THE COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY.

Treasury Department,Office of the Comptroller of the Ourrency, Washington, December 4, 1893.

SIR: In compliance with law I have the honor to herewith submit for the consideration of Congress the annual report of the Comptroller of the Currency. It covers the year which ended October 31, 1893, and is the thirty-first report made since the organization of the Bureau.

The records of the Bureau show that at the close of the year the total number of national banks in active operation was 3,796, with an authorized capital stock of $$ 683,598,120$, represented by $7,450,000$ shares, held by 300,000 shareholders.

On October 3, the date of their last report of condition, the total resources of the 3,781 banks then in operation was $$ 3,109,563,284.36$, of which their loans and discounts aggregated $$ 1,843,634,167.51$, and money of all kinds in bank $$ 369,862,636.97$. Of their liabilities $$ 1,451$, $124,330.50$ represented individual deposits, $$ 339,153,447.54$ surplus and net undivided profits, and $$ 182,959,725.90$ circulating notes outstanding. The total amount of circulation of national banks, October 31, as shown by the books of the office, was $$ 209,311,993$, a net increase during the year of $$ 36,886,972$ and a gross increase of $$ 40,775,165$ on circulation secured by a deposit of bonds.

During the year 119 banks were organized in thirty-two States and Territories, with a capital stock of $$ 11,230,000$. Of these 44 , with a capital stock of $$ 5,135,000$, are located in the Eastern States, 41 west of the Mississippi River, with a capital stock of $$ 2,340,000$, and 34 in the Central and Southern States, with a capital stock of $$ 3,755,000$.

The number of banks whose charters were extended was 40 , distributed throughout twenty-five States, with a capital stock of $$ 5,046,000$, and circulation to the amount of $$ 1,585,925$. The charters of 4 expired, but in each instance the banks were succeeded by new associations.

Within the same period 158 banks suspended, with a capital stock of $$ 30,350,000$. Of this mumber, however, 86 , with a capital stock of $$ 18,205,000$, resumed business. The number which passed into the hands of receivers was 65 , with a capital stock of $$ 10,935,000$. On October 31 seven remained in the charge of examiners, with prospects of speedy resumption. Forty-six banks, with a capital stock of $$ 5,735,000$, went into voluntary liquidation.

By comparing the foregoing synopsis of the bistory of the banks for the year ended October 31, 1893, with that of the year ended October 31, 1892, as the same is set forth in the Comptroller's Report for that year, the following changes are noted: The number of banks organized decreased 44, receiverships increased 48, voluntary liquidations decreased 7 , corporate extensions decreased 47 , and expirations of be porate existence decreased 7. The total gain in the number of active banks was 8 .
The varying condition of the banks throughout the year appeafs from the following abstract of the reports of coudition, made in response to the five calls required by law.

A comparison of the figures of 1893 with those of 1892 in the foregoing table will indicate to what extent and in what respect the nationalbanking interests of the country suffered from the severe and unusual monetary stringenc: which characterized the greater portion of the past year. Compari ; their aggregate resources or liabilities on October 3, 1893, with tho. of September 30,1892, it is found they were $$ 400,531,613$ less, being but $$ 3,109,563,284$ on the former date as against $$ 3,510,094,897$ on the latter, the highest point ever reached in the history of the national-bank system. This unparalleled shrinkage in liabilities is accounted for by a decrease between the dates mentioned in the following items, viz: Capital stock $$ 8,032,677$, individual deposits $$ 314,298,653$, and bank and bankers' deposits $$ 181,388,125$. An increase is shown in circulation outstanding to the amount of $$ 39,536,428$, in liabilities of all kinds for money borrowed $$ 54,464,628$, and in surplus and undivided profits $$ 9,701,265$.

Not less marked is the decrease in the items making up the resources of the banks. It shows as follows: Loans and discounts, $$ 327,406,926 ;$ stocks, securities, etc., $$ 5,965,564$, and due from banks and bankers, $$ 132,054,654$. Cash of all kinds on hand increased $$ 21,991,191$, including $$ 8,410,815$ in gold, and United States bonds held for all purposes increased $$ 40,601,200$. These figures illustrate the far-reaching effect of the year's financial depression and show that when panic-stricken depositors withdrew their money the banks of necessity, to meet the sudden and extraordinary demands made upon them, called in their loans and discounts, supplementing such amounts by borrowed money and the additional circulation which they were able to procure from the Government through a deposit of bonds.

A closer examination of the figures coutained in the reports of condition made to the Comptroller shows this shrinkage to haveoccurred chiefly between May 4 and October 3, 1893. Within this period of five months $$ 298,806,487$ of individual deposits and $$ 79,313,076$ of bank deposits, a total sum of $$ 378,119,563$ was withdrawn from the banks. To meet this withdrawal loans and discounts were reduced to the amount of $$ 318,767,691$; amounts due from banks and bankers, $$ 51,198,856$, and stocks, securities, etc., $$ 2,177,912$, and to provide against further danger of withdrawals of deposits, which strongly menaced them, the banks between the same dates increased their liabilities for money borrowed in varions ways $$ 36,615,092$, and through the taking out of additional circulation $$ 31,265,616$, of which amount $$ 27,888,905$ was taken out between July 12 and October 3, 1893.

The cash resources of the banks, which on May 4, 1893, amounted to $$ 343,901,803$, were $$ 32,559,267$ less on July 12 , but between that date and October' 3 increased $$ 59,520,100$, amounting at the last-named date to $$ 369,862,637$, the largest sum ever held by them. This was accumulated in the face of continued heavy withdrawals of deposits and is the most practical demonstration that could be had of the solvency of the banks as a whole and their ability in an emergency to rapidly conyert their assets into cash.

It is unnecessary to here enter upon a further or more specific analysis of these tables. They comply in detail with the requirements of the law, and show " a summary of the state and condition of every association from which reports have been received the preceding year, at the several dates to which said reports refer, with an abstract of the whole amount of banking capital returned by them, of the whole amount of their debts and liabilities, the amount of circulating notes outstanding, and the total amount of means and resources, specifying the amount of lawful money held by then at the tines of their several returns."

The careful and mbiased student of the facts shown in this summary must inevitably reach the conclusion that the cause which more thau all others contribated to bringing about the stagnation of the past months in commercial business, the suspension of manufacturing and the closing of mills, was this unprecedented demand ou the part of depositors for money which the banks had distributed through the channels of trade and which, to meet this demand, they were obliged to withdraw.

The situation made so dangerous for the banks by the action of depositors caused a sudden contraction of the volume of money needed and already employed for business wants, prevented the makiug of new loans and rendered it hazardous on the part of the banks to grant renewals of credit, already extended. It is to be said, however, that despite the dangers threatening them, the banks contributed in the largest measure by a wise, judicious and, under all the circumstances, generous course, to the prevention of a general commercial panic. In evidence of this is the fact that at no time thronghout the prolonged monetary stringency was there complaint made to the Comptroller by any depositor, creditor, or patron of a national bank on account of the treatment accorded him, either as to cash payments of indebtedness, or for any other reason.

So, too, it is worthy of remark that, when there is taken into consideration the widespread feeling of distrust so prevalent throughout these months, the fact most deserving of comment is not that so many banks closed their doors, but that so many were able to continue in operation. No stronger evidence can be had of the honesty, conservatism, and ability of those active in the management of the banks than the comparatively few failures which occurred, and no greater tribute can be paid to the principles upon which the system as a whole is based and administered.
Supplementary to the information which has already been given should be added that which bears upon the corporate existence of the banks of the system. The table on page 73 shows the title, capital, and circulation of associations whose corporate existence expired by limitation during the year, and of the associations which succeeded them, the new associations showing an increase in capital of $$ 5,000$ and an increase in circulation of $$ 30,250$.

The table on page 73 shows by States the number, capital stock, and circulation of the forty banks whose corporate existence was extended during the year. Their aggregate capital stock was $$ 5,046,000$, and their circulation $$ 1,585,925$.

The table on page 74 shows the charter numbers, title, location, date of expiration, capital, bouds, and circulation of the forty-nine associations whose corporate existence will expire during the year ending October 31, 1894. These associations are located in twenty different States, with an aggregate capital of $$ 6,708,000$, and circulation amounting to $$ 2,006,950$.

The table on page 73 shows by States the number, capital, and circulation of associations whose corporate existence will expire during the period from 1894 to 1903. Of these there are 777, with an aggregate capital of $$ 117,275,850$, and circulation of $$ 32,467,992$.

The table on page 72 shows by States the number and capital of the 1,466 banks, whose corporate existence has been extended since the beginning of the system, located in forty States and Territories, with an aggregate capital of $$ 375,945,005$. Of these, New York has 225, with a capital of $$ 72,872,460$, Massachusetts 209 , with a capital of $$ 88,612,500$, and Pennsylvania 174 , with a capital of $$ 45,954,000$.

Of the 119 banks organized, as shown in the table on page 71 , Pennsylvania is first, with 25 banks, having a capital stock of $$ 2,375,000$, New York next, with 11 banks, with a capital stock of $$ 2,050,000$, Texas and Iowa have 10 each, with capital of $$ 610,000$ and $$ 500,000$, respectively. Wisconsin follows New York in amonnt of capital stock of newly organized banks, having $$ 1,750,000$, although the number of banks organized was but 5 .

The marked difference in the number of banks organized during the year ended October 31, 1893, as compared with the precediag year, arises largely from the changed monetary conditions, but is also due in a measure to the very rigid rules now enforced in the granting of charters. It has become the policy of this Bureau to more carefully scrutinize all applications for authority to organize new banks, as the Comptroller appreciates the necessity of discrimination to protect the system from the eutrance of associations whose weakness would be an injury. To this end the Comptroller before approving an application for authority to organize, satisfies himself in detail as to the business experience and financial responsibility of each of the applicants, by information obtained through inquiries from sources believed to be reliable.

BANKS OTHER THAN NATIONAL.

That the general statement of the resources, liabilities, and condition of banks and banking companies other than national, namely, State, savings, private banks, and loan aud trust companies, may be presented to Congress, as is required by law, the Comptroller, through the courtesy of State officers having supervision of these institutions, has obtained official returns from each State and Territory, excepting Delaware, Maryland, South Carolina, Arkansas, Tennessee, Kansas, Nevada, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Arizona, and Oklahoma. A summary of this juformation is here given to complete a résumé of the various banking interests of the country thronghout the past year. It will be found in detail in the tables which appear in the appendix.

At the close of the fiscal year ended June 30, 1893, there were in operation in the United States 5,024 incorporated banks, banking institutions, and savings banks, and from 4,837, or 96 per cent, reports of conditions were received, an increase of 419 over the number reporting last year. The number of private banks from which reports were received is 313 less than last year, but the net increase is $\mathbf{1 0 6}$.

In view of the fact that the returns from banks other than national show their condition in most of the States prior to the financial stringency of 1893, the effect of that depression does not appear in these statistics with respect to banks organized under State authority.

The total resources of the 4,837 incorporated and 848 private banks, as shown by the returns from both official and unofficial sources, amount to $$ 3,979,008,533$, of which loans and overdrafts are $$ 2,348,193,077$; Uuited States bonds, $$ 149,982,221$; State, county, etc., bonds, $$ 407,709,961$; railroad bouds and stocks, $$ 133,729,231$; bank stocks, $$ 45,752,014$; all other bonds, stocks, and securities, $$ 272,430,923$; due from banks and cash on hand, $$ 250,700,719$ and $$ 205,645,203$, respectively.

Of the liabilities the capital reported is $$ 406,007,240$; surplus and undivided profits, $$ 346,206,287$; individual deposits, $$ 1,285,311,723$; savings deposits, $$ 1,785,150,957$. The capital employed by the 3,579 State banks is $$ 250,767,709$, and their deposits $$ 706,865,643$. The reported capital of the 228 loan and trust companies is $$ 94,567,268$, and deposits $$ 486,244,079$.

The capital of the private banks is $$ 26,943,075$ and deposits $$ 68,552,696$. Nearly 51 per cent of the resources of the 5,685 banks is reported by the 1,030 savings loanks, of which 614 are mutual and 381 stock savings institutions; the resources of the former, however, are over 84 per cent of those of both classes. With the exception of two banks in the Southern and 10 in the Western States, mutual savings banks are confined to the Eastern and Middle States. Excepting 17 in the Eastern and 7 in the Middle States, stock savings banks are located in the Southern, Western, and Pacific States and Territories.

It also appears that while the eutire deposits in mutual savings institutions are "savings," the reports show that over 10 per cent of the deposits in the other class are not of that nature, and the presumption is that the percentage is much greater, as it is known that stock savings banks in certain States make no classification of deposits, and yet transact a commercial as well as a savings bank business.

In the table on page 226 is shown the resources and liabilities of both classes by States and geographical divisions, to which is appended a statement of the number of depositors and the average amount due each, by States, etc.

The table on page 237 is a consolidated statement of both classes, showing the aggregate number of depositors, amount of savings deposits, and the average amount due each in each State. The average savings deposit in the Eastern States is $$ 359.48$; in the Middle States, $$ 362.21$; in the Southern States, $$ 168.21$; in the Western States, $$ 328.11$; in the Pacific States and Territories, $$ 661.22$. The large average in the latter division is due to the fact that the average amount due depositors in the savings banks of California is $$ 771.28$; the average amount due depositors in that division, exclusive of California, being but $$ 163.07$.

On page 238 a table appears showing the growth of savings banks from 1820 to 1893 , the interesting features of which are the average annual savings deposit and per capita deposit in each census year from 1820 to 1890, and anmally since the latter date. The per capita deposit in 1820 was but 12 cents; in 1830, 54 cents; 1840, 82 cents; 1850, 81.87 ; 1860, $$ 4.75 ; 1870, $ 14.26 ; 1880, $ 16.33 ; 1890, $ 24.35$; and in 1891,1892 , and $1893, $ 25.29, $ 26.11$, and $$ 26.63$, respectively. The number of savings banks in 1820 was 10 ; the number of depositors, 8,635 ; the amount of deposits, $$ 1,138,576$; and the average deposit, $$ 131.86$; the number of banks this yearis 1,030 ; depositors, $4,830,599$; deposits, $$ 1,785,150,957$; the average deposit $$ 369.55$; and per capita deposit, based on the estimated population on June 1, last, $$ 26.63$.

The aggregate loans of savings banks amount to $$ 1,047,270,478$, of which $$ 763,579,985$ are secured by real estate, $$ 74,179,877$ by collateral other than real estate, and the remainder, principally, by personal security. The stock aud bond investments amount to $$ 799,372,476$, of which $$ 129,610,783$ are United States bouds, $$ 398,606,298$ State, county, and municipal bonds, $$ 121,519,071$ railroad bonds and stocks, $$ 44,466,725$ bank stocks, and $$ 105,169,599$ other stocks, bonds, and securities.

The capital stock of national banks on July 12 last, and of other banks, at date of latest returus to this Bureau, in each State aud geographical division, is shown in the table on page 241. This table also shows the amount of capital stock per capita of population in each State. The total capital reported is $$ 1,091,793,959$, and the average per capita $$ 16.29$. By comparison with similar returns for 1892 , it appears that there has been a shrinkage of capital to the extent of about $$ 20,000,000$, the average per capita at that time being $$ 16.33$.

In thiscomection data appearing in the table on page 242 showing the cotal amount of banking funds at the command of national and other banks, namely, cayital, surplus, undivided profits and deposits, will be of interest, for, while as heretofore stated, their total capital is but $$ 1,091,793,959$, their aggregate banking funds amount to $$ 6,412,939,954$, and is an increase of $$ 22,845,826$ over the amount held on the same date in 1892. The estimated population of the United States on June 1 last was $67,021,000$, making an average, per capita, of these funds of $$ 95.68$, as against an average of $$ 97.42$ in 1892 .

The table referred to gives the average of these funds per capita of population and the per capita averages in each class of banks, and in all. The averages in each class are: National banks, $$ 38.64$; State bauks, $$ 15.83$; loan and trust companies, $$ 9.73$; savings and private banks, $$ 29.93$ and $$ 1.55$, respectively.

The amount of coin, paper currency, etc., held by national banks on July 12, last, and by all other banks on or about the same date is shown in detail in the table to be found on page 240.

The aggregate reported is $$ 515,987,740$, of which $$ 310,342,537$ was reported by national banks and $$ 205,645,203$ by other banks; the total holdings were: Gold coin, $$ 103,417,876$; silver coin, $$ 15,315,656$; specie not classified, $$ 15,093,221$; paper currency, $$ 264,602,355$; fractional currency and cash not classified, $$ 117,558,632$.

In the appendix, pp. 219-251, will be found tables showing the condition at the date of latest returns of State banks, loan and trust companies, savings banks and private banks; State banks from 1872-'73 to 1892-93; loan and trust companies, 1888-'89 to 1892-93; savings banks, 1888-89 to 1892-93; number of depositors, amount of savings deposits, and aver. age amount due each depositor in savings banks by States 1891-92 and 1892-93; growth of savings banks from 1820 to 1893 ; condition of private banks in 1889-93; condensed statement showing the aggregate resources and liabilities of each and all classes of banks in 1892-93; the capital of national banks on July 12, 1893, and of all other banks on or about the same date, and average per capita of population by States; the population of the United States by States, the capital, surplus, undivided profits, and deposits of national and other banks, the average of these funds per capita, and the per capita averages in each and all classes of banks; the cash holdings of national and other banks on or about July 12, 1893; the number, assets, and liabilities of State banks, etc., which suspended during the first eight months of 1893; the number, assets, and liabilities of suspended State banks, etc., which resumed business during the first eight months of 1893; the condition of the loan and trust companies of the District of Columbia on October 3, 1893, and the condition of the Canadian banks on August 31, 1893.

