REVIEW OF OCTOBER.

The developments during October were of a nature to work an improvement in those features of the situation which previously had given both the industrial and financial aspect of things a decidedly unfavorable appearance. We refer of course to the tension in the money market and the anthracite coal miners' strike.

At the beginning of the month the outlook seemed to be growing decidedly discouraging. The Governor of Pennsylvania found it necessary to call out the entire State militia. At the same time it was becoming more and more evident that the measures of relief provided by Secretary Shaw would not suffice to ease the money market, and that further steps in the same direction would be necessary on his part. The fact that foreign exchange rates continued to rule high, threatening gold exports, also was looked upon as a rather ominous feature. Uneasiness in this latter regard was intensified by the fact that on Thursday, October 2d, the Bank of England raised its rate of discount from 3 per cent, at which the rate had stood since last February, to 4 per cent, and furthermore that on Saturday October 4 the Imperial Bank of Germany, whose rate had also stood at 3 since the previous February, likewise made an advance to 4 per cent.

But both in the case of the miner's strike and in the matter of the monetary situation a quick and decided change for the better occurred. On Monday night, October 13, Mr. J. P. Morgan went to Washington with Mr. Robert Bacon, one of his partners, and on behalf of the coal companies laid before President Roosevelt a statement as to the position of the companies and their willingness under certain conditions to submit the questions at issue to arbitration. They suggested the appointment of a commission consisting of five men having certain stated qualifications. This proposition, somewhat modified, was later accepted by President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers, contingent upon the ratification of the step by a convention of the mine workers which he called for Monday, October 20, at Wilkesbarre, Pa. This convention was in session two days (Monday, October 20, and Tuesday, October 21), and on the second day by unanimous vote gave its approval to the scheme. The convention further voted that work should be resumed at the mines on Thursday morning, October 23, which accordingly was done, thus bringing an end to the strike, which had prevailed since May 12.

In the monetary situation the developments were equally favorable. On Monday, October 13, Secretary Shaw, while in this city opened negotiations with a syndicate of bankers composed of the National City Bank, Farson, Leach & Company, Harvey Fisk & Sons, Fisk & Robinson and Vermilye & Company, for the sale to the Treasury of a large block of United States 4 per cent bonds of 1925. On Friday October 17 the Secretary issued a circular announcing the readiness of the Treasury Department to buy these bonds at 137½ and interest to date of purchase; $8,253,400 face value of bonds was immediately turned in at the Sub-Treasury in this city on that day, involving the disbursement of $11,292,789, all of this amount, excepting $26,000, being paid over the counter of the Sub-Treasury. This had an immediate effect in easing the monetary stringency. Further amounts of bonds were turned in on succeeding days, and altogether $15,443,450 of these 4 per cent bonds were bought at the Sub-treasury in New York up to the close of the month and $21,185,864 paid for the same. Bonds were also turned in at other Sub-Treasuries. In the aggregate the Secretary paid out roughly 22½ million dollars for bonds purchased.

On the 18th the Secretary had also ordered the prepayment without rebate of the interest falling due November 1 on the public debt, amounting to $2,150,000. At the same time large amounts of gold received from Australia and from the Yukon were transferred to New York. Furthermore, in pursuit of the Secretary's action of the previous month—allowing the substitution of municipal bonds in place of Government bonds held as security for United States deposits provided the Government bonds released were used as a basis for taking out additional circulation—a large increase occurred in the volume of outstanding national bank notes. No less than $16,377,500 of municipal bonds were accepted in substitution for United States bonds. It appears from the monthly statement of the Comptroller of the Currency that the amount of new circulation taken out during the month reached $15,205,710, the net increase in the amount of outstanding notes being $13,482,736.

In these various ways the depleted reserves of the New York City banks were quickly replenished. On October 11 the money holdings of the New York City Clearing House banks were $219,612,500. From this there was an increase to $244,786,900 November 1. The surplus reserves, which October 11 were only $1,527,350, rose to $21,339,100 November 1, all these calculations being on the old basis—that is allowing a reserve against Government deposits the same as against the ordinary deposits. Money rates of course fell off as the position of the banks improved.

Early in the month as high as 35 per cent had been paid at the Stock Exchange for money on call; on time a commission of ¼ of 1 per cent to full 1 per cent had to be paid for most loans. At the close of the month conditions were about normal with considerable money loaned the last week at 3½ per cent to 4½ per cent, though on October 31, owing to preparations for the first of November settlements, the range was higher again, namely 5 to 7 per cent. Time loans October 31 were 6 per cent for all periods from 60 days to six months.

