Treasury Financing Operations

November Bond Offering
The secretary of the Treasury announced on October 26, 1953, an offering on October 28 for cash subscription of an issue of $$ 2$ billion, or thereabouts, of fully marketable $2-3 / 4$ percent Treasury bonds, to be dated November 9, 1953, and to mature September 15, 1961. Subscription books were closed at the close of business on October 28.

Subscriptions to the bonds amounted to $$ 12.5$ billion and allotments totaled 2.2 billion.

The basis of allotment on subscriptions for the offering was announced by the Treasury as follows: Subscriptions in amounts up to and including $$ 10,000$, totaling about $$ 22-1 / 2$ million, were allotted in full. Larger subscriptions from mutual savings banks, insurance companies, pension and retirement funds, and State and local governments, aggregating about $$ 1.8$ blllion, were allotted 24 percent, and laryer subscriptions from all others, including § $$-1 / 4$ billion from commercial banks, were allotted 16 percent. For both percentage bases, however, the minimum allotment on any one subscription was $$ 10,000$.

| Investor clasaes | Allotments |

|  | ( In millions) |
| Individuale, partnerships, and personal trust accounts | 101.5 |
| Mutual savings banks. | 164.5 |
| Insurance companies. | 186.7 |
| Pension and retirement funds. | 65.3 |
| Commercial banks. | 1,299.0 |
| Dealers and brokers | 170.5 |
| All others. | 163.2 |
| Unclassified | 37.4 |
| Total. | 2,188.1 |
| Government investment accounts....... | 50.0 |
| Grand total. | 2,238.1 |

In accordance with the announcement on October 26, subscriptions from commercial banks, which for this purpose were defined as banks accepting demand deposits, were received for their own account without deposit. A payment of 10 percent of the amount of bonds subseribed for not subject to withdrawal until after allotment was required on all other subscriptions. Any qualified depositary was permitted to make payment by credit for bonds allotted to it for 1 tself and its customers up to any anount for which it was qualified in excess of exlsting deposits. Subscribere other than commercial banks were permitted to enter subscriptions only for their own account.

Commercial banks and other lenders were requested to refrain from making unsecured loans, or loans collateralized in whole or in part by the bonds subscribed for to cover the 10 percent deposits required to be paid when subscriptions were entered, and a certification that no auch loan had been made was required on each subscription entered by a commercial bank for account of its cuatomers.

The Treasury reserved the right to reject or reduce any subscription, and to make different porcentage allotments to various classes of aubscribers.

Bearer bonds, with interest coupons attached, and bonds registered as to principal and interest were issued in denominations of $$ 500, $ 1,000, $ 5,000$, $$ 10,000, $ 100,000$, and $$ 1,000,000$. Interest on the new bonds will be payable from November 9, 1953, at the rate of $2-3 / 4$ percent per annum, payable on a semlannual basis on September 15,1954 , and thereafter on March 15 and September 15 in each year until the principal amount becomes payable.

Sale of Savings Notes Suspended
On October 23, the Treasury announced the suspension of sale of Treasury savings notes, Series C. In response to press queries it was stated that the suspension was due to two related causes. The first was that the determination of the amount of the Treasury financing in the next week would be difficult in view of the uncertaintiea of future dally aales of Treasury savinge notes under current conditions. The second was that the savings notes opuld create a problem in connection with the debt limit on the basis of current sales.

Retirement of Portion of Treasury Notes, Series A-1953
On November 9 , the Secretary of the Treasury announced that the Treasury on that day had purchased from the Federal Reserve System and retired $$ 500$ million of $2-1 / 8$ percent Treasury notes maturing December 1, 1953. Payment was made in effect by the use of gold which was part of the Treasury general fund balance. The use of gold in this way to retire Government securities held by the Federal Reserve System has no effect on bank reserves and therefors is neither inflationary nor deflationary. Payment for the securities was made from Treasury balances in the Federal Reserve Banks; the balances were then restored by the deposit of gold certificates.

This completed the program contomplated in connection with the sale of $$ 2.2$ billion of $2-3 / 4$ percent 7 -year and 10 -month bonds, delivery of whicil on November 9 otherwise would have carried the public debt and the guaranteed obligations held outside the Treasury up to or beyond the legal 11 mit.

