

NEWS RELEASE

---

The Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis
St. Louis Little Rock Louisville Memphis

For release: January 24, 1997

Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis Announces Officer Changes

Contact: Charles B. Henderson (314) 444-8311

ST. LOUIS — The Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis announced the following officer changes:

Marilyn K. Corona, assistant vice president of the Little Rock Branch, will return to St. Louis as vice president of Corporate Accounting and Customer Relations. She joined the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis in 1985 as a senior analyst. She has a bachelor of science degree in business administration from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, and has completed the Executive Development Program at Northwestern University's Kellogg Graduate School of Management.

Michael J. Mueller, assistant vice president of Personnel, has been named vice president. Mueller began his career with the Federal Reserve in 1982 at the Kansas City Fed. He came to the St. Louis Fed in 1984 as a technical analyst in Support Services, and has held a number of positions in both administration and operations. Mueller has a bachelor of science degree in business administration from the University of Missouri-Columbia.

(more)

St. Louis Fed Officer Changes/2

John W. Mitchell, manager, Corporate Accounting, has been named operations officer for the Memphis Branch and will be responsible for the Cash and Securities Department.

Mitchell began his career at the Bank in 1985 as a staff auditor. He has a bachelor of science degree in accounting and a bachelor of science degree in finance, both from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

Joseph A. Ritter, senior economist, has been promoted to research officer. He joined the Bank in 1992. Prior to the Fed, Ritter was an assistant professor of economics at the University of Texas at Austin and a visiting professor at Yale University. He has a bachelor's degree in economics from Pomona College in Claremont, Calif., and a doctorate in economics from the University of Michigan.

Diane B. Camerlo, senior attorney, has been named assistant counsel for the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis. Camerlo began her career at the Bank in 1992. Her experience prior to joining the Bank included a partnership in Fuller & Henry, a law firm in Toledo, Ohio. She received a bachelor's degree in sociology and English from Denison University in Granville, Ohio, and a law degree from Franklin Pierce Law Center in Concord, N.H.

(more)

St. Louis Fed Officer Changes/3

W. Scott McBride, senior attorney, has been named assistant counsel for the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis. He began his career at the Bank in 1992. Before joining the St. Louis Fed, his experience included a position as staff attorney with the Eighth Circuit United States Court of Appeals. McBride has a bachelor of arts degree from Michigan State University and a law degree from Washington University in St. Louis.

Daniel P. Brennan, senior manager, has been promoted to public affairs officer. Brennan joined the Bank in 1979 as an editor. He has a bachelor of arts degree in English and a bachelor of journalism degree, both from the University of Missouri-Columbia.

John P. Baumgartner, vice president and manager of the Memphis Branch, will return to St. Louis as vice president of Wholesale and Cash Operations, as well as Treasury Relations. He joined the St. Louis Fed in 1970, serving in a number of positions, primarily in Research, Cash, Credit Discount and Accounting. Baumgartner has a bachelor of arts degree in management and a master's degree in finance from Webster University.

Martha L. Perine, vice president of Personnel and Customer Relations, has been named manager of the Memphis Branch. She has a bachelor of arts degree in business administration from Clark Atlanta University in Atlanta, Georgia, and a master of science degree in economics from Washington University in St. Louis.

(more)

St. Louis Fed Officer Changes/4

The Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis has branches in Little Rock, Louisville and Memphis. It serves the Eighth Federal Reserve District, which includes all of Arkansas, eastern Missouri, southern Indiana, southern Illinois, western Kentucky, western Tennessee and northern Mississippi. In addition to serving as a bank for depository institutions and the U.S. government, each Reserve Bank supervises state-chartered member banks and bank holding companies, monitors economic conditions in the District and participates in formulating monetary policy.

###