A condensation of the foregoing for the sake of comparison with national banks shows the principal items of resources and liabilities, and the total resources of banks other than national, as indicated by the latest returns to the Comptroller, to be as follows:

That comparison is herewith made:

|  | National banks. | All other luanks. |

SUSPENSIONS OF NATIONAL BANKS.

In the introductory pages of this report is indicated the number of associations "whose business has been closed during the year." In the appendix will be found tables giving in detail names, location, circulation redeemed and outstanding, voluntary liquidations, failures, and temporary suspensions of banks as is required by the statute to be furnished to Congress, together with such other facts as are necessary.

It does not seem essential, nor would it be possible to enter into a minute statement of all the circumstances attendant upon the closing of the banks during the past year. It is sufficient to say that the cause which brought about the large proportion of such suspensions was the action of depositors who, becoming doubtful of the solvency of the banking institutionis of the country, withdrew their deposits. The result was that many banks after paying out on the one hand all the money in their vanlts and failing to collect their loans on the other, suspended and passed into the hands of the Comptroller. With a full knowledge of the general solvency of these institutions and the cause which brought about their suspension, the policy was inaugurated of giving all banks, which, under ordinary circumstances would not have closed, and whose management had been honest, an opportunity to resume business. This policy was one which seemed to commend itself to the Comptroller as proper to pursue under the circumstances, and it is believed the results have justified the experiment of its adoption.

In no instance has any bank been permitted to resume on money bor. rowed or for which as an association it has become liable. Whenever those active in the management of the banks resuming, either as executive officers or directors, have been debtors to such banks, their indebtedness has been paid or secured, and whenever impairment of capital stock has been found, such impairment has been made good, either by voluntary or euforced assessment on the shareholders. In a number of instances changes have been made in the directory and official corps of resuming banks. The criticism to be made upon the management of these banks was the improper distribution of their loans, a circumstance which greatly retarded the conversion of such loans into money at a time when it was needed to avoid suspension.

Of the banks which failed to resume many had long been under the continual criticism of this Bureau for violations of law and imprudent methods of banking, and the closing of them was only hastened by the general condition of financial affairs. Some failed because of criminal acts on the part of the officials in charge, and others because of a lack of proper appreciation of the purposes of a bank.

An analysis of the suspensious and failures which occurred shows that during the year 158 national banking associations, as heretofore stated. were compelled to suspend business, being 4.09 per cent of the number of existing associations. Their capital stock aggregated $830,350,000$, or approximately 4.3 per cent of the paid-in capital stock of all the banks in the system.

Of the banks which suspended 65 , or 41.14 per cent, with a total capital stock of $$ 10,935,000$, were insolvent, and required the appointment of receivers; 86 , or 54.43 per cent, with a capital stock aggregating $$ 18,205,000$, were able to resume business and 7 , or 4.43 per cent, with a capital stock of $$ 1,210,000$, were placed in charge of examiners in the expectation of resumption. Of the suspended banks two were located in the New England States, both in New Hampshire, with a total capital stock of $$ 250,000$, for each of which a receiver was appointed.

In the Middle States there were three suspensions-two in New York, with a total capital stock of $$ 500,000$, and one in Pennsylvania, with a capital stock of $$ 50,000$. Those in New York were placed in the hands of receivers, and the one in Pennsylvania in charge of an examiner pending proposed resumption.

There were 38 suspensions in the Southern States, the capital stock involved aggregating $$ 8,815,000$. Of these 19 , with a total capital stock of $$ 5,630,000$, resumed business, and the same number, with a total capital stock of $$ 3,185,000$, failed. In this geographical division, Texas furnished the greatest number of suspensions, namely 12, with a total capital stock of $$ 1,480,000$, of which 6 , with a total capital stock of $$ 430,000$, resumed business, and the remainder, capitalized to the amount of $$ 1,050,000$, failed. There were 6 suspensions in Kentucky and the same number in Tennessee. The total capital stock of those in Kentucky was $$ 2,300,000$ and of those in Tennessee $$ 2,750,000$. In Kentucky all the banks that suspended, except one, with a capital stock of $$ 50,000$, were permitted to resnme, business. Two of the banks in Tennessee, with a total capital stock of $$ 2,000,000$, resmed business and 4 were placed in the hauds of receivers. Four banks in Georgia suspended and the same number in Alabama, with a total capital stock of $$ 675,000$ and $$ 550,000$ respectively. Of these, 1 bank in Georgia, with a capital stock of $$ 250,000$, and 3 in Alabama, with a total capital stock of $$ 400,000$, resmmed business. Two banks in North Carolinasuspeuded, with a total capital stock of $$ 300,000$, both of which were able to resume business, but the two which suspended in Florida, with a total capital stock of $$ 200,000$, required the appointment of receivers, as did also the one in Mississippi, which had a capital stock of $$ 60,000$, and the one in Arkansas, with a capital stock of $$ 500,000$.

The Western States furnished 49 suspensious, with an aggregate capital stock of $$ 10,125,000$. Of these 31 resumed business, 17 failed, and 1 was placed in the charge of an examiner pending resumption or the appointment of a receiver. The capital stock of the banks which resumed aggregated $$ 6,275,000$, and of those which failed $$ 3,750,000$. The greatest number of suspensions which occurred in this section was in Kausas, namely, 8 , although the capital stock involved, $$ 880,000$, was less than that of the banks in four other States. Four of the banks in Kansas, with a total capital stock of $$ 480,000$, resumed, and three, with a capital stock of $$ 300,000$, failed. Of the 7 banks in Indiana which suspended, 4 , with a total capital stock of $$ 450,000$, resmmed, and 3 , with a total capital stock of $$ 550,000$, were placed in the hands of receivers. In Iowa 6 banks suspended, with a total capital stock of $$ 575,000$, of which number but one failed, with a capital stock of $$ 50,000$. The same number of banks in Nebraska suspended, three of which, with a total capital stock of $$ 350,000$, resumed business, and receivers were appointed for the remaining three, the total capital stock of which was $$ 450,000$. Five banks suspended in Wisconsin, with a total capital stock of $$ 625,000$, all of which resumed business, while in Illinois there were 4 suspensions, with a capital stock aggregating $$ 2,150,000$. All of these were placed in the hands of receivers. In Missouri 3 banks suspended, with a total capital stock of $$ 1,300,000$, all of which resumed. In Michigan there were the same number of suspensions as in Missouri, but the capital stock involved aggregated only $$ 215,000$. But one of these banks resumed, the capital stock of which was $$ 65,000$. The fewest suspensions which occurred in any State in this division was in Olio, there being but 2, the aggregate capital stock of which was $$ 180,000$. One of these banks, with a capital stock of $$ 80,000$, resumed business and the other failed.

Sixty-six banks suspended in the Pacific States and Territories, being nearly 42 per cent of the total suspensions which occurred and represent capital stock amounting to 35 per cent of the total capital involved. Of these, 36 banks, with a capital of $$ 6,300,000$, were solvent and resumed business; 25, with a capital stock of $$ 3,250,000$, were placed in the hands of receivers, and 5 , with a total capital of $$ 1,060$, 000 , in charge of examiners pending resumption. The greatest number of suspensions was in Colorado, in volving the largest amount of capital stock of suspended banks of any State in the Union, the number being 16 and the capital $$ 3,600,000$. All of these banks resumed, except two, the capital stock of which was $$ 300,000$. The second greatest number of suspensions occurred in the State of Washington, 14 banks, with an aggregate capital stock of $$ 1,735,000$. Of this number 4 , with a capital stock of $$ 425,000$, resumed; 3 , with a capital stock of $$ 510,000$, were placed in charge of examiners peuding resumption, and 7 failed. The suspensions in Montana numbered 10, and their capital stock amounted to $$ 1,875,000$. Of these, 2 , with a capital stock of $$ 300,000$, resumed, and 7 , with a capital stock of $$ 1,075,000$, were placed in the charge of receivers. Six suspensions occurred in Oregon, and the same number in California, the aggregate capital stock represented being $$ 800,000$ and $$ 1,200,000$, respectively. There was but one failure in each State, the capital stock in the case of the Oregon bank being $$ 100,000$, and that of the California bank $$ 250,000$. There were 3 suspensions in Utab, 3 in North Dakota, and 3 in South Dakota. The three banks in Utah, with a capital stock aggregating $$ 250,000$, resumed business, while the three in North Dakota, with a total capital stock of $$ 400,000$, failed. Two of the banks in South Dakota, with a total capital stock of $$ 100,000$, were placed in the hands of receivers, and one, with a capital stock of $$ 125,600$, resumed. Two suspensions occurred in Wyoming, and the same number in New Mexico. Oue bauk in Wyoming, with a capital stock of $$ 200,000$, resumed, and one, the capital stock of which was $$ 50,000$, failed. Of the banks in New Mexico, one, with a capital stock of $$ 175,000$, failed, and the other, with a capital stock of $$ 50,000$, was placed in the hands of an examiner pending resumption or the appointment of a receiver. The only other suspension in this geographical division occurred in Oklahoma, being that of a bank with a capital stock of $$ 50,000$, which, being solvent, resumed.

In the appendix, page 80 , will be found the information above referred to in tabular form.

The official records show that of 4,930 national banks organized since February, 1863, 246 , or about 5 per cent, have been placed in the hands of receivers. In this number are included 9 banks which had previously gone into voluntary liquidation, but upon failing to pay depositors the Comptroller appointed receivers to wind up their aftairs. Of the 246 failed banks, 39 have paid their creditors, principal and interest in full, 7 have paid principal and a part of the interest, and 16 have paid the principal only. The affairs of 115 of the 246 banks have been finally closed, leaving 131 in process of settlement, of which 16 are virtually closed, with the exception of undetermined litigation. There are 115 receiverships in active operation. In four instances prior to October 31, 1893, the receiverships were terminated and the banks permitted to resume business.

The total amount thus far paid to creditors of insolvent nationalbanks is $$ 50,943,147$, upon approved claims aggregating $$ 81,963,207$. The amount paid during the year was $$ 3,041,134.90$. Assessments under the provisions of section 5151 of the Revised Statutes of the United States aggregating $$ 20,118,350$ have been made upon shareholders of insolvent national banks. From this source the gross collections have been $$ 8,085,931$, of which there was received during the past year $$ 462,171$. The affairs of but five banks have been closed during the year and final dividends paid to creditors, while the titles of four on the inactive list in 1892 have disappeared.

It is a source of regret that no better exhibit is made of dividends paid to the creditors of failed national banks during the past year, but the same conditions which produced so many failures seriously retarded the ability of receivers to collect the assets of their trusts, and consequently large dividends could not be declared. However, when are taken into consideration the many embarrassments of the year, the general average is good. In the appendix will be found a tabular statement of all dividends, expenses, and kindred matters connected with the trusts which are yet in process of liquidation.

SUSPENSION OF BANKS OTHER THAN NATIONAL.

The same causes which so seriously affected the national banks affected in like manner State, savings, and private bauks, and loau and trust companies.

During the year ended June 30, 1892, there were 69 failures of private banks and of those incorporated under State authority, with liabilities amounting to $$ 11,024,628$ and assets to $$ 6,12 \overline{0}, 189$. The failures included 24 State banks, with $$ 3,177,529$ liabilities; 6 savings banks, with $$ 917,000$ liabilities; 36 private banks, with $$ 6,505,099$ liabilities; and 3 loan and trust companies, with $$ 425,000$ liabilities.
The number of failures of this class during the last six months of 1892 was 35 , of which 18 were State banks, 16 private banks, and 1 a loan and trust company. During the first eight months of the current calendar year the failures and suspensions, as reported by the Bradstreet Agency, numbered 415, the assets aggregating $$ 94,291,348$ and the liabilities $$ 97,193,530$. Of these institutions 79 or 19 per cent, with liabilities amounting to 14 per cent of the total liabilities of the suspended banks, resumed business.

The number, assets, and liabilities, by classes, of banks which suspended and of those which resumed, from Jannary 1 to September 1, 1893, are shown in the following table:

| Class. | Suspended. |  |  | Resumed. |  |  |

For purposes of comparison the following statement is given, showing the number of national, State, and other banks, in existence on July 1,1893 ; the number and per cent of resumptions, failures, etc., of national banks during the year ended October 31, and of other banks during the first eight months of the current calendar year:

* June 1. 1893.

In the appendix, pp. 244-246, will be found tables showing, by classes, States, and geographical divisions, the suspensions and resumptions of State banks, etc., from January to September, 1893. It appears from the first table that of the total suspensions 172 were State banks, 47 savings banks, 177 private banks, 13 loan and trust companies, and 6 mortgage companies. Of the ten suspensions in the Eastern States, 6 occurred in New Hampshire, 3 in Vermont, and 1 in Rhode Island. In the Middle States 15 suspensions occurred in New York, 8 in Peunsylvania, 1 in New Jersey, and 1 in Delaware. The Southern States had 61 suspensions, of which 12 were in Texas, 10 in Tennessee, 8 in Virginia, 6 in Georgia, 6 in Florida, 4 in Alabama, 4 in Kentucky, 3 in Arkansas, 2 in West Virginia, 2 in North Carolina, 2 in South Carolina, and 1 in Louisiana. The most severe effects were felt in the Western States, both in the number of suspensions, which were 232, and the amount of liabilities, which were $$ 51,777,665$, or 56 per cent and 53 per cent, respectively. In Kansas, the largest number (32) occurred, though the liabilities were but 3 per cent of the total; Wisconsin, with 30 suspensions, followed, but the liabilities were over 14 per cent of the total; in Ohio 27 were reported, Minuesota 26, Illinois 24, Indiana 23, Iowa 22, Missouri 21, Nebraska 16, and Michigan 11. The number occurring in the Pacific States and Territories was 87 , of which California furnished 21 , with liabilities amounting to nearly 8 per cent of the aggregate of all the banks. Colorado followed Californiain number (20), although the liabilities were less than half of those of the banks in California. Oregon furnished 13 suspensions, Washington 11, Montana 8, Idaho 4, Wyoming 3, North Dakota 3, and Utah, New Mexico, Arizona, and Oklahoma 1 each.
The second table referred to gives similar information in detail with respect to banks which have resumed. Of the 79 resumptions, 44 were State banks, or $2 \tilde{5}+$ per cent of the total suspensions; 10 savings banks, or 21 per cent; 2 loan and trust companies, or 15 per cent, and 23 private banks, or 13 per cent. Of the suspensions in the New England States, there was but one resumption, that of a private bank in Vermont. One savings and 2 State banks resumed in New York. Of the 61 banks which closed in the Southern States, 8 reopened: 2 in West Virginia and one each in South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Louisiana, and Texas. As the suspensions in the Western States were the most numerous, so also were the resumptions, 58 per cent of the total resumptions being reported from that division. In Minnesota, 10 occurred; in Ohio, Wisconsin, and Iowa, 6 each; in Missouri, 5 ; Indiana and Kansas, 4 each; in Michigan, 3, and Nebraska, 2. The resumptions in the Pacific States and Territories were confined to Califormia (13), Colorado (7), and Montana (1).

The fright among depositors of the present year appears to have affected all classes of banking institutions alike. The shrinkage of deposits of national banks from May 4 to July 12 last exceeded $$ 190,000,000$. In order to ascertain the extent of the shrinkage in banks other than uational, the Comptroller requested each State officer charged with the supervision of banks organized under State authority to submit a statement showing similar information with respect to that class of banks. Replies were received from the officers of 23 States and 2 Territories indicating that the loss to banks of this character corresponded with that shown by the returns from national banks. Generally no information was given with respect to savings banks and much less regarding private banks.

Clearing-house loan certificates.

The unprecedented condition of the money market from June to September called for extraordinary remedies, not only to avert general disaster to the banks but to prevent commercial ruin. This remedy was the issuing of clearing-house loan certificates, which were brought into use as in 1873, 1884, 1890-91, by the associated banks of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and other cities where needed. The service rendered by them was invaluable, and to their timely issuance by the associated banks of the cities named is due the fact that the year's record of suspensions and failures is not greatly angmented.

The form of these certificates, with the conditions under which they were issued in 1890-91 (the form and conditions being the same during the late issuance of them as then), is described at length in the Comptroller's Annual Report for 1891. The subject is allnded to again only becanse it constitutes a very important part of the year's banking history, and for the additional reason that here and there are to be found those who entertain an entirely erroneous idea of the purpose for which these certificates were issued and what was accomplished by their issuance. Briefly stated, they were temporary loans made by the banks associated together as a clearing-house association, to the members of such association, and were available to such banks only for the purpose of settling balances due from and to each other, these balances under normal conditions of business being always settled iu coin or cor-rency. Each clearing-house association selected a committee charged with the issuing of the certificates to each bank desiring the same, such bank being required before receiving them to deposit with the committee its bills receivable, or other securities, as collateral for the loan. The amount of certificates issued to each bank was limited to 75 per cent of the value of the securities deposited. They bore interest at rates varying from 6 to $7 \frac{3}{10}$ per cent. Immediately upon their surrender to the committee they were canceled and the securities held as collateral were returned to the bank depositing the same.

