Treasury Financing Operations

Historical details of Treasury market financing operations involving bonds, notes, and certificates of indebtedness, beginning with November 1944, are published in the tables on pages 28 and 29. Details of weekly Treasury bill offerings are shown on page 30.

2-1/2% Treasury Bonds, Investment Series

On August 18, 1947, the Secretary of the Treasury announced that a 2-1/2 percent nonmarketable bond would be offered in the latter part of September. The principal terms of the bonds were announced on September 22. The bonds were offered on September 29, 1947, and the subscription books were closed on October 8, 1947. The bonds were dated October 1, 1947, will mature October 1, 1965, and are designated 2-1/2 percent Treasury Bonds, Investment Series A-1965. The amount of the offering was not specifically limited.

The bonds may not be called for redemption by the Secretary of the Treasury prior to maturity. Holders will be given the option of reselling them on and after April 1, 1948, on the day of any calendar month, on one month's notice in writing, at fixed redemption values. A table showing investment yields and redemption values by six months' periods appears on following page.

These bonds were available for subscription only by or for account of the following classes of organizations and funds doing business in the United States, its Territories, and possessions:

1. Insurance companies
2. Savings banks
3. Savings and loan associations and building and loan associations, and cooperative banks
4. Pension and retirement funds, including those of the Federal, State, and local governments
5. Fraternal benefit associations
6. Endowment funds
7. Credit unions
8. Commercial and industrial banks holding savings deposits or issuing time certificates of deposit in the names of individuals, and of corporations, associations, and other organizations not operated for profit.

Subscriptions from or for account of such investors (except commercial and industrial banks) were limited to an amount (adjusted to the next higher multiple of $5,000) not in excess of 25 percent of the increase in the amount of net assets <sup>1/</sup> between December 31, 1946, and June 30, 1947, as shown by the financial statements of the subscribers, or $250,000, whichever was greater. Copies of the financial statements from eligible subscribers were required to support subscriptions in excess of $250,000.

Subscriptions from commercial and industrial banks eligible to subscribe were limited to an amount (adjusted to the next higher multiple of $5,000) not in excess of 25 percent of the increase in the combined amount of time certificates of deposit (but only those issued in the names of individuals, and of corporations, associations, and other organizations not operated for profit), and of savings deposits, between December 31, 1946, and June 30, 1947, as certified by an officer of the subscribing bank, or $25,000, whichever was greater.

In addition to the bonds allotted to the classes of subscribers, listed above, the Secretary of the Treasury reserved the right to make an allotment of these bonds to Government investment accounts.

The bonds were issued in registered form only, and in denominations of $5,000, $10,000, $100,000, and $1,000,000 (maturity values).

Subscriptions were required to be accompanied by payment in full at par and accrued interest, if any, for the amount of bonds applied for.

<sup>1/</sup> Net assets, for this purpose, meant the amount of total assets less outstanding indebtedness for borrowed money, and total assets of insurance companies meant the total admitted assets calculated in accordance with the laws of the States in which the company is organized or licensed.

Refunding certificate and note maturities

On August 18, 1947, the Secretary also announced the plans for refunding the $6,736 million of securities maturing in September. The securities maturing consisted of an issue of 7/8 percent certificates of indebtedness maturing September 1 in the amount of $2,341 million, and two issues of Treasury notes falling due

September 15, a 1-1/4 percent issue of $1,687 million and a 1-1/2 percent issue of $2,707 million.

In exchange for the maturing certificates there was offered, par for par, an issue of 10-month certificates, dated September 1, 1947, bearing interest from that date at the rate of 7/8 percent per annum, payable with the principal at maturity on July 1, 1948. They were issued in bearer form only, in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000, and $1,000,000.

Subscription books were opened on August 20 and were closed at the close of business on August 22. Exchange subscriptions for the new issue amounted to $2,209 million, leaving $132 million to be paid in cash.

In exchange for the maturing notes there was offered an issue of 12-1/2 month Treasury notes dated September 15, 1947, bearing interest from that date at the rate of one percent per annum, payable with the principal at maturity on October 1, 1948. The notes were issued in bearer form only, in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000, and $1,000,000.

