Notices.

The Grand Trunk Western Railway Co.

A Corporation of Michigan and Indiana, U. S. A.
 To the Holders of Income Bonds of the above-named Company, secured by an income mortgage to the Colonial Trust Company, and W. G. Crabill, Trustees:

You are hereby notified that under reserved rights expressed in said bonds, the above-named Railway Company will on the first day of December, 1910, retire all the bonds above named, secured by the above-named mortgage, which bonds and mortgage bear date December 1st, 1900, and whose maturity is July 1st, 1950, save the bonds already paid and retired, the total issue of said bonds being $1,500,000, and bearing numbers 1 to 3,000, both inclusive.

On or before said date you are required to have all such bonds and their unpaid interest coupons at the office of the Agents of the Bank of Montreal, No. 31 Pine Street, New York City, at which time and place the bonds will be redeemed by paying 85% of the principal, and by paying all interest earned and accrued thereon to date of redemption.

Payment will be made to the registered holders of the bonds if registered; otherwise to bearer.

TO THE PREFERRED STOCKHOLDERS
OF THE
Buffalo & Susquehanna
Railroad Company

At the request of a large number of preferred stockholders, the undersigned have organized as a Committee to protect the interests of the holders of preferred stock of the Buffalo & Susquehanna Railroad Company, and the preferred stockholders are invited to deposit their stock with the Committee's depository, the CENTRAL TRUST COMPANY OF NEW YORK, No. 54 Wall Street, New York City, which will issue transferable certificates of deposit therefor. The property of the Buffalo & Susquehanna Railroad Company is leased to the Buffalo & Susquehanna Railway Company, which has recently defaulted in the payment of interest on its bonds and is now in the control of a Receiver. A Committee of Bondholders of the First Refunding Mortgage Bonds of the Buffalo & Susquehanna Railroad Company has been organized. In view of these facts, cooperation among the preferred stockholders of the Railroad Company has become imperative.

Copies of the deposit agreement may be obtained from the Depository, or from the Secretary of the Committee.

IRON COMPANY

To the Holders of First Mortgage 5s, Second Mortgage 6s, Preferred Stock, Common Stock:

Receivers having been appointed of the property of the above corporation, bondholders and stockholders to a very large amount believe prompt, united action necessary to protect the interests of all security holders, and have requested the undersigned to act as a Committee to that end, under an agreement dated May 12, 1910.

Holders of the above classes of securities are invited to deposit the same, subject to the above agreement, with the Committee's Depository, Bankers Trust Company, No. 7 Wall Street, New York City, on or before the first day of June, 1910. Negotiable certificates of deposit will be issued at the time of deposit. Application will be made to the Stock Exchange to list the deposit certificates issued for common stock.

The Committee hopes to be able to announce a plan of reorganization or debt adjustment. Within a specified time after such announcement, any holder of a certificate of deposit who is dissatisfied with such plan may withdraw deposited securities, upon payment of the pro rata share of the expenses theretofore incurred by the Committee, not including compensation to the Committee for its services, for which, in that event, no charge will be made.

Copies of the deposit agreement may be obtained from the Depository or any member of the Committee.

Dated New York, May 14, 1910.

Expenses of the railroads of the United States increased over 23½ million dollars in March. The importance of that fact at the present time when further additions to expenses are to come through the widespread advances in wages will be readily recognized. The figures have been compiled by us this week and are discussed in an article on a subsequent page. They are made up from the returns filed with the Inter-State Commerce Commission at Washington. Special interest of course attaches to the results for the separate roads, where heavy losses in net are shown in many instances. These will all be found (together with full details of both earnings and expenses) in the special supplement called our "Railway Earnings Section", which we send to our subscribers with to-day's issue of the "Chronicle." This supplement gives the figures of every operating steam railroad in the United States, big and little, which makes monthly returns to the Commission—over 800 companies altogether, covering more than 235,000 miles of road.

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION.

Are not shippers in trunk-line territory pursuing a short-sighted policy when they seek to prevent the railroads from advancing their freight rates, to recoup themselves for the tremendous additions to their annual expenses involved in the advances in wages that have been going on since the beginning of the year, and are still in progress? These shippers, as a rule, are men of superior intelligence, and with the panic of the year 1907 still in mind they cannot be unaware of the close connection existing between railroad prosperity and prosperity in the whole commercial and industrial world. Suppose that these shippers were successful in their endeavor, and that, as a consequence, the net earning power of the railroads became seriously impaired, as would inevitably be the case; who would be the worst sufferers? Would not every industry throughout the country feel the blow, and would not these shippers, so dependent upon general prosperity, find that they themselves were hardest hit of all?

Of all the country's great industrial agencies, there is none of equal magnitude with the railroad industry. It gives direct employment to nearly 2,000,000 persons, and the outstanding security issues on the same exceed $16,000,000,000. These securities are held by investors, large and small, no small part of them being in the hands of savings banks and other classes of financial institutions. Consider what a diminution in the market value of these securities would mean, together with a reduction in the income derived from them. The diminution in the purchasing power of the holders of the same would alone be a serious matter. Then consider further what would happen if the supplies of new capital necessary for the development and extension of the railroad system were curtailed, or altogether cut off, by reason of the impaired earning capacity of the properties, arising out of their inability to advance their transportation charges to meet the increase in the cost of rendering the transportation service.

With new capital unavailable or to be had only in very limited amounts, hundreds of millions of dollars which now go each year into reproductive enterprises would be withdrawn and the fructifying influence of that money in the channels of trade be lost. In other words, with the railroads forced to contract their outlays, their orders for everything needed in the conduct of their operations and for the development of their properties would gradually fall away. This, in turn, would mean that many mills, factories and furnaces would be reduced to idleness, throwing great masses of work-people out of employment. That, in its turn, would mean diminished purchasing power on the part of a further considerable portion of the population, and this loss of purchasing power would necessarily be felt in many other industries, which, accordingly, would have to reduce their output and dismiss some of their wage forces. All this would in the end mean diminished shipments over the railroads and a great falling off in their freight and passenger traffic. The railroads would then have no use for the 2,000,000 men to whom they are now giving employment, and possibly half a million of them would have to be dismissed. The effect would be still further to curtail the purchasing power of the population.

This is no fanciful picture. Precisely the situation here outlined came about during the panic. The gross earnings of United States railroads then for several successive months fell off over $50,000,000 a month, or at the rate of more than $600,000,000 a year. In addition, new capital supplies of 400 to 500 millions a year were withheld. With that the status of things, Government officials and legislative bodies considered it good policy to cease their assaults on the railroads, and even merchants and shippers engaged in attempts to revive trade by organizing prosperity associations and sunshine leagues. Can it be possible that these things have already been forgotten, or that an intelligent body of business men would deliberately invite their recurrence?

It is natural that thoughts like the foregoing should come to mind when one contemplates the action taken on Tuesday of this week at the conference or convention at Chicago called by the Illinois Manufacturers' Association, and which was attended by about 400 representatives (according to the Chicago papers) of some 200 commercial organizations, business corporations and individual business firms in the territory between the Atlantic seaboard and the Rocky Mountains. The conference decided to effect a permanent organization and to raise a fund of $50,000 for the purpose of antagonizing the move of the railroads. Resolutions were adopted declaring that "in the judgment of this convention a careful analysis of the statements filed with the Inter-State Commerce Commission by the carriers shows more reason for a reduction than for an advance in rates." The resolutions also demand "that the carriers in official classification territory suspend the proposed advance in class and commodity rates and submit the question to the Inter-State Commerce Commission for arbitration to determine from the facts whether any general advance in rates is reasonable or necessary." The resolutions, furthermore, provide for the appointment of a committee to carry the plan into effect, and "said committee is empowered to take such action as will in its judgment prevent the proposed general advance in freight rates."

The statement that more reason exists for a reduction than for an advance in rates is, of course, not to be taken seriously. As for the demand that the proposed advance in rates be suspended for the time being, and that the whole matter be submitted to the Inter-State Commerce Commission for determination, there are numerous objections to such a course. The most conclusive reason against it, however, is that it is not feasible. A political body like the Inter-State Commerce Commission would in any event be a poor tribunal to select as arbiter, and the Commission has time and again shown that it cannot be trusted to act impartially towards the railroads. But arbitration of any kind would be a mistake. It would mean a long drawn-out controversy and endless delay. It is a condition, not a theory, that confronts railroad managers, and there is really nothing to arbitrate; while at the same time the situation is so urgent that time cannot be wasted. Railroad employees certainly would not consent to having the advances in wages conceded to them postponed to some future date. On the contrary, in a number of cases where the matter of the extent of the advance has been submitted to arbitration, it is distinctly provided that, whatever the award, it shall be dated back to the beginning of the controversy. Thus the burden of the higher wage scales begins at once, and this in turn makes it imperative that immediate steps should be taken to provide the extra income needed to take care of these wage advances. No one has yet been able to suggest any way in which the extra income can be raised except by marking up the rates charged for the transportation services.

It is quite possible that the public is getting a mistaken idea of the prosperity of the carrying interest from the gains in gross earnings which the roads are showing in their weekly and monthly returns. If so, it is time that the subject were more carefully studied. These gains in gross earnings are not attended by proportionate gains in net earnings. In fact, in the case of many large systems they are being accompanied by actual losses in net. We publish to-day elaborate compilations concerning the earnings of United States railroads for the month of March. These show a gain in gross earnings as compared with the same month last year of $31,583,854. The increase in the net, however, is only $8,000,228, expenses having been added to in amount of no less than $23,583,626. The position of some of the separate systems is shown in the fact that the New York Central, though adding $725,667 to its gross earnings for the month, actually fell $840,578 behind in its net because of an augmentation of over 1½ million dollars in its expenses. That is the result, moreover, before most of the advances in wages had become effective. It is estimated that these advances in wages will add from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000 to the yearly expenses of United States railroads.

These are enormous figures, and the question that has to be answered is: How can the outlay be made good except by charging more for moving goods and passengers? Is not the process which the railroads propose to adopt precisely that employed by merchants and shippers themselves in raising the prices of their goods when the cost to them of the goods increases? If our business men were told that they would not be allowed to raise their prices, no matter what the cost of the goods to them, they would be the first to rebel.

That these merchants have actually enormously raised their prices in recent years while the railroads have had to remain contented with their old rates is one of the notorious facts of the times. Indeed, if merchants and producers had not marked up prices of everything in accordance with the principle named, the high cost of living would not to-day be one of the gravest of our industrial problems. But if every one else is at liberty to grade prices in accordance with cost, why not the railroads? In the last analysis is not the point at issue simply whether the railroads shall be dealt with in an equitable and a fair spirit?

Contrary to expectations, the State Senate has adopted the Income Tax Amendment to the Federal Constitution allowing Congress to levy a tax on incomes from whatever source derived without apportionment according to population. The vote was 26 to 20. The Amendment had previously twice failed in the Assembly; it commanded an actual majority of the votes cast in that branch of the Legislature, but the affirmative vote was not sufficiently large to constitute an absolute majority of all the members elected. It is not thought likely that the Assembly will take up the Amendment again before the adjournment of the Legislature. We have on previous occasions set out the numerous objections to this Amendment, and shall not attempt to reiterate them here. It is really inconceivable, however, that any considerable body of legislators can be found to uphold such an objectionable proposition in a State like New York. State Senator Newcomb made some remarks in opposition which, it seems to us, correctly characterize the proposal. He called it a craze, saying: "The country has witnessed the coming and going of a greenback craze, a free silver craze, a Government ownership craze, and now it seems we are in the beginnings of an income-tax craze. The same family of disease embraces them all. They have symptoms in common." Mr. Newcomb points out that the income tax craze has one sinister phase not shared by its predecessors. Unless checked in time, it may sweep away that portion of our governmental frame-work upon which internal peace and harmony within the United States have rested for a century and a quarter. When the fathers provided that direct taxes and representation should be apportioned alike, they not only found a basis of compromise which rendered the formation of the Union possible, but also erected an abiding safeguard against jealousies, encroachments, fear and distrust among the States and between the sections. Mr. Newcomb accordingly invoked the spirit of patriotism for the defeat of the Amendment—without avail, however, as far as the Senate is concerned. In conclusion, he conveyed a warning in these words: "The income tax craze is new with us in this particular stage of our history, but really it is as old as the ages. It is the same attack upon industry and thrift that has found expression in varying forms since the world began. To it has been due again and again the decay of governments founded upon democratic principles. Against such dangers let national patriotism be warned, and warned in time."

We have also been much impressed by an elaborate discussion of the Income Tax Amendment contained in the May number of the "Yale Law Journal." The paper is by Arthur C. Graves of New Haven, Conn.,

and is a thorough-going discussion of the subject, both in its historical and Constitutional aspects. We have not the space to indicate the course of reasoning employed by the author, but deem it proper to quote here the closing paragraph of the treatise, in which the writer points out the incongruity of the Amendment and shows what a change its grafting on the Constitution would work in our fundamental law. The paragraph is as follows: "Constitutional indeed the imposition of an income tax will be (should the Amendment be adopted), yet, nevertheless, this Amendment is inherently improper under the limitations which ought to guard the concessions of authority to our Federal Government. In that matchless code, called by one of England's greatest statesmen 'the most wonderful work ever struck off at a given time by the brain of man,' this Amendment will be an anomaly. In an otherwise harmonious instrument, which speaks of a government of enumerated powers, seeking to preserve the dignity and vitality of sovereign States, this provision will stand out as the one discordant note, inconsistent with all that has gone before, unexplained, uncalled for, unnecessary, the only grant to the Federal Government of unrestrained and arbitrary power in respect of taxation over every State and every citizen within those States."

Another semi-annual period for the distribution of dividends by our savings banks is close at hand and the indications are that a number of other institutions besides those which took the step last December will make their distributions on a basis of $3\frac{1}{2}\%$ a year as against the previous 4%. We wish to commend such action and to advise savings bank managers generally to pursue a conservative course in that respect. At first sight it seems rather anomalous for the banks to be obliged to reduce their dividend rates at a time when investment yields are rising, making it possible for the banks to invest their funds so as to obtain a larger return. The fact is, however, that the bulk of the income of the banks is derived from investments made when interest rates were still low, and through the very fact of the advance in interest return the value of the old investments is being depreciated (their market value declining), and this depreciation operates to diminish the surplus. If the reasons in favor of reducing savings bank dividends from 4 to $3\frac{1}{2}\%$ were conclusive six months ago, they possess even greater validity at this time, since in the interval securities have still further declined.

In recent years the surplus of the savings banks of this State has not risen in proportion to the growth in the deposits. There has been a two-fold reason for this. In the first place, in paying 4% dividends the banks have evidently been distributing practically the whole of their profits. In the second place the decline in security values has tended to reduce the surplus. The change worked by these two influences combined has been really noteworthy. On Jan. 1 of the present year the surplus for all the savings banks in the State stood at \$106,835,540. Nine years ago, on Jan. 1 1901, this surplus amounted to \$118,294,674. Thus there has been a decline of $11\frac{1}{2}$ million dollars, though in the interval \$536,000,000 has been added to the total of the deposits. As a matter of fact, the surplus now is hardly \$15,000,000 larger than it was twenty-one years ago on Jan. 1 1889. In this interval of twenty-one years deposits have increased almost 1,000 million dollars, rising from \$523,677,515 to \$1,483,449,494. In the same period surplus has increased only from \$92,009,091 to \$106,835,540. In other words, while at the earlier date the ratio of surplus to deposits was 17.57%, to-day it is no more than 7.20%.

The investments of the banks are, of course, all of the highest class, but the banks ought to hold such a margin of surplus as to render their position absolutely impregnable, and it would hardly seem prudent to allow the surplus to be encroached upon any further. On the contrary, it is obviously in consonance with sound principles to undertake slowly to build up the surplus and permit the ratio to deposits to rise again. Safety is really the prime consideration in the care of deposits, the rate of return subordinate. We think the reduction to $3\frac{1}{2}\%$ dividends would have come sooner except that in 1908 changes were made in the law and the so-called amortization basis of values introduced. This amortization principle is correct enough for certain purposes, but is absolutely fallacious as a guide to the true value of the securities or the real extent of the surplus. We need hardly say there is not the slightest doubt of the soundness and solvency of the banks. Indeed, it is with the view to maintaining this enviable condition for all time that it seems desirable not to distribute earnings in full each year but to let a portion go to reinforce the surplus. After this policy has been pursued for a few years, if the present rate of yield for good securities shall be maintained, the banks will be in position to resume 4% payments again to their depositors.

Seven of the daily newspapers of Philadelphia have united in an appeal to the Inter-State Commerce Commission asking that when inquiry is made into import differential freight rates, the scope of the examination be enlarged so as to include the entire subject of differentials at all the cities of the North Atlantic ports. This action is taken by the newspaper publishers because the city of Philadelphia appears to be divided against itself. A committee made up of representatives of the principal commercial bodies of the city was not harmonious, and it has disbanded after obtaining the assent of the Inter-State Commission to investigate the subject of import differential freight rates. Chairman Knapp is understood to be favorably inclined towards opening up the entire subject of differentials, including rates to all the Atlantic ports from Boston to Newport News. At such a hearing there would be representatives from Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Norfolk and Newport News, each striving to obtain some advantage over the others. The testimony would be voluminous and the arguments long, and it may be doubted if the effort would prove any more successful in effecting a permanent settlement than previous similar efforts. The questions raised are probably more intricate than the Philadelphia publishers comprehend, and it is quite possible that the final decisions will not be entirely in accordance with Philadelphia views.

Failure of the City of Philadelphia to float a loan of \$8,000,000, bearing 4% and having thirty years to run, has caused considerable comment this week. There were eight scattered bids, aggregating \$821,000, at prices ranging from par to 102 $\frac{1}{2}$. No bid from a syndicate was received. Philadelphia bankers who are in the habit of bidding upon municipal loans of that city say that they were deterred from bidding by the fact that the rate of interest fixed as the maximum in the ordinance, namely 4%, is too low. The city may not sell its bonds at less than par and the bankers felt that they could not afford to pay par and take chances on selling so large an amount of bonds at a premium. The city proposes to follow the loan of \$8,000,000 with another of \$5,000,000. City Councils have authority to raise the rate of interest and they will probably pass new ordinances fixing $4\frac{1}{4}$ or $4\frac{1}{2}\%$ as a maximum rate; whereupon the loan will be re-advertised. At the time bids were opened on Monday last there were pending in Philadelphia two suits brought to determine the right of the city to borrow more money and for the purposes specified. Bankers state that this litigation did not deter them from bidding, as all bids would be made subject to the legality of the proposed loan. If the loan were sanctioned by the court the bankers who might be successful bidders would be better pleased than they would if they had simply the advice of their own counsel to rely upon and no money would pass or bonds be issued until a final decree was obtained in favor of the city.

The production of gold in the Transvaal was actually at a greater rate per diem during April than in any previous month since the Witwatersrand gold fields were opened, less than one generation ago. The month's total of 619,045 ounces has been exceeded three times—twice last year and in Dec. 1908—but the daily yield was greater only on the last-mentioned occasion, when the figures were expanded by the inclusion of some 40,000 or 50,000 ounces obtained in the annual cleaning up of the mines. During April the daily output was 20,635 ounces, against 20,026 ounces per diem in July last, when the month's aggregate was 620,794 ounces, and 20,145 ounces for each of the thirty-one days in May 1909, the previous high record, save that brought about by special circumstances in the closing month of 1908, when the daily average was 21,311 ounces, or 660,643 ounces for the month. From what can be learned of labor conditions on the Rand, the outlook is for a continuance of enhanced production. Many of the laborers engaged to fill the places of the deported Chinese coolies are not yet thoroughly familiar with their underground tasks, but this drawback will gradually be overcome. In all probability the present month's returns will be the best ever achieved in a normal month, as even under ordinary conditions May usually shows a gain over April. In June a slight falling off, due partly to the wintry weather, which interferes with the efficiency of the natives from the warmer parts of the country, is to be expected, but unless something unforeseen happens, the Transvaal promises to give up more gold in 1910 than in 1909 or any earlier year. Rhodesian reports are also more encouraging than they were last year, although there is still room for and need of improvement not only in the mining industry but in the general position in that struggling but potentially wealthy colony founded by Cecil Rhodes, the projector of the most wonderful railroad in the world, the Cape-to-Cairo line, of which America has heard much within the last twelve months.

The subject of winning new gold has engaged attention at home because of the opening of navigation on the lower Yukon and the beginning of a stampede to the promising Iditarod fields discovered last autumn. At this moment the scene at Fairbanks, Alaska, is one of great animation. Two thousand prospectors, it is reported, gathered at that point ready to proceed down the river whenever the ice broke up sufficiently to permit of navigation. "The water-front of Fairbanks," says one despatch, "resembles a vast ship-yard. Fourteen large steamers and hundreds of small craft are tied up at the wharves ready to sail." That Alaska is destined sooner or later to add very materially to the world's output of gold is confidently believed by those who have investigated conditions there and by certain influential financial groups in New York, who are spending millions of dollars in developing the country and in preparing for the expansion that the future is depended upon to bring. The public in the East have but an inadequate conception of what is going on in Alaska or of the ambitious plans formed by well-known financiers who can look years ahead. The news from that far-off region will be awaited with great interest this summer.

The funeral of King Edward VII. took place yesterday in the presence of many monarchs and a large gathering of other royal personages and dignitaries from all parts of the world. The route of the cortege, from Westminster Hall to St. George's Chapel, Windsor, was so crowded with the populace that the soldiers and police had to exercise every ingenuity to avert mishap. Throughout Great Britain, in every British colony, in the United States, and in many other countries, memorial services were held, President Taft being present at that held in Washington. All financial business was suspended during the entire day in Great Britain, while most of the exchanges in this country remained closed until noon. Such a universal demonstration of sorrow has probably never before been evoked by the death of any sovereign.

Several weeks ago, when fears were being expressed both in Europe and in New York that the payment of a vast sum of money into the British Treasury on the passage of the Budget would seriously disturb the London money market, we took the view that the Bank of England and those having close relations with it were financiers of mature experience, and that great skill would no doubt be shown when the test came. Events have proved the soundness of this attitude. More, they have demonstrated afresh that the British metropolis may still rightfully claim for itself the distinction of being the greatest financial centre in the world. It is not necessary to enlarge on this point. Our purpose is merely to emphasize how smoothly a banking operation of the first magnitude has been carried out by London.

Thursday's weekly statement of the Bank of England shows that, as compared with the immediately preceding return, the public (i. e., Government) deposits increased $22,835,000 and the other deposits decreased $18,680,000. The Government deposits now stand at $85,950,000, which compares with $63,115,000 in the previous week, $51,620,000 on May 5, and $42,220,000 on April 28, the increase since that date having been thus $43,730,000. How have the private deposits been affected by this accumulation of cash to the credit of the Exchequer? The total held by the Bank at the end of April was $217,540,000, whereas this week it has fallen to $179,370,000. The decrease, therefore, has been $38,170,000, or only $4,050,000 less than the gain in public deposits during the same period. This transfer of cash from the pockets of tax-payers, or, more specifically, from the private banks, to the Government's credit in the Bank of England, has occasioned no unusual disorganization, even though it has been conducted during a Stock Exchange boom seldom paralleled in any European centre. The incident possesses encouragement and some degree of consolation for those who fear a possible monetary upheaval when the speculation in rubber and oil shares collapses.

The United States having this time taken the initiative in seeking to open negotiations for the establishment of trade reciprocity with Canada, the movement may, it is hoped, be crowned with greater success than attended the repeated attempts made in times past by the Dominion authorities to achieve the same laudable end. A formal communication has been addressed by our Government to the British representative, who will in due course forward it to Ottawa. The friendly meeting between President Taft and the Canadian Minister of Finance (the Hon. W. S. Fielding) at Albany last March paved the way for large developments, and although the Province of Quebec has since acted somewhat harshly towards this country, there is every reason to believe that both the Dominion and the Federal Cabinets will be disposed to enter with enthusiasm into negotiations for the removal of the barriers that now stand in the way of free trading between the two neighboring countries. Heretofore the American advocates of protection have been so strongly entrenched that they did not deem it necessary to grant concessions desired by Canada. But sentiment at Washington has undergone a change and may be further influenced by the growing agitation for another complete revision of our tariff laws. At all events, the step just taken by our State Department is a hopeful augury for the bringing about of closer commercial relations between the two leading nations of the New World. At a meeting of the Economic Club in New York this week, the movement was very heartily endorsed; an ex-Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada said that President Taft's declaration that it is his purpose to promote better trade relations between the two countries had done more to restore amity than any utterance of the last five years.

Large imports of merchandise continue to be, as they have been for many consecutive months past, the feature of our foreign trade statements. The latest month (April) the official compilation shows the total value of goods moving inward to have been the greatest on record for the period covered, exceeding the aggregate for April 1909 by $11\frac{3}{4}$ millions of dollars and showing an increase of $46\frac{1}{2}$ millions over 1908. Concurrently the shipments of commodities continue on a restricted scale, for while the total exports for April this year moderately exceeded those for the month in 1909, a more or less marked decline from all of the three preceding years is exhibited. The result is again a balance of imports, following those of February and March, although in this instance it is very small—only a little over three-quarters of a million dollars. By way of comparison, it seems that after a continuous record of monthly export balances of merchandise for twelve years (June 1897 to June 1909 inclusive), five out of the last ten months have shown balances of imports.

As in preceding months of the current fiscal year, explanation of the restricted export movement is found in the heavy decreases in the outflow of a few of the leading articles. In most months the declines have been general, applying in varying degree to breadstuffs, provisions, cattle, &c., cotton and mineral oils, but in April the falling off in the value of provisions shipments was conspicuously heavy. On the other hand, and due to larger exports of wheat, breadstuffs showed a slight gain, and high prices for cotton more than offset the considerable decrease in the quantity sent out. Cattle, sheep and hogs, needless to say, are steadily decreasing in importance as articles of export, but it remained for April 1910 to exhibit a most remarkable decline as compared with any preceding month for very many years. As late as December 1905 the value of the outward movement of cattle, sheep and hogs was above 4 millions of dollars, but since that time has gradually, though not steadily, fallen off, and in the month lately closed was only \$184,374, against \$1,576,343 in April 1909. A decline of nearly 2 millions of dollars is also to be noted in the shipments of mineral oils. Combining the values of these leading items we have a total of only \$46,503,729 for April 1910, or $6\frac{1}{2}$ millions of dollars less than in the month of 1909 and smaller than in April of any year since 1899. Shipments of commodities other than those specifically referred to above were in the aggregate $14\frac{1}{2}$ millions of dollars more in April this year than last, making the total of all \$133,089,109, against \$125,174,860 in 1909 and \$133,357,956 in 1908. For the four months of the calendar year the merchandise outflow was $1\frac{3}{4}$ millions of dollars less than for the like period of 1909, but for the ten months of the fiscal year 1909-10 there is a gain of $63\frac{5}{8}$ millions, as contrasted with 1908-09, and a decline of $145\frac{3}{4}$ millions compared with 1907-08.

The inward flow of merchandise, as remarked above, recorded a gain in April 1910 over the month of 1909, the totals having been $133,942,729 and $122,167,675, respectively. For the four months since Jan. 1, moreover, the aggregate at 560 millions, as well as the total for the ten months of the fiscal year at 1,318 millions, marked new records for the periods. The balance of merchandise imports for the four months of 1910 reached $14,969,609, comparing with an export balance of $69,959,175 in the previous year, and the excess of exports of $167,732,434 for the ten months of 1909-10 is smaller than that for the corresponding period in any year since 1896.

Gold exports during April 1910 were, with the heavier merchandise imports noted above, larger than in any month since May 1904, reaching $36,283,625, and comparing with $6,337,994 in April 1909. This gold movement was almost wholly from New York, and largely to London, that city getting over 31 millions of the total. The ten months' outward movement in 1909-10 was $116,246,190, against $72,014,107 in 1908-09. Gold imports in April, on the other hand, aggregated only $2,100,918 against $3,345,861, with the ten months' totals $35,620,650 and $39,372,533 respectively. Consequently we exported (net) gold in the ten months of 1909-10 no less than $80,625,540, this comparing with a similar balance of $32,641,574 in 1908-09 and a net inward movement of $104,536,353 in 1907-08.

