of bonds we have to make compilations of our own, as the Treasury form comes short of indicating the existing situation. First we bring together the details respecting the issues to the Pacific Railroads, giving likewise in the statement the debt already paid and the balance due to the Government.

day in October, and length of session is not limited.

HISTORY OF DEBT .- For a brief history of the Vermont State debt see STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1895, pages 15 & 16. The liabilities of the State on July 1, 1899, were as follows:

LOANS- -Interest. Principal. NAME AND PURPOSE. *Rate. Payable. When Due. TOTAL DEBT, ETC.—The total debt of the State on July 1, 1899, was $666,237 47. On July 1, 1899, the total resources were $879,-248 33, including cash on hand and in banks $133,632 91.

ASSESSED VALUATION.—The State's assessed valuation and tax rate have been as follows:

		Assessed valuation		Tax rate
Ye	ears. Real.	Personal.	Total.	per $1.000
18	99$117,642,1	14 $57,969,558	$175,611,672

The tax rate for 1899 was $2.00 per $1,000, which includes State school and State highway taxes of 50 cents each per $1,000, collected and re-distributed to towns on a basis of the number of schools and road mlleage.

DEBT LIMITATIONS,-There appears to be nothing in the Constitution or in the Statutes of Vermont providing a general limit to the debt-making power of municipalities. Whatever in each case the Leg-Islature authorizes, the city, town, county or other civil division can issue. Of course the purpose of the improvement must be of a public character. Railroad subscriptions by towns are authorized by Section 2760, chapter 132 of the Revised Statutes, the section being as follows: SECTION 2760. A town may aid in the construction of a railroad or-ganized under the general law by issning bouds to aid such railroad, by taking capital stock therein, or in such other manner as it directs-but the iiability so assumed shall not exceed eight fines the grand list of the town at the time. Such aid shall be given in the way provided in this chapter.

in this chapter. It will be noticed that this section contains a limit to the power granted of making subscriptions in aid of railroads-to wit: That the subscriptions shall not exceed eight times "the grand list." To evolve the "grand list" in Vermont, the authorities first prepare a schedule of all the property, real and personal, of each individual, with valuations entered at their real value in money, deducting debts owing; after this is done "the grand list" is made up by taking one per cent of that amount, according to Section 317, Chapter 25, of the Revised Statutes, Epplug, Rockingham Co.... 33,229 4,612 694,588 19:50 1,721 which is as follows: "All taxable property shall be set in the list at one

Following Section 2760, above eited, which authorizes subscriptions In aid of railroads, are other sections describing the method in which these subscriptions must be made, by ealling a town meeting, voting, &e., &e. Then follows Section 2766, authorizing the issue of bonds.

SECTION 2766. Such town may issue bonds, with coupons payable semi-annually, at a rate of interest not exceeding seven per cent, to ald such road.

The only other general authority granted for the issue of bonds by municipal corporations in Vermont is that given for refunding outstanding bonds and notes. The Sections which grant this power are Sections 2769, 2775 and 2776, Chapter 132 of the Revised Statutes, Sections 2769 and 2776 are as follows:

SECTION 2769. A town which has outstanding and unpaid negotiable notes or bonds, issued to pay for stock subscribed to a railroad com-pany, under any act of the general assembly, may issue other nego-tiable notes or bonds to pay or retire such outstanding notes or bonds.

SECTION 2,775. A town having outstanding and unpaid orders, notes-bends or coupons, issued under any act of the Legislature, for the pur-pose of the erection of public buildings, or in a.2 of public improve, ments, or for the payment of soldiers' bounties, may issue other negotiable notes or bonds for the purpose of retiring the outstanding orders, notes, bonds and coupons, in the same manner that it may issue new notes or bonds to pay or retire outstanding notes or bonds issued in aid of a railroad; and the powers, restrictions, duties and liabilities of the town and town officers in the matter shall be the same as is provided by law in the case of the refunding by a town of town bonds issued in aid of a railroad; and the interest on such new notes or bonds shall be provided for in the same manner. SECTION 2,775. A town baying outstanding and unpaid orders, notes-

By Section 2776 municipal corporations other than towns have the same refunding powers granted them which are conferred upon towns by the two sections last above cited.

The only other section which we need quote is Section 2751 of Chapter 130, which names the objects for which towns may vote money. If money is appropriated for any other object, the Charter or a special statute must be looked to for the authority.

SECTION 2751.-Towns in town meetings may vote such sums of money as they judge necessary for the support of the poor; for laying out and repairing highways; for the prosecution and defense of the sommon rights and interests of the inhabitants, and for other necessary incidental town expenses.

POPULATION OF STATE.-According to the first census (1790) the population of Vermont was 85,425, of which 44,756 were males, 40,398 were females and 271 free colored. The total in 1800 was 154,465. Since that date each ten year aggregate is given below.

SAVINGS BANKS INVESTMENTS-PRIVILEGES AND RE-STRICTIONS.-The provisions of law relating to savings banks are found in Chapter 174 of the Vermont statutes, Sections 4066 to 4131 inclusive, as amended from time to time. The first section having reference to investments is Section 4096, which treats of reat estate mortgages. It authorizes the investment of 70 p.e. of the assets in such mortgages, one-sixth at least of which "shall be npon real estate in this State"-that is Vermont. A proviso adds that only 50 per cent of the assets may be invested in mortgages on real estate outside of Vermont. Sections 4097 and 4098 relate only to obtaining and paying for insurance. Section 4099 is as follows, and has reference to investment on personal security.

SECTION 4099—No loans or investments on personal security shall be made except upon at least two approved names, not less than two of whom reside in this State or within fifty miles of the institution making such investment, and such personal loans or investments shall not be for a longer time than one year; and not more than one-third of the assets of a savings bank, savings institution or trust company shall be invested in personal securities.

Section 4100 only covers a single point; that is to say it restricts to fire per cent of the deposits the amount which a savings bank may invest in the lot and building for the transaction of its business, and adds that a revenue may be derived from portions of the building not required for the bank's use. The next section (Section 4101) covers the most important of the provisions relating to investments that are contained in the law. We give the section in full below. The separation into paragraphs and the figures in parenthesis which number and begin the paragraphs are our own.

SECTION 4101—With the foregoing exceptions, the moneys deposited in Savings' Banks, Savings' Institutions and Trust Companies, and the income therefrom, shall be invested only as follows: (1.) In the public funds of the United States, or public funds for the payment of principal and interest of which the faith of the United States

In the school bonds and independent school district bonds of New Jersey, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Missouri; and in the school bonds and independent school district bonds of school districts of two thousand or more inhabitants in the States of Kansas, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Oregon and Washington, where the amount of such bonds issued does not exceed five per cent of the assessed valuation of the respective cities, towns and school districts.

the respective cities, towns and school districts. (6.) In the public funds of any of the States named in this section; in notes with a pledge of any of the aforesaid securities, including de-posit books or deposit receipts, issued by a savings bank, savings institution or trust company or banking association located in this State, as collateral, such notes not to exceed the par or market value of such security; (7.) But no savings bank, savings institution or trust company shall hold, by way of investment or as security for loans, more than ten per cent of the capital stock of any one bank, nor invest more than ten per cent of its deposits, nor more than thirty-five thousand dollars in the capital stock of any one bank; and no such investments shall be made in the capital stock of any such banks, owned or loaned upon, to exceed in the aggregate one-fourth of the deposits of any savings bank, savings institution or trust company.

The amount of loan which can be made to one person or corporation, &c., is restricted by the next section, and we give it in full. It is as follows:

SECTION 4102—No savings bank, savings institution or trust company shall loan to any one person, firm or corporation, or the individual, members thereof, more than five per cent of its deposits, nor more than thirty thousand dollars; nor shall such loan on personal security exceed ten thousand dollars.

We also give Section 4106 in full. It confers authority upon savings banks to make deposits on call in banks and trust companies in certain States and cities, and is as follows.

Section 4106.—The words "trust company" in this chapter shall be construed to Include savings banks and trust companies. A savings bank, savings institution or trust company may deposit on call in banks, banking associations or trust companies in this State, or in the cities of New York, Boston or Chicago, or in national banks in the cities of St. Paul, Minneapolis and Kansas City, with or without interest, as may be agreed upon, sums not exceeding in the aggregate twenty per cent of the assets of such savings bank, savings institution or trust company. Section 4107 angets that savings banks may hold real estate again of the Section 4107 enacts that savings banks may hold real estate acquired on foreclosure or otherwise taken to secure debt, but it must be sold within five years, &c. Section 4108 authorizes savings banks to demand and receive on loans 6 per cent interest.

DEBT LIMITATIONS.-There seems to be no provision in the Constitution of Massachusetts limiting the power of the Legislature to create State indebtedness, or limiting its power to authorize municipal indebtedness. Statutes general and special have, however, been passed on this subject with respect to Cities and Towns.

First among these Statutes needing mention we have Chapter 29 of the Revised or "Public Statutes." The important sections to be cited contained in Chapter 29 are as follows. We give only the substance of the sections, not the words.

SECTION 1-Provides that cities and towns shall not incur debt except in the manner and within the limitations prescribed in this chapter.

SECTION 2—Provides (as a preliminary for determining whether the limitation fixed by Section 4 has been reached by any municipality) that the water debt and the sinking funds shall be deducted from the total debt.

SECTION 3-Provides that the first 17 sections of chapter 29 shall not apply to debts incurred in aid of railroads, to water scrip issued under special statutes, or to indebtedness for a fire district.

SECTION 4-Provides that no city or town except as provided in the following section shall become indebted in an amount which exceeds 3 per cent on the last preceding valuation [but amended as noted below.]

SECTION 5—Provides that eities and towns which were indebted on the 13th day of June, 1875, to an amount not less than 2 per cent on valuation for that year may "increase such indebtedness to the extent (to one additional one per cent on their valuation and no more." "of an additional one per cent on that valuation and no more."

SECTION 6—Provides that cities, &c., "may by ordinary vote incur debts for tempory loans" in anticipation of the year's taxes and of the year's taxes next ensuing.

SECTION 7—Provides that other debts than those referred to in section 6 shall be incurred only by a vote of two-thirds of the voters present at a town meeting, of two-thirds of all the members of each branch of the eity council, and approved by the Mayor; or if the Mayor disapproves, by another like vote after notice of such disapproval.

SECTION 8-Provides that debts incurred for water must be payable within 30 years; in constructing sewers within 20 years; all other debts within 10 years.

SECTIONS 9 to 17 inclusive, contain interesting provisions relating to sinking funds and other allied matters.

SECTION 18-Provides that any city which at a meeting of its voters has accepted by a two-thirds vote any act to supply said city with water, may by a vote of a majority of the members of each branch of the city council contract debts and issue bonds for the purpose.

SECTION 19—Provides that towns, &c., shall not increase their debt by subscriptions in aid of railroads beyond 3 per cent of valuation; but the limitation of this section shall not apply to temporary loans mentioned in Section 6.

SECTIONS 20 to 23, which are the final ones of Chapter 29, have no reference to the subject we are discussing and need not be cited As the reader has seen, the foregoing (Section 4, Chapter 29) fixes the general debt limitation for cities and towns at 3 per cent.

This general limitation was lowered by a later law. The provision is found in Chapter 312, Section 2 of the "Public Statutes," which provision reduces the general debt limitation from 3 per cent to 212 per cent on the average valuation for the preceding three years. Worcester, Lynn, Gloucester and Brockton are in the same Section exempted from the operation of the Section until January 1, 1889-later than 1889 the only exemptions we find in the Statutes are special in their purpose, not general.

The temporary loans provision, as it appears above in Section 6 (Chapter 29), is also changed by Section 4, Chapter 312, by omitting "and of the year next ensuing;" so that at present cities and towns by ordinary vote can incur debts for temporary loans in anticipation of the taxes of the year only in which such debts are incurred.

Temporary loans (for a term not exceeding one year) in anticipation of money to be derived from an issue of bonds or other form of indebtedness, duly authorized, are provided for by a statute approved June 14,1898. The same Act states that the time within which said bonds, etc., shall become due shall not be extended by reason of said tempor. ary loan.

The foregoing statements cover all the material facts general in their application passed with respect to debt limitation. In addition to these General Provisions there are various Special Laws which contain exceptions to the general law as to debt limitation, which apply to Boston, Cambridge, Lynn, Newburyport, Waltham, Worcester, &c., &c.

SAVINGS BANK INVESTMENTS-POWERS AND RESTRIC-TIONS.—The provisions regulating the investments and leans of savings banks and institutions for savings in Massachusetts are con-tained in Section 21, Chapter 317, acts of 1894, and amendments thereof. MUNICIPAL INDEBTEDNESS LIMITATIONS.—There is nothing in the Constitution of Rhode Island limiting the amount of city debts. The following, however, are two sections taken from Title 7, Chapter 36 (page 157) of the Revised Statutes of the State of 1896. Since 1878 these provisions have been in force, and consequently 3 per cent of the taxable property has been the limit of the power of each town (which includes city) to create debt.

"The outstanding notes, bonds and contracts of towns shall be paid and be fulfilled according to the tenor thereof, and all public works now authorized to be prosecuted shall be prosecuted, and all in lebtedness now authorized to be incurred on account thereof may be incurred according to the tenor of the authority therefor. SECTION 21. No town shall, without special statutory authority therefor, incur any debt in excess of three per centum of the taxable property of such town, including the indebtedness of such town on the tenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred seventy-eight, but the giving of a new note or bond, for a pre-existing debt, or for money borrowed and applied to the payment of such pre-existing debt, is excepted from the provisions of this section, and the amount of any sinking fund shall be deducted in computing such indebtedness." SAVINGS BANK INVESTMENTS AND RESTRICTIONS.-In the Revised Statutes of Rhode Island (which were revised in 1896), Sections 54, 55, 56, etc., of Chapter 178, Title 19 (on page 548), will be found the provisions of law with reference to Savings Bank Investments. Section 54, which recites in detail the stocks, bonds, etc., these institutions are allowed to put their money in is as follows:

SECTION 54. Institutions for savings shall invest their receipts— (1) In public stocks or bonds of any State or of the United States, (2) Or in any bank stock, or in notes or bonds of any town or city, (3) Or in notes of any school district or fire district in any New England State.

(4) Or in such corporate stocks or bonds as they may deem safe and secure,

(5) Or they may discount notes, bonds or drafts of individuals or corporations, with two other responsible endorsers, sureties or guarantors,
(6) Or the notes, bonds or drafts of individuals or corporations secured by the public notes, stocks or bonds of any State of the United States, or of any town or city or of any school district or fire district in any New England State, or by the stock or bonds of any corporation which may be declared to be safe, or by mortgage on real estate.

Concerning Sections 55 and 56, the first appears to give savings institutions quite extensive powers as to making and keeping deposits in commercial banks. When so kept, however, they are to be kept "payable on demand whether drawing interest or not." The two sections are subjoined.

SECTION 55.—No such institution shall have an amount exceeding one-half of its receipts invested in notes, bonds or drafts of individuals or corporations, unless secured by some public notes, bonds or stocks as aforesaid, or by mortgage on real estate; but the preceding section shall not be so construed as to forbid any such institution from placing and holding on deposit in any bank such reasonable amount of their re-celpts as is customary and they may deem proper, payable on demand, whether drawing interest or not. SECTION 56.—No money shall be loaned by any institution for sav-ings to any trustee, director or other officer of such institution.

For the other provisions of the law as they now are we would refer our readers to the Revised Statutes of 1896.

