THE CHICAGO STOCK MARKET TO BE REPORTED IN THE CHRONICLE.

Recognizing that the dealings on the Chicago Stock Exchange are assuming growing importance, the publishers of the CHRONICLE have determined to furnish hereafter a detailed weekly report of the transactions on that Exchange. It is contemplated to devote a full page each week to the presentation of the figures. The report will cover the transactions in both stocks and bonds and an additional feature will be a table showing the condition of the Chicago banks and trust companies, which rank second only to those of New York in importance and in the magnitude of their operations. It is intended to inaugurate the new service very shortly, possibly next week, or at all events just so soon as the arrangements for transmitting Thursday's and Friday's prices by wire each week (with which experiments are now under way) have been tested sufficiently to make sure that everything is in perfect working shape.

As a preliminary to the beginning of the publication of the weekly report, we have had compiled and print in to-day's issue a record of the stock and bond fluctuations on the Chicago Stock Exchange for the whole of the calendar year 1904. The table will be found on page 198. Showing as it does the highest and lowest sale prices for each month for all the distinctive Chicago securities, it should prove useful not only to our Chicago subscribers but to all those interested in those particular properties.

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION.

Congress has been positively active this week in introducing new bills or devices for giving the Inter-State Commerce Commission authority to fix rates. Railroads appear to be in such disrepute in our National Legislature that they are being pursued with no little acrimony. This feeling is entertained notwithstanding the focal position railroads hold and must always hold in building up and developing our industries. It is only fair to say that there are real grievances which might easily be relieved if properly handled, but they have been fanned into a flame by the Commission which, strange to say, is seeking for itself the power to fix rates-a power which, if Congress grants the petition, will enable the Commission to "make poor and to make rich, to bring low and lift up," merchants, shippers and railroads at its will. So bitter and blind has become the spirit of this crusade, and so harmful may be any unwise interference with the ordinary working of the carrying department of our commerce, that it becomes all who have anything to do with these remedial affairs to go slow in the preparation of a remedy, and study carefully the character of the grievances proved, so as to restrict the power granted to the have never looked into the charge critically. If the statements made to us are correct-and we know what the results on fruit-marketing in some sections are-the packers with the private-car owners hold the key to the favorable shipping of all that class of goods. Unless the ranch owner gets inside, he cannot reach a market at a profit. What is wanted in this controversy is a preliminary study of the grievances, following each up to A cursory look at the working of our its source. system of railroads and listening to the complaints which naturally pour in from every side-for all producers think they are taxed more than they ought to be to get their products to market-leads the careless observer to the conclusion that, as all difficulties and differences between the carrier and the shipper grow out of rates, the giving the Commission the right to fix (that is to lower) rates would wipe out every disturbing cause. Of course they do not stop to consider whether the same act would not cripple and wipe out largely the usefulness of the railroad t00.

Among the less informed, in every dispute with a railroad only the shipper gets much consideration. Such complainants forget that, in the rates charged, there is in every case but a very slight margin between a profit and no profit; that the right to lower the prevailing rate without giving the railroad the power to enjoin the decision of the Commission and have the question tried and determined by the Supreme Court-whether the rate it has named is just or unjust, before it goes into effectmakes the solvency and insolvency of the railroad subject solely to the will of the Commission. Remember. likewise that it is impossible for injustice to be done by the legislator to the railroads of our country without disorganizing business, harming our railroad systems, doing a wrong towards the vast body of security-holders, and mak. ing the roads less helpful to the public. Moreover, injustice will always be done unless every grant of power to the Commerce Commission is properly guarded. Railroads cannot be cornered without forcing them into a fight for life any more than an individual, and as for that any more than the lowest animal can be. We include stockholders in the foregoing summary because we owe them protection; the country is largely indebted to the capital they have furnished for linking together this vast continent and making of all parts of it one homogeneous whole; for giving to each individual's products markets that could never have been reached without it, nor continued as now if the efficiency of the roads had been lessened; for making possible industrial activities and favoring their growth which have given us our wide repute and distinction. Such creations are being fostered and carried forward with the money which has come from the security-holders of those condemned roads, and which money has gone directly or indirectly to furnish the country with the benefactions it has thereby built up. Now, after the land is covered by a network of rails, and extensions in all directions are substantially completed, it is proposed to expose to confiscation the money that ends to be met.

There is, for illustration, as we look at the situation, a source of wrong-doing on the part of railroads which onght to be remedied; it is a grievance, too, which does not need at all for its correction the granting of such authority as asked for. We refer to the existence and use of private cars. We are not able here, nor is it necessary, to go into a detailed description of the working of this supplementary system which has attached itself in a large, wide way to our railroads' freight business. We have often heard fruit—the raising of which, as every one knows, is an important and growing industry—spoken of as an instance, though we way fer and There is no exaggeration in the foregoing. We do is it not say that the proposal will ever be carried out. vork- There are too many men with a quick sense of justice among our people to permit such a transaction. The busi- proposals, though, as they stand in the bills at present go of before Congress have no regard to the stockholders' claims and rights, legal or moral. There is but a single we way for stockholders to get value from a railroad, and that is to operate it. Income can only be secured through rates put on traffic. Rob the roads of the right make rates, put to that power into the hands of hostile parties, take from the roads the right, supposed to be common to all, of appeal to the courts to determine whether all such acts done have been so done as to be just to the road—put the road in that fix, can the transaction fail to end in the confiscation of a part or the whole of the road's assets? It is no justification for the legislator to say that the railroads have been guilty of wrong-doing. As is well known, that spirit is giving birth to the proposed laws; however looked at, that motive is wrong in principle. In the majority of cases the punishment will not reach the wrong-doer, the act being the act of the traffic manager while the punishment falls on the stockholder. Besides, that officer might with the best of intentions fix on a rate that the Commission might pronounce too high and substitute a lower, which put into force might land the road in the meshes of a receivership. Are stockholders to be ruined because some manager's opinion does not accord with this arbitrary and hostile Commission's views?

One of the proposals introduced this week, a twin affair, is the least attractive of the lot, and yet because of its badness deserves a word or two. We say least attractive, because the whole measure is presented by two bills, the second one assuming to organize a new court for no other purpose than to pass upon the acts of the Commerce Commission and determine whether such are just or unjust. Such a suggestion is acts We have a court now, the United absurd. States Supreme Court, fully organized and equipped, and held in the highest esteem the world over Why reject that and substitute a tail to the Commission's kite and call it a court? We' know of no reason except that the Commerce Commission has often abused the Supreme Court's decisions because that court has criticised and pronounced unjust the Commission's findings. Like the ordinary unsuccessful litigant, it finds fault. If the Supreme Court wants more judges-grant them; but of all things save us from a travesty on it.

Among the reasons assigned for the prevailing firm tone for foreign exchange is that bankers are remitting for the payment of short-term American railroad notes and bonds which are held abroad and are about maturing; also that, owing to the relatively lower rates for money in New York than in Europe, bankers are employing their funds for the purchase of such American bonds as are about falling due and are held by European investors, such purchases being made on advantageous terms. One important feature of the week was the shipment of $500,000 gold coin to Paris. It has been asserted that coin could not be profitably exported while sight exchange was below 4 88, unless the Bank of France should offer the same inducement it offers for the export of gold bars, viz., the allowance of interest on the consignment while in transit. The export of coin this week was made under advantageous conditions; exchange at New York on London being firm, and sterling at Paris on the British capital low, admitted of the profitable export of the coin as an arbitration operation Bankers who are familiar with the situation express the opinion that such conditions as those above noted are likely to be of frequent occurrence in the near future, and therefore that gold coin in considerable volume will probably be shipped to Europe within the next sixty days; some estimates place this amount at from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000. Meanwhile gold bars will most likely be exported as rapidly as they can be manufactured at the New York Assay Office, or at the rate of about $1,000,000 per week. Advance engagements for such bars have been made covering the output until the middle of March.

There has been rather an unusual number of favorable developments the present week. Chief among these is the return to work of the cotton operatives at Fall River after almost six months of idleness. The muchdesired result was brought about through the mediation of Governor Douglas of Massachusetts. The 121 per cent reduction in wages against which the operatives have been contending is to go into effect, but as part of the agreement Governor Douglas will an investigation into the matter of make the margin between the cost of cotton to the mill-owners and the selling price of cloth. We do not understand the precise nature of the agreement entered into, but the newspapers report that Governor Douglas is to submit his "conclusions as to an average margin upon which the manufacturers are to pay a dividend of 5 per cent on: wages earned from the present time to April 1." Many of the mills started up on Thursday, but in a number of cases resumption will not take place until next Monday, so as to enable a start to be made with an even week.

Returns of railroad earnings also continue good. This is as true of the net as of the gross. We publish to-day our compilations for the month of November and they show \$11,249,088 gain in gross, or 9.77 per cent, and \$6,691,843 gain in net, or 17.80 per cent. In addition there has been a number of announcements of increases in dividends. The Illinois Central Railroad has declared an extra 1 of 1 per cent in addition to the regular semiannual payment of 3 per cent and the Chicago St. Paul Minneapolis & Omaha Railway has raised the semiannual distribution on its common stock from 3 per cent to 33 per cent, placing the stock presumably upon a 7-per-cent dividend basis. The Amalgamated Copper Co. has declared an extra 1 per cent in addition to the quarterly dividend of  $\frac{1}{2}$  per cent. Another fact should not be lost sight of. As compared with a year ago there has been a great improvement in weather conditions. January thus far has been a very mild winter month, whereas in that month of last year the weather was of unusual severity with the temperatures extremely low. This if continued will mean a large saving in expenses to our transportation lines, and is also a factor favorable to the development of general trade. The iron and steel industry continues extremely active, the large steel companies in the most of their departments working to their full capacity. If besides all this the threatened strike of the brakemen on the Pennsylvania Railroad shall be averted, there will be nothing to mar the bright promise for the future except a possibility of Congressional legislation adverse to railroad and business interests in connection with the proposed amend. ments of the Inter-State Commerce Law.

