COMPILED or COPIED?

Fact and Figures, alone, are of little value unless they are subject to comparison and analysis. Bank statements (as published in various forms by the banks) defy either comparison or analysis.

is why EVERY statement is broken down into its basic elements, by our Classification Staff, analyzed and re-assembled according to a uniform pattern—all before it can be published in the BLUE BOOK.

Only in the BLUE BOOK will you find Every Statement COMPILED, not merely COPIED; to insure quick reference and intelligent comparison.

Must She Sit Idle ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

because YOU don't have a Blue Book on YOUR Desk?

Are you wasting, literally, HOURS, of staff time—not only secretarial, but clerical and executive, as well—because there aren't enough Bankers Directories available for immediate use by any member of the staff at any time?

Are you trying to operate a "2 Blue Book bank" with only a single copy available? Are you, perchance, "economizing" with three copies—when your staff should have five to work at maximum efficiency?

That kind of "economy" is EXPENSIVE!

If you are to keep abreast of Today's increased tempo, you must make certain that the very latest and most complete bank information is always available to every worker who needs it—immediately available, without the waste of so much as 30 seconds of valuable time.

A bank that is inadequately supplied with Blue Book copies is throwing away the price of an extra copy—every few weeks—in wasted time. A single mistake—made because the only Blue Book was inaccessible or at the far end of the bank—can cost you more than 10 additional copies.

Survey your bank's Blue Book requirements, today. Make a point of insisting that an additional copy be supplied wherever needed.

That is REAL "Directory economy"

 important features of currency

TYPES OF CURRENCY

The only three types of currency printed by the United States Government for circulation are:

1. Federal Reserve Notes, which bear Green serial numbers and seal.
2. United States Notes, which bear Red numbers and seal.
3. Silver Certificates, which bear Blue numbers and seal.

PORTRAITS

Denominations of bills may be identified by portraits as follows:

Washington	on all	$1.00	bills
Jefferson	on all	$2.00	bills
Lincoln	on all	$5.00	bills
Hamilton	on all	$10.00	bills
Jackson	on all	$20.00	bills
Grant	on all	$50.00	bills
Franklin	on all	$100.00	bills

How to Detect Counterfeit Bills

1. Know Your Money! 2. Compare the suspected bill with a genuine of the same type and denomination. Observe carefully the following features:

(a) Portrait: Genuine is lifelike, stands out from oval background which is a fine screen of regular lines; notice particularly the eyes. The counterfeit is dull, smudgy or unnaturally white; scratchy; background is dark with irregular and broken lines.

(b) Seal: On genuine, sawtooth points around rim are identical and sharp. On counterfeit sawtooth points are usually different, uneven, broken off.

(c) Serial Numbers: Genuine distinctive style, firmly and evenly printed; same color as seal. Counterfeit, style different, poorly printed, badly spaced, uneven in appearance.

(d) Paper: Genuine bills are printed on distinctive paper containing very small red and blue silk threads.

3. Rubbing a bill will not prove whether it is genuine or counterfeit; ink will rub off of either.

4. Remember—Not all strangers are counterfeiters, but all counterfeiters are likely to be strangers!

COMPARE IT WITH A GENUINE BILL!

THE COUNTERFEIT PORTRAIT WILL BE EITHER TOO BLACK OR TOO LIGHT, AND WILL LACK THE DELICATE DETAIL OF THE GENUINE.

WHEN A STRANGER GIVES YOU A COUNTERFEIT BILL

1. DO NOT RETURN IT!
2. TELEPHONE POLICE AT ONCE!
3. DELAY THE PASSER UNDER A PRETEXT.
4. AVOID ARGUMENT; IF NECESSARY, TELL THEM THE POLICE WILL HANDLE THE MATTER.
5. WRITE DOWN A DESCRIPTION IF THE PASSER LEAVES.
6. TAKE THE TAG NUMBERS OF ANY CARS INVOLVED.