U	-BI	LIMITATIO	ONThe Con	stitution of	Connecticut	contains but a sir	lola n	rovision ros	twictim with a l vision restricting the debt-making power. The provision is Article 25, adopted as an amendment in 1877, and is as follows:

No County, City, Town, Borough or other Municipality, shall ever subscribe to the capital stock of any railroad corporation, or become the purchaser of the bonds, or make donation to, or loan its credit in aid of, any such corporation; but nothing herein contained shall affect the validity of any bonds or debts incurred under existing laws, nor be con-strued to prohibit the General Assembly from authorizing any Town or City to protect by additional appropriations of money or credit any railroad debt contracted prior to the adoption of this amendment.

The foregoing is explicit and comprehensive, covering every municipality. There are no general restrictions in the Revised Statutes; whatever restrictions have been made from time to time are contained in enabling acts and in city charters.

As to towns, we notice that there is a general law granting them unlimited power to issue bonds. According to section 140, chapter 23 of the Revised Statutes, "when any town shall have made appropriations "or incurred debts, or shall hereafter make appropriations or incur "debts exceeding ten thousand dollars, it may issue bonds, either regis-"tered or with coupons attached, or other obligations, payable at such "times and at such annual rate of interest not exceeding 6 per cent, "payable annually or semi-annually, as it shall determine," &c. Cities have had no such general authority conferred upon them.

Exemption from Taxation has been accorded by general statute to certain bonds issued by cities and towns to aid in the construction of railroads; and this exemption has been extended to new bonds issued for the purpose of redeeming or providing a fund to redeem the railroad aid bonds above referred to. This exemption is found in Section 3,820, Chapter 241 of the Revised Statutes (last clause of Section), and the bonds there named are those "issued by any town or city in aid of the "construction of the railroads of the Connecticut Western Railroad "Company, the New Haven Middletown & Willimantie Railroad Com-"pany, the Shepaug Valley Railroad Company, the Connecticut Valley "Railroad Co., the Connecticut Central Railroad Company, or either of "them." All railroads which are in whole or in part in the State are taxed by the State under Section 3920, Chapter 244 of the Revised Statutes, so that the tax on these bonds is paid by the railroads.

Exemption from tax of new bonds issued to redeem or to provide a fund to redeem the railroad aid bonds, or to redeem or to provide a fund to redeem any reissue of the same, is conferred fully by an act approved June 19, 1889, and found in the "Public Acts" for that year.

,)	SAVINGS BANKS INVESTMENTS-PRIVILEGES AND RE-STRICTIONS.—At the session in 1899 material changes were made in the provisions regulating the investment of the deposits of the savings banks of Connecticut. We give below the law as thus amended. The Act of 1899 is entitled "An Act concerning Investments of Savings Banks", and is as follows. The separation into paragraphs and the figures in brackets which number and begin the paragraphs we have inserted so that those who need to refer to or use any particular portion of the section can more readily find the part desired; otherwise we give the section as it reads and was passed.

Section 1800 of the General Statutes, as amended by chapter CCXXIX of the Public Acts of 1893 and by chapter CCXVII of the Public Acts of 1897 is hereby amended to read as follows: Savings banks may invest-

Publie Acts of 1897 is hereby amended to read as follows: Savings banks may invest—

It would seem according to the foregoing amendment of section 1800 that only forty per cent of the deposits and surplus of any savings bank may be employed on personal security, but that no limit is placed upon the amount which may be invested in the other securities mentioned in the section.

The subjoined sections, 1803, 1804, 1805 and 1806, provide certain restrictions with reference to loans-section 1803 restricting loans on Mortgage Security to Manufacturing Corporations and Ecclesiastical Societies; section 1804 restricting amount of loaus to one party on personal security; section 1805 forbidding loans on single names.

SEC. 1803. No loan shall be made by any savings bank to any corpor-ation or association or ecclesiastical society, secured by mortgage upon their property, unless the same shall be accompanied by the individual guarantee of some responsible party or parties, or by other collateral security of equal value to the amount of the sum loaned, and the directors or trustees of any such bank consenting to any loan contrary to the provisions of this section shall be held individually responsible to the full extent of such loan.

SEC. 1804. No savings bank having more than twenty-five thousand dollars deposits shall loan on personal security to any one person, company, or interest, more than three per cent of its deposits at the time of making such loan.

SEC. 1805. No savings bank shall buy, or lend any money upon, any obligation on which only one person or firm shall be holden, without taking additional security for the same equivalent to the guaranty or indersement of some other responsible party.

Besides the ordinary safeguards which are in all savings bank laws there is one of no little importance that ought to aid materially in preventing incautious loans. We refer to the provision below.

SEC. 1806.—When any loan or investment is made by any savings bank, the names of the directors or trustees consenting thereto shall be entered upon the records of said bank, and said record shall be at all times open to the inspection of the corporators and auditors of said bank and the Bank Commissioners, and be prima facie evidence of the truth of the statements therein contained.

TRUST FUNDS-HOW LOANED OR INVESTED-We find in Section 495 of the General Statutes the following liberal provisions providing that trust funds may be loaned or invested in the same securities savings banks are authorized to invest in.

SEC. 495 .- Trust funds, unless it is otherwise provided in the instru-SEC. 495.—Trust funds, unless it is otherwise provided in the instru-ment creating the trust, may be loaned on the security of mortgages on unencumbered real estate in this State, double in value the amount loaned, or may be invested in such mortgages or in the bonds or loans of this State, or of any town, eity, or borough of this State, or in any bonds, stocks, or other securities which the savings banks in this State are or may be authorized by law to invest in, or may be deposited in savings banks incorporated by this State.

CITIES, COUNTIES AND TOWNS IN THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT

NOTE .- For debts of minor civil divisions not found among the statements given below, see "Additional Statements" at the end of this State.

ments given below, see "Additional Statements" al the end of this State. The relation which the towns, cities and boroughs of this State bear to one another is peculiar, and requires a word of explanation. The State is divided into eight counties, and these counties are made up of towns, numbering in the aggregate 167. The towns are the civil unit, and on the assessed valuation (which is called the "Grand List of each town") is levied the tax for State purposes as well as the tax for town expenditures. Within the town is often situated a city or a borough, or both, all of which may at the same time have bonds outstanding. There are ten cities, each with one exception bearing the same name as the town in which it lies. Of late several towns and cities whose limits were about identical have been consolidated and the outstanding bonds of both town and city are reported together without distinction. This is the case with the city and town of Hartford, which previous to April, 1896, reported their debts separately. The city and town of New London have been consolidated and also Bridgeport city and town. On December 7, 1897, eity, town and school district of New Haven were likewise consolidated. The borough stands in about the same relation to the town as does the city. The grand list as determined for the town is used by both the city and the borough in levying taxes, the city for instance, putting a

The borough stands in about the same relation to the town as does the city. The grand list as determined for the town is used by both the city and the borough in levying taxes, the city, for instance, putting a tax of its own on its share of the total grand list of the town. This tax is additional to the town tax. In some instances the schools are in the charge of school districts, which also are empowered to issue bonds and to levy a tax, so that to cover the total tax paid by a city it is necessary to take into account the State, town, city and school district levies. In the statements which follow we give under one heading the town and city, wherever they bear the same name, for though distinct corporations, their debts are to a greater or less extent the debts of a single community.

HISTORY OF DEBT.—The historical details of New York's State debt from 1817 to 1894 will be found in the STATE AND CITY SUPPLE-MENT of April, 1894, page 41. During a period of eleven years ending in 1893 the State debt was paid at the average of $1,000,000 per year, and practically wiped out. At the November election in 1895 the proposition to issue bonds of the State to the amount of $9,000,000, for the purpose of enlarging and improving the Eric Canal, the Champlain Canal, and the Oswego Canal, was submitted to the voters and carried. These bonds have all been issued to date, but $500,000 have been paid off from the proceeds of the tax levied or a sinking fund, leaving outstanding Sept. 1, 1899, $8,-500,660, which, with the $335,000 Comptroller's Certificates and $400,000 Adirondack Park Bonds and $900,000 Defense Bonds, a total of $10,185,660, constituted the State's indebtedness on Sept. 1, 1899. DEBT LIMITATION—STATE.—The new Constitution has in some measure modified the provisions of the fundamental law restricting the power of the Legislature over the issue of debt, &c These provisions are found in Article 7. We give the sections of that article (Article 7) below which have reference to the subject. Slate credit not to be given.—SECTION 1. The credit of the State shall not in any manner be given or loaned to or in aid of any individual association or corporation. Slate debts, power to contract.—SEC. 2. The State may, to meet casual deficits or failures in revenues, or for expenses not provided for, con-tract debts; but such debts, direct or contingent, singly or in the aggre-gate, shall not at any time exceed one million of dollars; and the moneys arising from the loans creating such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which they were obtained, or to repay the debt so cop-tracted, and to no other purpose whatever. Slate debts to repel invasions.—SEC. 3. In addition to the above limited power to contract debts, the State may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or defend the State in war; but the money aris-ing from the contracting of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever. Limitation of legislative mover to create debts —SEC 4. Except the

ing from the contracting of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever. Limitation of legislative power to create debts.—SEC. 4. Except the debts specified in sections two and three of this staticle, no debts shall be hereafter contracted by or on behalf of this State, unless such debt shall be authorized by a law, for some single work or object, to be dis-tinctly specified therein; and such law shall impose and provide for the collection of a direct annual tax to pay, and sufficient to pay, the interest on such debt as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt within eighteen years from the time of the con-tracting thereof. No such law shall take effect until it shall, at a gen-eral election, have been submitted to the people, and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election. On the final passage of such bill in either house of the Legislature, the question shall be taken by ayes and noes, to be duly entered on the journals thereof, and shall be: "Shall this bill pass, and ought the same to receive the sanction of the people?" The Legislature may at any time, after the approval of such law by the people, if no debt shall have been contracted in pursu-ance thereof, repeal the same; and may at any time, by law, forbid the contracting of any further debt or liability under such law; but the tax imposed by such act, in proportion to the debt and liability which may have been contracted, in pursuance of such law, shall the proceeds thereof shall have made the provision hereinbefore specified to pay and discharge the interest and principal of such debt or liability. The money arising from any loan or stock creating such debt or liability and for no other purpose whatever. No such law shall be submitted to be voted on, within three months after its passage, or at any general election when any other law, or any bill, or any amendment to the Constitution, shall he subm ner other than for the specific purpose for which it shall have been provided.

DEBT LIMITATION.—CITIES, COUNTIES. TOWNS AND VILLAGES.—The new Constitution of New York State puts a general and uniform limit to the power of all counties and eities of the State to contract and put out their obligations, leaving to the Legislature to fix the debt making power of villages and towns only. These provisions are found in Article 8, Section 10. We give that section in full. The separation into paragraphs and the figures in parenthesis which number and begin the paragraphs are our own, we having inserted them so that those who need to refer to or use any particular portion can the more readily find the part desired. With that exception we give Section 10 of Article 8 as it reads, preserving even the punctuation.
(1) No county, city, town or village shall hereafter give any money or property, or loan its money or credit to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation, or become directly or indirectly the owner of stock in, or bonds of, any association or corporation; nor shall any such county, city, town or village purposes. This section shall not prevent such county, city, town or village from making such provision for the aid or support of its poor as may be authorized by law.
(2) No county or city shall be allowed to become indebted for any purpose or in any manner to an amount which, including existing indebtedness, shall exceed ten per centum of the assessed valuation of the real estate of such county or city subject to taxation, as it appeared by the assessment rolls of said county or city on the last assessment for

State or county taxes prior to the incurring of such indebtedness; and all indebtedness in excess of such limitation, except such as may now exist, shall be absolutely void, except as herein otherwise provided. (3) No county or city whose present indebtedness exceeds ten per centum of the assessed valuation of its real estate subject to taxation, shall be allowed to become indebted in any further amount until such indebtedness shall be reduced within such limit. (4) This section chall not be concruded to prevent the issuing of certif-

(4) This section shall not be construed to prevent the issuing of certif-teates of indebtedness of revenue bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of taxes for amounts actually contained, or to be contained in the taxes for the year when such certificates or revenue bonds are issued and payable out of such taxes.

(5) Nor shall this section be construct to prevent the issue of bonds to provide for the supply of water; but the terms of the bonds issued to provide the supply of water shall not exceed twenty years, and a sink-ing fund shall be created on the issuing of the said bonds for their re-demption, by raising annually a sum which will produce an amount equal to the sum of the principal and interest of said bonds at their maturity.

equal to the sum of the principal and increase a transmission of the principal and increase a transmission of the sum of the principal and increase a transmission of the collection of taxes, which are not retired within five years after their date of issue, and bonds issued to provide for the supply of water, and any debt hereafter incurred by any portion or part of a city, if there shall be any such debt, shall be included in ascertaining the power of the city to become otherwise indebted. (7) Whenever hereafter the boundaries of any city shall become the same those of a county, the power of the county to become indebted the power of the city to become otherwise indebted. (7) Whenever hereafter the boundaries of any city shall become the same those of a county, the power of the county to become indebted shall cease, but the debt of the county at that time existing shall not be included as part of the city debt. [At the November 1899 election an amendment is to be voted upon which would change this para-graph to read as follows: Whenever the boundaries of any city are the same as those of a county, or when any city shall include within its boundaries more than one county, the power of any county wholly included within such city to become indebted shall cease, but the debt of the county heretofore existing shall not, for the purposes of this section, be reekoned as a part of the city debt.] (8) The amount hereafter to be raised by tax for county or city pur-poses, in any county containing a city of over one hundred thousand inhabitants, or any such city of this State, in addition to providing for the principal and interest of existing debt, shall not in the aggregate exceed in any one year two per centum of the assessed valuation of the real and personal estate of such county or city to be association or village" is included in the prohibition against (1) loan-ing "its money or credit," (2) in becoming "directly or indirectly the owner of stock in or bonds of any association or corporation," and (3) in incurring "any indebtedness except for County, City, Town or Vil-lage purposes." Most of the other paragraphs include only Counties and Cities. According to Paragraph (6) it seems that "any debt hereafter in-curred by any portion or part of a city, if there shall be any such debt

According to Paragraph (6) it seems that "any debt hereafter in-curred by any portion or part of a city, if there shall be any such debt shall be included in ascertaining the power of the city to become other wise indebted.

Wise indebted." We would also call special attention to Paragraph (7), that whenever hereafter the boundaries of any city shall become the same as those of a county "the power of the county to become indebted shall cease, but the debt of the county at that time existing shall not be included as a part of the city debt." [This clause, as stated above, is to be amended.] In May 1886 the New York Court of Appeals decided at the end of a litigation begun in July 1885 that the sinking fund was not a part of the city debt within the meaning of the above provision of the Consti-tution limiting the creation of debt to 10 per cent of the assessed valuatution limiting the creation of debt to 10 per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate.

Towns and Villages are not limited in their debt-making power by the Constitution. Those municipalities will be governed by general or special statutes.

The 1895 Legislature passed an act "for the protection of bona fide purchasers and holders of coupon bonds and of municipal corporations against misfeasance, malfeasance or negligence of public officers." The full text of this law was published in the CHRONICLE of June 8, 1895 V 60 p. 1023 1895, V. 60, p. 1023.

