REVIEW OF FEBRUARY.

While the stock market during February was decidedly irregular and the movement of prices more or less confused, particularly towards the close, the developments were all in line with those of the months immediately preceding. In other words, there was a continuation of the policy of concentration of interests in large corporations, both in the industrial and the railroad world, through a further extension and application of the principle of the community of ownership or through direct acquisition or consolidation.

At the very beginning of the month two important announcements were made, furnishing new proof of the tendency indicated. On the 1st of February official confirmation was received of the report that the Southern Railway Co. had the day before issued a circular offering to exchange its securities for the stock and bonds of the Mobile & Ohio Railroad Co. This meant the absorption of the smaller road by the larger. The arrangement was a mutually advantageous one and the stocks of both companies reflected the fact in rising prices. Mobile & Ohio stock particularly, which is given a guaranteed dividend, advanced in a very noteworthy way. The shares touched 80 February 25, against 44 January 21. On the 1st of February, too, intelligence was received that Union Pacific interests had gained control of the Southern Pacific property through the purchase of the Huntington-Speyer holdings of the stock of that company. At first it was supposed that the purchase had not been made on behalf of the Union Pacific itself but on behalf of the parties identified with it as the principal owners and active spirits in it. It soon appeared, however, that control was to pass directly to the Union Pacific, and the announcement subsequently came that the purchase would be financed by the issue of $40,000,000 Union Pacific Railroad 1st lien convertible gold bonds bearing 4 per cent interest. The new bonds will have a lien upon the unmortgaged property belonging to the Union Pacific, and also be secured by a pledge of securities owned by it and held in its treasury, but not including (and this fact served as an indication of the financial strength and resources of the Union Pacific) the Southern Pacific shares purchased, and to pay for which the new bonds are to be issued.

There is in this arrangement, it will be observed, no merger or consolidation of the two companies, which will remain distinct properties and be managed under their own separate organizations. The Union Pacific, however, gets the advantage of a dominating interest in the Southern Pacific, thereby being able to control its management and direct its affairs. Necessarily, important benefits to the Union Pacific must result from this unification of the two properties. It ensures harmonious relations between the systems and thus is a safeguard against rate-cutting and other similar evils. In this sense, indeed, it must prove beneficial to all the roads west of the Mississippi, since with antagonism between the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific avoided an important advance will have been made towards placing the whole rate situation on an enduring and more stable basis. Control of Southern Pacific by the Union Pacific is also important in another way: it ensures to the Union Pacific the continued use of the Central Pacific, which forms part of the Southern Pacific system. As is well known, the Central Pacific and the Union Pacific together (the former extending from San Francisco to Ogden and the latter from Ogden to Omaha) constitute the original trans-continental route to the Pacific Ocean—that is, the first rail route opened across the Continent—and hence it was very desirable that amicable relations between them should be permanently secured.

There were some other developments indicative of the same fraternizing and harmonizing spirit. Of such character was the purchase by Mr. E. H. Harriman of the large German holdings in the Chicago Terminal Transfer RR., placing Mr. Harriman and his associates in control of that company. It is assumed that this step means the concentration of terminal facilities at Chicago in the interest of the many roads in which the Harriman people are so largely interested. The organization of the Railroad Securities Company by interests understood to be allied with the Chicago & Alton, Kansas City Southern, Union Pacific, etc., seems to have been undertaken (so far as can be judged at this time) with much the same objects in view—that is with the purpose of ensuring a community of interest between various properties. This concern has already acquired $8,000,000 of Illinois Central stock, and evidently intends to make other similar purchases of first-class properties.

Of course the most important event of the month was the formation by J. P. Morgan & Co. of the United States Steel Corporation for the purpose of taking over the Carnegie Company and various other companies prominent in the iron and steel trades. It hardly needs to be said that this is a colossal undertaking, and in magnitude far transcends all other transactions of a similar nature. Throughout the whole month this coming event had a most potent influence upon affairs. On the Stock Exchange early in the month great activity and buoyancy developed when it appeared that the difficulties in the way of the carrying through of this enormous undertaking had been overcome. Later the market halted and often displayed weakness, awaiting details as to the scheme. Obviously, in the case of the stocks of the companies to be absorbed everything depended upon the terms at which the same were to be exchanged for the securities of the new concern.