At a time when vast sums of coin and currency were being withdrawn from the banks, to be hoarded, these loan certificates, by performing the functions of the currency or coin customarily required for settling daily balances at the clearing house, released so much currency or coin to the legitimate and current demands of business and unquestionably placed it within the porver of the banks in the cities named to extend to outside banks the aid needed on the one hand and liberally granted on the other. In no instance were these certificates designed to nor did they circulate as money: They were but due-bills and their sole function consisted in discharging the single obligation at the clearing house. An attempt on the part of a bank in any of the associations issuing these certificates to use them otherwise would have incurred a fine and other penalties provided in the rules governing such associations. Their issuance at so early a date in the financial derangement of the country was most opportune in not only preventing an acute panic, but in tending to restore public confidence, such action demonstrating that by mutual agreement of all, the weak banks of the association would be, so far as depositors and other creditors were concerned, as strong as the strongest.

In inaugurating the issuing of certificates so promptly and in issuing them to so large an amount the Clearing-honse Association of New York, in particular, rendered the country great service, and the associated banks of that city are entitled to the credit which the public generally accords them.

The following figures, showing the movement and amount of the issue of loan certificates in 1893 in the cities namod, will indicate the measure of relief afforded by them:

|  | Date of isslue of first cer. tificate. | Date of largest amount outstazding. | Largest amount out. standing. | Date of surrender of last cer. tificate. | Amount outistanding Oct. 31 , |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| New York | June 21 | Aug. 29 to Sept. 6 | $38, 280, 000 | Nov. 1 |  |
| Philadelphia | June 16 | Aug. $15 . . . . .$. | 10,965, 000 |  | $3, 835, 000 |
| Boston . . . . | June 27 | Aug. 23 to Sept. 1 | 11, 445,000 | Oct. 20 |  |
| Baltimore | -..do | Aug. 24 to Sept. 9 | 1,475,000 |  | 843, 000 |
| Pittsburg | Aug. 11 | Sept. $15 . . . . . . . . .$. | 987, 000 |  | 332,000 |
| Total. |  |  | 63, 152, 000 |  |  |

The issue of loan certificates in 1893 greatly exceeded that of previous years. In 1873 and 1884 they were issued only by the New York Clearing House Association, the total amount issued in 1873 being $$ 26,565,000$ and in $1884 $ 24,915,000$.

On page 16, last paragraph, it is stated that the issue of clearing-house loan certificates, in 1873, was confined to the New York association; it has been learned, however, since this report was printed, that the Philadelphia association, also, issued certificates in that year, the total amount issued to 1850 , when the last was retired, being $$ 6,785,000$.

In the table, on page 17, under "Largest amount outstanding," etc., opposite Philadelphia, for " $$ 29,140,000$," read " $$ 8,870,000$, " and for the total " $$ 49,410,000, "$ read " $$ 29,140,000 . "$

In 1.890-91 they were issued in New York, Boston, and Philadelphia, the largest anonuts outstanding at any time being as follows:

|  | Date of first issure. | Largest amonnt out. standing at any one time and clate of same. |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| New York | Nov. 12, 1890 | $15, 205, 000, Dec. 13, 1890. |

| Philadelphia | Nov. 19, 1800 | 29, 140,00. Jan. 9, 1801. |

LAWFUL MONEY RESERVE.

Not less attention has been attracted during the present year, and particularly during the closing months of the year, to the subject of lawful-money reserve to be held by the banks, than to that of clear-ing-house loan certificates, and the discussion provoked has been quite as widespread.

As the law now stands all national banks, outside of certain designated "reserve cities," are required to maintain a reserve fund equal to 15 per cent of the net deposits made with such banks by individuals and by other banks and baukers. They are permitted by law to deposit not over three-fifths of this 15 per cent (or 9 per cent) with such national banks located in the "reserve cities" as the outside banks may with the Comptroller's approval select. The remaining two-fifths (or 6 per cent) must be kept in bank in lawful money, or more, if less than three fifths is kept with reserve agents. The national banks located in reserve cities are divided into two classes: (1) Those in the "central" reserve cities of New York, Chicago, and St. Louis being required to keep 25 per cent of their net deposits in bank in lawful money, with the privilege of acting as the reserve agents of any national bauks located outside of these three cities. (2) Those located in the reserve cities, other than New York, Chicago, and St. Louis, being required to keep 25 per cent of their net deposits on hand, not over one-half of which may be deposited with any uational bank or banks located in any of the three central reserve cities, while the remainder must be actually on hand in lawful money. The banks in the reserve cities oi this class have the privilege of holding a part of the reserve of any bank or banks located ontside of all reserve cities, riz, banks of the 15 per cent class.

In effect these requirements are not as onerous as they appear, for a ational bank in New York City holding $\$ 100,000$ of the reserve of any ether bank or banks on deposit must keep only $\$ 25,000$ of the amount n hand in money, while it is at liberty to lend or otherwise invest the remaining $\$ 75,000$. So a bank in a reserve city of the second class alding $\$ 100,000$ on deposit for other national banks may loan out or in 4 vest $\$ 75,000$ of the amount, and of the remaining $\$ 25,000$ must keep de $\$ 12,500$ in bank in money and may deposit $\$ 12,500$ with its reserve hgents, receiving a low rate of interest (usually 2 per cent) on the same. A bank of the 15 per cent class must keep only 6 per cent of its depositors' money actually on hand in bank, and is ${ }^{2}$ liberty to deposit not $0_{0}$ over 9 per cent with its reserve agents, on whice usually receives a $t^{\prime}$ low rate of interest. To illustrate the operation o. the law it wil! be found that with nomal conditions of business the banks in reserve 10665 CUR- 2 cities (not central) held on December 9, 1892, net deposits amounting to $\$ 495,196,952$, against which they leld $\$ 77,869,593$ cash in bank, or about 16 per cent, and the 15 per cent banks held net deposits of $\$ 975,622,088$, and against these $\$ 108,012,546$ cash in bank, or about 11 per cent. Again, a large portion of the reserve actually held by the banks can not be considered as taken out of circulation, or as hoarded through operation of the law, for much of it is paid out during each business day, other money coming in through deposits to take the place of that paid out.

In any view of the matter, however, the intent of the law is to compel a bank to retain always on hand a very moderate proportion of the money deposited with it for safe keeping by the depositor, who practically makes a loan to the bank payable on demand, for the use of which he ordinarily receives no interest. The entire effect is to exercise a wholesome restraint upon a tendency to an undue extension of business by a bank, and that this intent is recognized as an underlying principle of safe and conservative commercial banking is evidenced by the fact that those banks which are compelled by law to maintain but 15 per cent reserve have voluntarily for years past held an average of over 25 per cent, the proportion required for banks located in reserve cities.

The evident theory of the law is that a bank shall always have on hand such an amount of lawful money as will enable it unter normal conditions of business to meet the current demands of its depositors. A careful examiuation of section 5191, United States Revised Statutes, as annended, will show that it is expected that emergeucies will arise under which this fund will fall below the legal requirements. This contiugency is distinctly recognized by the plain provisions contained in the section named, prescribing what shall be done " whenever the lawful money reserve of any association shall be below the amount" of the required percentage of its deposits. The provisious referred to are that the bank shall make no new loans or discounts, except the discount of bills of exchange payable at sight, nor make any dividend of its profits until the required amount of reserve has been again accumulated. The reason for this is obvious. The depletion of a bank's reserve occurs either because the bank has loaned ont or otherwise invested too great a proportion of the funds it has received on deposit, or that its depositors have withdrawn their money to an extent which produces a sianilar result. In either ease the ouly safe and prudent course for the bank to pursue is to cease paying out money in any direction except to depositors until either throngh the collection of demand or maturing loans on the one hand, or the receipt of deposits on the other, the required proportion has been restored. The discount of sight bills of exchange is excepted because money invested in this way will be repaid immediately, and in this branch of its business the bank's customers will be caused no inconvenience and the commercial interests of the country be thus protected from loss which otherwise might ensue.

The provision of law governing the time allowed a bank to make good a depleted reserve is most lenient. It provides that the Comptroller may notify the bank to make good its reserve, and further that if it fails for thirty days thereafter to do this the Comptroller, with the concurrence of the Secretary of the Treasury, may appoint a receiver for the bank. However, before the Comptroller can send notice to any bank he most bave reliable infonmation that its reserve is deficient, and as the soure of such intomation is either the report of its examination heretofore made once a year, but hereater to be made twice, or its sworn report of condition made five times a year, some time may intervene before such condition becomes known to him. Again, when he is officially informed, the use of the word may both as to his sending notice and as to his appointing a receiver in a case of noncompliance with such notice, plainly leaves the enforcement of the law to the discretion of the Comptroller in either or both of these particulars. This power thus conferred upon the Comptroller is one that ought to be used with great prudence and cantion. It would be not only unwise but would work great injury to the business interests of individual communities and the general public to exercise the anthority thus vested in him at a time when arbitrary action must necessarily result in general disaster, and therefore in the interest of the public the discretion given to the Comptrolier has always been used with moderation. It is this moderation which in an emergency has in numerous instances contributed in no small degree to averting widespread finaucial rnin. In this view there can be no question as to the legality and propriety of a bank's exhausting its entire reserve, if necessary, in an emergency, to pay its depositors, but for no other purpose, except to discount or buy sight bills of exchange, and where the withdrawal of deposits continues or is likely to continue no careful bank manager needs to be informed that not only must he cease to make new loans and discounts, but must replenish his exhausted stock of lawful money by converting his resources into cash through collections of loans and discounts or selling securities, or where this is not possible by using these assets to borrow the money needed to enable him to meet his liabilities.

Tabular statements showing deposits, reserve required, and reserve held, classification of reserve, and average percentage of same on or about October 1 of each year from 1874 to 1893, both inclasive, will be found on pages 130-131 of the appendix, also a table, page 134, showing similar information at the date of each report of condition from December 9,1892 , to October 3, 1893. This last-named table is inserted to show the movement of the reserve during the financial stringency of the present year, both as to volume and average percentage of deposits. An inspection of these figures will show that the average percentage of reserve to deposits from December 9,182 , to July 12,1893 , varied only between 20.42 per cent and 27.24 jer cent, and that on October 3,1893 , the average increased to 32.66 per cent. In volume the amount of lawful money actually held by the banks was $$ 318,641,595$ on December 9,1892 , decreased to $$ 259,244,850$ on July 12,1893 , but increased by October 3 , 1803 , to $$ 346,433,212$, an amount approximating $$ 57,000,000$ greater than on July 12, 1893, when the panie was at its height, and almost $$ 27,000,000$ greater than on December 9, 1892, when business was in a normal condition.

AMENDMENTS RECOMMENDED.

By provision of law it is made incumbent upon the Comptroller of the Currency to call the attention of Congress to "any amendment to the laws relative to banking by which the system may be improved and the security of the holder of its notes and other creditors way be increased." There are certain amendments which it is obvious ought to be made, and which, in their operation, would make the present system more nearly serve the purpose for which it was designed, and to a measurable extent give an inerease in the volume of circulation; if such is desirable. The following amendments to the law as it now stands are recommended to be made,
(1) That every association be authorized to issue circulating notes equal to the par valne of the bonds deposited.

No good reason can possibly exist at present for depriving the banks or the business interests of the country of the additional circulation which would be added by such amendment. Whatever reason may have existed at the time of the enactment of the present provision does not now exist and its effect is to make circulation unprofitable and to lock up in bond investments the difference between 90 per cent and 100 per cent of this par value which, under the amendment suggested, would be adding to active circulation, under the present deposit of bonds, $$ 20,941,635$.
(2) That the semi-amual duty on circulation be so reduced as to equal oue-fourth of 1 per cent per annum.

In support of this proposed amendment it is respectfully suggested that the present rate of tax takes from the banks a very large sum of money which is not used by the Government to meet the expenses for which the tax was originally laid. Its bearing upon the question of an increased circulation on the part of the banks is important, as the additional cost entailed by it of necessity so largely reduces the profits of circulation and adds to the cost of taking it out that banks will not, except under other circumstances, increase their issue.

Unwillingness on their part to add to the volume of currency, conpled with a tendency some years since to decrease the same, has subjected the banks to criticism. Such criticism, however, is minnst in this, that it is based on the idea that the banks are simply indifferent to the matter and are content to be banks of deposit and discount rather than banks of issue. The fact is banks ceased taking out circulation simply because until recently there was no profit in it. The high price of Govermment bouds necessary to be deposited, coupled with the tax upon circulation, and the refusal to grant more than 90 per cent of the par value of the bonds in currency return, has rendered circulation either without profit or profitable to so slight an extent as to offer no inducement to banks to take out circulation.

The Government can not relieve the banks of the additional expense to them by reason of the preminm on bonds to be deposited, but it uan materially lessen the cost of their circulation by enacting the amendments suggested, and in this manner offer an inducement, which is now wholly wanting, to the banks to add to the volume of bank-note circulation. The whole question is one of a business character. Banks are but business institutions; conducted upon the same lines and for the same purpose as other business undertakiugs. It can not be expegted that they will do that which either entails a positive loss or warrants little or no profit, and if relief is to come through an expansion of the national-bank currency, Cougress must remove rather than erect unnecessary barriers.

The following amendments pertaining to the administration and conduct of banks are recommended:
(3) That the Comptroller of the Currency, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, be empowered to remove officers and directors of a bank for violations of law, first giving such officers and directors an opportunity to be leard, leaving the vacancy so created to be filled in the usual way.

It is respectfully suggested that the powers now vested in the Comptroller do not accomplish the result that they otherwise would if the law permitted the removal of officers and directors for misconduct in office. Many banks would be saved from embarrassment, creditors from loss, and sharcholders from assessments if the Comptroller, upon learning of the misconduct of those charged with the management of a bank, could take positive action in the premises.
(4) That no executive officer of a bank or employé thereof be permitted to borrow funds of such bank in any manner, except upon application to and approval by the board of direction.

This amendment is recommended with the knowledge that the House of Representatives, at the late special session of Congress, passed a bill (H. R. 2344), entited "An act for the better control of and to promote the safety of national banks," which bears upon the same subjectmatter, but differs in that it embraces in its provisions all directors of a bank, instead of confining them to the executive officers and employés only.

At the best the question as to what extent loans and discounts should be made by a bank to its directors and executive officers by reason of the various circumstances under which these are granted is a difficult one to satisfactorily legislate upon, and an equally difficult one upon which to make specific recommendations. Where money is borrowed directly by any such officer or director to an amount exceeding the limit prescribed by section 5200 of the Revised Statutes of the Uuited States, the Comptroller's duty is as plain as in any other case where the law is violated, but the limit to which discounts should be granted them is a question involving consideration of safety and prudence. Holding this view, the Comptroller has, in cases where the aggregate of loans and discounts to executive officers and directors appeared to be out of proportion to the total loans and discounts made by the bank, addressed the following form of letter to the bank, with the request that all directors unite in a reply:

> Treasury Department,
> Office of Comptrollfi of the Currency, Washington, D. C., ——, 189

Cashier,
Sir: Upon examination of your report of condition on , it is fonnd that the "loans and diseonnts upon which officers and directors are liable" amount to $$$-——, out of total loans and discounts of $

While recognizing the right of lirectors and officers to borrow within the limitations of law and salety, the Comptroller must insist most rigidly that directors and others comected with the bank in this fiduciary relation shall not avail themselves of the easy opportunity afforded them to borrow beyond this linit, either directly or indirectly, the funds intrusted to their keeping, in order to carry on enterprises outside of the banks with which they are conmected.
Oticers and dinectoris siould remember that the finds held by banks are in a large measure fund of others held in trust for the safe-keeping thereof, and, as trust funds, ought not to be loaned to the trustees of such funds, except upou the verg best collateral or other seenrity.
In the matter of accommodations to them, directors and officers should be placed upou the same footing as other customers of the bank, except that their financial ability and stauding should be the more rigidly scrutinized, for the reason that they act in the dual capacity of lenders as well as borrowers.
The continued experience of this office is that such loans in many instances result disastrously to all concorned, and therefore the danger attending upon such a course ought not to be risked. The Comptroller must insist that this condition of affairs be remedied with the least possible delay, by reducing the amount of these accommodations to safer and more reasonable limits.

Please bring this communication to the immediate attention of gour board of directors for consideration, and request them to unite in making a prompt reply over their individual signatures.

Respectfulls, yours,

The information upon which this letter is based is found in the reports of condition made under oath to the Comptroller, in which appear the indebtedness of every kind and character of each director and officer of the bank.

Accompanying this letter is sent to directors a copy of such sections of the National Bank Act as prescribe their duties and the penalties attaching for the nonperformance of them.

Beyond the substance of the ameudment above set forth the Comptroller is not prepared to recommend any legislation upon this subject.

It seems that a difference should be made between loans to and overdrawn accounts of directors, who are simply directors, and of those who are the executive officers of a bank, and as such have and receive adequate compensation for the active management of its affairs. The abuse of the easy privilege of loaning to themselves is generally on the part of the managing officers, and not on the part of directors who are ouly members of the board of direction, and hence the distinction which js drawn between the recommendation here made and the bill referred to.