1895. V. 60, p. 1023. EXEMPTION FROM TAXATION.—There is one general New York statute with reference to exemption from taxation "for town, county, municipal or State purposes" of a class of bonds "issued by any village, city, town or county" in the State, which seems to have a wider appli-cation than is generally known. As originally passed in 1881 the ex-emption applied only to bonds issued to pay up or retire bonds "created to aid in the construction of any railroad." A new law was passed in 1886 (Chapter 316) making the tax exemption apply to "new bonds" issued under the act to retire any of the then "present bonded indebted-ness of any village, city, town or county in this State." With reference to such new bonds the third section of the act of 1886 says : "All new bonds issued by any village, city, town or county in this State under the provisions of this act shall be exempt from taxation for town, county, municipal or State purposes until the period when they are made payable." In 1893 still another iaw was passed making the statute cover any bonded indebtedness. The law as it now stands will be found in editorial on page 4 of the April, 1894, SUPPLEMENT.

be found in editorial on page 4 of the April, 1894, SUPPLEMENT. In addition to the foregoing there are special laws authorizing special issues that are exempt, but which we have not room to quote here. For New York City there is a general statute which directs how any of its bonds may be made exempt from city and county taxation. That its bonds may be made exempt from city and county taxation. That statute is subjoined. SEC. 137. The Commissioners of the "Sinking Fund of the City of New York for the redemption of the city debt," when duly authorized by ordinance of the Common Council, may, by concurrent resolution, direct that the bonds and stocks of said city, issued pursuant to law, after June ninth, eighteen hundred and eighty, shall be exempt from taxation by said city and by the county of New York, but not from taxa-tion for State purposes; and all bonds and stocks issued pursuant to such authority shall be exempt from taxation accordingly, provided that said bonds and stocks shall not bear interest exceeding the rate of four and one-half per centum per annum. The bonds and stocks of the city of New York issued pursuant to the provisions of this section shall express upon their face the fact that they are exempt from taxation by the city and county of New York, but not from State taxation, and shall refer to this section, and to the ordinance of the Common Council, and the resolution of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund authorand the resolution of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund authori zing their issue.

SAVINGS BANK INVESTMENTS-POWERS AND RESTRIC-TIONS.-In 1898 the New York Legislature passed an amendment to paragraph 6, Sec. 116, of the Savings Bank law of 1892. The amendment extended investments of savings banks to first mortgage railroad bonds the principal part of whose railroad is located within this State, and in 1899 the field of railroad investments was still further enlarged. We give section 116 below as it stands with these amendments incorporated.

Sec. 116. In what sccurilies deposits may be invested.-The trustees of any savings banks may invest the moneys deposited therein and the income derived therefrom only as follows:

7. In real property subject to the provisions of the next section.

It will be noted that subdivision 7 (the last paragraph of the above) refers to the "next section" for the provisions applicable. This reference is to section 117 of the law of 1892; we omit that section as it relates only to real estate. Sections 118, 119 and 120 of the law of 1892 we subjoin.

SECTION 118. The trustees of every such corporation shall as soon as practicable invest the moneys deposited with them in the securities authorized by this article; but for the purpose of meeting current payments and expenses in excess of the receipts, there may be kept an available fund not exceeding ten per centum of the whole amount of deposits with such corporation, on hand or deposit in any bank in this State organized under any law of this State or of the United States, or with any trust company incorporated by any law of the State ; but the sum so deposited in any one bank or trust company shall not exceed twenty-five per centum of the paid-up capital and surplus of any such bank or company; or such available fund, or any part thereof, may be loaned upon pledge of the securities or any of them named in sub-divisions one, two, three and four of the preceding section but one, but not in excess of ninety per centum of the securities so held in pledge depreciate in value, after making any loan thereon, the trustees shall SECTION 118. The trustees of every such corporation shall as soon as same. SECTION 119. Every such corporation may also deposit temporarily in the banks or trust companies specified in the last section the excess of current daily receipts over the payments, until such time as the same can be judiciously invested in the securities required by this article. Whenever it shall appear to the superintendent of banks that the trustees of any such corporation are violating the spirit and intent of this provision by keeping permanently uninvested all or an undue proportion of the moneys received by them, he shall report the facts to the Attorney-General, who shall proceed against such corporation in the manner provided in section eighty-two of this chapter.

SECTION 120. The trustees of any savings bank shall not loan the moneys deposited with them or any part thereof, upon notes, bills of exchange, drafts or any other personal securities whatever. In all cases of loans upon real property, a sufficient bond secured by a mort-gage thereon, shall be required of the borrower, and all the expenses of searchers,* examinations and certificates of title or appraisal of value, and of drawing, perfecting and recording papers, shall be paid by the borrower. by the borrower.

The privilege granted by section 119 might of course be interpreted liberally as opening the gates wide to continuous deposits in banks and trust companies. To avoid any such use of the privilege, the section also provides that whenever it shall appear to the Superintendent of the Banking Department that the trustees of any corporation are violating "the spirit and Intent of this section by keeping permaneutly uninvested "all or an undue portion of the moneys received," he must report to the "Attorney-General, who shall proceed against such corporation," etc.

COUNTY OF QUEENS.	LO DISTR
The outstanding bonds of the county of Queens and of the town of Hempstead as also certain of the school districts therein are reported	58, 58, soparately under their own heads; the amount which will be charge- able to the city of New York in these cases has not yet been judicially	58, determined, although the referee, ex-Judge Brown, has decided that the division of the debt should be on the basis of the assessed valua-	VILLA
tion of Nassau County and Queens Borough. This division makes New York City responsible for $3,822,316 and Nassau County for $985,653 of the old county's debt. Although this decision has been confirmed, an appeal has been taken.	5s, 5s,

DEBT, RESOURCES, ETC.

Admitted as a State - - One of Original Thirteen Total area of State (square miles) 7,815 - -State Capital Trenton - -

Governor(term exp. Mon. bef. 2d Tues. Jan. '02) F. M. Voorhees Secretary of State (term expires Apr. 1, 1902) - Geo. Wurts Treasurer (term expires April 2, 19)0) - - George B, Swain Comptroller (term expires April 2, 1900) - Wm. S. Hancock Legislature meets annually the second Tuesday of January, and there is no limit to the length of the session.

HISTORY OF DEBT.—New Jersey has always been a conservative State; there are consequently no facts out of which to construct a his-tory of debt issues. In a report made in 1838 the financial officer of the State affirmed that New Jersey had put out no obligations of any kind or loaned its credit to any company. The Constitution of 1844 forbade the creating of a State debt exceeding one hundred thousand dol-lars ergent for purposes of way. See as will more fully appearing the lars except for purposes of war, &c., as will more fully appear in the item below with respect to "debt limitation." This exception, under which it was allowable to exceed the hundred-thousand-dollar limit became operative on the occasion of the breaking out of our Civil War. Quite a debt was created at that period and what the State now owes is the remnant of those war issues. The details are as follows.

LOANS-NAME AND PURPOSE. War loan. War loan. How be and be an INTEREST is payable in Jersey City and Trenton. TOTAL DEBT.—The total bonded debt of the State on January 1, 1899, was $71,000. At previous dates it was:

In addition to the bonded debt the Treasurer and Comptroller have issued certificates to the commissioners of the Agricultural College for $48,000, which, with the war debt, makes the entire debt on January 1, 1899, $119,000. On Nov. 1, 1898, balance on hand was $1,001.524. ASSESSED VALUATION.-The assessed valuation, etc., has been

DEBT LIMITATIONS.—The provisions of law limiting and regulating the debt-making power in New Jersey will be better understood and the information will be made more serviceable to the investor if arranged in accordance with the civil divisions to which the provisions apply. (1) THE STATE is restricted as to its debt-making power by the State Constitution. In Article IV, Section VI, paragraphs 3 and 4, the whole subject is disposed of. The third paragraph forbids a loa n of the State's credit, and the fourth paragraph forbids the creation of debt. These provisions are as follows.

3. The credit of the State shall not be directly or indirectly loaned in

3. The credit of the State shall not be directly or indirectly loaned in any case. 4. The Legislature shall not in any manner create any debt or debts, hability or liabilities of the State, which shall singly or in the aggregate with any previous debts or liabilities at any time exceed one hundred thousand dollars, except for purposes of war, or to repel invasion, or to suppress insurrection, unless the same shall be authorized by a law for some single object of work, to be distinctly specified therein; which law shall provide the ways and means, exclusive of loans, to pay the interest of such debt or liability as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt or liability within thirty-five years from the time of the contracting thereof, and shall be irrepealable until such debt or liability and the interest thereon are fuily paid and dis-charged; and no such law shall take effect until it shall, at a general election, have been submitted to the people, and have received the sanction of a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election : and all money to be raised by the authority of such law shall beapplied only to the specific object stated therein, and to the payment of the debt thereby created. This section shall not be construed to re-er to any money that has been, or may be, deposited with this State by the Government of the United States.

According to the foregoing (4th paragraph), the power of the State for making debt is limited to $100,000, except (1) for purposes of war etc., and (2) when the authorization is for some single object of work speci-fied therein, etc. In the latter case the mode of procedure is, as will be seen, given in the same paragraph of the Constitution. (2) CITIES, COUNTIES, TOWNS, Etc., are also restricted in the making of certain kinds of debt by Article I, paragraphs 19 and 20, of the Constitution. We give the paragraph in full. I.9. No county, ety, borough, town, township or village shall hereafter give any money or property, or loan its money or credit, to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation, or become security for or be directly or indirectly the owner of any stock or bonds of any association or corporation to or for the use of any society, association or corporation whatever. I will be noted that the above prohibition relates to the giving of money, property or credit of eities, &c., to individuals, associations, or corporations, &c., and that the prohibition is absolute, forbidding the doing of such acts in any form, shape or manner. There is one other restriction of the State Constitution, and that is found in Article IV. Section VII, paragraph 11, which forbids the Legislature passing any special haws "regulating the internal affairs of lowns and conalies"; in this and in all other cases in which according to the judgment of the Legislature general laws are feasible, the Constitution states that general laws must be provided. I. acompliance with this last provision the Legislature has passed many general laws covering bonded indebtedness of cities, towns, etc. They are so numerous they cannot be cited here. We would refer the reader to the Revised Statutes of New Jersey published in 1893 as to the same heading "Municipal Bonds") pages 2220, etc. TAX EXEMPTION.—The State of New Jersey passed in 1893 a general statute which exempts from taxation the bonds, securi-ties and other evidences of

SAVINGS BANKS' INVESTMENTS-POWERS AND RESTRIC-TIONS.-The last general savings bank law of New Jersey was passed in 1876. Since then the legislative tendency in the matter of investments has been in the direction of allowing the management of these institutions a wider choice and a larger discretion. In 1878 the limits of the 1876 law were broadened in several particulars by a new act of two sections, the first taking the place of section 26 of the act of 1876. In 1886 still another law was passed in place of the first section of the law of 1878. Again in 1889 an act was passed extending ma. terially the provisions of section two of the law of 1878, which covered the same subject matter contained in section 29 of the original law of 1876, and thereby section 26 of the law of 1876 was superseded by the law of 1886, and section 29 was superseded by the law of 1889. In 1896 a supplement approved March 30, 1896 (Chapter 139, laws of 1896) to the law of 1876, making school district bonds an authorized investment, went into effect. In 1897 an act was passed (approved April 9) authorizing investments in bonds issued by commissioners appointed by the Snpreme Court of the State. In 1899 a further supplement extending the permissible line of municipal investments so as to include the bonds of townships and boroughs was approved March 24. An attempt to add such securities to the list was made in 1893, but the measure then failed to receive the approval of the Governor. The 1899 law is as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be lawful for any savings bank in this State to invest its funds in the bonds of any city, county, town or township of this State issued pursuant to the authority of any law of this State, or in the bonds of any borough or village or school district of this State issued pursuant to the authority of any law of this State; provided, such borough, village or school district shall not, within the ten years next preceding, have defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest of any legal debt or obligation thereof; and provided further, that the total indebtedness of any such borough or village does not exceed ten per centum of its assessed valuation, and such school district bonds are by law charged upon all the property of the inhabitants of such district, or in any interest-bearing obligation (other than obligations commonly known as improvement certificates) issued by the city, county, town, township, borough or village in which such bank or institution is situated. The following is the law of 1837 (approved April 9, 1897):

The following is the law of 1897 (approved April 9, 1897):

"Sec. 1. It shall be lawful for any bank, trust company, savings bank or savings institution * * * incorporated under the laws of this State, to invest moneys belonging to or deposited with any such com-panies in any bonds authorized by the laws of this State to be issued by any commission appointed by the Supreme Court of this State by virtue of any law of this State."

We omit the law of 1896 with reference to school district bonds because its provisions are included in the laws of 1899, quoted above. Next we give the leading provisions of the general law as to investments.

SECTION 1. That the first section of the act of which this is a supple-ment be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows: That it shall not be lawful, from and after the passage of this act, for any savings bank or other savings institution, whether chartered or incorporated under a general or special act of the legislature of this State, and any provision contained in the charter, or any supplement thereto, of such savings bank or savings institution to the contrary, to invest the moncys deposited with the same in any manner, except as follows, to wit:

follows, to wit: I. In the stocks or bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith of the United States is distinctly pledged to provide for the payment of the principal and interest thereof; I. In the stocks or bonds of this States.

II. In the interest-bearing bonds of this State; III. In the bonds of any State in the Union that has not, within ten years previous to making such investment by any such bank or institu-tion, defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest of any debt authorized by any legislature of such State to be contracted. of any debt authorized by any legislature of such State to be contracted. IV. In the stocks or bonds of any city, town, county or village of this State, issued pursuant to the authority of any law of this State, or of the cities of New York, Brooklyn and Philadelphia, or in any interest-bearing obligations (other than those commonly known as improve-ment certificates) issued by the city, town or borough in which such bank or institution shall be situated; (See below for provision including the bonds of certain cities and counties of any State in the U. S). V. In bonds secured by mortgages which shall be a first lien on real estate situate in this State, and worth at least double the amount C F F F loaned thereon, but not to exceed eighty per centum of the whole depos-its shall be so loaned or invested; but in case the loan is on unimproved or unproductive real estate, the amount loaned thereon shall not be more than thirty per centum of its actual value; and no investment in any bond and mortgage shall be made by any savings bank, except upon the report of a committee of at least three of the managers, directors or trustees of any such bank or institution, and a majority of which committee shall certify to the value of the premises mortgaged, or to be mortgaged, according to their best judgment; such report shall be filed and preserved among the records of the institution; VI. In real estate strictly in accordance with the following pro-visions. visions.

We do not reprint the real estate provisions, as they cover a matter not germane to our present subject. It is sufficient to say that they are two in number, marked (a) and (b), and may be summarized as below :

(a) authorizes the holding of a plot for erection of a banking build-ing or buildings, portions of which may be rented, but the cost of lot and buildings must not exceed 50% of the net surplus of the corporation: (b) all purchases under foreclosure sales upon mortgages owned by the corporation or sales under judgments or decrees obtained for debts due, etc.; and all such real estate must be sold within five years unless, on application to the State Board having supervision of Savings Banks, time shall be extended.

But the character of permissible investments was further greatly enlarged by the law of 1886, which is as follows:

enlarged by the law of 1886, which is as follows: SECTION 1. That it shall be lawful for any savings bank or savings in-stitution, incorporated under any law of this State, to invest moneys deposited with it in the bonds of any city or county of any State of the United States of America, which have been or may be issued pursuant to the authority of any law of any such State; provided, no such eity or county has, within ten years previous to making such investment by any such savings bank or savings institution of this State, defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest of any debt anthorized by law of such State to be contracted; and provided, fur-ther, that the total indebtedness of any such eity or county is limited by law to ten percentum of its assessed valuation.

By another aet the banks also have the right to invest in railroad bonds under certain restrictions. The authorization was given by Section 2 of an act approved February 22, 1888. Subsequently (April 27, 1838,) this Section 2 was repealed. On March 27, 1889, however, it was again re-enacted. The section is as follows:

SECTION 2. That it shall be lawful for any savings bank in this State to invest its funds in first mortgage bonds of any railroad company which has paid dividends of not less than four per centum per annum regularly, on their entire capital stock, for a period of not less than five years next previous to the purchase of such bonds, or in any con-solidated mortgage bonds of any such company authorized to be issued to retire the entire bonded debt of such company. The other law referred to above passed in 1880 amending section 2 of the law of 1878 is as below. It relates to loans on collaterals: SECTION 2. That hereafter it shall not be lawful for any saving insti-tution in this State to loan the money on deposit with the same, or any part thereof, upon notes, bills of exchange or drafts, excepting upon the additional pledge of collateral security or securities, which collat-oral security or securities shall be of the same nature and character as those in which the money deposited may be invested, as directed in the first section of this act, or the capital stocks of national and State banks, or other corporations of this State, which nave not defaulted in the payment of interest dividends within two years next preceding the time of such loan, and then only to the extent of eighty per centum of the market value of such collaterals; provided, that the total amount of such loans shall not exceed fifteen per centum of the total deposits held by such institution. held by such institution.