Subscription books were opened on September 2 and were closed at the close of business on September 4. Exchange subscriptions for the 1-1/4 percent note amounted to $1,512 million, leaving $175 million to be paid in cash. For the 1-1/2 percent note, exchange subscriptions amounted to $2,580 million, leaving $128 million to be paid in cash.

On the basis of reports to the Treasury on the ownership of Government securities, it is estimated that on July 31, 1947, about 60 percent of the three issues of securities which matured in September was owned by reporting commercial banks and the Federal Reserve Banks. The ownership figures for July 31 are the latest available. The following table summarizes the relation of the ownership distribution to the amounts outstanding of each of the three issues.

TREASURY CASH INCOME AND OUTGO

The tables which follow present revised figures on Treasury cash operating income and outgo for recent years and months. The revisions in the old series are minor, particularly in the case of the net cash operating income or outgo, where revisions in the annual figures average about $60 million. Both the cash operating income and cash operating outgo totals are lower in the new series, principally because payroll deductions for Federal Government employees' retirement are now considered as noncash transactions whereas in the old series they were treated as cash budget expenditures and cash trust fund receipts.

The new series of tables has been designed to provide currently a rather detailed analysis of the adjustments needed to translate budget and trust fund transactions in the Daily Treasury Statement to a cash operating basis. Another feature of the revised tables is to extend the analysis of cash operating income and outgo to include a statement on cash borrowing and repayment of borrowing, thus permitting a reconciliation of the cash operating income and outgo figures with changes in the Treasury General Fund balance.

The purpose of developing Treasury cash operating income and outgo figures is to bring together an analysis of the flow of funds to and from the Federal Government. Figures relating to such a flow of funds of necessity must eliminate intra-governmental transactions. In this way it is possible to derive a single figure for the net cash operating income or outgo of the Federal Government and its combined transactions with the public. The public, of course, includes individuals, corporations, banks, insurance companies, other financial institutions, State and local governments, etc.

As a general principle it may be stated that funds coming in from the public are treated as part of the cash operating income series if they are taxes, duties, fees, retirement and pension payroll deductions, and other receipts from the public of a more or less involuntary nature (although there are minor exceptions). Borrowing, of course, falls outside of this definition except in such special cases as when public debt obligations are issued as part of budget expenditures. Armed forces leave bonds provide an example of this: such bonds are treated as a non-cash expenditure at the time of issuance and as a cash expenditure at the time of redemption (except where turned in for veterans' insurance premiums).

It should be noted that a given net cash operating income does not mean that the Treasury can reduce the public debt by the same amount. Some part of the net cash operating income may itself involve increases in debt held by trust funds but not by the public. Thus, net receipts of the social security investment funds are included as part of the net cash operating income even though they increase the debt to the extent that public debt obligations are issued by the Treasury to the funds. A corresponding amount of debt held by the public could, of course, be paid off. Hence, the net cash operating income is available to reduce debt in the hands of the public only (rather than the total debt) or to increase the General Fund balance. Similarly, net cash operating outgo would require increases in the volume of debt held by the public (unless a decrease occurred in the General Fund balance).

1/ Accrued discount on savings bonds and bills less interest paid on savings bonds and bills redeemed.

2/ Interest payments to wholly owned Government corporations are not deducted because they are treated as negative expenditures when received by corporations; hence payment and receipt offset each other in the expenditure series.

3/ For detail, see Table 5 under "Budget Receipts and Expenditures".

4/ Budget expenditures involving the issuance of U. S. securities are treated as noncash at the time of original payment and as cash expenditures at the time of redemption. The figures shown are net issuances, or net redemptions (-).

* Less than $500,000.

1/ Issuances of U. S. securities resulting from budget expenditures are treated as noncash at the time of issuance and as cash budget expenditures at the time of redemption. The figures shown are net issuances, or net redemptions (-).