The extremely active demand for bonds of the better class still constitutes one of the noteworthy features of the situation. After the set-back experienced in 1903, a marked revival in the demand occurred, it will be remembered, during 1904. Indeed, the avidity with which new bond issues were taken up in this last-mentioned year was one of the most striking characteristics of that period. Month after month one new loan after another was brought out, and not the least difficulty was experienced in finding purchasers for these enormous additions to the investment list of securities; about the only point insisted on, apparently, was that the new of undoubted character. be obligations should The short-time notes issued by the railroads during the last two years have almost disappeared from the market. This demand for the better grade of securities has continued up to the present time, and whenever a new loan is brought out the whole offering is quickly absorbed. The latest evidence of this kind is furnished in the case of the $6,000,000 offering of Pere Marquette Railroad Co. refunding mortgage 4 per cent gold bonds (guaranteed, principal and interest, by the Cincinnati Hamilton & Dayton Railway) just made by Messrs. Redmond & Co. of this city. We are informed that this issue was over-subscribed four to five times. The distinguishing feature of these applications was that they came from large investors and small investors alike. Messrs. Redmond & Co. report that they received many applications for one, two, three, four or five bonds. These small orders were all filled. Applications for large amounts, however, could only be entertained to the extent of about one-quarter of the sum applied for. Subscriptions are even now still pouring in from the remoter parts of the country. Many orders came from Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Ohio, as well as the eastern sections of the country. Not only this, but the foreign subscriptions were also very heavy, showing a growing demand for Amerisecurities on the part of European investors. can The inquiry from Holland was particularly large, the applications aggregating more than double the amount allotted to that country. Swiss purchases were likewise on a liberal scale. The Pere Marquette case, however, is merely one out of many. Yesterday afternoon Messrs. Speyer & Co. reported that the entire $40,000,000 bonds of the Republic of Mexico had been sold-furthermore that the members of the syndicate taking this large issue of bonds had not been called upon to make any payment whatever on account of their interest in the loan.

For the current year to date the company has recorded very striking improvement in results, au increase in gross earnings coming concurrently with a saving in expenses. The latest figures of gross and net are for the five months to November 30, and for these five months net for 1904 was $7,157,152, as against only $5,234,411 for the same five months of 1903, the gain thus being almost two million dollars-in exact figures $1,922,-741.

There was no change in official rates of discount by any of the European banks this week, and compared with last week unofficial or open market rates were steady. The report on Thursday of the attempted assassination of the Emperor of Russia had a disturbing effect upon the European security markets, though it did not seem to make any impression here.

The feature of the statement of the New York Associated Banks last week was the increase of $15,348,900 in the cash reserve. Presumably these large figures were the result of previous gains of cash in the past two months which have been reported but did not appear in bank returns because they went into the trust companies. Deposits increased $9,991,500 and the required reserve was thereby augmented $2,497,875; the surplus reserve was therefore increased $12,851,025, to $24,459,275; loans decreased $5,405,900. The bank statement of this week should reflect, among other items, the shipment of $1,273,377 46 gold bars and of $500,000 gold coin to Paris, and the export of $875,000 gold coin to Argentina; also the transfer hither from San Francisco of $185,000. There was a withdrawal on Friday of $287,624 63 in gold bars for shipment to Paris next week; the average of this amount will also probably be reflected in the bank statement. The surrender by depository banks of 10 per cent of their holdings of public funds began on Monday.

The Bank of England minimum rate of discount remains unchanged at 3 per cent. The cable reports discounts of sixty to ninety day bank bills in London  $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. The open market rate at Paris is  $2\frac{1}{2}$  per cent, and at Berlin and Frankfort it is  $2\frac{5}{8}$  per cent. According to our special cable from London the Bank of England gained £1,280,543 bullion during the week and held £33,194,603 at the close of the week. Our correspondent further advises us that the gain was due to imports of £14,000 (wholly from Australia), to exports of £80,000 (wholly to South America) and to receipts of £1,347,000 net from the interior of Great Britain.

The foreign exchange market, though only moderately active, was generally strong during the week, influenced by a good demand for remittance and by a light supply of bills. Commercial drafts against grain were few, and though those against cotton were a little more abundant, owing to increased exports, they were promptly absorbed, and acceptances commanded prices only a fraction below those for bankers' bills. There appeared this week to be urgency some in the demand for sight drafts for remittance, which was said to be due to the fact that preparations are being made for the payment of some considerable portion of the \$10,000,000 Union Pacific notes which were last year placed in Europe; these will mature February 1. It was reported that there are also New York City revenue bonds held abroad which will soon be paid off and that funds are now being provided for this purpose. The extremely low rates for money in New York are said to be inducing bankers to employ their funds for the purchase of railroad bonds and other obligations which are held in Europe and will reach maturity within the next few months; these purchases are reported to be made on such terms as will enable the bankers to realize returns of  $3\frac{1}{4}@3\frac{1}{2}$  per cent per annum on the operation during the period for which their money is employed. In the absence of a sufficient supply of exchange with which to remit for these and other purposes, gold has to be shipped, and because of the inducement which the Bank of France offers in the form of interest on consignments of gold bars while in transit, thereby ensuring their profitable export, bankers have pre-engaged all the bars that can be manufactured at the New York Assay Office up to March 15. On Tuesday of this week \$842,068 91 and on Thursday \$431,308 55, together \$1,273,377 46, in gold bars were shipped to Paris, and there was also a consignment forwarded on the last-named day of \$500,-000 in double-eagles to the same destination. The export of the latter was made possible because of the advance on the previous day of the rate for sight exchange at New York on London to  $4.87\frac{3}{4}$ , and also because of the concurrent rate of 25 francs 13 centimes for ste ling at Paris on the British capital, these conditions of exchange making profitable the transaction as an arb tration operation, though the Bank of France offere no inducement to the shippers of the coin in the form of interest while in transit. Bankers express the opinio that if sight exchange shall remain firm at about curren rates, and if sterling at Paris on London shall continu low, more or less gold coin will be shipped to Paris. A the same time the above-noted inducement for export of gold bars will encourage shipments of the metal in this form to the extent that it can be procured at the Assay Office. On Friday \$287,624 63 in gold bars which had been pre-engaged were withdrawn for export to Paris next week. There was a shipment of \$500,000 gold coin in eagles to Argentina during the week; these coins were obtained at the Bank Clearing House. Gold received at the Custom House, \$9,471.

FALL OF THE FRENCH MINISTRY.

The resignation of M. Combes, Premier of the French Ministry, is an event which may mean much or little according to subsequent circumstances. It is also one of those incidents, rather frequent in European politics, when a Ministry primarily identified with one particular policy has been voted out because of differences arising from quite another series of acts or policies. M. Combes will always be identified in French ministerial history with the attack on the religious orders. Yet there was nothing whatever in the vote which led to his resignation last Wednesday which bore directly on that movement. Possibly the fall of Combes is merely a consequence of the well-known fickleness of French His Ministry has been in power since legislatures. June 1902, and has therefore occupied office for a trifle over two and one-half years. If precedent and tradition of the past thirty years are taken into account, this was an unusually long official tenure. It is true that M. Combes' predecessor, M. Waldeck-Rousseau, took office in June 1899 and did not relinquish it until the same month in 1902, and that his three-year tenure of office was brought to a close at his own initiative. But the case of Waldeck-Rousseau was peculiar, both because of his powerful individuality and control of the restless forces under him, and because of the fact that he was called to office as the only man to deal with a grave emergency which had baffled all other statesmen. Writing nine or ten years ago, a careful critic of French legislative institutions made an estimate that between 1876 and 1896 the average duration of a French Cabinet had been eight and one-half months. On the basis of this tradition, Combes's Cabinet had already considerably outlived the normal term.

The reasons for this habitually rapid change in administrations is familiar to observers of French politics. Unlike either English or American legislators, the French Deputies are divided into half-a-dozen groups or factions, representing almost every shade of opinion on the questions of the day. Into the line of distinction between these various factions it is needless to go, and, indeed, they are largely unintelligible to the American voter. The point is that any government, in order to retain office for a week, must do so by presenting inducements of some sort to a number of mutually antagonistic legislative factions. Under such circumstances, it is quite obvious that his position must be perpetually precarious. Waldeck-Rousseau himself was well understood to have been forced, in his public policies, to throw continual sops to the Socialistic element, with which by temperament he could hardly have been strongly sympathetic. It was probably for this purpose that he introduced and enacted his law for the registration of the religious associations in France-a move which probably was intended to arrest a really violent demonstration against such orders, but which in its practical consequences, by bringing their resources within the reach of the State. had precisely the opposite effect. M. Combes, his successor, was a man of narrow views and obstinate adherence to them. He had perceived, in a number of the factions on which he depended for his office, the popularity of Waldeck-Rousseau's restrictions on the religious orders. He therefore not only made that policy his own, but developed it to such an extent as to become virtual persecution. That there had been abuses of power by the Jesuits and other orders in the matter of primary education has long been admitted by intelligent Frenchmen. But the undertaking of M. Combes went to the verge of actual extermination. The quarrel had its real foundation in a very old dispute between the Papacy and the Government of France, originating in the famous Concordat of 1801 between the first Napoleon and Pope Pius VII., whereby the Roman Catholic Church was formally reinstated in France, while the traditional control by the Pope of French ecclesiastics, in religious matters, was conceded by the Government of France. As this document originally stood it was satisfactory both to the Emperor and the Church. It appeared, however, that certain amendments to the documents had been appended by M. Talleyrand after its signature by the Pope. Among those amendatory articles were provisions that no bull or mandate from Rome should be published in France without the authorization of the Government; that all legates and nuncios appointed by the Pope must similarly be subject, in the exercise of their powers in France, to the authorization of the State; and that no French bishop should be allowed to leave his diocese save by permission of the head of the Government.

Not to go too extensively into this famous controversy, it is enough to say that the Church contended from the first that it had not signed these amendatory articles, and was therefore not bound by them. No really serious consequences ensued, however, until last year, when the Church undertook to discipline certain French bishops against whom irregularities had been charged, and when, the Church authorities having been more or less untactful in neglecting to obtain the specific authorization of the Government, M. Combes deemed it opportune to intervene and raise the general issue.

The end pursued by the Combes Government has been something more than disestablishment; it has amounted to the uprooting of religious orders, the throwing on their own resources of a considerable body of ecclesiastics and the virtual confiscation, attempted if not entirely effected, of the moneyed property of the orders. This last attempt has at times during the twelve months past had results which, by an unusual combination of circumstances, brought a church quarrel into the money market as a distinctive factor. It was alleged, and probably with truth, during the progress of M. Combes's undertaking, that large sums of church funds invested or deposited in France were withdrawn and forwarded to England. Rightly or wrongly, this was the cause assigned on various occasions for withdrawal of deposits from the French savings banks and for the decline in rentes.

