REVIEW OF JANUARY.

January was an eventful month, and, unfortunately, most of the developments were of an unfavorable nature. It brought full disclosure of the President's radical purposes and policies and a vigorous expression of his determination to carry them into effect through legislative and executive action. This was undoubtedly the feature of greatest prominence, and the one that brought repeated sharp declines in prices. But there were many other depressing elements and circumstances.

The conditions which were to be the prevailing ones made themselves manifest at the very beginning of the month, namely on Monday, Jan. 3, the year's first business day. A wave of depression then passed over the financial markets, due to the unfavorable budget of news received. A sharp upward spurt in money rates proved of only temporary duration, and the possibility of a strike at the copper mines and smelters in Montana of the Amalgamated Copper Co., owing to the reluctance of the men to handle ore transported by the Great Northern Railway with non-union switchmen (engaged after the switchmen's strike the previous month), also proved a mere temporary matter, the smelters' union eventually agreeing to let its members handle ore no matter whether transported on trains switched by members of the striking switchmen's union or not. As it happened, however, the news dispatches from Chicago and other Western centres also spoke of blizzards and continued severe weather in the West, under which railroad operations were being seriously crippled; and the effects of that drawback did not pass away so readily.

As a matter of fact, the same adverse weather conditions quickly extended to the eastern half of the country, impeding railroad operations here, too, and interfering more or less with the conduct of general trade. On Friday, Jan. 14, a severe snow-storm enveloped this city and vicinity, lasting until the morning of the next day, during which snow fell to a depth of 14.6 inches, making it one of the noteworthy snowstorms on record. The latter part of the month the weather moderated considerably, but, speaking generally, heavy snow-storms and severe cold were a feature of the month, both in the West and in the northern portions of the eastern half of the country.

As already indicated, however, much the most serious development of the month was the disclosure of the Government's plans regarding railroads and the country's industrial combinations. A reminder of the situation in that respect came in the news reports from Washington on Jan. 3, saying that the U. S. Supreme Court was hearing argument on the American Tobacco Co. case, and that the Government was asking to have the Standard Oil case advanced on the dockets of that tribunal. Both covered cases of industrial combinations which had been declared by the lower courts as in conflict with the Anti-Trust Law of 1890. The prayer to have the Standard Oil action advanced for hearing was subsequently granted. But the matter which engrossed perhaps the most attention was the intelligence received on the same day of a conference of leading railroad presidents then in session with Mr. Taft at Washington. It appeared that the conference had been arranged the previous week by Mr. J. P. Morgan, who had urged the President to hear the views of leading representatives of railroad interests before sending in his special message dealing with proposed amendments to the Inter-State Commerce Law, and with propositions for ameliorating the effects of the operation of the Anti-Trust Law. The men who called in a body on Mr. Taft were President W. C. Brown of the New York Central, James McCrea of the Pennsylvania, R. S. Lovett of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific, George F. Baer of the Reading, Chas. F. Mellen of the New Haven and W. W. Finley of the Southern Ry. The delegation were, of course, very courteously received. They did not succeed in changing the President in his main purpose, and it is not clear whether the President made any essential modifications in his recommendations as the result of their visit. The special message went to Congress the following Friday (Jan. 7), and it contained practically all the things which the President had been so strenuously advocating. One of the recommendations was for the establishment of a special tribunal, to be known as the "United States Court of Commerce," and to be clothed with exclusive original jurisdiction in cases arising under the Inter-State Commerce Law. As this Court was not to be a political or partisan body, but to be composed of five judges designated for such purpose from among the Circuit Judges of the United States, this particular suggestion was not unfavorably received. The remainder of the recommendations, however, were nearly all highly disturbing. The Inter-State Commerce Commission was to have the right to initiate rate reductions and to prevent advances in rates; the roads were no longer to be allowed to acquire stock in competing lines, preventing the community-of-interest arrangements which had existed in the past; new capital issues were to be dependent upon the will of the Commission, and new stock was not to be sold for less than its face value, &c., &c.

The recommendations regarding the Anti-Trust Law did not at first attract any great amount of attention, but became very disturbing the more they were studied. It appeared in the first place that notwithstanding the harsh working of the Anti-Trust Law, the President wanted it left unchanged. In the second place, Mr. Taft made it plain that the same comprehensive Government activity which had been arranged for the transportation industry was contemplated with reference to the country's great manufacturing corporations. Federal corporation was suggested with this express purpose in mind, regulation of the activity of these manufacturing and business corporations by the U. S. Government being made a condition of Federal incorporation. What created, perhaps, the greatest amount of alarm was the explicit declaration that the President contemplated extensive prosecutions of industrial combinations if the U. S. Supreme Court should uphold the Government's contentions in the Tobacco and Oil cases. This declaration was couched in these words: "It is the duty, and the purpose, of the Executive to direct an investigation by the Department of Justice, through the Grand Jury or otherwise, into the history, organization and purposes of all the industrial companies with respect to which there is any reasonable ground for suspicion that they have been organized for a purpose, and are conducting business on a plan which is in violation of the Anti-Trust Law."