A substantial excess of expenditures over receipte during the ensuing two months, the announcement stated, was expected to reduce the Treasury balance to the low operating level of about $2 billion early in January. Nomally, the Treasury woul? have taken larger advantage of preaent very Iavorable market conditions to borrow enough money to maintain a more adequate balance. Since thia was imposaible under the present public debt ceiling, it was necesaary to put to uae a aubstantial part of the gold in the Treasury general fund.

Treasury 91-Day B111a Refunded
October 18 eues of weekly Treasury bllls amounted to $$ 7.5$ billion and refunded an equal total of maturing bills. Each offering and maturity amounted to $$ 1.5$ billion. The average ratea of diecount on the new 1 soues were 1.583 percent for October 1 ; 1.397 percent for October $8 ; 1.438$ percent for October 15; 1. 372 percent for October 22; and 1.220 percent for October 29.

United States asings bonds were first offered in March 1935 and began to mature in March 1945. Series A-D were sold between March 1935 and the end of April 1941, and seriea $E, F$, and $G$ were ilrat offered in May 1941. When Series E began to mature on May 1, 1951, owners of the matured bonde were offered three options: To redeem the bonde in cash in accordance with the original terms; to retain them with an extended maturity of 10 yeara at specified ratea of interest accrual; or to exchange them for Series $G$ bonds. A number of changes became effective May 1, 1952. The principal ones were: The rate of intereat accrual on Series $E$ was increased, eapecially for the near tem, with corresponding changes in extendod Series $E$; and Series $F$ and $G$ wore replaced by two new isaues, Seriea J and $K$, also at higher interest ratea. A new current-income bond, Series $H$, similar in interest return to Series $E$, was offered beginning June 1. For detalls of these ohanges see "Treasury Bulletin" for May 1952, page A-1. Seriea F and $G$ began to mature on May 1, 1953. For the exchange offering made to holders of these bonda maturing through December 31, 1953, see the May 1953 isaue, page A-1. In the tables which follow, series $A-F$ and $J$ alee are inoluded at iseue price and total redemptions and amounts outstanding at ourrent redemption values. Series $G, H$, and $K$ are incluaded at face value throughout. Matured bonds which have been redeemed are included in redemptions. Matured $F$ and $G$ bond outatanding are included in the intereatbearing dobt until all bonds of the annual series have matured, when they are tranaferred to matured debt upon which intereat has ceased.

Data relating to claima on foreigners and liabilities to forelgners, and capltal movements between the United Statea and foreign countries, have been collected a ince 1935, pursuant to Executive Order 6560 of January 15, 1934, and Treasury re&ulationa thereunder. Information covering the principal types of data and the principal countries 1 a reported each month by banks and bankera and securitiea brokers and dealers in the United Statea. Thia information $1 a$ published regularly in the "Treasury Julletin". Supplementary information is publiahed at leas frequent intervals. All reperts are made initially to the Feceral Reserve Banka, which forward consolldated figures to the Treasury.

The term "forelgners" as uaed in theae reporta covera all institutions and Individuals (including United States citizens) domiciled outalde the United States, as well as international organizations, wherever domiciled, created by treaty or convention between sovereign states. "Short-term" refers to original maturities of one year or less, and "long-term" refers to all other maturities. A detalled discuasion of the reporting coverage, basis of reporting, and derivation of capital movements figures appeared in the April 1950 issue of the "Treasury Builetin", pages 50-52. Reviaed report forms and requlations became effective with the data for January 1950. Attention 1a called to the fact that although the grand total figures on the revised reporting basia are reasonably comparable with those for preceding montha, data for individual countries in some inatances are not comparable because of certain changea in coverage and geographical classification.

The supplementary information, contained in Section IV, is preaented in three tables appearing at different times. Table 1 gives data by countries on short-term cladme on and llabllitles to forelgners as reported quarterly by exporters, importers, and industrial and commercial cuncerns in the United Statea. This information was published for the first time in the October $194918 s u \theta$ of the "Treasury Bulletin" and begins with data for September 30, 1946. Table 2 supplies information by countriea on long-term claima on and liabllities to forelgners as reported by banks and bankers in the United Statea. This table appeared for the first time in the December 1949 1ssue. Data are for the end of the calendar year beginning with 2942. Table 3 gives information on short-term liabllities to countries not regularly reporteđ aeparetely by banks and bankera. Thia table appeared for the first time in the April 1950 1ssue. The data have been requested at irregular intervals, the earliest date being October 1943.
