YOUR new Blue Book gives you the latest and most complete bank information available—arranged in 18 convenient columns—condensed to thousands of dollars—stripped of insignificant figure digits—accessible at a glance.

With this columnar arrangement of data there is no time lost in trying to segregate the particular item you are seeking from a jumbled mass of facts. There is no time lost in comparing a given figure with a similar one in another institution, for you simply “run your eye” down the column and locate the corresponding item instantly.

Bankers tell us this style helps them answer their own and customers’ questions more promptly with less effort. Business executives say it is a money saver, because their clerks can check a greater number of banks in less time.

Provide a copy of the new Blue Book for every officer. Also, keep one on the counter for customers’ use—it will not only save your time, but your customers will appreciate this extra service.

Practical Usefulness!

New Jersey Bank Uses Bankers Monthly Article In Its Advertising

AN EXAMPLE of the practical use of articles published in Rand McNally Bankers Monthly comes to hand from the Fidelity Union Trust Company of Newark, N. J. The officers of this Trust Company reading the article by J. V. Tuttle, which appeared several months ago in the pages of this magazine, saw in its title "Runaway Loans" a thought that could be more easily put over by reprinting the article itself than in any other way.

Reproduced on this page is the folder in which the article was printed. On the front is a notation:

"The article reproduced here is taken from a story written by J. V. Tuttle, which appeared in the March issue of Rand McNally Bankers Monthly. While the story may seem fictitious, it illustrates the trend of thought among bankers today and we bring it to your attention because this bank is also seeking good commercial loans."

You may remember that the article tells of several specific cases in which bankers discovered that some of their customers were either borrowing money outside of their own city or accepting long terms on goods purchased at a higher price, which was actually the same thing, and cost more than if the money had been borrowed locally.

Every issue of Bankers Monthly contains many practical ideas that are being used daily by bankers throughout the nation.

Your Most Important Customers Need World-Wide Banking Data

YOUR most important customers now require complete national and international banking information. For example: the Manufacturer, who is developing his markets; the Importer, who is concerned with international shipping and foreign exchange; the Globe-Trotter, who wants foreign as well as domestic financial information—all of these people naturally look to their bank for authentic, up-to-date World-wide banking facts.

These are the types of accounts you wish to keep, and with the new Blue Book handy, you are fully equipped to extend complete service to them.

For greater efficiency, every officer serving this type of depositor should have the latest Blue Book at his elbow.

Complete Foreign Banking Data

Your new Blue Book lists banks in all parts of the globe, giving their statements together with their official personnel and principal correspondents.

Its Bank-Recommended Attorney Section lists properly qualified lawyers all over the World. When internationally-minded customers need confidential legal service, refer them to the most select law list in print—your Blue Book Attorney list.

Another section shows the rates for postage and parcel post to any country in the World. As an added help, the foreign bank section contains up-to-date maps of Europe, Africa, Asia, England, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.