It was not until Tuesday the 26th that these terms became known, Mr. J. P. Morgan on that day authorizing an official statement showing for each stock the precise rate of exchange into the stocks of the new company. These terms, in many instances, varied greatly from current estimates, and hence a readjustment of Stock Exchange values of the various companies became necessary. Out of this there grew some wide and erratic fluctuations. The net result at the end of the month is a considerable decline for some of the prominent iron and steel stocks. Thus Federal Steel common closed on the 28th at 43, after having sold on the 7th at 55½, and opened February 1st at 44½; American Steel & Wire common closed on the 28th at 38½, after having sold at 53½ on the 11th and opened at 44½ February 1st; and National Tube common closed at 51½, after having sold at 70½ on the 6th and opened at 59 February 1st. These declines in the iron and steel shares had comparatively little adverse influence upon the railroad properties, which in many cases followed an independent course, some of them making important advances. Dealings the latter part of the month were on a greatly reduced scale, and aggregate sales for February were only 21,902,822 shares, against 30,285,055 shares in January. It is to be remembered, however, that February was a short month, that it contained two holidays, namely the 12th and the 22d, and that the Exchange was also closed on the 23d.

In the money market rates did not rise greatly, notwithstanding that the surplus reserves of the Clearing-House banks very heavily declined. The chief feature was the further decided increase recorded in loans and deposits, reflecting the many large undertakings under way or being carried through. The deposits reached one thousand million dollars for the first time on the 16th, and on the 23d, after some decline, were reported at $1,009,186,900.

The foreign exchange market was decidedly irregular, sterling moving now up, now down, though both sight bills and cable transfers closed half a cent lower on the 28th than on the first of the month. The Bank of England reduced its minimum rate of discount twice, first on the 7th, when the rate was marked down from 5 to 4½ per cent, and again on the 21st, when there was a further decrease to 4 per cent.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

MONTHLY AND YEARLY RECORD.

The following tables furnish a complete record of the New York Stock Exchange transactions for the past month and the year 1900. They need no extended introduction, as they are self-explanatory. The tables embrace every security (excepting only State bonds) dealt in on the Exchange. We give bonds first, using the classification adopted in the official list. As to prices the form is our own, and we think it will be found to contain just the facts desired by our readers and to present them in the most convenient way for study and reference. All quotations in the column headed "Prices about January 2, 1901," were made on that date except those in italics, which are the nearest in January, 1901. The black-faced letters in the column headed "Interest Period" indicate in each case the month when the bonds mature.

For foot notes to tables see last page of Bonds and last page of Stocks.

BOSTON STOCK EXCHANGE.

MONTHLY AND YEARLY RECORD.

The railroad securities which are active on the New York Stock Exchange are omitted from this list.

In comparing New York and Boston prices, it should be noted that bond prices in New York are flat prices—that is, the price includes the accrued interest, while in Boston accrued interest must be paid in addition to price. It should also be remembered that New York stock prices are per cent while those in Boston are dollars per share.

GENERAL QUOTATIONS

—OF—

BONDS AND STOCKS.

1. In the following twenty-seven pages of tables quotations are given for all securities listed on any Stock Exchange in the United States; also for all leading unlisted and inactive securities for which we have been able to obtain reliable prices.

2. Quotations from all Stock Exchanges are as near as possible for the last day of February. Of course the coupon, if there be one, maturing between the date of quotation and the date of this publication, is not deducted from the price.

3. Bond prices marked thus (§) indicate that the purchaser must pay accrued interest in addition to the price given. The method of quoting on the New York Stock Exchange is to quote the prices flat (that is to include the accrued interest in the price), and hence in the tables below no mark is now affixed where this method of quoting is followed.

4. Stock prices marked thus (†) are per share. All others are per cent except bank stock prices.

5. It should be borne in mind in the use of these tables that the quotations for many inactive and unlisted securities are merely nominal, but in all cases the figures are obtained from sources which are considered reliable.

6. The following abbreviations are often used, viz.; "M.," for mortgage; "g.," for gold; "g'd.," for guaranteed; "end.," for endorsed; "cons.," for consolidated; "conv.," for convertible; "s. f.," for sinking fund; "l. g.," for land grant.

☞ We no longer affix a mark to prices quoted flat, but only to those which require payment of accrued interest in addition to the price. Designating mark in this instance is (§).

STATE AND MUNICIPAL BONDS.

Prices marked (*) are flat prices—that is, the purchaser does not pay accrued interest in addition. In all other cases accrued interest must be added to the price.

The figures in the column "to net" indicate the basis on which the securities sell or the interest rate which the securities if held to maturity, will net to the purchaser at the present market price.

It should be borne in mind that municipal bonds are not subject to such decided fluctuations in value as are securities which form a basis for speculation.

Table of state and municipal bond quotations with columns for Bonds, Bid., Ask., and To Net. Includes sections for Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, and various other states and municipalities.

QUOTATIONS OF BANK AND TRUST COMPANY STOCKS.

Prices are per share, not per cent, with the exception of New York City, Brooklyn and Canadian bank stocks. Prices marked thus (*) indicate sales.

The dagger (†) prefixed to a price indicates that the figures show the book value.

Notice Change.—We now report surplus and undivided profits together (in the column designated Surplus and Profits) except where otherwise indicated.

Where names of the banks are printed in italics, fuller returns may be found in the advertising columns in the front part of the paper.