So far as loans, through drafts or otherwise, to directors who are not executive officers of the bank, are concerned, there are strong reasons against the advisability of such legislation. Any positive restriction imposed by direct law might have the effect of deterring honest, intelligeut, and substantial men from serving as directors. As a rule, men of this class are sought for these positions in order to obtain the benefit of their judgment and business capacity in managing the affairs of the bank, and to secure their own business for the bank. This business does not consist alone of deposits, but is largely made up of loans and discounts, by means of which the profits are chiefly earned. As a rule these directors receive no compensation for their services, which are rendered largely through motives of interest as shareholders, or of pride in holding a position supposed to give a certain prominence in business circles.

An inquiry as to the practice of banks paying directors for attendance upon meetings showed that in some cities this is in vogue. It would be better for all concerned if all banks adopted such policy. However small the compensation, it could not but result in benefit to the shareholders and more than compensate for the expense involved. The general oriticism to be passed upon directors is their failure in so many instances to give to the business of the bank the attention their oaths and duties require. The sucessful administration of a bank's affairs depends upon the watchfulness and ndelity of the board of directors. When such conduct is wanting bank failures ensue, or if failures do not follow great loss to shareholders is entailed through want of protits or assessment to make good the impairment of capital stock caused by imprudent loans. The administration of the Comptroller, if supplemented by the watchful care of directors, would minimize even the comparatively few failures which occur.
(5) That the assistant cashier, in the absence or iuability of the cashier of a national bank to act, be authorized and empowered to sign the circulating notes of such bank.

This amendment is suggested in order to meet a difficulty which has arisen in numerous instauces during the past months, there being no provision in the law for any one to sigu currency for the cashier in his absence or inability to act, and banks are frequently put to serious inconvenience on this account.
(6) That the law be amended by appropriate legislationghas to empower some class of public officers to administer the generall oaths required by the provisions of the National Bank Act.

The necessity for this amendment is occasioned by the fact that the ruthority of officers empowered to administer oaths is now restricted under the Federal statutes to certain specific cases, and with the exception of the acknowledgment of the organization certificate and the verification of reports of condition, required by section 5211 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, no provision is made for administering the oaths required of the officers of national banks.

The following amendments bearing upon the subject of bank examiners would, the Comptroller believes, result in benefit, and are therefore recommended:
(7) That bank examiners be required to take an oath of office before entering upon the discharge of their duties, and to give bond with proper conditions in such amount and with such sureties as the Comptroller of the Currency may require.

Au anomoly is presented in the case of bank examiners, which does not appear in that of any other public official. No position under the Government is more responsible in the duties attaching to it, and none requires a higher degree of integrity in the incumbent. The exception is rare where dishonesty has been found in examiners, but it is the opinion of the Comptroller that an oath, such as is required of other officers under the Government, should be taken and a bond given.
(8) That the Comptroller of the Currency, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, be empowered to appoint two general examiuers of conspicuous ability and experience to be paid out of the reimbursable funds, whose duty it shall be to visit, assist, and supervise the various examiners in their several districts, in order to secure uniformity in method and greater efficienoy in work.

This amendment has been heretofore recommended by former Comptrollers, and the reasons for it suggested. It would aid in uniformity of method and give to the office of the Comptroller at all times officers who could do special and confidential work, which can not be done at present, because no compensation is provided.
(9) That the law be so amended as to provide that the compensation of all bank examiners be fixed by the Comptroller of the Currency, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

This amendment is suggested in the interest of better examinations. Thoroughness in bank examinations is not to be expected under a system in which compensation is provided for and ascertained by a method that furnishes a constant temptation to the examiners to neglect their duty. Under the law as it now stands the compensation for bank examinations made outside of reserve cities, and the States of Oregon, California, and Nevada, and the Territories, is fixed at various amounts, ranging from $$ 20$ in the case of a bank having a capital of less than $$ 100,000$ to $$ 75$ in the case of a bank having a capital of $$ 600,000$ and over. As the earuings of the examiner are thus made dependent upon the number of examinations he makes, without regard to the amount of work he actually performs, it is obvious that he has a pecuniary interest in increasing the number of examinations by neglecting his duty to make them thorough.

Again, the law requires a bank which is properly conducted, and the examination of which involves but little time, to pay the same compensation therefor that is paid by a bank which is not properly conducted and which by reason thereof requires a much longer time for its examination. These objectionable features could be remedied if the law were so amended as to provide that the compensation for all bank examinations be fixed by the Comptroller, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Many other amendments have been suggested to the Comptroller as proper ones to be made to Congress for action, but it is not deemed best to submit them. The foregoing are presented, with the earnest request that they receive consideration. Some of these amendments have been recommended by former Comptrollers in the belief based upon knowledge gained from experience in the Bureau that they would "improve the system and add to the security of the holders of bank notes and other creditors," but no action has been taken upon them. It is respectfully submitted that as the national banks are under the supervision of the geueral government, and asCongress is vested with the power to legishate upon all matters pertaining to their control and conduct, it should be the constant aim of Congress to so legislate as to enable them to meet the public needs.

CURRENGY LEGISLATION.

The Comptroller has been urged to make some specific recommendation with respect to a revision of the law so far as it pertains to the issuing of currency. After a carefnl consideration of the question the Comptroller is of the opinion that, aside from the amendments heretofore suggested, allowing banks to issue circulating notes to an amount equal to the par value of the bonds lield to secure circulation, and abolishing a portion of the tax on national-bank circulation, the public good will be best subserved at this time by making no radical change in the provisions of the law.

The finaucial situation of the past months was not the resnlt of either a lack in the volume of currency, of which there is now a plethora, or a want of elasticity in the present system of issuing it, but arose from a loss of confidence on the part of the people in the solvency of the distinctively monetary institutions of the country. It is worthy of note and of serious consideration that at the very time the scarcity of currency for business purposes was at its height, the country's volume of currency was increasing the most rapidly, and the amount per capita was much larger than in any recent years. Under the same peculiar condition of affairs which marked the monetary situation from May to September, no system, 110 matter how elastic, or volume of currency however large, could afford relief. As long as confidence is destroyed and credit wanting, money hoarding will go onand additional issues but add to the hoardiugs and give but little, if any, actual relief. On the other hand, when confidence and credit abonnd there exists little need for an abundant circulating medium, because under such a condition of affairs the amount of actual money required to transact the daily business affairs of life is reduced to a minimum.

The statistics show that the volume of business carried on through cash transactions is on an average but 8.7 per cent, and as the monetary conditions of the country become more fixed and confidence in them established, cash transactions will decrease and credit transactions correspondingly increase. This fact is to be considered in connection with all plans having as their sole object an increase of the volume of banknote or other paper currency, and coupled with this is the further fact that no issue is so dangerons to a people's prosperity as a large paper issue, unless such paper rests upon a proper foundation, is absolutely redemable and convertible into coin upon the demand of the noteholder, and surrounded with every safeguam as to supervision of issue and redemption.

In view of the fact that there is now a very great abnodance of memployed currency in the country, as shown by the daily money returns from the commercial centers, it would seem that whatever need appeared some months since for enlarging to any marked extent the circulating medium has now ceased to exist; and therefore Congress is afforded an opportunity of giving to the whole subject that careful research and investigation which its importance in all of its bearings demands. It will not do to place upon the statute books any experimental legislation upon this subject, but whenever a new law governing bank issues is enacted it must be one that immediately upon going into operation sliall command in every respect the confidence of the whole people and insure to them a currency as safe in every respect as the present one, bnt with none of its defects.

In the meantime it is respectfully suggested that Congress, either through a monetary commission created for such purpose or through the appropriate committees, obtain detailed information of the various systems of banks of issue now in operation, and also such informatiou as is to be ascertained from skilled students of finance and practical financiers, that it may be able to formulate a system complete and harmonious.

CONCLUSION.

In concluding this report the Comptroller desires to bear testimony to the general efficiency of the employés in the Bureau, to the examiners in the field, and to the work accomplished by the receivers in relation to the trusts in their charge.

An extraordinary amount of work has been placed upon the employés of the Bureau, but it has been performed promptly and intelligently.

In the appendix will be found in detail the usmal tables, together with a digest of legal decisions rendered by the various courts of the rountry involving questions affecting national banks.

In the second volume of this report will be found a detailed statement of the condition of all the national banks as shown by the report of condition of October 3, 1893, alphabetically arranged by States, and uroperly indexer.

James H. Echels, Comptroller of the Currency.
The Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Abatement:

An action brought by the creditor of a national bank is abated by a decree of a district or circuit court dissolving the corporation and forfeiting its franchises First National Bank of Selma v. Colby; 21 Wall., 609.

Accommodation papier:

1. A national-banking association can not guaranteo the paper of a customer for his accommodation. Seligman v. Charlottesville National Bank, 3 Hughes 647.
2. 'The accommodation paper of a national-banking association is void in the hands of one who takes it with knowledge of its character. Johnson v. Charlottesville National Bank, 3 Hughes, $65 \%$.
B. A national bank can not becomo an accommodation Indorser. National Bank of Commerce v, Athinson, 55 Fed. Rep., $\Psi 65$.

Actrons: See Jurisdiction.

1. Suit may be brought against a national-banking association though it is is the hanis of a receiver. Bank of Bethel v. Jahquioque Bank, 14 Wall., 383: Security National Bank v. Nationai Bank of the Commonwealth, \% Hum., 287; Green v. The Walikill National Bank, 7 Hun., 63.
2. A national-banking association is a foreign corporation within the meaning of a State statute requiring corporations created by the laws of any other State or country to give security for costs hofore prosecuting a suit in the courts of the State. National Park Bank v. Gunst, 1 Abb. N. C., 292.
3. As a national-banking association can acquire no title to negotiable paper purchased by it, it can maintain no action thereon in a State where tho person suing must be owner of the paper. Finst National Bank of Rochester

4. A shareholder of a national-banking association can not maintain an action against the directors to recover damages sustained for neglect and mismanagenent of the aftairs of the association whereby it became insolvent and its stock was rendered worthless. Such an action can be brought only by the corporation itself. Conway v. Halsey, $1 \tilde{0}$ Froom, 46\%; Heme v. Barney, 45 Fed. Rep., 668.
5. But where the receiver refuses to bring an action against negligent divectors to recover the amount which the sharebolders have been compelled to coutribute to pay the debts of the association, an action against such directors may be brought by a shareholder on behalf of himself and the other shareholders. Jelson v. Burrous, 9 Abb. N. C., 280.
6. And when the receiver is a director, and one of the parties charged with misconduct and against whom a remedy is sought, the action may be brought by a shareholder on behalf of himself and the other shareholders. Brinekerhoff v. Bostures, 88 N. Y., 52.
7. A stockholderin a national bank can not maintain an action at law against the officers and directors thereof to recover damages for willful waste of the assets whereby the value of his shares was decreased and he became liable to an assessment thereon. His remedy must be sought in equity. Hirsh v. Jones et al., 56 Fed. Rep., 137.
8. A receiver may sue either in bis own name or the hame of the bank. National Bank v. Kennedy, 17 Wall., 19.
9. Suits and procectings under the act in which the United States or their officers or agents are parties, whether commeneed before or after the appointment of a receiver are to be oonducted by the district attorney under the dircetion of the Solicitor of the Treasury. Bank of Bethel $\because$. Pahguioque Jank, 14 Wall., 383 .
10. But section 380, Revised Statutes, is directory merely, and the employment of private counsel by the receiver can not be made a ground of defense to a suit bronght by him. Ib.
11. Receivers may sue in the courts of the United States by virtue of the act, withont reference to the locality of their personal citizenship. ib.
12. The provisions of the codes that every action must be brought in the name of the real party in interest, except in the case of the trustee of an express trust or of a person anthorized by a statute to sue, does not apply to the receiver of a national-banking association suing in a Federal court held in a State which has adopted the code procedure; for the right of the receiver to sue is derived from the national-banking law. Stanton v. Wilkeson, 8 Ben., 357.
13. Under section 1001 of the Revised Statutes, no bond for the prosecution of the suit, or to answer in damages or costs, is required on writs of error or appeals issuing from or brought to the Supreme Court of the United States by direction of the Comptroller of the Currency in suits by or against insolvent national-banking associations or the receivers thereof. Pacific National Bunk v. Mixter, 114 U. S., 463.
14. The State statute of limitations applies to a suit brought by the receiver of a national bank against a shareholder to recover an assessment upon his stock to pay the debts of the bank. Butler v. Poole, 44 Fed. Rep., 586.
15. When the full personal liability of shareholders is to be enforced the action must be at law. Kennedy v. Giuson, 8 Wall., 505; Casey v. Galli, 94 C. S., 673.
16. And it may be at law, though the assessment is not for the full value of the shares; for, since the sum each shareholder must contribute is a certain exact sum. there is no necessity for in roking the aid of a court of equity. Bailey v. Suoyer, 4 Dill., 463.
17. But the suit may be in equity. Kennedy v. Gibson, supra.

Actions-Continued.

18. The provision of the banking law, section 5198, Rovised Statutes, which requires that actions bronght against national-banking associations in State courts shall be bronghtin the connty or city in which the association is located, applies only to transitory actions; it was not intended to apply to actions local in their character. Casey v. Adams, 102 U. S., 66.
19. Whether a suit agaiust a director for negligent performance of his duties, as required by the statutes of the United States and the by-laws of the association, will survive against the executor or administrator depends upon State laws. Witters v. Foster, 25 Fed. Rep., 737.
20. A speeific performance of a contract to sell the stock of a uational-banking association will not be enforced in favor of a purchaser who places his claim for equitable relief upon the ground that he desires to obtain control of the association. Sitch an object is contrary to pablic policy. Foll's Appeal, 81 Penn. St., 434.
21. Under section 57 of act of 1864 , smits may be bronght by, as well as against, any association. Kennedy v. Gibson, 8 Wall., 498.
22. Actions, local in their nature, may be maintained in the proper State court in a county or city other than that where it is established. Caseyv. Adams, 102 U.S., 66.
23. A national bank may be stled in any State, county, or municipal court in county or city where located. Bank of Bethel v. Palquioque Bank, 14 Wall., 388.
24. Such action is not prescribed by the limitation of one year in Louisiana. Case v. Bank, 100 U. S., 446.
25. It is no objection to a bill against stockholders within the jurisdiction of the court, that other stockholders, not within such jurisdiction, are not co-defendants. $1 b$.
26. Under the original act respecting national banks, and before the act of June 30,1876 , a court of equity had jurisdiction of suit to prevent or redress malarlministration or fraud against creditors, in voluntary liquidation of ${ }^{+}$ such bank, whether contemplated or executed; and such suit by one creditor must be for all. Richmond v. Irons, 121 U. S., 27.
Assessment : See Insolvent banks; Receiver.
27. Where national-banking association is insolvent, order of Comptroller of Currency, declaring to what extent the individnal liability of stockholders shall be enforeed, is conclusive. Kennedy v. Gibson, 8 Wall, 498; Casey r. Galli v. 94 U. S., 673; National Bank v. Case, 99 U. S., 688.
28. Pasmonts of assessments by stockholder in national bank ou increased stock can not be applied, in law or in equity, to discharge assessments by Comp. troller in final liquidation of the bank. Pacific National Bank v. Eaton, 141 U.S., 227; Thayer v. Butler, 141 U. S., 294; Butlerv. Eaton, 141 U. S., 240 .
29. The assessments made by the Comptroller upon the shareholders of an insolvent association bear interest from the date of the order. Casey $\mathfrak{v}$. Galli, 94 U.S., 673.
30. Where shareholders have assessed themselves to the amount of the par value of the stock for the purpose of restoring impaired capital, the contributions made in pursuance of such assessment, though all used in paying the debts of the association, will not so operate as to discharge the shareholders from their individual liability. Delano v. Butler. 118 U. S., 634.
31. Where a married voman is by the State law capable of holding stock in a national bank in her own right, she is liahle to an assessmeut upon her shares, though the law of the State does not authorize married women to bind themselves by contracts for the payment of money. The law annexes her obligations by its own force; no act or capacity to act on her part is required. Wilter's v. Sowles, 35 Fed. Rep., 640; 32 Fed. Rep. 767.
32. Married women, who are permitted by the laws of the State in which they reside to become shareholders in national banks, are liable to assessments under the national-banking laws. In re First National Bank of St. Albans, 49 Fed. Rep., 120.
33. The coverture of a married woman, who is a shareliolder in a national bank, does not prevent the receiver of the bauk from recovoring judgment against her for the amount of an assessment levied upou the shareholders equally and ratably under the statute. Keyser v. Hitź, 133 U. S.. 138.
34. It is not essential, in anaction to enforce the individual liability of the shareholders of an insolvent national-banking association, to aver and prove that the assessment was necessary; for the decision of the Comptrollor on this point is conclusive. Strong v. Southworth, 8 Ben., 831; Kennedy v. Gibson, 8 Wall. 505 ; Casey v. Gnlli, 94 U. S., 67s:

