REVIEW OF SEPTEMBER.

The month of September was marked by an unusual number of important events and occurrences, some favorable in their nature but others decidedly the reverse. In the list are comprised the purchase by M. C. D. Borden of half a million pieces of print cloths; the wiping out by a hurricane of a great part of the city of Galveston; the holding of State elections in Vermont and Maine, which are usually accepted as a forecast of the Presidential election in November, and the issue of the letters of acceptance of both President McKinley and Mr. Bryan; the placing in this country of a German loan for 80,000,000 marks, followed by the offering here also of a Swedish loan; the failure of the firm of Hatch & Foote; the breaking out of the strike of the miners in the anthracite regions; and the reduction, through large shipments of currency to the interior, of both the money holdings and the surplus reserve of the New York banks.

The political situation attracted a large share of attention, and as the time for the holding of the election which will determine the result drew nearer, increasing solicitude was felt as to the outcome. As far as surface indications go, there was really no substantial reason for serious apprehensions. The elections both in Vermont and in Maine were in every way and in the highest degree encouraging. As we pointed out in our weekly "Financial Situation," in reviewing the figures, they furnished strong grounds for emphasizing the conclusion that the great bulk of the gold Democrats would vote this year as they had voted four years ago and that the number of Republicans who would desert their party on the false issue of Imperialism was really insignificant. Nevertheless as the serious consequences that would be involved in the triumph of Bryanism dawned more and more upon men's minds, there was naturally a disposition to attach increasing moment to the canvass, and fears of a possible adverse decision were given credence which under a normal state of things would have been unhesitatingly rejected. The last week of the month quite hopeful accounts came from the political managers, but these did not entirely serve to allay uneasiness.

The appalling disaster which overtook Galveston was important not only on its own account, involving as it did the loss of several thousand lives and the destruction of an immense amount of property, but it was of influential moment in its bearing on the situation as respects cotton. The last cotton crop having been a short one, supplies of the staple had been reduced to the lowest figure known in a great many years. At the same time the present crop was very backward and late. The Galveston disaster hence had an adverse effect in a double way, first in the damage to cotton which the hurricane may have done in its passage through Texas and further north, and secondly in interposing a hindrance to the marketing of cotton in the territory tributary to Galveston, shipping facilities having for the time being been destroyed and resumption of shipments not being possible until the close of the month. The Galveston calamity occurred on Saturday the 8th. On Monday the 10th came the monthly report from Washington of the National Agricultural Bureau, showing a decline in the general average of the condition of cotton for the whole country from 76 on August 1 to 68.2 on September 1. As it happened, too, parts of Texas (the northern portion) were again visited by damaging rains on the 21st and 22d, and unfavorable accounts of the prospects for the crop came from other portions of the cotton belt. As a result the price of cotton sharply advanced. From 9 $\frac{3}{8}$  cents at the beginning of the month, spot cotton for the middling upland grade rose in this market to 11 cents on the 13th, and maintained most of the advance, closing at 10 $\frac{3}{4}$  cents on the 29th. In Liverpool a corner developed, and the price touched 14 $\frac{3}{4}$  cents (7 $\frac{3}{8}$ d.) on the 13th; Manchester spinners took united action on the 7th, agreeing to refrain from buying American cotton during September; at a meeting on the 21st it was also agreed to stop work at the mills the first twelve days of October. In this way the corner was broken, and the price at Liverpool Sept. 29 was only 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. The Borden purchase of print cloths at 2 $\frac{1}{2}$  cents and the rise in the raw material served to make the cotton goods market strong, and cloths at the close commanded 3 $\frac{1}{8}$  cents.

The failure of Hatch & Foote, though deplored, had little general significance, being due to the aberrations of one of the partners, who has since died. The strike of the anthracite coal miners was of course a matter of very great consequence. It began on the 17th, about 100,000 men going out; from the first an almost complete stoppage occurred in the Wyoming and Lehigh regions. It steadily grew in dimensions, and towards the close of the month even the Reading Company, whose mines are in the Schuylkill region and whose operatives really had no grievances, had only 12 out of 39 collieries at work, and the number was subsequently reduced still further. Negotiations looking to a settlement were begun the last week of the month by the coal-mining companies, one of the concessions to be offered being an advance of 10 per cent in the wages of miners, and this it was believed at the time would ultimately end the trouble. Under this belief and coincident quite hopeful prognostications as to the prospects for President McKinley's reelection, the stock market, enjoyed a sharp recovery the last few days of the month.