The other law referred to above passed in 1889 amending section 2 of the law of 1878 is as below. It relates to loans on collaterals:

In addition to the foregoing (according to section 27 of the general law of 1876) the managers can keep on hand or on deposit in any bank in the State, or in any trust or safe deposit eompany in New Jersey, New York or Pennsylvania, an available fund of not exceeding ten per cent of the whole amount of deposits with such corporation, or loan the same on pledge of the securities named in the first section eited above. Also (according to section 28 of the general law of 1876) they can deposit temporarily in banks the excess of current daily receipts over payments until such time as they may be judicionsly invested.

DEBT LIMITATION-In Pennsylvania the limit to the indebtedness of the State, and to the indebtedness of the eities and minor civil organizations in the State, is fixed by the State Constitution.

1. State indebtedness .- With regard to the State, the regulations controlling and governing debt ereation, payment, &c., are found in Sections 4, 5, 6, 11, 12, 13 and 14 of Article IX of the Constitution, and are as follows.

ARTICLE 1X. Sec. 4. No debt shall be created by, or on behalf of, the State except to supply casual deficiencies of revenue, repel invasions, suppress insurrection, defeud the State in war, or to pay existing debt; and the debt created to supply deficiencies in revenue shall never exceed, in the aggregate at any one time, one million of dollars.

All laws authorizing the borrowing of money by, and on SECTION 5. behalf of, the State shall specify the purpose for which the money is to be used, and the money so borrowed shall be used for the purpose specified and no other

The credit of the Commonwealth shall not be pledged or SECTION 6. loaned to any individual, company, corporation or association, nor shall the Commonwealth become a joint-owner or stockholder in any shall the Commonwealth become a joint-owner or stockholder in any company, association or corporation. SECTION 11. To provide for the payment of the present State debt, and any additional debt contracted as aforesaid, the General Assembly shall continue and maintain the sinking fund sufficient to pay the accruing interest on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; the said sinking fund shall consist of the proceeds of the sales of the public works, or any part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of the sale of any stocks owned by the Commonwealth, together with other funds and resources that may be designated by law, and shall be increased from time to time by assigning to it any part of the taxes or other revenue of the State not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and unless in case of war, invasion or insur-rection, no part of the said sinking fund shall be used or applied other-wise than in the extinguishnent of the publie debt. SECTION 12. The moneys of the State, over and above the necessary re-

SECTION 12. The moneys of the State, over and above the necessary re-serve, shall be used in the payment of the debt of the State, either directly or through the sinking fund, and the moneys of the sinking fund shall never be invested in or loaned upon the security of anything except the bonds of the United States or of this State.

SECTION 13. The moneys held as necessary reserve shall be limited by law to the amount required for current expenses, and shall be se-cured and kept as may be provided by law. Monthly statements shall be published, showing the amount of such moneys, where the same are demonstrated and how second deposited, and how secured. SECTION 14. The making of profit out of the public moneys, or using the same for any purpose not authorized by law, by any officer of the State, or member or officer of the General Assembly, shall be a misde-meanor, and shall be punished as may be provided by law; but part of such punishment shall be disqualification to hold office for a period of patless than the vars not less than five years.

State loans in Pennsylvania, whether created for original indebtedness or authorized to fund existing indebtedness, are usually negotiated through the Governor and Commissioners of the sinking fund.

The last act of the Pennsylvania Legislature authorizing a public loan was the act of June 8, 1881, when a thirty-year loan was effected to fund existing indebtedness at a lower rate of interest.

The earliest date at which the last of the existing indebtedness of Pennsylvania will mature is February 1, 1912, and under existing arrangements the accumulations in the sinking fund will at that time pay the total State indebtedness.

(2) County and Municipal Indebtedness.-Under the laws of Pennsylvania the power to create county loans is in the Board of County Commissioners, which consists in each county of three persons, elected tri-ennially under the numority system of voting, by which the minority party in each County usually has one member of the Board.

In citics and boroughs the power to create indebtedness is vested in conneils, municipal debts being created by ordinance. The creation of county, city and other municipal indebtedness is subject to the following constitutional limitations.

ARTICLE IX, Sec. 7. The General Assembly shall not authorize any county, city, borough, township or incorporated district to become a stockholder in any company, association or corporation, or to obtain or appropriate money for, or to loan its credit to, any corporation, associ-ation, institution or individual.

ation, institution or individual. SECTION 8. The debt of any county, city, horough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebted-ness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate at any one time, upon such valuation. SECTION 9. The Commonwealth shall not assume the debt or any

SECTION 9. The Commonwealth shall not assume the debt, or any part thereof, of any city, county, borough or township, unless such dept shall have been contracted to enable the State to repeal invasion, suppress domestic insurrection, defend itself in time of war, or to assist the State in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness.

SECTION 10. Any county, township, school district or other municipality incurring any indebtedness shall, at or before the time of so doing, provide for the collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest, and also the principal thereof within thirty years.

(3) Townships and School Districts.-In the various school districts of the State the school directors have the power to create loans, subject to the limitations of Section 10 above quoted, to provide for the redemption of the same within thirty years.

In townships, the only authority, except that of the school directors to borrew money, is in the road supervisors, who have no power to create bonded indebtedness, but simply to make a temporary loan for necessary expenses, which must be provided for by an assessment of sufficient township tax rate, known as road tax.

POPULATION OF STATE.-The population of Pennsylvania has heen reported as follows in the years named.

SAVINGS BANKS INVESTMENTS-POWERS AND RESTRIC-

TIONS.-Philadelphia is, we believe, entitled to the distinction of starting the first savings institution in the United States. The name this association bore was the "Philadelphia Savings Fund Society," and it still exists, bearing the same name. Originally the bank was not incorporated, but was a voluntary organization, such societies in Great Britain being at that time of a like character. The date of the organization was November 27, 1816, and the bank was opened for business December 2, 1816. Mr. Hutchinson, who, now holds the office of President, states that the oldest ledger of the company goes back to the time of opening, and shows a deposit on that day (December 2, 1816) of five dollars. The company was not incorporated until February 25, 1819.

It is surprising that Pennsylvania, although engaged in such an early venture in the department of savings institutions, should have made so little progress in the same department since. Indeed, the second organization does not bear date until 1847, and we think there had only been 10 mutual savings institutions organized in the whole State from 1816 down to the early part of 1890. We may assume, however that this slow development was in no measure due to a lack of desire for savings banks on the part of the people of that common wealth. That such institutions were sought and needed is sufficiently evident from the fact that nine of the ten companies referred to above reported in 1890 that they held $63.957,341 of deposits. In 1889 a general law, facilitating the incorporation of savlngs banks, was passed by the Legislature. Since then there has been a small addition to the number of institutions, the total doing business in the State on Nov. 3, 1898, being 16, with deposits aggregating $88,728,071,

The provisions of the special charters are all liberal as to investments A law passed in 1885, and a supplement of the same passed in 1889, authorizing the extension for twenty years of special charters, contains the following.

"Provided also, that no * * * Savings Institution or Savings Bank having no capital stock, renewing or extending its charter, corporate rights and franchises, under the provision of this act, shall thereafter be allowed the privileges of a bank of discount, nor be allowed to loan any money received on deposit, EXCEPT first mortgage or lien upon real estate within this commonwealth, upon the bonds or securities of the United States or of this State, or upon county, city, borough, township or school bonds of any county, city, borough, town-ship or school district within this commonwealth, or any other good and valid securities." "Provided also, that no * * * Savings Institution or Savings

Authority to loan on any "good and valid security "appears to confer about as broad a discretion upon the managers as could be expressed in a statute.

It was not until 1889, as already stated, that a general law facilitating the organization of savings institutions was passed. That law of 1889 is indeed well adapted not only for facilitating, but for stimulating, the growth of the system. Its influence in the latter direction would seem to be assured under the liberality of the provisions respecting investments. The following is section 17, which contains the investment limitations; we would especially direct attention to subdivision four of this section:

SECTION 17.—It shall be lawful for the trustces of any savings bank to invest money deposited therein only as follows: (1.) In the stocks or bonds or interest-bearing notes or the obliga-tions of the United States, or those for which the faith of the United States is pledged to provide for the payment of the interest and the principal principal (2) In the stocks or bonds of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania bearing interest. (3) In the stocks or bonds of any State in the Union that has not within ten years previous to making such investments, by such corpo-ration, defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or in-terest of any debt authorized by any Legislature of such State to be contracted.

(4) In the stocks or bonds of any city, county, town or village of any State of the United States, issued pursuant to the authority of any law of the State, or in any interest-bearing obligations issued by the city or county in which such bank shall be situated. (5) In bonds and mortgages on unincumbered, improved real estate, situated in this State.

It will be noted that according to the foregoing (sub-division four), Pennsylvania savings banks are allowed to invest their deposits in the bonds and stocks of any city, county town or village in any of the United States. Furthermore, by the fifth subdivision bonds and mortgages are left to the discretion of the trustees in all purchases, except that they must be first mortgages on improved real estate in Pennsylvania. The next section (18) relates to the temporary deposit of funds in banks and trust companies. It makes it lawful to deposit temporarily in banks or trust companies the excess of current daily receipts over the payments until such time as the same can be judlelously invested in the securities named above.

Philadelphia, co-extensive with the county of the same name, is the third eity of the United States, has an area of over 130 square uniles, and includes a number of places which have almost the character of separate towns. The county is under eity control and has no separate debt. In the following table the various issues of bonds under the general heads, Taxed City Loan and Untaxed City Loan, are given in the order of their dates of maturity. The long-continued litigation over the issuance of the $11,200,0 '0 bonds voted Nov. 7, 1897, was concluded May 15, 1899, by a decision of the Supreme Court confirming their validity. One half the bonds was issued July 1, 1899.

Tunnel Secretary of State (term expires with Gov.) James H. Hughes Treasurer - - - - Lewis H. Ball Legislature meets biennially in odd years on the first Tuesday in January, and pay is limited to 60 days

HISTORY OF DEBT.-The historical details of Delaware's State debt from 1865 to 1894 will be found in the STATE AND CITY SUPPLE-MENT of April, 1894, page 72. The present extent and condition of the debt and resources of the State are given below, showing that Delaware now holds good a sets more than equaling its liabilities.

INTEREST.-On a part of the bonds of series "B" and of the Refunding bonds of 1897 is payable at the Philadelphia National Bank

TOTAL DEBT, ETC.-The total liabilities on March 1, 1899, were $819,750. The assets were $1,169,419; assets in excess of liabilities $349,669. The total assets include bank stocks $477,702; mortgages on railroads $385,000, and bonds, $161,750.

ASSESSED VALUATION.-The total assessed valuation of the State in 1890 was $74,134,401; in 1897 it was $77,632,079.

DEBT LIMITATION.-Neither the new Constitution (adopted June 4, 1897,) nor the old Constitution nor the State statutes contain any general provisions authorizing bond issues or limiting the debt-making power, except that the new Constitution-

(1) Forbids the State (Article 8, Sec. 3) to borrow money or create debt, "but pursuant to an Act of the General Assembly passed with the concurrence of three-fourths of all the members elected to each the concurrence of three-fourths of all the members elected to each Honse, except to supply casual deficiencies, repel invasion, suppress insurrections, defend the State in war or pay existing debts." (2) Forbids any county, city, town or other municipality (Article 8, Sec. 8) to "lend its credit or appropriate money to, or assume the debt of, or become a shareholder or joint owner in, or with, any private corporation or any person or company whatever." (3) Forbids any corporation (Arti-le 9, Sec. 1) to be created, etc., by special act, "but only by or nucler general law"; "but the foregoing provisions shall not apply to municipal corporations, banks," etc. The above indicates that the authority as regards municipalities [ex-cept as already specified in number (2)] rests with the General Assembly, and the General Assembly always passes special acts to provide for special occasions and needs.

DEBT LIMITATION.—There is nothing in the Constitution of Maryland limiting the power of the Legislature to authorizo bond issues either by the State or by its municipalities. No general limit for cities and towns has been fixed by the Legislature, nor is there any general authorization to be found in the statutes under which eities and towns can issue bonds. This power is lodged in the Legislature, and is dele-gated to the municipalities from time to time for specific purposes as the oceasion may arise. It is necessary, therefore, for the investor to study the law in each ease on this as well as on other points affecting the loan with respect to which he may need information. IMITATION. POPULATION OF STATE.-

SAVINGS BANKS INVESTMENTS.—There are in this State gen-eral banking laws under which savings banks may be organized, and yet we notice that even in 1890 a special charter was granted incorporating the Germania Savings Bank of Baltimore. However, in both the general and special laws there appears to be a pretty general authority granted for investing the doposits. The general law states that—

Any savings institution incorporated under this article shall be capable of receiving from any person or persons, or bodies corporate or politic, any deposit of money which shall be invested or loaned out on good security in the discretion of the directors; provided that no part of the funds of said corporation shall be loaned to any officer or director of such corporation.

In the special law passed in 1890, which we have referred to above, The bower to loan the deposits is made a little more definite. The sec-tion referring to that subject states that the "corporation shall have "power to borrow money, receive money on deposit, loan money "taking such security therefor, either read or personal, as the Board of "Directors may deem sufficient; provided that no part of the funds of "said corporation shall be loaned to an officer or director thereof." We cannot discover any marked difference lu the two provisions cited, except that the enactment in the case of the new Baltimore bank states distinctly that the sceurity can be either real or personal. But as much as that would, we think, be assumed as authorized under the gen-eral provision, since no limit is made and loaning on bond and mortgage is always a legitimate part of the business of savings banks.

The State tax (per $1,000) for 1898 was $2.84 and the same for 1899. DEBT LIMITATION .- Ohio has very earefully guarded the debtmaking power of the State. This could not be said while the Constitution of 1802 was in force; for under that instrument it was competent for the Legislature to construct works of internal improvement on behalf of the State, or to aid in their construction by subscribing to the capital stock of corporations created for that purpose, or to authorize in other ways the creation of debt in unlimited amounts. But since the adoption of the Constitution of 1851 the whole situation in these particulars has changed, the legislative power with respect to the State having been limited. The same is in large measure true also of the municipalities.

FIRST, As to the State's power to contract debt, this is regulated under the first five sections of article 8 of the Constitution. Section 1 limits the power to the supply of "easual deficits in revenues or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for," but in the aggregate debts for even the purposes named cannot exceed $750,000. Section 2 contains an exception to the foregoing; it grants the power to contract debt in case of invasion, of insurrection, of war or of the redemption of the then existing indebtedness. Section 3 reaffirms the limit, except as above specified. Section 4 forbids the loaning of the State credit. Section 5 further forbids the assumption of debts by States. We insert these five sections in full.

the assumption of debts by States. We insert these five sections in full. SECTION 1. [Debt limited to seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars]. The State may contract debts to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts direct and contingent whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the General Assembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and the money arising from the creation of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained or to re-pay the debts so contracted and to no other purpose whatever.

