Redemption and Exchange of B-1962 Notes
The Treasury Department announced on November 23 that on the basie of preliminary reports holders of $$ 157$ mililon of the remaining $$ 317$ million of outstanding 4 percent Treasury notee of Seriee B-1962 (originally issued in the amount of $$ 2$ billion) had exercised the option to redeem their notes on February 15, 1960, at par and accrued interest on that date. The notes vere issued on September 26 , 1957, and w111 mature on Auguet $15,1962$.

Holders of $$ 1,684$ million of the notes took advantage of the offering to exchange their notes for $47 / 8$ percent Treasury notes of Serles C-1963, dated November 15, 1959, and maturing November 15 , 1963. The books were open for this exchange on November 2 through November 4. With the redemption on February 15, 1960, of 157 million of the notes of Series B-1962, the amount of the issue remaining outstanding for redemption on August 15 , 1962, will be $$ 160$ million.

Notice of intention to redeem on February 15, 1960, must have been given in writing directly to any Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or to the Office of the Treasurer of the United States, or placed in the mall prior to midnight November 16, 1959. A notice may not be revoked. The notes to be redeemed on February 15, 1960, will be stamped to show that they are payable on that date, and the coupons maturing after that date, attached to the notes, have been cancelled.

Exchange of Notes for $F$ and $G$ Savings Bonds
The $4-3 / 4$ percent Treasury notes constitute an amount additional to the $$ 4,184$ million of notes previously outstanding (ineluaing $2, 678 million held by the Federal Reserve Banks and Treasury investment accounta), and which were 1ssued on July 20, 1959. Interest ie payable on the notes on May 15 and November 15. Although the eubscription books were open only from November 23 through 30, subscribers who were unable to consummate their subscriptions within that period but who submitted a letter of intent postmarked November 30 or earlier were given until the close of business on December 10 to complete their subscriptions.

Exchangee of Series $F$ and $G$ savings bonds maturing in 1960 were made on the basis of equal face amounts and were allotted in full. Since holders of the Series $F$ and $G$ bonds receive interest on the new notes at the rate of $4-3 / 4$ percent from November 15, 1959, interest adjustments wers made as follows: All subscribers were charged accrued interest on the notes from November 15, 1959, to December 15, 1959 ( $$ 4.03$ per $$ 1,000$ ), and were credited with the discount on the lesue price of the notes ( $$ 2.50$ per (#,000).

The Series $F$ and $G$ bonds were accepted in the exchange at amounts set forth in the two accompanying tables as aet forth in the offering circular. These exchange values were fixed to provide the holders of such bonds an investment yield approximately 1 percent more than otherwise would accrue from December $15,19 j 9$, until their respective maturity dates, less an amount equal to the interest which will accrue on the $4-3 / 4$ percent $T$ reasury notes during the corresponding period. The effect of these adjustmente will also provide for the notes an invertment yleld of approximately 4.81 percent per annum from the respective maturity dates of the Series $F$ and $G$ bonds to May 15,1964 , the maturity date of the notes.

The notes were made avallable in reglstered form, as well as in bearer form, and were lesued in denominations of $$ 1,000, $ 5,000, $ 10,000, $ 100,000$, $$ 1,000,000, ~ 3100,00), 000$, and $8500,000,000$. Holders of smaller denomination Series $F$ and $G$ bonds could exchange them for the next hisher multiple of $$ 1,000$ upon payment of any cash difference.

The exchange values of Series $F$ bond, the differences between such values and the offering price of the $4-3 / 4$ percent notes, the interest which will accrue on such notes, and the total amount to be collected from holders of Serles $F$ bonds per $$ 100$ (face amount) are as follows:

Those who heve purchesed bonds beginning June 1959, but before the newly printed bonds were evailable, may exchange their old bonde for the new if desired, hut they get the benefit of the new terms regerdlees.

ALL OUTSTANDING E BONDS WITH ISSIE DATES PRIOR TO JUNE 1959
Earn at least $1 / 2 \%$ more than before from now to next maturity, with leeser improvement in yielde if redeemed earlier. The 1 mproved rates atart with the next full intereet periad beginning on or efter June 1959. There ie no ratroactive increase in interest ratee for periode prior to June 1959.

Term to maturity or extended maturity is unchanged. The higher rate for the remaining time meane an increase in the new ee ageinet the former redenption valuee.

Here ie how the improved retee to the next maturity will epply: The inprovement depende on the former rates on theee bonde for holding to maturity or for the full exteneion.

