Yarnell Appointed to St. Louis Fed's Little Rock Branch Board of Directors

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — A. Rogers Yarnell II has been appointed to a three-year term on the board of directors for the Little Rock Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System in Washington, D.C. Yarnell is president of Yarnell Ice Cream Company in Searcy, Ark.

He is also a director of the American Diabetes Association of Arkansas, a chapter officer of the Young President's Organization-Arkansas, and a member of the executive advisory board of the University of Arkansas School of Business at Fayetteville.

The Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis has branches in Little Rock, Louisville and Memphis. The St. Louis Fed serves the Eighth Federal Reserve District, which includes all of Arkansas, eastern Missouri, southern Indiana, southern Illinois, western Kentucky, western Tennessee and northern Mississippi. In addition to serving as a bank for depository institutions and the U.S. government, each Reserve Bank monitors economic conditions in its District, participates in formulating monetary policy, and supervises state-chartered member banks and bank holding companies to foster safety and soundness of its District's banking and financial institutions and protect the credit rights of consumers.