New York bankers are somewhat puzzled over the Bank of England's loss of gold as disclosed by the last two weekly statements. On Thursday a decrease of $2,380,000 in coin and bullion was recorded, making the shrinkage $5,210,000 within a fortnight. Now, during this period the maintenance of a 4% discount rate has proved effective in keeping the exchanges in London's favor, so that there have been no extensive exports of gold; South Africa took $1,000,000 last week, Holland took $750,000 this week and there were other minor shipments, but in the meantime the Bank has received the bulk of the new South African bars arriving in London and has made frequent purchases in the open market. Is there underlying significance in the statements cabled by our special correspondent last week and again this week to the effect that there were "shipments of £957,000 net to the interior of Great Britain" a week ago and £451,000 during the current week? The assumption in local international banking circles is that the accumulation of metallic reserves by the joint-stock banks is in progress. It is pointed out that the present would be an opportune time for such a course, inasmuch as moderately firm money has been desirable in London to insure favorable exchanges, and, as a further consideration, the Central Bank has built up a ratio of reserve not once exceeded at this season in more than a decade. Moreover, the erratic action of the market for oil and rubber shares may have influenced bankers to set their house in order lest a bad break occur.

Sir Eldon Gorst, the Egyptian Financial Adviser, presents in his annual report a picture that contains more shade than could have been desired, although the outlook is viewed with confidence rather than with the pessimism too often indulged in by those whose knowledge of Egyptian conditions is theoretical, and who forget that no matter how progressive a dominating government may be, the prejudices, the susceptibilities and even the superstitions of an ancient and backward race must be recognized and treated with all possible consideration. British rule in Egypt has accomplished much, but it cannot work a rapid metamorphosis among the people themselves; it cannot in two or three decades make enterprising farmers of indolent, untutored fellahin. The encouragement of education, although attended by occasional unpleasant results politically, is stimulating gradually but surely better methods in agriculture, in industry and in trade. Unfortunately the financial upheaval of 1907 left an aftermath that is still checking progress. The Reserve Fund, from which money is supplied for public improvements, has fallen to a low ebb; the sale of land has almost ceased; the Agricultural Bank's arrears increased from 6% in 1907 to 17½% in 1909, and the destruction wrought by the cotton worm last year seriously reduced the value of the crop. Nor has the 1910 cotton crop enjoyed an auspicious start; the weather during March and April was wet and cold and partial re-sowing was necessary. However, earnest efforts have been exerted to prevent a repetition of last year's ravages by pests, and if the climatic conditions from now on should be favorable, the crop could easily turn out very satisfactorily. A generous harvest would eliminate nearly all the economic ills from which Egypt has suffered during the last two years.

The threatened war between Peru and Ecuador promises to be averted through mediation instituted by Secretary Knox and supported by Brazil and Argentina; the revolution in Nicaragua has ceased to excite alarm; the disaffection in Albania, where the Young Turk rule has never commanded loyal co-operation, is believed to have been suppressed; but in another part of the world where unrest has prevailed the outlook is less reassuring, the latest advices from China having been quite disquieting. The strained relations between the two South American countries here named arose, as many international quarrels have arisen in the past, from a boundary dispute, and so bitter did the feeling become that both sides hurriedly prepared for war. In pursuance of its fixed policy of promoting peace and prosperity in the Southern Continent, the United States Government, through the Secretary of State, on finding that the disputants could not reach an amicable settlement of their differences, and that bloodshed seemed likely, took measures to prevent so deplorable a course, and it is now announced that the United States, Brazil and Argentina will jointly consider the whole question at issue, the decision to be accepted by both Peru and Ecuador.

The Chinese situation cannot be discussed in so encouraging terms. The outlook there is described by cable as being extremely ominous. Nanking, the capital of the influential province of Kiang-su, is the centre of unrest. The natives there are not only displaying manifestations of hostility to foreigners, but are showing signs of disloyalty to the Manchu dynasty by cutting off their queues. The Consulate body at Nanking has demanded the protection of the Viceroy, a warship is held in readiness to proceed thither, and all foreigners have been warned to seek refuge on board available ships. Without attempting to minimize the ugliness of the situation, it may not be amiss to remark that uprisings of one kind or another are not uncommon at various points of the vast Chinese Empire, and that usually either the Government troops or foreign warships are able to promptly put down incipient revolts.

The dividend exhibit of the Fall River cotton-manufacturing corporations for the second quarter of 1910, it is needless to say, hardly reflects the true situation of that industry at the present time. Production of goods is being curtailed and current quotations for cloths are below the level that the ruling high cost of the raw material warrants; with these conditions prevailing a reduced distribution to stockholders would cause no surprise. And yet, as in the first quarter of this year, the regular dividends declared have in the aggregate been heavier than for the same period of 1909 and above the average for earlier years. The truth is—one which we have often heretofore referred to—it has become a settled policy of most, if not all, of the mills to maintain a stated rate of distribution, no matter what net earnings may be. This has generally been done by accumulating a surplus reserve in the profitable years and drawing on this surplus in the lean years. It is likewise accountable for the comparatively favorable showing for the second quarter. On a capitalization of \$26,525,000 there will be paid out \$443,375, or an average of 1.67%, on the basis of about $6\frac{3}{4}\%$ a year. Furthermore, six corporations have increased the rate over last year. The 1909 average rate of distribution in the second quarter was 1.58%, the total amount returned to stockholders having been \$397,125, or \$46,250 less than in the current year. In the eleven years prior to that time (1898 to 1908, inclusive) the highest rate of distribution was 2.21%, in 1907, and the lowest 0.50%, in 1898, with the average $1.44\frac{1}{2}\%$ since 1898.

The wage-scale controversy at Fall River is as yet unsettled, but it is expected that there will be an adjustment of the differences between owners and operatives before the expiration of the time limit under the existing agreement. The present wage scale, which was adopted on May 3 1907, having been repudiated by the Textile Operatives' Association, will expire the last Saturday in May. Efforts are being made by both parties to the controversy to frame a new scale. With this end in view the Textile Council, representing the operatives, placed before the manufacturers on Feb. 17 a new form of agreement. In it the minimum price for weaving a cut of printing cloths (the standard length being $47\frac{1}{2}$ yards of 28-inch 64 x 64 cloth) was proposed to be raised from 18 cents, as in the old wage scale, to 19.66 cents. Furthermore, it was proposed to reduce from $72\frac{1}{2}$ points to $67\frac{1}{2}$ points the margin between the cost of cotton and the selling price of cloth upon which the minimum weaving price shall be based. An increase of 2.07 cents (to 26.03 cents per cut) is also made in the maximum rate, the margin remaining the same as in the old agreement. The acceptance of this agreement by the manufacturers would be virtually the granting of an increase in wages of from $8\frac{5}{8}\%$ to 10%. This the manufacturers were unwilling to concede, and in their turn they submitted to the Textile Council a plan making the minimum rate 19.66 cents on a margin of 80 points and the maximum 24.51 cents on a margin of 120 points. Four of the labor unions, at largely-attended meetings on May 4, voted unanimously to reject the wage agreement proposed by the Cotton Manufacturers' Association. The matter was, however, referred back to the Textile Council with the recommendation that further conferences be held with the manufacturers' committee for the purpose of securing more favorable terms. Latest reports from Fall River predict a satisfactory outcome.

Discount rates in European cities have moved irregularly. In London the publication of the weekly bank statement on Thursday morning was followed by an immediate advance to 3 9-16% for spot bills, while the range for bills to arrive was raised to $3\frac{1}{2}$ to $3\frac{3}{4}\%$, according to the ideas of individual bankers concerning the monetary outlook. There had again been talk of a possible reduction in the 4% official charge and disappointment over the retention of that figure may have been an influence in causing private quotations to be marked up. London is now in the midst of tax payments, as the weekly bank statement clearly shows, and until this operation is completed, more or less firmness may be maintained, especially as the supply of gold on hand has decreased since New York ceased to send reinforcements. In Paris there has been a relapse to a $2\frac{1}{8}\%$ basis, against $2\frac{3}{8}\%$ a week ago—this, too, despite the placing of new American railroad bonds there and prospective borrowing on a large scale for domestic, Continental and Japanese account; perhaps a gain this week of almost \$2,000,000 in the gold and silver held by the Bank of France may have tended to lower rates, seeing that for a series of weeks reductions in specie had been sustained. Berlin, on the other hand, has raised its rate for bills to $3\frac{1}{4}\%$ in face of an addition of \$7,337,000 to the Reichsbank's cash on hand, a reduction of fully \$7,000,000 in loans and discounts and a contraction of \$18,613,000 in note circulation. Amsterdam is still out of line with other Continental money markets, the rate there being $4\frac{1}{4} @ 4\frac{3}{8}\%$, but the receipt of \$750,000 gold from London should help to relieve the tension that has existed ever since Holland lost gold to London last month. Brussels quotes $3\frac{1}{8}\%$, unchanged.

The Bank of England again got a good part of the $3,000,000 new gold sold on Tuesday (Whitmonday having been a holiday); only the minimum price, 77s. 9d. per ounce, was paid. India, as has been customary for a number of weeks, took a part of the consignment. It may be here mentioned, however, that India's requirements are believed to have been almost satisfied for the present, a fact that is indicated by a radical reduction in the amount of Indian exchange now offered and bid for weekly in London. As noted elsewhere in this issue, the most conspicuous changes in the London Bank's returns this week are an expansion of $22,835,000 in Government deposits and a decrease of $18,680,000 in private deposits. Since the statement was compiled the Bank has bought $860,000 bar gold. According to our special cable from London, the proportion of reserve to liabilities fell from 54.44% last week to 53.36% this week, which is, however, the highest figure recorded in the third week of May in modern times. The Bank lost £475,523 bullion during the week and held £37,841,802 at the close of the week. Our correspondent further advises us that the movement into the Bank was made up in greatest measure of purchases in the open market. Exports were mainly to Holland, and shipments to the interior of Great Britain were quite large in amount. The details of the movement into and out of the Bank were as follows: Imports, £216,000 (of which £24,000 from Australia and £192,000 bought in the open market); exports, £240,000 (of which £150,000 to Holland, £50,000 to Java and £40,000 to various destinations), and shipments of £451,000 net to the interior of Great Britain.

The local money market is in a peculiar state. So light is the demand for Stock Exchange loans, now that speculation has dwindled to the lowest volume in nearly two years, that surpluses are hard to place, either on call or for short periods. This, together with a lowering of rates, gives the market an over-supplied appearance. Yet cash is by no means superabundant. The scarcity of funds for general use is borne out by the extremely restricted demand for mercantile paper, by the absence of fresh buying of investment securities and by other recognized symptoms. The position would seem to be this: Bankers are averse to locking up their liquid resources except in well-secured collateral loans; they are being called upon to assist their own customers quite freely and they want to be able to adapt themselves to any change that may take place during the remainder of the year. Banking conditions throughout the West and also in the South are not liked by the leading bankers in New York, who have been using their influence to have remedies instituted, fortunately with some degree of success.

Time money rates, as well as call rates, have declined appreciably during the second half of the week. Borrowers want over-the-year facilities, for which they bid $4\frac{1}{2}\%$, sometimes without result, the asking figure being $4\frac{3}{4}\%$. Six months' loans at 4% are also in request; here also $\frac{1}{4}$ of 1% more is sometimes demanded. The detailed range is as follows: $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ for 60 days, $3\frac{3}{4}@4\%$ for 90 days, 4% for four and five months, $4@4\frac{1}{4}\%$ for six months and $4\frac{1}{2}@4\frac{3}{4}\%$ for over-the-year. The tendency has been distinctly in favor of borrowers. Call money remained remarkably steady until Thursday, when a minimum of 2% was quoted before the close. The renewal rate was also lowered on that day to $3\frac{1}{2}\%$, while the maximum was only $3\frac{3}{4}\%$, as compared with 4% daily for a long period. Yesterday the range was 3% to $3\frac{1}{2}\%$, the last loan being made at 3% . The average ruling rate for the week has been $3\frac{1}{2}\%$; but brokers look for a lower range next week unless speculation revives. Commercial paper is not in widespread demand. The truth is that merchants are applying to their own banks to have paper discounted in such quantity that the general market is very dull. Rates, too, are not acting in harmony with the downward tendency in money. Even the choicest drawers of four to six months single-name bills have usually to pay at least $4\frac{3}{4}\%$, while 5% is not at all uncommon for prime paper. Offerings are increasing, so that some accumulation can be noted. New York banks are doing little, but trust companies are buying on a moderate scale. Out-of-town institutions as a rule are not in a position to absorb paper proffered by brokers. The range of quotations is: $4\frac{3}{4}@5\%$ for the best four to six months' bills, $5\frac{1}{4}@6\%$ for less attractive names and $4\frac{1}{2}@5\%$ for 60 to 90 days' endorsed bills receivable.

Foreign exchange rates have advanced fully 1c. per £ from the low level recorded last week and are now within 1c. of the maximum of the current year. This sudden transformation has naturally created widespread surprise; but operators do not regard the movement as illogical. To begin with, the break to 4 8635 for demand ten days ago was caused mainly by aggressive short selling by speculators in command of large resources, who calculated that the marketing of remittances accruing from the reported sales of securities to Europe would send exchange down to a very low level. However, it later became known that the negotiations had not been definitely closed, and, as events proved, no great amount of exchange did actually come upon the market. This upset the bears. Since then they have made repeated attacks upon quotations, led by a national bank; but their tactics have been successfully checkmated by the prompt action of another bank of even greater power, so that rates to-day are near 4 87 $\frac{1}{4}$ for demand and 4 88 for cable transfers. It should be added, however, that our bankers have already made definite arrangements to send a moderate amount of new bonds to Paris and that other transactions of greater moment are expected to be successfully carried through before June 1.

The firmness in exchange during the latter part of the current week was stimulated by three other influences, namely the publication of the April foreign trade returns, showing an excess of imports over exports, by an advance in discount rates in London on a reduction in the reserve and the retention of the 4% Bank rate and by a decline in interest rates here. The Government's statistics show that last month gold was exported to the amount of \$36,283,625, while imports were only \$2,100,918, leaving an export balance of \$34,182,707, the largest on record for any single month. Turning to the complete merchandise figures, it was found that imports had again outrun exports, although on this occasion by less than a million dollars. However, the figures for the ten months of the current fiscal year caused serious misgivings in responsible banking circles. Our merchandise exports have exceeded our imports by only \$167,732,434, as contrasted with \$351,074,177 last year, \$613,601,452 in 1908, \$412,952,776 in 1907 and \$467,408,952 in 1906. Meanwhile we have lost on balance \$80,625,540 gold, against only \$32,641,574 last year and gold imports in 1908 of \$104,536,353 and of \$86,641,152 in 1907. The continued scarcity of commercial bills can therefore be understood. Call loans in London rose on Thursday to 4% , against a ruling rate here of $3\frac{1}{2}\%$ and a minimum of 2% , while discounts there were marked up to above $3\frac{1}{2}\%$. One accompaniment of the abrupt rise in sterling quotations here has been an advance in London exchange at Paris to 25 francs 28 centimes, this movement having been influenced by the purchase here of francs which have been remitted to London for settlement. London's demands upon the French market are so heavy that an inflow of gold has come to be regarded as not improbable.

Compared with Friday of last week, sterling exchange on Saturday was 15 points higher for demand and cable transfers, at 4 87 and 4 87 $\frac{3}{8}$ respectively, while 60 days rose 30 points to 4 8390@4 84. On Monday the only change was a decline of 5 points in demand. On Tuesday, when doubts were entertained regarding the actual success of certain loans that were to have been placed in Paris, quotations advanced sharply to 4 84@4 8410 for 60 days, 4 8710@4 8715 for demand and 4 8750@4 8760 for cable transfers. On Wednesday the close was virtually the same as on the previous day, although the tone was slightly easier. On Thursday there was a sudden rise of $\frac{1}{8}$ c. in the morning and strength continued throughout the day, due in part to dearer money in London and lower rates here; the close for sterling was at 4 8410@4 8415 for 60 days, 4 8720@4 8725 for demand and 4 8775@4 8780 for cable transfers. On Friday the upward movement was again in progress, demand touching 4 8745 and cable transfers within a few points of 4 88.

a The total of gold in the Bank of Russia includes the balance held abroad—that is, the amount held for Russian account in other Continental banks. The proportion so held and consequently duplicated in the above statement is about one-sixth of the total this year, against about one-ninth a year ago.

b The Austro-Hungarian Bank Statement is now issued in Kronen and Heller instead of Gulden and Kreutzer. The reduction of the former currency to sterling Pounds was by considering the Gulden to have the value of 80 cents. As the Kronen has really no greater value than 20 cents, our cable correspondent in London, in order to reduce Kronen to Pounds, has altered the basis of conversion by dividing the amount of Kronen by 24 instead of 20.

d The division (between gold and silver) given in our table of coin and bullion in the Banks of Italy and Belgium is made from the best estimates we are able to obtain; it is not claimed to be accurate, as the banks make no distinction in their weekly returns, merely reporting the total gold and silver; but we believe the division we make is a close approximation.

NEW PHASES OF ENGLAND'S CONSTITUTIONAL CONFLICT.

Addressing a large popular audience in the very week of the King's death, Lord Curzon laid great emphasis on the fact that, in his judgment, it ought not to be impossible for both political parties in Great Britain to confer together with a view to mutual compromise on the vital issue of the House of Lords. Speaking in London at the same time, Lord Milner, whose career in South Africa prior to the war made him distinguished, equally emphasized the fact that the country's decision on this issue must affect profoundly and permanently all classes of the British population and all parts of the Empire for generations to come. When that decision is finally arrived at, he contended, the Constitutional fabric under which Great Britain and the British people have grown to be what they are will have been changed for good or evil. England's rank among the nations, its financial and commercial prosperity, the trend of its future legislation, and of the habits of thought and manners which institutions insensibly mold, will all be modified by the changes which are made in the High Court of Parliament.

These are serious and weighty considerations, and they at least suggest the spirit in which the great Constitutional change apparently impending ought to be, and the spirit in which it ought not to be, brought about. To those of us who have been accustomed to tracing with interest the different lines of development in English and American Constitutional history, it is becoming more and more impressive, in view of the peculiar character of the recent situation in England, how much cause for thankfulness we have in the conservatism of our own Constitution-makers. There is much less heard nowadays from thoughtful English critics of what used to be described as the "rigidity" and "inelasticity" of the United States Constitution. That Constitution was, in fact, framed as a result of mature and thoughtful observation of certain tendencies in English political history itself—tendencies, it may perhaps be said, which have really not reached formidable proportions until the present day.

It is a highly interesting fact that in the one year 1789, two great Constitutional experiments on distinctly opposite lines were undertaken. France, as a sequel to its revolution of that year, embarked promptly in the experiment of a single chamber on which no check or restraint should exist. The result of that experiment, as every one is aware, was domination over all law-making and all public administration, first by a single party in the Chamber, next by one cabal in that party, and finally by a mob in the gallery which drove even the cabal before it. The ulterior consequences are matters of history. It is true that the precedent of the French Revolution, whose career was governed by so many ulterior considerations, is not wholly fair to apply to proposals for the present day. Nevertheless, it must be remembered that a Constitutional change is likely to be a change not only for to-day but for all future time, and that people inaugurating such a change will look, if they are wise, to the possibilities of long distant generations. Those possibilities can be judged only in the light of past experience in government, whether in England or in other States.

While France was pursuing its spectacular and disastrous experiment with a single legislative chamber, the United States entered on its prolonged, successful and satisfactory career under the system of legislative checks and counter-checks established simultaneously with the French institutions. There have been many times, in our century or more of history, when the restraint of the Senate on proposed legislation by the House, whose members came immediately from the people, has been bitterly resented. There have been times when the Presidential veto has been resented with even greater bitterness; the effort to impeach and remove President Johnson, for example, having had its origin in no small degree from his use of the Presidential veto to obstruct the hasty plans of the legislative branch. It is not only possible, but probable, that on occasion the Senate has made mistakes in obstructing legislative projects of the House. The same may possibly be said of the Presidential veto. But the sober conviction, not of historians only but of the people as a whole when they review our 121 years of Constitutional history, is that this system of restrictions and revisions has been of the utmost value and utility to the nation's welfare as an anchor against the political tendencies aroused by the passions of an hour.

Not less indispensable to the stability of our institutions have been the exceptionally severe restrictions on the obtaining of Constitutional Amendments. Considering the several periods of popular unsettlement through which the nation has passed, one is entitled to wonder just what would have been left of our own Constitution had it been possible for a single chamber to reverse or repudiate by a single vote, cast under caucus rule and under the previous question, a whole body of legislation adopted in earlier years. That France, after a long and trying history as a result of its own experiment with a single legislative chamber, should in the end have adopted as closely as was possible the system of the United States, is perhaps the highest tribute to the soundness of our system.

In England there is to-day no actual veto power to restrict the vote of Parliament; the traditional and theoretical prerogative of that sort, possessed by the sovereign, has been tacitly abandoned. In England, furthermore, the laws of the House of Commons, when concurred in by the House of Lords, are in effect the Constitution. In theory, at any rate, there is no fundamental impossibility of a complete change of British political institutions through a season's vote in Parliament. When one considers that it is to such a situation that the proposal for a single legislative chamber, or for a double-chamber Parliament in which all real authority is actually vested in one of the two branches, is applied in the present controversy, it may readily be understood how much of accuracy and justice Lord Milner's warning to the Londoners contained.

When one asks, what are the chances for conservative action on the lines either of sober consideration through a reasonable period of time or of compromise on Lord Curzon's plan, the answer obviously is that the present circumstances seem to favor such cautious action as no circumstances, during the past year or more, have done. That the issue at the polls will be postponed for six months, at any rate, and perhaps for a full year, in deference to the peculiar position of the new British sovereign, seems to be generally conceded. But in a matter of this sort it is time which counts for everything. But for the Constitutional provisions which in our country forced a more or less prolonged consideration of the measures, it is easy to see what the probability would have been of the free-silver coinage system in full operation, and with it a whole succession of Populist expedients such as were pressed excitedly on the House of Representatives in 1894 and in other troubled years. Under our system, time was required before enactment of these schemes was possible. The action of the Upper House was one restriction; the Presidential veto power another; and in the interim it was possible to appeal to the people's sober judgment. An accident has made necessary precisely such a pause before the final plunge in English politics is taken on this fundamental question. We cannot but believe that the outcome will be altogether salutary.

INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENTS AND LIABILITY.

The annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, held this week, gave a large part of its time to the burning subject of industrial accidents and indemnity therefor. A resolution was adopted recommending to the members "the inauguration of a system of voluntary, mutually contributory industrial accident insurance, this system to be elastic enough to provide for voluntary contributory sickness, old age and death insurance, if later deemed advisable."

It is clear that the present position of the subject is unsatisfactory, and equally clear that the tendency is towards legislation intended to hold the employer responsible in all circumstances, leaving him to transfer his liability by insurance, although one tentative proposition submitted in Wisconsin goes to the length of requiring him to insure in recognized companies, so that the workman's recourse may be the more sure. At present the employee insures on his own account, if he is sufficiently provident; the employer protects himself in like manner, if he is prudent; and the injured man takes his case into court, where he has humanitarian sympathy in his favor, yet does not always obtain justice.

The subject is in active agitation in several States, and there is a manifest disposition to legislate that the hurt workman shall be compensated, regardless of any negligence (even his own), leaving the penalty to be transmitted to society, as has been suggested, by adding it to the cost of the product. Two bills which have been favorably reported at Albany look in this direction. The first, applying to certain employments rated as extra-hazardous, gives to a workman hurt by negligence of the employer or a fellow-servant "or through a risk of his trade," recourse to the employer up to a specified limit, thus apparently excluding contributory negligence as a factor. The other bill, applying to all employments, authorizes master and man to voluntarily make a contract by which the latter surrenders his present right to sue for damages, in cases where he can prove negligence, in return for a certainty of compensation for all accidents of employment.

One speaker at the Manufacturers' meeting objected that little more than half the insurance premiums paid by employers actually reaches the injured men; in case of twenty leading companies, he said, only 53.9% goes to the injured, 33% goes in expenses, and the companies keep the remainder as profits. But this does not even imply that the men are treated unjustly, nor is the loss ratio low, compared with that in fire underwriting. If too much is expended in defending claims, that might be criticised from the humanitarian side, but could not be a just ground of complaint by the employers on the side of business. Expenses may be of almost incalculable value. For example, a New England company whose sole business is insurance of steam boilers, collected in 1908 $1,157,586 premiums and paid only $90,935 for losses, while about a million went for expenses exclusive of taxes; but while losses were under 8%, about 40% of premiums went for the inspections which prevented loss.

This example suggests the one lesson of primary importance, in the present rather turbulent condition of the subject, and that is, that all statutes and all effort should be firmly bent to prevention. One of the resolutions adopted by the Associated Manufacturers provides for establishing a department for study and exhibition of preventive devices and authorizes offering substantial money prizes for them. While it is certain that the risk will be transferred to insurance companies, regardless of what statutes or whether any statutes are enacted, inasmuch as the self-interest of the employer impels him to that course, it is equally clear that efforts to protect the workman's life and limb should not be relaxed. It is to be assumed that the companies, for their own protection, will discriminate in rates between factories which use precaution and those which do not; but the law, which undertakes to follow humanitarian and economic considerations, should deem prevention the highest protection. Rules for careful conduct are visible enough if people pause to think about them; safety devices are already many in number and demand will quickly produce more of them.

It is of paramount importance that abandonment of contributory negligence as a defense shall not be permitted to gain entry into this country, as it is threatening to do. For only when both employer and employee have done their best to prevent has the latter a just right to claim compensatory damages or the former a moral right to fall back upon insurance. The employer who thinks it cheaper or easier to omit providing safety devices and enforcing proper rules must in the end suffer the consequences; the employee who is hurt because of neglect should be left without recourse, save to humanitarian feelings. If this sounds unfeeling, it is none the less the truest kindness and the best condition of safety.

MISLEADING STATISTICS REGARDING THE EXPRESS COMPANIES.

It is matter for regret that at a time when radical and indefensible doctrines are finding such wide support in Government and legislative circles, and a very reckless use of facts and figures is being made to bolster them up, our mercantile bodies should appear even remotely to give encouragement to anything lacking in caution and conservatism. Yet the campaign which the Merchants' Association of New York has inaugurated against the express companies is attended by some features that can hardly be said to merit approval. On Wednesday of last week, on the invitation of the Association, a conference was held in this city at which representatives were present from a number of prominent commercial organizations throughout the country. The conference was for the purpose of joining in a petition to the Inter-State Commerce Commission asking for an investigation of express rates and practices, with a view to securing lower rates in the transportation of express packages.

The conference took the action desired and adopted a resolution to that end. The resolution was accompanied by a series of "whereases," in which it was stated that "an analysis of the reports made by the principal express companies doing business in the United States to the Inter-State Commerce Commission and on file in the office of the latter indicates that the net earnings of the companies are from more than 40 to about 125% per annum on the value of the property in use for the public service." It was, furthermore, declared that "the Supreme Court of the United States in its decision in the Knoxville water cases has declared as a standard for the measurement of the just earnings of public service corporations that those earnings shall bear due proportion to the fair value of the property actually employed for the service of the public." We have also been favored with a copy of an 8-page circular containing the "Report on Express Capital, Earnings and Rates," which was transmitted with the invitation to the conference of last week and on which the statement concerning the 40 to 125% profits is based.