1. Unmatured bonde roaching original maturity beginning December 1959 (deted December 1949 through May 1959):
e. $1 / 2 \%$ more on former $3-1 / 4 \%$ bonde with leaue dates of February 1957 through May 1959 (new maturity valuee ranging from $$ 103.20$ to $$ 104.24 \mathrm{ve}$. old $100.00);
b. $1 / 2 \%$ more on former $3 \%$ honde with iesue datee of May 1952 through Jamuary 1957 (new maturity values ranging from $$ 101.08$ to $$ 103.60$ ve. old $$ 100.00$ );
c. $6 / 10 \%$ more on former $2.9 \%$ bonde with lesue detee of December 1949 through Apri1 1952 (new maturity values ranging from $$ 100.32$ to $$ 101.48 \mathrm{ve}$. old $$ 100.00$ ).

Example: Former 3\% bond dated June 1955. R̈ederption values (for $$ 100$ bond) and investment Yielde from June 1, 1959:

| If held for: | Redemption values |  | Investment y1elde |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  | Formerly | Now | Formerly | Now |
| 1 more year...... | $85.00 | $85.08 | 3.38\% | 3.47x |
| 2 more yeers..... | 87.80 | 88.08 | 3.32 | 3.48 |
| 3 more yeare..... | 90.60 | 91.28 | 3.27 | 3.52 |
| 4 mогө yeers..... | 93.60 | 94.84 | 3.27 | 3.61 |
| 5 могө yeare..... | 96.80 | 98.80 | 3.30 | 3.71 |
| 5-2/3 моге yeere (maturity)...... | 100.00 | 102.84 | 3.49 | 3.99 |

Continuing to hold unmatured bonde. In ell cases it io more advantageour to hold these honde to original maturity and beyond to extended maturity (see deacription of improved exteneion below) than to ceeh them in to buy new ones.
2. Bonds maturing (reeching original maturity June to November 1959), dated June to November 1949. See description of improved extension below.
3. Matured bonde which reached original meturity before June 1959 (deted May 1941 through May 1949):
A. $1 / 2 \%$ more oo former $3 \%$ (extension) bonds witb lesue detes of May 1942 through May 1949 (now extended maturity values ranging from $$ 136.36$ to $$ 141.12$ ve. old $$ 134.68$ );
b. 6/10\% more on former $2.9 \%$ (extension) bonde Whth issue dates of May 1941 through April 2942 (new extended maturity values ranging from $$ 134.52$ to $$ 135.32$ va. old $$ 133.33$ ).

Example: Former 3\% (extension) bond dated December 1943. Redemption values (for $$ 100$ bond) and investmant yields from June 1, 1959:

| If held for: | Redemption values |  | Investment ylelds |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  | Formerly | Nov | Formerly | Now |
| 1 more yeer. | $121.20 | $121.32 | 3.04. 6 | 3.14\% |
| 2 more yeers..... | 124.80 | 125.36 | 2.99 | 3.22 |
| 3 more years..... | 128.60 | 129.88 | 3.00 | 3.34 |
| 4 more years..... | 132.60 | 134.96 | 3.02 | 3.47 |
| 4-1/2 more years (meturity)...... | 134.68 | 137.72 | 3.04 | 3.54 |

Continuing to hold matured bonds.
It is more edvantageous to hold all former $2.9 \%$ (exteneion) bonds to extended maturity than to caeb oow and buy new bonds. See "b" above.

It is also more advantageous in most casee to continue to bold former 3\% (extensioo) bonds. See "s" ebove. All of these bonde esin $3-1 / 28$ or slightly more oo their current redemption value if held to exteodod meturity. Many will reach extended maturity before the new bonds (dated June 2959 or after) eern 3-1/2\% (et 4-1/2 yeers). However, even if the gew bond does catcb up, the difference in prectically all ceses ie negligible.

In addition, for income tax purposes, most people treat the total interest eemed alnce issue dete es income for the year in which the bonds ere redeemed. They prefer this to paying a tax each yeer as interest accrues. The intereat on matured bonde amounts to 25 perceat or more of their total value and even at the lowest incoma tax rate the tax payable upon rederption mounts up. Hovever, continuing to hold these boods means that this tax money steys invested and earns more interest. Therefore, in moet cases there is no gain at all from redeeming the old bonde to buy new ooes.
4. Improved exteceion on bonds witb isgue dates of June 1949 through April 1957 (reeching maturity June 2959 and after) on which a 38 extension had elready bean promised:

Eern 3-3/4\% for the entire exteasion if hold to extended maturity (new axtended maturity values ranging from $$ 145.00$ to $$ 150.20 \mathrm{Va}$. old $$ 134.68$ );

