STATE PROPERTY.—The State owns the Western & Atlantic R. R., extending from Atlanta, Ga. to Chattanooga, Tenn., 138 miles, and has leased it for 50 years from December 27 1919 to the Nashville Chattanooga & St. Louis RR. Co. at a rental of $540,000 per annum and payment of all taxes, which, under the former lease, they were not required to pay. Also owns two pieces of property in the heart of Chattanooga formerly included as part of the Western & Atlantic RR. lease, but now leased independently for 50 years at an average rental of $12,000 per annum. It also holds 186 shares of the Georgia RR. & Banking Co. and 440 shares of the Southern & Atlantic Telegraph Co.

as part of the Western & Atlantic RR. lease, but now leased independently for 50 years at an average rental of $12,000 per annum. It also holds 186 shares of the Georgia RR. & Banking Co. and 440 shares of the Southern & Atlantic Telegraph Co.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—LIMITING TAX LEVY.—An amendment to the constitution was adopted Oct. 5, 1904 limiting the State tax levy in any one year to 5 mills on the dollar, except for the purpose of repelling invasion, &c. See V. 79, p. 746.

DEBT LIMITATION.—Section 3. No debt shall be contracted by or on behalf of the State except to supply such temporary deficit as may exist in the Treasury in any year from necessary delay in collecting the taxes of that year, to repel invasion, suppress insurrection and defend the State in time of war, or to pay the existing public debt; but the debt created to supply deficiencies in revenue shall not exceed, in the aggregate, five hundred thousand dollars (amount raised by constitutional amendment in Oct. 1912 from $200,000 to $500,000 and any loan made for this purpose shall be repaid out of the taxes levied for the year in which the loan is made. The 1921 Legislature passed an Act authorizing the Governor to set apart the rental of the Western & Atlantic RR., for limited periods, as a special fund, against which the Governor is authorized to draw and discount warrants and to place the proceeds in the treasury for the purpose of meeting the State's obligations. In a test suit, the constitutionality of this law was upheld by the State Supreme Court on Dec. 3 1921. (V. 113, p. 2526.)

COUNTIES, CITIES, &c.—The State Constitution of 1877, Article VII. Section VII, Paragraph 1, limits the indebtedness of counties and cities to 7% of the assessed valuation. Amendments were made to Paragraph 1 in 1920 and 1924 by which additional indebtedness is allowed in certain cases in excess of the 7% limit. The amendment in 1920 empowers cities having a population of 150,000 or more to issue street improvement bonds without regard to the amount of o

MUNICIPAL BOND ISSUES.—In December 1897 a very importan law governing issues of bonds by counties, municipalities and other civi divisions in Georgia was passed. This law provides for having the Superior Court determine the validity of proposed bond issues, and judgment in the affirmative having been given the bonds thereafter can never be called in question. See "Chronicle" of Jan. 15 1898. The constitutionality of this Act was upheld by the State Supreme Court in an opinion handed down on Dec. 1 1908 regarding a suit brought to restrain the issuance of certain bonds by the City of Albany, Ga. See V. 88, p. 319. Also see editorial in "State and City Supplement" of May 29 1909.

BONDS TAX FREE.—The State Supreme Court on Aug. 9 1907 handed down a decision holding that bonds issued by any municipal corporation within the State of Georgia are not taxable by that State or any County thereof. V. 85, p. 676.

INVESTMENTS OF TRUST FUNDS.—The following sections of the Code of 1911 relate to this subject:

SEC. 3763.—Investments.—Any trustee holding trust funds may invest the same in stocks, bonds, or other securities issued by this State, making a true return of the price paid and time of purchase. Such investments shall be free from taxation so long as held for the trust estate. Any other investments of trust funds must be made under an order of the Superior Court, either in term or granted by the Judge in vacation, or else at the risk of the trustee.

SEC. 3764.—May Invest in State Securities at Less Than Seven Per Cent.—Executors, administrators, guardians and trustees may invest trust funds in stocks, bonds and other securities issued by this State, bearing a lower rate of interest then received from the State; Provided, that such exe DEBT LIMITATION.—State.—Section 6 of Article IX of the constitution reads: "The Legislature shall have power to provide for issuing State bonds only for the purpose of repelling invasion or suppressing insurrection, or for the purpose of redeeming or refunding bonds already issued, at a lower rate of interest." Section 10 of this article states the credit of the State shall not be pledged or loaned to any individual, company, corporation or association, nor shall the State become a joint owner or stockholder in any company, association or corporation.

Cities and Towns.—Chapter 5645, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1905, provides "that cities and towns may issue bonds for the purpose of building or repairing public buildings, or water-works of the city or town, widening or extending streets or parks, purchasing or establishing gas or electric-light plants for the city or town, or for any other municipal purpose, to an amount not exceeding ten per cent (10%) of the assessed value of the real and personal property within its incorporated limits. But this limitation shall not operate to prevent the issue by any city or town of additional bonds which, with the existing bonded indebtedness, shall not exceed ten per cent (10%) of the assessed value of the real and personal property within its corporate limits: Provided, That no bonds shall be issued by any city or town until the question of issuing same shall have been decided in favor of such bond issue by an election held for that purpose in the manner now provided by law: Provided, This Act shall not apply to cities and towns which have special charters from the Legislature."

which have special charters from the Legislature.