We have no intention of criticizing the action of the Merchants' Association in seeking to induce the Inter-State Commerce Commission to take the matter up. The Commission possesses jurisdiction over express carriers, and if merchants have any grievance against the companies, either as regards rates or practices, the Commission is the proper body to address in order to seek relief. But we think that the report on the capital and earnings of the express companies which the Association is circulating is utterly misleading, and wholly without value. We presume that the person who prepared the report is an accountant, though his name, which is attached to the report, is not known to us. At all events, only a very cursory examination is needed to show that the results are forced. He begins by saying that the express companies, besides their express business, are largely engaged in the investment and banking business. Accordingly, the purpose of the analysis has been to show what portion of the assets is to be regarded as investment or banking capital, what portion is to be regarded as express capital and the percentage of profit derived by express operations upon the capital actually and properly employed in express operations. No fault is to be found with the purpose as here stated, but the method of carrying it out does not commend itself.

As far as our knowledge goes, there has never been any concealment of the fact that in the case of the larger companies some considerable profits are obtained from operations or investments outside of the ordinary express business. Indeed, in the case of several of the companies dividends are stated to be in part out of express profits and in part out of investment and other profits. Thus, the Adams Express Co. declares each three months $1 per share from express earnings and $2 per share from other earnings, while in some recent years it has made still further dividends out of profits derived from sales of real estate. The American Express Co. pays 12% per annum, and of this 6% is stated to be from investments. It is therefore right and proper that in any effort to determine what would be fair profits from the express business, the capital invested in other forms and for other purposes should be separated from the rest. It is likewise true that the U. S. Supreme Court in the Knoxville case—and, for that matter, also in the case of the Consolidated Gas Co.—has laid down the rule that public service corporations can only lay claim to a fair return on the capital actually employed in the public service which they are rendering.

Any one who has had any experience in such matters, however, knows that when it comes to making the segregation of capital here desired, the task is not an easy one. In the case of the Consolidated Gas Co. of this city a very long period of time and very extensive investigations, computations and analyses on the part of a special commissioner and of the Court itself were found necessary before a result was reached satisfactory to the trial judge, and there were many points on which the evidence was conflicting. But the person employed by the Merchants' Association has no difficulty in reaching a quick and ready result. He simply takes the balance sheets of the several companies on file with the Inter-State Commerce Commission and then proceeds to mark out every item on both the liability and assets sides of the accounts for which the least plausibility can be assigned for so doing.

Taking the total of assets, he deducts from the same the whole of the current liabilities. Of course, in part these current liabilities may have arisen otherwise, but part must have arisen from the express business and to that extent the companies would be justified in holding assets or capital against the same. This person deducts the whole amount. How this works may be seen in the case of Wells, Fargo & Co., which issues a balance sheet of its own, apart from that filed with the Commission, the same showing the liabilities itemized. In the statement given out by the Merchants' Association the current liabilities are placed at $5,213,220 and the whole amount deducted; but it appears from the company's statement that $3,309,345 represents ordinary accounts payable in connection with the express business itself—$2,133,379 being for express privileges, $103,272 for traffic balances, $490,357 for wages and salaries and $582,337 for audited vouchers and accounts.

Having deducted the current liabilities en bloc, he jumps to the other side of the account and deducts the whole of investments in the same fashion. All the stocks and bonds held are deducted, though it is quite possible that a part of these, at least, may represent control of properties necessary to the successful conduct of the express business itself. He likewise deducts numerous other items, such as permanent investments and real estate not used in operations. Even after these deductions he gets a result which is not small enough to satisfy him. He accordingly undertakes to eliminate even the amount actually invested in real estate and buildings used in the express business. With great ingenuousness he argues that "it is questionable whether these items (namely real estate and buildings used in operation) should not be regarded as investment capital and not as operating capital. The ownership of these holdings is not essential to express operations, nor is there any reason why such non-essential holdings should receive net returns, derived from express charges, from three to more than ten times the ordinary returns from real estate investments. Five per cent net after payment of all expenses is the ordinary rate of return from real estate investments. The fixed capital invested by express companies in real estate should not be confused with the active capital required in operation, and should not draw excessive returns from inflated charges for express service."

Through such arbitrary methods and specious reasoning the $45,864,677 of assets given in the balance sheet of the American Express Co. are scaled down so as to show a capital investment in the express business by that company of only $1,716,004. Similarly, the assets of the United States Express Co. are cut down from $15,345,027 to $1,894,802, those of Wells, Fargo & Co. from $37,888,662 to $4,488,452 and those of the Adams Express Co. from $20,455,587 to $3,886,035. Even these diminutive totals, he intimates, are still too large, for he tells us that the "free cash balances (meaning by this the cash remaining after deducting the whole of the current liabilities) have been assumed to be capital actually and necessarily used in express operation"—an assumption, he asserts, which "is not warrantable, as none of the companies do or can use large amounts of cash for operating purposes." He finds it impracticable, however, to go any further in his wholesale process of deductions, and accordingly he lets it go at that. It is well that he does, for if the process of elimination had been carried any further, he would have found that the companies had less than nothing invested in the express business, and therefore were called upon to perform the express service gratuitously. Of course, when we reach this point we get a result bordering on the ridiculous. But that in effect is what the argument against public service corporations generally comes to. Everything they own or possess they are asked to turn over for the public benefit—their capital, their highly organized plant, their systematized methods of conducting business, their extensive facilities—all these are to be put at public disposal in return for little or no pecuniary consideration.

It should be distinctly understood that the calculations of 40 to 125% profits per annum are arrived at by thus whittling down the capital assumed to be employed in the express business and then taking the earnings from the express business (as distinct from the income from investments) and applying them to this diminutive total of capital. The Wells, Fargo Co. is credited with the largest amount of "current assets ostensibly used in express operation," as he terms it, and yet the amount allowed it is less than 4½ million dollars—in exact figures, as we have already seen, $4,488,452. Note now that this company in its operations covers 61,869 miles of rail lines and 8,516 miles of stage, inland steamer and ocean steamship mileage, and had on June 30 last 6,368 agencies in the United States and Mexico and gave employment to 17,013 men, not including its numerous correspondents in all quarters of the globe. We cannot give like details for the other companies; but think of contending that the American Express Co., operating on over 47,583 miles of line and having express offices in thousands of cities and towns, has only $1,716,004 of actual capital invested in the express business, or that the United States Express, operating over 24,533 miles, with its numerous offices, wagons, delivery service, &c., has only $1,894,802 employed in the business. Do we not in this way reach a reductio ad absurdum and is not the absurdity so manifest that even the wayfaring man should be able to see it without having it pointed out to him?

The harm done by such misleading computations can hardly be exaggerated. The public, not aware how the results have been arrived at, accepts them as correct, and hence is given a wholly erroneous idea of the real profits derived from the business. The populace is too prone anyway to think that carrying corporations are over-charging and making inordinate profits. And demagogues for their own ends are all the time seeking to encourage the idea. That is the secret of the hostility to carrying interests displayed in our State and legislative bodies and which has taken such hold upon the minds of our legislators that it is almost impossible to secure fair treatment for the carriers.

Our great mercantile bodies should not lend themselves to proceedings of that kind. The error that mistaken notions often lead to is illustrated in the attitude of hostility merchants and shippers are at present assuming towards the proposed increase in rates by the railroads to offset the tremendous advances in wages which they have been obliged to make. These advances, it has been estimated, will add between 100 and 200 million dollars per annum to the annual expenses of United States railroads. Yet the users of the roads seem to think that the companies can somehow take care of this huge added yearly outlay without raising the compensation charged for the transportation service.

As far as the express companies are concerned, it seems to us there is a better test for determining whether profits are excessive than the use of some hypothetical figures regarding the capital employed in the business. The revenue statements of the companies, as filed with the Inter-State Commerce Commission, would appear to be much more conclusive on the point. The compiler for the Merchants' Association gives the figures for the four leading companies, namely the Adams, the American, the United States, and the Wells Fargo, after eliminating income from investments and other extraneous items. We have taken the pains to add the figures for the four companies and find that their combined gross receipts from the express business for the year ending June 30 1909 were $102,109,150; that out of this they paid their operating expenses and taxes amounting to $45,528,678 and paid the railroads for transportation $48,866,030, leaving as the "net operating income from express service" the sum of only $7,714,442. That is, on a gross business of $102,109,150 there were net earnings of only $7,714,442, or barely 7½%. Will any one contend that net of 7½% on the amount of business done is excessive?

RAILROAD GROSS AND NET EARNINGS FOR MARCH.

The chief feature in our compilation of the earnings of United States railroads for the month of March is the growth disclosed in the expenses. Gross revenues are satisfactory enough, continuing to record very considerable gains, but a larger percentage of the same is being absorbed each month by augmented expenses. The matter is important for a twofold reason. In the first place, the railroads are being obliged to make enormous new capital additions in order to meet the demands of a steadily increasing traffic, and hence considerable additions to the net earnings are necessary to enable the companies to earn interest or dividends on these new amounts of money put into the properties. In the second place, wages of all classes of railway employees all over the country are being raised, and these higher wage-scales have not yet begun to count to any great extent in the returns. It follows that further augmentations in expenses must be looked for in the future. Under these circumstances it is not difficult to understand why railroad managers should be so anxious to secure advances in freight and passenger rates.

In the monthly number of our "Railway Earnings Section," which accompanies to-day's issue of our paper, we publish the detailed reports of earnings and expenses of all operating steam railroads which have filed their returns for the month of March with the Inter-State Commerce Commission. The summaries we give in the present article are the aggregates derived from the statements of these separate roads, and hence are very comprehensive, covering practically the entire railroad mileage of the country. The figures, accordingly, are conclusive on the point of the augmentation in expenses which is taking place.

In the gross earnings, the addition, as compared with the same month last year, has been no less than $31,583,854, or over 15%—in exact figures, 15.54%. The figures cover 739 roads, operating 230,263 miles, or 98% of the railroad mileage of the country. But this very gratifying improvement in the gross revenues has been attended with an increase of $23,583,626 or 17.55% in the expenditures. Hence, out of the $31,583,854 gain in the gross, only $8,000,228 was carried forward as a gain in the net. As already stated, this is the result before the great bulk of the recent advances in wages had begun to take effect. It is obvious, therefore, that the large gains which our rail transportation interests are showing in their weekly and monthly reports of gross revenues are not all "velvet."

March (739 roads)—		1910.	1909.	—Increase or Decrease—
Miles of road.		230,263	226,965	Inc.	%
Gross earnings	$234,804,449	$203,220,595	Inc.	$31,583,854	15.54
Operating expenses	157,945,488	134,361,862	Inc.	23,583,626	17.55
Net earnings	$76,858,961	$68,858,733	Inc.	$8,000,228	11.62

We need hardly say that the present improvement follows improvement in the same month last year, but this latter, on the other hand, succeeded tremendous losses in 1908. Our figures for March 1909 showed $21,278,330 increase in gross and $13,769,739 increase in net, the same covering 223,563 miles of road. The Inter-State Commerce Commission, in its completed results, covering 233,702 miles, showed somewhat larger improvement, namely $22,190,078 in gross and $14,303,842 in net. In 1908 the Commission had not yet begun to give out comparative figures. Our own compilations at that time were somewhat incomplete, owing to the circumstance that earnings were running very poorly and a number of big companies withheld their figures, as they did not care to disclose the magnitude of their losses. On an aggregate of only 152,058 miles of road, our statement then showed a decrease of $21,531,681 in gross and of $6,543,631 in net. We estimated that for the entire railroad mileage of the country the falling off in gross must have been about $34,000,000, with a shrinkage of $10,000,000 in the net.

In the following we give the March totals back to 1896. For 1909 we use the Inter-State Commerce figures, but for preceding years we give the results just as registered by our own tables each year—a portion of the railroad mileage of the country being always unrepresented in the totals, owing to the refusal of some of the roads to give out monthly figures for publication.

Neither the Mexican roads nor the coal-mining operations of the anthracite coal roads are included in any of these totals.

In the case of the separate roads increases in expenses have in many instances reached such magnitude as to delphia and Baltimore Stock Exchanges all suspended business during the morning hours. The Chicago Stock Exchange opened in the morning, but closed for the day at 11 o'clock.

—Two New York Stock Exchange memberships were posted for transfer this week for $78,000 each, a sale having been made last week for the same consideration. The last previous transaction was for $75,000.

—A modification of its rules affecting the admittance of visitors to its gallery has been made by the New York Stock Exchange. Under a ruling which had been in force since 1908, following the panic period, it was required that visitors to the gallery be accompanied there by a member, who was obliged to remain with the visitor; now the members are no longer called upon to remain with their guests after accompanying them to the gallery. Visitors may also now obtain admission to the gallery upon written application to the Secretary of the Exchange from members.

—The bill affecting time certificates of deposit in State banks, which was defeated in the Senate at Albany on April 12, was called up for re-consideration on the 19th inst. and passed by a vote of 27 to 22. The measure is intended to give to the State banks the same privilege accorded to trust companies in permitting the issuance of time certificates representing money actually on deposit, and providing that no reserve need be carried against the sums represented by certificates which are not payable within thirty days.

—The bill providing for the formation of corporations having shares of stock without a nominal or par value, which was passed by the Assembly on April 27, is reported to have passed the Senate on the 9th inst.

—An investigation of the Boston Stock Exchange, as provided for in a bill introduced in the Massachusetts Legislature by ex-Representative W. B. Willcutt on the 9th inst., was unanimously voted down by the joint legislative Committee on Rules on the 16th inst. Mr. Willcutt, it is stated, was the only one who supported the petition before the committee.

—The bill passed at the recent session of the Ohio Legislature providing for the liquidation of insolvent banks by the State Banking Department, as is the case in New York State, was signed by Governor Harmon on the 18th inst. The passage of the measure was advocated by B. B. Seymour, Bank Superintendent of Ohio, former Governor Myron T. Herrick and the Ohio Bankers' Association.

—An address on "The Government and Money Power", delivered by James K. Lynch, Vice-President of the First National Bank of San Francisco, was one of the features of the program of the California Bankers' Association at its annual meeting held at Riverside on the 5th, 6th and 7th inst. Mr. Lynch well says that "the word Government, or more particularly 'The Government,' calls up in the mind of the average man an imaginary something akin to that evoked when Divine Providence enters his thoughts; something vague, shadowy, shapeless; an imminence, yet difficult to localize, its attributes uncertain and ill-defined, yet most certainly possessed of vast power and able to undertake any task too great for him or his fellows." The reasons that are advanced for the Government administration of various enterprises, particularly of the railroads and what are now called public service corporations, may be reduced, Mr. Lynch points out, to an indictment of the men who have managed them, in which they are accused of rapacity, fraud and a general disregard of the rights of the public. To these charges we would in many cases have to enter a plea of guilty on behalf of the accused. Human nature, he argued, is unfortunately prone to take advantage where unrestrained. But what of the Government that has permitted these infractions of popular rights, he asks. If it had not signally failed in its primary duty of administering justice, these causes of complaint would not exist; and yet, by a curious inversion of reason, its failure is made an excuse for giving it greater and more varied duties. As an example of what the Government can do with the administration of an industrial enterprise, Mr. Lynch invited a study of the operations of the Post Office—a field in which there has been no competition, and with which we have no standard of comparison. As to the $16,000,000 deficit therein, Mr. Lynch states, the Government officials never have to know how the deficit occurs—all that they want to know is that enough taxes are raised to take care of it. Stoddard Jess, Vice-President of the First National Bank of Los Angeles, offered many practical suggestions for facilitating the handling of numerous checking accounts in an address entitled "Uniting the Work of Receiving and Paying Tellers."

—William Hanhart, Secretary of the Savings Bank Section of the American Bankers' Association, in an address made before the New Jersey Savings Bank Association at its annual meeting at Morristown on the 18th inst. presented some interesting statistics bearing on savings deposits tending to show how far ahead the United States is in respect to the savings of its people as compared with other and older countries. We make the following extract:

The total savings deposits in the United States as per report of the National Monetary Commission amounted in April 1909 to $5,878,735,379. This is an average of $381.28 per account and $64.03 per capita of population, and one person out of six has a savings account in the United States. In England deposits in trustee and postal savings banks amount to $1,033,470,204, an average of $80.70 per account and $23.08 per capita of population. In France the total savings deposits, including the postal savings, amount to $961,355,347, an average of $74.03 per account and $24.48 per capita of population. In Germany (and, by the way, Germany is the only important country in Europe that has no postal savings banks, and at the same time enjoys to-day the greatest economic local prosperity) the total savings deposits amount to $3,191,882,000, an average of $171.07 per account and $51.79 per capita of population.

Taking the whole civilized world into account, but excepting the United States, the 95,524,331 depositors in private, postal and municipal savings banks have $9,710,936,635 to their credit, making an average of $101.66 per account, $11.89 per capita of population and one person out of eight and one-half has a savings bank account.

—Comptroller of the Currency Lawrence O. Murray has recently undertaken to bring about further reforms in his department, and new measures to accomplish this are reported in the "Journal of Commerce."

To ensure closer attention on the part of bank directors to the affairs of institutions where the management is found to be in any way defective, the "Journal" reports that a formal statement has been prepared in which the directors are called upon at each examination to report the extent of their knowledge of the condition of the bank as disclosed by the examination. The following form, the "Journal" states, shows what is now practically universally being required of the less well managed banks of the system:

We, the undersigned, directors of the _____ beg to advise you that we have this day examined all of the bills and notes, forming part of the assets of the above-named bank, and declare, to the best of our knowledge and belief, that: 1—All the signatures and endorsements on the same are genuine. 2—All securities pledged as collateral for any of the aforesaid bills and notes are in the custody or control of the bank. 3—All of the aforesaid bills and notes are good and collectible, with the exceptions as stated below. 4—The excess loan law has not been violated by accommodation notes or otherwise. Exceptions to the above are as follows: _____ The following matters requiring attention were criticized by the examiner and called to the attention of the board. We will use our best endeavors to right these matters.

Signed, directors.

Still another regulation, which concerns institutions seeking renewals of their charters, is announced. In this case a notice as follows has been issued:

The charter of your association will shortly expire by limitation. If you desire an extension of charter please forward a complete copy of your by-laws to this office. They should provide for at least monthly meetings of the board of directors, the appointment of examining and discount committees, the approval by the directors at the regular monthly meetings of all loans and discounts and the recording of such approval in permanent form. If your by-laws do not already cover these requirements, the board of directors should adopt the necessary amendments.

—It is announced that all but about 40% of the $2,000,000 stock lately issued by the Fourth National Bank of this city was subscribed for by the stockholders. The portion remaining has been taken over by the syndicate which underwrote the new stock; the dissolution of this syndicate will take place in a few days. The capital of the bank was increased through the issuance of the new stock from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000. The selling price was $200 per share. It is contemplated to enlarge the board of directors, and new and influential interests are to become identified with the directorate. As stated herein on April 30, the bank has abandoned for the time being its plans for the erection of a new building on its present site. It owns the entire Nassau Street block, with side street frontage on both Pine and Cedar streets, and will spend $150,000 on improvements, which are about to be made in its quarters. The bank is favored in the location it possesses by reason of the permanent light ensured to it, being surrounded by the low Sub-Treasury Building on the opposite side of Pine Street, by the Speyer Building, abutting on the east and the Harvey Fisk & Co. Building on the Cedar Street side.

—The United States Supreme Court on the 16th inst. denied an application for permission to file a petition for a writ of habeas corpus to secure the release of Charles W. Morse from the Atlanta Penitentiary. Mr. Morse, who was convicted on charges of misapplying funds of the failed National Bank of North America of this city, and sentenced to fifteen years in the Atlanta prison, began his term of imprisonment in January. His wife has since been indefatigable in her efforts to secure signatures to a petition for his pardon, and out of 100,000 signatures said to have thus far been obtained, some 200 are those of Congressmen. A bill now before Congress, and passed by the House on the 16th inst., will, it is thought, if enacted, have the effect of reducing Mr. Morse's term to five years. It provides that prisoners, excepting those sentenced for life or for less than one year, and who have not previously served a term of imprisonment of at least one year, may be released by the parole board of the prison after having served one-third of their sentence, exclusive of good behavior allowance. The Senate is understood to have passed a similar bill under which such release would be effected.

—Francis H. Page, for fifteen years Second Vice-President of the Washington Trust Co., 253 Broadway, was elected Vice-President of the institution this week.

—The holdings in the United States Mortgage & Trust Co. of this city acquired several years ago from the Mutual Life Insurance by George W. Young, Leroy W. Baldwin and some associates have been taken over by the interests at present in control of the company. Messrs. Young and Baldwin were members of a syndicate formed in 1907 to purchase all the holdings of the Mutual in the U. S. Mortgage & Trust, and it was understood that a consolidation of the latter with some smaller companies was planned. The syndicate, however, never completed its purchase of the Mutual Life holdings. The amount of stock represented in the present transfer is said to be about 1,200 shares, and its disposal serves to place with those now in control all the stock of that institution which had formerly been owned by the Mutual. The purchase of 5,000 shares of the institution's stock from the latter was effected early this year by Kuhn, Loeb & Co. interests, and last year a block of its stock (4,536 shares) was sold by the Mutual to the late C. C. Cuyler, whose associates in the purchase included Mortimer L. Schiff of Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

The United States Mortgage & Trust Co. has been appointed and designated by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York as a depository for the money of bankrupt estates under the provisions of the statutes of the United States.

—As over four hundred bankers and their friends have already engaged accommodations on the special train de luxe, or "Bankers' Special," to be run under the auspices of the New York State Bankers' Association, in co-operation with the bankers' associations of Massachusetts, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina, it is advisable that those who contemplate attending the American Bankers' Convention at Los Angeles this fall make their reservations as soon as possible. The New York Central Railroad is striving to make the equipment of their "special" the finest that is obtainable. The committee on transportation and arrangements consists of Ledyard Cogswell, President of the New York State National Bank, Albany, and President of the New York State Bankers' Association; Charles Elliot Warren, Chairman and Vice-President of the Lincoln National Bank, New York; David H. Pierson, Cashier Bank of Manhattan Co., New York; E. S. Tefft, Cashier First National Bank, Syracuse, and Hiram R. Smith, President of the Bank of Rockville Center, Rockville Center, N. Y.

—Union N. Bethell, President of the New York Telephone Co., has been elected a director of the Columbia Trust Co. of this city.

—Plans are under way for the establishment of a new bank in the Greenpoint section of Brooklyn Borough. The proposed institution is to be known as the Greenpoint National Bank and it is to have a capital of $200,000, with a surplus of $100,000. The enterprise is being developed by Walter Wilmurt, who was Manager of the Seventeenth Ward Branch of the Union Bank, which closed its doors in April. Prior to the merger in 1906 of the Seventeenth Ward Bank with the Mechanics' & Traders' Bank (of which the Union Bank was the successor), Mr. Wilmurt had been Cashier of the Seventeenth Ward Bank. There is at present but one banking institution in the Greenpoint section, a branch of the Corn Exchange Bank.

—A third dividend was distributed on the 11th inst. to the depositors of the failed Lafayette Trust Co. of Brooklyn Borough. The amount disbursed is 10%, making a total of 40% since the institution suspended in November 1908. The dividends previously paid were 10% on May 1 1909 and 20% on Oct. 1 1909. An assessment of 100% was levied upon the stockholders in March, but this, it is stated, is not collectible until after the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice of such levy. A proposition for the purchase of the remaining assets of the institution is said to have been made to State Superintendent Cheney last month by Campbell Carrington in the interest of the Assets Realization Co., but nothing appears to have come of the negotiations.

—The Ridgewood National Bank of Brooklyn, which began business about a year ago—May 27 1909—declared a first dividend this week of 2%, payable May 27 to holders of record May 20.

—Joseph P. Stair, heretofore a teller in the Home Trust Co. of Brooklyn Borough, has been elected an Assistant Secretary of the Company.

—According to a statement filed in the office of the Clerk of Oneida County, N. Y., on the 14th inst. in an action of replevin begun in the Supreme Court against J. Howard Lowery, late Assistant Cashier of the Utica City National Bank of Utica, N. Y., the latter is alleged to be a defaulter to the extent of $115,000. The accused has been missing since April 26. His peculations are said to have existed since 1906. The bank has a capital of $1,000,000, and in January reported surplus and profits of $337,000.

—George W. Coleman, former bookkeeper of the failed National City Bank of Cambridge, Mass., pleaded guilty on the 18th inst. to the charge of misapplying funds of the institution and was sentenced to fifteen years in the Greenfield, Mass., prison. The bank closed its doors in February with the disclosure brought about through National Bank Examiner Pepper of a shortage in its accounts. Two others are to be placed on trial as a result of the failure of the bank, William J. Keliher, who is charged with aiding and abetting Bookkeeper Coleman in misappropriating the funds of the Bank, and Wilson W. Lockhart, an extra clerk employed by the institution, indicted on charges of making false entries and aiding and abetting the bookkeeper.

—John A. Hall, former Treasurer of the Southbridge Savings Bank of Southbridge, Mass., was indicted on the 13th inst. by the Worcester County grand jury on fifteen counts, said to allege the larceny of $104,000 of the bank's funds. He was sentenced on Thursday to not less than twelve nor more than fifteen years in the State prison at Charlestown. The bank was closed on Jan. 21. In a report of Bank Examiner J. O. Otis, made public in February, a deficit of $424,443 was estimated in its accounts.

—John D. Edgell has been elected President of the Gardner Savings Bank of Gardner, Mass., to succeed the late Charles W. Conant. Francis S. Whittemore has been chosen to succeed Mr. Edgell as Treasurer of the institution.

—Carlton Yarnall has been chosen to the board of the Franklin National Bank of Philadelphia to fill the vacancy due to the death of Levi C. Weir.

—W. M. Barrett, President of Adams Express Co., has been elected to succeed the late L. C. Weir as a director of the Commercial Trust Co. of Philadelphia.

—A. A. Vilsack, former Cashier of the German National Bank of Pittsburgh, was sentenced on the 14th inst. to eight months' imprisonment in the county jail and to pay a fine of $5,000 on charges growing out of the councilmanic bribery cases. William W. Ramsey, former President of the bank, who was sentenced to eighteen months' imprisonment, and the payment of a fine of $1,000, began his prison term in March. Mr. Ramsey was convicted on charges of bribery in connection with the alleged payment of $17,500 to a councilman to secure the passage of an ordinance making the bank a city depository. Judge Frazer, before passing sentence upon Mr. Vilsack, stated that the defendant deserved the greatest leniency, inasmuch as he had pleaded guilty, and had become a witness for the State, thus saving the Commonwealth the expense of a trial. He also claimed it to be evident that neither he nor Mr. Ramsey had profited by the deal.

—Judge Holt, of the United States Circuit Court of New York, on the 14th inst. dismissed the writ of habeas corpus obtained by counsel for Frank N. Hoffstot, President of the German National Bank of Allegheny, Pa., to prevent his removal from New York on an indictment returned against him in Pittsburgh. An order for his extradition was signed by Gov. Hughes in April, following the handing down of the indictment, which is said to charge conspiracy and bribery in connection with the passage of an ordinance under which several banks in which Mr. Hoffstot was interested were named as city depositories. Judge Holt, in passing upon the matter, said: "My conclusion is that the writ should be dismissed; but as in my opinion the question involved in this case is doubtful, a stay will be granted if the petitioner desires to appeal."

—Pierre Jay, Vice-President of the Bank of the Manhattan Company of New York, is to be one of the speakers at the annual convention of the Maryland Bankers' Association, to be held on June 21, 22 and 23 at Blue Mountain, Md. Lewis E. Pierson, President of the American Bankers' Association, and President of the Irving National Exchange Bank of New York, will also address the meeting, as will R. E. James, President of the Easton Trust Co. of Easton, Pa.

—The First National Bank of Cleveland, Ohio, the seventh to be organized under the National Banking Act, has been authorized to take its original number.

—U. G. Walker, formerly President of the South Cleveland Banking Co. of Cleveland, Ohio, was sentenced on the 16th inst. to five years' imprisonment, on charges of perjury growing out of the alleged filing of false statements with the Banking Department. A stay of execution of the sentence until the 31st inst. was granted, and hearings by the Circuit Court on arguments in the matter will be had on the 25th.

