Treasury Financing Operations

Refunding of December Maturities
Pursuant to an announcement on November 25, 1955, the Treasury Department on November 28 offered 2-5/8 percent one-year certificates of indebtedness or $2-7 / 8$ percent two and one-half-year notes in exchange for the $1-1 / 4$ percent certificates and the $1-3 / 4$ percent notes which matured December 25 in the total amount of $$ 12,213$ million. Holders were offered the option of exchanging for either security offerea. Cash subscriptions were not invited. The subscription books were closed at the close of business on November 30.

Exchanges totaled $$ 11,365$ million, learing $$ 847$ mililon to be paid in cash. The refunding results are summarlzed in the table which follows.

The new certificates will bear interest from December 1, 2955, at the rate of $2-5 / 8$ percent per annum, payable with the principal at maturity on December 1, 1956. The new notes will bear interest from December 1, 1955, at the rate of $2-7 / 8$ percent per annum, payable on a semiannual basis on June 15 and December 15,1956 , and thereafter on June 15 and December 15 in each year until the principal amount becomes payable on June 15,1958 . Both securities were issued in besrer form only, arid in denominations of $$ 1,000, $ 5,000, $ 10,000, $ 100,000$, $$ 1,000,000, $ 100,000,000$, and $$ 500,000,000$.

Offering of 99-Day Tax Anticipation Bills
In accordance with its announcement on December 5, 1955, the Treasury Department on [^0]Soth of the ner: 1ssues are oated December 1, 1955, and exchanges were made at par with an adjustment of interest as of that date. Holders of the maturing securities were creaited with interest accrued to December 1, 1955, from December 15,1954 on the certificates of indebtedness and from June 15, 1955 on the notes. The accrued interest was pald on Lecember 8 following acceptance of the maturing securlties exchanged to which were attached the coupons dated December 15, 1955.

December 6 invited tencers on December $\delta$ for $\$ 1.5$ billion, or thereabouts, of 99-azy Treasury bills, Tax Anticipation Series. The bills are dated December 15, 1955, and w111 mature March 23, 1956. Tenders were accepted in the amount ni $* 2,502$ millicn at the average rate of $d i s c o u n t$ of 2.465 percent. Noncompetitive tenders for $\$ 300,000$ or less agoregating 353 million, were accepted at the average price of accepted competitive bids and are included in the above figure.

The bills will be accepted at face value in payment of income and profits taxes due March 15 , 1956, and to the extent they are not presented for this purpose the face amount will be payable without interest at maturity. Taxpayers desiring to apply these bills in payment of March 15, 1956 income and profits taxes have the privilege of surreridering them to any Federal Reserve Bank or Branch not more tran fifteen days before March 15, 1956, and recelving recelpts therefor showing the face amount of the bills so surrendered. These receipts may be sublitted in lieu of the bille on or tefore March 15 , 1956, to the District Director of Internal Revenue for the district in which such taxes are payable.

The offering was for cash with final settlement on December 15, 1955, proviced, however, thet any qualified eepositary could make payment by credit in its Treasury tax and loen account but not more than 60 percent of the amount of Treasury bills allotted to it for itself and its customers, up to the amount for which it was qualified in excess of its existing deposits.

Weekly Treasury Bills Refunced

Four new lesues of weekly Treasury bills refunded the November maturities in the equivalent total of $$ 6.4$ blllion. Each new 1 ssue and each maturity amounted to $$ 1.6$ billion. Average rates of discount on the new $1 s$ sues were 2.179 percent for November 3: 2.034 percent for November 10; 2.248 percent for November 17; and 2.440 percent for November 25. The new issues consisted of three 91-day maturities and a 90-day maturity dated November 25 . Those refunded were 91-day maturities except the 92 -day maturity of November 25 .

The cash income and outgo of the Federal Governmant are presented irom two points of view in the tables which follow, in line with the differences in reporting bases between the new dally Treasury atatement, flrat isauad on February 17. 1954, and the "Monthly statement of Receipts and Expenditures of the United States Government," initiated at the aame time (see April 1954 "Treasury Bulletin," pags A-2). The bases differ both in coverage and in timing of the reports.

In coverage the new dally atatement reporta only tranaactions which clear through the Treasurer's account. The monthly statement includea transactiona of all Government agencies, regardiess of whether the transactiona clear through the Treasurer's account. In addition, the monthly atatement clasaifles the transactiona to show aeparately budget reaults and trust account transactiona. The net reaulta are then reconolled to changea in the Treasurer'a caah balance and in tbe public debt outatanding as reported in the dally atatement.

