

ECONOMIC CONDITIONS IN 1892-1894

These excerpts are from 75 Years of American Finance: A Graphic Presentation, 1861 to 1935, an 85-foot-long timeline created in 1936 by business economist L. Merle Hostetler. Each page documents economic, political, and social developments for a single year (see the explanation of items covered and the legend at left). See the full timeline at FRASER.STLOUISFED.ORG/75YEARS/

KEY

- Unstable currency
- Public finance and debt
- Banking structure and regulation
- Excessive speculation