—A dividend, in liquidation, of 100% on the stock of the Hamilton National Bank of Chicago has been declared. The business of the institution was merged in February with the National City Bank. The Hamilton, at the time of the merger, had $500,000 capital and surplus and undivided profits in the neighborhood of $145,000. The National City is understood to have paid 3% on the deposits of the Hamilton, amounting to about $8,000,000, involving a payment of some $240,000 for the absorbed bank's business.

—At a meeting of the directors of the Railway Exchange Bank of Chicago on the 12th inst. Harold T. Griswold was appointed Assistant Cashier.

—The new La Salle Street National Bank and the La Salle Street Trust Co. of Chicago will both clear through the Corn Exchange National Bank.

—Chas. H. Anthony, for a year past with the bond department of the American Trust & Savings Bank of Chicago, has resigned his position to become manager of the bond department of the Joseph M. Boyd Co. of Madison, Wis. The Boyd company has a large mortgage loan business and has taken up the bond business conjointly with the American Trust & Savings Bank.

—John H. Happ, for several years Wisconsin representative of Mason, Lewis & Co., and the succeeding firm of Mason & Co., has become associated with the bond department of the American Trust & Savings Bank of Chicago. Mr. Happ will have his headquarters in Milwaukee. He will have charge of the Eastern Wisconsin territory.

—E. W. Decker, Vice-President of the Northwestern National Bank of Minneapolis, was elected President of the Minnesota Loan & Trust Co. of Minneapolis at the annual meeting on the 10th inst., succeeding E. A. Merrill, who declined re-election. Mr. Merrill was the organizer of the institution and had been at its head since its establishment in 1883. His intention to relinquish the presidency was made known some time since to the directors, who have induced him to remain identified with the company as Chairman of its board of directors. Under arrangements perfected last year, the Minnesota Loan & Trust and the Northwestern National Bank are closely affiliated. Mr. Decker, the new President of the trust company, will continue as Vice-President of the bank.

—The North Side State Bank of Minneapolis, organized with a capital of $50,000, began business on the 3d inst. at Washington and Plymouth avenues, North. H. J. Dahn is President and W. H. Dahn is Cashier.

—Another small Minneapolis bank, the Minnehaha State Bank, commenced business early this month. It has $30,000 capital and is under the management of John S. Tucker, President; Isaac Hazlett, Vice-President, and F. E. Worden, Cashier. The institution has temporary quarters at 4144 Twenty-fifth St.

—August Gehner, President of the German-American Bank of St. Louis and a director of the Mississippi Valley Trust Co., died on the 14th inst. Mr. Gehner was born in Germany in 1846, but located in St. Louis in 1859. Aside from the interests referred to, he was Third Vice-President of the Planters' Hotel Co., a director of the Laclede Gas Light Co., the Union Electric Light & Power Co. and the Kinloch Telephone Co.

—Plans are under way for the consolidation of the City Bank of Richmond (Va.) and the National State Bank. The latter has a capital of $500,000 and surplus and profits of $440,000. The City Bank has $400,000 capital and surplus and profits of about $200,000. The stockholders of the National State Bank have been called to meet on June 16 to act on the proposition to increase the capital of their institution to $1,000,000, to consider a change in its name and the question of consolidating with the City Bank.

—The establishment of a new financial institution in Nashville is planned, a charter having been filed for the Union Trust Co., which will have $100,000 capital and $30,000 surplus. The movement has been undertaken by interests in the Union Bank & Trust Co., and the quarters which have just been vacated by the latter at 308 Third Avenue North will be utilized by the prospective institution. The Union Trust will not engage in a commercial banking business, but will operate trust and savings departments. J. H. Howe, who, it is stated, will shortly be elected a Vice-President of the Union Bank & Trust Co., is to be President of the Union Trust. V. I. Witherspoon, Assistant Cashier of the Union Bank & Trust, will be Vice-President of the new company. Besides the foregoing the incorporators of the new enterprise are Leslie Cheek and Eustice A. Hail, respectively President and Vice-President of the Union Bank & Trust, and A. H. Robertson, also a Vice-President of the latter, as well as Vice-President of the American National Bank of Nashville.

The Union Bank & Trust Co. of Nashville removed to its new banking house at Third Ave. and Union St. on the 9th inst. The institution occupies the basement, first floor and second floor of the new building, which is replete with present-day facilities intended to meet the requirements of the times in the conduct of a banking concern. The furnishings are likewise in keeping with those of the modern bank, and the quarters present both an attractive and artistic appearance.

—Resolutions endorsing New Orleans as the place for the holding of the Panama Exposition, and pledging its support to the project, were adopted by the Louisiana Bankers' Association at its annual session held at Alexandria on the 12th and 13th inst. Under legislation recommended by the legislative committee, whose report was unanimously adopted, a law is proposed making it a felony to withdraw collateral pledged to a bank and using the collateral for any unlawful purpose; it is further recommended that the failure to return such collateral on demand shall be prima facie evidence of criminal intent, the penalty to be imprisonment for not less than two nor more than ten years. George E. Roberts, President of the Commercial National Bank of Chicago, in an address on "A Central Bank of Issue," argued in favor of a central bank, which he held could be established without disturbing the present banking institutions of the country, and would be found of material assistance in periods of depression. The President of the association for the ensuing year is A. Breton, Vice-President of the German-American National Bank of New Orleans.

—The Mississippi Bankers' Association, at its annual convention at Natchez on the 9th and 10th inst., adopted a resolution authorizing the President of the association to appoint a committee of five, to be known as the legislative committee, which shall be required to educate bankers in particular and the people generally with regard to needed legislation in connection with the banking interests of the State. The committee will also be called upon to submit to the association at its next meeting proper bills to this end. A resolution was also adopted endorsing New Orleans as the logical point for the exposition to commemorate the opening of the Panama Canal. Another resolution passed endorses the bill introduced by U. S. Senator Owen, providing for a national Department of Health. B. W. Griffith, President of the First National Bank of Vicksburg, for many years Secretary and Treasurer of the association, is the newly elected President of the organization. Richard Griffith of the City Savings & Trust Co. has been chosen as its Secretary and Treasurer.

—The question of increasing the capital of the Bankers Trust Co. of Houston, Tex., from $500,000 to $1,000,000 will be submitted to the stockholders for ratification on July 14. The new stock will be offered at $150 per share (par $100), payment to be made $10 with subscription and the balance on Aug. 20 1910. The institution began business last year.

—The assets of the bankrupt estate of T. W. House, a private bank of Houston, Texas, which assigned Oct. 17

1907, have been transferred to a co-operative company made up of its principal creditors. The sale of the assets to these creditors at their bid of $860,000 was confirmed by Judge H. L. Borden, referee in bankruptcy, last month. The creditors of the institution have already received dividends amounting to 40%. It is stated in the Houston "Post" that the creditors who did not join the new company are to receive at once a dividend of between 36 and 40% of the original sums due them; this, with the amount already paid, will represent a final settlement and the liquidation of the claims of those accepting cash payment. It is stated that the number of creditors who did not enter the co-operative company exceeds 2,000. Those who formed the company and bid in the assets did so with the expectation of realizing therefrom a full return of the amounts due them.

—The People's Savings Bank of Sacramento, Cal., recently increased its paid-in capital from $328,000 to $410,000. The bank reduced its surplus fund $82,000, crediting that amount to the capital stock. The authorized capital of the institution is $500,000.

—The interest in the Bank of Southern California, at Los Angeles, held by J. B. Lankershim and J. W. Mitchell is reported to have recently been taken over by J. M. Neeland, F. H. Haskell and A. C. Hupp. The bank has a capital of $300,000. Some 500 shares are understood to have been involved in the transaction, and the price paid for the stock, according to the Los Angeles "Times," was $112 per share. Mr. Neeland, who became identified with the bank early last year, will remain as an active director, but retires from the presidency to devote more attention to his railway and other interests. Mr. Haskell, who has for the past few months been Cashier of the bank, becomes head of the institution and Mr. Hupp assumes the cashiership. The other officials are M. N. Newmark, Vice-President; Henry A. Coit, Secretary, and J. T. Bunn, Assistant Cashier and Assistant Secretary.

—The Syndicate Bank of Oakland, Cal., has been absorbed by the Central National Bank of that city. The transfer occurred on April 29, the Syndicate Bank having thereupon terminated its existence. F. M. Smith, President of the Syndicate Bank, is said to have been identified with the Central National for some time. The absorbed bank was organized in 1903 and had $100,000 capital. Its deposits are reported to have been in the neighborhood of $350,000.

—The authority to convert the Bank of Santa Cruz County at Santa Cruz, Cal., into the Santa Cruz County National Bank has been granted by the Federal authorities. Under the National system the bank's capital will be $150,000.

—The capital of the First National Bank of Seattle has been increased from $150,000 to $300,000 through the declaration in January of a dividend of 100%. The surplus now stands at $60,000 and the undivided profits at $15,000.

—The consolidation of the Puget Sound National Bank of Seattle, Wash., with the Seattle National Bank, which was ratified by the stockholders in January, became effective on the 16th inst. The merger is accomplished under the name of the Seattle National, in whose quarters the consolidated bank will be located. The enlarged institution has a capital of $1,000,000 and a surplus of $200,000. The officers are E. W. Andrews, President; Jacob Furth, Chairman of the board; F. K. Struve, J. W. Maxwell and E. G. Ames, Vice-Presidents; R. V. Ankeny, Cashier; C. L. Lamping, Homer McDonald, C. L. LaGrave and William S. Peachy, Assistant Cashiers.

—W. Cooper Morris, formerly Cashier of the Oregon Trust & Savings Bank of Portland, Ore., was found guilty on the 12th inst. of embezzling notes amounting to $75,000 belonging to the institution, and was sentenced on the 16th inst. to six years in the penitentiary. The accused had been tried on the charge of embezzling altogether $125,000 in notes and money. A stay of twenty days in which to file a motion for a new trial was granted. The bank suspended in August 1907 and in February 1908 its assets were taken over by the German-American Bank of Portland.

The State Banking Department also now furnishes weekly returns of the State banks and trust companies under its charge. These returns cover all the institutions of this class in the whole State, but the figures are compiled so as to distinguish between the results for New York City (Greater New York) and those for the rest of the State, as per the following:

For definitions and rules under which the various items are made up, see "Chronicle," V. 86, p. 316.

The Banking Department also undertakes to present separate figures indicating the totals for the State banks and trust companies in the Greater New York not in the Clearing House. These figures are shown in the table below, as are also the results (both actual and average) for the Clearing-House banks. In addition, we have combined each corresponding item in the two statements, thus affording an aggregate for the whole of the banks and trust companies in the Greater New York.

Bankers' Gazette.

Wall Street, Friday Night, May 20 1910.

The Money Market and Financial Situation.—The unusually small volume of business transacted at the Stock Exchange this week recalls the dull period in June 1907, when on some days less than 150,000 shares were traded in. On no full day of this week have the transactions fallen below 200,000 shares, however, but the total for the week is much smaller than for a long time past. This dullness is due in part to the general suspension of business in London, but probably more largely to a widespread lack of interest in new commitments which now prevails in Wall Street.

Crop prospects are getting to be an important factor in the general situation and will doubtless be increasingly so until a fairly accurate estimate can be made of the year's harvests. In the meantime the money markets at home and abroad and the volume of general business throughout the country are reflected in railway earnings and clearing-house reports, and they will be scrutinized with interest. At the moment some of these earnings reports are satisfactory, as illustrated by an increase in the Chesapeake & Ohio's dividend rate from 4 to 5%, and the outlook in practically all directions is promising.

Saturday's bank statement showed a substantial addition to the surplus reserve, and the movement of funds during the week indicates a further increase. The relatively high rates for money which recently prevailed here have drawn funds from the interior for which there is not much demand, and the tendency of rates is now towards a lower level.

The open market rates for call loans at the Stock Exchange during the week on stock and bond collaterals have ranged from 2 to 4%. To-day's rates on call were 3@3½%. Commercial paper quoted at 4½@5% for 60 to 90-day endorsements, 4¾@5% for prime 4 to 6 months' single names and 5¼@6% for good single names.

The Bank of England weekly statement on Thursday showed a decrease in bullion of £475,523 and the percentage of reserve to liabilities was 53.36, against 54.44 last week.

The rate of discount remains unchanged at 4%, as fixed March 17. The Bank of France shows an increase of 4,750,000 francs gold and 5,150,000 francs silver.

Note.—The Clearing House now issues a statement weekly showing the actual condition of the banks on Saturday morning as well as the above averages. These figures, together with the returns of separate banks, also the summary issued by the State Banking Department, giving the condition of State banks and trust companies not reporting to the Clearing House, appear on the second page preceding.

Foreign Exchange.—Higher discounts in England, easier money here and the absence of any unusual supply of security bills have been mainly instrumental in bringing about a very sharp advance in quotations during the current week.

To-day's (Friday's) nominal rates for sterling exchange were 4 84½ for sixty day and 4 87½ for sight. To-day's actual rates for sterling exchange were 4 84¼@4 84¾ for sixty days, 4 8740@4 8745 for checks and 4 8770@4 88 for cables. Commercial on banks 4 84@4 84½ and documents for payment 4 83½@4 84. Cotton for payment 4 83¼@4 83½ and grain for payment 4 83½@4 84.

To-day's (Friday's) actual rates for Paris bankers' francs were 5 20½@5 20 for long and 5 18½ less 1-16@5 18½ less 1-32 for short. Germany bankers' marks were 94 9-16@94 11-16 for long and 95 1-16@95 ½ less 1-32 for short. Amsterdam bankers' guilders were 40 21@40 22 for short.

Exchange at Paris on London, 25f. 28½c.; week's range, 25f. 28¾c. high and 25f. 25½c. low.

Exchange at Berlin on London, 20m. 51½pf.; week's range, 20m. 51¾pf. high and 20m. 49½pf. low.

The range of foreign exchange for the week follows:

The following are the rates for domestic exchange at the undermentioned cities at the close of the week: Chicago, 5c. per $1,000 discount. Boston, 5c. per 1,000 discount. New Orleans, commercial, $1 per 1,000 discount; bank, 90c. per $1,000 premium. Savannah, buying, 3-16 discount; selling, par. St. Louis, 25c. per $1,000 premium. Charleston, buying, par; selling, 1-10 premium. San Francisco, 60c. per 1,000 premium. St. Paul, 75c. per $1,000 premium. Montreal, 15½c. per $1,000 discount.

State and Railroad Bonds.—No sales of State bonds have been reported at the Board this week. The market for railway and industrial bonds has not differed materially from other departments in general characteristics as outlined above. The daily transactions averaged only a little more than $1,000,000, par value, and in nearly all cases fluctuations have been unimportant.

General Electric conv. deb. 6s are exceptional in an advance of over a point. Burlington & Quincy joint 4s, New York New Haven & Hartford deb. 6s, Norfolk & Western conv. 4s, Northern Pacific and Steel issues have been relatively strong. On the other hand, Wabash ref. and ext. 4s have declined over a point and a few other issues are fractionally lower.

United States Bonds.—Sales of Government bonds at the Board are limited to $5,000 3s coup. at 102¼. The following are the daily closing quotations; for yearly range see third page following.

Railroad and Miscellaneous Stocks.—The stock market has, as noted above, been exceptionally dull and narrow throughout the week until late to-day. Prices had a sagging tendency up to Wednesday night, at which time a large portion of the active list showed a decline of from 1 to 2 points. On Thursday there was a firmer tone, which continued to-day and a substantial recovery has been made. The result of the week's operations shows that of a list of 30 active stocks 26 are higher and 4 are lower than at the close last week. Union Pacific, Canadian Pacific and Reading were notably strong to-day, each moving up from 2 to 3 points. Chesapeake & Ohio also advanced on its increased dividend rate. Wabash preferred, on the other hand, has lost a part of the advance noted last week and Rock Island is fractionally lower.

International Harvester has been the strong feature of the industrial list, showing a steady advance and closing over 5 points higher than last week. Steel common has been less active than for some time past, but is nearly 2 points higher. Other stocks in this group have followed the course of the market.

For daily volume of business see page 1353.

The following sales have occurred this week of shares not represented in our detailed list on the pages which follow:

Outside Market.—Trading on the "curb" was extremely dull this week, with price movements for the most part narrow. One or two of the low-priced mining issues showed some slight activity, but beyond this the market was without feature. Butte Coalition sold down from 21 to 20¾. Chino Copper rose from 12¾ to 13¼, dropped to 12½ and advanced again to 13¼. First National Copper, assessment paid, went up from 4¼ to 4½ and down to 4½, with the final figure to-day 4¾. Giroux advanced from 7¾ to 8 and closed to-day at 7½. Greene Cananea improved from 8¾ to 9½, eased off to 8¾ and rested finally at 8½. Miami Copper moved up from 22¼ to 22½ and down to 21½, recovering finally to 22. Ohio Copper was weak and fell from 3½ to 2¾, the close to-day being at 2 15-16. United Copper common from 8½ dropped to 7 and rose subsequently to 7½. The preferred advanced 5 points to 30, fell to 28 and moved up to 28¾. To-day there was a drop, with transactions reported at 22. Goldfield Consolidated improved from 8½ to 8½, sagged to 8¼, the close to-day being at 8¾. La Rose Consolidated sold down from 4¾ to 4¼ and up to 4½. Nipissing advanced from 10¼ to 10½ and weakened to 10¾. Tonopah Mining lost a point to 8 and recovered to 8½. Industrials were very quiet. American Tobacco sold ex-dividend and moved down from 437 to 436, up to 439½ and declined finally to 431. Intercontinental Rubber lost 1½ points to 21½, then jumped to 22½ and to-day to 22½. Standard Oil advanced 3 points to 635. The usual dividend of $9 at this quarter of the year was declared. United Cigar Mfrs. common advanced from 71 to 74. In bonds, Western Pacific 5s weakened from 95½ to 94.

Outside quotations will be found on page 1353.

RAILROAD GROSS EARNINGS.

The following table shows the gross earnings of every STEAM railroad from which regular weekly or monthly returns can be obtained. The first two columns of figures give the gross earnings for the latest week or month, and the last two columns the earnings for the period from July 1 to and including such latest week or month. We add a supplementary statement to show the fiscal year totals of those roads whose fiscal year does not begin with July, but covers some other period. The returns of the electric railways are brought together separately on a subsequent page.

Net Earnings Monthly to Latest Dates.—In our "Railway Earnings" Section, which accompanies to-day's issue of the "Chronicle" as a special Supplement, we print the March returns of earnings and expenses (or in the absence of the March figures those for the latest previous month) of every steam-operating railroad in the United States which is obliged to make monthly statements to the Inter-State Commerce Commission at Washington.

The Inter-State Commission returns are all on a uniform basis, both as to revenues and expenditures, and possess special utility by reason of that fact. In a number of instances these figures differ from those contained in the monthly statements given out by the companies themselves, for publication, and in which the accounts are prepared in accordance with old methods of grouping and classification pursued in many instances for years. We bring together here (1) all the roads where there is a substantial difference between the two sets of figures, so that those persons who for any reason may desire to turn to the company statements will find them readily available. We also give (2) the returns of such roads (even where the figures correspond exactly with those in the Inter-State Commerce reports) which go beyond the requirements of the Commission and publish their fixed charges in addition to earnings and expenses, or (3) which have a fiscal year different from that of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, in which latter case we insert the road so as to show the results for the company's own year. We likewise include (4) the few roads which operate entirely within State boundaries, and therefore do not report to the Federal Commission, and (5) Mexican and Canadian companies. We add (6) the roads which have issued their own statements for March, but have not yet filed any returns for that month with the Commission. Finally (7) we give the figures of any roads that have already submitted their April statement.

ANNUAL REPORTS.

Annual Reports.—An index to annual reports of steam railroads, street railways and miscellaneous companies which have been published during the preceding month will be given on the last Saturday of each month. This index will not include reports in the issue of the "Chronicle" in which it is published. The latest index will be found in the issue of April 30. The next will appear in that of May 28.

West Jersey & Seashore RR.

(Report for Fiscal Year ending Dec. 31 1909.)

President James McCrea says in substance:

General Results.—The income account shows a satisfactory increase in the gross and net revenue for the year. Express revenue shows an apparent decrease of $84,475, but the net revenue from this source increased. The express company now pays your company a net compensation for express privileges and assume the entire cost of conducting that business.

The net income was $811,124, an increase of $283,940, and after making payments to the 1st consol. mtge. sinking fund, paying dividends of 6% on the special guar. stock and 4 1/4% on common stock (V. 89, p. 667) providing for principal of car trusts and disbursing $177,788 for extraordinary expenditures, the sum of $100,000 was appropriated to an extraordinary expenditure fund for future necessary improvements and the balance—$34,911—was transferred to the credit of profit and loss account.

Camden Terminal.—As stated in the last annual report, this company has relinquished its one-half interest in the Camden Terminal and facilities upon the repayment of the amount previously contributed thereto, but continues, as a tenant, to use the terminal for its steam trains, paying a rental therefor proportionate to such use. This arrangement enabled your company to reduce the amount previously borrowed for construction and equipment purposes to $1,394,000 and a 4% certificate of indebtedness due July 1 1911 was issued therefor.

Construction, &c.—Construction, equipment and real estate expenditures aggregated $259,841. Of this amount $177,788 was charged against income, and the balance, $82,052, covering right of way and the cost ($51,310) of four new electric baggage cars, was charged to capital account.

The most important item of construction work during the year was the elevation of the steam railroad from Wright Ave. to Spruce St., Camden. Sufficient progress was made on this work to avoid grade crossings, and the permanent embankment and the steel bridging will be completed early in 1910 (cost of this improvement during 1909 $135,433). This leaves two important pieces of work to be undertaken in Camden, viz.: the elevation of the steam tracks from Spruce St. to old Harleigh Station, and of the electric tracks from Van Hook St. to Newton Creek.

Bonds.—On Nov. 1 1909 $750,000 consolidated mtge. 6% bonds of the West Jersey RR. became due, and to provide funds for their redemption an issue was authorized of a like amount of your first consol. mtge. 4% Series E bonds, due July 1 1936 (V. 89, p. 995). During the year, $58,000 3 1/4% first consol. series B were retired and canceled by the sinking fund.

Ferry Company.—The Cooper's Point & Philadelphia Ferry Co., which is operated and owned by your company, authorized a 40% allotment of capital stock at par ($100), amounting to $33,100, all of which was subscribed to and paid for by your company. The funds will be devoted to the building of a new ferry structure at Vine St. Wharf, as part of the Delaware Ave. improvements required by the city of Philadelphia.

United Railways & Electric Co. of Baltimore.

(Report for Fiscal Year ending Dec. 31 1909.)

President William A. House, Baltimore, April 13 1910, wrote in substance:

General Results.—Comparing 1909 with 1908, we have the following: Increase in gross earnings, $375,181, or 5.49%; increase in operating expenses, $68,534, or 2.08%; decrease in other income, $750; increase in fixed charges, $82,006, or 3.11%; increase in amount carried to credit of profit and loss, $9,230, after deducting $15,000 representing sinking fund on $4,000,000 Maryland Electric Railways bonds for quarter ended Dec. 31.

The increase in fixed charges is due to the additional obligations incurred for rentals on property leased from the Maryland Electric Railways Co., interest on increased number of new funding bonds and increase in park and other taxes. The percentage of operating expenses to gross earnings was 46.63%, as compared with 46.18% in 1908. Average earnings per car-mile, 26.59 cents, increase of 1.04 cents, cost of service 12.39 cents increase .08cts.

Extraordinary Expenditures.—The balance of $456,693 charged to extraordinary expenditures, brought over from 1906 and carried in the meantime as a deferred asset, has been charged directly to the income of 1909, which, added to the $556,720 extraordinary expenditures for 1909, makes a total deduction of $1,013,413, credited to extraordinary expenditures for the year, leaving a balance carried to credit of profit and loss of $103,001.

Financial.—Accounts and notes payable were decreased $539,931 and the current assets exceed current liabilities by $3,371, while in 1908 the current liabilities exceeded the current assets by $419,389.

In addition to the $556,720 taken from income, credited to extraordinary expenditures and put back into the property, there has been expended $96,096 under the arrangement with the Maryland Electric Railways Co. for purchase, construction, &c., of property leased to your Company.

In addition to the extraordinary expenditures above recited, there has been included in ordinary costs of operation $257,995 for maintenance of way and $375,886 for maintenance of equipment.

Your company had on hand as of Dec. 31 out of the proceeds of the sale of Maryland Electric Railways Company's 5% bonds $729,423, which is available for completion of the Park terminal car house and for future acquisitions. Work was begun July 19 on this car house, which will be of handsome brick with terra cotta trimmings. It will contain waiting room and quarters for employees, besides holding 103 45-foot cars or 121 cars of size now used on lines terminating there.

Taxes.—The total amount of taxes, including Park tax, cost of paving streets, track changes necessitated by re-grading of streets, Sewerage Commission work, widening of streets, &c., was $735,067, or more than 10% of the gross revenue and more than 19% of the net receipts after paying the costs of operation. The Park tax for the year was $469,879, as against $423,639 in 1908, an increase of $45,739.

Easement Tax.—The report refers to the long pending easement tax litigation finally decided June 29 by the Court of Appeals of Maryland, in favor of the company, holding that the "Park Tax" of 9% on gross receipts paid by the company was in substitution of all other taxes on its park tax, paying mileage. Compare V. 89, p. 44.—Ed.]

The Court also sustained the city's valuation of the elevated structure and bridges of your company.

Park Tax Settlement.—Pursuant to the decision of the Court of Appeals rendered Jan. 8 1908, covering the payment of Park tax on receipts of lines in the annex, an arrangement was entered into with the city, under which payments, including interest, were made and are to be made, which finally disposes of this controversy.

Power Plants.—Inasmuch as the McCall Ferry Power Co. was unable to fulfill its agreement for supplying your company with 10,000 k.w. river power under contract of June 28 1907, and in view of the uncertainty as to when that company would be able to complete its undertaking, as well as to provide for the additional load incident to the growth in traffic and for reserve and emergencies, a contract was placed, on June 2 for a 6,000 k.w. turbo-generator, with a maximum capacity of 9,000 k.w., including necessary auxiliaries for installation at Pratt St. power house. This machinery is now in process of erection. With this additional unit, your company's Pratt St. power station will have a generating capacity of 39,400 k.w.

Fare Question.—Revenue per capita is on the decline; the expense per capita is on a steady and rapid climb. Within a few years the possible length of a 5-cent ride has been nearly doubled and the running time has been materially shortened. The number of transfers issued in 1909 was nearly four times as great as the number issued in 1900. One remedy would seem to be to increase the unit rate of fare sufficiently to afford a reasonable return on the investment and provision for depreciation; another, by a contraction of the fare limits; another, by readjusting the transfer system or curtailing this privilege to some extent.

American Beet Sugar Co., New York.

(Report for Fiscal Year ending March 31 1910.)

Pres. H. Rieman Duval, New York, April 28 1910, wrote:

General Results.—The average price for sugar sold was a little less than last year, the advance not coming until after the bulk of the product had been sold. There was an increase in the output of 291,962 bags of sugar, as follows: California factories, increase, 230,882 bags; Colorado, increase, 88,605 bags; Grand Island, decrease, 27,525 bags.

Great damage was done in Colorado and in Nebraska to the beet crops by summer and autumn floods and early severe winter. The expected crop in Colorado was reduced to such an extent that the Lamar and Las Animas factories, having sliced respectively 25,335 tons and 20,221 tons, were shut down early in the season, and the remaining crop was worked at Rocky Ford, which had thus but 13,557 tons more than last year, with a total of 47,500 tons less than the average of the years 1904 to 1907 inclusive. The effect of the storms and early cold was even more disastrous in the Grand Island district, the factory there having the lightest tonnage in its operating history.