SECTION 2. [Additional and for what purpose.] In addition to the above limited power the State may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the State in war, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the State; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to re-pay such debts, and ito no other purpose whatever; and all debts incurred to redeem the present outstanding indebt-edness of the State shall be so contracted as to be payable by the sinking fund hereinafter provided for as the shall accumulate. SECTION 3. [The State to create no other debt]. Except the debts above

SECTION 3. [The State to create no other debt.] Except the debts above specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this article, no debt whatever shall here-after be created by or on behalf of the State. SECTION 4. [Oredit of State; the State shall not become joint owner or stockholder.] The credit of the State shall not in any manner be given or loaned to or in aid of any individual association or corporation what-ever: nor shall the State ever hereafter become a joint owner or stock-holder in any company or association in this State or elsewhere formed for any purpose whatever.

for any purpose whatever. SECTION 5. [No assumption of debts by the State.] The State shall never assume the debts of any county, eity, town or township, or of any corporation whatever, unless such debt shall have been created to repel invasion, suppress insurrection or defend the State in war.

The foregoing sections complete the limitation as to State debt and credit. Sections 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 of Article 8 cover the matter of sinking funds referred to in Section 2 above. But they need not be published hcre.

SECOND, As to Cities, Towns, Counties, &c., so far as the Constitution affects the power of the Legislature to authorize these municipalities to create debt, the limitations are found in section 6 of article 8 and in sections 1, 2 and 6 of article 13. (1) Section 6 of article 8 forbids the General Assembly to authorize cities, &c., to become stockholders in or to raise money or loan oredit to aid corporations, &c. (2) Sections 1 and 2 of article 13 forbid the passing of special acts and require general acts for conferring cor porate powers. (3) Section 6 of article 13 provides that the General Assembly make provision for the organization of cities, &c., by general laws and restrict their debt-making power. These sections are as follows:

ARTICLE 8, Section 6. [Counties, citics, towns or townships not author-ized to become stockholders, &c.] The General Assembly shall never authorize any county, eity, town or township, by vote of its citizens or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any joint stock company, corpora-tion or association whatever; or to raise money for, or loan its credit to, or in ald of, any such company, corporation or association. ARTICLE 13, Section 1. [Corporate powers]. The General Assembly shall pass no special act conferring corporate powers. Section 2. [Corporations how formed]. Corporations may be formed under general laws; but all such laws may from time to time be altered or repealed.

Section 6. [Organization of cities, &c.] The General Assembly shall provide for the organization of cities and incorporated villages by gene-ral laws and restrict their power of taxation, assessment, borrowing money, contracting debts and loaning their crodit, so as to prevent the abuse of such power.

One at first sight would infer from section 6 article 8 above cited that eities could not subscribe to the stock of or loan money to railroads, as railroads are corporations and joint-stock companies. That, however, is not a correct conclusion, as was decided in the case of Walker vs. The City of Cincinnati, a case which arose under an act of the General Assembly of Ohio entitled "An Act relating to cities of the first class," authorizing any such city to construct a line of railroad therefrom to any other terminus in that State or in any other State. In pursuance of the authority that act purports to give, Cincinnati undertook to build the Cincinnati Southern Railroad. To test the legal ity of that proceeding this action was brought. The Court's opinion is verv full and explicit, the conclusion being that from "the language of the section it is quite evident that it was not intended to prohibit "the construction of railroads nor indeed to prohibit any species of "public improvements. The section contains no direct reference to "railroads nor to any other special classes of improvements or enter-" prises. The inhibitions are directed only against a particular manner "or means by which under the Constitution of 1802 many public im-"provements had been accomplished."

In compliance with section 6, article 13 (cited above), which provides for the organization of cities etc. by general law, the Legislature has made an elaborate classification of municipal corporations. First they are divided into eities, villages and hamlets. Then eities are divided nto two classes, the first class being subdivided into three grades and the second class being subdivided into four grades, the grade being determined by population according to the last Federal Census.

Cities in the FIRST CLASS-First grade includes all cities of more than 200,000 inhabitants; second grade all less than 200,000 and more than 90,000 inhabitants; third grade all less than 90,000 and more than 31 500 inhabitants.

Cities in the SECOND CLASS-First grade includes all cities of less than 31,500 and more than 30,500 inhabitants; second grade all less than 30,500 and more than 20,000 inhabitants; third grade all less than 20,000 and more than 10,000 inhabitants; fourth grade all less than 10,000 and more than 5,000 inhabitants.

VILLAGES-Of the first class include ail having less than 5,000 and more than 3,000 inhabitants; the second class includes all having less than 3,000 and more than 200 inhabitants.

HAMLETS-According to section 1550 of the Revised Statutes all existing corporations organized as "incorporated villages for special " purposes shall be hamlets until advanced to villages."

It is impossible to make any satisfactory generalization with regard to the bonding power the Legislature has granted these municipalities. There are a few sections of the Revised Statutes authorizing bond issnes which have a universal application, such as the provision granting power to issue bonds in anticipation of special assessments, but most of the laws for that purpose cover only one class of cities, and many of them are so worded as to apply only to one city, and granting an issue of bonds for a specific purpose. No general laws limiting the powers of municipalities to incur indebtedness have been passed, although section 6, article 13, appears to require it. And yet is it not a question whether that section calls for any legislation of a general nature except a general law "for the organization of cities, &c."]

POPULATION OF STATE-The population of Ohio has been as follows in the years named.

Cincinnati is situated in Hamilton County.

Cincinnati is situated in Hamilton County. In 1895 the villages of Avoudale, Clifton, Liuwood, Riverside and Westwood were annexed to Cincinnati and their indebtedness was assumed by that eity. The eity Sinking Fund Trustees entered into an agreement with a New York firm in 1898 looking to the refunding of the Cincinnati Southern Railway bonds. This agreement was set aside by Judge Spiegel on Aug. 18, 1898, and upon appeal the State Supreme Court affirmed that rul ng. See CHRONICLE, V. 67, p. 189 and 442; V. 63, p. 1143. The Board of Trustees of the Cincinnati Southern Railway has also twice advertised for proposals to refund these bonds, first on Dec. 20, 1898 (see CHRONICLE, Nov. 26, 1898, p. 1122), all bids then received being rejected. They again called for proposals July 19, 1899 (V. 68, p. 1236), but only a small portion had been offered for extension when Iltigation again blocked further refunding operations. This suit was dismissed on eept. 7, 1-99, by Judge Davis, of the Com-mon Pleas Court, and the cuse is now (sept. 26, 1899,) pending in the Circuit Court on app :al. Circuit Court on appeal

The total tax rate (per $1,000) for 1899 was $$2.96^{2}3$, including Benevolent Institution tax $0.50, school tax $1.10, State debt sinking fund tax $0.30, and Educational Institution tax $$0.16^{2}3$, in addition to the general f und tax of $0.93 as given above.

DEBT LIMITATION.-In the present Constitution of Indiana, which went into effect November 1, 1851, superseding the Constitution adopted in 1816, there are explicit provisions limiting the power of both the State and its municipalities to contract debt.

FIRST, as to the State, Section 5 of article 10 provides that no debt except to meet casual deficits in revenue, to pay interest, to repel invasion &c. can be contracted. The section in full is subjoined.

CREATION OF DEBT FORBIDDEN.—No law shall authorize any debt to be contracted on behalf of the State except in the following cases: To meet casual deficits in the revenue; to pay interest on the State debt; to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or, if hostilities be threatened, provide for the public defense.

In the sixth section of the same article the last elauso prohibits the assumption by the State of the debts of any municipality or corporation. The clause referred to reads as follows.

Nor shall the General Assembly ever on behalf of the State assume the debts of any county, eity, town or township, nor of any corporation whatever.

SECOND. as to municipalities, the provision contained in the Constitution seems to be equally clear and emphatic, and, as will be found, fixes the limit at 2 per cent of the valuation. It is article 13 of that instrument which relates to this subject, and we give the article In full below.

LIMITED – EXCESS VOID. – No political or municipal corporation lu this State shall ever become indebted in any manner or for any pur-pose to an amount in the aggregate exceeding two per centum on the valuation of the taxable property within such corporation, to be ascer-tained by the last assessment for State and County taxes previous to the meurring of such indebtedness; and all bonds or obligations in excess of such amount given by such corporation, shall be void; Pro-tided, That in time of war, foreign invasion, or other great public calamity, on petition of a majority of the property owners in number and value, within the limits of such corporation, the public authorities in their discretion may incur obligations necessary for the public pro-tection and defense to such an amount as may be requested in such tection and defense to such an amount as may be requested in such petition. petition.

It should be said in connection with the above that several laws have been enacted since the foregoing constitutional limit was adopted (March 14 1881), and bonds have been issued by countles thereunder beyond the 2 per cent limit, for the construction of "free gravel, stone or other macadamized roads." Several such laws were passed at the 1899 session of the Legislature, all of which we now have in our possession. We wrote the Attorney General of Indiana in March, 1899, for his opinion as to the constitutionality of these road laws. Un der date of April 22, 1899, he replied, stating that in the case of Strieb vs Cox, Treas., 111 Ind., the Supreme Court of Indiana held that gravel road bonds are not properly indebtedness of the county-hence do not come within the inhibition of Section 13 of the Constitution.

THIRD, counties (but no other kind of municipality) are prohibited from subscribing for any stock in a corporation unless paid for at time of such subscription. The section which covers this subject is section 6 of article 10, and is as follows.

Counties eannot take stock. No county shall subscribe for stock in any incorporated company unless the same be paid for at the time of such subscription; nor shall any county loan its credit to any incor-porated company, nor borrow money for the purpose of taking stock in any such company; nor shall the General Assembly ever on behalf of the State assume the debts of any county, city, town or township, nor of any componentiate whethere any corporation whatever.

The prohibition which this section contains applies, as already stated, only to counties. Consequently the Legislature was at liberty to authorize cities to subscribe to the stock of railroads, as it did by a general law passed in 1867 granting the power to subscribe to the stock of any railroad running into or through any city or near its corporate limits. Other laws of a somewhat similar character have been passed at other dates. We notice one law too which authorizes counties bordering on the State line to subscribe for railroad stock and to issue bonds for the purpose of paying the subscription. In view of the above section this grant of power extended to counties would seem to be at least questionable.

COUNTIES are apparently restricted by statute to a lower than the Constitutional limit of 2 per cent in the matter of creating certain kinds of debt. For instance, Section 5749 of the Revised Statutes anthorizes any county to issue bonds when necessary to construct, complete or repair court house, jail or other county buildings, or to fund existing debt; in those cases county commissioners may borrow for that purpose not exceeding 1 per cent on assessed valuation and issue bonds therefor.

Limit of one per eent may be exceeded in counties for funding purposes in certain cases where the aggregate indebtedness in 1879 exceeded one per cent (see Revised Statutes, Section 816); also for temporary loans (see Revised Statutes, Section 5818).

Also (if the laws that have been passed are constitutional), the limit of 2 per cent may be exceeded for the purpose of making gravel roads (see above), the Supreme Court having decided that gravel road bonds are not properly an indebtedness of the county.

In addition to the foregoing, general statutes have been passed by the Legislature granting general powers to cities and towns of fifteen thousand inhabitants or over to issue bonds for legitimate corporate purposes, subject, however, to the Constitutional limit of 2 per cent on valuation. But we have not the space to set out here the details, or the details of the other legislation applicable to cities of larger and smaller population, and covering specific purposes, such as water works, &c.

Under a law passed Feb. 25, 1898, there will be a general assessment of real estate but once in every four years instead of annually; personal property will be listed every year. The law also provides that property shall be appraised at full value but assessed at only onefifth of such value, DEBT LIMITATION .- No State has developed a greater repugnance to the creating of debt than Illinois, if we may judge from the provisions of its present Constitution. We say developed, because this antagonism has apparently been progressive. Nothing of it is to be found in the Constitution of 1818. The Constitution of 1848 contains no reference to municipalities, but has in it stringent restrictions limiting to $50,000 the power of the Legislature to create State debt, except in case of war, invasion, etc., unless the law proposing the issue of bonds is submitted to a vote of the people. But turning to the Constitution of 1870 we find the whole subject of debt-making most thoroughly considered and its basis settled.

FIRST, as to the State, the provisions are not very unlike the provisions of the Constitution of 1848, except that as to the limit for casual deficits and failures of revenue, the aggregate which can be created is very properly raised to $250,000. But with that exception and with the further exception for the purpose of repelling invasion etc. no debt ean be contracted unless the law is submitted to a vote of the people at a general election, which law must contain a provision for the payment of interest as it accrues, and previous notice of the election be given by publication for three months prior to such election. These last two restrictions as to interest and notice of election are only found in the 1870 Constitution. The sections which cover these matters are as follows; we omit the first portion of Section 18, which relates only to appropriations and payment of appropriations out of funds belonging to the State:

to the State: SECTION 18. * * * * * Provided, the State may, to meet casual deficits or failures in revenues, contract debts never to exceed in the ag-grevale $250,000, and moneys thus borrowed shall be applied to the purpose for which they were obtained, or to pay the debt thus created, and to no other purpose; and no other debt except for the purpose of repelling invasion, suppressing insurrection or defending the State in war (for payment of which the faith of the State shall be pledged), shall be contracted, unless the law authorizing the same shall at a general election have been submitted to the people, and have received a majority of the votes cast for members of the General Assembly at such election The General Assembly shall provide for the publication of said law for three months at least before the vote of the people shall be taken upon the same: and provision shall be made at the time for the payment of the Interest by such tax, shall be providing for the payment of such interest by such tax, shall be providing for the payment of such interest by such tax, shall be providing for the payment with the law provide for the law lerging the tax shall be sub-mitted to the people with the law authorizing the debt to be contracted SECTION 20. The State shall never pay assume or become responsible

SECTION 20. The State shall never pay assume or become responsible for the debts or liabilities of, or in any manner give, loan, or extend its credit to or in and of any public or other corporation, association or individual individual.

Nothing needs to be added in explanation of the foregoing. The provisions seem to be explicit and to guard most wisely the creation of State debt.

SECOND, municipat indebtedness is regulated only in the Constitution of 1870. In that instrument the subject is dealt with in all its phases First is a provision in Article 8, Section 3, for bidding the General Assembly and every municipality from making any appropriation in aid of any sectarian purpose. Second is a "separate section" forbidding any such municipality from becoming a subscriber to the stock of any railroad, &c., or to loan its credit. Third is the board and general provision. Section 12, Article 9, which limits the indebtedness of all municipalities to 5 per cent "on the value of the taxable property therein," &c. We give these sections below :

ARTICLE 8. Section 3. Neither the General Assembly nor any county city, town, township, school district, or other public corporation, shall ever make any appropriation, or pay from any public fund whatever, anything in ald of any church or sectarian purpose, or to help support or sustain any school, academy, seminary, college, university, or other literary or scientific institution controlled by any church or sectarian denomination whatever; nor shall any grant or donation of land, money or other personal property ever be made by the State, or any such public corporation, to any church or for any sectarian purpose. ARTICLE 9, Section 12. No county, city, township, school district or other municipal corporation shall be allowed to become indebted in any manner or for any purpose, to an amount, including existing indebted-ness, in the aggregate exceeding five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for State and county taxes, previous to the incurring of such indebtedness. Any county, eity, school district or other municipal corporation incur-ring any indebtedness as aforesaid shall before, or at the time of doing so, provide for the collection of a direct annual tax sufficient to pay the Interest on such debt as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same. This section shall not be construed to prevent any county, city, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, from issuing their bonds in compliance with any vote of the people which may have been had prior to the adoption of this Constitution in pursuance of any law providing therefor. SEPARATE Sections. [Municipal subscriptions to railroads etc.] No county, city, town, township or other municipality shall ever become subscriber to the capital stock of any railroad or private corporation, or make donation to or loan its credit in aid of such corporation, provided, however, that the adoption of this article shall not be construed as affect-ing the right of any such municipality to make such subscriptions where the same have been authorized, under existing laws, by a vote of the people of such municipalities prior to such adoption.