Particular emphasis seemed to be given to this declaration by the announcement in the morning papers on Saturday, Jan. 22, that the Department of Justice had determined to bring proceedings against the "Beef Trust" before the new Federal Grand Jury in Chicago. Moreover, when this Federal Grand Jury was impaneled the following Monday (Jan. 24) it appeared that it was to sit before Judge Landis, who had made himself so notorious in imposing a fine of $29,240,000 on the Standard Oil Co. (which action was subsequently reversed by the higher courts). Judge Landis furthermore actually went out of his way to announce that he, also, had planned a beef trust inquiry, and had notified the U. S. District Attorney that he would direct the attention of the jury to the subject of such an investigation.

Additional importance had been given to the President's purpose in all these regards by the action very early in the month of a committee of the American Federation of Labor, headed by Samuel Gompers, in petitioning Mr. Taft to investigate the United States Steel Corporation as an illegal combination doing business in violation of the Anti-Trust Law. Further evidence that the Administration did not intend to relent in the prosecution of railroad and other corporations assumed to be contravening the Anti-Trust Law also appeared in the statement given out from Washington on Jan. 28 saying that President Taft had directed Attorney-General Wickersham to proceed with the Government's suit against the Harriman combination of roads. This indicated the failure of the attempt on the part of President Lovett of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads to induce the Government to discontinue the suit. In this suit the Government contends that the union of the Union Pacific with the Southern Pacific constitutes an illegal combination notwithstanding that one of the lines owned by the Southern Pacific is the Central Pacific, which latter, in conjunction with the main line of the Union Pacific, constitutes the first through route to the Pacific Coast built on this continent. One of the minor disturbing incidents of the month was a decision by the U. S. Supreme Court announced Jan. 10 in which the Court held that the Inter-State Commerce Commission possessed powers to order a distribution of cars among different shippers in times of a car shortage and laid down the rule that, to provide a just and equal distribution, the Commission can include even the cars reserved by a road for carrying its own fuel.

As far as the Stock Exchange is concerned, a highly disturbing incident was the collapse of the pool which had been operating for about a year in the stock of the Columbus & Hocking Coal & Iron Co. This came on Jan. 19, when the stock, which had sold on Jan. 4 at 92½, dropped all of a sudden from 88½ to 25. The collapse caused the failure of three Stock Exchange houses, Lathrop, Haskins & Co., Roberts, Hall & Criss and J. M. Fiske & Co. The pool was understood to have been managed by James R. Keene The Stock Exchange immediately began an investigation.

In the general depression ruling on the Stock Exchange and in financial circles as the result of these various events, sight was lost of numerous favorable happenings and events, such as the development of great ease (after the early spasm) in our local money market, the reduction in the Bank of England rate, first (on Jan. 6) from 4½ to 4%, and then (on Jan. 20) to 3½%, and also the reduction by the Bank of Germany (Jan. 21) of its rate from 5% to 4½%. The favorable report by the U. S. Steel Corporation, after the close of business on Jan. 25, also attracted comparatively little notice. Besides the quarterly dividend of 1%, an extra dividend of ¾ of 1% was declared, so as to make 4% for the year. Events abroad were generally favorable, and the Parliamentary elections in Great Britain resulted in the virtual defeat of the Liberal Party, with its radical policies and Socialistic Budget, so that Premier Asquith will be able to carry on the Government only with the aid of the Laborites and the Irish Nationalists. In France, however, floods of unparalleled extent worked great havoc and inflicted enormous property loss.

With the general break of prices on the Stock Exchange there also came breaks in the cotton and produce markets. In cotton, the speculation which had been maintained so long met with a disastrous reverse. From 16.10 cents on Jan. 3, middling uplands in this market sold down to 13.85 cents by Jan. 18. Some recovery left the price Jan. 31 at 14.60 cents.

In the money market call loans Jan. 3 touched 12% and the rate did not get below 6% until Jan. 6, but it never again touched 6 after Jan. 10, and on Jan. 27 got down to 1¾%, with the range Jan. 31 2½@3. Time money rates also sharply declined under the enormous increase in the money holdings and surplus reserves of the Clearing-House banks.

The course of prices on the Stock Exchange has been pretty well indicated in the enumeration of adverse influences mentioned above. The market was depressed week after week, and in each week there were one or two days when prices tumbled badly, giving the market a semi-panicky appearance. It sharply rallied on each occasion, thus avoiding utter demoralization. The net result for the month is large and general declines all through the list.