Financial.—Outstanding 6% certificates of indebtedness, $3,000,000, due March 1 1910, were retired on June 1 1909, amounting, with interest, to $3,044,970 (V. 88, p. 1063, 1130). Of this sum there was contributed, through the sale on April 7 1909 of the 910 shares of treasury pref. stock, at 87 1/2 net (V. 88, p. 1004), $796,250; and there was contributed from other cash resources $2,248,720. As the proceeds of the certificates were previously invested in factories, lands, equipment, &c., the property account was reduced to an amount equal to the outstanding capital stock. The effect of this payment was also to reduce the working capital account $832,151, as shown on the balance sheet.

The company on March 1 1910 was borrowing $1,200,000 on its notes thus demonstrating that the company, since paying the certificates of indebtedness, is without sufficient available cash working capital, and must look to future earnings for an accumulation of cash, in order to avoid the necessity for borrowing money for working purposes and providing for future betterments, &c.

Property Account.—On April 1 1909 the property account on the books stood at $21,955,121; during the year additions and betterments were made at a cost of $470,291; total, $22,425,412; amount of capital liabilities, $20,000,000; amount charged off, as explained above, $2,425,412.

The additions and improvements, aggregated $470,291, including: Factory buildings and equipment, $170,786; purchase 1,560 acres land, Lamar, Col., $124,515; land improvements, $51,241; canal improvements, $44,161; live stock and farm equipment, $32,614; beet dumps and miscellaneous, $46,975. The purchase of 1,500 acres of land was made by advice of counsel to allay contention for water rights in the Lamar Canal.]

It must be borne in mind that the factories, except Las Animas, which is modern, have had to undergo numerous improvements.

Betterments to be made within the next two years, at an estimated cost of $200,000, have recently been authorized. These include an irrigation system at Chino, whereby the factory waste water will be used to irrigate and fertilize the company's lands, and also the partial installation at that point of a pulp-drying machine. The growing demand for dried pulp indicates that what heretofore has been regarded as of little or no value may be converted into a valuable product, and it is probable that within the next few years it will be found profitable to equip all of your factories with pulp driers. For maintenance, which is annually charged to factory operation, there was spent during the year $357,961, compared with $296,238 last year.

Outlook.—In California the prospects of a bountiful beet crop exceed that of last year, the acreage contracted having increased 3,288 acres. At the latest report all agricultural indications promise an early harvest with a rich yield in tonnage and sugar.

In Colorado the drought of 1908 and the storms and cold of 1909 so discouraged beet growers that less acreage will be planted this spring than last, although an increased scale of prices is being offered; and it is proposed to operate only the Rocky Ford factory. Of the company's lands there will be under cultivation in Colorado 10,340 acres, of which 175 acres are in the experimental farms; 6,773 acres are tenanted and 3,392 acres are farmed by the company. Of the acreage farmed by tenants, 1,359 acres are in beets, and of those farmed by the company 519 acres are in beets.

In California the company has planted at Chino 2,472 acres in beets, and its tenants have planted 1,017 acres. The remainder is in alfalfa and other hay and fallow. At Oxnard there are planted 550 acres of beets, and the remainder has been planted in beans and barley, or lies fallow.

United States Smelting, Refining & Mining Company.

(Report for Fiscal Year ending Dec. 31 1909.)

President W. G. Sharp, April 25 1910, wrote in substance:

Tonnage.—The tonnage of ore produced from Centennial-Eureka, Mammoth and the United States mines at Bingham and in Mexico, was 869,771 tons [contrasting with 608,512 tons the preceding year.—Ed.], of which the values of the metal contents were in the proportion of 42% copper, 5% lead, 35% silver and 18% gold.

Capital Expenditure 1909.—The charges to capital account for construction and other additions in 1909 aggregated $639,193, as follows: mine properties, $442,233; smelter buildings and plant at Midvale and Mammoth, $55,358; real estate and plant at Chrome and Grassell, $81,762; miscellaneous, $11,840; additional investments in stocks of subsidiary companies and in bonds of allied companies, $47,936.

Stockholders.—The total number of preferred stockholders is 7,047 and of common stockholders 2,064 at this date.

Bonds.—The $500,000 6% debentures of United States Mining Co. were paid at maturity May 1 1909.

Additions.—At the Midvale smelter in Utah the bag-house for filtering the smelter fumes was completed during the year and the cost charged to capital account. At the Chrome refinery, New Jersey, valuable real estate adjoining the refinery lands was purchased to provide additional facilities.

Adequate provision has been made out of earnings for the exploration of new properties and your field corps have been and still are busily engaged in this work. We have acquired during this time a smelter at Needles, Cal., and some promising mining territory near Kingman, Ariz., tributary to this plant, as well as some other properties, at present of minor importance.

Depreciation, &c.—The deduction of $810,248 for depreciation, improvement and reserve is in addition to all current repairs and replacements, which were charged directly to operating expenses, and represents an arbitrary depreciation, and also payments for additions to the several properties which it seemed more prudent not to capitalize; this sum compares with $311,631 for the preceding year.

The report of Vice-President Frederick Lyon April 25 1910 says in brief:

1. United States Mining Co. and Its Sub-Companies.

There is a sufficient tonnage in sight in the Bingham Utah mines to insure regular shipments on the present scale for a number of years. What little exploration was done easily added as much ore as was extracted. Ore mined and shipped to the Midvale smelter amounted to 79,676 tons. By the Huff electrostatic process the zinc contents are separated and made to yield a revenue; previously they were not only a total loss, but it added to the cost of smelting.

At the Centennial-Eureka mine vigorous prospecting was carried on with the usual satisfactory results. The shaft was sunk to a depth of 2,200 feet. A tunnel 2,160 feet long was run from a point on the railway tracks to the shaft, just below the 500-foot level, to carry off the water raised by the pumps and used in haulage. The shipments of ore during the year amounted to 109,430 tons.

At the Midvale smelter, Utah, of the U. S. Smelting Co., 373,090 tons of charge were treated during the year. (Midvale is the town formerly known as West Jordan.) The lead smelter operated practically to its full capacity most of the time, a remarkable record in view of the small tonnage of ore offered for sale on account of the low price of metals.

Not only have all damaging effects of the gases been eliminated by the bag-houses at the lead smelters, but the products recovered in the bag-house have gone a long way towards defraying the cost of operating the bag-house. The Court has granted us permission to operate the copper smelter with the same device, and plans for the installation are now being drawn. At the concentrator 8 tables, 3 slimers and a re-grinding plant were added and the zinc plant containing 15 Huff electrostatic machines was installed.

The extraction of ore at the mine of the Mammoth Copper Mining Co. at Kennett, Cal., amounted to 401,244 tons. The smelter treated 575,606 tons of charge. Considerable development work was done, practically maintaining the ore reserve in spite of the heavy extraction. A bag-house will be in operation before long.

At the Quartz Hill Mine the shaft was sunk 200 feet and cross-cutting started. At the Buchanan Mine no work was done during the year; the ore reserve is small but of high grade. The bullion treated by the Grassell Refinery showed a material increase and much more satisfactory results were obtained. This applies also to the copper refinery at Chrome, though the supply of blister copper was not sufficient to run it at full capacity.

2. The Needles Mining & Smelting Co.

This is a new acquisition, bought from the Arizona-Mexican Mining & Smelting Co. It included a small smelting plant at Needles, Cal., and several small mines near Kingman, Ariz. We added by purchase and by bonding a large though little developed mining territory, which we are now equipping and exploring. We are also making improvements at the plant and expect to begin smelting in the near future. We are also building a 200-ton concentrator. Tributary is a large territory in California, Nevada and Arizona which promises well from the mining point of view, but lacking proper milling and smelting facilities. These we propose to provide, and we are confident that we shall be able to build up a large industry in smelting custom ores, augmented by ores from our own mines. Complete results, however, cannot be expected for at least two years.

3. Richmond-Eureka Mining Co.

Our efforts were practically confined to the extraction of the old fillings, of which 51,419 tons were shipped to the United States Smelting Co. It is intended to begin the exploration of the lower levels during the present year.

4. The Real Del Monte and Pachuca Mines in Mexico.

The extraction of ore amounted to 213,630 tons of milling ore and 1,579 tons of shipping ore. Exploration was handicapped by insufficient power, yet the ore reserve was maintained. The absorption of the power company by a larger company, recently effected, will eliminate the power problem.

GENERAL INVESTMENT NEWS.

RAILROADS, INCLUDING ELECTRIC ROADS.

Alabama & Vicksburg Railway.—New Stock.—The shareholders will vote June 10 on increasing the authorized capital stock.—V. 89, p. 1594.

Baltimore & Ohio RR.—Bonds Called.—Fifty-four ($54,000) 1st mortgage 5% coal bonds of the Monongahela River RR. have been drawn for redemption on June 1 1910 at par and interest at the Maryland Trust Co., Baltimore, Md.—V. 90, p. 1295, 1238.

Buffalo & Susquehanna RR.—Preferred Shareholders' Committee.—The following committee has been organized to protect the interests of the preferred stock, and by advertisement on another page requests the preferred shareholders to deposit their stock with the Central Trust Co., No. 54 Wall Street, New York, in exchange for transferable certificates:

J. N. Wallace, Chairman; Frank Bergen, Walter P. Bliss, Henry Evans and Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, with David Rumsey as Counsel and Hugh Rankin, Secretary, 46 Cedar St., New York City. Compare V. 90, p. 1238.

Burlington County Ry., Mt. Holly, N. J.—Foreclosure Sale.—The foreclosure sale will take place at the Court-house, Mt. Holly, on June 16.—V. 90, p. 236.

Camden & Trenton Ry.—Successor.—See Camden & Trenton Traction Co. below.—V. 90, p. 1238, 913.

Camden & Trenton Traction Co.—Reorganized Co.—The company has been incorporated in New Jersey with $675,000 authorized capital stock in $50 shares, as successor to the Camden & Trenton Ry. (V. 90, p. 770, 913, 1238), sold in foreclosure on March 18.

The incorporators were: Freysinger Evans (President), Eugene A. Martin and Charles R. Rens.

Canadian Pacific Ry.—New Coupon Sheets.—New sheets of interest coupons for the £200,000 St. Lawrence & Ottawa Ry. bonds are ready for delivery, and the English bondholders are requested to send their bonds to the Deputy Secretary Can. Pac. Ry. Co., 62-65 Charing Cross, S. W., to have the coupons attached.

The St. Lawrence & Ottawa bonds were endorsed in 1884 with the Canadian Pacific's acceptance of a 999-years' lease at a rental sufficient to pay 4% interest on bonds, and the bondholders' agreement to accept interest at 4% (instead of 6%) and to refrain from demanding principal (due 1910) during lease.—V. 90, p. 1295, 1169.

Purchase by Friendly Interests.—See Dominion & Atlantic Ry. below.—V. 90, p. 1295, 1169.

Carolina Power & Light Co., Raleigh, N. C.—Bonds Offered—Status.—Stein Bros., Baltimore, Md., are offering at 92½ and int., yielding 5½%, a block of the 1st M. 5% gold bonds, dated 1908 and due Aug. 1 1938, but redeemable as a whole Aug. 1 1913 or on any int. day thereafter at 105 and int. Interest F. & A. in N. Y. Par $1,000 and $500 (c*). Standard Trust Co. of N. Y., trustee. Sinking fund, 1% of total bonds outstanding each year from Aug. 1 1913 to Aug. 1 1923 and 1½% each year thereafter.

Abstract of Letter from Pres. Chas. E. Johnson, Raleigh, N. C., Apr. 5 1910. The company controls the entire electric lighting and power business in Raleigh, Sanford and Jonesboro, furnishes electric power for the operation of cotton mills in Fayetteville, Sanford and Raleigh, and owns and operates the street railway system in Raleigh. [Incorporated in N. C. in 1908 as a consolidation. Owned by Electric Bond & Share Co. of N. Y. See page 100 of "Electric Ry. Section."—Ed.]

Capitalization.

Pref. stock, 6% cumulative, authorized, $1,250,000 (par of shares $100); issued. 200,000
Common stock, authorized, $2,500,000 (par of shares $100); issued 1,000,000
1st mtge. gold 5s, authorized, $5,000,000; issued. 720,000
Ten-year 5% convertible coupon gold notes. 430,000

The gold notes are exchangeable for 1st M. bonds at par at the option of the company when the annual net earnings are equal to at least twice the annual interest charge upon bonds outstanding and those to be exchanged.

The gross earnings for the twelve months ending March 31 1910 were 207,776; operating exp. and taxes, $126,409; net earnings, $81,367, being over twice the annual int. charge on the $720,000 1st M. bonds now out.

The 1st M. bonds are a first lien on all property, rights and franchises now owned or hereafter acquired; $430,000 bonds are reserved to retire the convertible gold notes; $600,000 are reserved to be issued in exchange, bond for bond, whenever the company shall acquire 1st M. bonds of any corporation owning an electric light, electric power, gas or street railway plant, and shall have pledged with the trustee all of the capital stock of said corporation, but only in case the combined annual net earnings of the company and all corporations whose entire capital stock is owned shall have been not less than twice the annual int. charge upon the bonds outstanding and those then applied for, and any outstanding bonds of corporations all of whose capital stock is at the time owned. The remaining bonds may be issued only to reimburse the company for not exceeding 80% of the reasonable value of improvements and extensions, provided the annual net earnings are equal to at least twice the interest charge, including bonds applied for.

The company operates under favorable franchises, some unlimited in time and all extending beyond Aug. 1 1938.

Two generating plants, (1) a modern hydro-electric plant on the Cape Fear River, with an installed capacity of 3,350 h. p.; (2) a modern turbo-generator steam station of 1,350 h. p., located in Raleigh. Also operates under long lease a hydro-electric plant of 550 h. p. capacity on the Neuse River. There are three sub-stations. The company owns 70 miles of high-potential transmission line, of which 26 miles are of steel tower construction. The street railway system in Raleigh consists of 11 miles of track, recently laid with 60 and 70-lb. rail. The estimated population of the territory served is 40,000. [J. G. White & Co. estimate the replacement value of the physical property, exclusive of franchise rights and goodwill, to be, as of June 30 1909, $1,165,841. The property, they state, is in good physical condition (reconstructed since 1906), ably managed, and assured, they believe, of satisfactory increases in earnings. Dividends paid on pref. stock, July 1909 to Apr. 1910, incl., 1 1/4% quar., 6% per annum.] Compare V. 88, p. 1562.—V. 87, p. 418.

Central New England Ry. Co.—Application to Issue Bonds.

—The company has applied to the Public Service Commission, First District, for authority to make a mortgage for $25,000,000 and to issue thereunder immediately $12,419,000 bonds to refund outstanding bonds.

The Commission on Aug. 11 last denied the application to make a new mortgage (V. 88, p. 1001; V. 89, p. 102), because the mortgage then proposed, it was held, did not make proper provision for $2,331,376 bonds owned by others than the New York New Haven & Hartford RR., and also because it was proposed to issue bonds to refund unpaid interest. The company in the present application seeks to overcome the objections of the Commission to the former application.—V. 90, p. 1295, 1238.

Chesapeake & Ohio Ry.—Dividend Increased.—The directors yesterday declared a quarterly dividend of 1 1/4%, payable June 30 to holders of record June 10, thus placing the $62,798,300 stock on a 5% per annum basis. This contrasts with annual distributions of 1% in the last quarter of each cal. year, 1899 to 1908, incl., and 4% per annum (Q-M) from June 29 1909 to March 31 1910, incl.—V. 90, p. 1170, 913.

Chicago Cincinnati & Louisville RR.—Foreclosure Ordered.

—The Federal Court at Indianapolis on May 14 ordered the foreclosure sale of the road under the four mortgages at a date to be fixed by Noble C. Butler, special master.

The amounts found to be due (including interest) are as follows: On the receivers' certificates, $1,425,315; on the C. C. & L. general and refunding M., $3,431,000; on the Cln. Richmond & Muncie M., $2,050,126; on the Chicago & Cincinnati M., $860,394; on the Cln. & Indiana Western M., $676,560. There is also said to be considerable floating debt, reported to aggregate about $1,500,000.—V. 90, p. 1044.

Chicago Consolidated Traction Co.—Reorganization Assured.

—It is announced that the bondholders of the Chicago North Shore Ry. have generally accepted the terms of the reorganization plan (V. 90, p. 166), the committees representing the other underlying securities having agreed to the plan.

The Consolidated Traction reorganization committee it is stated will apply next week for a franchise to the City Council and probably receive a 20-year grant on terms of joint ownership similar to the ordinances of the other traction companies. The agreement with the Chicago Railways Co., providing for the operation of the traction properties in connection with the North and West Side lines of the Chicago Railways Co., has, it is reported, been completed with the exception of some minor details.

The "Chicago Inter Ocean" says that "the present adjustment does not include the West Side lines of the Consolidated Co., the Chicago & Jefferson Urban, the Cicero & Proviso and the Ogden Street railway, which are negotiating their own traffic agreements with the Chicago Railways Co., and will be operated as separate lines, the financial status of the West Side lines being such as to prevent them being taken into the new company on satisfactory terms.

Decision on Guaranty of Bonds.—Judge Farlin Q. Ball in the Superior Court on May 18 in the suit brought by the committee of general mortgage bondholders (V. 87, p. 1357) representing $1,200,000 of the $6,750,000 bonds, held that the company as successor of the Union Traction Co. is liable for the latter's guaranty of principal and interest of the issue. An appeal to the Supreme Court, it is expected, will be taken.

The interest on the bonds was defaulted June 1 1908 and the judgment to be entered against the Chicago Railways will amount to about $1,350,000. The decision is important in its bearing on the question of the general liability of the company for the guaranties of the Union Traction Co. The Court says:

"The Chicago Union Traction Co. guaranteed payment of the bonds, received them, used them and accepted them as valid obligations. Having accepted the benefits, it must bear the burdens. Whatever is binding on the Chicago Union Traction Co. is binding on the Chicago Railways Co. It was consolidation. What was done and not the state or the intention of the parties interested is to be considered and will determine the liability or non-liability. The question as to whether or not the statute has been violated is in this case immaterial."—V. 90, p. 446, 302.

Chicago Railways Co.—Decision on Liability for Guaranty of Bonds.—See Chicago Consolidated Traction Co. above.—V. 90, p. 1099, 559.

Chicago Rock Island & Pacific Ry.—Equipment Trusts.—The $6,750,000 4 1/2% equipment trusts, Series D, recently sold to Speyer & Co. (V. 90, p. 913), were issued on the following new equipment, to be delivered, all or nearly all, during 1910, and to cost $7,720,253, of which $970,253 is paid in cash and the remainder is represented by Series D:

3,975 freight cars, 50 Pacific type locomotives, 84 consolidated locomotives and tenders, 5 diners, 25 cabooses, 4 McKen gasoline motor cars, 20 steel compartment coaches, 4 steel postal cars, 6 steel combination baggage and passenger cars, 6 steel combination mail and baggage cars and 20 steel passenger smokers.—V. 90, p. 1170, 913.

Cincinnati Union Depot & Terminal Co.—New Co.—Guaranteed Bonds.

—This company was incorporated in Ohio on May 11 with $1,000,000 authorized stock, in $100 shares, of which one-half is common and the other half pref. stock (to be increased later), to build a union passenger and freight depot in the central southern part of the city, with approaches, for the accommodation of all the steam roads entering the city and also the traction and interurban lines. The cost, it is estimated, will be $30,000,000. There will be an issue of bonds, the interest on which, it is reported, will be guaranteed by rental or otherwise by the 9 roads benefited, viz.:

Pennsylvania RR., Cleveland Cincinnati Chicago & St. Louis, Baltimore & Ohio, Cincinnati Hamilton & Dayton, Chesapeake & Ohio, Louisville & Nashville, Norfolk & Western, Southern and Chicago Cincinnati & Louisv.

The station will be located on the north side of Third St. between Walnut and Main and the main building will occupy nearly an entire square. This building will be 10 stories high, but will be surmounted by a tower 20 stories in height 100 x 100 feet square. An unusual feature will be that all except the lower floors will be let out for offices in order to afford an additional source of revenue, similar to the Hudson & Manhattan Terminal buildings in this city.

A hearing on the company's application for a franchise to the City Council has been set for May 25. The officers are:

President, Archibald S. White, President of the Columbia Gas & Electric Co.; Vice-President and General Manager, John E. Bleekman; Secretary Treasurer, F. R. Williams, Treasurer of the Cincinnati Trust Co. The other directors are George H. Worthington, Cleveland; General Lewis Seasongood, Louis J. Hauck, C. Bentley Matthews and G. H. Worthington.

Dominion Atlantic Ry.—Sold.—Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, President and Chairman of the Canadian Pacific Ry., is quoted as saying that interests friendly to the Canadian Pacific have purchased the Dominion Atlantic Ry.—V. 90, p. 1238.

Duluth Missabe & Northern Ry.—Bonds Called.—General mortgage 5% gold bonds dated Jan. 1 1906 to the amount of $199,000 have been drawn and will be paid at the New York Trust Co., New York on July 1 1910, at 105 and interest.—V. 90, p. 236.

Eastern Kentucky Ry.—No Extension at Present.—Referring to the report that the company or parties interested therein have arranged to build an extension from Webbville, Ky., to timber and coal fields in Kentucky, 69 miles, an officer writes:

The report of the extension is at least premature. There have been negotiations extending at intervals over more than 3 years with owners of certain properties beyond our present terminus, but at this time nothing tangible has developed, many newspaper reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

Elizabeth & Trenton RR.—Reorganized Co.—The company was incorporated at Trenton, N. J., on May 19, with $1,200,000 authorized capital stock, to take over the Trenton & New Brunswick RR. and New Jersey Short Line RR., which were sold in foreclosure on May 4.

Of the stock, $900,000 is common and $300,000 5% cumulative preferred. The incorporators are:

Irvin Shupp Jr. and Claude L. Rihl of Philadelphia; Charles Sinnickson of Rosemont, Pa.; H. Hays Atkins, John W. Kelly and A. E. Garwood of Llanerch, Pa.; Chester A. Entekin of Ardmore, Pa.; John R. Turner of Basking Ridge, N. J., and H. O. Coughlan of Brooklyn.

Elizabethtown Terminal RR., New York.—Mortgage.—The company has made a mortgage to the Glens Falls Trust Co. of Glens Falls, N. Y., as trustee, to secure an authorized issue of $150,000 30-year 1st M. 6% bonds, maturing April 1 1940, but callable at 105 and int. on and after April 1915.

The company was incorporated in Sept. 1909 in New York State, with a capital stock of $80,000, for the purpose of building a standard-gauge steam railroad, beginning at Westport, on the D. & H. Ry., and extending west 8 miles to the county seat of Essex County, Elizabethtown. This road is now under construction. V. R. Coon is General Manager. Main office, Elizabethtown, N. Y.—V. 90, p. 1044, 236.

Erie RR.—Agreement Practically Assured.—Subject to the settlement of some matters of detail, the representatives of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Order of Railroad Conductors, it was announced yesterday afternoon, have informally accepted the company's terms, as follows:

An increase from 9 to 10% to become effective June 1; the standard Baltimore & Ohio rate of pay, as now in force on the New York Central and Baltimore & Ohio railroads, to become effective in the freight and yard service July 1 1911 and the standard Baltimore & Ohio rate in the passenger service on June 1 1911.—V. 90, p. 303.

Evansville Railways.—Purchases.—See Owensboro City RR. below.—V. 89, p. 410.

Florida East Coast Ry.—New Vice-President.—W. H. Beardsley, Treasurer, has been elected a Vice-President. Mr. Beardsley retains his present position as Treasurer, with office in New York.—V. 88, p. 1620.

Florida Railway.—Bonds Offered in Paris.—Subscriptions were received until May 19 at the Banque I. R. P. des Pays Autrichiens, Paris (at which institution the coupons will be payable) at 472 francs each (par $100, or 518 francs) for $4,000,000 first mortgage 5% bonds (due July 1 1959) carrying semi-annual coupon of 2 1/2% due July 1. An authoritative statement says in substance:

The company, with $4,000,000 of capital stock, is authorized to build 224 miles (358 kilometres) of railway extending from Tallahassee to the ports of Fernandina and Jacksonville on the Atlantic Ocean. The first section of 59 miles (93 kilometres) from Live Oak to Perry (including 7 miles of branches.—Ed.) is in operation and already shows a profit after the payment of all interest upon the cost of construction. The proceeds of the $4,000,000 bonds is to be used in building the extensions to the terminal points mentioned. The mortgage is made to the Carnegie Trust Co., as trustee. There has been deposited with a financial institution [not, we are informed, the Carnegie Trust Co.—Ed.] a sum equal to two years' [not three years'] interest on the bonds, to provide for the payment of coupons during the period of construction of the extensions. The company will meet all French and American impost taxes, present or future. See also V. 90, p. 447.

Georgia RR. & Banking Co.—Dividend Likely to be Increased.—At the annual meeting held at Augusta on May 11 a resolution was adopted requesting the directors, as soon as is practicable, to increase the annual dividend on the $4,200,000 stock from 11 to 12%. The "Augusta Chronicle" of May 12 says: "Announcement, following the meeting of directors, is that the outlook at this time is that the dividend will be increased early in 1911."

The company's road is operated under lease by the Louisville & Nashville and the Atlantic Coast Line RR. Cos., the rental being $600,000 per annum, which until Jan. 1 1910 was just equal to 11% on the $4,200,000 stock and interest on the outstanding bonds. On Jan. 1 $1,000,000 6% bonds matured and were refunded at 4%, reducing the interest charge by $20,000, being about half the amount required to pay an additional 1% in dividends.

Dividend Record 73 1/2 Years, in all 188 Payments, Aggregating 592 1/4%, or $23,542,637.

Gulf Coast & Provident City Ry.—Bonds Authorized.—The Texas Railroad Commissioners on April 9 authorized the issue of $721,000 bonds and $50,000 stock to construct the proposed road from Pierce, Tex., north to Provident City, 30.25 miles.

The company was incorporated in Texas in Jan. 1910 with $50,000 authorized stock. Contracts were awarded in April 1910 to build from Pierce, Tex., to Provident City and Hallettsville, 60 miles, for which it is reported surveys and right of way have been obtained. President, Emil Reinbold, Kansas City, Mo.; Vice-Pres., Carey Shaw, Houston, Tex.

Henderson (Ky.) Traction Co.—Change in Control.—See Owensboro City RR. below.—V. 84, p. 1428.

Hocking Valley Ry.—Receivership.—Appointment Suspended.—Judge Kinkead in the Common Pleas Court of Franklin Co., Ohio, on May 16, in the suit of the minority stockholders, recently begun, appointed J. M. Sheets, former Attorney-General, and Henry J. Booth, a Columbus attorney, receivers of the company. The Court also continued the temporary restraining order against the proposed retirement of the $15,000,000 preferred stock. The Court in a long opinion says:

"The ownership of the C. & O. in the Hocking Valley, together with the arrangement made by the C. & O. and the Lake Shore Railway for the joint operation and control of the K. & M. and the division of the ownership of the property previously owned by the Hocking Valley under the trunk line system, tends to show that the natural result and tendency is towards the combination as previously existed in the Trunk Line syndicate, which was condemned by the courts of this State."

The Chesapeake & Ohio issued an official statement regarding its recent purchase of control of the Hocking Valley, and the retirement of the latter's preferred stock, which was published at length in the "New York Sun" and "Tribune" of May 17.

Judge Dustin, in the Circuit Court at Springfield, Ohio, on May 17, suspended the order of Judge Kinkead appointing the receivers, but refused to dissolve the temporary injunction against the proposed retirement of the preferred stock. The company on May 17 filed a supersedeas bond and the entire matter will be reviewed by the higher State Court.

An action was also begun by the company in the Federal Court before Judge Sater on May 17 to set aside the receivership ordered by the lower State court, but it is stated the same will probably not be pressed, and the litigation be allowed to remain in the State Circuit Court until reviewed on error by that Court. Meantime, the receivers are temporarily removed from custody. Compare V. 90, p. 1296, 1239.