So much for the policy by which M. Combes will undoubtedly be known in history. It remains to say, however, that the specific cause which alienated from him the support which hitherto had given him the requisite majorities in the Chamber was not at all the movement against religious orders but the system of so called espionage as applied to the army service. Whether this policy had or had not a definite connection with the general campaign against the ecclesiastics and their influence, is not altogether clear. It has been intimated that the military officers against whom the denunciatory reports are alleged to have been filed were chiefly those whose sympathies with the Church were known and recognized. This is one of those questions on which it is difficult to pass judgment without more actual information than appears to be at hand. The facts that the objectionable system of denunciations was introduced by General André, the first War Minister in the Combes Cabinet, and that André some time since was compelled by the resultant criticism to resign, and was allowed to relinquish office by the Cabinet, hardly bear out the inference that his program was a necessary part of the general Cabinet campaign against the orders. Indeed, it appears from this week's more or less fragmentary dispatches that the prime cause of the downfall of the Ministry has been the indignation of the Deputies at what they deemed to be an unwarranted interference with the self-respect and normal privileges of an army officer. It is a curious episode in this respect, leaving some doubt as to how far the action of the Chamber is a part of the devotion of the legislators to the army, regarding which, of recent years, the world has heard so much.

The fall of the Combes Ministry has been greeted without perturbation on the markets, and indeed the general verdict seems to be that the change in Ministry may lead to the placing of a stronger and more judicious statesman at the head of the Government. From the beginning of the anti-Church campaign, no doubt has been entertained among conservative judges of French politics that there was this of danger in the situation: that a very large concession had been made to the radical extremists, the eventual result of which might be to give that faction such a sense of power as should simply lead to its insisting on still more serious concessions. In this regard the probabilities of the moment are, despite the difficulties which surround the organization Ministry in of a France, that matters will to some extent be bettered. Along with this must be considered the now well-established tradition of French politics, that in many important offices of State, which at London or at Washington would change inevitably with the changing of an administration, the occupants are apt to be left undisturbed through the vicissitudes of nominal control. M. Delcassé, for instance, the conservative Foreign Minister, to whose good offices such achievements as the Anglo-French Conven. tion and the self-restrained attitude of France towards Russia during the Eastern war must be largely credited has already kept his office through several changes in the Premiership and is likely to continue to retain it.

WHAT WAS THE AMOUNT OF MUNICIPAL BOND SALES IN 1904 ?

Some decided misconceptions prevail as to the magnitude of the municipal bond sales during the year just passed. It is obviously important that erroneous impressions in that regard should be corrected. Without question municipalties in the United States borrowed much more largely in 1904 than in other recent years, but the extent of the increase in that regard is immensely exaggerated in many of the current statements afloat. natural result is figures wide of the mark and greatly in excess of the truth. We have not deemed it worth while heretofore to notice the glaring errors that were being made in this way, thinking that as our own totals given in the columns of the CHRONICLE from month to month were prepared according to correct methods, there was little likelihood that students or the general public would be misled by such errors.

It is becoming evident now, however, that these inflated figures have gained some credence when we had supposed that their erroneous character would be apparent. Hence we feel it incumbent to set out the exact facts. Within the present month the figures referred to have been adopted by such a prominent municipal bond dealer as Mr. John Farson of Chicago. In a review of the municipal bond market for 1904, Mr. Farson makes the following statement: "A notable feature of the bond situation in 1904 has been the enormous volume of sales. In 1903 $225,000,000 was the total of original bond offers and was the highest amount up to that time. The total for 1904 is a little over $400,000,000. This record is little short of marvelous."

Prior to 1904, the aggregate of municipal bond sales, according to the records kept by us with great care, has averaged in recent years about $150,000,000 per annum. If from this average a rise had really occurred in 1904 to $400,000,000, the situation would have to be regarded as nothing less than alarming. It would indicate that all of a sudden our municipalities had become reckless and extravagant to an inordinate degree. The truth is the $400,000,000 total is too large by nearly $150,000,000, and even the 1903 total of $225,000,000 is too large by over $70,000,000.

The actual amount of municipal bonds put out during the year 1904, including sinking fund takings as well as issues disposed of at public sale, was $250,710,038. No aggregate approaching anywhere near $400,000,000 can be obtained without including items that do not belong in the same. The most common mistake is to include temporary loans in the totals. Such loans have no place in compilations of this kind. They are mere tem. porary obligations, which are taken up again soon after their issue, and therefore add nothing to the permanent debt of a municipality. Occasionally these temporary loans are made as a preliminary to the negotiation of a more permanent form of obligation. This is done sometimes when improvements or new work of some kind is under way. To include both the temporary loan when made and later the permanent bond issue, is obviously to count the same thing twice. Then again, money may be borrowed temporarily on short time loans to meet maturing bond issues. In this manner the city of Rochester on December 28, negotiated a temporary loan for $410,000 (public bids for the same having been invited), to take up 7 per cent bonds which matured Jan.

1, 1905. That method of providing means for meeting maturing bonded debt was adopted in this instance because the city contemplates the issue of 30-year bonds,

All through 1904 very excessive figures were put out for which, however, legislative sanction must first be obin certain quarters, month by month, purporting to show tained, and this could not be had until the Legislature the extent of the municipal bond sales. Within met the present month. more recent years several different publications In the great majority of cases, however, temporay loans have undertaken to indicate the volume of are issued in anticipation of the collection of a current municipal offerings. Unfortunately parties these year's taxes. The municipality needs the money for are either inexperienced, or are animated by current expenses, say, early in the year, while the tax the one desire to make their totals as large as possible, collections do not come in until the latter part of the hoping thereby to convey the idea of great industry. The year. As soon as the tax revenues are received the notes or temporary loans are paid off. Hence such loans have only a short life, their purpose being to tide over an emergency, albeit an emergency that recurs year after year. That is precisely the predicament New York City finds itself in. This city is in the market every year in the early months for enormous amounts of money to carry on the functions of government, pending the receipt of taxes in October and subsequent months. The problem is one which is troubling the city officials all the time, and numerous have been the suggestions and propositions for dealing with the matter, or avoiding its continuance in the future.

In 1904 New York City put out no less than $130,-916,948 of revenue bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of taxes and $9,500,000 of general fund bonds, the latter issued to utilize the surplus revenues of the sinking funds, making together over 140 million dollars for the twelve months. In our compilations we exclude the whole of this amount. The parties who undertake to show a total of $400,000,000 include the entire sum. We do not know the precise portion of the $130,916,948 of New York City revenue bonds created dering 1904, which was taken up before the year's close, as the records in that regard are not yet available. In 1903, however, when $126,020,149 revenue bonds were created, $103,474,308 of such bonds were at the same time redeemed and canceled during the twelve months, the remainder being presumably taken up during 1904. Figures like this indicate very clearly the ephemeral nature of these revenue bond issues.

Moreover, the publications which report totals of $400,000,000 include bonds issued by Canadian municipalities and also bonds issued by the island possessions of the United States. We confine our aggregates entirely to the bond issues (State, county and municipal) made within the country. During 1904 we reported in our "State and City Department" $8,675,878 of sales by Canadian municipalities, besides $13,000,000 of Philippine Island securities and $1,000,000 of Hawaiian bonds. If we followed the same practice as others in that regard, our total would run far in excess of $400,-000,000. In other words, the result in that case would

The total of $435,041,310 arrived at in this way is obviously of imposing magnitude, but including as it does $152,155,394 of temporary loans and $9,500,000 of general fund bonds issued by New York City, the result is entirely misleading as an indication of the extent to which municipal bonds have been marketed or the permanent debt of municipalities increased. We have made an inspection of the monthly tables of one of the publications which reports municipal bond sales for 1904 of over $400,000,000, and find that the total includes no less than $141,981,111 of temporary loans besides the general fund bonds of New York City, the loans of the Canadian municipalities and of the Philipuntil 1904. pine Islands and of Hawaii. There are also many duplications, by which we mean that the same sale has been counted twice, and on occasions even three times. As an illustration, Toledo, Ohio, on Aug. 24 awarded $100,000 4 per cent refunding natural gas bonds. It subsequently developed that the bonds had not been sufficiently advertised and the purchaser refused to take the same. After this defect had been cured the bonds were again publicly offered and an actual sale made in November. Obviously as there has been but one sale the amount should not be credited both in August and again in November. Newport, R. I., awarded $150,000 31 per cent high-school bonds in May; the bonds being refused by the successful bidder they were re-awarded to another party in June. To include, as has been done, the same item in both months is an exaggeration to the extent of the amount of the sale. Instances of this kind might be multiplied almost indefinitely. Then there are errors of many other descriptions. Take the cases of municipalities which are carrying out compromise arrangements with their bondholders and which report every now and then the total of bonds exchanged up to a certain date. Such exchanges certainly are not original bond sales and yet some compilers add them on. In compiling our figures we take special pains to avoid duplications or the inclusion of items that do not belong in the totals. It is also at times necessary to eliminate altogether an item previously included, owing to the circumstance that subsequent developments rendered impossible the consummation of a reported sale. Thus Reading, Pa., in June 1904 made an award of $545,000 bonds; later the bonds were declared invalid, and hence have never been issued. In publishing our final figures we deduct all items of this description, while others do not regard the matter of sufficient importance to require consideration.

Another fact is worth mentioning, particularly because it serves to explain why totals thus indiscriminately made up record such tremendous increases over earlier years. In these previous years, though the parties referred to compiled their totals in the same way, the practice did not involve exaggeration to the same extent, and hence the consequences were of less moment. For prior to 1903 New York City did not furnish reports of its temporary loans from month to month, and therefore they could not be included in any of the tables. Even in 1903 no figures could be obtained until the latter half of the year.

be as follows: Actual municipal bond sales for the twelve We may repeat, therefore, that the aggregate of mumonths, $250,710,038; temporary loans, $152,155,394; nicipal bond offerings of a permanent character during the twelve months of 1904 was $250,710,038 instead of sales by Canadian municipalities, $8,675,878; Philippine and Hawaiian bonds, $14,000,000; New York City over $400,000,000. This compares with $152,281,050 general fund bonds, $9,500,000; grand total, $435,041,for for 1903 and $152,846,335 for 1902. The increase over 1903 and 1902 thus proves to have been consider-310. able, namely $98,000,000, which, however, is a totally different thing from an increase of $250,000,000. It should be remembered, moreover, that owing to the disturbed financial conditions which prevailed in 1903 the situation in that year was not favorable to the issuing of municipal bonds. It will be recalled that during the summer months of 1903 great difficulty was experienced in finding takers for new bonds and that in numerous instances the bonds could only be placed by raising the rate of interest. Except for this obstacle the sales for 1903 would have been much larger. Not a few bonds would have been placed in 1903 which did not come on the market It should also be borne in mind that a considerable portion of the whole increase of $98,000,000 occured in this city. New York City in 1904 sold to investors or placed with its sinking funds $86,589,440 bonds as against only $43,022,919 bonds so disposed of in 1903, giving an increase for this city alone of 431 million, dollars. Philadelphia, too, placed an unusual amount of new bonds during 1904, that is $16,000,000; in 1903 that city had put out no bonds whatever. Then Chicago and its sanitary and park districts sold $14.675,000 of bonds in 1904 as against only $5,250,000 in 1903. These three cities therefore account for $69,000,000 of the additions, leaving only $29,000,000 increase to be distributed over the whole rest of the country. In the number of our State and City Supplement or Section to be issued in May we shall furnish our usual extended and comprehensive summary of the year's bond sales, showing the purposes for which the bonds were issued, their distribution by States and also their rates of interest.

