With Sincere Thanks to All

Well, the Twentieth Annual Dinner of STANY is to be found in the files and in the fond memories of something over 1,700 attendants from all over the country. Pridefully I can say it was the best yet. The best yet because every year we improve from experience. The knowledge of our former Presidents and Dinner Chairman is always given to us wholeheartedly. Perhaps we took one extra "giant step." But let's be honest—I cheated. When you persuade an old pro like Mike Heaney to run the deal you're bound to wind up with a near-perfect dinner, a wonderful show. I learned his secret, too;

Edward J. Kelly

all you do is stay downtown with Ellie Smith, working till after midnight every night for about four weeks.

Then you slip in Stan Dawson-Smith running the "Fabulous Forty" and your STANY bonds are "out the window."

Finally, you dig into last year's Committee, pull out Jack Barker, ask Tisch and Horn to stand by to advise, needle him every day. Result, he doesn't make dinner for a month and comes up with the biggest "Journal" ever.

The Commercial and Financial Chronicle men were all over the hotel, snapping pictures as fast as they could line up subjects. For that excellent coverage, the result of which you see in this issue, we are all extremely grateful.

On behalf of my fellow officers and directors of STANY may I say we were delighted to see every one of you. To you who came from out of town may I say "Thank You." Come back to see us often. You'll find every member of STANY a good fellow with the red carpet out for you.

Sincerely,

EDWARD J. KELLY, President

Greetings

From the NSTA

To the Officers, Directors and Members of STANY:

Let me congratulate you on occasion of this, your 20th annual banquet. It has been my pleasure to be your guest at several of these. I enjoyed them — the food, the entertainment and the association with you. Please invite me again next year.

Twenty are a lot of years. The Securities Traders Association of New York have put those years to good use. You and your predecessors have moulded STANY into a strong and influential organization — truly representing all that good traders should be and are.

Lex Jolley

You have had capable, hard working management. They have done much for you inside the Association and for the position you occupy in the securities industry. Keep that record inviolate — take a keen interest in the business and political affairs of your Association — see that sound policies are adopted and that dependable officials are elected.

The National Security Traders Association is planning a great convention at Palm Springs, California, in late October. I know many of you will be there with me. New York always has a good representative group at N.S.T.A. conventions.

Sincerely,

LEX JOLLEY, President

time insurance—A few large companies have never advertised. A few, but not many.

Most successful firms adopt consistent advertising programs. The younger and more successful the firm, the more it seems to advertise.

The conclusion is clear: you don't have to advertise to be successful.

But all things being equal, good advertising will bring success faster. We call it "Time Insurance"—and that's what we've been selling our clients for over 80 years.