9. And the fact that the title to the stock of a deceased shareholder vests in his administrator does not relieve the estate from the burden of an assessment. Davis v. Weed, 44 Conn., 569.
10. Nor will the fact that the administration is complete, and all the assets have been distributed, defeat an action brought to recover the assessment. Ib. But see Witters v. Soules, 32 Fed. Rep., 30.
11. A decision rescinding sale, so as to restore to the purchaser the proceeds of stock fraudulently sold, does not necessarily involve a decision that the purchaser is not liable to an assessment upon the stock, if necessary to pay debts. Florida Land & Imp. Co. v. Merrill, b\% Fed. Rep., 77.
12. The question whether there is a deficiency of assets, and when it is necessary to enforce the individual liability of sharcholders, it is for the Comptroller to determine; and his decision in this matter is final and conclusive. Kemuedy v. Gibson, 8 Wall., 49S; National Bank v. Case, 99 U. S., 628; Casey v. Galli, 94 D. S., 673 .
13. The amonnt contributed by each shareholder should bear the same proportion to the whole amount of the deficit as his own stock bears to the whole amonnt of the capital stock atitspar value. And the solvent shareholders can not be made to contribute more than their proportion to make grood the deficiency caused by the insolvency of other shareholders. United States v. Knox, 102 U. S., $42{ }^{2}$.
14. Where, to discharge liabilities of an insolvent bank, Comptroller assessed against shareholders a sufticient per cent on par value of stock held by each, some being iusolvent, he can not provicle for deficiency by new assessment. Ib.
Attachment:

1. When a creditor attaches the property of an insoivent bank he can not hold such property against the claim of a recoiver appointed after the atiachment suit was commenced. Such creditor must share pro rata with all others. First National Bank of Selna v. Colby, 21 Wall., 609; Harvey v. Allen, 16 Blatch, 29.
2. The stock of a shareholder indebted to it may be attached by the association and sold ou execution. Hegger v. Enion National Bank, 63 Me., 509.
3. No State court can issue an attachment against the funds of a national bank. Although the provision forbidding attachments was evidently made to secure equality among the general creditors in the division of the proceeds of the property of an insolvent bank, its operation is by no means confined to cases of actual or contemplated insolvency; but the remedy is taken away altogether and can not be used under any cireumstances. The effect of the provision in section 5242, Revised Statutes, is to write into all State attachment lavs an exception in favor of national banks, and all such laws must be read as if they coutained an exception in favor of national banks. Pacifie National Bank v, Mixter, 124 U', S., 721.
4. No attachment can issue from United States circuit court in an action against a national bank before final judgmeut in the cause, and a bond given on such attachment is illegal. Ib.
5. Sureties on attachment boud against national bank who have received assets of the bauk to secure them from loss thereon, the obligation being illegal, will be discharged in equity and be compelled to transfer their collateral to the receiver of the bank. Ib.
BoNDS OF OlFICERS:
6. It is not necessary that national-banking associations shall signify their approval of the official bonds of their oficers loy memoranda entered upon the journals or minutes of the directors. The acceptance is to be presumed from the retention of the bond, aud from the fact that the officer is permitted to enter upon or continue in the discharge of his duties. Grover v. The Lebanon Natimal Bank, 10 Bush., 28.
7. Where the sureties of an officer can reasonably be presumed to have been deceived loy the statement of the condition of the bank pullished just prior to the execution of the bond, and to have been led to thiuk that there was no deficit, whereas there had been a misapplication of a large part of the funds by the officer whose boudsmen they became, which fact would have been ascertaincd had the directors exercised ordinary diligence, the sureties are discharged from their liability. $\quad a b$.

1. The willful misapplication of the moneys and funds of a national-banking association, made an offense by section 5209, Revised Statutes, must be for the use or benefit of the party charged or of some person or company other than the association. Umiled States v. Britton, $10^{\prime \prime}$ U. S., 655.
2. The exercise of official discretion in good faith, without fraud, for the advantage or the supposed advantage of the association, is not punishable; but if official action be taken in bad faith, for personal advantage and with fraudulent intent, it is punishable. United States v. Fish, 24 Fed. Rep., 585.
3. It is not necessary that the officer should personally misapply the funds of the association. He will be guilty as a principal offender thougl he merely procures or causes the misapplication. Ib.
4. A loan in bad faith, with intent to defraud the association, is a willful misapplication within the meaning of the statute. Ib.
5. It is no defense to a charge of embezzlement, abstractiou, or misapplication of the funds of a national-banking association that the funds were used with the knowledge and consent of the president and some of the directors. The iutent to defraud is to be conclusively presumed from the commission of the offense. United States v. Taintor, 11 Blatch., 374.
6. Where the president, charged as a trustee with the administration of the funds of the bank in his hands, converts them to his own use without authority for so doing, he embezzles and abstracts them within the meaning of section 5209, Revised Statutes. In the matter of Van Campen, 2 Ben., 419.
7. If, with intent to defrand the association, an officer allows a firm in which he is a member to overdraw its account, he will be guilty of misapplying the funds of the association. $I b$.
8. Allowing the withdrawal of the deposit of one indebted to the association can not be charged as a misapplication of the money of the association. United States v. Britton, 108 U. S., 193.

guarantors when acted on by the guarantee though no notice of the accept. ance of the guarantee was given, for the contract shows a personal interest of the guarantors in the advances constituting a consideration moving to them. Doud et. al. v. National Park Bank, 54 Fed. Rep., 846.

Increase of capital stock:

1. National banks have no authority to increase their capital stock except as provided by Revised Statutes, section 5142, and act of Congress, May 1, 1886; and where an increase is attenpted to be nade withont obtaining the consent of two-thirds of the stock, the payment in full of the amount of such inerease, and the certiticate and approval of the Comptroller of the Currency, as required by those statutes, the proceedings are invalid, and preliminary subscriptions to sucl increase can not be enforced. Armstrong v. Stanage et al., $37^{7} \mathrm{Fed}$. Rep., 508.
2. Where one subscribes for shares in the increase of the capital of a nationalbanking association in a certain amount, such subscription and payment are upon the implied condition that the increase shall be in the exact amount so fixed; and if such amount is changed, the subscriber may avoid the subscription and recover the amount paidin. Eaton v. Pacific Bank, 144 Mas8., 260.
3. And the certificate of the Comptroller of the Currency that the amonnt of the increase in another sum lias been paid in, which amount includes what was paid by the dissenting subscriber, will not be conclusive upon such subseriber. Ib.
4. But if such subscriber has assented to or ratified the change ne will be held a shareholder. Delano v. Butler, 118 U. S., 634.
5. When the previous proceedings looking to an increase in the capital stock of a national bank lave been regular and all that are requisite, and a stockholder subscribes to his proportionato part of the increase and pays his subscription, the law does not attach to the subseription a condition that it is to be void if the whole increaso anthorized be not subscribed; althongh there may be cases in which equity would interfere to protect him in case of a material deficiency. Aspinwall v . Butler, 193 J . S., 595.
6. The Comptroller of the Curreney has power by law to assent to an increase in the capital stock of a national bank less than that originally voted by the directors, but equal to the amonut actually subseribed and paid for by the sharehollers under that vote. Ib.
7. Where one subscribes for shares in an increase of capital stock of a national bank and pays for the same without waiting to see whether the whole amount of the increase is taken, he is bound by such subscription and payment, though the anount of the increase is afterward reduced by the bank and the Comptroller of the Carrency. Butler v. Eaton, 141 U.S., 240.
8. The contitions imposed by Revised statutes, Sec. 5142 , to the validity of increase of national-bank capital were intended to secure actual cash payment of subscriptionsand to prevent watering stock, not to invalidate bona fide subscriptions actually made and paid. Aepinwallv. Butler, 138 U. S., 595.
9. Stockholder in national bank who, with knowledge of its insolvent condition and of all material facts, subscribes for increased stock to same amount as his original stock, and amount of proposed increase is afterward rednced, can not question validity of proceedings for such increase to annul such subseription and payment. Delano v. Butler, 118 U. S., 634; Lacific National Eank v, Eaton, 141 ib., 227; Thayer v. Butler, ib., 234; Butler v. Eaton, ib., 240.
Indictment:
10. An indietment charging defendants with aiding and abetting a director in a willful misapplication of the money of an association must state facts to show that diere has been such misapplication committed by the director. United States v. Warner, 26 Fed. Rep., 616.
11. An indictment under act of July 12, 1882, anending section 5208, making it a misdemeanor to "certify any check" drawn by a person not then having on deposit sufficient money to meet same need not allege delivery of check by bank after certification. United States v. Potter, 56 Fed. Rep., 83.
12. When indictment alleges certification as accomplished, anthentication will not be presumed as an essential part thereof, and hence it is unnecessary to allege absence of required credit or deposit at time of authentication. Ib.

Indictment-Continued.

4. The indictment in charging in the langnage of section 5208 that the drawer of the check had not on leposit, at the time it was certified, "an amount of money equal to that specified" in the check is sufficient. I $l b$.
5. The indictment does not charge two offenses in the same count because it alleges therein that the check was certified "before the amount thereof had been entered to the credit of the drawer on the books of the bank," and also at a time when the drawer did not "have on deposit an amount of money equal to" the amount of the check. Ib.
6. An indictment against the president for "aiding and abetting" cashier in certifying check under prohibition can not be sustained. Ib.
7. An indictment charging directors of a national-banking association with making false entries in a report of condition to the Comptroller of the Currency can not be sustained under section 5209. Ib.
8. The use in an ivdictment, under section 5209, of the words "then and there" in alleging that the defendant was president or director of such bank aud made alleged false entries, is not uncertain or repugnant merely because in one place they may refer to the whole of a day and in another to only one instant of the day. Ib.
9. The omission of the signs for dollars and cents in the recital of alleged false entries in reports and misnomer of reports are immaterial where reports are set out by their tenor in the indictinent. $I b$.
10. It is not necessary to allege specifically in such indictment that the reports were transmitted to the Comptroller of the Currency, or that they were published. $1 b$.
11. Allegations that the false ontries were made with intent "to injure and defraud the said association and certain persons to the grand jurors unknown" are sufficient. Ib.
12. An indictment against the president of a national bank, under section 5209 , for making false entries in the books of the bank, charging that it was done "with intent to defrand said association and certain persons to the grand jurors uuknown" is sufficient so far as concerns the allogations of intent. Cnited States v. Potter, 56 Fed. Rep., 97.
13. When indictment alleges that the false entries indicated that there was then in the paying teller's department of the bank certain amount in gold, legal tenders, and gold certiticates, when in fact such amount was not thore, it is not necessary that it should fiurther allege that such amount was not then in other departments of the bank. Ib.
14. In addition to the entries themselves, the indictment need set out the context only when it so modifies the entries as to be in presumption of law a part of them. Ib.
15. The fact that the note teller's and paying teller's books, in which the president is charged with making the false entries are usually kept by those officers without interference by the president does not invalidate indictment thereon. Ib.
16. Counts charging false entries by the president in reports of condition of the bank, which allege that reports were made in conformity to the law and then set them out by their tenor are bad, for their failure to allege speeifically that the reports were verified and attested by the cashier. Ib.
17. An indictment against the president of a mational bank, alleging that he "mowlawfy and willfully and with intent to injure and defrand the said association for the use, benefit, and advantage of himself, did misapply certain of the money and funds of the association which he ${ }^{}{ }_{}^{*}$ * then and there with the intent aforesaid paid and caused to be paid" to certain persons named, was load for failure to allege the fact tliat made such payment unlawful or criminal. United States v . Eno, 56 Fed. Rep., 218.
18. It is not essential that such indictnent should allege that the acts charged were done without the knowledge and assent of the directors of the association. Ib.
19. Where the entry whose tenor is set forth contains the words "See scliedule," it is not a valid objection to the indictment that these words are not explained. $I b$.
20. It is sufficient if the indictment allege the snbstance of the reports in question without setting then ont in fill. Ib.
21. United States v. Work, 57 Fed. Rep., 391, was decided in accordance with United States v. French, 57 Fed. Rep., 382, and United States v. Potter, 56 Fed. Rep., 83 and 97.
22. An allegation in an iudictment under this section that defendant " did make a certain false entry in a certain report of the association" will not be comstrued to mean that the mory was made alter the report was completed, and was, in fact, an alteration. Lniled Stales v. Fuench el al., 57 Fed. Liep., 38 .

23. The preparation and completion of the report, the making of the false entry therein, its verification, attestation, and delivery to the Comptroller, may be considered as simultaneous, ant there is no repugnance in failing to alloge that any or all of these things occurred in consecutive order. Ib.
24. Thongh the counts in an inrlictment under this section for aiding and abetting the cashier in making such false entries describe defendant as "being then and there a director" of the bank in question, it can not be held that they charge him in aiding and abetting in his official capacity. Ib.
25. Counts in such indictment, which charge defendant with procuring and counseling the false entry before the fact, are valid, for such aots are covered by the clause of the section extending the penalty to anyone who "abets" an officer or agent in the acts prohibited. Ib.
26. In indictment under Kevised statutes, sec. 5209, for willfully misapplying the funds of a national bank, it is not necessary to charge that the funds had been previously intrusted to defendant; since such act may be done ly an officer or agent of the association withont his having previonsly received the funds into his manual possession. United States v. Northway, 120 C. S., 827.
27. Indictment charging president of a bank with aiding and abetting its cashier in the misapplication of its funds, it is not necessary to aver that he then and there knew that the person so aided and abetted was the cashier.Ib.
28. A form of indictment which sufficiently describes and identifies the crime of abstracting the funds of a national bank created by Revised Statutes, Sec. 5209 , and sufficiently states the character and capacity of the bank. $I b$.
29 Indietment against president for false entry on books held sufficient in form and averments. United States v. Britton, $10 \%$ U. S., 655.
30. Indictment against president for fraudulent purchase of stock of the bank is bad if it fails to state for whose use purchase was made, or if it states that it was for use of the bank, or if it does not aver that it was not made to prevent loss on previous debt. Ib.
31. Indictment for perjury against officer for false statement under section 5211 , Revised Statutes, is load if, prior to act of 1881, chapter 82, his oath verifying report was taken before notary appointed by a State. United States v. Curtis, 107 U. S., 671.

Injunction:
Sec. 5242 Revised Statutes, providing that no injunctions shall issue from a State court against a national bank before final judgment, does not deprive the Federal court of power to issue such injumetion or to continue after removal of the case an injuuction previously granted by a state court. Hower v. Feiss Malinq and Elevator Co. et. al., 55 Fed. Rep., 356.

Insolvent banks: See Shareholders; Set-off; Receiver; Preferred claims.

1. National-banking associations were not subject to the bankrupt act while that act was in force. In re Manufacturers' National Bank, 5 Biss., 499.
2. The term "insolvency," as used in section 5242, Revised Statutes, forbidding transfer of the assets of national-banking associations atter, or in contemphation of, such insolvency, has the same meaning as it had when applied to traders in the bankrupt act; that is, it does not mean an absolute inability of a debtor to pay his debt at some future time, upon a settlement and winding np of his affairs, but a present inability to pay in the ordinary course of business. Case v. Citizens' Bank of Louisiana, ${ }^{2}$ Woods, 23; Marleet Bank v. Pacifo National Bank, 30 Hun., 50.
3. It is not necessary that the facts upon which the Comptroller bases his action in appointing a receiver should be established by what is competent legal ecidence; but he is left to be satisfied as best he can be, under the peculiar circumstances of each case, of the facts and the necessity for the exercise of his authority. 1. The provision in section 30 of the act of 1861 "that where, by the law of any State, a different rate is limited for banks of issue organized under State laws, the rate so limited shall be allowed for associations organized in any such State under the act," is enabling, and not restrictive; and, therefore, a national-banking association in any State may stipulate for as high a rate of interest as by the laws of such State a natural persou may, although State banks of issue are restricted to a less rate. Tiffany v. National Bank of the State of Missouri, 18 Wall., 409.
2. But it is not to be inferred from Tiffany $v$. National Bank of Missomi that whatever loy the laws of the State is lawful for natural persons in aequiring title to negotiable paper by discount islawful for national banks. National Bank V. Johnson, 104 U. S., 277.
3. The iuterest which a national-banking association may charge is limited to the rate allowed to the banks of the State generally; and the fact that a few of the State banks are specially authorized to take a higher rate is not a warrant for a national-banking association to do so. Duncan v. First National Bank of Mount Pleasant, 11 Bank ${ }^{\wedge}$ Mag., 78'\%; Gruber v. First National Bank, 87 Henn. St., 468.
4. Where the State law does not limit the rate of interest which may be charged on loans to corporations, a national-banking association located in that State can not charge more than 7 per cent interest on such loans. In re Wild, 11 Blatch., 243.
5. Where by the statutes of the State parties are authorized to contract, for any rate of interest, national-banking associations in that State way likewiso contract for any rate, and are not limited to 7 per cent. Hinds v. Marmelejo, 60 Cal., 299; National Bank v. Bruhn, 64 Texas, $5^{7} 1$.
6. Bank may take the rate of interesi allowed by the State to natural persons generally, and a higher rate where State banks of issue can take it. Tiffany v. National Bank of Missouri, supra.
7. May charge rate of interest allowed to natural persons in the State or Territory wherebank is located, but can not take more, even on discount of paper for third party, without it being usury. National Bank v. Johnson, supra.

8. The tenth subdivision of section 629 , Revised Statutes, which confers upon the circuit court of the Uuited States jurisdiction of all suits by or against any national-banking association established in the district for which the court is held, has been repealed by the proviso to section 4 of the act of July 12, 1882. National Lank of Jetierson v. Fare et al., 25 Fed. Rep., 200.
9. The object of this proviso was to deprive the United States courts of jurisdiction of suits by or against national-banking associatious in all cases where banks organized under State laws could not likewise sue or be sued in such courts. Ib.
10. But the proviso does not affect tho right of the receiver of an insolvent association to sue in a Federal court. Hendee v. Connecticut and P. R. R. Co., 96 Fed. Rep., $67 \%$.
11. Nor would the act of July 12, 1882, take from the circuit court jurisiliction of a suit brought against a director for negligent performance of his daties; for, as such suits rest upou the requirements of the United States laws and by-Iaws made pursuant thereto, it is a case arising under the laws of the United States Fitters v. Foster, 28 Fєd. Rep., 737.
12. In in action against a national bank in a circuit court of the United States, if all the parties are citizens of the district in which the bank is situated, and the action does not come under section 5209 or section 5239 of the Fievised Statutes, the circuit court has no jurisdiction. Whittemore v. Amoskeag National Bank, 134 U. S., 527.
13. The Federal courts have jurisdiction of an action between a national bank located in one State and a citizen of another State. First National Bank v, Forest, 40 Fed. Rep., ${ }^{n} 05$.