The percentages shown represent the statutory reserve requirements. The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System may by regulation change these requirements, but the amount of reserves required to be maintained as the result of any such change may not be less than the amount required by the statute, as shown above, nor more than twice such statutory requirements. The Board has increased the statutory reserve requirements on both demand and time deposits by 50 per cent effective August 16, 1936, by 75 per cent effective March 1, 1937, and by 100 per cent effective May 1, 1937, and on April 16, 1938, reduced the requirements to 75 per cent. On November 1, 1941 the Board again increased statutory requirements by 100 per cent to the following percentages:

TIME SCHEDULE AND OTHER INFORMATION RELATIVE TO THE COLLECTION OF CASH ITEMS

Availability. Member and nonmember clearing banks which, for purposes of collection, send cash items payable at par to Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland may use any of the three following procedures.

Banks which elect to send cash items in one letter, or in two letters, will be expected to send substantially all out-of-town items to this bank since credit for such items is based on average deferred availability and contemplates the carrying of minimum debit float by the Federal reserve bank. Excess balances resulting from the collection of cash items may, at the request of member or nonmember clearing banks, be transferred to correspondent bank accounts in accordance with the provisions of Operating Letter No. 9.

One Cash Letter. When all cash items are included in one letter, credit will be deferred two business days after receipt.

Two Cash Letters. One letter should contain cash items for which immediate credit may be obtained; the other letter should contain all other cash items. When all cash items are sent in this manner, the "immediate" letter will be credited on day of receipt subject to the provision of the time schedule incorporated in this letter. The other letter will be credited two business days after receipt.

Four Cash Letters. One letter should contain cash items for which immediate credit may be obtained; the second letter should contain cash items for which credit is deferred one business day; the third letter should contain cash items for which credit is deferred two business days, and the fourth letter should contain all other cash items. When cash items are sent in this manner, appropriate credit will be given for the immediate, one- and two-day letters. Credit for the fourth letter will be deferred three business days after receipt.

Bank Drafts. Drafts of member and nonmember clearing banks, drawn on their correspondent banks for the purpose of transferring funds to the Federal reserve bank for their accounts, should be enclosed in a separate letter and credit will be deferred on the basis of the actual time necessary for collection. Other bank drafts will be accepted as ordinary cash items.

Closing Time. Cash items which are subject to deferred credit will be accepted at Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland and its Cincinnati or Pittsburgh branch in accordance with this schedule until 5:00 o'clock p. m. on Mondays to Fridays, inclusive, except legal holidays, and until 2:00 o'clock p. m. on Saturdays and parts of days established as legal half-holidays in the State of Ohio or the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Cash items of $500.00 and over will be accepted one hour later than the stated hours if listed in separate cash letters.

Description of Cash Items. Cash letters must show opposite the amount of each item either the name and location of the drawee bank or its A.B.A. transit number, unless a member or a nonmember clearing bank of the Fourth Federal Reserve District desires to eliminate such description through the use of photographic equipment. Arrangements may be made to retain photographic films at the office of the sending bank upon written request to Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland.

Each bank sending cash items to a Federal reserve bank will be understood to have agreed to indemnify the reserve bank to which the items are sent, and in the case of items sent direct to the reserve bank of another district also to have agreed to indemnify the reserve bank in the district in which the sending bank is located against loss or expense resulting from delay in advising nonpayment of any item where such delay is due, in whole or in part, to the lack of description, or to the erroneous, incomplete, or defective description of the item by the sending bank.

Banks which use photographic equipment to describe cash items and send such items to this bank or direct to other Federal reserve banks or branches for the account of this bank, accompanied only by adding machine tape, should properly identify each tape. This may be accomplished either by pasting the tape on cash letter forms or by enclosing the tape in an envelope bearing adequate identification.

Direct Sending of Cash Items. Member or nonmember clearing banks having a substantial volume of cash items payable in other Federal reserve districts and desiring a more direct and rapid method of presentation, should obtain permission from this bank to send such items direct to the Federal reserve bank of the district in which they are payable. Schedules of availability based on either train or air-mail service will be provided upon request.

