NATIONAL INCOME

According to preliminary estimates, national income increased about $$ 51 / 2$ billion (seasonally adjusted annual rate) between the third and fourth quarters of last year. Compensation of employees accounted for most of the rise, although gains were registered also in farm proprietors' income and net interest.

Includes emplayer contributions for social insurance. (See also p. 4.) Note.-Detail will not necessarily add to totals because of rounding.

EMPLOYMENT, UNEMPLOYMENT, AND WAGES STATUS OF THE LABOR FORCE

In line with seasonal expectations, the number unemployed remained about the same in February as in January. Both total employment (inclusive of agriculture) and the civilian labor force declined somewhat; they usually remain about the same at this time of year.

NONAGRICULTURAL EMPLOYMENT

Employment in nonagricultural establishments declined somewhat more than seasonally between January and February. In manufacturing, the decline was concentrated in durable goods, reflecting principally a drop in employment in the automobile and related industries.

PRICES

CONSUMER PRICES

The average of consumer prices declined slightly in January. Lower prices for food, housing, apparel, and transportation more than offset increases in prices of various consumer services.