8. A receiver of au insolvent national bank is an officer of the United States within the meaning of section 563, Revised Statutes of the United States, which gives the district courts jurisdiction of "all suits at common law brought by the United States, or any officer thereof authorized by law to sue." Stephens v. Bernays, 41 Fed. Rep., 401.
9. State courts have jurisdiction of suits by and against national banking associations. Bank of Bethel v. Pahquioque Bark, 14 Wall., 383; Ordway v. Central National Banir, 47 Ma., 217 and Claflin v. Houseman 93 U. S., 130.
10. Where a national banking association is sued in a State court, the suit must be brought in the city or county in which the bank is located. Cadle v. Tracey, 11 Blatch., 101.
11. The United States district court has jurisdiction of an action at law brought by the receiver of a national bank to recover an assessment made upou a stockholder, and the action may be maintained, in such event against the executor of a deceased stockholder. Stephens v. Bernays, supra.
12. But in a State where the holder may sue without respect to the ownership an association may bring suit upon paper so acquired. National Pemberton Bank v. Porter, 125 Mass., g98; Atlas National Bank v. Savery, 127 Mass., 75.
13. But in Talmage v. Third National Bank, $2^{7}$ Hun., 61, the supreme court of New York said: "The words of restriction to the place where said "association is situated' apply to the county and municipal courts, and not to the State courts. In the State courts of general jurisdiction a natioual-banking association can be sued whenever an individual can be for the same canse."
14. A State court can entertain an action bronght to recover of a national-banking association the penalty for taking usury. Ordway v. The Central National Bank, 47 Md., 217; Hade v. Mc Vay, 31 Ohio St., 291; Bletz v. Columbia National Bank, 87 Penn. St., 87.
15. The State courts have jurisdiction of an action bronght by a shareholder on behalf of himself and other shareholders to recover of the directors of an insolvent association damages for iajuries resulting from their negligence and misconduct. Brinckerhoff v. Bostwick, 88 N. F., 52.
16. A State court has no power to make an order directing the receiver of a national bank, who has been appointed by the Comptroller of the Currency, to pay a judgment obtained against the bank before the receiver was appointed. Ocean National Bank v. Carll, 7 Hun, 297.
17. State courts liave no jurisdiction of the case of an embezzlement of the funcls of the association by one of its officers. Commonweallh v. Felton, 101 Mass., 204 ; Commonwealth ex rel. Torrey v. Ketner, 92 Penn. St., 370.
18. The defense of usury may be sot up in action brought in a State court. National Bank of Winterset v. Eyre, 52 Iowa, 114.
19. Neither the Comptroller ior the receiver by putting in an appearance to a suit can subject the United States to the jurisdiction of a court. Case v, Terrell, 11 Wall., 199.
20. A national-banking association is for jurisclictional purposes a citizen of the State in which it is located. Davis v. Cook, 3 Nev., 134.
21. The offeuse of making false entries in the books of a bank, for which an officer of the bank is liable to punishment, under section 5209 , since it is not a crime of which the State courts have concurrent jurisdiction, under section 5328 , is exclusively cognizable by the Federal courts. In re Eno, 54 Ted. Rep., 69.
22. Under the provisions of the act of August 13, 1888, national banks are deemed to be, for jurisdictional purposes, citizens of the State wherein they are located and they no longer possess the right of removal on the ground that they are Federal corporations. Burnham et al. v. First National Bank of Leoti, 53 Fed. Rep., 163.
23. When the citizenship is diverse and plaintiff is a resident of the district it is not necessary that he shall also reside in the particular division of the district in which the suit is brought, that a creditor's bill may be maintained in a Feleral court upon a judgment procured in a different State eourt from the State in which the Federal court sits. Mcrohanto' National Bank et al. v. Chattanooga Construction Co., 53 Fed. Rep., 314.

Jurisdrerron-Continued.
26. The provision that the Federal courts shall not have jurisdiction of an action on a promissory note or other chose in action by an assignee thereof, unless the action wight have been maintained in such courts if no assignment or transfer had been made (act August 13, 1888), does not apply to the indorsement and transfer of the payee of notes which were made to him merely that he might as agent of the maker raise money for it by negotiatiog them with third persons. Wachusett National Bank v. Siour City Stove Works, 56 Fed. Rep., 321.
27. If the citizenship of original payee of promissory note is material to jurisdiction of an action by indorsee against maker, plaintiff must affirmatively plead it. United States National Bank v. McNair, 56 Fed. Rep., 323.
28. A suit on the official bond of the cashier of a national bank, conditioned for a faithful performance of the duties thereof, "according to law and the by-laws" of the bank, involves a Federal question and is maintainable in a Federal court irrespective of the citizenship of the parties. Walker et al. v. Windsor National Bank, 56 Fed. Rep., $\because G$.
29. In a suit which is properly brought in a Federal court, because it involves a Federal question, the court has full juriscliction of the defendant, who, though a resident of another district, waives his personal privilege of being sued in his district by voluntarily appearing. Ib.
30. A citizen of New York brought snit in the circuit court of North Carolina against a citizen of North Carolina on promissory note to cashier of national bank, which was also located there. Note had been indorsed to plaintiff. After indorsement a receiver had been appointed for the bank. Held, that the receiver would have been an assignce of the note although the assignment was brought about bs operation of law, and that as bank could not have sued in circuit court neither could the receiver nor the plaintiff, as the court had no jurisdiction. Ib.
31. Under the above statute assignee can not maintain a suit on a promissory note unless the original payee could have prosecuted it. $I b$.
32. The exemption of national banks from suits in State courts in other than their own county or city, by act of February 18, 1875 ( 18 Stat., 316, chap. 80), was a personal privilege which could be waived by appearing to such suit and not claiming the immunity. the bank's general funls, and the county is entitled to recover an equal amount from a receiver of the bank prior to the payment of the general depositors. San Diego County v. California National Bank et al., 52 Fed. Rep., 59.
20. The indorsement of a draft to a bank "for collection," accompanied by a credit of the amount to the endorser's account, does not transfer title to the bank, and correspondent of the bank who collects draft for it is responsible therefor to indorser. Tyson v. Western National Bank of Baltimore, 20 Att. Rep. $\overline{200}$.
27. Paper for collection was indorsed, "Pay to (correspondent) bank or order for collection for (transmitting) bank." On insolvency of correspondent, Held, that the relation as to uncollected paper was that of principal and agent; that a subagent lad collected some of such paper was not a commingling of these collections with the funds of the failed bank and did not relieve them from the trust obligation created by its agency nor create any difticulty in specially tracing it. Commercial National Bank v. Armstrong. 148 U. S., 50.

Real estate: See Mortgages.

1. Where a national-banking association acquires real estate which it is not authorized to take, the conveyance to it is not void, but only voidable. And the title of the association to such real estate is good until assailed in a dircet proceeding by the Govermment. National Bank v. Mathews, 98 U. S., 621; National Bank v. Whitney, 103 U. S., 99; Swope v. Leffingwell, 105 C. S., S'; Reynolds v. Crawfordsville Bank, 112 U. S., 405; Fortier v. New Orleans Bank, 112 U. S., 439.
2. The amount of real estate which a national-banking association may purchase to secure a preexisting debt is not limited to the exact amount of the debt, bnt as much may be purchased as is necessary to secure the debt due, so long as the security of such debt is the real object of the purchase. Upton v. National Bank of South Reading, 120 Mass., 153.
3. Where the purpose is to secime a debt, previonsly contracted, a national-banking association may take a conveyance of real estate, worth more than the debt, and pary the difference between the debt and the value of the property. Libby y. Union National Bank, 99 Ill., 622.
4. A national-banking association may take as sccurity for a loan the stock of a corporation whose entire capital is vested in real estatc. Such a loan does not amount to a lending upon mortgage. Baldavin v. Canfield, 26 Minn., 49.
5. A national-banking association, having taken a mortgage on real estate to secure a debt previonsly contracted, may, in order to protect itself, pay off a prior lien on the said real estate; and the lien which it thus acquires it may enforce. Orm v. Merchants' National Bank, 16 Kans., 341; Holmes v. Boyd, 90 Ind., 832.
6. Fact that bank at judgment sale of land mortgaged to it purchases the mortgaged property, and also other property which it was not authorized to acquire, does not invalidate its title as to the mortgaged property. Reynolds v. Crawforisville Pank, 112 D. S., 405.

2. Claims arising out of the nonfeasance or malfeasance of the association should be paid ratably with the debts, technically so called. Turner v. First National Bank of Keokuk et al., 26 Iowa, 562.
3. A receiver, when appointed by the Comptroller, with the concurrence of the Secretary, is an officer of the United States. Stanton v. Wilkeson, 8 Ben., $35 \%$
4. He represents the bank, its stockholders, and its creditors; but he does not in any sense represent the Government. Case v. Terrell, 11 Wall., 199.
5. The clause of section 50, act of 1864 , which prescribes that the receiver shall be " under the direction of the Comptroller," means only that he shall be subject to the Comptroller's direction, not that he slall not act without orders. He may bring suit to collect assets without having been instructed to do so by the Comptroller. Bank v. Kennedy, If Wall., 19.
6. The receiver of a national bauk is the instrument of the Comptroller, and may be removed by him. Kennedy v. Gibson, $\mathcal{S}$ Wall., 505.

Recenver-Contimued.
7. The power of the Comptroller to appoint a recoiver is not exclusive; it does not oust the courts of equity of their authority in the matter; and therefore a court of competent juristictiou may place the bank in the hands of a receiver in cases where, according to the rules of equity, it may pursne such a course with regard to insolvent corporations generally. Irons v. Manufacturers' National Bank, 6 Biss., 501; Wright v. Merchants' National Bank, 1 Flippin, 561.
8. Suits brought by a receiver can not be settled or compounded upon an order of the Comptroller; this can be done only with the authority of the court. Case v. Small, 2 Woods, 78.
9. The decision of a receiver rejecting a claim is not final. The claimant still has the right to sue. Bank of Bethel v. Pahquioque Bank, 14 Wall., 389.
10. The receiver cau not sell the real or personal property of the bank without an order from a court of competent jurisdiction. Ellis v. Little, Z $^{7}$ Kans., \%õ̃.
11. Nor can he sell upon the terms in conflict with the order. Ib.
12. And under an order permitting him to sell the property of the bank he can not exchange, trade, or barter it for other property. Ib.
13. A sale made by a receiver undor order of a court is to all intents and purposes a judicial sale. In re Third National Bank, 9 Biss., 525.
14. As the power of a receiver of a national bank appointed by the Comptrolier is limited, a person dealing with him in his official capacity is bonud as : matter of law to have knowledge of his anthority to act, and if contracts and agreements are entered into with the receiver in excess of his anthority as conferred by law, the parties contract at their own peril and the estate of the bank can not be charged for the default or inability of a receiver acting outside of his functions as recoiver and beyoud the duties which it involves. Ellis v. Little, 27 Kans., 707.
15. The receiver can not charge the estate of the bank by any executory contract, unless authorized so to do by the provisions of the national-banking law and the order of a conrt of competont jurisdiction obtained upou the terms of said law. $1 b$.
16. The closing of a national bank by order of the examiner, the appointment of a receiver, and its dissolntion by decree of a circuit court necessarily transfer the assets of the bank to the receiver. Scott v. Armstrong, 146 U. S., 499.
17. The receiver in such case takes the assets in trust for creditors, and in the absence of a statute to the contrary, subject to all claims and defences that might lave been interposed against the insolvent corporation. Ib.
18. Receiver of national bank may sue for demands in his name as receiver, or in name of bank. Bank v. Kennedy, $1 \%$ Wall., 19.
19. Receiver of national bank appointed by Comptroller of the Currency is not accountable in equity to owner of rea? estate for rents thereof received by him and paid into United States Treasury, subject to disposition of Comptroller under Revised Statutes, Sec. 5234. Hitz r- Jenks, 123 U. S. 997; Briggs v. Spaulding, 141 U. S., 13 .
20. The expenses of receivership of a national bank appointed in a ereditor's suit, contesting a volmutary liquilation of the bank, can not be charged on stockholders as part of their statntory liability, but must come fiom the creditors at whose instance the reeeiver wis appointed. Ib.; Richmond v. Irons, 121 U. S., 27.
21. On a bill filed by receiver against stockholders under section 50 , where bank fails to pay its notes, action by Comptroller must precede institntion of suit by receiver, and be set forth thercin. Kennedy v. Gibson, 8 Wall., 498.
22. Creditors of the bank are not proper parties to such bill. Ib.

Reduction of capital stock:

When a national banking association reduces its capital stock the amount of capital thas released belongs to the shareholders pro rata and must be returned to them; and it can not he retained by the association for a surplus. Seeley v. New York National Exchange Bank, 8 Daly, 400; $4 \mathrm{Abb} . \mathrm{N}^{\top}$. C., 61; 78 N. Y., 608.

Report: See False entry.

1. A national bank is not required to conform the headings of the varions accounts on its books to any prescribed names, nor to the names stated in the form of report prescribed by the Comptroller, and therefore when a report is called for, if the person making it enters under the headings in the prescribed form a statement of the bank's condition, which is true with respect to the headings in said form, he has fullilled the demands of the law. United States v. Graves, 53 Fed. Rep., 684.

Rerone-Continued.
2. The entry of "loans and discomes" in reports to the Comptroller does not guaranty the solvency of the makers of the paper, but is a statement that in truth and fact, at the date named in the report, the bank actually held and owned loaus and discounts to the aggregate so reported. Ib.
3. Where the form of report, as prescribed by the Comptroller, contains heading of "Loans and Discounts", and also of "Overdralts," it is the duty of the bauk ofticer to make his entries in such report in such manner that each of these headings shall truthfully state the condition of his bank as to such heading. Ib.
4. A director of a bank is personally liable to the bank on paper made to it by a firm of which he is a member, and, in making a report of the condition of the bank to the Comptroller, the amount of such paper should be entered under the heading of "Liabilities of directors (individual and firm) as payers." Ib.

Resignation:

1. The law providing no particular mode by which a director is to resign from the board, an oral resignation would be as good as any. Movius v.Lee, 30 Fer. Rep., 298.
2. The president being the head of the board, a resignation to him is a resignation to the board. Ib.
3. A director is not prohibited from resigning during the year. The apparent purpose of the provision in regard to the term of office is to make it conform to the time of the new election, and not to absolntely require every director to serve the full term. Ib.

Restraining acts:

National-banking associations located outside of a State are subject to its restraining acts prohibitiug all corporations, not authorized by the law of the State, from keeping therein oftices for the purpose of discount and deposit. 2. And upon the failure of any association its $\overline{5}$ per cont redemption fund can not be retained by the Treasurer to pay taxes due to the United States, but the fund passes to the Comptroller as an asset of the association. Jackson v. United States, 20 Ct. Cls., 298.
3. A person liable upon a note to an insolvent national bank may set off, against his indebtedness, the amount of his deposits with the bank. Platt v. Benlley, Thomp. N. B., Cas., 758.
4. But a deltor can not set off the amount of a deposit assigned to him after the act of insolvency committed. Tenango Nalional Bank v. Taylor, 56 Penn. St., 14.
5. The indorser of a note discomnted by a national bank and which matures after the bank becomes insolvent and a receiver is appointed is entitled to set-off against the note the amount of his teposit in the bank at the time of its failure. Yardley v. Clothier, 51 Fed. Rep., 506.
6. The commercial paper of a national bank becomes overdue and dishonored after the commission of an act of insolveucy and appointment of a receiver, and issubject to all equities between the bank and the original party to whom it was payable. U. S. D. C., N. D., Ill., May, 1890.
7. A set-off under Illinois statute in favor of the maker of a note or bill is available if the paper is assigued after due, whether arising out of the same transaction or otherwise. Ib.
8. The ordinary equity rule of set-off in case of insolvency is that where the mutual obligations lave grown out of the same transaction, insolvency on the one hand justifies the set-off of the debt due on the other, and there is nothing in the statutes relating to national banks which prevents the application of that rule to the receiver of an insolvent national bank under circumstauces like those in this case. Scott v. Armstron!, 146 U.S., 499.
9. A customer of a national bank who, in good faith, borrows money of the bauk, gives his note therefor due at a future day, and deposits the amount borrowed to be drawn against, any balance to be applied to the payment of the note when due, has an equitable (but not a legal) right, in case of the insolvency and lissolution of the bank and the appointment of a receirer before the maturity of the note, to have the balance to his credit af the time of the insolvency applied to the payment of his indelntedness on the note. Ib.