For the transactions included in both statsmenta, there are differences in the timing of the reporta. Recelpta in the monthly statement are principally on a collection basis, whlle thoae in the dally atatement are on a clearance basis; expenditures in the monthly statement are on a checke-1ssued basis, whlle those in the dally atatement are on a checka-paid basis. Thus an individual trenaaction near the end of a month may be reported during that month in one statement and not until the following month in the other. These ining differences tend to correct thamelves over a period, but for a given date they muat be taken into account in reconciling data from the two reporte.

Cash tranaaction figures prior to 1953 ara derlved from a single aouroe, the old dally Treasury atatement, which resembled the present monthly atatement in coverage and in classification of transactions, but for timing was basec on information in hand at the end of the reporting period. In the tablea which follow, figurea from the old dally atatement have been adjusted to a coverage aa cloae aa poasible to that of the new dally by excluding those agency tranactions in public debt securities and in agency obligations in the market which were not cleared through the Treasurer'a account.

Tabla 1 sumarizes cash llowa through the Treasurer'a account as reported in the dally statement. They are groupad in thres categorias -- cash income, or deposita; cash outgo, or withdrawals; and cash borrowing or repayment of borrowing. The three taken togetber account for the change in the Treasurer's cash balance.

Tablea 2, 3, and 4 show tne derivation of these aame three categories of cash llnws on a monthly statement basia, coverling transactions of all Government agenciea. Theae threa categorles taken together account for the change in cash balance on the montbly statement basle, which includea not only the balance in the Treasurar's account but alao the cash held outside the Treasury and the items in tranait represented by the clearing accounts. Since thera are now reported figures for the cash flows in the Treasurer'a account, it 1a posaible to calculate for each category -- income, outgo, and borrowing -- the diffarence due to differencea in reporting baaes. The sum of these differences, or reoonciliation adjustmenta, in the three categories, with algns appropriate for their effoct on the cash balance, equala the difference in balances between the monthly statement and dally statement. This difference ia the combined total of the monthly statement clearing accounts plua cash held outalde the Treaaury.

The calculated reconciliation ad juatment figurea in the tables include both coverage and timing differencea. It ia no longer possible from the information as reportad to the Treasury to segregate the two kinda of differences even for securities tranaactions. But such aegregation la not regarbed as signlficant for purpoaes of thia analyels, so long aa the overall coverage is aecured for tranaactions not oleared through the Treasurer's account, and the Plgures are on a conaiatent reporting baais.

p Preliminary.

United States savings bonds were first offered in March 1935 and began to mature in March 1945. Series A-D were sold between March 1935 and the end of April 1941, and Series $E, F$, and $G$ were first offered in May 1941. When Serles $E$ began to mature on May 1, 1951, owners of the matured bonds were offered three options: To redsem the bonds in cash in accordance with the origingl terms; to retain them with an extended maturity of 10 years at specified rates of interest accrual; or to exchange them for Series $G$ bonds. A number of changes became effective May 1, 1952. The princlpal ones were: The rate of Interest accrual on Series $E$ was increased, especially for the near term, with corresponaing changes in extended Series $E$; and Series $F$ and $G$ were replaced by two new issues, Series $J$ and $K$, also at higher interestrates. A now current-income bond, Series $H$, similar in interest return to series $E$, was offered beginning June 1 . For detalls of these changes see "Treasury Bulletin" for May 1952, page A-1. Seriee $F$ and $G$ began to mature on May 1, 1953. For the exchange offering made to holders of these bonds maturing through December 31, 1953, see the May 1953 1ssue, page A-1. The Treasury invited holders of Serles $F$ and $G$ which began to mature in January 1954 to reinvest the proceeds in other series of savings bonds. In the tables which follow, Series A-T and J sales are inoluded at issue price and total redemptions and amounts outstanding at current redemption values. SeriesG, $H$, and $K$ are included at face value throughout. Matured bonds whioh have been redeemed are included in redemptions. Matured $F$ and $G$ bonds outstanding are inciuded in the interest-bearing debt untli all bonds of the arnual series have matured, when they are transferred to matured debt upon which interest has cessed.