THE COUNTRY'S FOREIGN TRADE IN 1904.

The striking feature in the foreign trade figures for the calendar year 1904, issued the present week by the Bureau of Statistics at Washington, is the testimony they afford of the way in which the total of our merchandise exports was maintained in face of a number of adverse conditions. Export values for 1903 had been the largest of any calendar year on record, reaching $1,484,753,083. From this there was a decline in 1904 only to $1,451,-352,745. Of course under normal conditions growth is the rule from year to year, and had such conditions prevailed a further increase would have been looked for rather than a decrease.

What gives significance to the close approach of the 1904 aggregate of the merchandise exports to that of 1903 is that it was attained in face of a large shrinkage in the shipments of some of the most important export staples. There was a great contraction, for instance, in the breadstuffs exports, and particularly the outward movement of wheat and flour. This falling off in the wheat exports may be said to have had a twofold cause in a diminished crop yield and diminished supplies and in the extraordinarily high level of values maintained here—so high that the export trade in wheat was paralyzed all through the year, but especially in the closing months. Of wheat and flour combined we sent out only 64,966,260 bushels in the twelve months of 1904, against 161,367,104 bushels in 1903, 212,445,731 bushels in 1902 and 266,286,902 bushels in 1901. It is a noteworthy circumstance that though home prices of wheat advanced 30 to 40 cents a bushel, the average price on the export shipments of 1904 was but little higher than the average on the export shipments of 1903, the comparison standing 831 cents against 803 cents, a difference of but  $2\frac{1}{4}$  cents per bushel, showing that foreign consumers would not follow the advance in the United States, being willing to buy here only so much and so long as they could get the wheat at substantially the old figures.

There was likewise a large falling off in the outward

From the foregoing it is possible to get an idea of how large and general was the falling off in these leading agricultural staples. Going a step further, however, we find that taking the breadstuffs exports as a whole, values for 1904 were only $98,122,714, against $200,012,362 for 1903, $276,404,299 for 1901, $250,786,080 for 1900 and $269,955,771 for 1899. In this one item, therefore, there was a loss of 102 million dollars from 1903 and of 178 million dollars from 1901. At the same time the provisions exports also dropped off, they having a value of only 1661 million dollars in 1904 against 1811 million dollars in 1903 and 207 million dollars in 1901. The cotton movement fell half a million bales short of that for 1903 and also fell short of the average of other recent years. In the early months shipments were small because of the deficient crop of the previous season, while market prices continued to rule high. The latter part of the year the price dropped to very low figures (owing to the magnitude of the new crop) and exports were of really liberal volume; but nevertheless did not attain the extraordinary dimensions of the preceding year. The average export price for the twelve months, as it happens, was higher than for 1903, being 10 15-16 cents per pound against 10 7-16 cents, and this served to offset in part the loss resulting from the diminution in the quuntity shipped, still leaving, however, a loss in aggregate shipments of about 10 million dollars.

Combining breadstuffs, provisions and cotton, it is, found that the exports under these three heads for 1904 had a value of but  $633\frac{1}{2}$  million dollars, as against 760 million dollars for 1903—a loss of 126½ million dollars. Total merchandise exports for the twelve months, we have already seen, record a decrease of less than  $33\frac{1}{2}$ million dollars. How was the loss of the other 93 million dollars made good? From the following table it will be seen that there was an increase of almost  $8\frac{1}{2}$ million dollars in the petroleum exports and an increase of nearly 5 million dollars in the shipments of cattle, sheep and hogs; but that the bulk of the whole increase occurred under the head of "all other exports."

movement of corn. These corn shipments had been by no means large in 1903 at  $91\frac{3}{4}$  million bushels, but for 1904 the exports of that cereal reached less than  $46\frac{1}{2}$ million bushels. The exports of oats, which in good years have been fairly large, in 1904 were hardly more than nominal, amounting to only about  $1\frac{1}{4}$  million bushels, of a value of \$512,855. In 1901 almost 26 million bushels of oats went out and in 1900 over 32 million bushels. Then also the export movement of cotton fell considerably below that of the previous year. The situation in these various particulars is accurately portrayed in the following table, covering these last five years.

increase in the shipments of iron and steel in all their various forms, producers seeking through increased sales in the foreign markets to offset the falling off in the home demand for these articles. The increase under that head continued to the end of the year (probably on old contracts), though the home demand revived and prices for all grades of iron and steel again sharply advanced. For the eleven months to November 30 the iron and steel exports were $118,182,998, against $89,-682,747 for the eleven months of 1903. The copper exports were on an enormous scale, and reached (eleven months) $68,005,169, against only $38,417,414 in 1903. In quantity the copper exports were 507,378,384 pounds, against only 272,000,604, pounds in 1903. The foreign takings were evidently large mainly because producers were willing to accept low figures (notwithstanding that in this country the price of copper was sharply advanced, owing mainly to the diminution of supplies as the result of these large exports), the average export price for 1904 having actually been somewhat smaller than that for 1903—that is 12.8 cents, against 13.3 cents. The exports of leather and manufactures of the same were likewise larger and the exports of cotton manufactures also again improved. We annex the following to show the more important changes in the various items of miscellaneous exports.

The merchandise imports, which in 1903 had been the heaviest of any calendar year on record, further increased some 40 million dollars during 1904, bringing the total for the twelve months up to $1,035,907,370. These large imports must be accepted as evidence that there was no impairment of home consumptive capacity, notwithstanding the lack of activity in general trade in the United States for the greater part of the year. A noteworthy feature in the import trade, however, should not escape notice. While the bulk of the increase is found in two principal items, namely coffee and sugar, yet there seems to have been a distinct and well defined tendency towards a decrease in manufactured goods and an increase in raw materials and unmanufactured goods. The country increased its imports of hides (taking the figures for the eleven months in the case of all these separate items, since the statistics for the twelve months are not yet available) from $49,594,207 in 1903 to $52.-692,046 in 1904, and its imports of India rubber from $33,013,374 to $40,046,711. Then the imports of raw silk rose from $40,607,623 to $50,836,692, while the importations of manufactured silk were reduced from $31,-156,948 to $27,872,719. Again, the imports of manufactured wool decreased from $17,806,749 to $14,609,511, but the purchases of unmanufactured wool advanced from $21,348,674 to $26,141,280. Furthermore, we imported only $35,829,185 of manufactures of flax, hemp, etc., against $36,547,543, but took $32,957,582 of unmanufactured flax, hemp, etc., against $31,654,244. There was, we need hardly say, a great shrinkage in the imports of iron and steel, these purchases of cotton manufactures were also considerably reduced. As to the increase in the coffee and sugar imports, the former had a value of $77,341,993, against $53,824,420, and the latter a value of $81,053,330, against $58,162,389. Higher prices played an important part in the increases here, the average import value of coffee having been 7.83 cents per pound, against 6.26 cents, and the average import price of sugar 2.04 cents per pound, against 1.83 cents. Still, quantities were also enormously enlarged, the imports of coffee (eleven months) having been 987,277,012 lbs., against $59,572,-302 lbs., and the imports of sugar 3,963,497,168 lbs., against 3,172,764,157 lbs. Some of the more important changes in the imports of the last three years are shown in the table which we now subjoin.

With the merchandise exports close to the largest on record and the merchandise imports the heaviest by far ever reached, our total external trade for 1904 surpassed in value that of any preceding year. The following shows the totals for the last thirty-five years, both separately and combined.

ment, we were obliged to export net over 36 million dollars gold. Several causes accelerated the gold outflow, namely the $50,000,000 Panama Canal payment made by the United States, the placing here in May of onehalf the £10,000,000 of Japanese loan, and in November of half of the second Japanese loan for £12,000,000; likewise the floating in this country of considerable por. tions of the $40,000,000 loan of the United States of Mexico and the $35,000,000 loan of the Republic of Cuba. In May the exports of gold exceeded $43,000,-000 and in four other months the outflow ranged between 10 and 20 million dollars. All through the year, however, there were large imports of gold on the Pacific Coast. How the exports and imports for 1904 compare with preceding calendar years is shown in the annexed table.

Note .- For years 1886 to 1904, inclusive, the figures embrace gold and silver in ore; in the years preceding both were included in the merchandise movement.

Combining the balance on the merchandise movement with the gold and silver balances, we get the following results as to the country's total trade balance during the last five years.

It will thus be seen that for 1904 the aggregate trade balance in favor of the United States was $476,006,259, comparing with $4$4,973,728 for 1903, $406,076,356 for 1902 and $612,469,585 for 1901—all exceptionally large figures.

nary amount of bonds for improvements, and particularly the large sum devoted to railroad terminals at New York, St. Louis, Washington, Jersey City and Baltimore; (3) the entire absence of railroad reorganizations following bankruptcy; (4) the relatively small amount of bonds for refunding, but the very considerable amount replacing floating debt or short-term loans; (5) the small total of the stock additions, although these during the last half of the year were double in amount what they were for the first six months; (6) the further widening of the New York market for securities, as seen in the inclusion of Japanese Government bonds and the securities of the London Underground road; (7) the complete lack of new industrial consolidations, if we except a single mining proposition; but, on the other hand, (8) the very considerable aggregate reached by miscellaneous bond issues, including municipal and Government issues, as well as industrial enterprises, and, lastly, (9) the replacement of voting trust certificates to a total of not less than $352,000,000, by share certificates carrying full voting power.

The usual ten-year comparison is as follows:

This compilation shows that while the total amount of bonds added to the list in 1904 is 46 millions less than in 1903 and 388 millions less than in 1901, the new capital issues aggregate 429 millions, contrasting with only 1911 millions in 1903 and 245 millions in 1898, the latter being the previous record for the decade. On the other hand, the total of the stock listings in 1904 is only 176 millions, being far less than in any year since 1895, largely because of the absence during the late year of railroad reorganizations and industrial consolidations. The issues of shares for new capital, funding, etc., in 1904 reached a total of 1201 millions, as compared with 173 and 251 millions in the two years next preceding and 429<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> millions in the banner year 1901; from 1895-1898, however, the corresponding item ranged from 53 to 77 millions, or far less than the late year's aggregate.