10. Aets of Congress in relation to the adninistration of the assets of insolvent hanks authorize no other rules of set-off than those recognized by courts in the settlement of the affairs of other insolvent corporations. Yardley v. Clothier, 49 Ted. Rep., 397; Scott v. Armstrong, 146 U. S., 499.
11. Set-off must be governed by the law of the place where, in case of controrersy, suit must be brought to settle the rights of the parties. Savaryv. Savary, 3 Clawh, 271; Gibbs v. Howard, 2d N. H., 296; Yose v. Philbrook, 3 Story, 335 ; Ruggles v. Kuler, 3, Johns., 263.
12. A separate demand can not be set off against a joint one, or a joint debt against a separate one. Gray v. Rollo, 18 Wall., 629 ; Scammon v. Kimball, 03 U. S., $36 \%$.
13. Where, however, a note is signed by one as principal and others as sureties, the indebtedness of the bank to the principal may be set off. Andrews v. Varacll, 46 N. H., 17; Himrod v. Baugh, 85 Ill. 435.
14. Indorser of note held by the bank is entitled to set off, against his liability as such, any indebtedness from the bank to himself. Yardley v. Clothier, 49 Fed. Rep., 397.
15. An executor, administrator, or public officer is not entitled to set off against lis liability as such any indebteduess from bank to himself individually, nor contra. Scammon v. Kimball, 92 U. S., 369; Benton v. Hoomes, executor, 1. A. K. Marsh. 19; Stowe v. Yarwood, 14 Ill., $\boldsymbol{f}_{2}^{24}$ 全.
16. One inclebted to bank can not set off a claim against bank aequived subsequent to its suspension. Scott v. Armstrong, 146 U.S., 499; Fenango National Bank v. Taylor, 56 Penn. St., 14; Colt v. Brown, 12 Gray, 293.
17. Right of set-off is allowable where the indebtedness songht to be set off had or had not matured at time of bank's suspension. Scott v. Armstrong, 146 U. S., 499; Sliles v. Huton, 110 Penn St., 254; Drake v. Rolio, 3 Biss., 2'\%.

Shareholders:-

1. One who appears on the books of the association as the owner of slares of its stock is individually liable, thongh he hold the stock merely as collateral security. National Bank v. Case, 99 U. S., 6.3 ; Moore v. Jones, 3 Woods, 53; Bowdell v. Farmers and Merchants' National Dank of Baltimore, Browne's N. B. Cas., 147; Hale v. Walker, 31 Towa, 344; Wheelock v. Kost, 77 Ill., 296.
2. And a subscription to stock of a national bank, and payment in full on the subscription and eutry of the subscriber's name on the books as a stockholder, constitutes the subscriber a shareholder without taking out a certiticate. Pacific National Bank v. Eaton, 141 U. S., 227.
3. The individnal liability of a shareholder adheres to his estate after his death mutil his place as a member of the association is taken by some new slareholder. Davis v. Weed, 44 Conn., 569.
4. The receiver has a valid claim against the estate generally of a deceased shareholler who died prior to the insolvency of the bank, but whose stock has not been transferred. Richmond v. Trons, 121 U. S., 27; Davis v. Weed, supra.
5. But a pledgee of sliares of stock in a national bank who in goor faith and with no fraudulent intent takes the security for lis benefit in the name of an irresponsible trustee for the avowed purpose of aroiding individual liahility as a shareholder, and who exercises none of the powers or rights of a stockhokler, incurs no liability as such to creditors of the bank in case of its tailure. Anderson, Reccirer, v. Warehouse Compamy, 111. U. S., 479.
6. And where stock has been transferred as collateral security for a loan, with the understanding that in case of default in the payment of the loan the shares shall be sold, the transferee, 1 pon default made, and before the bank closes its doors, may sell the stock for a nominal consideration, thongh his purpose be to avoid a personal liability; and such a transaction can not be set aside as afraud upon the creditors of the association. Magruder v. Colston, 44 Md., 349.
7. If the trusteeship of one who holds stock in trust does not appear upon the books of the association he will be individually liable. Davis Essex v. Baptist Society, 44 Conn., 58 .
8. The real owner of the stock is liable as a stockholder, though when he purchased the stock he had it transferred upon the books to another. Davis v. Stevens, 17 Blatch., 259.

Staremoliders-Continued.
9. The individual liability of the shareholders of an insolvent association may be enforced for the purpose of paying all of its liabilities, and not merely for the purpose of paying its " debts," technically so called. Stanfon v. Wilkesom, 8 Ben. , $3 \overline{0} \%$.
10. The individual liability of the stockholders must be restricted in its meaning to such contracts, debts, and engagements of the association as have been duly contracted in the ordinary conrse of its business. And, therefore, creditors of an association who make settlements after the association is put into liquidation and receive from the president payment of their claims in paper of the association, or of the individual notes of the president himself, iudorsed or graranteed in the name of the association, are not to be cousidered as creditors of the association entitled to smbject the stockholders to individual liability ; for these are new contracts. Richmoid v. Irons, 121, U. S., 27.
11. The individual liability of the stockholders is entorcible only in behalf of all the creditors, and any security given by a stockholder for his liability in this respect should İikewise be for tho benctit of all the creditors. Accordingly, a mortgage of all the individual property of a stockholder, made after the bank has closed its doors, for the purpose of securing a single depositor, is void as against a judgment obtained against such stockholder in an action loy the receiver to recover the amome of his individual liability. Gateh v. F'teh, 34 Fed. Rep., 666.
12. While it is undoubtedly the rule as regards stockholders that one put upon the books as a stockholder without his consent can not be held for any liability in respect to such stock, yet where the porson to whom the stock is transferred is a director of the bank, and is concerned in the management of its affairs, he must be presumed to have knowledge of the fact that the stock stood in his name, and if he has notrepuliated the transfer to himself, is liable as the holder of such stock. Brown v. Finn, $\quad 3$ Fed. Rep., 124.
13. A national bank, having so received stock of another national bank, was sued as a stocklolder. Held, that loan by national bank on such security is not prohibited, and if it wore, defendant could not avoid liability by its own illegal act. National Bank v. Case, 99 U. S., 638 .
14. Where stocklolder, knowiug that bank is to fuil, collusively transfers his shares to an irresponsible person to avoid liability, his liability is not affected by such fraud. Bowden v. Johnson, $10 \%$ U. S., 251.
15. Bill filed by recoiver against transferrer and transferee to enforce such liability will lie where it is for discovery as well as relief, as the trausfer would be good between the parties. Ib.
16. A shareholder in national bank, who is liable for its debts, is liable for interest thereon to the extent of the bank's liability, and not in excess of the maximum liability fixed by statute. Richmond v. Irons, 121 U. S., $\boldsymbol{D}_{7}$.
17. A Federal court will not, even if it has the power, under section 5234 , grant an order authorizing the receiver of a national bank to componnd the statutory liability of certain stocklolders by accepting paymont of a gross sum less than is due in satisfaction and discharge thereof, although more money would thus be realized than by proceedings to collect the same in the usual way, when it appears probable that such stockholders have frandulently conveyed their property to avoid their legal obligations as stockholders or to shield themselves from injury and exposure by litigation. In ve certain stockholders of the California National Bank of San Wiego, 53 Fed. Rep., 38.
18. A corporation which holds certain shares of stock in a national bank as collateral security for a loan and is carried on the registry of the bank as the holder of such stock "as pledgee," is not subject on the bank's insolvency to the statutory liability of a stockholder. Pauley v. State Loan and Trust Co., 56 Fed. Rep., 430.
19. A person who is entered on the books of a national bauk as the owner of stock, but who is admitted to hold the stock in trust for the true owner, is not liable, as a stockholder, for the debts of the bank when the true owner has been adjudged so liable, although nothing is realized on the execution of such judgment. Fardley v. Wilgus, 56 Fed. Rep., 965.
20. Winere stockholder of national bank sells to the bank, as agent for unknown principal, his stock and delivers to it his certificate and power of attorney for transfor, in blank, though no formal transfer is made, his responsibility for further assessments on the stock ceases. Whitbeck v. Mercautile National Bank, 127 U.S., $19 \%$.

Simarbinoders-Continued.
21. Sulbseription to stock and payment in full and entry of name on books as a stockholder makes subscriber a shareholder without taking ont a certificate. Pacific National Banix v. Laton, 141 U. S. 2 g\%; Thayer v. Butler, ib., 234 ; Butler v. Eaton, ib., 240.
22. A pledgee of stock who in good faith takes the security for his benefit in name of an irresponsible trustec for the avowed purpose of avoiding individual liability as shareholder, inenrs no lability as such. Anderson v. I'hil. Warehouse Co., 111 U. S. 479.
23. The statutory liability of a slareholder in a national bank for the debts of the corporation survives against his personal representatives. Richmond v. Irons, 121 U. S., $\mathscr{Z V}^{7}$.
24. Shareholder in national bank continues liable for the company's del,ts until his stock is actually transterred or certificate surrendered for that purpose; a delivery to the president of the bank as vendee, and not as president, is insufficient to dischargo the shareholder. Ib.
Special deposits: See Preferred claims; Set-off.

1. A national-banking association may receive special deposits. The provision in section 5228, Revised Statutes, authorizing an association "to teliver special deposits," implies that it may receive them as a part of its legitimate business; and this implieation is as effectnal as an express declaration to the same effect would have been. National Bank v. Graham, 100 U. S., 699.
2. Section 5228 of Revised Statates, which provides that it shall be lawful for a national bank after its failure to "deliver special deposits," is an effectual recognition of its power to receive them. Ib.
3. National banking associations have power to receive special deposits cither gratuitously or otherwise, Pattison v. Syracuse National Bank, 80 N. Y., 82.
STocks: See Broker; Collateral securities; Ultra vires.
Taxation: See Circulation.
4. A State can not tax the capital stock of a national bank as such. The tax must be assessed upon the shares of the differont stockholders. Collins v. Chicago, 4 Biss., 472.
5. Under Revised Statutes, United States, section 5219, which declares that nothing in the national-banking act shall prevent all the shares of stock of a national bank from being included in the assessment of the personal property of the owners of such shares, an assessment of the entire stock of a national bank in solido against the bank itself is invalid. Nationab Bank of Virginia v. City of Richmond et al., 12 Fed. Rep., 877.
6. The assessment of the entire capital stock of a national bank in solido against the bank itself is invalifl. The bank may pay the tax assessed upon the shares of its different stockholders, and it will havo a lien thereon when it pays such tax until the same is satisfied; but if for any cause the tax levied upon the different stockholders is not paid by the bank, the property of the individual stockholders will be liable therefor. First National Bank of Leoti v. Fisher, 45 Kans., 726.
7. The individual stocklolders of a uational bank are allowed the same deductious from the assessiuent against them upon their shares of stock as other taxpayers in tho State, owning moneyed capital, are allowed. $I b$.
8. "Monored capital" in Revised Statates, section 5219, embraces capital employed in national banks and that used by individuals in business for proitt by use of it as money, bat does not include that in the hands of a corporation, even if its business be sueh as to make its shares moneyed capital when in the hands of individuals, or if it invests its capital in securities payable in money. Mercantile Bank v. New York, 121 U.S., 138; Newark Bamkं Co. v. Newarl, ib., 169; Talbot v. Silver Bow County, Montana, 199 U. S., 488.
9. Laws, New York, chapter 596, section 3, which provide that the stockholders in banks and trust companies organized under the authority of the State or of the United States, shall be assessed for the value of their shares of stock, but which omits to provide for the taxation of the slares of stock in other private corporations, does not contravene Revised Statntes, United States, section 5219, which forbids the taxation of shares of pational banks at a greater rate than is assessed on other "moneyed capital" in the hands of the individual citizen of the State. Palmerv. McMahon, 193 V. S., 660; Central National Bank v. United States, 137 U. S., 355.
10. The shares of a national bank are taxable to the owners, and the bank is not liable primarily or as the agent of the shareholders, under the act of Congress or the varions laws of the state or Territory, for the payment of it tax levied upon such shares; but if such bank, through its proper officers, voluntarily lists such shares as the property of the bank for taration, and the taxing officers of the State or Perritiry, in pursuance of snch erroneous listing, tax the same in the mame of the hank, equity will not reliove the bank from the payment of such tax by enjoining its collection in the absence of proper application to all the statutory tribunals anthorized to hear such matter and tietermine and grant the proper relief. Albuquerguc National Bank v. Peoria et al. (S. C. N. Mer.), January $88,1892$.

8. The entire interests of the shareholders may be taxed withont any deduction for that portion of the capital which is invested in United Statessecurities. Iran Allen v. The Assessors, 3 Wall., 57B.
9. New shares issned by a national-hanking association can not be taxed until the increase of capital has been approved by the Comptroller of the Currency. Charleston v. People's Sctional Bank, 5 S. C., 1.3.
10. The manifest intention of the law is to permit the State in which a national bank is located to tax, subject to the limitations prescribed, all the shares of its capital stock without regard to their ownership; and, therefore, a mational bank may be taxed upon the shares which it holds in another national bank. Bauk of Redemption v. Boston, 186 U. S., Go.
11. The undivided surphus of a mational-hanking association, inless invested in Federal securities, may be lawfully taxed by the state. North Ward National Jank of Newarh v. City of Vewark, 10 'Troom, 380; First National Bank v. Peterborough, 56 N. H., 38.
12. But, of course, if the surplus is taken into consideration in estimating the taxable value of the shares, it is not to be taxed separately. North Ward National Bank v. City of Yewark, supra.
Note.-But it has been held in Maryland that the stock of an association represents its whole property, and where a tax is assessed upon the shares a separate tax upon the real or personal estate amonnts to donble taxation; aut, therofore, where the organic laws of the State prohibit double taxation, such a tax upon the property of an association is void. County Commissioners v. Famers and Mechanies' National Bank, 48 Md ., 11\%; National State Bank v. Foung, os Lowa, 311, wheroin it was held that the State conld tax only the shares eo nomine and the real estate.
13. The surplus fund of a national-banking association is not excluded in the valuation of its shares tor taxation. Strafforl Sational Bamk v. Dover, 59 N. H., 316.
14. Whereshares of stock are assessed at their actual cash value, without any delluction for the real estate owned by the associntion, the real estate shonid not be taxed to nomine. Commissioners of Lice Connty v. Citizens' National Bank of Faribault, Q3 Mimn., 2SO.
15. Roal estate owned by a bank constitutes part of its assets, within the meaning of code of Mississippi providing that banks slanll pay a privilege tax, whose amount varies with their "capital stock or assets," in lieu of all other taxes. Ficksburg Bank v. Worrell, 7 So. Rep., z19.
16. The State can not tax the circulating notes of national-banking associations. Horne v. Greene, 25 Liss., 45, contra, Board of Commissioners v. Elston, 32 Ind., 27; Rufin v. Board of Commissioners, 69 N. C., 498 ; Lily v. The Commissioners, 69 N. C., 300.
17. Where the State banks are taxed upon the capital, no tax ean be imposed upon the shares of national-hanking associations; for, as the capital of the State banks may consist of the bonds of the United States, which are cxempt from State taxation, a tax on capital is not equivalent to a tax on shares. Fan Allen v. The Assessors, 3 Wall., 573; Bradley v. The People, 4 Wall., 459.
18. But though the tax upon the State banks is not eo nomine a tax on shares, yet if it is equivalent to such a tax the shares in the mational-hanking associations located in that State may be taxed. Frazer v. Seibern, 16 Ohio St., 614; Tan Slyke v. State, 83 Wis., b56; Boynoll v. State, 25 Fis., 112.
19. Where by local legislation difterent rates are prescribed for different classes of moneyed capital, the rate imposed upon shares of national banks should approximate as closely as may be the rate imposed upon other moneyed capital of the same or similar elass, viz, shares of State banks. City National Bank v. Paducah, 5 Ccnt. L.J., 347.
20. Congress meant no more than to require of the States, as a condition to the exercise of the power to tax the shares in national banks, that ther shonld, as far as they had the capacity, tax in like maner the shares of banks of issue of their own creation. Lionberger v. Rouse, 9 Wall., 468.
laxamon-Continued.
21. Therefore, where a State has previously coutracted with the banks which it has chartered that they shall not be taxed above a certain rate, a tax upon national-bank shares at a greater rate is not invalid, if this rate is not greater than that assessed upon all the moneyed capital within the State, except that of the State banks. Ib.
22. Any system of assessment of taxes which exacts from the owner of the shares of a national-banking association a larger sum in proportion to the actual valne of those shates than it does from other moneyed capital, valued in like manner, taxes the shares at a greater rate, notwithstanding that the percentage of tax on the valuation is the same as that applied to other moдeyed capital. Pelton v. Commercial National Bank, 101 U. S., 143.
23. In estimating the value of the shares for the purpose of taxation reference may be had to all the property aud valnes of the bank. St. Louis National Bank v. Papin, 3 Cent., L. I., 669.
24. If no excessive valuation is complained of, and a correct result is arrived at, equity will not restrain the collection of a tax becanse the method of computation was erroneous. Ib.
25. The shares may be valued for taxation at anamount exceediug their face value, if this anount is not at a greater rate than the valuation sot upon other moneyed capital in the State. Heplonm v. School Directors, 83 Wall., 480.
26. Under the statute of New York, shares in national-banking associations should be taxed at their real or market value. People v. The Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments, 94 U. S., 415.
27. Where shares in national-banking associations are purposely valued proportionately higher than the other moneyed capital in the State, the assessment is void. Pelton v. National Bank, 101 U. S., 143.
28. Aud the collection of what is in excess of the rate imposed on the other monered capital may be enjoined. $I b$.
29. A state statute creating a system of taxation of banks which does not diseriminate against national banks is not unconstitutional. Ib; Daveuport Bank v. Dacenport, 123 U. S., 83.
30. Section 5219, Revised Statutes, does not require perfect equality between State and national banks, but only a system of taxation which shall work no discrimination between them. Ib.
31. The intention of Congress was that the rate of taxation of the shares should be the same as, or not greater than, the tax upon the moneyed capital of the individual citizen which is sabject and liable to taxation. People v. The Gommissioners, 4 Wall., 24t.
32. The fact that by the statutes creating then, which statutes were passed prior to the national-banking law, State banks are eutirely exempt from taxation will not render a tax puon the shares of national-banking associations void. City of Richmond v. Scoth, 45 Ind., 568.
33. And a State tax upon shares in uational-banking associations is not rendered invalid by an exemption of the shares of other corporations the capital of which consists of property required to be listed for taxation as such. McIver v. Robinson, 53 Ala., 456.
34. Merely a partial exomption of other moneyed capital wilk not invalidate a tax upon shares in national-banking associations. Hepburn v. School Directors, 23 Wall., 480.
35. But though Congress did not contemplate that there should be an absolute equality (which in the nature of things is impossible), yet it did inteud that there should be a substantial equality; and therefore if the exemptions in favor of other moneyed capital are so palpable as to show that there is a serious discrimination agaiust capital invested in the shares of national-banking associations the tax will be declared unlawful. Boyer v. Boyer, 113 U. S., 690.
36. A State law which does not permit a dednction to be made from the assessed value of bank shares for all debts due by the holder thereof, while autborizing such a deduction to be made from the assessed value of moneyed capital otherwise invested, is void. People ex rel. Filliams v. Weaver, 100 U. S., 539, reversing S. C., 67 N. Y., 516, and overruling People v. Dolan, 36 N. Y., 59 .
37. In the assessment and taxation of shares of mational-bank stock the owners thereof, having no other credite or moneyed capital, are entitled to deduct their bona fide debts from the value of such shares of stock. Wasson v . Bank, S N. E. Rep., 97.
38. Revised Statutes, section 5219, providing that shares of mational-hank stock may be taxed as part of the personality of the owner, and that each State may tax them in its own manner, except that the taxation shall not be at a greater rate than is imposed on other "moneyed capital" owned by citizens of the State, and that the shares of nonresidents shall only be taxed in the city wherein the bank is located, do not anthorize the taxation of the stock of a bank in solido by the city in which it does business, but only the shares of individual owners residing in the city are taxable, and they must be taxed scparately, in order that the owner may deduct from their valne the amount of Jiis personal indebtedness, where the State laws or municipal ordinances permit such deductions, and require equality of taxation. First National Bank of Richmond v. City of Richmond et al., 39 Fed. Rep., 309; Whitbeck v. Mercantile Bank, 127 U. S., 193.

