FOR RELEASE FEBRUARY 15, 1996

ST. LOUIS -- Lee Frazier, vice president of St. Vincent Infirmary Medical Center in Little Rock, has been appointed to the board of directors of the Little Rock Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis. He fills the unexpired portion of a three-year term ending Dec. 31, 1996.

Frazier is a founding member of the Aerospace Education Center, treasurer of the Little Rock Port Authority, a board member of the Arkansas Advocates for Women and Children, a board member of the Arkansas Symphony Orchestra and treasurer for the executive committee of the Greater Little Rock Chamber of Commerce. He has a bachelor of science degree in business from Loyola University and a master's degree in hospital administration from Tulane University.

The Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis has branches in Memphis, Little Rock and Louisville. It serves the Eighth Federal Reserve District, which includes all of Arkansas, eastern Missouri, southern Indiana, southern Illinois, western Kentucky, western Tennessee and northern Mississippi. In addition to serving as a bank for depository institutions and the U.S. government, each Reserve Bank supervises state-chartered member banks and bank holding companies, monitors economic conditions in the District and participates in formulating monetary policy.