P R E F A C E

Several years ago various numerical systems for registering out-of-town items, commonly known as transit items, by the use of numbers instead of names to designate the endorsers and drawees, were used by many banks in the principal banking centers of the country. It was the custom for each bank to provide a system of its own by supplying correspondents with numbered endorsement stamps, without any regard to uniformity of numbers. This resulted in banks having as many different numbers assigned to them as they had correspondents, and caused complications and confusion in handling transit items.

In 1910, the American Bankers Association, realizing the necessity for a uniform system of bank numbers, which would provide every bank in the United States with a definite number of its own, evolved and worked out the details for numbering all the banks in the country. The Executive Council of the American Bankers Association at its meeting in Nashville, May 2, 1911, unanimously adopted this Universal Numerical System and authorized the publication of this book containing the names of the banks and the numbers assigned.

Explanation of System

The reserve cities were each designated by a prefix number, with the exception of Brooklyn, which was included with New York City; Kansas City, Kan., which was included with Kansas City, Mo.; and South Omaha, which was included with Omaha. Buffalo, N. Y., and Memphis, Tenn., on account of their size and importance as banking centers were included with the reserve cities. The cities were numbered from 1 to 49, inclusive, in the order of their population according to the Government Census of 1910. The lower numbers were thus assigned to the larger cities.

The Treasurer of the United States and the Post Offices were also numbered in these cities. Numbers have not been provided for Express Companies, Railroads, or Mercantile Firms. If the clearinghouse associations in any of the forty-nine cities wish to have additional numbers supplied for Express Companies, Railroads, or Firms upon which checks are drawn, they are requested to forward a list of such names to the Secretary of the Bank Management Commission of The American Bankers Association, 22 East 40th Street, New York City, and the numbers will be provided.

The prefix numbers from 50 to 99, inclusive, have been assigned to the states, which have been divided into five sections. Those containing the principal collecting centers, namely, New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Missouri, and California, have been given the first numbers in their respective sections, 50-60-70-80-90, to indicate that the following numbers in each section represent the states in the same territory. Number 59 has been assigned as a prefix number for the use of territories—the first hundred suffix numbers for the use of Alaskan banks, the next hundred for the Hawaiian banks, and the next hundred for Puerto Rican banks. Number 89 is left blank for future assignment. With the exception of the five states heading each section, the states were numbered in alphabetical order in each section.

The prefix numbers of the cities and states may be found on page 3.

The state prefix numbers, together with clearinghouse numbers, were used in numbering the banks in the largest city in each state other than the reserve cities, which were designated by prefix numbers of their own, thus permitting the use of the clearinghouse numbers for the banks in such cities, all other cities being designated by the use of the state prefix and the numbers given to the banks, which are continued in the relative order of the population of the cities in each state. Each bank is numbered in consecutive order according to seniority in each city or town, excepting in towns having only one bank, in which case the banks are numbered in alphabetical order according to towns.

Blank numbers are left to be assigned to new banks in all cities of 5,000 population and over and also at the end of each state.

Rand McNally & Company of Chicago, publishers of the Key to Numerical System of The American Bankers Association, will assign numbers to new banks as they are organized and will supply, upon request, the number of any bank which does not appear in the Key, and in March and September each year, beginning March, 1912, will publish and supply upon request, free of charge, supplements containing all changes which have taken place since any previous issue of the Key or of any supplement. A new edition of the Key, however, may take the place of any supplement.

The American Bankers Association earnestly solicits your co-operation in making the use of the System universal.

First: By beginning at once to endorse all items with an endorsement stamp bearing the number assigned to your bank. Numbers should be placed on the stamps as shown in the following specimen:

Any Bank, Banker or Trust Co.

Second: By printing in plain figures the number assigned to your bank on all checks drawn on your bank and on Certificates of Deposit and Cashiers' Checks. The numbers to be printed immediately following the name of the bank as shown in the following specimen.