Erteneion period is 10 years, the asmes before;
For shorter periode of holding during exteocion, esming retes will begin at epprodinately $3-1 / 2$ for the firgt $1 / 2$ year of bolding and frcreese uniformly to 3-3/4s at maturity;

Redemption value of a bond at the beginning of the new exteasion will be the base on which interest will eccrue during the 20 -yeer exteasion period.
5. Other exteasion privileges:
&. Bonds with issue detee of May 1957 and after (1ncluding the new bonds) will have a 10 -year extension prifilege, with interest retes and other terms and conditione to be determined ae they approsch maturity;
b. Bonds with iesue datee of May 1941 through May 1949 (already in their firat extension period prior to June 1959, reaching extended maturlty begioning May 1961) Will have a second 10-year extension privilege. Interest rates and other terme and conditione will be determined as the bonde approach their present extended meturity.

In eddition to the tax edvantage in contimued holding of old bonde, by ellowing the tax money to eern more interest, there is also an advantage in deferring the tax for people who expect to be in a 2 ower tax bracket when they redeem their bonds after retirement.

Price as well as redemption value at ell times (including meturity) ie per es before.

ALL OUTSTANDING H BONDS VITH ISSUE DATES PRIOR TO JUNE 1959

Eern $1 / 2 \%$ more than before from oow on to maturlty, witb leeser inprovemeat in yielde if redeemed earlier. The improved ratee start with the next full intereet period beginning on or after June 1959.

Tem to maturity is unchanged. The higher rate meane an increase in the amounte of the remaining interest checks over the former echeduled amounte of checks to provide the $1 / 2$ increese in yield if the bond ie beld to meturity.

Example: Former 3\% bond deted June 1955.
Amounts of remsining semianmal checks for $$ 1,000$ bond after June 1, 1959:

| Checks | Pormerly | Nor |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| FYrat 3 checks................ | $17.00 | $17.50 |
| Next 4 checks................. | 17.00 | 19.10 |
| Iaet 5 chacke................. | 17.00 | 21.00 |

Continuing to bold outstanding bonds to maturity is more advantageous in all cases then csshing them in to buy new onee.

The cssh income and outgo data appearing in the "Treasury Bulletin," beginning with the February 1956 lssue, are on a basis consistent with receipts from and payments to the public as derived in the 1957 and subsequent Budgets of the United States, Special Analysis A. Reconcilistion to cash deposits and withdrawals in the account of the Tressurer of the United States 18 shown on the same basis as in the Budget documents. There 18 also shown the amount of nat cash borrowing from, or repayment of borrowing to, the public. By these arrangementa, data in accordance with the Budget classifications ara made avallable month by month. Figurea for back years have been revised where necessary in order to make them as nearly oomparable with the Budget classifications as avallable data will permit. For thls reason certain of the figures differ somewhat from those publlshed in earlier Budget documents as well as in the Bullotin.

The Budget series of cash transactions is designed to provide information on the flow of money between the public and the Federal Government as a whole, and therefore includes transactions not cleared through the Treasurer's acoount. Receipts and payments includs traneactions both in budget accounts and in trust and deposit fund accounts. Operations of Government-sponsored enterprises are included in payments on a net basis as reflected in Treasury reports. Major intragovernmental transactiona which are reported as both expenditures and receipta are eliminated from both. Noncash items which represent accrued obligations of the Government to make payments in the future are also eliminated from expenditures but are added later when aotual payments are made. Recelpts from the exercise of monetary authority (mostly selgniorage on fllver) are excluded as not representing cash received irom the public. Federal casn borrowing from the public includes net borrowing by the Treasury through public debt transaotions and also net borrowing by Government agencies and Government-sponsored enterprisss through sales of their own securities. It excludes changes in the public debt which do not represent direct cash borrowing from the public. The net effect of all these tranactions with the public 18 rellected in changes in the balance in the Treasurer's account and in cash held outside the Treasury.

Cash transactions through the Treasurer's account are similar in general concept to those includsci in the Budget serles, but are limited in coverage to transactions whioh affect the balance in that account. On the other hand, they include recelpts from the exercise of monetary authority, which are excluded from receipts from the public In the Budget series.