The foregoing limitation to 5 per cent is general, as will be seen-that is, it applies to all municipalities. With this limitation preserved the Legislature has passed general laws authorizing the city council in eities and the board of trustees in villages to issue bonds for corporate purposes, for refunding and consolidating debt, for water works, etc.; and the county board of any county has been authorized by general statute to issue, when it deems it necessary, county bonds, after submitting the matter to the legal voters of the county at a general election, at which a majority vote is required as a prerequisite of the issue. In all these general laws, however, it is provided, according to Section 12, Article 9, of the Constitution, that in no case must the aggregate indebtedness exceed five per cent of the taxable property therein.

IMPROVEMENT BONDS .- There is a kind of improvement bond authorized in some cases which is made a special lien on the land benefitted and to which the 5 per cent limit has no reference. We refer to cases which come under the law entitled "To divide citics and villages subject "to overflow into improvement districts." This statute provides that any such city or village or part thereof may be laid off into an improvement district for the purpose of draining, raising the grade of the streets and improving the district; that after the eost for the work has been ascertained and been assessed, the assessment may be paid in instalments or otherwise and such city or village may issue bonds sufficient to pay the assessment. In that ease the bonds are a lien on the lots, blocks or parts thereof which shall be designated therein; but before the issue the owner of the lots, etc., to be charged must endorse upon the back of such bond his consent, under seal, in substance as follows: "1 hereby indorse the within bond 'and consent that the lot or lots or parts thereof therein designated "shall become liable for the interest and principal therein namea and "the same shall be a lien upon said property from this date until paid "off and discharged." The bond when executed by the city or village and so endorsed by the owner shall be recorded in the recorder's office in the county, and such record shall be a notice of the lien created to the same extent as the record of mortgages is a notice.

We have room to give only this very brief and imperfect outline of this statute. The whole law will be found in the Revised Statutes of Illinois, the 1889 edition, page 303. To understand the real cause and occasion for all this machinery, one should study also the previous statute (page 99, &c.) which authorizes cities, &c., to protect themselves from overflow and inundation and control private levees, &c. After having read the two laws it will be found that the district improvement bond has been devised as a relief measure, and that it affords a wise and ingenious method for helping those in more moderate circumstances who have been taxed for a very necessary improvement to pay the tax by instal* ments.

POPULATION OF STATE.-The population of Illinois has been reported as follows in the years named.

Legislature meets biennially in odd years the first Wednesday in January, and there is no limit to the length of sessions, excepting special sessions, in which the pay of members is limited to 20 days.

HISTORY OF DEBT,-The historical details of Michigan's State debt will be found in the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1894, page 98. In 1864 the State Treasurer reported the funded debt at $3,880,399, and $1,450,472 additional "Trust fund debt." The bonded debt July 1, 1899, consisted of $500,000 war loan bonds (1898) and $19,000 of "past-due part paid $5,000,000 loan bonds" adjustable at $578.57 per $1,000, amounting to $10,992.83, which have never been presented for payment and bear no interest. The "Trust fund debt" on the same date amounted to $6,120,003 56.

DEBT LIMITATION. - Michigan, as noted in our history of the State's dobt, started its eareer as a State in January 1837, when the whole land was buoyant over its inflated enterprises carried on at public expense. So to be abreast with the times, instead of putting any limit on the power of the State to create debt, it put into its Constitution a notice to the Legislature to go to work at once and make provision for "ascertaining the proper objects of improvement in relation to roads, " canals and navigable waters," that the money might be raised and these improvements might be prosecuted with as little delay as possible. That was the spirit which ruled and the condition which provailed in 1837. In 1850 Michigan made and adopted another Constitution. During the years which intervened the people had gained a wide experience and had evidently profited by it. Hence we find them at the latter date showing a purpose to make an instrument in its financial features about as dissimilar from the one it was to supplant as it could well be. Nothing will illustrate this change in spirit and purpose more clearly than the following limitations respecting the creation of State indebtedness which were inserted. These sections are all found in article 14 of the 1850 Constitution. which Constitution is still in force.

SECTION 3. The State may contract debts to meet deficits in revenue. Such debts shall not in the aggregate at any one time exceed fifty thousand dollars. The moneys so raised shall be applied to the pur-poses for which they were obtained or to the payment of the debts so contracted.

SECTION 4. The State may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection or defend the State in time of war. The money arising from the contracting of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised or to pay such debts. SECTION 6. The credit of the State shall not be granted to or in aid of any person, association or corporation.

SECTION 7. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebted-ness shall be issued except for the redemption of stock previously issued or for such debts as are expressly anthorized in this Constitution. SECTION 8. The State shall not subscribe to, or be interested in the stock of any company, association or corporation. SECTION 9. The State shall not be a party to, or interested in, any work of internal improvement, nor engage in carrying on any such work ex-cept in the expenditure of grants to the State of land or other property. The foregoing sections appear to cover every branch and phase of the subject; and compared with the Constitution of 1837 what a contrast they afford!

Cities and villages, however, were left by the 1850 instrument to the discretion of the Legislature in the matter of restrictions upon their borrowing power. The provision which relates to this subject is found in Article 15, Section 13, and is as follows:

SECTION 13.-The Legislature shall provide for the incorporation and organization of cities and villages, and shall restrict their powers of taxation, borrowing money, contracting debts and loaning their credit.

In the exercise of the power granted by this section the Legislature has passed general laws governing the incorporation, taxation and bonding of cities and villages. With regard to cities the chief provisions with respect to taxation and bond issues will be found in the second volume of the 1890 revision of Howell's Annotated Statutes of Michigan. Chapter 22, on "Finance and Taxation," pages 629 to 702, Sections 2693 to 2730. The sections which mainly cover these points are the following-we give the substance not the words of the section :-

Taxes. And in what amount they can be laid, are defined in Section 2697 to Section 2701.

Section 2697 provides that the maximum amount which the council may raise by general tax for all general purposes (except schools and school house purposes and except as otherwise provided below) shall not exceed in any one year -

In cities having more population than 14,000.....2 per cent SECTION 2698 provides that the council may also raise in each street district not exceeding one fourth of one per cent.

SECTION 2699 provides that in addition to above the council may raise by special assessment in sewer and in special assessment districts for improving streets and constructing sewers (chargcable on lands in district according to frontage or benefits) not exceeding in one year 5 per cent.

SECTION 2700 provides that a tax of not more than two dollars per year may be levied upon each lot or premises drained by a private sewer or drain leading into a public sewer or drain.

SECTION 2701 provides that the council may also raise such further sum, not exceeding three mills on the dollar of assessed valuation, as may be necessary to provide an interest and sinking fund to pay funded debt.

Loans, When allowed and amount indicated.

SECTION 2,709. Provides that no public work shall be contracted or commenced until a tax shall have been levied to pay cost.

SECTION 2,710. Instead of levying a tax for whole amount authorized by this act in any year for the general and street district funds, the council may raise part by tax and part by loan-the aggregate of both not exceeding amount for which tax might have been levied in the year. SECTION 2,711. Council also authorized to raise moneys by loan in anticipation of receipts from special assessments.

SECTION 2,712. If any greater amount is required for erecting public buildings, or for purchase of ground for same, or for other public improvements or purposes than can be raised by the council under the foregoing provisions, such amount may be raised by tax or loan or partly by tax and partly by loan if authorized by a mafority vote of the electors voting upon the question at an annual city election. The amount that may be so raised in any year shall not exceed two per cent of assessed valuation.

SECTION 2,713. The proposition to raise such additional amount must be submitted by an ordinauce distinctly stating the purpose of proposed expenditure, the amount proposed, and whether to be raised by tax or loan. Such ordinauce shall be passed, published in one newspaper of city, and copies posted in five most public places in each ward of city, at least two weeks before the election -vote shall be by ballot.

SECTION 2,717. No loans made exceeding amounts prescribed in this act. For loans lawfully made bonds of the city may be issued bearing a legal rate of interest. Record to be kept by city clerk. When decmed necessary by council new bonds may be issued in place of former bonds falling due. Each bond shall show upon its face the class of indebtedness to which it belongs and from what fund payable.

The foregoing provisions apply to cities. The law relating to villages with reference to the same subject is so nearly of a like character as not to need reciting.

DEBT LIMITATION .- The constitutional provisions of Wisconsin restricting debt-making are very rigorous, plain and comprehensive. Since the amendment adopted in 1874, citics &c., as well as the State, are definitely limited by that instrument. We will give the provisions first which relate to the State and after that those which have reference to cities, &c.

(1) STATE indebtedness is confined within very close bounds. It seems as if the framers of the Constitution must have taxed to the extreme their ingenuity for forms in which to express their determination to inhibit debt-making. The sections which cover the subject are sections 3, 4, 6, 7, 9 and 10 of Article 8. We give them in full below.

SECTION 3. Oredit of State, for what not given. The credit of the State shall never be given or loaned in aid of any individual, association or corporation. SECTION 4. Contructing debts. The State shall never contract any SECTION 4. Contructing debts. The State shall never contract any public debt, except in the cases and manner herein provided. SECTION 6. Limitation on public debt. For the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenditures, the State may contract public debts (but such debts shall never in the aggregate exceed one hundred thousand dollars). Every such debt shall be authorized by law, for some purpose or purposes to be distinctly specified therein; and the vote of a majority of all the members elected to each House, to be taken by yeas and nays, shall be necessary to the passage of such law; and every such law shall provide for levying an annual tax sufficient to pay the annual interest of such debt, and the principal within five years from the passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of such taxes to the payment of such principal and interest; and such appropriation shall not be repealed, nor the taxes be postponed, or diminished until the principal and interest of such law been wholly paid.

SECTION 7. State may borrow money, when. The Legislature may also borrow money to repel invasion, suppress insurrection or defend the State in time of war; but the money thus raised shall be applied exclus-ively to the object for which the loan was authorized, or to the repay-ment of the debt thereby created. SECTION 9. Evidences of debt. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State debt, whatsoever, shall be issued, except for such debts as are authorized by the sixth and seventh sections of this article. SECTION 10. Internal improvements—avails of grants. The State shall never contract any debt for works of internal improvement, or be a party in carrying on such works, but whenever grants of land or other property shall have been made to the State, especially dedicated by the grant to particular works, and shall devote thereto the avails of such grants, and may pledge or appropriate the revenues derived from such works in aid of their completion.

(2) OITIES, counties, towns, villages, &c., were unrestricted except by legislative enactment until 1874. Since that amendment was adopted five per cent on the value of the taxable property has been the extreme amount of debt permissible for any municipality. Not only is that the case, but, as will be seen, the municipality is required before or at the time when it incurs any indebtedness, to make provision for an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest and also sufficient to pay the principal within twenty years from the time of contracting the debt. We give below the amendment referred to in full.

Limitation of Municipat Indebtedness-Adding to Section 3, Article 11. the words:

11, the words: No county, city, town, village, school district, or other municipal cor-poration, shall be allowed to become indebted in any manner or for any purpose, to any amount, including existing indebtedness in the aggregate exceeding five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for State and county taxes pre-vious to the incurring of such indebtedness. Any county, city, town, village, school district, or other municipal corporation incurring any indebtedness, as aforesaid, shall before or at the time of doing so pro-vide for the collection of a direct annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on such debt as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same. On A pril 20, 1893, a new hay passed by the Legislature of Wisconsin

On April 20, 1893, a new law passed by the Legislature of Wisconsin was approved by the Governor which gives general authority for the issuance of bonds to cities operating under special charters granted by the State, and containing a population of three thousand or more inhabitants, as follows. This authority is of course subject to the foregoing provisions of the Constitution.

For the erection and construction of a city hall and the purchase of a site for the same.

For the construction and extension of water works or the purchase of the same, and for constructing sewers, and for the improvement and maintenance of the same.

For the erection, construction and completion of school buildings and the purchase of school sites. For the purchase of sites for engine houses, for fire engines and other equipments of the fire department, and for the construction of engine houses For the purchase of sites for police stations and for the construction

if buildings thereon for the use of the police department. For the construction of viaducts, bridges, and for repairs of the same. For the erection and construction of library and museum buildings and the purchase of sites for the same. For the establishment of public baths and hospitals and the purchase of sites for the same. For the purchase of lands for public parks and improvements thereof and for the payment of purchase money and interest thereon which may be or become due for park lands already acquired or contracted for

For permanently improving streets in such city, and for creating a fund out of which to advance the cost of repairs to sldewalks in antic-ipation of the collection of special assessments for such cost of repairs by the Treasurer of such city. For the construction or purchase of electric or gas light plauts for lighting streets and public buildings. For refunding existing indebtedness.

For refunding existing indebtedness. The law further provides that bonds issued under this act shall bear interest, payable annually or semi-annually, at a rate not exceed-ing 6 per cent per annum; that the Common Council shall annually levy a tax upon all the taxable property sufficient to pay the annual interest thereon, and to provide a sinking fund each year equal to 5 per cent on the principal of said bonds; that no bonds shall be issued so that the amount thereof, together with all the other indebtedness of the city, shall exceed 5 per cent of the assessed valuation of the city and also that the bonds shall show on their face the amount of indebted-ness of the city issuing the same, the annual amount of the assessment of the taxable property therein for the five years next preceding the issue, and the average amount thereof, and they shall not be sold for less than their par value and accrued interest. No system could be devised better adapted for keeping municipal debt

No system could be devised better adapted for keeping municipal debt at a minimum than the foregoing amendment establishes.

DEBT LIMITATION.- Minnesota has protected the State from extravagant expenditures through restrictions which its Constitution puts on every kind of debt making. That instrument fixes the limit at $250,-000 "for the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenditures;" and an amendment, ratified in 1879, extended this power to $250,000 additional "for erecting and completing buildings for the insane, a deafdumb and blind asylum, and State prison." Besides the foregoing, it is also provided that the State credit shall not be loaned, &c. With regard to the debt of municipalities there is but one section in the Constitution which relates to that subject, and that has reference to making railroad debt.

FIRST, as to State indebledness, the sections which treat of the subeet are in article 9, sections 5, 6, 7, 8 and 14.

FIRST, as to State indebtedness, the sections which treat of the sub-ect are in article 9, sections 5, 6, 7, 8 and 14. SECTION 5. (Public debt may be contracted.) For the purpose of de-fraying extraordinary expenditures, the State may contract public debts, but such debts shall never, in the aggregate, exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; every such debt shall be authorized by law for some single object, to be distinctly specified therein; and no such law shall take effect until it shall have been passed by the vote of two-thirds of the members of each branch of the Legislature, to be recorded by the yeas and nays on the journals of each House, respectively; and every such law shall levy a tax, annually, sufficient to pay the principal of such debt within ten years from the final passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of such taxes to the payment of such repealed, postponed, or diminished, until the principal and interest of such debt shall have been wholly paid. The State shall never contract any debts for works of internal improvement, or be a party in carrying on such works, except in cases where grants of land or other property shall have been made to the State, especially dedicated by the grant to specific purposes; and in such cases the State shall devote thereto the avails of such grants, and may pledge or appropriate the revenues de-rived from such works in aid of their completion. SECTION 6,—(Public debt how contracted.) All debts authorized by the preceding section shall be contracted by loan on State bonds of amounts not less than five h undred dollars each, on interest, payable within ten years after the final passage of the law authorizing such debt; and such bonds shall not be sold by the State under par. A correct registry of all such bonds shall be kept by the Treasurer in numeri val order, so as al-ways to exhibit the number and amount unpaid and to whom severally made payable. SECTION 8.—(Appropriation of suppress insurrection, except in the cases and article.

