The cash incore sid outgo data appearing in the "Tresaury Bulletin," beginning with the February 1956 lasue, are on basia conalatent with recelpts fron and paymenta to the publis as derived in the 1957 and subsequent Budgets of the United Stater, Spacial Analysia A. Reconciliation to caeh depoaits and witbdrawals in the account of the Treasurer of the United Statea 18 ahown on the same basis as in the Budget dooumente. There is also shown the amount of net cash borrowing from, or repayment of borrowing to, the public. By these arrangements, data in accordanca with the Budget claaaificationa are made available month by month. Figurea for back yeara have bean reviaed where necesaary in order to make them aa nearly comparable with the Budget clasalfications as avallable data will permit. For thia reason certain of the figurea differ somewhat from those published in earlier sudget documents as well as in the Bulletin.

The Budget aeriea of cash transactions is deaigned to frovice information on the flow of money between the public ano the Federal Government as a whole, and therefore includes trarsactions not cleared through the Treasurer's acccunt. Receifte end payments include tranasctiona both in budget accounts and in trust and deposit fund accounts. Operaticns of Government-sponeored enterprises are included in payments on a net basis as reflected in Tressury reporta. Hajor intrajovemmental transactions which are reported as both expenditures and receifta are eliminated from both. Noncash items which represent sccrued obligstions of the Government tomake paymenta in the future are also eliminated from expenditures but are saced later when sctual paymente are mace. Receipta from the exercise of monetary authority (mostly aelgniorage on allver) are excluded as not representing cash received from the public. Federal cash borrowing from the public includea net borrowing by the Treasury through public debt transaotions and aleo net borrowing by Government agencles and Government-sponaored enterpriaes through aslea of their own aecurities. It excludes changes in the public debt which do not repreaent direct cash borrowing from the public. The net effect of all thesa transactions with the public is reflected in changes in the balance in the Treasurer's account and in cash held outalde the Treasury.

Caah tranaactiona through the Treasurer'a account are sluilar in general concept to those included in the Budget seriea, but are limited in coverage to tranasctions whioh sfect the balance in that account. On the other hand, they include recelpta from the exercise of monetary authority, which are excluded from recelpta from the public in the Buaget series.

Beginning with ilgures for the ilscal year 1953, the aerlea of tranaections with the public la based on the MMonthly Statement of Recelpts anc Expenditurea of the United States Government, " which is complled from reports by ali collecting and disbursing officera and includes those trensactions not cleared through the Treasurer's sccount. Cash deposits and withdrawals in the Tressurer'a account, beginning with the figures for the same year, are reported in dally Treasury atatementa. For those years prior to 1953 both cash transactions series are based on a single source, namely, the earlier basla of dally Treasury statements which reported separate clasaiflcations for budget reaulta, truat account transactlons, etc.

Source and Availability of the Balance in the Treasurer's Account

The account of the Treaaurer of the United States raplects not only budget recelpts and expenditures but also truat, depoait fund, and public debt transactions.

The working carh of the Treasury is held mainly in Treasurer'a accounta with Federal Reaerve Banka and branches. As the balanoes in thess accounta become depleted, they are reatored by calling in (tranaferring) funda from the tax and loan accounta with theusands of commercial banks throughout the country.

Depoaits to tax and loan accounts occur in the normal course of bueineas under a uniform procedure applicable to all banks whereby customera of banks depoait with them tax paymenta and funda for the purchase of Government securities. In most cases the tranaaction Involvas merely the transfer of money from a customer's account to the tax and loan acoount in the same bank. On occaalons, to the extent authorized by the Treaaury, banke are permitted to deposit in these accounts proceeds from aubscriptiona to public debt aacurities entered for their own account as well as for the account of their cuatomera.

The tax and loan account aystem parmits the Treasury to leave funds in banks and in the compunities in which thay arlse until auch time as the Treasury needs the funds for ita operationa. In this way the Treasury is able to neutralize the effect of its fluctuating operationa on bank reserves and the oconomy.

A detallad debcription of the Treasury's depesitary system may be found in the Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury for 1955, pages 275-284.

