Columbia National Bank

Fourth avenue is the finance street in Pittsburgh; Wood street is a long established commercial artery. Columbia National Bank stands at the intersection, in the very center of financial and commercial activities. For more than thirty years it has served Pittsburgh customers and the ever widening circle of its influence keeps the institution in touch with the manifold business activities of the community.

The Directors are prominent in Pittsburgh commercial life and familiar with industrial conditions throughout the country. The officers are trained banking men who realize that prompt collection of drafts, checks and foreign bills of exchange mean the greater use of capital. Adequate facilities have been provided for prompt service along these lines and the institution invites you to make use of these facilities.

Gentlemen:-

Please supply us with about three hundred (300) cards like specimen enclosed, which we have been sending out in reply to requests for ratings.

It might interest you to know that we have sent these out with our replies in every case where we have answered requests for ratings and believe that without a single exception we have received proper compensation for our services by stamps sent in return. Many of the firms that we have served have commented favorably on the system which we use, and only recently a card came back with this notation. "We enclose 25c for report and assure you that we are glad to do it. Wish all banks would use the same system". We are so pleased with them that we are glad to give you this information.

Yours very truly,
J. H. YOUNG, Asst. Cashier.

If you are not using a bold type for your name in our list, you should write for terms.