Houston & Texas Central RR.—Bonds Authorized.—The Texas Railroad Commissioners on May 10 authorized the company to register $2,383,000 1st M. 30-year 6% bonds on the cut-off from Mexia to Nettle, 94 miles, and also $484,393 additional as required for the completion and improvement of the road.—V. 90, p. 914, 54.

Kansas City Railway & Light Co.—Refunding Bonds Offered.—J. P. Morgan & Co., New York, and Lee, Higginson & Co., N. Y., Boston and Chicago, are offering at 98 and int. $5,843,000 Metropolitan St. Ry. consol. mtge. 5% gold bonds, dated 1895 and due May 1 1913, issued to refund consols due May 1 1910. Total outstanding (now offered), $5,843,000; reserved solely to retire underlying divisional issues, $1,657,000; total issue limited to $7,500,000.

Summary of Letter from Chairman of Board of Directors.

The Metropolitan Street Railway Co. owns or substantially controls all the street railways in Kansas City, Mo., Kansas City, Kan., and several adjacent cities, about 231 miles of track, exclusive of switches and sidings, serving about 500,000 population. Entire mtge. debt is $11,500,000 less than actual cost of physical properties. This mtge. covers 117 miles, including nearly all lines of vital importance in business district of Kansas City, Mo., where franchise expires 1925. Company has paid continuous dividends for last 20 years. All the capital stock ($5,636,800) is owned by Kansas City Ry. & Light Co., which controls substantially all street railway and all electric light and power business in Kansas City and vicinity.

Lehigh Valley Transit Co.—New Bonds Authorized.—The shareholders on May 19 authorized the making of a new $10,000,000 mortgage with the right to increase the issue of bonds thereunder to $15,000,000, for the retirement of $5,000,000 1st M. bonds due in 1935. See V. 90, p. 1171.

Lewisburg (Pa.) Milton & Watsontown Ry.—Sale to New Interests—New Company.—Whittaker & Diehl of Harrisburg, having purchased the property from the Railways Company General, a new company has been organized, and the following officers elected:

Pres., John F. Whittaker; Vice-Pres., L. G. Brown; Sec. and Treas., D. L. Diehl; Assistant Sec. and Treas., W. B. Rankin; Chief Engineer, Charles S. Johann.

The old company had outstanding $150,000 stock and $230,000 bonds. The new company is capitalized at $300,000 bonds and $150,000 stock. Of the bonds, $150,000 have been issued, and the remaining $150,000 can only be issued for improvements and extensions at the rate of 80% of the actual cost.

Lincoln (Neb.) Traction Co.—Commission Has No Right to Cancel Stock.—Attorney-General Thompson has rendered an opinion to the Railroad Commissioners holding that the latter have no power to order the cancellation of $1,500,000 of the company's stock, as demanded in a case filed some months since by County Attorney Tyrrell, who claims that the same is "pure water."

The Attorney-General holds that the power to cancel stock is a judicial and not a legislative or administrative function; that the power has not been granted to the Commission by the constitution or attempted to be conferred by the Legislature, and is not an incident to the discharge of its general duties, and it therefore has no authority to cancel stock previously issued. He also says that even in the exercise of the power to fix rates the authority to cancel stock is not incidentally necessary, since it has become a well-established proposition "that the basis of all calculations as to the reasonableness of rates to be charged by a corporation maintaining a highway under legislative sanction must be the fair value of the property being used by it for the convenience of the public." (Smyth against Ames, 169 U. S. 464).—V. 88, p. 506.

London & Lake Erie (Electric) Railway & Transportation Co.—Bonds.—The company is preparing to issue $700,000 1st M. 5% gold bonds, to be used in connection with the purchase of the property of the former London & Southwestern Traction Co., under which name the road was built. The line runs between London and Port Stanley, 28 miles.

The bonds will be dated June 1 1910 and mature in 1950, without option of earlier redemption. Int. J. & D. at Trust & Guarantee Co., Ltd., the trustee, Toronto. Par $500. No prior liens remain out. Stock $2,000,000, all issued. Pres., Nurry A. Verner; Sec.-Treas., F. H. Purdom. Main office, London, Canada.—V. 90, p. 1171.

Long Island RR.—Commuters to Pay for Use of Tunnel.—The company, it is announced, will impose a charge of $2 per month on commuters who use the tunnels between Long Island City and the Pennsylvania RR. terminal in Manhattan, in addition to the present rates between Long Island City and other points on Long Island.

Commuters who now use the ferry for Long Island City to Manhattan pay $1 05 per month in addition to their railroad tickets, so that those who use the tunnel when opened will pay 95 cents more monthly than at present. President Ralph Peters says the increase is due to the extra expense caused by the building of the tunnels under the East River and of the lease of trackage of the Pennsylvania RR.—V. 90, p. 1040, 698.

Los Angeles Pacific Co.—Purchase of Minority Interest by Southern Pacific.—A press despatch from San Francisco on May 9 made the following announcement, which the "Los Angeles Times" states is known to be correct:

It was learned from an official of the Southern Pacific Railroad here to-day that that company has purchased from Gen. M. H. Sherman and E. P. Clark their minority interest in the stock of the Los Angeles Pacific Co. [The So. Pac.,] it is reported, now owns all the stock of the latter corporation.—Ed. "Chronicle."—V. 90, p. 236.

Mahoning & Shenango Valley Ry. & Light Co.—New Stock.—The stockholders voted May 16 to increase the capital stock from $10,000,000 to $11,000,000, by raising the 5% cum. pref. stock from $4,000,000 to $5,000,000. The directors have authorized the sale of a block of the new stock.—V. 90, p. 849.

Manistee & North-Eastern RR.—Bonds Offered—Status.—Devitt, Tremble & Co., Chicago and Phila., recently offered on a basis to yield 4 1/4% $416,000 1st M. 5% serial gold bonds dated Jan. 1 1909. Authorized, $1,500,000; outstanding, $1,318,000. A circular says:

The gross earnings for the year 1909, as compared with 1908, showed an increase of $20,725. The decrease in net earnings is attributable largely to the fact that the company had under construction an extension of 36 miles of railroad from Buckley to Spencer, Mich., which was not completed until December 1909. The operation of this additional mileage will substantially increase both the gross and net earnings.

Earnings for Calendar Years (Net is after Taxes).

	Gross.	Net.	Bond Int.	Other Int.	Bal., Sur.
1909	$450,977	$99,094	$55,633	(?)	$43,461
1908	430,252	105,809		$86,364	19,445

Metropolitan Street Ry., New York.—Settlement of Franchise Taxes.—It was arranged on Tuesday to settle the franchise taxes in arrears (except the Second Avenue and Central Park North & East River lines) for $6,390,000, of which $2,640,000 has been paid on account, leaving the amount due $3,750,000.—V. 90, p. 1296, 1045.

Middletown Unionville & Water Gap RR.—Bonds to Be Extended with Interest Guaranteed.—The company offers by advertisement on another page to extend, with present security unimpaired, the $250,000 2nd M. bonds, maturing June 1 1910, until Nov. 1 1911 (the date of maturity of the 1st M. 5s), with interest at the present rate of 5%, guaranteed by the N. Y. Susquehanna & Western RR. Holders who desire the extension must deposit their bonds at the company's office, 50 Church St., N. Y., on or before June 1 1910. The June coupon will be cashed at time of deposit. See further particulars in advertisement.—V. 79, p. 22.

Missouri Oklahoma & Gulf Ry.—Bonds Sold.—The London & Southwestern Bank, Ltd., recently offered in London on behalf of the company, at 92 1/2%, the Societe Central des Banques de Province and the Banque Franco-Americaine offered in Paris, and the Empire Trust Co. and the Savoy Trust Co. in New York, $3,049,500 1st M. 5% gold bonds, due Nov. 1 1944. Int. M. & N. in St. Louis. The entire amount, it is stated, has been sold. Total amount authorized, $10,000,000; outstanding, $5,717,500. Capital stock, authorized, $10,000,000; outstanding, $5,717,500.

Particulars Supplied by the Banque Franco-Americaine, Paris.
Description.—The main line as now operating extends from Wagoner, Okla., to Durant, Okla., passing through Muskogee, Henryetta, Calvin, Tupelo and Wapanucka. The present projective of the line is Denison, Tex., a further distance of approximately 25 miles from Durant. The completion of the line to the Red River is provided for out of the present issue. The continuation to Denison, including the building of an important bridge over the Red River, has been arranged for by the issue in America of $550,000 of bonds, specifically secured over that part of the road. This extension is now being rapidly proceeded with. The extension to Denison reaches the Southern Pacific system and forms a valuable cut-off for the Gould lines. [These bonds will, we learn, be issued to meet legal requirements by another company, about to be incorporated under the name of the Missouri Oklahoma & Gulf Ry. & Terminal Co., or similar name. The bonds will bear 5% interest and be in all respects similar to the bonds just sold and guaranteed by the M. O. & G. Ry. The bridge is about two-thirds completed.—Ed.]

The line connects at Wagoner with the M. K. & T. Ry.; at Rex with Mo. Pacific; at Muskogee with Midland Valley, Frisco system and M.K. & T.; at Calvin with Rock Island system; at Tupelo with Oklahoma Central and M.K. & T.; at Wapanucka with Rock Island, and at Durant with M.K. & T. and St. Louis & San Francisco.

The maximum grade on the entire line is only 6-10ths of 1% on south-bound and 7-10ths of 1% on north-bound traffic. The terminal property at Muskogee, including the station and sidings and two steel bridges over the Arkansas and Verdigris rivers, represents a value of more than $500,000.

The company's connections and low grades will place the road in a position to handle through traffic from Kansas City and the Central West to the Gulf of Mexico ports rapidly and economically, and through traffic agreements have already been made and others are now under negotiation. The traffic which originates on the line itself includes coal (at Henryetta, Tupelo, Wapanucka), sandstone, petroleum, lumber, grains, cotton, livestock, &c.

Earnings.—For the last quarter of 1909 the gross earnings amounted to $110,000, with an average of 150 miles operated, leaving $48,000 of net earnings, or more than sufficient to cover the interest on the bonds at $25,000 per mile for the part of the line operated. The above results were achieved exclusively from local traffic on an unfinished road passing through territory only partially developed. It is believed that with the opening-up of coal mines, oil fields and agricultural lands, and the benefits of through traffic, the earnings will be more than doubled.

Bonds—Guaranty of Interest.—The interest on all bonds outstanding is unconditionally guaranteed during construction and for two years after the completion of the entire system by the Wm. Kenefick Construction Co. of Kansas City (Mo.). This company has built lines for the New York Central, Pennsylvania, Rock Island, Illinois Central, Missouri Pacific, Atchafalpa and other systems.

The bonds are secured by a first and only mortgage upon 217 miles of standard-gauge railroad, of which 199 miles, with, in addition, 20 miles of sidings, are now in operation, and upon all terminals, franchises, &c.; and in addition by a direct lien upon 17 locomotives and 520 railway cars. Under the provisions of the mortgage, no bonds can be issued in excess of $25,000 per mile of main track, but additional provisions are made for terminal facilities.

Directors.—William Kenefick, Kansas City, Pres.; W. P. Dewar, Muskogee, Okla., Vice-Pres. and Treas.; J. S. Keefe, Vice-Pres. Am. Steel & Wire Co., Chicago; D. N. Fink and E. R. Jones, Muskogee, Okla.; Henry Brunner, Managing Director Banque Franco-Americaine, Paris; William Kerr, Steedman, Edinburgh and London, E. C.

[The "Official Guide" for May 1910, with time table of Feb. 1 1910, gives the length of the main line in operation, from Wagoner to Durant, as 185 miles, with branches, Dewar to Clarence, 5 m., and Muskogee to Loweree, 5 m. The "Guide" also reports additional mileage projected and under construction, Wagoner to Joplin, Mo., 120 miles, and Durant to Sherman, Tex., 22 miles.—Ed.]—V. 90, p. 1239, 1171.

Owensboro City (Ky.) RR.—Change in Control.—W. H. McCurdy, President of the Evansville Railways Co., A. F. Karges, Charles Hartmetz, Albert and Arthur Funkhouser and W. A. Koch, all of Evansville, and C. C. Tennis of the Tennis Construction Co., have, it is announced, purchased control of this property, and contemplate building an extension down the Ohio River. The same or allied interests in the Evansville Railways have purchased control of the Henderson Traction Co.—V. 84, p. 340.

Pittsburgh & Shawmut RR.—Directors.—The following have been elected directors:

Harry Bronner, H. E. Huntington, Edwin Hawley, Frank Trumbull, Theodore P. Shonts and W. H. Taylor. General Thomas H. Hubbard remains on the board.—V. 90, p. 1102, 560.

Pittsburgh Youngstown & Ashtabula Ry.—Lease Ratified.—The stockholders this week ratified the new 999-year lease to the Pennsylvania Company, to take effect July 1, at a guaranteed dividend rental of 7% on both classes of stock.—V. 90, p. 915, 699.

Railroads & Power Development Co.—See report of United Railways Investment Co. on another page.—V. 89, p. 848, 529.

Rio de Janeiro Tramway, Light & Power Co., Ltd.—Listed.—The London Stock Exchange recently listed a further issue of £350,000 5% 50-year mortgage bonds, Nos. B.14,001 to B.17,500, of £100 each, making the total listed £1,750,000.—V. 90, p. 850.

St. Louis Southwestern Ry.—Equipment Trust.—An equipment trust agreement has been made to the United States Mortgage & Trust Co. of New York, as trustee, to secure an issue of $460,000 Series "A" 5% equip. trust certificates, dated April 1 1910, due in ten annual installments of $46,000 each on April 1 from 1911 to 1920 inclusive. Interest payable A. & O. This issue represents a part of the purchase price ($541,277 80) of the following new rolling stock, on which the road pays $81,277 80 in cash:

Sixteen new Baldwin consolidation freight engines, to be delivered by July 15; 14 passenger coaches, 6 chair cars and 3 parlor cars. Compare V. 89, p. 1598, 1543.—V. 90, p. 1045, 560.

Southern Indiana Ry.—General Reorganization Committee.—The following reorganization committee has been elected by the committees representing the several bond issues and will shortly issue a plan of reorganization covering the entire system:

E. K. Bolsot, Chicago, Chairman committee of holders of gen. M. 5s; A. G. Hodenpyl, New York, Chairman of committee of holders of 1st 4s of 1901; Chas. D. Smithers, New York, Chairman committee of holders of Chicago Southern 5s; M. B. Johnson, Cleveland, representing Cleveland interests.—V. 90, p. 699, 237.

Southern Railway.—Bonds of Steamship Ally.—See Chesapeake Steamship Co. under "Industrials" below.—V. 90, p. 1240, 1045.

Terre Haute Indianapolis & Eastern Traction Co.—New Bonds Issued.—The company, it is announced, has consummated the sale of its new issue of bonds to Drexel & Co. of Philadelphia and Lee, Higginson and Estabrook & Co. of Boston. Nearly 95% of the $5,000,000 Indianapolis Traction & Terminal Co. stock, it is said, has been acquired.

The company has filed its mortgage to the Fidelity Trust Co. of Philadelphia, as trustee, to secure an authorized issue of $8,000,000 35-year bonds of $1,000 each, dated April 1 1910, of which a part will be reserved to take up the $5,500,000 1st 5s of 1907. Compare V. 90, p. 1240, 1103.

United Railways, Portland, Ore.—New Officers.—John F. Stevens, President of the Oregon Trunk Ry., has been elected to the presidency of the United Rys., and Chief Engineer L. B. Wickersham has been made Vice-Pres., succeeding, respectively, Thomas L. Greenough and C. D. Fullen, who resigned. The construction of the line to Tillamook, it is stated, will be rushed to completion.—V. 90, p. 1297.

Washington Baltimore & Annapolis Electric Railway.—Interest Payment.—This company, as guarantor on the 1st M. 5% bonds of the Baltimore Terminal Co., announced some days ago that the interest due thereon March 1 1910 would be paid May 19 (with 26 cents per bond as interest on interest at the Citizen's Savings & Trust Co. of Cleveland. Compare V. 90, p. 1297.

West Penn Traction Co.—Incorporated.—This company was incorp. in Pa. on or about May 11 with nominal ($5,000) capital stock to take over the control of the West Penn Rys. under plan already announced.

Treasurer, A. E. Du Bois, Bank for Savings Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa. Directors: C. W. Scheck, A. E. DuBois, H. L. Simmons, Byron Trimble, Chas. C. McBride, all of Pittsburgh, Pa. Compare V. 90, p. 628, 1297.

Western Maryland RR.—Additions and Improvements.—The company is negotiating with the city of Baltimore for water-front property 50 x 350 ft., adjoining the Port Covington terminals, with a view to establishing there, at a total cost of $500,000, merchandise piers for use when the new line from Cumberland is in operation, in connection with the New York Central Lines. President Bush is quoted in Baltimore as saying:

We intend to spend not less than $5,000,000 here within the next few years. We want as much floor space in Baltimore to care for our traffic as the Pennsylvania now has.

The company now has to its credit in bank between $16,000,000 and $17,000,000. We own coal lands which in the building of the upper link of the road will, perhaps, not be needful to us. These, in my judgment, will within 5 years be worth fully $500 an acre, and we have between 3,000 and 4,000 acres which can be disposed of with profit to the company.

By July 1 the Western Maryland will have delivered to it nearly $5,000,000 of new equipment. This consists of 10 consolidation locomotives, 2 of the Mallet type; 500 steel hopper cars and 400 gondolas. This will place us in first-class shape in handling traffic on the road. Now we want to prepare the terminal facilities.

[The new line from a point 2 miles west of Cumberland to Connellsville, we learn, will be 86.98 miles in length and will cost, it is estimated, $12,734,835. Of this line, 68.49 miles will be built under charter of The Connellsville & State Line RR. Co.—Ed.]—V. 90, p. 1297, 916.

Wisconsin Central Ry.—Dividend.—The company has declared "a dividend" of 2% on its preferred stock, payable on June 15 on stock of record May 31, "out of the surplus of the company prior to Jan. 1 1910." There is some $11,267,105 preferred stock outstanding, of which $11,095,100 is owned by the Minneapolis St. Paul & Saulte Ste. Marie Ry. Co., which acquired control early in 1909.

The dividend is not to be construed as a quarterly dividend, but simply as a dividend payable out of surplus earnings accumulated prior to Jan. 1 1910. Except in the year 1906-07 the company's statements do not show earnings of 4% for any one year. Only one dividend of 4% has been paid, and that was declared in Dec. 1908, and paid in four quarterly installments of 1% each over a period extending to Oct. 15 1909. This dividend also was paid out of accumulated surplus. (Compare V. 87, p. 1534.)—V. 90, p. 504.

Youngstown & Ohio River RR.—New Bonds.—A new mortgage has been filed to secure an authorized issue of $2,500,000 bonds, of which $1,000,000 have been underwritten by a syndicate composed of local bankers and will be issued at once. The old mortgage, it is stated, has been canceled as of record.—V. 88, p. 824.

Listed.—The New York Stock Exchange has permitted to be added to the list, when issued under the plan of consolidation with subsidiary companies of the Amalgamated company, $75,500,000 additional stock, making the total amount to be listed $105,500,000.—V. 90, p. 1046, 916.

Boston Cape Cod & New York Canal Co.—Bond Issue—Status.—A mortgage has been made to the Old Colony Trust Co., as trustee, to secure an issue of $6,000,000 5% bonds.

The bonds are first mortgage gold 5s, dated Jan. 1 1910 and due Jan. 1 1960, without option of prior redemption. Par: (c*) $1,000, (r*) $1,000 and $5,000. Interest J. & J. at office of trustee, Boston, and August Belmont & Co., New York. The bonds have been underwritten by a syndicate and will be issued against construction under contract as approved by the joint board of Railroad and Land Commissioners of the State of Massachusetts. There are no prior liens. Capital stock $6,000,000.

Officers: August Belmont, N. Y., Pres.; Arthur L. Devens, of Devens, Lyman & Co., Boston, and Capt. J. W. Miller, Vice-Pres.; J. J. Coakley, 23 Nassau St., N. Y., Treas.; U. A. Murdock, Sec.; Wm. Barclay Parsons, Chief Engineer. Directors: Messrs. Belmont, Devens, Miller and Parsons, also Charles W. Allen, F. R. Appleton, L. F. Loree, Harley P. Wilson, F. D. Underwood, DeWitt C. Flanagan and E. W. Lancaster, all of N. Y.

Vice-President J. W. Miller in an address recently delivered before the Boston Commercial Club stated that "the canal will be completed in about 3 years, adding:

During the past ten months work has progressed rapidly. The right-of-way has been obtained, the negotiations relative to the change of line of the New Haven road have been arranged, the railroad bridge begun; two dredges have deepened the waterway in Buzzard's Bay; two others have begun on the channel at the eastern end. The 3,000-foot breakwater has been started, two large suction dredges are at work in the Scusset marshes, and a campaign of much activity is contemplated the coming summer.

From an engineering point of view the problem is not great; the distance over the isthmus is only eight miles; the total length from Barnstable Bay to Buzzard's Bay to the 30-foot depth is 13 miles. The soil to be cut out is sand and the amount only 17,000,000 cubic yards. Its highest elevation is only 29 feet. Through the greater part of the eight miles much is below the level of the ocean. The difference in tide between the two bays necessitates no locks. The depth is to be 25 feet. The minimum width on the bottom is 100 feet and on the surface of the water 250 feet; the width on the bottom of approaches 250 feet. There will be three passing places with a minimum width on the surface of the water 250 feet.—V. 86, p. 1411.

Brooklyn Union Gas Co.—Dividends to Be Paid Quarterly.—The board of directors having decided to change the dividend period from half-yearly to quarterly, accordingly declared a dividend of 1½% on the $18,000,000 stock, payable July 1 to holders of record June 11.—V. 90, p. 916.

Buffalo & Susquehanna Iron Co.—Bonds Called.—On and after June 1 1910 the New York Trust Co., New York, will redeem at par, first mortgage 5% gold bonds, Nos. 301 to 400 inclusive.—V. 90, p. 449, 374.

Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd., Toronto.—New Stock—Option to Subscribe.—In view of the very great expansion of trade in the Dominion of Canada, the company finds that additions to its manufacturing plants and equipment are necessary and advisable. The directors, therefore, on April 28 offered to holders of the $4,700,000 existing common stock of record May 21 the right to subscribe at par, on or before May 21, for $940,000 new common stock in the proportion of one new share for each five shares of common stock now held. Subscriptions are payable in ten equal installments on the 21st day of each month from June 1910 to Feb. 1911, both incl. There is $2,000,000 7% cum. pref. stock outstanding.—V. 90, p. 916.

Chattanooga & Tennessee River Power Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.—Construction.—The "Manufacturers' Record" of March 3 had an official statement, saying in brief:

The concrete lock, 60 ft. wide by 300 ft. long inside, is 65% completed, and will be entirely completed this summer. The concrete dam, to be 1,200 ft. long and for a head of 40 ft. has just been started. The excavation for the power-house and wheel pits and for a large portion of the dam has been completed and two out of seven bays of the substructure of the power-house have been completed and the baseplates for four turbines of 4,200 h. p. each have been installed. There are to be 14 of these (vertical shaft) turbines installed eventually, but 10 will be installed at once. The steel frame for the transformer-house has been completed. The power-house and transformer-house together will be about 350 ft. long and 60 ft. wide, of steel and concrete. The transmission line, 17.66 miles long, is completed—two circuits of copper cable half-inch in diameter, supported upon 175 steel towers. The substation in Chattanooga is a five-story

Chesapeake Steamship Co., Baltimore.—Bonds Offered.—J. S. Wilson Jr. & Co. and Baker, Watts & Co., both of Baltimore, have recently been placing at par and int. $600,000 "equipment first mortgage" 5% gold bonds, dated May 1 1910 and maturing in semi-annual installments of $30,000 each six months from Nov. 1 1910 to May 1 1920. Int. M. & N. Trustee, Mercantile Trust & Deposit Co., Baltimore. A circular says:

The company is owned by the Southern Ry. and the Atlantic Coast Line RR. and operates an important freight and passenger line between Baltimore, Old Point Comfort, Norfolk, Richmond and West Point. These bonds are the direct obligation of the company, issued under the usual form of equipment trust agreement, and provide funds for the purchase of two steamships (capacity 650 tons freight and 400 passengers), to be built by the Maryland Steel Co., for the Chesapeake Bay trade; cost, $750,000, of which the company pays in cash $150,000, bonds being issued for $600,000. Until all these bonds are paid, the company cannot create any mortgage or other lien upon its terminal property in Baltimore, and in the event of the sale of any of its six other vessels, the proceeds of sale must be applied to the purchase or redemption of these equipment bonds or to the acquisition of additional floating equipment, as the company may elect, as further security for these bonds. Total assets of the company at cost value, $1,500,000; cost of new steamships, $750,000; total, $2,250,000. This equipment trust is the only mortgage on any of the company's property. The contract calls for delivery of the boats one year from the date of contract. Directors: Fairfax Harrison, Chairman; Key Compton (Pres.), Norman James (Vice-Pres.), Michael Jenkins, E. Stanley Gary, Major John S. Gibbs.—V. 89, p. 723; V. 71, p. 493; V. 70, p. 948.

Citizens' Gas Co. of Terre Haute, Ind.—Mortgage.—The company has filed a mortgage to secure an issue of $2,000,000 bonds, of which $300,000 to be issued for improvements, $500,000 to be reserved to refund outstanding bonds and $1,200,000 for future purposes.

A press dispatch says the company has a favorable franchise under which the city is powerless to order improvements or extensions and receives no compensation. The owners are an Eastern syndicate which has plants in many cities.

Columbus & Hocking Coal & Iron Co., New York.—Committee.—A committee, consisting of Frank B. Keech, Alexander Gilbert and F. N. B. Close, request holders of 1st M. 5s, 2d M. 6s and pref. and common stock to deposit their holdings with the Bankers Trust Co., depository, 7 Wall St. on or before June 1. A circular dated May 14 says:

Receivers having been appointed, bondholders and stockholders to a very large amount believe prompt, united action necessary to protect the interests of all security holders and have requested the undersigned to act as a committee to that end, under agreement dated May 12 1910. The committee hopes to be able to announce a plan of reorganization or debt adjustment. Within a specified time after such announcement, any holder of a certificate of deposit who is dissatisfied with such a plan may withdraw deposited securities, upon payment of the pro rata share of the expenses theretofore incurred by the committee, not including compensation to the committee for its services, for which, in that event, no charge will be made.—V. 90, p. 305.

Federal Mining & Smelting Co.—Settlement of Litigation.—The stockholders on April 25 ratified the settlement of the suit which had been pending for almost two years between the company and the Bunker Hill & Sullivan Mining Co., involving, according to press despatches, "ownership of the greatest lead-silver ledge in the world," and "estimated to have cost the companies not less than $300,000 a year."

By the terms of the compromise the Federal company, it is said, surrenders a considerable part of its holdings in the Kellogg (Idaho) district to the Bunker Hill company in consideration of 27,000 shares of stock of the latter, paying dividends of $4 yearly per share. This will net the Federal company $108,000 annually on the present dividend basis.—V. 89, p. 1344.

Hamilton Mfg. Co., Lowell, Mass.—Status.—Because of extra expenses during the year 1909 and the unsettled state of the cotton market, it was deemed prudent this year to pass the usual January dividend. The capital stock is $1,800,000, in shares of $1,000 each, which late in 1909 sold at $815 to $820. A Boston broker who is offering a small lot of stock at $700 a share says in brief:

Incorp. in Mass. in 1825. Owns in the heart of Lowell about 9½ acres of ground, with six mills, print works, dye houses and store houses. Manufactures flannels, prints, ticks, stripes, drills, sheeting and shirtings. The selling agents are Wellington, Sears & Co. Number of spindles, 118,200; hands employed, 2,300; cotton consumed per week in pounds, 200,000; yards dyed and printed per week, 1,000,000. Average annual profits for past 20 years, $169,710, or 9½% on the capital. From 1900 to 1909, incl. (10 years), paid dividends aggregating $891,000, or about an average of 5% per year. On Dec. 31 1909 the total surplus was $757,566. The property is assessed at $1,600,000. At $700 per share for the stock, the buyer is getting the spindleage at about $10 per spindle (usual est. $20), while the print works ($500,000) and the surplus $757,566 are as a bonus in the purchase.

