Robert J. Fairchild, Chairman, Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co., speak at the annual meeting of the American Institute of Actuaries. The Institute voted to expand the Council of President and Chairman, and to increase the number of members of the Council. The new Council will include the President, the Chairman, and six members elected by the members of the Council. The new Council will be responsible for the direction and management of the Institute, and for the promotion of the interests of the Institute.

The Institute also voted to establish a new award, the "Presidential Award," to be presented to an outstanding actuary each year. The award will be given to an actuary who has made significant contributions to the field of actuarial science.