United gtates savings bonds were first offered in March 1935 and began to mature in March 1945. Seriee A-D were aold between March 1935 and the end of Apr11 1941, anc Serles $E, F$, and $G$ were firet offered in May 1941. When Series $E$ began to mature on May 1, 1951, owners of the matured bonds were offered thres options: To redeem the bonds in cash in accordance with the original terms; to retain them with an extended maturity of 10 years at specifled rates of interest accrual; or to exohange them for Series $G$ bonds. A number of changes beoame offective May 1, 1952. The principal ones were: The rate of Interest accrual on Serles $E$ was incroased, especially for the near term, with correaponding ohanges in extended Series $E$; and Seriea $F$ and $G$ were replaced by two new issues, Series $J$ and $K$, also at higher interestratea. A new current-ircome bond, Series $H$, similar in interest return to Seriea $E$, was offered beginning June 1 . Detalls of these changes appear in the May 1952 Bulletin, paje A-1. Serles $F$ and $G$ began to mature on May 1, 1953. For the exchange offering made to holders of these bonds maturing through December 31, 1953, see the May 1953 is8ue, page A-1. Sales of Serles J and $X$ were di scontinued aft er April 30,1957. An increase in interest rates on Series Eand $H$ was announced on April 20,1957, retroactive to February 1. Detalls of the changes appear in the May 1957 Bulletin, page A-1. In the tables which follow, Serlos A-F and J sales are included at lsaue prioe and total redemptions andamounts outatanding at current redemption values. Series $G, H$, and $K$ are Includad at face valus throughout. Matured bonds which have been redeemed are included in redemptions. Matured $F$ and $G$ bonds outstanding are included in the interestbearing debt until all bonds of the annual series have tatured, when they are transferred to matured debt upon which interest has ceased.

1 Details by series on cumulative basis and by periods for Serles A-D combined vill be found in the Fobruary 1952 and previous iseues of the "Tresaury Bulletin."
2) Include exchangos of matured Series E bonds for Seriea $G$ bond beginning May 1951 and for Series $\mathbb{K}$ bonde beginning May 1952.

5/ A cbange in procedure, beginning in June 1954, for procesaines redeemed savinge bonde bes reaulted in a high level of redemptione not jet clasaified between matured and unmatured bonds. This increase temporarily obscures the relationahip between the redemption columns showing sales price and accrued diecount in Tablea 2 through 4 and aleo the relationship between the matured and unmatured sections of Table 4.
(See elso footnote 4). The gubsequet dietribution of this high level of unclasaifted redemptions may be large enough in any manth to show redemptions of matured bonds for a gerles in Table 4 wich are greater than the total redemptions of that series as shown in Tsble 3, and to ahow a negative in the unmatured aection of Table 4.
6/ Reductions were made in lenues and redemptions of Series E, E, R, G, $J$, and K in July 1954 to compenaete for the erroneous inclusion of reisaue transactions in June 1954 as reported in the daily Treasury atatement. The amountr involved were as follows: $\$ 18$ million for 1ssues of Serise $\mathbb{E}$ and $\mathbb{H}$ and $\$ 17$ million for saves of Series $F, G$, $J$, and x ; and $\$ 35$ million for unclessifled retlrements.
7/ Compareble date are not available prior to January 1950.
8) Includes exchangea of Series 1 hil $F$ and $G$ asvinga bonda for Treasury 3-1/4\% bonde of 1978-83.
Lese than $$ 500,000$.

1 Difference betweon the amount. of internal revonue reported by the Internal Reveave Service a collection for given perlode and the amomte reported in Troanury atotementa ab budget recelpts for the same perioda aroae becouse of differences in the time when paymente were included in the reepective reporto. Tar paymente are included in budget receipte when they are reported a credite to the account of the Treaourer of the United Statee. Prior to July 1954, they were included in Internal Revenue Service collection reporte after the returne to which they applied had been received in internel revenue offices. Under procedure begun in 1950 with whheld income tax and old-age inaurance taxea and later oxtendad to railroad retirement taxse and many oxciees, the ge taxeo are pald currently into Treasury depooitarlos and the depositary receipte, as evidence of such paymente, are attached to quarterly retume to the Internal Revenue Service. Under this procedure, the payments are included in budget receipte in the month in which the depositary receipte are ieoued to the taxpayera.

Revieed accounting proceduree effective July 1, 1954, extended the aame practice to Intermal Revenue Service collection reporta.