LISTINGS ON THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE DURING THE YEAR 1904.

The listings on the New York Stock Exchange during the year 1904, as compiled in our usual form, disclose facts of considerable importance. Among these we note (1) the large increase in the output of bonds

In the following table we show the various purposes for which the several issues of bouds, railroads, street railways and miscellaneous were made.

This table is remarkable for the number of exception ally large issues which it includes. Leading the list in size is the issue of $40,000,000 Lake Shore bonds sold early in the year to retire the short-term notes which were issued in 1903 for the purchase, in connection with the Baltimore & Ohio, of a large interest in the Reading Company, as well as for other acquisitions. The 284 millions of Western Maryland 1st mortgage 4st mark the progress of the Gould system towards the Atlantic Coast, the bonds representing the purchase of the road from the City of Baltimore and large expenditures for new equipment, tidewater terminals and the construction of the line which is to connect the Western Maryland with the West Virginia Central & Pittsburgh, and through it with the remainder of the Gould lines. Some months will elapse before this connection; is completed. Other important additions are the $15,-154,000 of Chicago Rock Island & Pacific Railway refunding 4s, including the $15,000,000 "issuable forth-" with for general corporate purposes" under the terms of the new mortgage; 16 millions of Chicago Burlington & Quincy Illinois Division bonds, chiefly for improvements and additions; 18 millions of the new refunding 4s of the Terminal Railroad Association of St. Louis, issued on account of additional terminal facilities for the lines centering at that important city; 13 millions Erie Railroad bonds ($10,000,000 being convertible 4s), mostly for improvements and additions, particularly at the Jersey City terminal, and 10 millions Atchison general mortgage 4s, likewise representing principally improvements and additions.

Other noteworthy bond issues are 23 millions Louisville & Nashville collateral trust 4s, of which $12,630,-000 are for refunding, the remainder for new construction, acquisitions, new equipment, etc.; also $2,045,000 unified bonds of the same company; 15 million Southern Pacific 2-5-year collateral trust 41s, representing improvements, new equipment, etc., and $7,000,000 Baltimore & Ohio Pittsburgh Lake Erie & West Virginia System refunding 4s, of which $3,326,000 are for refunding and the balance for improvements, etc. For new milcage we have St. Louis & San Francisco, nearly 6 millions of 41 p. c. gold notes; M. K. & T., 8 millions of divisional issues; Minneapolis St. Paul & Sault Ste Marie, 7 millions of 1st consol 4s; 7 millions of Missouri Pacific (Iron Mountain) bonds, for the most part issued on account of the new line to New Orleans, and 8 millions of Illinois Central bonds on account of extensions in former years. preparation for its new tunnel connection with New York City, has caused the Long Island Railroad to sell and list $10,000,000 of guaranteed bonds secured by a new blanket mortgage; also, largely for the new Washington (D. C.) terminals, there were listed 10½ millions Philadelphia Baltimore & Washington RR. guaranteed bonds; and for refunding, $6,000,000 guaranteed bonds of the Pittsburgh Virginia & Charleston. The New York Central has listed 5 millions of bonds for refunding.

The Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company is engaged in important improvements, particularly in the increase of its power stations, and has sold and listed 10 millions of its convertible bonds. The building of the London underground electric system, in which American capitalists are taking important part, has led to the listing of 161 millions Underground Electric Railways of London profit-sharing 5 p. c. notes. The miscellaneous bond issues aggregate 175 millions, among the more noteworthy loans being 62 millions of New York City bonds! 50 millions of Japanese Government bonds, of which about half were taken in this country; 17 millions of second mortgage bonds of the United States Steel Corpora. tion: 20 millions convertible debentures of the Consolidated Gas Company of this city; 13 millions bonds of the reorganized Realty & Construction Company, and 7 millions of United States of America Philippine Land Purchase 4s.

included is the 40 millions of preferred stock sold by the Southern Pacific Company to its stockholders, to provide, with the proceeds of bonds above mentioned, for additions and improvements which will make the system compare favorably with the parent system—the Union Pacific Railroad. Speaking of the last-named company it is interesting to note that the improvement in the stock market during the last few weeks has occasioned the conversion of 11 millions of its convertible bonds into stock, reducing the amount of these bonds to $76,-489,000, and increasing correspondingly the amount of the company's common stock on the list. The New York New Haven & Hartford has sold and listed 91 millions of new share capital, chiefly for the improvement of its system. The Delaware & Hudson sold 7 millions of stock to its stockholders at $135 per share, using the proceeds to pay off bonds and for improvements. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has listed only 43 millions of its own stock, but has added the following amounts of stock of its subsidiary lines, namely, Pittsburgh Cincinnati Chicago & St. Louis, 5 millions; Pittsburgh Fort Wayne & Chicago, 5 millions; Northern Central, 53 millions; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 4 millions; the proceeds being principally for improvements, new equipment, etc. Other large increases are Chicago Great Western, 6<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> millions; Missouri Kansas & Texas, 7 millions; Wabash, 10 millions.

On the miscellaneous list are 16 millions stock of the United States Realty & Improvement Company, issued with the bonds already mentioned in part consideration for the stock of the United States Realty & Construction Company; 6 millions preferred stock of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, which was sold, placing the company in easy financial condition, and 15 millions (10 millions preferred) of the Federal Mining & Smelting Company.

The only additions to the unlisted department worth mentioning are the 35 millions Republic of Cuba gold 5s and $40,000,000 United States of Mexico 4s, which were placed by Speyer & Co. and Harvey Fisk & Sons; 17 millions new stock of the Canadian Pacific, 20 p. c. paid; temporary certificates for 40 millions of new Oregon Short Line refunding mortgage 4 p. c. bonds; certificates for 56 millions of 6 per cent and 78 millions each of 4 per cent bonds and preferred stock of the new American Tobacco Company and £12,000,000 Imperial Japanese Government 6 per cent sterling loan, second series.

Four voting trusts have been dissolved and the share certificates, carrying full voting power, have been distributed to the owners and listed on the Exchange, namely, the Erie, the Reading, the Wisconsin Central and the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railroad of Chicago. The voting trust of the Colorado Southern, it is expected, will be terminated early in 1905. The shares of the American Steel Foundries also have been re-admitted to the regular list.

The significant feature of the foregoing recital is evidently the large part played by the new issues of securities representing improvements and additions to railroad properties and terminals, double-tracking, heavier bridges, better alignment and new equipment—expenditures which it is evident will not continue permanently on the same scale. If, however, the present temper of the market continues, we may look for new stock and bond issues on account of new mileage to a greater amount, and possibly further issues for purposes of consolidation and control of no little moment.

In the compilations we present to-day new evidence is furnished showing how railroad earnings are steadily improving month by month. The results cover the month of November and the gains are large in both gross and net-this whether regard is had for the amount of increase or the ratio. The addition to gross reaches the sum of $11,249,088, or 9.77 per cent, being more than double the increase for October and over three times that for September. The addition to net is $6,691,843, or no less than 17.80 per cent.

November, it will be remembered, was the month when the World's Fair at St. Louis was still a potent influence in enlarging the passenger traffic of various roads throughout the country. The month also had one more working day, November 1904 having contained only four Sundays as against five in November 1903. Furthermore, general trade showed more distinct signs of revival than for a long time previously, while increasing activity developed in the iron and steel industry. On the other hand, the grain movement at the Western primary markets was smaller than in the previous year and the cotton movement in the South likewise failed (speaking of it as a whole) to equal that of the same month in 1903.

It is proper to point out that, in the case of the net earnings at least, comparison is with diminished results in the previous year. In fact November had shown a loss in net in both 1903 and 1902. The remark, however, does not apply to the gross, which still showed considerable increase in November 1903 and a much larger increase in 1902. In a word, the losses in net in these two previous years followed entirely from augmented expenses. Stated in brief, in November 1903 there had been $4,571,248 increase in gross with $582,-146 decrease in net and in November 1902 $6 506 446

CHICAGO STOCK EXCHANGE RECORD OF PRICES FOR 1904.

In view of the increasing importance which dealings on the Chicago Stock Exchange are assuming we have had compiled and present below a record of the highest and lowest prices for each month of the year 1904 in the case of all the leading stocks and bonds dealt in at that Exchange. We have used the official daily report of the Exchange in compiling the figures, which are based entirely on sales - no mere bid and asked prices being used. As announced on a previous page, we expect shortly to begin furnishing weekly price records of the Chicago Stock Exchange in the same elaborate way in which we now report dealings on the Boston Stock Exchange.

I beg to tender my resignation as Vice-President and director of this bank. After six years of active work in the bank, during which period its business has largely increased and its honorable and com. manding position has been steadily maintained, it is with regret that I sever my relations with you. I am, however, led to do this because my continuance with the bank exposes it to oriticism and attack, which should be personal to myself, as no officer or individual connected with the bank, except myself, had anything whatever to do with the oredit which was extended to Munroe & Munroe.

The amounts that were advanced to them were loaned in the ordinary course of business, and at all times I had ample collateral from them to seenre their loans. I believed at the time, and still believe, that the property of the Montreal & Boston Copper Co. is a valuable one, and I had no personal interest of any kind in the loans made to them.

I have been engaged in the banking business for upwards of forty years, during which time I think I may say that my record will speak for itself and not to my disparagement. If there has been any lack of judgment in these matters it is but proper that I alone should suffer the criticism.

My greatest satisfaction at the present moment is the confidence which has been shown me by my re-election as a director and Vice-President of the bank. It would, however, be ungenerous on my part to take advantage of this signal proof of your appreciation of what I may have been able to do for the bank in the past. I earnestly re. quest that you will take immediate action upon my resignation.

-One after another, the Chicago banks are finding their present quarters inadequate for transacting their rapidly increasing business. No less than five prominent banks of that city are either erecting new buildings for their own use or planning to do so soon, while others have leased larger quarters which they will occupy in the spring. The Hibernian Banking Association will probably be the first of these to move, and will take possession of the entire bank floor of the new Rector Building on the corner of Clark and Monroe streets. On May 1 the Metropolitan Trust & Savings Bank will remove to the Chicago Stock Exchange Bailding, occupying all of the second floor except that used by the Exchange itself. The area of floor space is over 5,300 square feet.

-Chicago has the promise of still another magnificent bank structure in the near future. The Commercial National Bank has about completed negotiations for a large site on the northeast corner of Clark and Adams streets, upon which it will erect, as soon as current leases expire, a massive building, the two lower floors of which will be devoted to its own uses and those of the Federal Trust & Savings Bank. The two institutions have some influential directors in common, but it is not yet determined which bank will occupy the first and which the second floor. At first the height of the new building will probably not exceed five or six stories, but the foundations and walls will be laid with the view of later converting it into a twenty story "skyscraper."