2/ Expenditures for U. S. subscriptions to the capital of the International Monetary Fund and the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development require special explanation. United States payments to the Fund in fiscal 1947 for example consisted of $1,800 million paid from the Exchange Stabilization Fund (Table 1) and $950 million paid as budget expenditures (Table 3). Of this total, $1,724 million (net) was invested in noninterest-bearing U. S. notes thereby making this amount noncash expenditures during the fiscal year. Of the $1,026 million cash portion of the expenditures, $968 million came from the initial Exchange Stabilization Fund payment and the remaining $58 million represented redemption later in the fiscal year of notes assumed to have been acquired through the Stabilization Fund payment. Accordingly, the noncash payments to the Fund are made up of $774 million from the Exchange Stabilization Fund payment and $950 million from the budget payment. In the case of the International Bank, a total of $476 million was paid during fiscal 1947 - all in the form of budget expenditures. On net balance, $416 million occurred as a noncash expenditure because of the issuance of noninterest-bearing U. S. notes. Table 5 thus shows a total of $2,140 million (net) of such notes issued to the two institutions in the fiscal year 1947. Budget estimates show that $916 million of these notes will be redeemed in the fiscal year 1948, thereby increasing cash expenditures.

3/ Accrued discount on savings bonds and bills less interest paid on savings bonds and bills redeemed.

4/ Includes borrowing through Postal Savings System.

1/ Excludes (1) postal savings bonds and (2) Federal Housing Administration debentures (the only interest-bearing public marketable guaranteed securities outstanding).

2/ It should be noted that callable issues appear twice in this column, once in the year of first call and again in the year of final maturity. Callable issues with respect to which a definite notice of call has been made, however, are listed as fixed maturities. For date of issue of each security, see chapter on "Prices and Yields of Government Securities"; for tax status, see chapter on "Ownership of Government Securities".

3/ Bank restricted issues may not be acquired by commercial banks (with minor exceptions) prior to a specified date. See footnotes to tables on "Public Debt and Guaranteed Obligations of the United States Government Outstanding".

p Preliminary.

1/ Original call and maturity dates are used.

2/ Prior to the refunding operation of March 1, 1946, maturing issues were either paid off in full or the holders were given the privilege of exchange into another security in full. Beginning with that operation, some maturities have been split by the Treasury into a stated portion for cash retirement with the remainder covered by an offering of an exchange security.

Sales and Redemptions of United States Savings Bonds

United States savings bonds were first offered for sale in March 1935. Bonds of series A-D were sold between March 1935 and April 1941. Series E, F, and G bonds have been on sale since May 1, 1941.

Series A-E bonds are 10-year discount bonds sold at 75% of maturity value, and yield 2.90% per annum if held to maturity. Series F bonds are 12-year discount bonds sold at 74% of maturity value, and yield 2.53% per annum if held to maturity. Series G bonds are 12-year current income bonds, sold at par, bearing interest at 2-1/2% per annum, and redeemable at par at maturity or at stated prices less than par before maturity.

Purchases of series A-D bonds were limited to $7,500 issue price in any one calendar year. These bonds were available to all subscribers prior to April 1, 1940, and to individuals only after that date. Purchases of series E bonds are limited to $3,750 issue price in any one calendar year, and may be made only by individuals (defined as natural persons only). The limit for series F and G combined is $100,000 issue price in any one calendar year ($50,000 in calendar year 1941). Series F and G bonds are available to all subscribers except commercial banks. Commercial banks, however, were permitted to purchase these bonds during certain periods and with certain restrictions. For details concerning these periods and restrictions see "Treasury Bulletin" for December 1944, page 36, footnote 9, and "Treasury Bulletin" for February 1946, page 37, footnote 9, and page A-22. For details concerning features, investment yields, and redemption values see "Treasury Bulletin" for October 1945, pages A-4 and A-5.

Series A bonds matured in 1945, and series B bonds in 1946. Series C bonds began to mature in January 1947. Matured bonds turned in for redemption are included in the figures on redemptions. Matured bonds outstanding are reflected in the interest-bearing debt until all bonds of the series have matured, when they are transferred to matured debt upon which interest has ceased, in accordance with the practice of the Daily Treasury Statement.