The course of foreign exchange was more or less confused because of the speculative operations of certain brokers and bankers, who in December had misjudged conditions and were now seeking to retrieve their losses. Generally speaking, however, the tone was very strong the early part of the month, with the trend downward the latter part.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

MONTHLY AND YEARLY RECORD.

The following tables furnish a complete record of the New York Stock Exchange transactions for the past month and he year 1909. They need no extended introduction, as they are self-explanatory. The tables embrace every security (excepting only State bonds) dealt in on the Exchange. We give bonds first, using the classification adopted in the official list. The black-faced letters in the column headed "Interest Period" indicate in each case the month when the bonds mature.

In accordance with the new rule adopted by the New York Stock Exchange, all quotations for interest-paying bonds are at a price to wlhch accrued interest must be added. The exceptions to the rule are income bonds and bonds on which interest is in default. This method of quoting bonds became effective January 2 1909.

BONDS AND STOCKS.

1. In the following thirty pages of tables, quotations are given for all the more important securities listed on any Stock Exchange in the United States; also for leading unlisted and inactive securities.

2. Quotations from all Stock Exchanges are as near as possible for the closing day of the month preceding the date of issue. As the New York Stock Exchange began with Jan. 2 1909 to quote all bond prices "and interest," we have adopted the same method, and no longer employ a designating mark to indicate the fact except where there is a deviation from this rule. The reader will understand, therefore, that unless the letter "f" is prefixed to the price, he must pay accrued interest in addition to the price. This, however, does not apply to income bonds or bonds in default, in which cases the price includes the interest, should there be any.

3. The letter "f" prefixed to bond prices denotes that the quotation is a flat price—that is, that the accrued interest forms part of the price, and therefore the purchaser does not have to provide for it separately in making payment. As already stated in the case of income bonds and bonds in default, the price is always "flat," and no designating mark is employed to indicate the fact.

4. Stock prices marked thus (d) are per share. All others are per cent except bank stock prices, which are quoted per share unless otherwise stated.

5. It should be borne in mind in the use of these tables that the quotations for many inactive and unlisted securities are merely nominal, but in all cases the figures are obtained from sources which are considered reliable.

6. The following abbreviations are often used, viz.: "M" for mortgage, "g" for gold, "g'd" for guaranteed, "end" for endorsed, "cons" for consolidated, "conv" for convertible, "s f" for sinking fund, "l g" for land grant, "op" for optional.

7. The black-faced type in the letters showing the interest period indicates the month when the bonds mature.

NOTICE.—All bond prices are now "and interest" except where marked "f" and income and defaulted bonds.

STREET AND ELECTRIC RAILWAYS

In quoting street and electric railway bonds, we employ the same method as in quoting the bonds of steam railroads. The great majority of issues being quoted "and interest," we use no designating mark whatever where that is the case. On the other hand, we prefix the letter "f" where there is a deviation from this rule; in such cases the interest forms part of the price. Unless, therefore, "f" appears against a quotation, the buyer will understand that the accrued interest is to be added on. This, however, does not apply to income bonds and bonds in default, in which cases the price takes account of the interest and no designating mark is employed.

NOTICE.—All bond prices are now "and interest" except where marked "f," and income and defaulted bonds.

MISCELLANEOUS SECURITIES.

Quotations marked "f" indicate that accrued interest is included in the price. Prices not marked are "and interest" that is, purchaser has to pay accrued interest in addition to the price. This, however, does not apply to income bonds and bonds in default, in which cases the price takes account of the interest and no designating mark is employed.

NOTICE.—All bond prices are now "and interest" except where marked "f" and income and defaulted bonds.

STATE AND MUNICIPAL BONDS.

It is not the custom in quoting municipal bonds to include accrued interest in the price given. Hence this accrued interest must in all cases be added on. There are a very few instances which form exceptions to the rule—that is, where the prices given are flat prices, the accrued interest having been taken into account in making them. These are indicated by a special mark thus (f).

The figures in the column "to net" indicate the basis on which the securities sell or the interest rate which the securities, if held to maturity, will net to the purchaser at the present market price.

BANKS AND TRUST COMPANIES.

Quotations in this department are given per share, not per cent, except for stocks of New York City, Brooklyn and Canadian institutions, and are as near as possible for the closing day of the month preceding the date of issue, though often are nominal. An asterisk (*) denotes sales. The letter (h) prefixed to a price indicates that the figures show the book value.

Figures of deposits, capital and profits for the national banks are from the Comptroller's last call; for all other institutions they are the latest obtainable, direct returns being procured by us where no periodic statements are required. For the Clearing-House banks of New York, Philadelphia and Boston, deposits are taken from the latest weekly statement.