The foreign exchange market kept firm and high most of the month and there were constant fears of gold exports. As it happened, though, no gold was actually taken for shipment to the other side. There seemed to be a good supply of commercial bills most of the time, and as a consequence fractional declines in rates occurred every now and then. But there was also a good and constant demand for remittance incident to the settlement of maturing loans and to pay for stocks sold in London on New York account. This demand occasioned a quick recovery after each decline, and at the close rates on actual business were close to the highest figures of the month.

In the stock market the buoyancy which so many had counted upon as the result of the settlement of the coal strike and the easing of the monetary situation did not occur. On their first announcement the two events noted did cause a sharp upward movement. Later transactions dwindled to small proportions and prices steadily sagged. The reason for the weakness was found in the continued high rates just noted for foreign exchange, in the fact that some uncertainty was felt as to the November elections which involved the election of a new House of Representatives for the next Congress, and also in the recrudescence of labor troubles throughout the country. This latter particularly received much attention, it being feared that the outcome of the anthracite strike would lead to new demands upon the part of labor in other industries.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

MONTHLY AND YEARLY RECORD.

The following tables furnish a complete record of the New York Stock Exchange transactions for the past month and the year 1902. They need no extended introduction, as they are self-explanatory. The tables embrace every security (excepting only State bonds) dealt in on the Exchange. We give bonds first, using the classification adopted in the official list. As to prices the form is our own, and we think it will be found to contain just the facts desired by our readers and to present them in the most convenient way for study and reference. All quotations in the column headed "Prices about January 2, 1902," were made on that date except those in italics, which are the nearest in January, 1902. The black-faced letters in the column headed "Interest Period" indicate in each case the month when the bonds mature.

§ Less than 100 shares. a Ex-rights. b Ex-dividend and rights. c Trust Co. certificates. d Anaconda Mining now quoted per cent.

NOTE.—On March 31 the Stock Exchange began quoting mining shares having a par value of over $10 on a per cent basis instead of dollars per share. Mining shares with a par value of less than $10 are still quoted in the old way, that is, per share. e Ex-stock dividend. f 1st instalment paid. g 2d instalment paid. h 50% paid. i 3d instalment paid. j 4th instalment paid.

BOSTON STOCK EXCHANGE.

A very elaborate and comprehensive report of the dealings on the Boston Stock Exchange is now given in the CHRONICLE each week. We therefore discontinue our monthly record.

GENERAL QUOTATIONS

—OF—

BONDS AND STOCKS.

1. In the following twenty-seven pages of tables quotations are given for all securities listed on any Stock Exchange in the United States; also for all leading unlisted and inactive securities for which we have been able to obtain reliable prices.

2. Quotations from all Stock Exchanges are as near as possible for the last day of October. Of course the coupon if there be one, maturing between the date of quotation and the date of this publication, is not deducted from the price.

3. Bond prices marked thus (§) indicate that the purchaser must pay accrued interest in addition to the price given The method of quoting on the New York Stock Exchange is to quote the prices flat (that is to include the accrued interest in the price), and hence in the tables below no mark is now affixed where this method of quoting is followed.

4. Stock prices marked thus (†) are per share. All others are per cent except bank stock prices.

5. It should be borne in mind in the use of these tables that the quotations for many inactive and unlisted securities are merely nominal, but in all cases the figures are obtained from sources which are considered reliable.

6. The following abbreviations are often used, viz.; "M.," for mortgage; "g.," for gold; "g'd.," for guaranteed; "end.," for endorsed; "cons.," for consolidated; "conv.," for convertible; "s. f.," for sinking fund; "l. g.," for land grant: "op." for optional.

7. The black-faced type in the letters showing the interest periods indicates in each case the month when the bonds mature.

☞ We no longer affix a mark to prices quoted flat, but only to those which require payment of accrued interest in addition to the price. Designating mark in this instance is (§).

STATE AND MUNICIPAL BONDS.

It is not the custom in quoting municipal bonds to include accrued interest in the price given. Hence this accrued interest must in all cases be added on. There are a very few instances which form exceptions to the rule—that is where the prices given are flat prices, the accrued interest having been taken into account in making them. These are indicated by a special mark, thus (*).

The figures in the column "to net" indicate the basis on which the securities sell or the interest rate which the securities, if held to maturity, will net to the purchaser at the present market price.

* Flat price. ¶ Houston bonds are quoted on 4·75 basis bid and 4·25 basis asked.

BANKS AND TRUST COMPANIES.

Quotations for the stocks of banks and trust companies are given per share, not per cent, with the exception of New York City, Brooklyn and Canadian bank stocks.

Prices marked thus (*) indicate sales. The dagger (†) prefixed to a price indicates that the figures show the book value.

Where names of the banks are printed in italics, fuller returns may be found in the advertising columns in the front part of the paper.