In the following tables sales figures are quoted at issue price, and redemptions and amounts outstanding at current redemption values. Amounts of series G outstanding are quoted at par.

After June 30, 1947, data on sales and redemptions classified by States will be published only at the end of each calendar year and each fiscal year.

1/ Beginning with June 1947, Series E sales include small amounts of unclassified sales consisting of Series E, F, and G. These amounts are substantially less than the sales reported as unclassified in the Daily Treasury Statement. The greater part of that item consists of sales for which information is available as to the series but not the year of issue. On the basis of that information, such sales are included in this table according to series. Prior to June 1947, it was possible to distribute by series all sales reported as unclassified in the Daily Treasury Statement.

2/ Series E redemptions include small amounts of unclassified Series A-D redemptions beginning with October 1944, and small amounts also of unclassified F and G redemptions, beginning with June 1947.

3/ Not calculated for matured series.

Sales and Redemptions of Treasury Savings Notes

Treasury savings notes were issued in three series, series A from August 1, 1941 through June 22, 1943, series B from August 1, 1941 through September 12, 1942, and series C which have been on continuous sale since September 14, 1942. All of series A and B and some of series C notes have matured.

Series C notes are sold at par, and accrue in value each month, yielding 1.07% per annum if held to maturity (3 years from date of issue). These notes may be used in payment of taxes any time after 2 months after issue, or may be redeemed for cash any time after 6 months after issue. For details concerning features, investment yields, and tax payment or redemption values, see "Treasury Bulletin" for October 1945, pages A-4 and A-5. For details concerning the features of series A and B notes, see "Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury" for 1942, pages 207 and 220.

In the following tables sales and redemptions of Treasury savings notes are shown at par value. Matured notes turned in for redemption (either for cash or for tax payment) are included in the figures on redemptions. Matured notes outstanding are reflected in the interest-bearing debt until all notes of the series have matured, when they are transferred to matured debt upon which interest has ceased, in accordance with the practice of the Daily Treasury Statement. For sales and redemptions of series A and B notes by fiscal years and months, see "Treasury Bulletin" for February 1946, pages 42 and 43.

1/ Excludes Federal Housing Administration debentures (the only interest-bearing public marketable guaranteed securities outstanding).

2/ Prices represent the mean of closing bid and ask quotations in the over-the-counter market, except that prices of Treasury bonds for the period prior to October 1, 1939, represent closing prices on the New York Stock Exchange. "When issued" prices are included in history beginning October 1, 1939. Dates of high and low, in case of recurrence, are the latest dates.

3/ Market convention treats the yield to earliest call date as more significant when an issue is selling above par; the yield to maturity as more significant when an issue is selling at or below par.

4/ Included in the Average Yield of Long-Term Taxable Treasury Bonds.

5/ Issues which commercial banks may not acquire prior to a specified date (with minor exceptions).

6/ Quoted on a yield basis beginning June 16, 1947; prior thereto quoted on a price basis. Price history ends June 13, 1947.

7/ Quoted on a yield basis.

8/ Not quoted on August 29, 1947; quoted on a price basis at par from August 22 through August 28, 1947; prior thereto quoted on a yield basis.

9/ For amount of this security issued on September 1, 1947, see table entitled "Offerings of Marketable Issues of Treasury Bonds, Notes, and Certificates of Indebtedness" in the chapter on the "General Fund Position and Debt Outstanding".

10/ Called on June 13, 1947, for redemption on October 15, 1947.

1/ Prices represent the mean of closing bid and ask quotations in the over-the-counter market. "When issued" prices for all securities except Federal Intermediate Credit Bank debentures are included.

Dates of highs and lows, in case of recurrence, are the latest dates.