-President Eckels, of the Commercial National Bank, Chicago, announces the election of Mr. Ralph Van Vechten, at present Cashier of the Cedar Rapids (Iowa) National Bank, to the position of Second Vice-President of the Commercial National Bank. Mr. Van Vechten is an experienced banker, forty-two years of age. He entered the service of the Cedar Rapids National Bank in 1880, gaining by promotion the office of Cashier in 1897, which place he has since filled. At the recent meeting of the American Bankers' Association he was elected to the position of Treasurer of the Association. Mr. Van Vechten comes to the Commercial on February 15th.

-The following increase of deposits over those shown by the last published reports of the same Chicago State banks is noted in their statements of January 13:

Northern Trust Company	nt 700 000

[From our own correspondent.]

LONDON, Saturday, January 7, 1905.

After the short New Year holiday business opened well on Tuesday. Quotations were put up all around and a very hopeful feeling prevailed. For a couple of days this mood continued; but towards the close of the week business slackened, and under the influence of selling from Paris and Berlin quotations gave way. In Paris the internal condition of Russia naturally excites much uneasiness; and the uneasiness has been heightened this week by the very outspoken letter which Prince Troubetskoi has addressed to the Minister of the Interior.

Moreover, preparations are being made in Paris for the coming Russian loans. It is understood that the first instalment of the German portion of these loans will be brought out on the 12th. Germany is allotted 25 millions sterling. But only 16 millions sterling will be issued at first, it being understood that the syndicate of bankers has taken only 16 millions firm and has an option to take the remaining nine millions. It is understood that the syndicate has obtained the loan at somewhat under 90. All its expenses of every kind are to be paid, and besides it gets a commission of  $2\frac{3}{8}$ per cent for which it undertakes to take care of the bonds until the end of the year, it being bound to buy if necessary a stipulated portion. The syndicate of banks naturally is exerting itself to make the issue a success. The loan will be brought out simultaneously in Germany, Russia and Hol-throughout Germany is exceedingly gool and apparently is growing larger and more active. For the moment neither investment nor speculation is very active. But as soon as the Russian loan is disposed of, the best opinion in Berlin is that there will be a great outburst of speculation.

Considerable discussion has been occasioned by the bringing out of six millions sterling of Irish land stock. The Irish Land Act is proving more successful even than its best friends expected, and therefore the amount of new stock created is larger than was anticipated. The Irish Secretary, when introducing the bill, pledged himself not to issue for the first three years more than five millions per annum. He is now issuing six millions, which is regarded by the market as a breach of faith. No doubt the real truth is that the Irish Secretary finds himself in a dilemma. If he were to refuse to find the money for carrying the Act into effect he would offend the Irish landlords and might possibly cause them to cancel several sales. On the other hand, by increasing from five to six millions the issue, he is offending the City. Upon the whole, however, right-thinking people will before long decide that it is better to cause some little temporary inconvenience to the City than to risk damaging so great a measure as the Irish Land Act. The chief reason why the step is criticised is that consols, after rising sharply, have fallen back on the issue of the new stock, and the City argues that if stock guaranteed by the Government is to be brought out every time the market improves, it is impossible that there can be a real recovery in consols.

Money has become very abundant and cheap. The Government, in order to redeem Treasury bills, has borrowed heavily from the Bank of England, and thereby for the moment has flooded the outside market. For the last day or two, however, there has been a recovery in rates, because the French banks are buying all the gold that is off-red in the open market, doubtless in preparation for the Russian loans. And, moreover, the French exchange has declined. It is feared, therefore, that gold may be taken out of the Bank of England, and the Bank, at the present time, is not strong enough to part with much gold. Over and above this, it is to be recollected that the great French banks are employing very large balances in London, and if money becomes dearer in Paris than in London, those balances may be seriously drawn upon. It was generally expected that money would be plentiful and easy for the greater part of January. But the fall in the French exchange is making all engaged in the money market rather cautious. Indeed, the leading banks in the city are at present rather indisposed to take full three months bills. They feel that all the conditions are so unusual and so puzzling that they prefer to take short bills. As the month proceeds the collection of the revenue will become larger and larger. And if the Government acts wisely and avoids borrowing from the Bank of England, the revenue collections will tell after awhile and rates will again recover. Possibly even the Bank of England may regain its control of the outside market.

The India Council offered for tender on Wednesday 80 lacs of its drafts and the applications exceeded 444 iacs, at prices ranging from 1s. 41-32d. to 1s. 48 32d. per rupee. Applicants for bilis at 1s. 41-16d. and for telegraphic transfers at 1s. 43 32d. per rupee were allotted about 35 per cent of the amounts applied for.

The following return shows the position of the Bank of England, the Bank rate of discount, the price of consols, &c., compared with the last three years :

land. Preparations are being made for the loan both in Paris and in Berlin, and therefore there has been a good deal of selling of other securities, which accounts for the decline in quotetions as the week has advanced.

In Paris investors are not only preparing to subscribe for the German issue," they are preparing likewise for their own issue, which will amount to about 32 millions sterling. In addition there are several home loans coming out. For instance, the D<sub>3</sub>partment of the S<sub>3</sub> ine is about to borrow. The best opinion in Paris is that once the loan in Germany is placed, there will be an improvement, not only in Germany but in France too, and that business, therefore, will become much more active.

In Germany the preparations for the Russian loan have likewise checked business, there being a good deal of selling by persons who desire to participate in the issue. Trade

WALL STREET, FRIDAY, JAN. 20, 1905.-5 P. M.

The Money Market and Financial Situation .- The volume of business at the Stock Exchange is largely in excess of that of last week. This increase is due in part to activity in certain issues for specific reasons, as noted in our review of the stock market below, but as it is most conspicuous in the bond department, a larger investment demand is suggested. Perhaps a somewhat better feeling prevails than of late, the evidence of which is seen, as usual, in a less restricted market for securities.

Higher dividend ra es are sufficient to account for some of the increased activity, as well as an advance in the prices of a few issues during the week; but in other cases, notably that of Reading, the cause is not so apparent.

The gold movement is beginning to attract attention, it having been announced that all the bars that will be available for some time to come have been engaged for shipment abroad. Accompanying this announcement are slightly higher call-loan rates, and in view of the present state of our foreign trade, which shows a considerable increase of imports as well as decreased exports, it is not surprising that the movement of gold should be watched with interest.

The open market rates for call loans on the Stock Exchange during the week on stock and bond collaterals have ranged from 134 to 3 p. c. To day's rates on call were  $2@2\frac{1}{2}$  p. c. Frime commercial paper quoted at  $3\frac{1}{2}@4$  p. c. for endorsements and 3<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>@4 p. c. for best single names. The Bank of England weekly statement on Thursday showed an increase in bullion of £1,280,543 and the percent-age of reserve to liabilities was 46.79, against 44.52 last week, the discount rate remaining unchanged at 3 per cent. The Bank of France shows an increase of 11,300,000 francs in gold and 3,150,000 francs in silver.

A more active market for railway and industrial bonds snggests, as noted above, an increasing investment demand. The transactions have been better distributed than usual, but were still heaviest in low-grade issues.

Union Pacific convertible 4s continue the most active bonds and, following the course of the stock, advanced over 2 points. Chicago Terminal 4s, coupons off, have been in such demand as to cause an advance of over 10 points. American Tobacco issues were in request at steadily advanc-ing prices. Seaboard Air Line gold 4s, Burlington & Quincy joint 4s, the Rock Island and the Erie issues have been prominent for activity and strength.

United States Bonds .- Sales of Government bonds at the Board include \$3,000 3s, coup., 1908-18, at  $1(5\frac{1}{2}; $1,000 4s, coup., 1907, at 105\frac{1}{2}, and $3,000 4s, reg., 1907, at <math>1(5\frac{1}{2})$ . Railroad and Miscellaneous Stocks .- The stock market continues decidedly irregular but is again more active, the transactions on Wednesday amounting to nearly 1,400,000 shares. A few issues have steadily advanced throughout the week, some have declined, but more have moved within narrow limits and close without notable change.

Reading led the upward movement by an advance of 10 points to the highest quotations in recent years. St. Paul & Omaha advanced 25 points on an increase of its dividend and North West., under the same influence, moved up 11 points. Pere Marquette, which sold at 77 within two weeks, has advanced to 94 on the guaranty of a 5-per-cent annual dividend by the C. H. & D.

Industrial shares have generally been neglected. Ameri can Steel Foundries was conspicuous for an advance of over 9 points. After moving up  $2\frac{1}{2}$  points, American Sugar Refining has lost more than half the gain. The iron and steel issues have been relatively strong.

For daily volume of business see page 214.

The following sales have occurred this week of shares not represented in our detailed list on the pages which follow.

RAILROAD GROSS EARNINGS.

The following table shows the gross earnings of every STEAM railroad from which regular weekly or monthly returns can be obtained. The first two columns of figures give the gross earnings for the latest week or month, and the last two columns the earnings for the period from .July 1 to and including such latest week or month. We add a supplementary statement to show the fiscal year totals of those roads whose fiscal year does not begin with July, but covers some other period. The returns of the street railways are brought together separately on a subsequent page.

Net Earnings Monthly to Latest Dates.—The following shows the gross and net earnings to latest dates of all STEAM railroads furnishing monthly statements. The compilation includes every road from which we can get returns of this character, and in that form is given once a month. Early returns are published from week to week, as soon as issued, but for the convenience of our readers all the roads making returns are brought together here in the week in which we publish our monthly article on net earnings—say about the 20th of the month.

The present daily mine capacity [in our territority], 35,000 tons, gives for 260 working days an annual output of 9,100,000 tons ("an increase in coal tonnage of about 50 p.c."). In addition to this tonnage, mines operated on the lines of the Wabash-Pittsburgh Ter-minal Ry. have a capacity of, and are under contract to ship over the Wabash-Pittsburgh Terminal R7. and the Wheeling & Lake Eris R 4., a minimum of 4,000,000 tons annually. With the opening of the Pitts-burgh territory to the Wheeling & Lake Eris there will be a large toonage offered of miscellaneous traffic-ores, lumber, iron, steel and manufactures—and your lines and equipment must be put in condi-tion to receive and transport it. Ninety per cent of this large traffic will pass over the main line between Pittsburgh Junction, Huron and Toledo, and this portion of the line should be donble-tracked as soon as possible. The dock and terminal facilities at Huron should be donbled. doubled.