The universal use of the Numerical System of registering transit items has resulted in an immense saving in time, labor and money. It symbolizes modern business efficiency.

Following is an illustration of the application of the Numerical System in registering out-of-town items:

Simplified Banking Forms and Procedure

A constant increase in salaries and wages in relation to gross income of banks stresses the fact that bank operating methods perhaps have received too little attention. In many banks will be found duplicate and useless procedures. In addition, there will be many sizes of forms which can easily be simplified and reduced to a few standard sizes. Odd-sized forms require special filing equipment, which is expensive. Perhaps duplicate records which are being kept are unnecessary.

These facts led the Bank Management Commission of the American Bankers Association to study banking procedures and forms in order that it might make recommendations to banks to help them eliminate duplicate records and unnecessary procedures and to reduce forms to a few standard sizes—with a minimum number of different types. In this way, printing costs will be reduced to a minimum, and banks will be able to make the best use of their employees' working time with a maximum of efficiency. This, of course, will assist banks in complying with the Wages and Hours Act.

A Manual of Forms and Procedure

The results of the Commission's study on this subject are embodied in a book, entitled "Simplified Banking Forms and Procedure." It is divided into ten chapters dealing with the following:

- Paying and Receiving
- Interior Proof and Transit
- Bookkeeping
- Analysis
- Loans and Discounts
- Collection, Drafts, Certification and Returns
- Savings
- General Ledger
- Sundry Functions
- General Forms (including legal forms)

In each chapter, the banking procedure with which it is concerned is set forth, step by step, in the order in which the particular banking transaction is to be followed through. With the procedure, are illustrated the forms recommended for use. The illustration carries with it specifications as to size, stock, color of stock, and color of printing. It also shows the manner in which the form is to be filled out.

The book is in loose-leaf form to permit insertion of supplements to be issued from time to time. The sections are separated by tabbed divider sheets. The book measures $6\frac{5}{8}'' \times 9\frac{1}{2}''$ —a convenient size for easy handling.

Economies Made Possible

If banks will put the recommendations of this book into practice, it will save them a great deal of money in eliminating useless, duplicate and inefficient procedures and forms, cut down printing costs, eliminate machines now being used on useless routine, speed up the handling of items, increase bank operating efficiency in general, and reduce expenses on personnel, equipment, operations and banking space. It will facilitate the location and correction of errors, permit work to flow more smoothly and uninterruptedly, make possible better window service to bank customers, provide detailed records necessary for efficient management, and help to control overtime.

This book can be obtained from the Bank Management Commission of the American Bankers Association, 22 East 40th Street, New York City, at $3.00 per copy.

Simplification of Checks, Drafts, Notes and Other Commercial Instruments

Representatives of the American Bankers Association, the National Association of Manufacturers, the United Typothetae of America, the National Association of Purchasing Agents, the Railway Accounting Officers Association, the Association of Bank and Commercial Stationers, the Lithographers Cooperative Association, the Railway Treasury Officers Association, the National Association of Employing Lithographers, the Federal Government, and other interested groups, convened in a general conference under the auspices of the Division of Simplified Practice of the U. S. Department of Commerce on December 4, 1925, and adopted definite sizes of commercial instruments as well as uniformity in arrangement of subject matter on the face of checks and voucher checks. These recommendations have been periodically reaffirmed without change by the Standing Committee responsible for reviewing the recommendations. The sizes and arrangement of instruments are as follows:

Bank Drafts, Certificates of Deposit, Cashier's Checks, Special or Individual Checks, Customer's Drafts, Notes, Trade Acceptances; Voucher Checks, Collateral Notes, Special Notes (when folded), and other similar Instruments.	}	$3\frac{3}{8} \times 8\frac{3}{8}$ inches
---	---	---

Deposit Slips— $3\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ inches or multiples of $6\frac{7}{8}$ inches.

Customer's Checks, Counter Checks— $3\frac{1}{16} \times 8\frac{1}{4}$ inches.