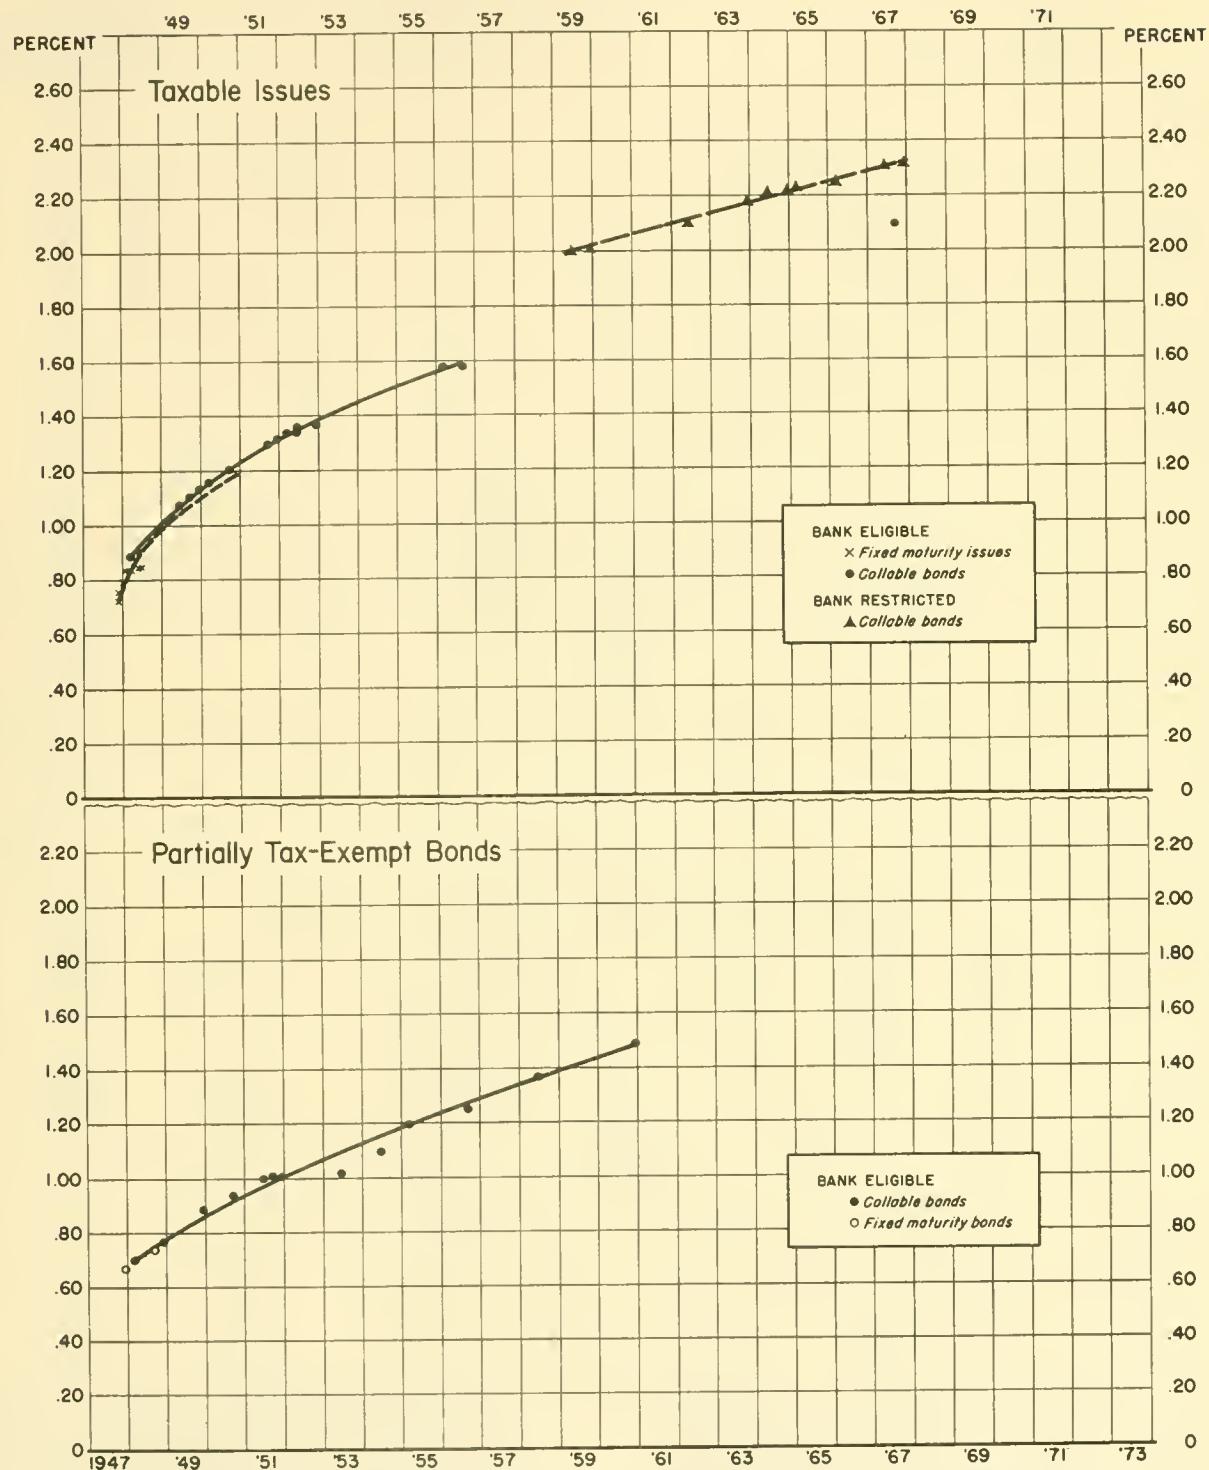

2/ Market convention treats the yield to earliest call date as more significant when an issue is selling above par; the yield to maturity as more significant when an issue is selling at or below par.

3/ Prices quoted are subject to a dealer's commission. These securities are not shown until date of issue.

4/ Excludes issues completely held by Farm Credit Administration agencies.

YIELDS OF TREASURY SECURITIES AUG. 29, 1947
 Based on Mean of Closing Bid and Asked Quotations

Explanation: The points represent yields to call when prices are above par, and to maturity date when prices are at par or below.
 The smooth curves for the various classes of points are fitted by eye. Issues for which an exchange offer has been made or which are due or callable in less than 3 months are excluded.

Note: Treasury bond yields are computed on the basis of the mean of closing bid and ask quotations in the over-the-counter market, beginning September 2, 1941; previously, closing prices on the New York Stock Exchange were used on days when sales took place on the Exchange in a particular issue and the mean of closing bid and ask quotations on the New York Stock Exchange on days when no sales took place. Corporate bond yields are computed on the basis of closing prices on the New York Stock Exchange and the New York Curb Exchange; on days when an issue does not sell, the price of the last preceding sale is used. Monthly and weekly (old series) data for the period January 1933 through March 1944 appeared in the "Treasury Bulletin" for April 1944, pages 57-61.

1/ Average of Treasury bonds neither due nor callable for fifteen years. For discussion of composition of average see "Treasury Bulletin" for March 1944, page 58. The partially tax-exempt series was discontinued on December 15, 1945 because there were no longer any bonds of this classification due or callable in 15 or more years. Partially tax-exempt bonds are those the interest on which is exempt from the normal rates of the Federal income tax, except that in the case of partially tax-exempt Treasury and United States savings bonds, interest derived from $5,000 of principal amount owned by any one holder is also exempt from the surtax rates of the Federal income tax. Taxable bonds are those the interest on which is subject to both the normal and surtax rates of the Federal income tax.

2/ For discussion of present composition of high-grade corporate bond average, see "Treasury Bulletin" for July 1947, page 59; for discussion of its previous composition, see "Treasury Bulletin" for January 1945, page 56.

3/ Average revised beginning July 1, 1941. Old average for July 1941 was also 2.66%.