SECTION 8.—(Appropriation of money received from loan or State bonds.) The money arising from any loan made, or debt or liability con-tracted, shall be applied to the object specified in the act authorizing tracted, shall be applied to the object specified in the act authorizing such debt or liability, or to the repayment of such debt or liability, and to no other purpose whatever. SECTION 14.—(State debt for public buildings). For the purpose of erecting and completing buildings for a hospital for the insane, a deaf, dumb and blind asylum, and State prison, the Legislature may by law increase the public debt of the State to an amount not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, in ad tition to the public debt al-ready heretofore authorized by the Constitution, and for that purpose may provide by law for issuing and negotiating the bonds of the State and appropriate the money only for the purpose aforesaid; which bonds shall be payable in not less than ten nor more than thirty years from the date of the same, at the option of the State.

SECOND, as to city, county or other municipality the only restriction on the debt-making power in the Constitution is the following, found in on the debt-making power in the Constitution is the following, found in article 9, section 15. SECTION 14.—(Municipal debts in aid of railroads.) The Legisla-ture shall not authorize any county, township, city or other municipal corporation to issue bonds or to become indebted in any manner to aid in the construction or equipment of any or all railroads to an amount that shall exceed five per centum of the value of the taxable property within such county, township, city, or other municipal corporation; the amount of such taxable property to be ascertained and etermined by the last assessment of said property made for the purpose of State and county taxation previous to the incurring of such indebtedness. The foregoing was adouted as an amendment in 1879. Before its

The foregoing was adopted as an amendment in 1879. Before its adoption the section read so as to authorize municipal corporations to issue bonds in aid of railroads to ten per cent of valuation. Hence the amendment consisted in simply changing the word ten and making it five.

This is all the Constitution contains with reference to the debts of municipalities. The Legislature, however, has made some general provisions governing bond issues.

First, respecting cilies, there is the general power granted the common council of any city to borrow money to pay any city indebtedness, and to issue therefor city bonds bearing interest not to exceed 10 per cent and redcemable within ten years. The restrictions are: (1) That ordinances must be passed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the common council, signed by the Mayor, and published in the official elty newspapers and recorded after proof of publication. (2) At no time can such indebtedness, bonded or otherwise, exceed $15,000, unless the same be authorized by a two-thirds vote at the election held for such purposes. (3) The council shall each and every year levy a tax of one mill on the dollar for each one thousand dollars of bonds issued by the said city to pay the interest and to create a sinking fund to pay the bonds at maturity. The foregoing is found in chapter 10, section 168, of the General Statutes of Minnesota, vol. I., page 196, edition of 1888.

Second, and further as to cities, the common council is authorized to issue bonds and levy taxes exceeding the amount authorized by other sections of this act; provided the same be authorized by the majority of voters present and voting at an election to be held for that purpose.

The time, place and manner of holding such election to be prescribed by the common council, the same notice to be given as at other elections. And no bonds for any purpose shall be issued unless so authorized. The foregoing is the latter half of section 171, chapter 10, Statutes of Minnesota, vol. 1, page 197. The last sentence which we have Italicized would, on its face, appear to take away the right of the common council to Issue even $15,000 of bonds (without an election) as authorized by previous section 168 cited above. This idea also seems to find confirmation in section 170, last clause, which reads that "no debt shall be "incurred or created by the city, the common council or any officer of "the city except pursuant to the authority herein expressly given for "that purpose."

Third, through the board of supervisors, towns can issue bonds as directed by two-thirds of all legal voters voting at a legally-called town meeting held for that purpose, payable in such amounts and at such times, not exceeding six years from date as two-thirds of voters determine. For further particulars respecting these issues, see section 114, chapter 10, Statutes of Minnesota, volume 1, page 182. A following section (section 116) makes it the duty of the supervisors on or before the first of September next after the date of said bonds, and each and every year thereafter until the payment of said bonds, to levy a tax "equal to the amount of principal and interest maturing the year next after such levy," and in the discretion of said supervisors such further sum as they deem expedient, not exceeding twenty per cent of such maturing bonds, which taxes shall constitute a fund for the payment of said bonds.

Fourth, The trustees or board of education of any school district may issue school bonds of their respective districts in such amount and of such length as to payment, not exceeding ten years, as two-thirds of the voters voting at any legally-called meeting shall direct. For further particulars respecting these bonds see section 26, chapter 36, of the Statutes of Minnesota, volume 1, page 472. In section 28, same page, are provisions for levying a tax for the payment of bonds quite similar to the provisions with reference to the payment of town bonds cited above.

Fifth, with respect to all school bonds, see section 5, article VIII. of the Constitution of Minnesota, which authorizes the loaning of the Permanent School Funds upon interest at the rate of 5 per cent to the several counties and school districts, to be used in the erection of county or school buildings.

Sixth, as to the creating of county debt, there is no general authorization, the issues when made being under special acts. Of course "railroad aid bonds" are provided for by statute for county, cities, and all other municipalities. See, for the law on that subject, section 92, &c., chapter 34, Statutes of Minnesota, vol. I., page 388, &c. So, also, the borrowing from the Permanent School Funds under the above cited section of the Constitution (section 5, article VIII.) Is provided for by section 84, chapter 36, Statutes of Minnesota, vol. II., page 448 There is likewise a general statute for the issue of "inotor road bonds" by the county, the particulars respecting which will be found in section 132, chapter 13, of Statutes of Minnesota, vol. I., page 277.

General statutory limitation, applying to all municipalities. Debts of cities, counties, towns, &c., are void if entailing taxation beyond the rate fixed by law. See section 114, chapter 11, Statutes of Minne-sota, vol. I., page 243. Of course this section does not apply where the law authorizes increased taxation, as, for instance, when a majority of the legal voters so direct; such authorization and action bring the case under the exception contained in the section, which is that the act is unlawful "unless specially and expressly authorized by law."

TAX RATE.-The State tax (per $1,000) for 1899 was $2.90. DEBT LIMITATION.-Iowa's Constitution restricts the creating of debt, both State debt and municipal debt. FIRST, as to State debt, the limitation made is not absolute, for it permits other debt if authorized by some law for some single specified work. But this permission is very safely guarded-(1) the law must provide for the collection of a direct annual tax sufficient to pay the interest regularly and discharge the debt in twenty years; and (2) the law cannot take effect until it has been submitted to the people at a general election, and has received a majority of the votes cast. All the debt provisions relating to the State we give below.

ARTICLE 7, Section 1. [Limitation of State indebtedness.] The credit of the State shall not in any manner be given or loaned to, or in aid of, any individual, association, or corporation; and the State shall never assume, or become responsible for, the debts or liabilities of any individ-ual, association or corporation, unless incurred in time of war for the benefit of the State. SECTION 2. [Same.] The State may contract debts to supply casual definite or failures in revenues or the product of the state.

benefit of the State. SECTION 2. [Same.] The State may contract debts to supply casual deficits or fallures in revenues, or to meet expenses otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts, direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the General Assem-bly or at different periods of time, shall never exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and the money arising from the creation of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever. whatever.

SECTION 4. [For what other purposes State may contract debt.] In addition to the above limited power to contract debts, the State may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or defend the State in war; but the money arising from the debts so contracted shall be applied for the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such be applied for the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever. SECTION 5. [Other debts to be authorized.]—Except the debts hereinbe-fore specified in this article, no debt shall be hereafter contracted by or on behalf of this State, unless such debt shall be authorized by some law for some single work or object, to be distinctly specified therein; and such law shall impose and provide for the collection of a direct annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on such debt as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt within twenty years from the time of contracting thereof; but no such law shall take effect until at a general election it shall have been submitted to the people. and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at

[State not to be a slockholder.]—The State shall not become a stockholder in any corporation, nor shall it assume or pay the debt or liability of any corporation, unless incurred in time of war for the benefit of the State. There can be but little fear that a State or city will ever creato debt in any larger amount than it can easily pay where the law, as in the above case, requires a tax to be levied at the time of its creation sufficient to pay the interest annually and the principal when due. DERT LIMITATION	uri has made provision in its Consti-

DEBT LIMITATION.—Missouri has made provision in its Consti-tution restricting the creation of debt both on behalf of the State and of its municipalities. FIRST, with respect to the State, the regulations are full and specific. They are found in article 6, sectious 44, 45 and 46, which we subjoin. ARTICLE 6, Section 44. (General Assembly not to contract debts except as herein.) The General Assembly shall have no power to contract or to authorize the contracting of any debt or liability on behalf of the State, or to issue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness thereof, ex-cept in the following cases:

State, or to issue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness thereof, ex-cept in the following cases: First, In renewal of existing bonds, when they cannot be paid at maturity out of the sinking fund or other resources. Second, on the occurring of an unforeseen emergency, or casual defi-ciency of the revenue, when the temporary liability incurred, upon the recommendation of the Governor first had, shall not exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars for any one year, to be paid in not more than two years from and after its creation. Third, on the occurring of any unforeseen emergency, or casual defi-ciency of the revenue, when the temporary liability incurred or to be incurred shall exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars for any one year, the General Assembly may submit an act providing for the loan, or for the contracting of the liability, and containing a pro-vision for levying a tax sufficient to pay the interest and principal when they become due (the latter in not more than thirteen years from the date of its creation), to the qualified voters of the State, and when the act so submitted shall have been ratified by a two-thirds majority, at an election held for that purpose, due publication having been made of the provisions of the act for at least three mouths before such election, the act thus ratified shall be irrepealable until the debt thereby incurred shall be paid, principal and interest. SECTION 45. (Slate's credit not to be loaned.) The General Assembly shall be paid, principal and interest. SECTION 45. (State's credit not to be loaned.) The General Assembly shall have no power to give or to lend, or to anthorize the giving or lending of the credit of the State in aid of or to any person, asso-diation or corporation, whether municipal or other, or to pledge the credit of the State in any manner whatsoever, for the pay-ment of the liabilities, present or prospective, of any individual, association of individuals, municipal or other corporation whatsoever. SECTION 46. (Public money, grant of prohibiled.) The General Assem-bly shall have no power to make any grant, or to authorize the making of any grant of public money or thing of value to any individual, asso-citation of individuals, municipal or other corporation whatsoever. Provided, That this shall not be so construed as to prevent the grant of add in a case of publie calamity. aid in a case of public calamity.

The foregoing sections cover all phases of State indebtedness and so restrict action as to put the State beyond the chance of future debt embarrassment.

SECOND, with regard to citics and other municipalities, the provisions are in like manner full and wisely constructed. There are three-section 47 in article 6, section 6 in article 9 and section 12 in article 10. We give them complete below.

47 in article 6, section 6 in article 9 and section 12 in article 10. We give them complete below.
ARTICLE 6, Section 47. (Municipalities, loaning credit of.) The General Assembly shall have no power to authorize any county, city, town or township, or other political corporation or sub-division of the State now existing, or that may be hereafter established, to lend its credit, or to grant public money or thing of value in aid of or to any individual, association or corporation whatsoever, or to become a stockholder in such corporation, association or company.
ARTICLE 9, Section 6. (Municipalities not to subscribe to capital stock of corporations.) No county, township, city or other municipality shall hereafter become a subscriber to the capital stock of any railroad or other corporation or association, or make appropriation or donation, or to an is credit to or in aid of any such corporation or association, or to an ad of any college or institution of learning or other institution, whether created for or to be controlled by the State or others. All authority heretofore conferred for any of the purposes aforesaid by the General Assembly, or by the charter of any corporation, is hereby repealed: Provided, however, That nothing in this Constitution contained distal affect the right of any such municipality to make such subscription where the same has been authorized under existing laws by a vode of the people of such municipality prior to its adoption, or to such subscription, wo fave stating indebtedness.
ARTICLE 10, Section 12. (Municipal indebtedness, limit of.) No county, township, school district or other political corporation or sub-division of the State shall be allowed to become indebted in any manner or for any purpose to an amount exceeding in any year the farcemand representing such assent shall any indebtedness, in adverting indebtedness. division of the State, incurring any indebtedness, requiring the assent of the voters as aforesaid, shall, before or at the time of doing so, provide for the collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due, and also to coustitute a sinking fund for payment of the principal thereof, within twenty years from the time of contracting the same.

It is scarcely necessary to add anything to the foregoing. The sections given make clear (1) that a municipality cannot loan its credit; (2) that It cannot subscribe to the capital stock of corporations; (3) that it cannot get into debt unless two-thirds of the voters voting at an election favor it, and then only to an aggregate of 5 per cent of valuation, except that with such assent any county may be allowed to become indebted in a larger amount for the erection of a court house or fall, and finally (4) that before or at the time of getting the assent of the oters an annual tax must be provided sufficient to pay interest and orm a sinking fund to pay the debt within 20 years. These provisions are certainly very conservative.

POPULATION OF STATE.—The population of Missouri has been as follows in the years named.

The proportion of the colored population was 6.70 per cent in 1880 and 5.75 per cent in 1890. In number blacks were 90,040 in 1850; 118,503 in 1860; 118,071 in 1870; 145,350 in 1880, and 154,131 in 1890.

HISTORY OF DEBT.-When Kansas was admitted into the Union as a State (in 1861) it had a bonded debt of $150,000. The Constitution of 1859 limited the debt-making power to one million dollars (with certain restrictions and exceptions), as more fully described below. In 1866 the bonded debt was $630,775, of which the State owned $28,650. In 1878 the total bonded debt was $1,181,975, of which the State owned $713,600. The bonded debt Sept. 1, 1898, was $632,000, all held by State funds. At present the debt is:

DEBT LIMITATION,- Kansas has by its Constitution given the State power to contract public debts for the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenses and making public improvements in an amount not to exceed $1,000,000. This limit, however, has two exceptions. First, the next section provides that it may be exceeded if the proposed law for creating such debt shall be submitted to a vote of the electors, and if the proposed law be ratified by a majority of the votes cast. Second, the section following provides that the State may borrow money to repel invasion, &c. We give these sections in full and also the subsequent one which forbids the State being a party to internal improvements.

Debts, annual tax; proceeds. For the purpose of defraying extraordin-ary expenses and making public improvements, the State may contract public debts; but such debts shall never, in the aggregate, exceed one million dollars, except as hereinafter provided. Every such debt shall be authorized by law for some purpose specified therein, and the vote of a majority of all the members elected to each House, to be taken by the yeas and nays, shall be necessary to the passage of such law; and every such law shall provide for levying an annual tax sufficient to pay the such law shall provide for levying an annual tax sufficient to pay the annual interest of such debt and the principal thereof when it shall become due; and shall specifically appropriate the proceeds of such taxes to the payment of such principal and interest; and such appropri-ation shall not be repealed nor the taxes postponed or diminished until the interest and principal of such debt shall have been wholly paid.

Other debts. No debt shall be contracted by the State except as here-in provided, unless the proposed law for creating such debt shall first be submitted to a direct vote of the electors of the State at some general election; and if such proposed law shall be ratified by a majority of all the votes cast at such general election, then it shall be the duty of the Legislature next after such election to enact such law and create such debt, subject to all the provisions and restrictions provided in the pre-ceding section of this article ceding section of this article. Borrow money. The State may borrow money to repel invasion, suppress insurrection or defend the State in time of war; but the money thus raised shall be applied exclusively to the object for which the loan was authorized, or to the repayment of the debt thereby created created.

Internal improvements. The State shall never be a party in carrying on any works of internal improvement.

MUNICIPAL indebtedness is not restricted by the Constitution at all The only provision for the regulation of such matters contained in that instrument is the following, requiring the Legislature to make general laws and restricting the power to make debt in the case of cities, towns and villages.

Cities. Provision shall be made by general law for the organization of eitles, towns and villages; and their power of taxation, assessment, borrowing money, contracting debts and loaning their credit, shall be so restricted as to prevent the abuse of such power.

