

Press Information

Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis
St. Louis, Missouri 63166

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 25, 1976

William J. Sneed has been appointed an Assistant Vice President of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis. His appointment, made by the Board of Directors of this bank, becomes effective September 1, 1976. He succeeds Janes M. Geiger, who will effect regular service retirement on September 1, 1976, under provisions of the Retirement System of the Federal Reserve Banks.

A native of St. Louis, Missouri, Mr. Sneed holds an Associates Degree in Mechanical Technology from Washington University, St. Louis. He joined the bank in August 1957, serving in the Purchasing Department, left shortly thereafter to enter the U. S. Coast Guard, and returned to the Purchasing Department in June 1959. He joined the Building Department of the bank in June 1960, serving in various capacities until he was named Electrical Supervisor in October 1966. In March 1972 "Bill" Sneed was named Supervisor - Building Maintenance, and in January 1974 was advanced to his present position of Superintendent of Buildings. As Assistant Vice President, he will be in charge of the Building and Protection Departments.

- end -