The placing here of the 80,000,000 marks 4 per cent Treasury Notes of the German Empire and the offering of \$10,000,000 Swedish Government 4-3 $\frac{1}{2}$  per cents, coming after the recent negotiation in this country of British Exchequer bonds and the marketing of some other issues of foreign bonds, such as the \$2,500,000 State of Jalisco, Mexico, bonds (placed by Messrs. Mason, Lewis & Co. and the George D. Cook Company of Chicago), were significant chiefly as indicating that the future of our money and foreign exchange markets involved considerations relating not merely to the usual domestic factors, but also to these new requirements from abroad.

It was distinctly stated that no gold shipments were intended as against the sale of these German bonds, remittance to be made entirely in bills of exchange. In the demand for bills thus created the sale naturally became an influence in the exchange market. The course of sterling exchange was nevertheless downward throughout the month under the large offerings of cotton and grain bills. On the 17th and 18th, when it was reported that the syndicate negotiating the German loan was remitting about $5,000,000 to Berlin with sterling, there was a recovery of one half cent in both sight bills and cable transfers, long sterling remaining unchanged, but the downward movement was soon resumed, and at an accelerating pace under continued offerings of cotton bills.

MONTHLY AND YEARLY RECORD.

The following tables furnish a complete record of the New York Stock Exchange transactions for the past month and the year 1900. They need no extended introduction, as they are self-explanatory. The tables embrace every security (excepting only State bonds) dealt in on the Exchange. We give bonds first, using the classification adopted in the official list. As to prices the form is our own, and we think it will be found to contain just the facts desired by our readers and to present them in the most convenient way for study and reference. All quotations in the column headed "Prices about January 2, 1900," were made on that date except those in italics, which are the nearest in January, 1900.

For foot notes to tables see last page of Bonds and last page of Stocks.

BOSTON STOCK EXCHANGE.

MONTHLY AND YEARLY RECORD.

The railroad securities which are active on the New York Stock Exchange are omitted from this list.

In comparing New York and Boston prices, it should be noted that bond prices in New York are flat prices—that is, the price includes the accrued interest, while in Boston accrued interest must be paid in addition to price. It should also be remembered that New York stock prices are per cent while those in Boston are dollars per share.

GENERAL QUOTATIONS

—OF— BONDS AND STOCKS.

1. In the following twenty-seven pages of tables quotations are given for all securities listed on any Stock Exchange in the United States; also for all leading unlisted and inactive securities for which we have been able to obtain reliable prices.
  2. Quotations from all Stock Exchanges are as near as possible for the last day of September. Of course the coupon, if there be one, maturing between the date of quotation and the date of this publication, is not deducted from the price.
  3. Bond prices marked thus (§) indicate that the purchaser must pay accrued interest in addition to the price given. The method of quoting on the New York Stock Exchange is to quote the prices flat (that is to include the accrued interest in the price), and hence in the tables below no mark is now affixed where this method of quoting is followed.
  4. Stock prices marked thus (†) are per share. All others are per cent except bank stock prices.
  5. It should be borne in mind in the use of these tables that the quotations for many inactive and unlisted securities are merely nominal, but in all cases the figures are obtained from sources which are considered reliable.
  6. The following abbreviations are often used, viz.; "M.," for mortgage; "g.," for gold; "g'd.," for guaranteed; "end.," for endorsed; "cons.," for consolidated; "conv.," for convertible; "s. f.," for sinking fund; "l. g.," for land grant.
- Notice Change.—We no longer affix a mark to prices quoted flat, but only to those which require payment of accrued interest in addition to the price. Designating mark in this instance is (§).

STATE AND MUNICIPAL BONDS.

Prices marked (*) are flat prices—that is, the purchaser does not pay accrued interest in addition. In all other cases accrued interest must be added to the price.

The figures in the column "to net" indicate the basis on which the securities sell or the interest rate which the securities if held to maturity, will net to the purchaser at the present market price.

It should be borne in mind that municipal bonds are not subject to such decided fluctuations in value as are securities which form a basis for speculation.