At least 2,000 50-ton coal cars (additional to the 1,500 now being delivered) should be contracted for at once. NEED OF FINANOIAL PLAN.—These are the immediate requirements of the company (if it is to profit from the Pittsburgh and other devel-opments), and in addition to this there is the cost of the Adena Exten-sion—already built and paid for but not financed—the Toronto Exten-sion, Zanesville Beit & Terminal, Pittsburgh Lisbon & Weetern and Youngstown branches to be provided for at an extended for Youngstown branches, to be provided for at an early date. As your railway lines are located in the midst of towns an i citizs of great indus-trial and commercial activities, with hundreds of thousands of acres of coal lands tributary to it and its allies, the demand for new branches, spurs and increased fac'lities for handling the constantly growing traffic will continue for years to come, and it is evident that some broad, comprehensive plan must be devised for furnishing the furned a for the work financial basis for this work.

If the proper facilities, double track, equipment and terminals are provided by the company as above indicated, the gross earnings of the company will be doubled in the next three years.

Of the total tonnage, bituminous coal in 1903-04 furnished 2,940,701 tons (51.12 p. c.), against 2,600,162 tons (44.16 p. c.) in 1902-03.

The company's equipment on June 30, 1904, included :

Locomotives, 146, of which 36 switching, 29 consolidation, 8 mognl, 50 freight 10 wheel and 23 passenger 8-wheel; passenger cars, 68; freight cars, 9.714, with total capacity of 297,470 tons, contrasting with 7,969 freight cars on June 30, 1901, of total capacity of 205,840 tone.

The General Manager desires in addition 15 consolidation and 6 switching engines.

(Report for Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 1904.) President J. Ramsey Jr. says in substance:

GENERAL REGULTS.—The gain in gross carnings over the previous year was only $90,511. Operating expenses increased $42,237. The gross e roings were very materially affected by three factors: (1) The unprecedented severe winter from the end of December, 19 '3. to April, 1904; (2) the late opening of lake navigation, due to the late spring, and to the the up of vessels by the strike, no vessels having been loaded until near the end of Jane; and (3) the tempory closing down of a great many of the large steel works, furnaces and mills, and the two months' strike of miners.

The gross earnings for the first six months of the year were $2,356,-The gross earbings for the first six months of the year were $2,300, 898, an increase of $246,276 over the same period of the previous year, while for the six months-January to Jane, inclusive—the earn-ings decreased $155, 65. Of this decrease $131,149 was in the months of May and June, showing the heavy loss due to the delay in starting the lake trade and the miners' strike. The severe winter also caused a large increase in the cost of queration a large increase in the cost of operation. REQUIREMENTS TO MEET GROWING TRAFFIC.—The report of the General Manager shows in detail the various improvements to the property—increase in sidings, spurs and new mine openings—and draws particular attention to the need of additional equipment and motive news motive power.

Mexican Central Railway Co.

(Report for Eighteen Months Ending June 30, 1904.)

The report of President A. A. Robinson contains in brief the following information :

MILEAGE.—The total operated mileage Dec. 31, 1902, was 2,686; to this was added on Jan. 1, 1903, 229 miles, making a total of 2,915 miles. On May 1, 1903, the track between Paredon and Trevino, a distance of 18 miles, was taken up, which made the average operated road for the eighteen months ended June 30, 1904, 2,987 miles. The San Pedro extension between San Pedro and Paredon was com-pleted during 1903. The extension of the Panuco Division from Lecheria to Bandoval and Pachuca was completed during 1903, and this extension, together with the Pachuca Zaonitipan & Tampico Ry, which was purchased during 1902, was added to the operated mile-age on Jan. 1, 1904. [The total road operated on July 1, 1904, excluding eide tracks, was

[The total road operated on July 1, 1904, excluding eide tracks, was 3,155 miles, of which 258 miles was added Jan. 1, 1904, viz : San Pedro Extension, Ban Pedro to Paredon, 138 miles: Panuco Extension, Lecheria to Apulco, 88 miles; Tepenacasco to Honey, 22 miles, and Telles to Pachuca, 10 miles.] During the 18 months ended June 30, 1904, there were constructed 52:37 miles of side tracks, making the total of side tracks July 1, 1904, 343:49 miles.

RENEWALS, ETC .- The rail renewals during the 18 mos. were 13,130

Renewals, Erc.—The rail renewals during the 18 mos. were 13,130 tons of new 75-pound and 83-pound steel. Since the rall renewals were commenced, in 1896, track has been relaid with 56, 66, 75 and 83-pound steel rail to a total of 761.68 miles, or 25½ per cent of the total average operated milesge for the 18 months ending June 30, 1904. [Since Dec. 31, 1898, 573 miles of track have been relaid, all with 75-83-pound steel, mostly the former.] The tie renewals for the eighteen months were 1.359,567, costing $1,598,694, compared with 631,972 in the year 1902, at a cost of $720,919. The total number of ties renewed from 1883 to June 30, 1904.inclusive, has been $,214,080. During the 18 months 3,307 feet of temporary bridging were filled with earth, 1.390 feet were replaced, iron onlverts, 1,107 feet replaced by stone culverts and 5,935 feet by iron atructures, making a total of 11,789 feet of temporary bridging replaced, as far as practicable, with permanent etructures of stone or iron or a combina-tion of the two, and only creeosoted material is need when wooden etructures are rebuilt, insuring a bridge of at least twice the life of one built of nntreated timber. The bridging on June 30, 1904, aggre-gated 114,096 feet, wiz : gated 114,096 feet, viz :

In June, 1904, there was charged to income account $428,333. The principal items in-oluded in the total $5,192,282 (Mexican currency) are: Grading. $311,253; ballast, $70,332; cross ties, $29,365; rails, $169,600; rail fastenings, $47,725; tunnels, $131,138; bridges and culverts, $906.-576; buildings and shops, $475,777; water stations, $319,649; tools and machinery in shops, $555,685; wharves and docks, $114,300; equipment, $2,007,964. Daring the year 1903 the Barrientos tunnel, about 13 miles north of the City of Mexico, was constructed under a joint arrangement with the National RB. of Mexico. The construction of this tunnel reduces the length of the line 2,855 feet, the curvature $25 degrees and the maximum grade from 149 p. o. to 0.6 p. c. The additions, betterments and improvements to the operated line during the years 1895 to June 30, 1904, inclusive, charged to capital account have amounted to $6,217,812 United States currency. PRICE OF SILVER.— The maximum price at which the company sold bridging was replaced by permanent structures and 13½ miles of track was ballasted. The work of ditching and widening the embank-ments was contineed, so that this road is in much better condition for enccessful operation than heretofore. This branch was connected with the main line at Torreon on Jan. 1, 1904, by the construction of 137'72 miles of new railway between Paredon and San Pedro. This new ontlet will be of great advantage to Northern, Mexico in develop-ing that important mineral region. Washouts during the eighteen months actually cost $229,289, Mexi-can currency, besides causing serious delays to main line traffic. The San Luis division was opened for traffic from the main line at Chicalote, near Aguascalientes, to Tampico in 1892. Owing to the undeveloped condition of its local territory and the depreciation in silver, this extension has never, up to this time, been remunerative. If silver, however, had remained at the value in gold which it had at the time this branch was projected, the same would have been a profit-able enterprise. Owing to the yellow fever epidemic prevailing on the Monterey division during seven months of 1903, and to its incom-plete condition, the result of its operation was unfavorable; but the result of 1904, showing improved returns from month to month, fully meets the expectation of your management in purchasing the Mon-terey & Mexican Guif Railway and in building it to a connection with the main line at Torreon. Eliminating the San Luis and Monterey divisions from the balance of your mileage, we find that the operating ratio for the eighteen the main line at Torreon. Eliminating the San Luis and Monterey divisions from the balance of your mileage, we find that the operating ratio for the eighteen months was 62.62 per cent of the gross. The large withdrawal from the trust fund up to July 1, 1904, was made necessary by the very low price of ailver prevailing during the last eighteen months, the decline in value of Mexicau eilver dollars in gold from the prevailing price in 1900 and 1901 of over four cents, goid, representing a net loss of over $500,000 gold. Attention is called to the expenditure of $2,276,941 40 for better-ments and improvements made to the property during the eighteen ments and improvements made to the property during the eighteen months ending June 30, 1904. In making these expenditures the operating expenses during 1902 and 1903 were materially increased, so that the operating percentage for the current months is much bet-ter than for the months prior to July, 1904.

The annual earnings, income account and balance sheet follow:

Oontract with San Francisco Trolley Line, -A contract has seen entered into with the United Railroads of San Francisco by which the latter agree to purchase all their elec-ricity from the California Gas & Electric Corporation for twenty years beginning Jan. 1, 1906. Preparatory to sup-olying the large amount of electricity thus required and to provide against any possible interruption of the power from he company's long-distance hydro-electric system, the Corporation has placed an order with the Crocker-Wheeler Co., Ampere, N. J, for three 4,000-kw. capacity, 3 phase, 13,200-volt. alternators, to be driven by three 6,000 h. p. gas en-gines. To supply these gas engines there will be one gasholder having a capacity of 1,000,000 cubic feet and two of 200,000 cubic feet capacity.

Various rumors have been affoat regarding plans of one interest or another for the establishment of electric and gaslighting plants in San Francisco independent of the San Francisco Gas & Electric Co. It has been thought by some that the gas engines, said to be the largest in the world, which will furnish power for the aforesaid plant, would be accompanied by the sale of gas for illuminating purposes; but the officials do not encourage this ides. General Manager Dwight advises us that all work is being prosecuted regularly at the mines, and that developments continue to be ex-tremely satisfactory. A crush in the large ore body of the Veda Grande closed up several chutes early in December, which reduced the export ore shipped during the past month. The reopening of the chutes is practically completed. At the concentrator, Section C weat into operation Jan. 10; Section D, the last of the four sections of the con-centrator, will come in in a few days. In view of many rumors relat-ing to change of control, etc., it is but justice to eay that the closing of the books for the payment of the last dividend shows that the stock is more widely distributed than it it ever has been, two of the largest holdings in the company having been marketed during the past month and gone into the hands of many small investors. The present man-agement owns and controls more stock to day than at any previous time in the last three years. Dividend No. 9 was paid Dcc. 20th, making $1.775.200 paid

The upset price was later set as de and the properties offered several times without obtaining bids satisfactory to the court. To protect the interests of the creditors and debenture holders at this sale, a committee has been formed consisting of George W. Fairchild, J. Craig Havemeyer, James Talcott, Rudolph H. Kissel and Clinton R. Weeden, which has lodged a depositary agreement with the Guardian Trust Co., New York. The committee is authorized to bid in the property at not exceeding $300,000.