Improved Property Holding Co., New York.—Bonds Called.—Ninety-one ($91,000) 12-year 6% gold bonds dated June 1 1906 have been drawn for redemption on June 1 1910 at 110 and interest at the Trust Co. of America, this city.—V. 83, p. 893.

Jones & Laughlin Co., Pittsburgh.—New Tin Mills.—Six of the 12 new tin mills at Aliquippa, Pa., were started May 16, and it is expected that the remaining six mills of the new 12-mill unit will be in operation within another week.

Eventually the company will have a 36-mill plant at Aliquippa. Three blast furnaces are now in service at that place.—V. 90, p. 505.

Kelly Ax Manufacturing Co., Charleston, W. Va.—Re-incorporated.—This Indiana corporation, which in 1904 moved its plant from Alexandria, Ind., to Charleston, W. Va., its capital stock being $1,750,000 common and $250,000 6% cum. pref., in $100 shares, was on Feb. 25 re-incorporated under the laws of West Virginia with $2,000,000 auth. capital stock.

Incorporators—William C. Kelly, James P. Kelly, Robert C. Thompson, William B. Lockert and George T. Price, all of Charleston. A $200,000 bond issue was made in 1904. Compare V. 79, p. 273; V. 78, p. 2445; V. 77, p. 2393.

Manufacturers' Water Co., Philadelphia.—Remaining Bonds Sold.—The Cambria Steel Co. has sold to Drexel & Co., Phila., the remaining $1,500,000 of the issue of $4,000,000 1st mtge. 5s due January 1939.

Guaranty Endorsed on Each Bond.

For value received, Cambria Steel Co., a corporation of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, acting under resolution of its board of directors adopted April 29 1909, hereby warrants and becomes surety for the punctual payment of interest on this bond at the times and in the manner herein specified, and of the principal thereof when due, and also of the payments to the sinking fund as and when specified in the within bond. [Signed under seal June 1 1909 by Pres. and Sec. of Cambria Steel Co.] See also V. 88, p. 1375; V. 90, p. 773.

New York Dock Co.—Incorporation of Railroad.—The company's railroad along the South Brooklyn water-front, 2.693 miles in length, has been incorporated in New York as the New York Dock Ry., with $500,000 capital stock.

Of the stock, $450,000 is 6% pref. (cumulative after Jan. 1 1911) and $50,000 common; par of shares $100 each.—V. 89, p. 846.

Northwestern Telegraph Co.—New Control.—At the annual meeting held in Kenosha, Wis., on May 12 about $1,500,000 of the capital stock (total issue $2,500,000), including large amounts owned by Hartford, Conn., insurance companies, was voted by Francis R. Cooley of that city, and elected the following new board:

Francis R. Cooley, Charles P. Cooley, Jonathan B. Bunce, Lyman B. Brainerd, Arthur L. Shipman, Arthur R. Bradley and Henry M. Sperry, all of Hartford, Pres. and Treas., F. R. Cooley; Vice-Pres., J. B. Bunce; Sec., C. P. Cooley. The company owns 10,000 miles of wire, largely in Wisconsin, Minnesota, South Dakota, North Dakota, Iowa, Montana, Michigan and Manitoba, all leased to the Western Union Telegraph Co. for 99 years from July 1 1881, under a guaranteed dividend of 6% per annum on $2,500,000 stock. There are also $1,500,000 4½% bonds due Jan. 31 1934, guaranteed principal and interest.—V. 79, p. 216.

Ohio Fuel Supply Co.—New Stock—Acquisition.—The shareholders on May 14 ratified the proposed increase in limit of capital stock from $10,000,000 ($9,000,000 issued) to $15,000,000. This action is supposed to be preparatory to the merger of various companies, among them the controlled Ohio Southern Gas Co. (V. 88, p. 381). The "Pittsburgh Dispatch" of May 17 said:

The Ohio Southern is capitalized at $650,000 stock (no bonds) and the exchange is made on the basis of one share of Ohio Southern for seven-tenths of one share of Ohio Fuel Supply, par for each being $25. The Ohio Southern has paid dividends at rate of 8½% per annum (increased, it is stated, from 6% last January.—Ed. "Chronicle"), and supplies Gallipolis, Jackson, Wellston and other Ohio towns with gas.—V. 90, p. 1047, 854.

Ohio Southern Gas Co., Pittsburgh.—Sale.—See Ohio Fuel Supply Co. above.—V. 88, p. 381.

Oro Water, Light & Power Co., San Francisco.—Listed in San Francisco.—The San Francisco Stock & Bond Exchange has listed this company's 35,000 shares. The company reports

Capital stock $3,500,000 in shares of $100 par value; issued $3,250,000, full paid. Up to 1906 35 cents per share was paid monthly in dividends; since that time 50c. per month per share—6% per annum. In 1905 issued $750,000 6% 1st M. bonds, but this indebtedness has been reduced by annual payments to $495,000. Directors and officers are: Pres., J. W. Goodwin; Vice-Pres., L. J. Holton; Treas. and Sec., James K. Moffitt; Sam Sussman, F. A. Denicke and A. Harvey.

Pennsylvania Rubber Co., Jeannette, Pa.—New Stock.—This company recently increased its authorized capital stock from $1,500,000, of which $1,000,000 was common (but only $750,000 issued) and $500,000 pref., to $2,000,000, of which $1,000,000 is pref. All the $500,000 new pref. has been subscribed and paid for at par ($100) by shareholders of record May 7 1910. Stock now out $750,000; common, $1,000,000 pref. No bonds or mortgage.

Producers Oil Co., Houston, Tex.—Option to Subscribe for Convertible Bonds.—The shareholders are offered the right to subscribe at par and int. until 3 p. m. June 1 at the company's offices (17 Battery Place, N. Y. City, and Texas Bldg., Houston) for $2,000,000 1st ref. M. 6% convertible gold bonds in amounts not less than $1,000. Harris, Winthrop & Co., 15 Wall St., New York City, have formed a syndicate for underwriting the $2,000,000 bonds now offered.

Particulars from Circular Signed by President W. B. Sharp, May 14 1910.

Arrangements have been made for sale at par and such interest as shall accrue after July 1 1910 of the unapplied balance of $2,000,000 out of a total issue of $3,000,000 6% convertible gold bonds of the Producers Oil Co. secured by a first refunding mtge. to the Equitable Trust Co. of N. Y. as trustee, dated Jan. 1 1910; the remaining $1,000,000 of said bonds are reserved to retire an existing issue of $1,000,000 1st M. bonds, so that the present issue will become a first lien upon the properties owned and to be acquired. These bonds are payable Jan. 1 1920 and are redeemable by the company at 110 upon Jan. 1 1912 and upon any interest payment date thereafter. Outstanding bonds of this issue are convertible at holders' option upon any interest payment date after 60 days' notice into capital stock at the rate of 6 2-3 shares ($66 2-3) of such stock for each $1,000 of such bonds in accordance with the terms and provisions of the mtge. The purchase price is payable 10% upon subscription, 40% June 15 and the balance upon Oct. 1 1910, at which date interest will be adjusted, allowing the subscriber 6% interest from June 15 upon his first two installments and computing interest upon the bonds as represented by the coupon due Jan. 1 1911.

[This company was incorporated in Texas Jan. 18 1902, and it owns property in Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma. A certificate filed at Austin, Tex., Jan. 6 increased the authorized stock from $1,500,000 to $3,000,000, all now paid in. The directors are: Walter B. Sharp (President), Charles G. Gates, W. H. Lyne and Frank Cullinan (Vice-Presidents), W. E. Lockhart (Secretary and Treasurer), James Hopkins, E. F. Woodward, J. C. McCune, W. B. Bates, John F. Black and J. R. Sharpe. Press reports say that late in 1909 or early in Jan. 1910 a special dividend of 34% was declared. Regular quarterly dividends are being paid at the rate of 6% yearly. John W. Gates is a stockholder. Compare Texas Company in V. 86, p. 606.]

Quincy (Copper) Mining Co.—Dividend Decreased.—A quarterly dividend of $1 25 (5%) per $25 share has been declared, payable June 20 to holders of record May 21, comparing with $1 50 (6%) paid March 23 last and $1 (4%) paid in each quarter from June 1908 to Dec. 1909 inclusive. Compare V. 90, p. 508.

Southern California Edison Co., Los Angeles.—Dividends on Common Stock Begun.—The directors have declared a quarterly dividend of 1 1/4% on the $7,200,000 common stock, payable May 16 to shareholders of record May 7. There is also outstanding $4,000,000 5% cum. and participating pref. stock, dividends payable Q-J.

Circular of April 29 1910, Signed by the Directors.

Under date of May 12 1909 a letter was addressed by the board of directors of the Edison Electric Co., predecessor in interest of this company, to holders of common capital stock of that company, advising of the necessity of shutting down one of the principal hydro-electric plants of the company for the purpose of partial re-construction, which work involved the expenditure of a large sum of money. This work has since been successfully completed, and the plant placed in continuous and satisfactory operation.

Your board of directors has accordingly authorized the payment of dividends on the common capital stock of this company at the rate of 5% per annum, and has declared a quarterly dividend of 1 1/4% on the outstanding common capital stock, payable May 16 1910 to stockholders of record on May 7 1910.—Compare V. 89, p. 1673, 1599.

Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey.—Reorganization Nov. 14.—The United States Supreme Court on Monday set down for re-argument on Nov. 14 next the Government suits against the Standard Oil and American Tobacco companies.—V. 90, p. 1243, 1048.

Texas Company, Houston.—New Stock—Stock Dividend, Amount Not Stated.—The stockholders will vote May 28 (1) on increasing the authorized capital stock from $18,000,000 to $36,000,000, consisting of 360,000 shares of the par value of $100 each and (2) on giving authority for the declaration of a stock dividend out of accumulated surplus:

"The board of directors, according to their discretion as to time and as to amounts and as to other details, may provide for payment from the same and as a distribution of a part thereof such amount of such additional capital stock as may be in their judgment justified by the company's surplus account (compare V. 89, p. 1416) and to an amount considering par value not to exceed such surplus account as the same may be estimated at the time of payment, such payment to be charged to the surplus account and such distribution may take the form of a stock dividend.

Resolutions will also be presented (1) that any balance of shares remaining in the treasury of the increased capital may be disposed of by the board at their discretion; (2) to sanction the taking of steps, whenever deemed advisable, to list the shares of the company upon the stock exchanges of New York, London and Paris; (3) to ratify the actions taken in respect to the sale for cash of $2,000,000 of the present authorized capital stock.

Debentures May be Converted to June 15 1910.—Notice is given that all debenture holders who shall surrender their holdings for conversion before 3 p. m. June 15 1910 at the company's offices (17 Battery Place, N. Y. City, and Houston, Tex.) "shall for the purposes of the anticipated stock dividend be considered as stockholders entitled to participate in such upon the basis and to the extent represented by the shares of stock which they shall be entitled to receive on July 1 1910 by virtue of such conversion, but not otherwise." The interest warrant maturing July 1 1910 should be detached before deposit and be collected in due course.

Practically all of the debentures have been converted on basis of $15,000 debentures for $10,000 stock, increasing the outstanding capital stock, including the $2,000,000 sold for cash as above stated, to practically $18,000,000. Compare V. 88, p. 831, 1442; V. 89, p. 1144, 1286, 1416.

United Kansas Portland Cement Co., Kansas City, Mo.—Bonds Offered.—The Commerce Trust Company, the mortgage trustee, Kansas City, Mo., is offering at 98 and int., yielding over 6 1/4%, the unsold portion (less than $800,000) of the issue of 1st M. 6% 10-year sinking fund gold bonds, dated April 1 1910, due April 1 1920, but redeemable at 105 and int. at any interest period on 60 days' notice. Int. A. & O. at office of trustee. Par $100, $200, $500 and $1,000 (c*). A circular says in brief:

Owens and operates three large cement plants located at Independence, Iola and Neodesha, Kansas, the initial cost of which aggregated $3,400,000. Capitalization: 1st M. 6% bonds (now offered), $1,500,000; pref. stock, 7% cumulative, $4,250,000; common stock, $8,500,000; total, $14,250,000. These bonds are issued for the purpose of retiring on July 1 1910 $1,081,176 70 debentures now outstanding, and to increase working capital—Sinking fund, a minimum of $160,000 each year, beginning April 1 1912.

The bonds are a first mortgage on all properties now owned (or hereafter acquired), whose physical value is appraised by Westinghouse, Church, Kerr & Co. at $3,654,460, to which they add "going" and "potential" values of $2,173,315, to which can be also added live assets of $783,780, not included in above appraisals; thus showing aggregate assets, $6,511,555.

Extract from Letter by President George E. Nicholson, April 1 1910.

Notwithstanding the business depression last year, our output and shipments were the largest in the history of the company. The consumption of cement in the territory we serve is increasing rapidly, our Western stock on hand being about 1,500,000 barrels less than the same date last year. Prices have advanced 40c. per barrel. The net earnings covering a period of six years ending Dec. 31 1909 were $4,619,043, or an average of $769,841 per annum. The company has expended of this total sum $867,863 for extensions and improvements, leaving the earnings for the six years $3,751,181, or an average of $625,197 per year after oper. expenses and betterments.

The deposits of raw material owned are the best of limestone and shale, all adjacent to the plants, estimated to outlast 100 years and valued at $803,539. The buildings are all of fire-proof construction, and, with equipment, are appraised at $2,057,231. The annual capacity of the three plants is 2,465,000 bbls., which, at 90c. a barrel, would aggregate $2,218,500, making possible net earnings of $681,025. The output will be materially increased by the installation of additional machinery.

United States Radiator Co.—Consolidation.—This company was incorporated at Albany, N. Y., on May 17 with a capital stock of $8,000,000, consisting of $4,000,000 common and $4,000,000 7% cum. pref. stock (par $100), to take over—

The properties of the United States Radiator & Boiler Co. of Pittsburgh (capital stock increased in July 1905 from $300,000 to $500,000); United States Radiator Co. of Dunkirk, N. Y. (capital stock increased in May 1907 from $200,000 to $300,000; dividend rate early in 1908, 6% per annum; later facts not at hand—Ed.); United States Heater Co. of Detroit, and Herendeen Mfg. Co. of Geneva, N. Y.; also the heater department of the J. L. Mott Iron Works of New York, whose product has been controlled by the United States Radiator & Boiler Co. of Pittsburgh.

Of the $4,000,000 pref. stock, $2,500,000, we are informed, has been issued "for cash"; press reports state that $3,200,000 of each class of stock will shortly be listed on the Pittsburgh Stock Exchange, but that this will be the present outstanding share capital could not be confirmed in New York City yesterday. A mortgage has been made to secure $1,000,000 6% bonds which, it is stated, have been underwritten by a syndicate headed by the First National Bank of Detroit and the Citizens Savings & Trust Co. of Cleveland. Officers: R. J. Gross of Dunkirk, N. Y., has been elected President; Harry T. Cole of Detroit, Vice-President, and J. J. Blackmore of New York, Secretary. The company will begin business June 1 manufacturing steam and water-heating boilers and radiators. Headquarters, Dunkirk, N. Y.; branch office in New York.

United States Rubber Co.—New Directors.—Jas. Deshler and Elisha S. Williams have been elected directors to succeed W. H. Moore and J. J. Watson Jr., respectively. James B. Ford has been made Treasurer in place of Mr. Watson, who resigned.—V. 90, p. 1300, 1293.

Wheeling (W. Va.) Mold & Foundry Co.—New Bonds.—The shareholders recently authorized an issue of $250,000 6% gold bonds dated March 1 1910.

Geo. W. Baron, the City Bank and the Dollar Savings & Trust Co. (the last-named being the mortgage trustee), all of Wheeling, have taken the whole issue and are selling the bonds at par and int. The bonds will mature March 1 1930, but are subject to call at 103 from March 1 1915 to March 1 1920, and thereafter at par. Par $1,000. Int. M. & S. at office of trustee. Of the auth. issue, $75,000 is reserved to retire prior liens that remain outstanding. The mortgage covers both Peninsula and Manchester plants. Incorp. in W. Va. June 5 1893. Auth. cap. stock $500,000; issued $405,000. Pres., C. E. Blue; Sec.-Treas., H. S. Bradley. Office, Wheeling, W. Va.—V. 84, p. 280, 180.

Wilmington Trust Building Corp.—Sale of Bonds—Interest Guaranteed by E. I. du Pont de Nemours Powder Co.—F. D. Lackey & Co., Wilmington, Del., offered the present issue of $1,000,000 first mtge. 5% gold bonds at 101 and int. on the 10th inst., and on the next day all had been sold. They now sell at 102 and int.

These bonds are dated 1910 and due 1940 but are redeemable on any int. day at 110 and int. They are guaranteed as to interest by the E. I. du Pont de Nemours Powder Co., whose earnings are over 100 times the interest charges on these bonds. Sinking fund starting with 1921, $20,000 per annum until maturity in 1940. Int. J. & D. Par $1,000 (c*). Auth. issue, $1,500,000; outstanding, $1,000,000; remaining bonds reserved for 60% of cost of future additions and future improvements, under careful restrictions. The E. I. du Pont de Nemours Powder Co. own all of the capital stock, and the annual rental paid by them under their 30-year lease for quarters in the building will amount to over $100,000.

Space already allotted in the new building disposes of approximately 75% of the total rentable floor area, leaving but 25% to rent, the most of which should be taken by the time the addition is completed. Net earnings of present building, $54,000; net earnings of new building, $106,000 (est.). The completed building will contain approximately 192,119 sq. ft. of rentable floor area. The land on which the present building stands is mortgaged for $650,000; the bonds secured thereby will be retired immediately and the mortgages satisfied of record. F. S. du Pont is President.

UNITED RAILWAYS INVESTMENT COMPANY.

EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT—FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31 1909.

To the Stockholders of the United Railways Investment Co.:

On behalf of the Board of Directors, and in the absence of the President, I beg to submit to you the Eighth Annual Report of your Company, together with the General Balance Sheet of the Company and a statement of the Income and Profit and Loss Account for the fiscal year ended Dec. 31 1909.

The accounts of the Philadelphia Company for its last fiscal year, ended March 31 1910, and the accounts of the United Railroads of San Francisco for its last fiscal year, ended Dec. 31 1909, are in process of being audited, and when the audit is completed the respective reports, when prepared and filed with the Company, will be open to the inspection of the stockholders during usual business hours.

In September last the Sierra & San Francisco Power Company acquired the properties formerly belonging to the Stanislaus Power Development, and that Company has now issued—

$6,500,000 First Mortgage Bonds,
$6,000,000 Second Mortgage Bonds,
$20,000,000 Common Capital Stock.

All the capital stock of the Sierra & San Francisco Power Company, except Directors' qualifying shares, is owned by The Railroads & Power Development Company, the corporation organized pursuant to the authority conferred by the stockholders at their special meeting held on the 17th of May last, and all of the stock issued and outstanding, except Directors' qualifying shares, of the last-named company, is owned by your Company. There is still held by The New York Trust Company, in trust to secure the fulfillment of certain obligations to this Company $1,000,000 of preferred and $1,000,000 of common stock of this Company, which formed part of the consideration for the purchase of the common stock of the Sierra & San Francisco Power Company.

The Railroads & Power Development Company, pursuant to authority conferred by the stockholders at said special meeting, also has acquired all the outstanding capital stock, except Directors' qualifying shares, of the San Francisco Electric Railways, to which Company was transferred, pursuant to like authority, $9,997,500 (par value) of common stock of the United Railroads of San Francisco.

The work of completing the transmission lines and the plant of the Sierra & San Francisco Power Company has been pushed vigorously, and the President of that Company reports that connection of the transmission lines of the Power Company with the lines of the United Railroads of San Francisco should be made about the 15th of this month, and that the Railroads should be able to receive power directly from the Power Company on or about the 7th of June. The full quantity of power deliverable under the contract between the Power Company and the United Railroads of San Francisco cannot be delivered until a later period, and in consequence the full benefits cannot begin to arise before the close of the year at the earliest.

It is estimated by the officers of the Sierra & San Francisco Power Company that the total power to be developed and controlled under the plans now in course of completion will amount to approximately 82,000 h. p., of which the Railroads will require approximately 33,000 h. p., leaving a large surplus available for disposition in the open market, and present indications would confirm the belief of the officers of your Company that this investment should ultimately prove of great advantage to your Company.

During the year ended the 31st of December 1909 the Philadelphia Company has paid its regular dividend of 6% on its common stock and the United Railroads of San Francisco has paid its regular dividend of 7% on its $5,000,000 of First Preferred Stock held by this Company.

Accompanying this report is a combined income account of the Philadelphia Company and affiliated companies for the year ended December 31 1909, prepared by Messrs. Haskins & Sells.

It will be seen from these reports that the Philadelphia Company has shown marked increase in its gross earnings, and that the properties controlled by this Company have reflected the improved conditions in Pittsburgh and the surrounding territory. In this connection, however, it is reported by the officers of the Philadelphia Company that, while the earnings of the Pittsburgh Railways Company, which it controls, have continued to show the effects of the crisis of 1907, these earnings since December 1909 have shown a marked tendency to recover, and indications would point that during this current year the gross earnings should regain the basis of the year 1907.

Preliminary reports of the Philadelphia Company and the United Railroads of San Francisco to the 31st of March of the present year indicate a continued improvement in both the gross and net earnings of each of these properties.

During the year $400,000 of Six Per Cent Notes of 1908 of the Investment Company were paid and canceled, and the further amount of $200,000 of these Notes was paid and canceled on Feb. 15 1910, leaving the amount now outstanding $2,900,000. The floating debt of the Company has also been reduced.

Estimates have been made by the President of the United Railroads of San Francisco showing the beneficial effects which the provisions of the power contract made with the Sierra & San Francisco Power Company should produce on the revenues of the Railroad Company in the course of the next five years, and the same are open for the inspection of any shareholder of the Company.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

SIDNEY H. MARCH,

* The difference between this amount and the Surplus at Dec. 31 1908 is caused by eliminating the Profit and Loss Surplus of the Ohio Valley Electric Company of Bellevue and the Overgrade Bridge Company, which ceased to be operating companies on March 31 1908.

z The decrease in this item, as compared with the preceding year, $498,790 62, is mainly due to the fact that, although four dividends on the Philadelphia Company's Common Capital Stock were paid during each of the calendar years 1909 and 1908, five of such dividends, aggregating $2,492,992 50, were declared during the year 1908, and four, aggregating $1,994,394 00, were declared during the year 1909. The Company's fiscal year terminates March 31st. While it has been the practice of the Directors to declare four quarterly dividends on the Common Capital Stock during the fiscal year, the dates of declaration during the calendar year have varied from year to year.

Note.—This Summary does not include the Income and Profit and Loss of the Allegheny Heating Company.

PHILADELPHIA COMPANY.

TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT—FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 31 1910.

*Office of the Philadelphia Company,
Pittsburgh, Pa., March 31st 1910.*

The Board of Directors herewith submit their report for the fiscal year ended March 31st 1910.

During the year 11 wells were purchased and 136 wells were drilled, of which 85 were productive of gas, 19 of oil and 32 unproductive; 2 gas wells and 4 oil wells were reinstated; 3 wells were sold and 41 abandoned, having ceased to be productive; making the total number of wells owned or controlled through stock ownership and in use by the Company at this date 902.

During the year 38.31 miles of pipe were reclaimed and 143.32 miles were laid and purchased. The total amount of pipe lines operated by this Company either through ownership or stock ownership in other corporations is now 2,302.10 miles.

This does not include the 169.13 miles of mains of the Allegheny Heating Company nor the 371.03 miles of mains of our several artificial gas companies.

There has been no reduction during the year in the number of acres of leases of gas and oil territory held by this Company, or the Equitable Gas Company, or the Fairmont & Grafton Gas Company.

The Company sold during the year 37,688,298,000 cubic feet of natural gas, being an increase of 7,683,727,070 cubic feet, with increased receipts from that source of $1,178,743 56.

There has been an increase during the year of 6,262 domestic consumers of the natural gas supplied by the Company and the Companies it operates, including the Allegheny Heating Company and the Fairmont & Grafton Gas Company, making the total number of domestic natural gas consumers of these Companies 101,759.

There has been expended out of the earnings of the Company since March 31st 1886 for gas and oil wells, transportation pipe lines outside the city, pumping stations, telephone lines, tools, etc., $17,050,141 84, no part of which has been charged to capital accounts.

Accompanying this report are statements showing the financial condition of the Company.

For the Board,

J. H. REED, President.

New York, May 10th 1910.

—H. H. Copeland & Son, 111 Broadway, have just issued a "Comparative Analysis of Railroad Reports" for roads with fiscal year ended in 1909. The work opens up a new field in railroad analytics and is most comprehensive in detail. The analysis, it is pointed out, displays all the statistics published in the annual reports of railroads, which are of relative value, and computations therefrom with such combinations and re-classifications as are of advantage from the analytical standpoint. The arrangement is such that comparison may be had of a number of roads at a glance. A general perpendicular column is devoted to each railroad and such columns are arranged to the right and left of a central outline which sets forth the titles of the accounts in horizontal alignment. In the "Income" and "Expenditure" accounts, the first perpendicular column gives the total figures which are published in an annual report, the accounts being indicated in central outline; the next parallel column includes the "per mile" statistics compiled in connection with such totals, and the following five columns give the "unit" statistics and "ratios" computed. The "Income," "Expenditure," "Profit and Loss," "Balance Sheet," "Summary of Capital Changes" and "Physical Statistics" accounts are all exhaustively treated. The analysis reduces the various items to a common or comparative basis, which facilitates prompt and efficient research. The set consists of seven morocco-bound booklets, comprising analyses on 110 railroads.

—An important addition to financial reference books is "Poor's Manual of Industrials," the first annual number of which has just been issued. It contains 2,317 pages of text and is designed to perform a work similar to that accomplished by "Poor's Manual of Railroads." The scope of the work is indicated by the statement that the total capitalization of all industrial corporations represented in the book is $18,873,000,000. The price of the book is $7 50. Publishers, Poor's Railroad Manual Co., 68 William St., N.Y.

—The progressive municipal bond house of Ulen, Sutherland & Co., Chicago, owing to the growth in its business, has been compelled to remove to more spacious quarters. Not only are the new quarters more commodious, but more elegant and convenient in every way. The firm remains in the First National Bank Building, but moves from the 6th floor to a suite of offices, 507-509, on the 5th floor.

—Frederick R. Fulton, formerly head of the Chicago municipal bond house of F. R. Fulton & Co., died on the 7th inst. at his residence in Evanston, Ill., after an illness of more than a year. He had been a successful banker in Grand Forks, North Dakota, and came to Chicago in 1898 to engage in the bond business.

—The attention of investors is called to the excellent list of investment securities being offered on another page by Wm. A. Read & Co., the net yield ranging from 4.05% to 6%. Full details will be furnished upon application to the main office, 25 Nassau St., New York, or to any of the firm's branch offices in Boston, Baltimore, Chicago and London, Eng.

—Spencer Trask & Co., 43 Exchange Place, New York, have issued the eighth edition of their circular entitled "Convertible Bonds." This circular describes practically all of the convertible bonds now upon the market, and explains the features which make them a favorite form of security with many investors.

The Commercial Times.

COMMERCIAL EPITOME.

Friday Night, May 20 1910.

Trade continues generally active, but the crops, needless to say, are still a very potent factor, and prospects for good harvests have latterly improved. Some improvement is noticed in the iron and steel trade. The copper interests of the world are supposed to be not far from a turn for the better.

