TOTAL OUTPUT, INCOME, AND SPENDING

THE NATION'S INCOME, EXPENDITURE, AND SAVING

Total income and expenditures showed a moderate rise in over-all economic activity between the fourth quarter of 1956 and the first quarter of 1957.

GROSS NATIONAL PRODUCT OR EXPENDITURE

The gross national product rose about $3 billion (seasonally adjusted annual rate) between the fourth quarter of 1956 and the first quarter of 1957. Gross private domestic investment was the only major sector registering a decline, which was due to inventory changes.

² Includes expenditures for military services, international security and foreign relations (except foreign loans), development and control of atomic energy, promotion of the merchant marine, promotion of defense production and economic stabilization, and civil defense. For further details, see Economic Report of the President, January 1955 (p. 137), and National Income, 1954 Edition (p. 148). These expenditures are not comparable with the "major national security" category in The Budget of the U. S. Government for the Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 1958, and shown on p. 31 of Economic Indicators.

GROSS PRIVATE DOMESTIC INVESTMENT

Gross private domestic investment (seasonally adjusted) fell in the first quarter of 1957. Investment in producers' durable equipment continued to rise; residential outlays declined again; and nonresidential construction increased slightly. Inventories were liquidated at an annual rate of $1.2 billion.

² Commercial and other includes trade, service, finance, communications, and construction.

³ Estimates based on anticipated capital expenditures as reported by business in late April and May 1957.

NOTE.—Annual total is the sum of seasonally unadjusted expenditures; it does not necessarily coincide with the average of seasonally adjusted figures, which include adjustments, when necessary, for systematic tendencies in anticipatory data.

These figures do not agree with the totals included in the gross national product estimates of the Department of Commerce, principally because the latter cover agricultural investment and also certain equipment and construction outlays charged to current expense.

Detail will not necessarily add to totals because of rounding.

NONAGRICULTURAL EMPLOYMENT

Total employment in nonagricultural establishments again rose about seasonally between April and May. Sharp seasonal gains in employment in nonmanufacturing industries, largely contract construction, were offset by a more than seasonal drop in manufacturing.

NEW CONSTRUCTION

Total construction expenditures (seasonally adjusted) remained in May at the high level of earlier months. Non-residential private outlays showed renewed strength. Because of revised estimates mainly for residential additions and alterations in recent years, the level of expenditures is raised by about $2 billion a year.

FEDERAL FINANCE

BUDGET RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES

The cumulative budget deficit for the first 10 months of the current fiscal year was $3.2 billion, compared to $2.6 billion for the same period in fiscal 1956. Higher national security expenditures largely account for the difference.