After adjusting the receivers' obligations there are two alternative plans open to the committee:

(1) To organize a new company with a capital of $3,500,000, divided into $500,000 7 p. c. cumulative preferred stock and $3,000,000 com-mon stock, all of which is to be issued in payment for the properties and assets acquired.

(2) If it should for any reason prove impracticable for the new com-pany to take over, retain or operate the properties, the committee is to liquidate the asserts as speedily as practicable and distribute the proceeds to the assenting creditors and debenture holders, first re-paying their cash contributions, with interest, and dividing the surplus ratably among them.

The deposit of securities and payment of the 10 p. c. contribution must be made with the depositary, the Guardian Trust Co., New York City, not later than Jan. 21, at noon .-V. 79, p. 2208, 1706.

Pennsylvania Furnace Co.-Suit to Enjoin Sale.-Gon. E. Burd Grubb, a stockholder, instituted equity proceedings in Common Pleas Court last week to enjoin the sale of the property at Sheridan and Cornwall, Pa., to Robert E. J. Cor-coran of Brooklyn, N. Y., for $130,000.-V. 77, p. 454.

Pocahontas Collieries Co.-Exchange of Bonds for Direct First Mortgage Bonds.-The Pocahontas Collieries Co. of New Jersey was organized in 1902 and purchased the entire capital stock of the Pocahontas Collieries Co. of Virginia, issuing against the same $1,250,000 bonds (V. 74, p. 941). The capital stock authorized is $1,500,000 all of one class; outstanding $1,378,000; remainder in treasury; par of shares $100. Nearly all of the stock is held in a ten-year voting trust by the Mississippi Valley Trust Co., St. Louis. No. bonds.

tric Co. The contract with that corporation was terminated last fall, and the new management is preparing to go into the illuminating business on its own account. President Michaels is quoted as saying :

We have given out a contract for $250,000 worth of piping, which is to be delivered in forty-five days. We will be in a position by May 1st to deliver gas within a certain radius. Our mains will take in the territory bounded by Beach, Sansome, Market and Powell streets, but our delivery will take in a greater portion than this. This will be the beginning, and we will extend to outlying portions of the city at as early a date as possible. We are not going to confine our operatione entirely to gas. We have ordered an electric plant complete, and will be in a position in a few months to distribute electricity. The present price for gas in San Preprince of the present

The present price for gas in San Francisco is $1 per thousand cubic feet.

Tremont & Suffolk Mills.-Dividend Passed.-This company, which in 1903 and 1904 paid semi-annual dividends at the rate of 6 p. c. per annum on its $2,000,000 stock and in 1901 and 1902 4 p. c. and 8 p. c., respectively, has decided to make no distribution at the present time. An official of the company is quoted as saying :

Our company, in common with New England mills in general, has suffered in the past six months from the unfavorable conditions in the cotton industry. Our business in the past half-year showed us no profit, and, as a natural esquence, we passed our usual semi-annual dividend. Southern mill competition also is hurting the New England mills. The demoralized market for raw cotton, while an important influence affecting the cotton business, is secondary to Southern mill competition. With a steady or improved raw cotton market from now on, octton business should improve.—V. 69, p. 704.

United Box Board & Paper Co.-Plan Effective,-The stockho'ders and the underwriters, all of whom are also stockholders, have subscribed for the entire amount of the company's holdings (35,788.300) in American Strawboard stock under the plan (V. 79, p. 2700, 2751, 2800), thus providing the company with about $1,000,000 of working capitai Selling Agency Wound Up.—The Paper Products Co., which was organized in December, 1903, to act as a selling agency for the leading box-board manufacturers is we Oswego Falls Pulp & Paper Company's Plant Re-conviyed. —All outstanding litigation growing out of the acquisition of the Oswego Falls Pulp & Paper Co. at the time of the formation of the company in 1902 having been settled and discontinued, the United Box Board & Paper Co. on Jan. 19 filed (1) a deed conveying back to the Oswego company its plant at Fulton, N.Y., and (2) a purchase money mort.for $175,-000 given by the Oswego company for part of the purchase price. As a result of this settlement there was returned to the United Box Board & Paper Co. nearly $1,000,000 each of its preferred and common stock, thus reducing the outstand-ing capitalization; also several hundred thousand dollars of its own first mortgage bonds, so that deducting recent pay-ments the company will have outstanding considerably less than $1,000,000 of first mortgage bonds in all. The plant at Oswego manufactures newspaper, but will not, it is stated, be a competitor in the box board industry. Compare V. 77, p. 40. - V. 79, p. 2800.

Converse, Chairman; Theodore H. Freeland, Presi-dent; Warren L. Green, First Vice-President; Jared K. Myers, Second Vice-President; John E. Currier, Secretary and Treasurer, and F. Speculation in cotton for future delivery has been quiet. Fluctuations in prices have been within a narrow range, and for the week values show a net change of only a few points. The feature of the situation is the tenacity with which South-ern planters continue to hold cotton. Both exporters and spinners, it is understood, stand ready to buy freely on the parity of the New York contract market, but they have been anable to find sellers of supplies of importance, they holding for higher prices. Bear interests have continued to keep pressure on the market, especially on the more distant deliveries, they believing that the weight of the large supplies of cotton which planters are supposed to be holding back will eventually make itself felt. The Ginners' Report, showing the yield of the present cotton crop to January 16, is expected to be published during the coming week. Large figures are expected, which bear interests anticipate will tend to discourage Southern holders and dislodge at least some of the cotton now being held. Early in the week there was a slight advance in prices on the light offerings from the South and some buying by shorts to cover con-tracts. Subsequently, however, under bear pressure and absence of support, the market turned easier, losing the advance. To day there was a quiet and slightly easier market. The close was steady at 2@4 points lower for the day. Cotton on the spot has been quiet but steady, closing at 7.25c. for middling uplands.

BREADSTUFFS.

FRIDAY, Jan. 20, 1905.

A feature of the market has been the pressure to sell Kan sas flours, and to move supplies sellers have accepted lower prices, the sales made being at $5 25 to 5 85 for straights and $540@550 for patents. The demand for spring-wheat flour has been slow but prices have been well maintained, especially for choice grades. City mills have been reported as quiet but steady. The demand for rye flour has been light but prices have held steady. Buckwheat flour has had a limited sale at unchanged prices. Corn meal has been in better demand and steady.

Speculation in wheat for future delivery has been quiet and there has been a slight yielding in prices. Immediately following our last report there was a fractional advance, shorts being buyers to cover contracts, stimulated by strong advices from the Northwestern markets and a light crop movement; the early week statistical developments showing good decreases in the visible supply operated in favor of the Subsequently, however, there developed a weakere market. undertone. The feature was a freer movement of thr crop, the receipts at the interior markets showing faiincreases, and the advices from the West reported freer of ferings of cash wheat. Weather conditions in both this country and in Europe were reported generally favorable for the winter wheat orop. Reports from the interior say that winter wheat as a rule is under snow. The weekly figures of the export movement of Argentine wheat, it was estlmated on Thursday, would show large shipments to Europe, and this had a weakening influence upon values. Locally the spot market has been quiet and easier. To-lay the market was weaker early in the day, due to speculative holders liquidating, but at the close there was a recovery. The spot market was quiet.

Sept. delivery in elev.... 9158 914 9148 9112 Indian corn futures have continued to attract merely a limited amount of speculative attention and only fractional changes have occurred in prices, the undertone of the market holding fairly steady. The movement of the crop has reached only very moderate figures, and this has induced a limited amount of investment buying through commission houses. Ou the other hand, however, the trade demand has not been satisfactory, exporters have not taken supplies as freely as expected, and the buying by the home trade has lacked spirit. The export business in the local market has been light, but there has been a moderate amount of corn sold for shipment via the Gulf ports. To-day the market was steadier on reports of fairly large export sales in the local market, Oats for future delivery at the Western market have been quiet, and there has been a fractional decline in prices. Early in the week the market held steady, a fair decrease in the visible supply figures favorably influencing the market. Subsequently, however, owing to the lack of interest shown by buyers, there developed a slightly easier tone. Locally there has been a moderately active and steady market. Today the market held steady.

THE DRY GOODS TRADE.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, P. M., January 20, 1905.

difficulty in securing quick delivery of goods that they require. In spite of this, however, their orders are confined to prompt shipments. Converters admit an improvement in business, but have not appeared as buyers, claiming that previous purchases are sufficient to keep them going for some time. Light-weights have only been in moderate demand, but prices show no change. It has been reported that a few sales of 3 and 3.25-yard sheetings have been made to China during the week, but lots have been small and there are as yet no signs of any substantial increase in this class of business. The orders for bleached goods have been of a retail character, but prices have been firmly held and there is a continued scarcity of supplies, particularly of low-count goods. Denims have been somewhat irregular and it is re-ported that present prices may be revised shortly. Ticks, plaids and other coarse, colored cotton goods have been qulet at recent figures. There has been no new development in canton flannels and cotton blankets. Kid-finished cambrics have been less active, but the prospects for the future are bright. Staple prints still move slowly and business in fancies has been unsatisfactory. Staple and fine grades of ginghams show no change either in the volume of business transacted or in prices. Print cloths are irregular with wide 643 rather firmer and narrow goods slightly easier, the latter on the basis of  $2\frac{3}{4}$ c. for regulars.

WOOLEN GOODS.—Several new lines of men's-wear worsted fabrics have been opened during the week at prices ranging from 15 to 20 per cent above those of last year, and it is stated that some of the higher grades of goods to be opened later will show even further advances. This is a source of satisfaction to buyers who have already purchased heavily at a lower level of prices than that prevailing at the present time. The number of buyers in town has largely increased and trading continues of large volume. There is some doubt as to the position that mercerized worsteds will finally occupy in the market, but for the moment they are being heavily purchased, principally owing to the success that they met with in the spring season. On the whole, worsteds so far have proved more popular than woolens, but this may be reversed when the higher grades are shown and when the re-order business commences. As far as colors are concerned, browns are the favorites in the cheaper goods, but grays pre-dominate in the medium and higher grades Several lines of dress goods have been opened during the week, but the in-terest in these is so far small. Prices are higher, but the market has not yet found its level. Blankets have again been advanced during the week, but at present considerable irregularity exists.

FOREIGN DRY GOODS.-Imported woolen and worsted dress goods have been quiet during the week, with prices firm but little that is new in the way of development. Silk prices have again been advanced. Ribbons are quiet and firmly held. Linens are considerably more active, with reorders heavy. Burlaps have again become firmer after the recent slight reaction.