(Cumulative from Jenuary 1, 1935 - in millions of dollars)

Data relating to capital movements between the United States and foreign countries have been collected since 1935, pursuant to Executive Order 6560 of January 15, 1934, Executive Order 10033 of February 8, 1949, and Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder. Information covering the principal typer of data and the principal countries 1 is reported monthly, and 18 published regularly in the "Treasury Bulletin." Supplementary information is published at less frequent intervals. Reports by banks, bankers, securities brokers and dealers, and industrial and commercial concerns in the United States are made initially to the Federal Reserve Eanks, which forward consolidated figures to the Treasury. Beginning April 1954, data reported by banics in the Territories and posesesions of the United States are included in the publisked data.

The term "forelgner" as used in these reports covers all institutions and individuals domiciled outside the United States and its Territories and possessions, the official inetitutions of foreign countries, wherever such institutions may be located, and international organizations. "Short-term" refers to original maturities of one year or less, and "long-term" refers to all other maturities. A detalled discussion of the reporting coverage, statistical presentation, and definitions appeared in the June 1954 issue of the "Tressury Bulletin," pages 45-47. As a result of changes in presentation introduced in that issue, not all breakdowns previously published wlll be exactly comparable to those now presented.

The first three sections which follow are published monthly. They provide sumaries, by periods and by oountrles, of data on short-term banking liabllitles to and claims on forelgners and transactions in long-term securlties by forelgners, and present detalled breakcowns of the lateat available preliminary data.

Section IV provides supplementary data in five tables which appear at lese frequent intervals. Table l, chortterm forelgn llabllitles and clalms reported by nonflnancial concerns, is publichea quarterly in the January, April, July, and October 18bues of the Bulletin. Table 2, long-term foreign liabllitles and clalms reported by banks and bankers, and Table 3 , estimated gold reserves and dollar holdings of forelgn countries and international Institutions, are published quarterly in the March, Jure, September, and December issues. Table 4, foreign credit and debit balances in brokerage accounta, appears semiannually in the March and September issues. Table 5 , short-term liabilities to foreigners in countries and areas not regularly reported separately by banking institutione, is presented annually in the April issue.

The regulations so 1esued are pursuant to gection 114 of the Budget and Accounting Procedures Act of 1950 ( 31 U.S.C. 66 b ), and represent another step in the program of comprehensive and integrated Government accounting and financial reporting for which authority was provided in that act. They supereede Budget-Treasury Regulation No. 3, 18 sued under Executive Order No. 8512 of August 13,1940 , as amended by Executive Order No. 9084 of March 3, 1942, under which 11nanolal etatements previously published in the Bulletin were submittad.

In coverage, Department Ciroular No. 966 requiree submiesion of financial statemente by all wholly owned and mixed-ownership Government corporatione specifically Included in the Government Corporation Control Aot, as amended ( 31 U.S.C. 846,856 ); and all other aotivitiee of the Government operating as revolving funds for which business-type publio enterprise or intragovernmental fund tudgets are required by the Bureau of the Budget. Other activitiee and agencies whose operations, services, or functions are largely self-liquidating or primarily of a revenue-producing nature, and activities and agenciee whose operations reeult in the accumulation of substantial Inventoriea, Investments and other recoverable assets, may be brought under the regulations as agenoy aocounting systems are developed to the point where they are capable of furnishing the financial reports required.

Four kinde of financial statements are oalled fon by Department Circular No. 966. They are atatements of financial condition, income and expense, source and application of funde, and certain comitments and contingencies. The statemento of financial condition are Statements of income and expense and source and application of funds are published semiannually, for June 30 and Deoember 31 reporting dates, and appear as Sections II and III. The first of these statements under the new regulationa cover the flacal year 1956, and were published In the Jenuary 1957 Bulletin. Within the sections, the agencies are grouped in separate tables by type, as follows: public enterprise revolving iunds, intragovernmental revolving funds, certain other activities, deposit funds, and trust revolving funds.

Supplement No. I added to the coverage by including all executive agencies and activities not reporting under Department Circular No. 966, but required only a statement of financial condition annually as of June 30. These are malnly not business-type sotivities, and thoes which had not yet developed formal accounting prooedures to provido complete balance sheet typee of statementa were authorized temporarily to report only the asset alde. Thue the supplement rounds out provibion for the information on propertiee and assets of the United States Goverment whicb the Treasury has been asked to furnish to the Comittee on Covernment Operations, House of Representatives, for a continuing etudy of the aesete of the Government.
