REVIEW OF MAY.

Severe liquidation on the Stock Exchange was again the most prominent characteristic of the financial markets during May. Quite a number of circumstances and conditions operated to promote the downward movement. Among these may be mentioned (1) the continued unrest of labor, leading to difficulties between employer and employee in nearly all parts of the country and in many different lines of trade; (2) a decline in the iron and steel markets, which was given an exaggerated degree of importance; (3) the continued speculative manipulation of the cotton market under which values for the staple advanced to a new high level; (4) export shipments of gold on quite an extensive scale; (5) rumors that some large operators on the Stock Exchange were short of cotton and had been obliged to dispose of some of their stock holdings in order to protect their deals in the cotton market; and (6) pronounced liquidation on the Montreal Stock Exchange with severe declines in Dominion Iron & Steel and Dominion Coal Company stocks (dealt in on the Boston Stock Exchange) accompanied by rumors that certain Canadian financial interests were either already embarrassed or likely to become embarrassed. These latter rumors found confirmation the early part of the next month (June) in the failure of the important house of A. E. Ames & Co.

Labor troubles continued unusually prominent. There was improvement in certain directions, but new outbreaks in other directions. Among the latter may be mentioned the strikes and lock-outs that developed in the building trades in this city, and which for the time being brought building operations in New York and Brooklyn almost to a standstill. The threatened strike on the Great Northern Railway was averted and the Union Pacific likewise reached a settlement with its shopmen, boiler-makers and some other employees who had been on strike for quite a long while.

In Denver, where strikes and lock-outs have been the feature almost everywhere, an arrangement was entered into between the General Executive Committee of the labor unions and the newly-formed Citizens' Alliance, as a result of which the men returned to work. Differences are to be settled through arbitration, the Citizens' Alliance, however, having gained its point that business men should have the right to engage union and non-union men alike. At the cotton mills at Lowell the manufacturers announced their determination to open the mills on June 1, with a view to seeing whether enough operatives could be got to resume the running of the mills. On the other hand, in the textile trades at Philadelphia a strike was precipitated by the workers at the close of the month with the idea to forcing employers to grant a shorter work schedule. The formation of business men's organizations throughout the country so as to meet more effectively the arbitrary action of labor unions was continued, and in a great many instances (as for example in the conflict just noted at Denver) a considerable measure of success attended the movement.

The speculation in cotton was carried still further, new interests having taken hold, as more fully related in the CHRONICLE of May 16 in our article on the "Financial Situation." The upward flight in prices extended to both the spot market and to contracts for future delivery. The spot price of middling uplands on May 20 got up to 12.15 cents, with the close May 29 (May 30 being a holiday) 11.70 cents. At 12.15 cents the spot price was the highest reached in this market since July 31 1890. These exceptional figures led to the return of some American cotton from Europe, and also induced some of the mills in this country to dispose of their stocks of cotton rather than to work the cotton up into manufactured goods.

With the approach of the time (June 1) when the Clearing House regulation as to the keeping of a 5 per cent cash reserve by the trust companies was to go into effect, the withdrawals of trust companies from Clearing House privileges became quite numerous. Counting those which had previously given notice to that effect, nine companies altogether withdrew, these being the Union Trust, the United States Mortgage & Trust, the Continental Trust, the New York Security & Trust, the Mercantile Trust, the Morton Trust, the Trust Company of America, the Fifth Avenue Trust and the Metropolitan Trust. Seventeen trust companies with aggregate deposits of about 146 million dollars retained their connection with the Clearing House, these being, however, only a small portion of the grand total of deposits of the trust companies in this city and Brooklyn, which, according to the returns made to the Superintendent of Banks at Albany the first of the year, numbered 49 and had aggregate deposits of $746,221,130.