Pocket Checks— $2\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{1}{4}$ inches. (End Stub for Pocket Checks when not interleaved, including binding margin— $2\frac{3}{4} \times 2\frac{1}{8}$ inches.)

Uniformity in arrangement of subject matter on the face of checks and voucher checks was decided upon by a special committee of the conference in cooperation with the officials of the Federal Reserve Board. As the committee's action becomes a part of the recommendation of the whole conference, their findings are incorporated herein. In the exhibits shown the check number, date, transit and Federal Reserve Bank numbers, amount in figures, and signature all appear on the right side of all checks except those drawn in draft style. Instruments similar in arrangement to the draft will differ therefrom only in having the name of the bank and transit number appear in the left-hand corner. In the case of bank drafts, the transit number of the drawee bank should appear at the left of the name of the bank, and as the name of the bank drawing the check (for example—cashier's check)—appears at the top of the check, the transit number of the drawing bank will appear at the right of its name.

The conference further recommended, that banks desiring to clear their checks through branch Federal reserve banks indicate this on their checks by placing after the Federal reserve district number the first three or four letters of the name of the city in which the Federal reserve branch is located. For instance, Buffalo may be represented as follows: $50-772.$ $87-313.$
 2 Buff. 6 Nash. Nashville, 6 Nash.

Advertising matter, pictures, etc., should be omitted as far as possible from the face of checks and voucher checks. Where, however, it is felt necessary to show trade-marks, insignia or other display, such design should appear in the upper left-hand corner of check. Such designs should not encroach upon space to be used for payee's name or other essential features.

The Committee on Standard Forms, Reports and Records of the Bank Management Commission of the American Bankers Association is as follows:

Ben E. Young, Vice President National Bank of Detroit, Detroit, Michigan, Chairman.
 William J. Kinnamon, Cashier Hunterdon County National Bank, Flemington, N. J.

Counter checks are to be the same size as the National Standard Customer's Checks.

It is appreciated that some difficulty perhaps may arise with the comparatively few bank customers who request checks or vouchers to suit their own ideas, or forms which are intended primarily to be advertisements and only incidentally to serve as checks. Nevertheless it is strongly urged that every possible effort be made by printers and lithographers to submit to interested banks any unusual forms requested, before filling such orders. It is believed that the desired results can be obtained if banks will explain clearly to their customers the unnecessary costliness of handling checks non-standard either in size or form.

The Simplified Practice Recommendation on the subject of checks, drafts, notes, and similar commercial instruments was re-affirmed, without change, in February, 1938, by the special committee having it in charge. The continued co-operation of all banks in support of this program is solicited.

Note: The space reserved for approvals may be divided to accommodate 1, 2, or 3, as desired.

The above is a facsimile of the National Standard Voucher Check, and provides space for stating detail in which six lines of pica typewriting may be accommodated. When this space is insufficient the details covered by the payment may ordinarily be taken care of by a memorandum enclosure, but where a larger size voucher check is considered necessary, it should be $6\frac{3}{8} \times 8\frac{3}{8}$ inches.

When folded the size would be $3\frac{3}{8} \times 8\frac{3}{8}$ inches and the negotiable part, or face, should conform to the National Standard Voucher Check shown above; the form should be so arranged that endorsements and bank stamps may be affixed without unfolding. The inside, or folded-in part of the form would be devoted to the lengthy statement of detail incident to the payment.

The endorsement of the payee in usual form is to be the only receipt required on voucher checks.

RECOMMENDED STANDARD WINDOW ENVELOPE

A standard window envelope—size $3\frac{5}{8}$ inches by $8\frac{3}{8}$ inches—with standard cut of window opening $1\frac{1}{4}$ inches by 4 inches, located $\frac{5}{8}$ inch from left margin of envelope and $1\frac{3}{8}$ inch from bottom of envelope, should be used for mailing of National Standard Voucher Checks and other commercial forms or instruments measuring $3\frac{3}{8} \times 8\frac{3}{8}$ inches.