AVERAGE YIELDS OF LONG-TERM TREASURY AND CORPORATE BONDS

Table 1.- Summary by Principal Sources
(In thoueapde of dollare)

Source: Internal Revenue Service reporte for detall of collections by type of tax; deily Trsaewry otatement for budget recelpte from intermal revenue through the fiecal year 1952, and the "Monthly Statement of Rece1pte and Expenditures of the United Statoe Govemnent" for rece1pte thereafter. Certain detail by type of tax ie available only on the baele of returne filed witb the Internal Revenue Service. The figuree show include collections for credit to special accounta for certein ieland poseeselone, $\theta e$ reported by the Internal Revenue Service. Beginming with the fiecal year 1955, they include the amounte of tax collected in Puarto Rico upon articlee of merchandiee of Puerto Ricen manufacture coming into the United Statee. Figuree for 1954 beve been revised to the eame basie. Figuree for previous yeare iaclude only amounte collected et porte of entry into the United Statee.
1/ Differencee between the amounte of internal revenue reported by the Internal Revenue Service as collectione for given periode and the amounte reported in Treaeury etatements ae budget receipte for the eanse periode arise because of differences in the time when parmente are included in the respective reporte. Tax paymente are included in budget receipte wben tboy are reported se credite to the eccount of the Treeeurer of the United Statee. Prior to July 1954, they were iacluded in Internal Revenue Service collection reporte after the returne to which they applied had been received in internal revenue off1cee. Under procedure begun io 1950 with withheld income tax and old-age ineurance taxee and leter extended to rallroad retirement taxee and many excisee, these texee are paid currently into Treaeury depoaitarios and the depooitary receipte, se ovidence of ouch payment, are attached to quarterly returne to the Internal Revenue Service. Under thie procedure, the paymente are included in budget receipte in the month in wbich the depoeitary receipte are leoued to the torpayere. Revieed accounting procedures effective July 1, 1954, extenied the same practice to Intermal Revenue Service collection reporte.
2/ Monthly figuroe incivde old-age ineurance tax on eelf-emplojment income, which is levied and collected ae part of the individual income tax beginning with the taxable year 1951. Fiecal year figuree exclude thie tax, on the beele of etimates begirming 1952 (eee footnote 3), and it 1 e included under "old-age ineurance tazee."
3/ W1thheld incone tex and old-age ineurance texee on employere and employese are paid into the Treaeury in combined amounte beginning Jenuary 1951. In Intemal Revenue Service reporte, current collections have not been eeparated ae to type of tax but the breatrdown ehown for fiacal years begiming 1951 ie beesd on eotimateo macie in eccordance with provielons of Sec. 109 (a) (2) of the Social Security Act Amendmente of 1950, for transfer of tax recespte to the Federal 0ld-Age and Survivore Insurance Trust Fund.
4) New reporting beole beginning with the fiecal year 1953; for explanation, eee footnote on page 1.
5/ Beginning with the fiecal year 1955, collections ahown include undistributed depoestary receipte. It will be noted thet for exciee taxee the undietributed depoeitary rece1pte are included in the total only.
6 Repealed for feare ending after June 30, 1945. Beginning 1951, included under "Miecellaneous excies taxse."

Information covering the principal types of data and the prinolpal countries ia reported monthly, and is published regularly In the "Treaaury Bulletin." Supplementary information 18 publiahed at lese frequent intervale. Reporte by banks, bankere, seourities brokers and dealers, and induatrial and commercial concerns in the United States are made initially to the Federal Reserve Banks, whioh forward consolidated figures to the Treasury. Beginning April 1954, data reported by banks in the Territories and posaesaions of the United States are included in the publiahed data.

The term "foreigner" as used in these reporta oovera all institutions and individuale domioiled outside the United States and its Territorise and possessions, the official institutions of foreign oountries, wherever auch institutions may be looated, and international organizations. "Short-term" reiers to original maturitiea of one year or less, and "long-term" refers to all other maturities. A detalled discussion of the reporting coverage, atatlatical presentation, and definitiona appeared in the June 1954 1asue of the "Traasury Bulletin," pages 45-47. As a reault of changea in presentation introduoed in that lasue, not all breakdowns previoualy publiahed will be exectly comparable to those now preaented.

The first three eections which follow are published monthly. They provide summaries, by periods and by oountries, of data on ehort-term banking liabllities to and claime on foreigners and transaotions in long-term seouritiea by forelgners, and preasnt detailed breakdowns of the latest avallabla preliminary data.

Seotion IV provides applementary data in five tablee which appar at lese frequent intervale. Table 1, short-term foreign liabilltiea and clalma reported by nonfinanoial conoerns, 16 published quarterly in the January, April, July, and Ootober isaues of the Bulletin. Table 2, long-term forelgn llabilities and olalma reportad by banks and bankers, and Table 3, estlmated gold and ahort-teril dollar resources of foreign countrise, are published quarterly in the Maroh, June, September, and Deosmber 1asues. Table 4, foreign credit and debit balances in brokerage aocounta, appeara aemiannually in the March end Septsmber lasues. Table 5, short-term liabilities to foralgners in countries and areas not regularly reported eeparately by banking inatitutions, is presented annualiy in the April isaue.