39. The main purposo of Cougress in tixing limits to State taxation on investments in the shares of national banks was to rencer it impossible for the State in levying such a tax to create and foster an unequal and unfriendly competition by favoring institutions or individuals carrying on similar business and operations and investments of a like character; and the language of the law is to be read in the light of this policy. And, therefore, the exemption of shares of stock in corporations the business of which does not come into competition with that of the national bank (e, g., railroad companies, mining companies, manufacturing companies, and insurance companies) does not invalidate a tax upon national-bank shares. Capital thus employed is not "moneged capital" within the meaning of the act of Congress. Mercantile Bank v. New Fork, 121 U. S., 138; Newark Bank Co. v. Newark, ib., 163; Bank of Redenption v . Boston, ib., 60.
40. The bonds of nunicipal corporations are not within the reason of the rule established by Congress for the taxation of national banks. Central National Bank v. United States, 1.37 U. S., 355.
41. Althongh deposits in savings banks constitute moneyed capital in the hands of individuals within the terms of any defiaition which can be given of that phrese, yet they are not within the meaning of the act of Congress in such a sense as to require that, if they are exempted from taxation, shares of stock in uatioual banks must thereby also be exempted from taxation, for it can not be supposed that savings banks come into any possible competition with national banks. Mercantile Bank v. New York, 191 U.S., 198; Newark Bank Co. v. Newark, ib., 63; Bank of Redemption v. Boston, 125, ib. 60.
42. Under act Louisiana, 1888, section 27, rolating to taxation of national-bank slares, making no deduction for that part of the bank's property entering into their valne which consists of nontaxable State and national securities, which deduction may, under the act, be made by individuals, a tax on national-bank shares violates Revised Statutes of the Uuited States, section 5219, prohibiting the assessment of such shares at a greater rate than moneyerl capital in the hands of individual citizens, and it is immaterial that the same discrimination is made against other corporations. Whitney National Bank v. Parker, 41 Fed. Rep., 402.
43. The taxation of national-bank shares by the statate of Indiana without permitting the owner of them to deduct from their assessed value the amount of his bona fide indebtedness as he may in the case of other investments of moneser capital, is a discrimination forbidden by the act of Congress. Briton v. Evansrille National Bank, 105 U. S., 3刃o.
44. Section 5219 prohibits an adverse discrimination by a local government in the valuation of national-bank stock for assessment as eompared with an assessment by the same government for the same year of other moneyed capital invested so as to make a profit from the use thereof as money. Puget Sound National Bank of Seattle v. King County et al., 57 Fed. Rep., $\ddagger$, $\overline{3}$.
45. The State has a right to resort to the bank as a garnishee for the collection of its claims against stockholders for taxes, and legislation may require asseesment of stock to be made to the bank in solido. First National Bank of Abordeen v. Chehalis Co. et al., Washington supreme court, Maroh 18, 1893.
46. The nontaxation of credits of individuals, such as accounts, promissory notes, and mortgages, is not unlawful disorimination against national banks whose capital is taxed. Ib.
47. A State tax upon shares is valid, thongli the tax is collected from the bank. National Bank v. Commomealth, 9 Wall., 303.
48. And the State may require the banks to pay a tax rightfully laid upon the shares. Ib.
49. And where the tax on shares is payable by the association the collection of the tax may be ouforced by distraint of its property. First National Bauk v. Douglas County, 3 Dill., 930.

TAXATION-Continued.
50. But where the tax laws of the State make the bank the mere agent for paying the tax on shares, aud direct it to retain so moch of the dividemis as will answer that purpose, other agents being requiced to pay taxes for their principals only when they hase under their control the proprerty, money, or credit of such principals, the bank can not be made liable unless it las the control of the property, etc., of its shareholders, or has dividends in its possession, or has failed to retain them. Hershire v. First Vational Bank, $3 \hat{0}$ Iowa, $\boldsymbol{g}_{7}$.
51. Act Lonisiana, 1888 , section 27, providing that shares in banks shall be assessed to shareholders, but requiring the bank to pay taxes so assessed, and anthorizing it to collect the same from the shareholders, imposes, a tax, not upon the bank, but upon its shares, as permitted by act of Congress, providing that a State may determine the manner of taxing the shares of national hanks located in the State. Whitney National Bank v. Parker, 41 Fed. Rep., 40.
52. No suit for the collection of a tax under State statutes imposed upon the shares of stock of a national bank can be maintained against the receiver of an insolvent national bank where the property represented by the shares has disappeared; for, there being nothing from which the receiver can be reimbursed, the tax will fall upou the assets of the bank, which belong to its creditors, and thereby violate the rule that a State can not tax the capital stock of a national bank. City of Boston v. Beal, 51 Fed. Rep., $30 t$.
53. Natioual-banking associations can not be subjected to a license or privilege tax. Mayor v. First National Bank of Macon, 39 Ga., 648; City of Carthage v. First National Band of Carthage, ’’ Mo., 508 ; National Bank of' Chaltinooga v. Mayor, & Heiskell, 814.
54. Municipal officers can not assess ic tax upon the shares of national-banking associations until authorized to do so by some lavo of the State. Stetsonv. City of Banger, 56 Me., 2r4.
55. The officers of a natioual-banking association can not be compelled to exhibit to the taxing officers of a State the books of the association showing the deposits of its customers. IF̈st National Bank of Youngstown v. Hughes, Browne's N. B. Cas. IVG.
56. The tax imposed on State or national banks paying out the notes of individuals or State banks for circulation is constitutional. Veazie Bank v. Fenno, 8 Wall., 53?.
57. So is the tax inposed on them for paying out the circulatiug notes of municipal corporations. Merchants' National Bank of Little Rock v. United States, 101 U. S., 1.
58. Such a tax is not a direct tax within the meaning of the clause of the Constitution which declares that "direct taxes shall be apportioned anong the several States according to their respective numbers." Veazie Bank v. Fenno and Mechanics' National Bank of Little Rock v. Enited States, supra.
59. Where the tax on shares is collected from the association it may bring a suit to enjoin the collection of an illegal tax. Cummings v. National Bank, 101 U. S., 153 ; Pelton v. Commercial Jational Bank, 101 U. S., 143 ; Boyer v. Boyer, 118, U. S., 143.
60. No suit can be maintained against the receiver of an insolvent national bank where the property represented by the shares has disappeared, under a statute which provides that shares of stock in all banks, State and national, shall be taxed to the owners thereof, to be paid in the first instance by the bank itself, which for reimbursement shall have a lien upon the shares and all the rights of the shareholders in the bank property. City of Boston v. Beal, 55 Fed. Rep., 26.
61. The imposition of a tax upon the shares of the bank according to the Lonisiana statute, which requires the bank to pay the tax and then look to the dividends upon the shares and to the stockholders for reimbursement, is a tax upon the bank itself. Cilizens' Bank of Louisiana v. Board of Assessors, 54 Fed. Rep., 73.
62. In 1856 the State of Temnessce granted to the Bank of Commerce a charter which provides that the bank "shall have a lien on the stock for debts due it by the stockholders and shall pay to the State an annual tax of oue-half of one per cent on each share of capital stock, which shall be in lieu of all other taxes." Held, that this charter exempts from taxation the property of the bank as well as the individual property of the shareholders in the corporate stock and its shares, and such construction is not affected by the fact that the United States Supremo Court decided that the charter tax was a tax on the shareholder only, and an exemption therefore of the shareholier, since such decision loes not exclude from the exemption the corporation and its property. State of Tennessee et al. v. Bank of Commerce et al., 53 Fed. Rep., 735.

63. When the statute requires property to be assessed for taxation at its cash value, a bill to onjoin the collection of a tax solely on the ground that the property of other persons is assessed below its cash value, can not be maintained by a person whose property is also assessed below that value. Albuquerque Ñational Bank v. Perea, $7 \dot{1} \%$ U. S., $9 \%$.
64. Massachnsetts laws for taxation of national banks do not deny them the equal protection of the laws guaranted by the Constitution, nor impose an unequal tax in violation of the constitution of that state. Bank of Redemption v. Boston, 125 T. S., 60.
65. If a bank by mistake declares a dividend or adds to its surplus when it is not in condition to do so, such rividend is subject to taxation and the mistake can not be corrected in action to recover the tax. Central National Bank v. United States, 137 U. S., 355.
66. When an assessment on mational-bank stock for taxation !y a State is not made in contravention of the Federal Constitution or laws. Palmerv. McMahon, 133 U. S., 660.
67. The same power of taxation in respect to national banks exists in the Territories that does in the States. T'albott v. Silver Bow County, 139 U. S., 198.
68. When increase in valuation of national-bank shares over that of the moneyed capital of individuals is a discrimination forbidden by Revised Statutes, Sec. 5219. Whitbeck v. Mercantile Bank, 127 U. S., 193.
69. Act of 1864, "to provide a national currency," etc., subjects shares of banks anthorized by it to taxation by States, though part or whole of capital is invested in national securities exempt from State taxation, and is constitutional. Van Allen v. Assessors, 3 Wall., 573.
70. New York act of 1865 , subjecting shares of national banks to taxation, but not providing that the tax should not exceed rate imposed on State banks, is void, as there was no tax on shares of State banks-only on the capital. $1 b$.
71. Shares of stock in national banks are personal property, and the law creating them could give them a citus of their own, apart from owners, for purpose of taxation. This was done by act of 1864, section 41. Tappan v. Merchants' National Bank, 19 Wall., 490.
'72. State statutes taxing shares without permitting owner to deduct bis indebteduess, as allowed to owners of other personal property, make a discrimination forbidden by acts of Congress. Supervisors v. Stanley, $105 \mathrm{U} . S ., 305$; Evansville Bank v. Britton, ib., 922.
73. State statute is not void which requires, for purposes of taxation, that the cashier of each national bank within the state transmits to clerks of several towns in State a true list of its stockholders residing there. Waite v. Dovley, 94 U. S., 527 .
74. National-bank shares can not be subjected to State taxation where a large part relatively of other moneyed capital in hands of individual citizens in same taxing district is exempted. Boyer v. Boyer, 113 U. S., 689.
75. Bank may, on behalf of stockholders, maintain suit to enjoin collection of State tax unlawfully assessed on shares. Hills v. Exchange Bank, 105 C . S., 319.
76. Act of 1866, taxing every mational bank or State bank on the amonnt of State-bank notes paid out is the proper restraint on the circulation of such notes. Veazie Bank v. Fenno, 8 Wall., 533.
Transfer of stock. See Shareholders:

1. The transfer of shares in national-banking associations is not governed by different rules from those which are ordinarily applied to the transfer of shares in other corporate bodies. Johnson v. Lafin, 103 U. S., 800.
2. The entry of the transaction in the books of the association is required, not for the translation of the title, but for the protection of the parties, and others dealing with the association, and to enable it to know who are its stockholders. Ib.
3. A shareholder in a national bank, while it is a going concern, has the absolute right, in the absence of fraud, to make a bona fide and actual sale and transfer of his shares at any tiue to any person capable in law of purchasing and holding the same, and of assmming the transferrers liabilities in respect thereto; and this right is not in such cases subject to the control of the directors or other stockholders. Johuson v. Lajlin, 5 Dill., $6=$.
4. Under the pretense of prescribing the manner thereof, an association can not clog the transfer with useless restrictions. Ib.

Thansfer of stock-Continied.
5. When a shareholder, acting in good faith, delivers his certiticates of stock, with a blank power of attorney for making the transfer, and receives the purchase money, the sale is complete and the title passes. Ib.
b. A shareholder who disposes of his stock will continue to be liable thereon untal the transfer is noted on the books of the association. Bowdell $\mathbf{v}$. Farmers and Merchants' Netional Bank of Baltimore, Browne's N. B. Cas., 14\%.
7. In such case the mere retmon of the dividends paid upon the stock to the person ly whom the transter was made will not be a sufficiont repudiation thereof. Ib.; Brown v. Izm, 34 Fod. Rep., 1 ISf.
8. A national-banking association can not acquire a lien on the stock of a shareholder. And a by-law prohibiting a transfer matil all liabilities of the shareholder to the association are discharged, or a provision to that effect in the certificatos of stock, is void. Bullard v. National Bank, 18 Wall., 589; Bank v. Lanier, 11 Wall., 369; Conklin v. The Second National Bank, 45 N. Y., 655.
9. When bank's stock is sold by aid of frandulent representations in regard to its solvency the purchaser is entitled to a complete recision of the fraudulent sale. Florida Land and Improvement Co. v. Mervill, Recciver, 53 Fed. Rep., 77.
10. When bank's stock is frandulently sold, and the proceeds are turned over to the bank, and a receiver subsequently appointed, no creditor of the bank can be said to have any such interest in the proceerls as would prevent restitution and a recision of the sale, aud such appointment of a receiver does not in itsclf show that there are creditors of the bank that had prior equities. Ib.
11. Where a cashier who is intrusted by the directors with the duty of transferring the stock of the association refuses, tor insufficient reasons, to transfer shares, and the association subsequently becomes insolvent, the owner of the shares may maintain an action against the receiver for the injury sustained. Cuse v. Citizens' Bunh, 100 U. S., 446.
12. Where a shareholder who has sold his stock has delivered to the bank the certificates of stock and a power of attorncy, with the request that the thansfer be made upon the books of the bank, and has had no reason to suppose that such transfer was not made, he will not, shonld the bank afterward become iusolvent, be held liable as a shareholder, although he still appears as such on the books of the bank. Whitney v. Butler, 118 U. S., 655.
13. But where the president of the bank is himself the purchaser of the stoek, then the delivery of the certificates and power of attorney to him with the request to make the transter upon the books of the bank would not be sufficient to discharge the seller from liability as a stockholder. Richmond v. froms, 181 U . S., g\%.
14. Where a shareholder of a mational bank makes a bona fide sale of his stock and goes with the purchaser to the bank, indorses the certificate, and delivers it to the cashier ot the bank, with directions to make the transfer on the books, he has done all that is incumbent upon him to discharge his liability, and he is not liable, thomgh the cashier failed to make the transfer, upon the subsequent suspension of the bank, for an assessment made by the Comptroller of the Curreney, under Revised Statutes, section 5151, to pay the bank's delots. Hayes v. Shoemaker, 39 Fed. Rep., 319.
15. A transfer of shares for the purpose of avoiding liability, thongh made "out and out," is void. National Bank v. Case, supra; Bowden v. Santos, 1 Hughes, 158.
16. And where a shareholder, who has knowledge of the insolvent condition of the bank, transfers his shares, withónt consideration, to a person nnable to respond to the assessment, the transfer may be set aside. Bowden v. Johnson, 107 U. S., 125.
