FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

St. Louis, Mo. (December 29, 1978) -- Carol B. Claypool has been appointed vice president in charge of the Data Processing and Data Systems Support Departments at the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, it was announced today by St. Louis Reserve President Lawrence K. Roos.

A native of Manitowoc, Wisconsin, and a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Mrs. Claypool has been employed at the Federal Reserve Bank since 1970. Originally a systems analyst in the Bank's Planning Department, she was named senior software specialist in 1972 and manager of Data Systems Support in 1973. She was named an assistant vice president, her present position, in 1974.

Mrs. Claypool's new appointment is effective on January 1.