***EXEMPTIONS IN DETERMINING DEBT LIMITATION.—City Light Plant bonds and Special Improvement bonds based on certificates or lens for the cost of such improvements are excluded in determining the bonded indebtedness which a city may incur whether the limitation be the 10% restriction provided by general law or that imposed by special charters. Special improvement bonds based on certificates or liens for the cost of such improvements are general obligations of the issuing municipality (Section 11, Chapter 9298, Laws of 1923).

**Counties.**—Title IX. Section 786 (First Division), Revised Statutes 1906, states that counties may issue bonds for highways, buildings and for funding purposes, provided the proposition to issue such bonds is authorized by a majority of the voters. A sum sufficient to pay the interest and to raise the amount annually required as a sinking fund to pay the bonds at maturity is required.

**Special Tax School Districts (Limitation 20%).—Section 17 of Article 12

Special Tax School Districts (Limitation 20%).—Section 17 of Article 12 of the State Constitution, as amended in 1924, provides:

"The Legislature may provide for special tax school districts to issue bonds for the exclusive use of public free schools within any such special tax school district, whenever a majority of the qualified electors thereof who are free-holders shall vote in favor of the issuance of such bonds, but no bonds shall be issued hereunder which shall exceed, together with the existing indebtedness of such special tax school district, 20% of the assessed value of the taxable property of such district according to the last assessment for State and county purposes prior to the issuing of such bonds. Any bonds issued hereunder shall become payable within thirty years from the date of issuance in annual installments which shall commence not more than three years after the date of issue. Each annual installment shall be not less than 3% of the total amount of the issue. Whenever any such special tax for the payment of the interest on said bonds and the principal thereof as the same shall become due and payable shall be levied on the taxable property within the district voting for their issuance in accordance with law, providing for the levy of taxes, and such tax shall not be applied to any purpose other than the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds."

TAXATION OF MUNICIPAL BONDS.—Under Chapter 5596, Laws of

than the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds."

TAXATION OF MUNICIPAL BONDS.—Under Chapter 5596. Laws of 1907, relating to tax assessments and collection of revenue, "all debts due or to become due from solvent debtors, whether on account, contract, note or otherwise, all public stocks or shares in all incorporated or unincorporated companies." are taxable as personal property when held by residents.

INCOMES AND LEGACIES EXEMPTED FROM STATE TAX.—Under the provisions of an amendment to the State Constitution (Section 11, Article IX.), adopted by the voters on Nov. 4 1924 by a vote of 60,640 to 14.386, incomes and legacies are exempted from State taxation. Section 11 reads:

"Not tax upon inheritance and contract of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state of the state constitution of the state of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the state constitution of the s

"No tax upon inheritances or upon the income of residents or citizens of this State shall be levied by the State of Florida, or under its authority, snd there shall be exempt from taxation to the head of a family residing in this State household goods and personal effects to the value of five hundred ($500) dollars."

SAVINGS BANK INVESTMENTS.—The provisions regulating invest ments by savings banks in Florida are contained in Section 4179 of the Banking and Trust Laws, 1921, which are as follows:

*Investment of Funds.—The capital and deposits and the income derived therefrom shall be invested only as follows:

1. On the first mortgages of real estate situated in this State to an amount not to exceed 60% of the valuation of such real estate, but not exceeding 75% of the whole amount of deposits shall be so invested; and no loan on mortgage shall be made except upon the report of not less than two members of the board of investment, who shall certify to the value of the premises to be mortgaged, according to their best judgment, and such report shall be filed and preserved with the records of the corporation.

2. In the public funds of the United States, or bonds of any of the United States, or in the bonds or notes of any city, county or town of the United States, or in the property therein for the assessment of taxes, or in the notes of any citizen of this State with a pledge of any of the Asoresaid securities at no more than the par value thereof.

3. In the first mortgage bonds of any railroad company incorporated under authority of any of the United States, and whose road is located wholly in the same, and which is in possession of and operating its own road, and has earned and paid regular dividends for the two years next preceding such investment. Or in the first mortgage bonds guaranteed by any such railroad company or any railroad company so incorporated whose road is thus located; or in the bonds or notes of any railroad company incorporated under the laws of this State, which is unencumbered by mortgage, and which has paid a dividend of not less than 5% per annum for the two years next preceding such investment; or in the notes of any citizen of this State, with a pledge as collateral of any of the aforesald securities at no more than 80% of the par value thereof.

4. In the stock of any bank incorporated under the authority of the United States, or in the notes of any citizen of this State, with a pledge as collateral of any of the aforesald securities at no more than 80% of the market value and not exceeding 30% of the amount of their deposits on all in such banks, banking associations or in any trust comp of investment.

Chapter 9327, Laws of 1923, authorizes banks and trust companies incorporated under the laws of Florida to invest to a limited extent in the stock of joint stock land banks chartered by Act of Congress to do business in Florida. The statute provides: "That hereafter it shall be lawful for any bank or trust company organized under the laws of this State to invest in the aggregate not exceeding ten (10) per centum of its capital stock in the capital stock of any joint stock land bank chartered to do business in this State under Act of Congress entitled 'An Act to provide capital for agricultural development, to create standard forms of investment based upon farm mortgages, to equalize rates of interest upon farm loans, to furnish a market for United States bonds, to create Government depositories and financial agents for the United States, and for other purposes.