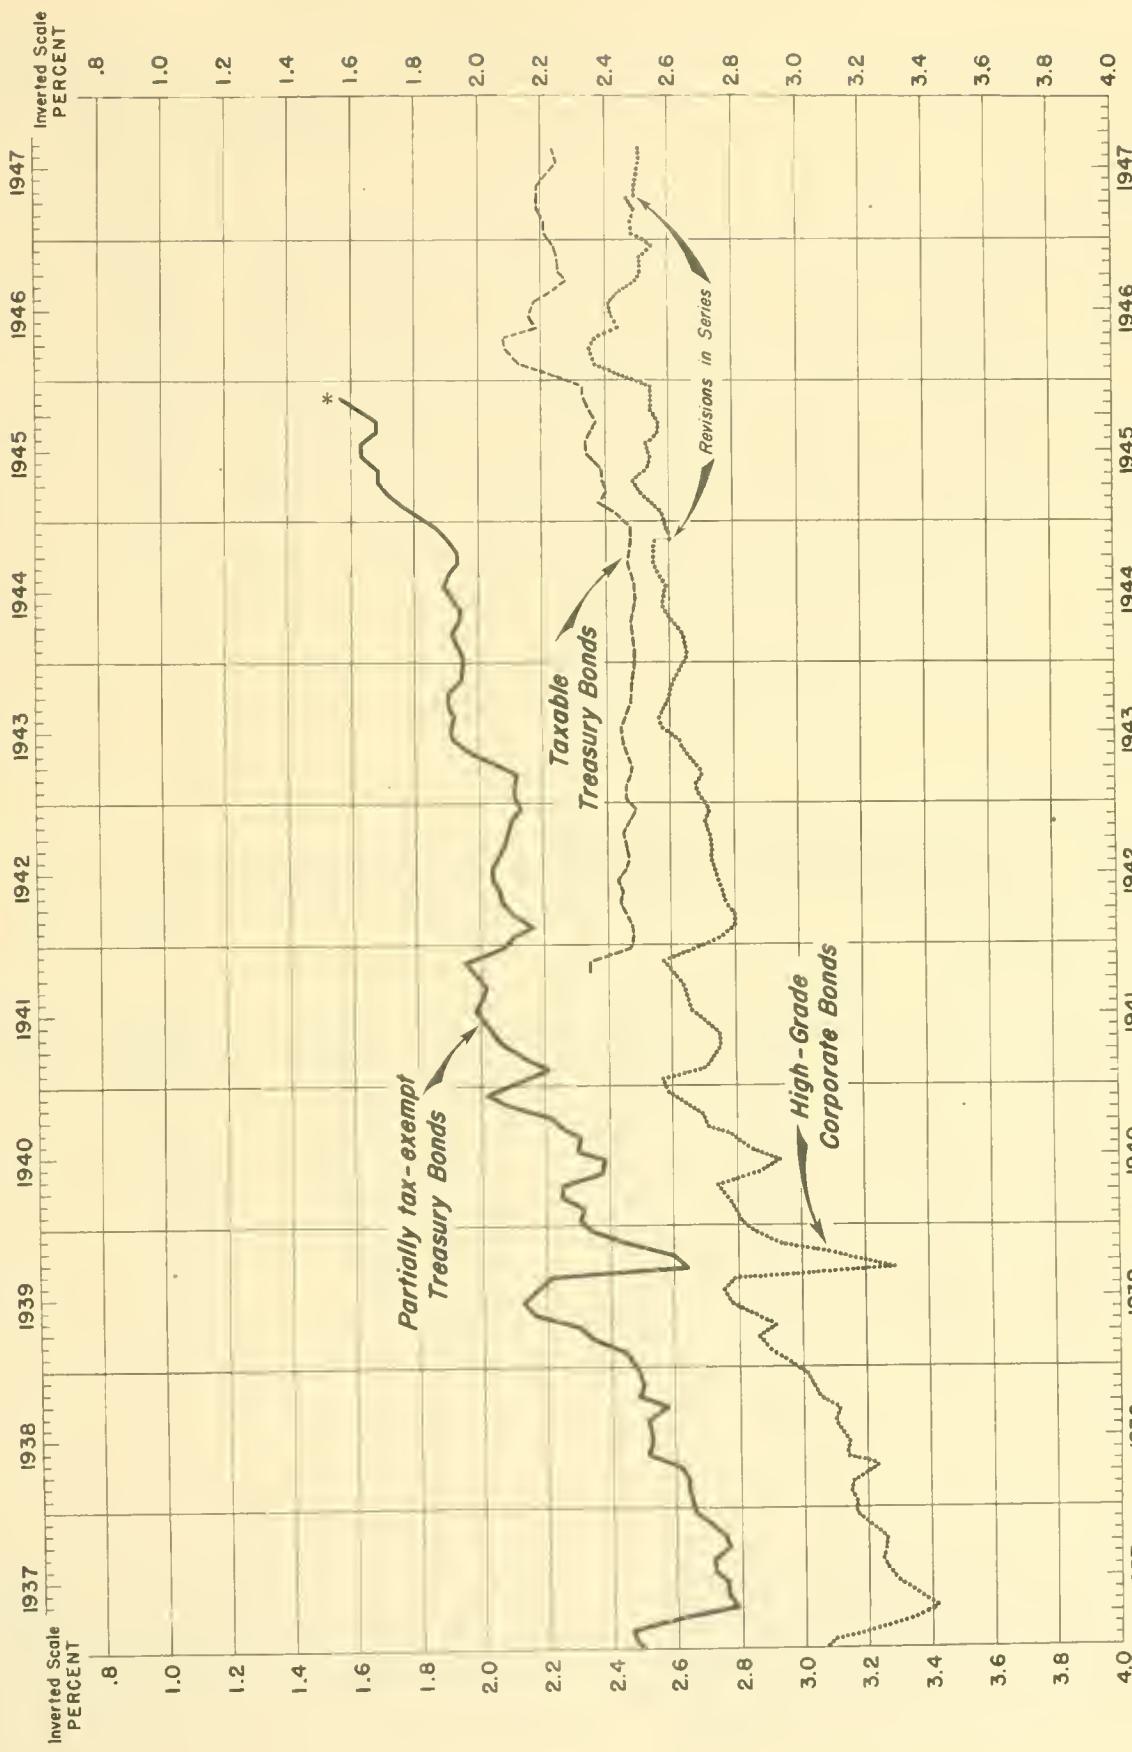

4/ Average revised beginning November 1, 1944. Old average for November 1944 was 2.56%.

5/ Average revised beginning April 1, 1947. Old average for April 1947 was 2.47%; for week ended April 5, 2.47%. See footnote 2.

CAPITAL MOVEMENTS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES
AND FOREIGN COUNTRIES AND NET POSITION
IN FOREIGN CURRENCIES

Capital Movements Between the United States and Foreign Countries

This chapter on Capital Movements between the United States and Foreign Countries and Position in Foreign Currencies is divided into four main groups. Section I of Capital Movements, the Historical Summary, contains data regarding capital movements by the principal types of data, and by years from 1935, and currently by months. Each type of data is then broken down into its chief components in the same chronological detail.

Section II supplies a geographic breakdown by principal countries on a monthly basis. The total capital movements are given first and then the principal categories are shown separately. In addition, at this point, the total outstanding claims on and liabilities to foreign countries are each presented.

Details with respect to capital movements and short-term claims and liabilities are presented in Section III as of the latest month for which the data are available.

The last group contains monthly data regarding the net position in foreign currencies of United States banks and brokers, their outstanding foreign exchange contracts, and purchases and sales of foreign exchange, both spot and forward.

These data are based on reports filed each month by banks, bankers, and brokers throughout the United States. The reports are collected, checked, and tabulated by the twelve Federal Reserve Banks. The totals are then forwarded to the Treasury Department for consolidation and publication.

Figures for previous periods may be obtained from the following sources:

Supplement to the "Treasury Bulletin" on "Capital Movements between the United States and Foreign Countries, January 1942 through April 1945", for details during that period.

"Treasury Bulletin", November 1945, for capital movements, and position in foreign currencies by months, 1942-1945.

"Treasury Bulletin", March 1942 and earlier, for details covering years back to January 2, 1935.