Under the foregoing the legislation of Kansas has become so exten sive that our limited space here does not admit of even a brief digest. The reader will, however, find the ground very fully covered in a series of articles which were published in the CHRONICLE, Vol. 53, pages 854 and 942, and Vol. 54, pages 42 and 128.

Total Area of State (square miles) 84,800
State Capital Boise
Governor (term ends 1st Monday Jan. '01) Frank Steunenberg

Legislature meets biennially in odd years on the Monday after the 1st of January, and the length of sessions is limited to 60 days.

DEBT HISTORY.-Idaho as a Territory always kept its debt within moderate limits. When it became a State the bonded debt of the Territory was $146,715 06. Of that amount $46,715 06 was issued to pay floating debt, $80,000 to pay for Capitol building and $20,000 for an asylum. The condition of the State's debt now is set out with all the details below.

INTEREST on the asylum improvement and normal school bonds is payable at the Chase National Bank, New York; on the 6 per cent wagon-road bonds by Wells, Fargo & Co., New York; on the refund ing bonds at the office of the State Treasurer.

TOTAL DEBT, ETC.-The total bonded debt on Jan. 1, 1899, was $393,000. The floating debt on the same date was $204,469 64.

ASSESSED VALUATION.-In 1899 the total assessed valuation was $46,548,313; in 1898 was $30,423,671; in 1893, $33,431,841, property being assessed at about 13 of its estimated true value. The tax rate per $1,000 in 1898 was $8.31; in 1893 it was $8.50.

DEBT LIMITATION.-Idaho has placed limits in its Constitution upon the debt-making power both of the State and its municipalities. Though the provisions have a conservative tendency, they are not quite as strict as the Constitutional limitations of most of the other new States. For a digest of the laws respecting debt limitation in Idahe, see STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1895, pages 138 and 139.

POPULATION OF STATE.-The population of Idaho has been as follows in the years named:

In 1870-80 increase was 17,611, or 117 41 per cent, and in 1880-90 51,775, or 158.77 per cent. The population in 1899, estimated, is 150,000.

($1,900 yearly) to 1906 | Population in 1896 about....4,500 INTEREST on 6s paid in Hailey; on all other bonds in New York. The above shows the debt for which Alturas County was primarily held, the bonds having been issued by Alturas County before the creation of Elmore and Logan counties and before the annexation of a part of Alturas to Bingham. When the Legislature parcelled out Alturas County it failed to provide for an apportionment of the debt. The amount which Alturas County will be required to pay is only about one-fifth of above amount, because the bonds pledged the tax-able property of the county as constituted at the time of issue, and be-fore the division of Alturas. Elmore, Logan and part of Bingham County were taken from Alturas County in 1889.

DEBT LIMITATION.—Colorado's Constitutional provisions with reference to the creation of debt are of considerable length, and strike one at first as quite elaborate. After a brief study of the provisions their good qualities stand out so plainly as wholly to disarm criticism. No State has placed the debt-making power on a more reasonable basis. All the regulations with reference to public indebtedness are found in article 11 of the Constitution. See STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1895, pages 140 and 141.

Nothing in explanation of the provisions needs to be said, as the sec tions of the Constitution treating of this subject are all very plain and comprehensive; they will be found in the STATE AND CITY SUPPLE-MENT of April, 1895, page 146.

SANTA CRUZ.— This city is in Santa Cruz County. The city has been in litigation over its 5 per cent refunding bends (issued April 16, 1894), which it refused to pay, they having been purloined, but on Sept. 28, 1898, the United States Circuit Court held the entire issue of $360,000 bonds invalid as between the city of Santa Cruz and purchasers of the bonds having notice of the facts constituting their invalidity, but also held that the city was estopped by recitals contained in the bonds, from denying their validity in the case of innocent purchasers for value. Upon this ground the court rendered judgment against the city for the amount of principal and interest due upon such bonds as were purchased upon the faith of recitals contained therein and without notice or knowledge of their invalidity. The municipality received no consider- ation whatever for these bonds. The city is in litigation also over $225,000 5 per cent water bonds issued Jan. 16, 1889, but in this case having received value for the bonds has been disposed to pay matur- ing principal and interest, netwithstanding their supposed invalidity. This payment, however, is resisted by certain tax payers. Recognized debt Oct. '98.$155,293 Population in 1890 was5,596 TAX FREE.—Bends of this city are exempt from taxation.

DEBT LIMITATION,-Nevada has in its Constitution limited the State to a nominal indebtedness, except for the purpose of "defraying extraordinary expenses" arising from invasion, war, etc.; and in such cases the law shall provide an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest semi-annually and the principal within twenty-years. Further the State is forbidden ever to assume the debt of any county, city, etc., or to donate or loan its money or credit, or to subscribe to the stock of any company, etc.

Counties, eilies, towns etc. cannot become stockholders in any company, or loan its credit, etc. But other than that the Constitution omits to put any limit on county, city, etc., debts; but provides that the Legislature shall make general laws restricting their borrowing power. The Constitutional provisions referred to are as follows:

STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT.

POPULATION OF STATE.-Though Nevada has some good grazing land, the mining industry, more particularly silver mining, has had chlef attention, and with the decline of this, population has also declined, the Census of 1890 showing a total of only 45,761 persons, against 62,266 in 1880. The famous Comstock lode is located within Nevada, but the silver production of the State has greatly fallen off in recent years. The full record of population is as follows:

STATE DEBT.-For a detailed report of the Virginia debt as it stood prior to 1892, and for the history of the recent settlement made by and between the Virginia Debt Commission and the Bondholders' Committee, see the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1893, pages 151 and 152. Other items of interest with reference to the Virginia debt will be found in the CHRONICLE as follows: Vol. 56, p. 636, 802; V. 57, p. 155, 190, 565, 733, 950, 1053; V. 58, p. 232, 274, 315, 357.-V. 66, p. 392.-V. 67, p. 333.-V. 68, p. 196, 241.

The Virginia Legislature re-enacted the Funding Act of Feb. 20, 1892, and under its provisions all old Virginia bonds were allowed to be brought in and funded into new Century bonds, upon the same terms as the Olcott settlement, provided they were presented for funding prior to December 31, 1896. By the Act of January 25, 1898, however, another opportunity to fund the bonds was given. By this Act bondholders had until July 1, 1895, to come in and accept the terms, and power was given the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund to extend the time until Dec. 31, 1898. Bonds were to carry interest from the semi-annual period next preceding the date of funding. Under the old law coupon bonds once converted into registered certificates were not re-convertible into coupon bonds, but the 1892 Act makes coupon and registered bonds interchangeable.

and registered bonds interohangeable. WEST VIRGINIA CERTIFICATES.—In the settlement of 1871 it was assumed that West Virginia should provide for one-third the prin-cipal and interest of the then existing debt, that is $15,239,370 out of the total debt of $45,718,112. To represent, therefore, West Vir-ginia's share of bonds funded "deferred certificates" were issued. All efforts, however, to induce West Virginia to take recognition of these certificates have thus far been unavalling. In 1885 the holders of about $3,000,000 certificates united for the purpose of obtaining a comprom-ise, and deposited their holdings with the Farmers' Loan & Trust Com-pany, which gave its trust receipts therefor. This attempt came to nothing, and in 1890 Messrs. C. Satterthwaite & Sons, of No. 30 Throg-morton Street, London, E. C., started another movement to bring about a settlement. a settlement.

morton Street, London, E. C., started another movement to bring about a settlement. An adjustment company, with the Mercantile Trust & Deposit Com-pany of Baltimore at its head, was formed late in 1893 for the purpose of making an attempt at the settlement of the West Virginia certificates. See CHRONICLE, Vol. 57, page 819; Vol. 58, pages 51, 314 and 444. In August, 1898, another movement was started, this time under the leadership of Messrs. Brown Bros., with the same object in view, and that movement is now being vigorously pushed. The plan provides for ascertaining the exact amount of the old Virginia debt with which West Virginia is justly chargeable (subject to certain limitations), and then compromising that amount at the same percentage at which Vir-ginia compromised the two-thirds of the original Virginia debt, namely, 60 per cent for principal and 30¹4 per cent for interest. (See the edi-torial article in STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT for April, 1899.) After about three-fourths of the old Virginia bonds had been sur-rendered, and "deferred certificates" been given to represent West Virginia's one third, under the acts of 1871 and 1879, these acts were repealed. The remaining bonds were refunded under other laws. These laws required a certificate to represent one-third the principal of the old bonds brought in for funding, but gave "non-interest-bearing certificates" to represent one-third the interest on old bonds. The fol-lowing shows the amounts of each issue:

DEBT, RESOURCES, ETC.

Admitted as a State - - One of Original Thirteen Total area of State (square miles) - - - -52,250- - - -State Capital - -Raleigh Governor (term expires Jan. 1, 1901) - D. L. Russell Secretary of State (term exp. Jan. 1, 1901) - Cyrus Thompson Treasurer (term expires Jan. 1, 1901) - - W. H. Worth

Legislature meets biennially in odd years on the Wednesday after the first Monday in January, and there is no limit to length of sessions, but if sessions are continued longer than 60 days members "shall serve without compensation."

STATE DEBT.—The old debt, excepting such as is not recognized, has mostly been funded under the funding laws of 1879, the time pres-cribed for the exchange having been extended to January 1, 1901. These laws provided for the issue of (1) consolidated 4 p. e. bonds due in 1910 to fund old ante-war bonds at 40 per cent of face value, "New" railroad bonds recognized as valid at 25 per cent, and bonds of 1866 and 1868 at 15 per cent, nothing being glven for overdue coupons; and (2) for new consolidated 6 per cent bonds due in 1919, for which the North Carolina KR. construction bonds were made exchangeable at par, holders of construction bonds abating $240 of overdue interest on each $1,000 bond. The new bonds, both 4s and 6s, carry tax-receivable coupons, and are excupt from "all State, county or corporate taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special." An amendment to the State Constitution passed by the Legislature in 1879 and ratified by popular vote in 1880, forbids due General Assembly to pay or recognize as valid the following bonds: Special tax bonds $11,366,000; bonds to Chatham RR, 1868, $1,030,000, and to Williamston & Tarboro RR., $150,000; Penitentiary bonds of 1868 $44,000. The special tax bonds are in 3 classes, class 1 bearing the coupon of April 1869 and since; class 2 bearing the coupon of Oct. 1869; class 3 bearing the coupon of April, 1870 Holders of the special tax bonds brought suit to establish the validity of their bonds and the case was decided in favor of the State. The recognized debt which had been adjusted up to Aug. 16, 1899, stood as follows:

PAR VALUE OF BONDS.—The consolidated 4s are $50, $100, $500 and $1,000; the consolidated 6s $1,000 each. The prison bonds are for $100, $500 and $1,000 each.

INTEREST on the consolidated 4s and 6s is payable in New York at the National Bank of the Republic and in Raleigh.

TOTAL DEBT RECOGNIZED AND TOTAL ADJUSTED.— The funding act of March 4, 1879, was extended to Jan. 1, 1901. The recognized fundable debt which has been funded and the recognized fundable debt which has not been funded are as follows:

Funded. Not funded $25,000 240,920

To the foregoing we should add the further fact that the State does not have to raise money for the interest on the six per cent bonds for the reason that the lease of the North Carolina Railroad provides a fund for the payment of the interest thereon, and the State holds three millions in the stock of the road, which if sold will much more than pay the principal.

SESSED VALUATION. - The State's assessed valuation (about 60 per cent of cash value) and tax rate have been as follows:

TOTAL DEBT, SINKING FUNDS, ETC.—The city's bonded debt on July 1, 1899, was $3,412,000, including a water debt of $1,497,000. The city has no floating debt. Beginning in 1900, 10 per cent of all revenues collected by the city, except for schools, will be set aside to form a s'nking fund (Act of General Assembly 1899).

WATER WORKS.—The city owns its water works, on which it has expended $1,500,000. By act of Legislature the net revenue derived from sales of water must be applied to interest on the water bonds.

DEBT LIMITATION.—New bonds can be issued only with permis-sion of the Legislature and the vote of the people.

The holders of Birmingham bonds were asked in 1895 to make a compromise with the city in the matter of interest payments. - (See CHRONICLE, V. 61, p. 338.) Under this agreement the city has been paying one-half of the interest on its bouded debt. In 1899 an amendment to the State Constitution was passed permitting an increase of one-half por cent in the tax rate, the proceeds to be applied exclusively to the payment of interest on the city's bonds and for the creating of a sinking fund. An Act of the Legislature requires the city to levy a tax of $400 one per cent on its valuation to provide for the payment of principal and interest of the bonds of 1881. After the payment of interest the sur-plus remaining from this tax is applied to the redemption of the bonds, after drawing by lot, at par, bonds so redeemed being canceled. Legislature meets biennially in odd years on the 2d Monday in January, and sessions are limited to 60 days, unless by a two-thirds vote of the members a longer time is decided on.

HISTORY OF DEBT.—For history of the Arkansas State debt see STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1894, page 173. By Act of Congress approved April 29, 1898, a compromise was effected between the United States and the State. In accordance with the terms of this settlement the United States authorities on May 27. 1898, delivered to the State Arkansas bonds and coupons amounting to $1,505,160, and carrying besides a large amount of overdue interest. This operation wiped out the entire debt of the United States against the State except $160,000 of bonds which the United States still holds. The State debt, therefore, now stands as follows:

NEWORLEANS. WALTER C. FLOWER, Mayor. JOHN S WATERMAN, Secretary. WM. S. DOUGLASS, Comptroller.

(WM. S. DOUGLASS, Comptroller. New Orleans is co-extensive with the parish of Orleans. An amendment to the Louisiana Constitution authorizing the eity to refund its debt at a lower rate of interest was adopted in 1892, and up to July 1, 1899, the city had issued 4 per cent 50-year bonds to the amount of $9,008,500, thus enabling it to pay all its maturing loans and all those upon which it had option. The amendment provides that the interest tax collected in excess of requirements shall be divided between city schools and city improvements. The new Louisiana Constitution, in effect May 12, 1898, confirms these arrangements. On June 6, 1899, the city voted a special tax of 2¹/₂ mills for water, sewer and drainage purposes, intended to provide for an issue of from 12 to 16 millions bonds. As this requires an amendment to the State Constitution, the Legislature, in special session, passed a bill for its submission to a vote of the people of the State. MUNICIPAL AND COUNTY BOND LAW.—A State law approved a 1893 has done much to widen the market for new Texas municipal bans. At present before any bond can be issued by a municipality or ounty it must receive the certificate of the Attorney General that it is a lawful obligation. It must then be registered in the office of the tate Comptroller, and when the bond is so issued its validity cannot e questioned except on the grounds of frand or forgery. The text of he law will be found in the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 895, page 178. Where the fact Is known to us we have marked with a star (*) in he returns below the issues put out prior to the enactment of the boye law.

bove law. A law went into effect Aug. 26, 1899, compelling counties and incor-orated towns and cities to submit propositions for the issuance of onds (all except "funding bonds issued or to be issued of any valid utstanding bonds of said county, town or city;" also excepting bond sucs for less than $2,000, when "issued for the purpose of repairing uildings or structures, for the building of which bonds are allowed to e issued,") to a vote of the qualified taxpayers before the issue can e submitted to the Attorney General for approval as required by the tw of 1893 - V. 69, p. 509. DOPLU ATION — The population of Taxas has been as follows:

Of the total population in 1890 492,837 were blacks, which compares ith 393,384 in 1880, 253,475 in 1870, 182,931 in 1860 and 58,558 in 850. It will be observed that the proportion of the colored race has reatly diminished, the ratio for 1890 being only 22.04 per cent, against 471 per cent in 1880 and larger percentages in previous decades.