While the downward tendency of prices on the Stock Exchange was in progress throughout the whole month, the volume of business the early part was rather small. There were reports then of considerable damage to the growing winter-wheat crop from unusually cold weather, but these reports were soon disproved. When the decline in prices assumed large proportions the volume of dealings was very much increased and on Monday, May 25, exceeded one million shares—1,122,389 shares. The declines were large and general, as may be seen by our detailed statements on subsequent pages; in most instances high-priced investment properties suffered even more severely than the low-priced shares. The early part of the month the conclusion of preliminaries for the control of St. Louis & San Francisco by the Rock Island had a beneficial effect on the values of the stocks concerned, but though definite announcement of these early rumors came on the 11th the movement was short-lived. In the general market the lowest prices of the year were reached during the month in the great majority of cases.

In the foreign exchange market rates ruled high and the feature was a large outflow of gold. The Transvaal loan was brought out on the other side and proved a tremendous success. With this loan (which had been expected for a long time) out of the way, the Bank of England on the 21st reduced its minimum rate of discount from 4 per cent to 3 1/2 per cent, at which figure it had stood since October 2 1902.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

MONTHLY AND YEARLY RECORD.

The following tables furnish a complete record of the New York Stock Exchange transactions for the past month and the year 1903. They need no extended introduction, as they are self-explanatory. The tables embrace every security (excepting only State bonds) dealt in on the Exchange. We give bonds first, using the classification adopted in the official list. As to prices the form is our own, and we think it will be found to contain just the facts desired by our readers and to present them in the most convenient way for study and reference. All quotations in the column headed "Prices about January 2, 1903," were made on that date, except those in italics, which are the nearest in January, 1903. The black-faced letters in the column headed "Interest Period" indicate in each case the month when the bonds mature.

GENERAL QUOTATIONS

—OF— BONDS AND STOCKS.

1. In the following twenty-eight pages of tables quotations are given for all securities listed on any Stock Exchange in the United States; also for all leading unlisted and inactive securities for which we have been able to obtain reliable prices.
2. Quotations from all Stock Exchanges are as near as possible for the last day of May. Of course the coupon if there be one, maturing between the date of quotation and the date of this publication, is not deducted from the price.
3. Bond prices marked thus (§) indicate that the purchaser must pay accrued interest in addition to the price given. The method of quoting on the New York Stock Exchange is to quote the prices flat (that is to include the accrued interest in the price), and hence in the tables below no mark is now affixed where this method of quoting is followed.
4. Stock prices marked thus (†) are per share. All others are per cent except bank stock prices.
5. It should be borne in mind in the use of these tables that the quotations for many inactive and unlisted securities are merely nominal, but in all cases the figures are obtained from sources which are considered reliable.
6. The following abbreviations are often used, viz.; "M." for mortgage; "g." for gold; "g'd." for guaranteed; "end." for endorsed; "cons." for consolidated; "conv." for convertible; "s. f." for sinking fund; "l. g." for land grant; "op." for optional.
7. The black-faced type in the letters showing the interest periods indicates in each case the month when the bonds mature.

§ We no longer affix a mark to prices quoted flat, but only to those which require payment of accrued interest in addition to the price. Designating mark in this instance is (§).

STATE AND MUNICIPAL BONDS.

It is not the custom in quoting municipal bonds to include accrued interest in the price given. Hence this accrued interest must in all cases be added on.

The figures in the column "to net" indicate the basis on which the securities sell or the interest rate which the securities, if held to maturity, will net to the purchaser at the present market price.

Table with columns: Bonds, Bid, Ask, To Net. Lists bonds from ALABAMA, ARIZONA, CALIFORNIA, CANADA, and COLORADO.

Table with columns: Bonds, Bid, Ask, To Net. Includes sections for ALLEGHENY, VIRGINIA, TEXAS, RHODE ISLAND, SOUTH CAROLINA, SOUTH DAKOTA, TENNESSEE, MIDDLEBURY, WASHINGTON, WEST VIRGINIA, WISCONSIN, and UTAH. Each entry lists bond details and prices.

* Flat price. † Sale price.

BANKS AND TRUST COMPANIES.

Quotations for the stocks of banks and trust companies are given per share, not per cent, with the exception of New York City, Brooklyn and Canadian bank stocks.

Prices marked thus (*) indicate sales. The dagger (†) prefixed to a price indicates that the figures show the book value.

Where names of the banks are printed in italics, fuller returns may be found in the advertising columns in the front part of the paper.