LARD on the spot has been easier, owing to depression in the grain markets, some decline in live hogs, increased offerings of product and dulness of trade. Prime Western 13.30c.; Middle Western 13.20c. and City steam 12½@13c. Refined lard has been quiet and without marked change; supplies light. Refined Continent 13.90c., South America 14.75c. and Brazil in kegs 15.75c. The speculation in lard futures has been active with prices irregular. On the whole the undertone of the market has been easier despite support from leading packers at times. The weakness in grain has had some effect upon provisions. Moreover, the market for live hogs has been heavy of late and there has been considerable liquidation in the market for products.

Speculation in cotton for future delivery has been active at a sharp decline in prices. This was due to heavy liquidation by large interests as well as by the rank and file of traders, coincident with the occurrence of copious and beneficial rains in Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Mississippi, the Carolinas and Alabama. Large Western and Southern bull interests are credited with having sold freely. The certificated stock here has latterly been increasing and to many it looks as though the tenders on contracts during May would probably exceed what has been generally expected. Many of the crop reports are more favorable. In Texas the plant, though somewhat small, is said to be looking better after the recent rains. The shipment of some cotton to Europe from this point was temporarily enjoined. The order was vacated on the following day, however. It had a more or less disturbing effect for the time being, as it grew out of recent Southern suspensions among spot firms. Large spot interests have sold heavily. Stop orders have been caught on the way down and naturally accelerated the decline. The spot markets at the South have been generally reported quiet. At Alexandria, Egypt, prices have fallen sharply. Southern yarn spinners, at a meeting at Charlotte, N. C., decided to further curtail production and not to accept orders for fall at present. On Thursday prices rallied on covering of shorts and bull support. The Liverpool spot business has been active and large buying orders in July and August have been received from that market. Wall Street houses have covered on a large scale. The last weekly Government report was unfavorable, speaking of a noticeable and general deficiency in the rainfall and temperatures. Since then, however, copious rains have fallen and temperatures have risen. From Liverpool many bullish dispatches have been received reporting an excellent demand, a good trade in Manchester, and expressing the opinion that spinners are likely to buy freely next week. The spot business there has ranged from 10,000 to 12,000 bales a day. The obsequies of King Edward and consequent suspension of business for a time will make the week's comparisons with last year look rather bearish. Apart from this, however, advocates of lower prices believe that there will be plenty of cotton, that the high prices insure a big acreage and careful cultivation, and that with a large crop lower prices should be recorded later in the year, at any rate, if not sooner. The May-July deal is deprecated by commission houses as something which interferes with the ordinary run of business. Leading bulls, however, manifest a disposition to adhere to the position which they have so tenaciously held for months past. To-day prices declined early on further beneficial rains, bear hammering, liquidations and rumors of dissensions among leading bulls. Later there was an advance on support from New Orleans bull leaders, buying attributed to Chicago bulls and covering of shorts. May notices for about 10,000 bales were issued, but had no effect. Spot cotton here has been more active. Middling uplands closed at 15.25c., a decline for the week of 80 points.

The rates on and off middling, as established Nov. 17 1909 by the Revision Committee, at which grades other than middling may be delivered on contract, are as follows:

OUR COTTON ACREAGE REPORT.—Our cotton acreage report will probably be ready about the 1st of June. Parties desiring the circular in quantities, with their business cards printed thereon, should send in their orders as soon as possible, to ensure early delivery.

EUROPEAN COTTON CONSUMPTION TO MAY 1.—By cable to-day we have Mr. Ellison's cotton figures brought down to May 1. We give also revised totals for last year that comparison may be made. The spinners' takings in actual bales and pounds have been as follows:

Oct. 1 to May 1.	Great Britain.	Continent.	Total.
For 1909-10.
Takings by spinners.....bales	2,085,000	3,625,000	5,710,000
Average weight of bales.....lbs.	493	472	479.7
Takings in pounds.....	1,027,905,000	1,711,000,000	2,738,905,000
For 1908-09.
Takings by spinners.....bales	2,329,000	3,899,000	6,228,000
Average weight of bales.....lbs.	510	488	496.2
Takings in pounds.....	1,187,790,000	1,902,812,000	3,090,602,000

According to the above, the average weight of the deliveries in Great Britain is 493 pounds per bale this season, against 510 pounds during the same time last season. The Continental deliveries average 472 pounds, against 488 pounds last year, and for the whole of Europe the deliveries average 479.7 pounds per bale, against 496.2 pounds last season. Our dispatch also gives the full movement for this year and last year in bales of 500 pounds.

BREADSTUFFS.

Friday, May 20 1910.

Prices for wheat flour have as a rule been steady during the week, despite the decline in wheat. The lower prices for wheat have apparently made consumers more than ever inclined to hold aloof from the market for flour. Some re-sales of spring grades by recent buyers have been reported. Trade reports from most parts of the West and the Southwest have been pessimistic. At the Northwest business has been moderately active. The output of the mills there has increased of late. Rye flour and corn meal have been quiet and firm.

Wheat has declined, mainly owing to beneficial rains and an improvement in the crop outlook. The cash demand has been dull, the receipts liberal and the idea has prevailed among many that the recent advance was due more to manipulation by powerful interests than anything else. The spring-wheat crop is said to be looking better. In Texas harvesting will commence in a few days. The Chicago stock is being increased by arrivals from the Northwest. From Kansas the most favorable reports for some time have been received. Beneficial rains have fallen in Russia and Australia. The European markets have on the whole been quite depressed in anticipation of good crops in Russia and elsewhere in Europe, and also owing to some improvement in this country. India and Australia from present appearances seem likely to have bountiful harvests. The belief is quite general that only aggressive manipulation will prevent prices from gradually reaching a lower level. As near as can now be made out, the world's crops will be liberal with the exception of those of Argentina. Meantime trade for export in this country is still in abeyance. Not only that, but the domestic cash demand is also slow. Speculation has been largely professional, many fearing to touch the market, owing to its highly manipulative character. Yet, on the other hand, there are still some persistent advocates of higher prices. They include powerful men who have been successful in the past. Large Chicago interests are believed to control the September delivery, and Albany people are understood to have a pretty firm grip on the May option. There have been some complaints, too, of Hessian fly in Indiana and Illinois, as well as in Ohio and Missouri. At times the temperatures at the Northwest have been too low. Some plowing up of fields in parts of the Southwest is reported. A prominent Chicago bull insists that the winter-wheat crop is at least 50,000,000 bushels smaller than the last one, and he is understood to be bulling both September wheat and July cotton. There is a widespread conviction, however, that the price of wheat is unwarrantably high. To-day quotations declined early on favorable weather and crop news, large receipts, dulness on the spot and liquidation, but rallied later on bull support and covering.

Indian corn futures here have been nominal. At the West, the market has been active at times, with the drift of prices in the main downward, owing chiefly to more favorable weather of late for planting. This has also had the effect of making farmers more disposed to part with the actual corn, and it is believed by many that country selling, with the completion of planting, will increase very materially. The cash demand of late has fallen off, with prices easier. Cash interests, which recently made purchases, have been selling within the last few days, and there has been general commission-house liquidation. To-day prices declined on generally favorable weather and crop reports, free country offerings, selling by elevator concerns and liquidation.

Oats for future delivery in the Western market have declined, owing to improved weather and crop reports and the weakness in other cereals. Moreover, the cash sales have been very small at easier quotations. The country has offered more freely. Some of the crop news has been unfavorable, noting the necessity of replanting in certain sections. In the main, however, the crop advices have been favorable and the indications point to an enlarged area. To-day prices were easier on favorable weather, a dull and heavy spot market and liquidation.

THE DRY GOODS TRADE.

New York, Friday Night, May 20 1910.

Demand for cotton goods was a little broader and more active during the past week, the total business done showing a moderate increase, although individual orders for finished merchandise were still mostly of a filling-in character. In certain lines, however, buyers appeared to give more attention to their requirements for the future, as was indicated by the larger number of inquiries and by the placing of some orders for forward delivery. Converters, especially, continued to operate steadily on gray goods, taking a fair amount in the aggregate for deliveries during the next four or five months; prices have gradually worked up to a basis on which mills are willing to accept contracts running into October, but there are apparently few that will book beyond that month. Sellers displayed more confidence in the future, and prices for forward shipment were firmly held. A significant development was the action of a leading producer of staple ginghams in increasing discounts slightly and tendering deliveries up to Sept. 1 at the old base price, with a guaranty that no further downward revision would be made prior to that date. This announcement not only removed doubts as to the future course of this line of staples, so far as prices are concerned, but also served to impress upon buyers the fact that manufacturers do not look for cheap cotton from the current crop. The week furnished additional evidences of depleted stocks in many lines, and, while a large buying movement is not expected, the opinion prevails among many sellers that large users of goods will be obliged to enter the market shortly. Jobbers have not done much in the way of covering future needs and are not expected to until next month. Meanwhile production is being steadily curtailed, with present indications that several of the large Eastern mills will shut down early next week and remain closed until after Memorial Day. The cotton yarn market ruled steadier than for some time past, reflecting to a large extent the continued restriction of output and the unwillingness of most producers to book advance business except on a basis that is reasonably certain to afford some profit. The men's wear market continued quiet and unsettled, owing to free offerings of stock goods at sharp concessions. In dress goods little activity was noted outside of the demand for sample pieces; uncertainty as to what fabrics will be most popular for the fall is still holding business in check.

DOMESTIC COTTON GOODS.—The exports of cotton goods from this port for the week ending May 14 were 3,014 packages, valued at $262,216.

Total	3,014 78,989	20,294 151,124

The value of these New York exports since Jan. 1 has been $5,585,244 in 1910, against $8,058,270 in 1909.

Buyers operated on staple ginghams with more confidence, following the Amoskeag Manufacturing Co's revision, already mentioned, and Southern ginghams improved in sympathy. Drills and sheets were somewhat steadier, but continued generally inactive. Staple prints were also quiet; buyers seemed to be holding off in expectation of a downward revision in prices, but printers apparently see nothing in the situation to warrant such a move. Bleached goods were dull, only small scattered sales being reported, notwithstanding the improvement in gray goods. More interest was shown in colored cottons for working suits and shirts, although orders were principally for spot or near-by delivery. Export trade remained dull. The print cloth market was moderately active, fair-sized orders having been placed, chiefly by converters, for shipment during the next few months; regulars are quoted unchanged at 4c. nominal, while standard wide goods are firmer at 5 1/4c.

WOOLEN GOODS.—The men's wear market was inactive on fall lines, no material increase being reported in the volume of duplicate business placed during the week. Opinions differ as to what fabrics will be most desirable for the coming season. This fact, together with expectations in some quarters that more favorable prices will prevail later on, has made clothiers conservative in placing re-orders. In the worsted division the liberal offering of stock goods at substantial reductions has unsettled the market; in many quarters this development is looked upon as an indication that values to be named on new lines for spring 1911 will be comparatively low. The situation in the dress goods market remained practically unchanged; spot business was light and trade in fall lines was almost at a standstill pending a clearer outlook as to what fabrics will be in vogue.

FOREIGN DRY GOODS.—Imported woollens and worsteds ruled quiet in common with domestic lines. In the linen market a moderate demand was in evidence for seasonable merchandise available for prompt shipment; for distant deliveries very little business was accomplished, buyers and sellers being apart on prices. Burlaps were quiet, with prices firm and unchanged.

STATE AND CITY DEPARTMENT.

News Items.

Atlanta, Ga.—Act Extending City Limits Declared Constitutional.—In a decision rendered May 11 the Supreme Court upheld the Act of the Legislature approved Aug. 14 1909, extending the city limits so as to incorporate the suburbs of Battle Hill and Oakland City. The higher court upholds the action of Judge Ellis of the Fulton Superior Court, who denied an application for an injunction made by certain citizens of the incorporated territory.

Chicago, Ill.—Vote on Annexation of Suburbs.—We are advised that the vote in Chicago on April 5 on the question of annexing the municipalities of Edison Park, Oak Park and Morgan Park was as follows:

	For Admission.	Against Admission.
Edison Park.....	129,852	95,608
Oak Park.....	128,972	92,095
Morgan Park.....	126,745	92,282

The vote in the suburbs, according to local papers, was as follows:

	For Admission.	Against Admission.
Edison Park.....	52	71
Oak Park.....	739	2,296
Morgan Park.....	319	412

Denver, Colo.—City Votes Against Granting New Water Franchise.—Partial returns are said to indicate the defeat, by probably 2,000 votes, of the proposition to grant a new 20-year franchise to the Denver Union Water Co. See V. 90, p. 1313.

Helena, Mont.—City Offers to Purchase Water Plant.—It is said that the City Council has adopted a resolution offering to purchase the plant of the Helena Water-Works Co. for $250,000.

Kansas City, Mo.—Bond Case to Be Heard by Supreme Court in October.—The Supreme Court at Jefferson City on May 13 ordered a temporary writ of mandamus, returnable the first day in the October term, in the proceedings to test the validity of the $4,175,000 bonds voted at the election April 5. As stated last week, the city officials had expected an early decision in the matter, and in view of the delay caused by the Court's action there is talk of dismissing the suit and re-submitting the bond propositions to the voters.

Louisiana.—Proposed "Baby Bond" Plan.—The New Orleans "Times-Democrat" of May 12 prints the following regarding a proposed plan to refund outstanding "Baby Bonds" of this State with an issue of certificates bearing no rate of interest and no specified date of maturity:

Baton Rouge, May 11.—In response to the insistent demand of the financial interests of the country, the Governor, as the result of a conference with Representative Thomas of Caddo on the subject of State finances, authorized the announcement that he would sign a bill to meet the situation created by the recent ruling of the Attorney-General of New York, that Louisiana bonds were not legal investments for savings banks of that State on account of the default in the payment of the interest and principal upon what are known as "baby bonds" of Louisiana. The conference was held in the executive office, Ex-Gov. Heard, who was State Auditor for eight years, and an authority on State finances, being present by invitation of Gov. Sanders. Gov. Sanders made it plain at this conference that he did not wish to initiate legislation on this subject, and had purposely omitted referring to the matter in his message to the Legislature. He expressed his willingness, however, to sign a bill which, when drafted, would be in accordance with the plan outlined by State Treasurer Steele in his biennial report.

Representative Thomas stated last night that he had agreed to consult with R. E. Milling in framing a bill which would be somewhat along the lines suggested by State Treasurer Steele in his report. The proposed bill would provide for the surrender and examination of all valid outstanding "baby bonds" in exchange for certificates of indebtedness, the certificates to bear no rate of interest and no specified date of maturity.

The exchange would also be made in accordance with the agreement entered into by 90% of the holders of these bonds when the Legislature passed Act No. 150 of 1894, authorizing the Board of Liquidation to use the surplus general fund for the purpose of retiring the "baby bonds" at not more than fifty cents on the dollar. During Gov. Foster's administration $364,295 worth of these bonds were bought in at less than fifty cents on the dollar, while $106,275 of the bonds were redeemed in taxes. According to the report of State Treasurer Steele, there are now outstanding $910,727 63 worth of the "baby bonds," of which some are believed to be duplicates fraudulently issued by a defaulting State Treasurer.

None of these bonds have been redeemed in the past ten years, the excuse given by the State of its failure to continue the redemption of these bonds being that there has been no surplus general fund that could be used for this purpose.

Under the proposed Thomas bill, the status of the "baby bonds" situation would not be changed in the least degree except as to the recognition on the part of the State of the validity of the indebtedness on all sides. It is recognized that the clearing up of this unpleasant financial situation is the first essential step to the refunding of the State debt.

The State debt amounts to over $11,000,000, bears 4% interest, and matures in 1914. While this matter could be permitted to lie over until the next Legislature, Gov. Sanders, during his campaign, promised to reduce both the principal and the rate of interest.

Senate Committee Votes against Income Tax.—On May 19 the Senate Committee on Federal Relations adopted a resolution rejecting the proposed Income Tax Amendment.

Massachusetts.—Savings Banks Authorized to Make Loans with Life Insurance Policies as Collateral.—The Legislature has passed an Act authorizing savings banks to loan not exceeding one per cent of their deposits on notes with a pledge as collateral of life insurance policies approved by the Bank Commissioner and properly assigned to the banks. It is provided that the loan shall not exceed 90% of the cash surrender value of the policy assigned as security. We print the law in full below:

[Chap. 358.]

An Act to Authorize Savings Banks to Make Loans on Life Insurance Policies.

Be it enacted, &c., as follows:

SECTION 1. In addition to the loans authorized by the eighth clause of Section Sixty-eight of Chapter Five hundred and ninety of the Acts of the year nineteen hundred and eight, savings banks may loan on notes of responsible borrowers in such form as the Bank Commissioner may approve, with a pledge as collateral of policies issued by life insurance companies approved by the Bank Commissioner and properly assigned to the bank, but not exceeding ninety per cent of the cash surrender value of the policies assigned as security for the payment of any such loan; but the aggregate of such loans made by any savings bank shall not exceed one per cent of its deposits.

SECTION 2. This Act shall take effect upon its passage. [Approved April 8 1910.]

Legislature Defeats Resolution Ratifying Proposed Income Tax Amendment.—By a vote of 11 "yeas" to 23 "nays" a resolution ratifying the proposed Income Tax Amendment was defeated in the Senate on May 19. As stated in V. 90, p. 1252, the House on May 4 defeated a motion to substitute a resolution favoring the tax for the adverse report of the Committee on Federal Relations, by a vote of 101 "yeas" to 126 "nays."

Michigan.—No Vote Taken on Constitutional Amendment.—The proposed constitutional amendment relating to the bonding power of counties (V. 89, p. 424) was not submitted to the voters at the election held the first Monday in April, as provided in Concurrent Resolution No. 4 of the Legislature of 1909. We are advised that the amendment was withdrawn upon the advice of the Attorney-General, who was of the opinion that the question could not be properly submitted at such a time, as all districts in the State, particularly such cities as Saginaw and Detroit, did not hold elections.

Milwaukee, Wis.—City to Buy and Sell Real Estate.—Mayor Seidel, elected April 5 on the Socialistic ticket, has announced a plan providing for the purchase by the city of acreage in the outlying districts and the conversion of the same into factory sites and residence property. The Mayor would have the city plot the land in accordance with his plans for increasing railroad facilities and re-sell it for factory sites at a comfortable margin of profit.

New Jersey.—Federal Government Withdraws from Suit in Passaic Valley Sewer Case.—The United States Supreme Court on May 16 granted the application of the Federal Government for leave to withdraw from the suit brought by the State of New York to enjoin the State of New Jersey from constructing the Passaic Valley sewer, and in which suit the United States had intervened. The withdrawal was because of the adjustment of the points at issue through the stipulation recently signed by the parties interested. See V. 90, p. 1252.

New York City.—Franchise Tax Cases in Manhattan Practically all Settled.—With the settlement this week of a number of special franchise tax cases on trial before Justice O'Gorman, it was announced that all the cases running from 1900 to the present time, with the exception of the Manhattan Elevated and the New York Central, had been disposed of. As a result of the settlement of these cases, which have been on trial since the first Monday in January, Attorney-General O'Malley states that upward of $20,000,000 in tax payments have either been actually made or are about to be made into the city treasury. Mr. O'Malley also says:

"In Brooklyn an extraordinary term is now pending, with Mr. Justice Marcan presiding. Very substantial progress has been made in Kings County in the settlement of cases, and it looks as if most of them there will be settled without trial.

"In the Ninth Judicial District, comprising the counties of Westchester, Orange, Rockland, &c., more than 200 cases were disposed of before Mr. Justice Morschauer, and all the litigation there cleaned up and the taxes paid to the localities.

"Extraordinary terms were also convened in the Sixth, Seventh and Eighth judicial districts, with practically like results. Up-State the only cases now remaining unsettled are the steam surface street crossing cases. Owing to a decision made by a referee in Buffalo, to the effect that the special franchise tax law does not apply to steam service crossings, the settlement of those cases is necessarily delayed until that question is determined in the Court of Appeals."

New York State.—Senate Adopts Income Tax Resolution.—The Davenport resolution, ratifying the proposed income tax amendment to the Federal Constitution, was adopted in the Senate on May 17, the vote being 26 to 20. As already stated, the Assembly has twice defeated a resolution favoring the proposed tax. See V. 90, p. 1252.

Bill Placing Telephone and Telegraph Companies Under Jurisdiction of Public Service Commission Adopted by Assembly.—By a vote of 88 to 16, the Assembly on May 17 adopted Assemblyman Merritt's bill placing telephone and telegraph companies under the jurisdiction of the Public Service Commission, Second District.

Porto Rico.—Bond Offering.—Proposals will be received until 2 p. m. July 7 by the Bureau of Insular Affairs, Washington, D. C., for $425,000 4% gold registered bonds issued under an Act of the Porto Rico Legislature approved March 10 1910.

Denomination $5,000. Date Jan. 1 1910. Interest semi-annually at the United States Treasury. Maturity Jan. 1 1927, redeemable at the pleasure of the Government of Porto Rico after Jan. 1 1920. Certified check for 2% of bid is required. Delivery July 14 1910, probably by interim certificates, which will be replaced by the bonds as soon as they are completed. Purchaser to pay accrued interest. The Act of the Porto Rico Legislature under which the bonds are issued exempts them from the payment of taxes of any kind of the Government of Porto Rico, or of any local authority therein. The United States Treasury Department authorizes the statement that it will accept these bonds at par as security for public deposits should further deposits be made. These bonds will also be accepted by the Government of Porto Rico as security for deposits of funds of that Government.

Rhode Island.—Amendments to Savings Bank Investment Law.—The Legislature of this State, at the session which ended April 29, passed two amendments to Chapter 232 of the General Laws of 1909 relating to investments of savings banks. The first of these, approved April 20, will be known as Chapter 552 of the Laws of 1910 and changes that portion of the law having to do with investment in the bonds of steam railroad companies. The amendment is to Clause Second (a) of Section One, under which savings banks may invest in the bonds of any steam railroad company incorporated in Rhode Island, Massachusetts or Connecticut whose railroad is located wholly or in part in said States, and which owns not less than one hundred miles of road, exclusive of sidings, whether such company operates its own road or has leased it to another railroad corporation, and for three years preceding such investment shall have earned, after payment of all operating expenses, maintenance charges rentals, taxes and all interest and dividends guaranteed by it, not less than twice the current annual interest on all its outstanding indebtedness secured by the mortgage under which said bonds are issued or by any prior lien. The Act just adopted eliminates the words we have printed in italics.

The other amendment was approved April 26 and will appear as Chapter 563 of the Laws of 1910. In this case an addition is made to Clause Third (b) of Section One which deals with investment in mortgage bonds of electric railroads, street railways, gas, electric light or power companies. By this amendment the banks are given power also to invest in such bonds as are guaranteed as to principal and interest by another company under certain limitations. Clause Third (b) as amended is printed below, the new portion being in italics:

"(b) In the mortgage bonds of any electric railroad, street railway, gas, electric light or power company organized under the laws of any of the United States, other than the State of Rhode Island, and which has, for three years last preceding such investment, after payment of all operating expenses, maintenance charges, rentals, taxes and all interest and dividends guaranteed by it on the bonds, notes or stock of any other corporation, earned not less than twice the current annual interest on all its indebtedness outstanding secured by the mortgage under which said bonds are issued or by any prior lien, and which has not, during the same period, defaulted in the payment of the matured principal or interest of any debt incurred by it and secured by a mortgage or deed of trust, or in the payment of any part of the matured principal or interest of any bonds guaranteed or assumed by it: Provided, that the bonds of any such electric railroad or street railway company shall be a legal investment for such deposits only in case such company shall have had, for said period of three years, average gross earnings of not less than four hundred thousand dollars a year; and if such railroad or railway company shall also carry on the business of a gas, electric light or power company, or of any two or more of them, then in case it shall have had, for said three years, gross earnings of not less than six hundred thousand dollars a year; and the bonds of any such gas, electric light or power company, or of any company combining the business of a gas, electric light and power company, or of any two or more such companies, shall be a legal investment only in case it shall have had average gross earnings of not less than two hundred thousand dollars a year for said period of three years. Also, in the first mortgage bonds of any such electric railroad, street railway, gas, electric light or power company as are guaranteed, both as to principal and interest, by another electric railroad, street railway, gas, electric light or power company; First, which has, for the three years last preceding such investment, after payment of all operating expenses, maintenance charges, rentals, taxes, and all interest and dividends guaranteed by it on the bonds, notes or stock of any other corporation, earned not less than three times the current annual interest on all its indebtedness outstanding; and, Second, which has, or the guaranteed company has, in the judgment of the Bank Commissioner, provided a sinking fund adequate to secure the payment of the principal of such bonds; and, Third, the net assets of which, exclusive of any stock of the guaranteed company, are worth, at their fair market value, twice the total amount of all bonds, notes or stock of all corporations guaranteed by such company. Such investments shall remain legal investments only while the bonds, notes and stock so guaranteed shall not exceed such amount."

San Francisco, Cal.—Geary Street Railroad Case to be Heard by Supreme Court on June 6.—The Supreme Court of California on May 12 denied the petition of Horace G. Platt for an injunction to restrain the sale of $260,000 Geary Street Railroad bonds, which were to have been offered on May 16. At the same time the Court set June 6 for a hearing of Mr. Platt's appeal from the Superior Court of Tehama County. See V. 90, p. 1188. In view of this the Board of Supervisors has postponed the bond sale to June 27, as stated on a subsequent page.

Tulsa County (P. O. Tulsa), Okla.—Bonds Declared Legal by Supreme Court.—The Dallas "News" states that the Supreme Court has sustained Judge L. M. Poe of the District Court in his opinion that the $700,000 bonds voted last November (V. 89, p. 1240) are legal.

REFUNDING BONDS

Dated July 1, 1910, payable July 1, 1950, without prior option. Interest four per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, January 1 and July 1. Both principal and interest payable at National Park Bank, New York City. The undersigned, State Treasurer, will receive sealed bids at his office, Raleigh, North Carolina, for said bonds, until 12 O'CLOCK M., MAY 28, 1910. The legality of said bonds has been approved by Hubbard & Masslich of New York, whose opinion will be furnished without cost to the purchaser. Printed circulars giving full information and blank forms, on which all bids must be made, will be furnished on application to the undersigned, or to said Hubbard & Masslich. These bonds were advertised for sale on May 18, 1910, and all bids received on that date rejected. Since the former advertisement the Supreme Court of North Carolina has handed down an opinion holding that these bonds must be deducted in appraising shares in banks for taxation to the extent that the surplus of the bank is invested in these bonds. This makes the bonds a much more attractive investment to banks and trust companies than they were under a former ruling of the State Tax Commission.

B. R. LACY, State Treasurer.

4% BONDS

Sealed bids will be received by the Committee on Ways and Means of the City Council of the City of Minneapolis, Minnesota, at the office of the undersigned, THURSDAY, JUNE 9TH, 1910, at 2 o'clock p. m. for the whole or any part of the following bonds: $250,000 High-School Bonds, dated July 1, 1910, payable July 1, 1940; $200,000 Grade School Bonds, dated January 1, 1910, payable January 1, 1940, and $200,000 Park Bonds, dated July 1, 1909, payable July 1, 1939. Bonds to bear interest at the rate of four (4) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually. The right to reject any or all bids is reserved. A certified check for two (2) per cent of the par value of the bonds bid for, made to C. A. Bloomquist, City Treasurer, must accompany each bid. Circular containing full particulars will be mailed upon application.

DAN C. BROWN, City Comptroller.

City of Baldwin City, Kansas,

SEWER BONDS

SEALED bids will be received up to 7:30 p. m. of the 24TH DAY OF MAY, 1910, by the City Clerk at Baldwin City, Kansas, for approximately $30,000 00 Sewer Improvement Bonds. Certified check of 5% shall accompany bids. Approximately $15,000 00 of the issue to be 5% twenty-year bonds, and approximately $15,000 00 to bear 6% and mature in ten years. Bonds to bear date of June 1st, 1910.

For further detailed information address the City Clerk. The Council reserves the right to waive irregularities in bids and to reject any and all bids.