Beginning with figures for the f1scal year 1953, the serles of transactions with the public is based on the "Monthly Statement of Receipta and Expenditures of the Unitad States Government," which is complled from reports by all collecting and diebursing officers and includes those transactions not cleared through the Treasurer's account. Cash deposits and withdrawals in the Treasurer's account, beginning with the figures for the same year, are reported in daily Treasury atatements. For those yeare prior to 1953 both cash transactions eerles are based on a single source, namely, the earlier basis of dally treasury statements which reported separate classifications for budget results, trust account transactions, etc.

Source and Availability of the Balance in the Treasurer's Account

The account of the Treasurer of tha United statea reflects not only budget receipts and expenditures but also truat, deposit fund, and public debt tranaactions.

The working cash of the Treaaury is held mainly in Treaaurer's accounts with Federal Reservo Banks and branchea. As the balances in these accounte become depleted, they are restored by calling in (tranaferring) funds from the tax and loan accounta with thousands of commerclal banks throughout the country.

Depoaits to tax and loan accounts occur in the normal course of busineas under a uniform procedure applicable to all banks whereby custoners of banks deposit with them tax paymenta and funds for the purchaas of Government sacuritiea. In most cases the transaotion involves merely the transier of money from a cuatomer's account to the tax and loan account in the aame bank. On occasions, to the extent authorized by the Treaaury, banks are permitted to depoait in these accounts proceeds from aubscriptions to public debt securities entered for their own account aa well as for the account of their cuatomera.

The tax and loan account syatem parmita the Treasury to leave funds in banka and in the conounities in which thay arlae until such time as the Treasury needs the funds for ita operations. In thia way the Treasury is able to neutrallze the effect of ita fluctuating operationa on bank reserves and the economy.

A detalled deacription of the Treasury's depoaitary aystem may be found in the Annual Report of the Secretary of the Traaaury for 1955, pagea 275-284.

Table 5.- Seigniorage
(Cumulative from Jamuary 1, 1935 - in millione of dollars)

Data relating to capital movements between the United states and foreign countries have been collected since 1935, pursuant to Executive Order 6560 of January 15, 1934, Executive oroer 10033 of February $\%, 1949$, and Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder. Infornation covering the principal types of data and the principal countries is reported monthly, and is published regularly in the "Treasury Bulletin." Supplementary information is published at leas frequent intervals. Reports by banks, bankera, aecurities brokers and dealers, and inductrial and commercial concerns in the United States are made inltially to the Federal Reserve Eanks, which forward consolidated ilgures to the Treasury. Beginning April 1954, data reported by banks in the Territories and possessions of the United States are included in the published data.

The term "foreigner" as used in these reports covers all institutions and individuals domiciled outside the United States and its Territories and possescions, the offlcial institutions of foreign countries, wherever such institutions may be located, and international organizations. "Short-term" refers to orifinal maturitles of one year or leas, and "long-term" refers to all other maturitiea. A detalled discussion of the reporting coverage, statistical presentation, and definitions appeared in the June 1954 1ssue of the "Treasury Bulletin," pages $45-47$. As a result of changes in presentation 10 troduced in that $1 s$ sue, not all breakdowns rreviously published will be exactly comparable to those no: presented.

The first three sections which follow are fublished monthly. They provide summarles, by perlods and by countries, of data on short-term banking liabllities to and claims on forelgners and tranaactions in long-term securitiee by foreigners, and present detalled breakdowns of the lateat available preliminary data.

Section IV provides supplementary data in six tables which appear at less frequent intervals. Table 1 , shorttery foreign liabllitlee and claims reported by nonfinancial concerns, is published quarteriy in the January, April, July, and October issues of the Bulletin. Table 2, long-term forelgn liabllities and claims reported by banks and bankers, and Table 3, estimated gold raserves and dollar holdings of foreign countriea and international institutions, are published quarterly in the March, June, September, and December issues. Table 4 , forelgn credit and debit balances in brokerage accounts, appears sem1annually in the March and September iasues. Iable 5, short-tem liabllitles to forelgners in countries and areas not regularly reported separately by banking institutions, is presented annually, appearing in the April 1asue through 1958 and 10 the March 1 ssue thereafter. Table 6 , purchases and ales of long-term securities by forelgners during the preceding calendar year, also appeara annually, beginning with the May 1959 issue.

The current innancial statemente of corporatione and certain other business-type activitiee of the United States Government which appear in the "Treasury Bulletin" beginning with the August 1956 issue are complled from reports submitted to the Treasury under Department Circular No. $966,18 s u e d$ January 30,1956 , and Supplement No. 1 , 1asued June 1, 1956. The regulations so lsaued are pursuant to Seotion 114 of the Budget and Accounting Procedurse Act of 1950 ( 31 U.S.C. 66 b), and represent another step in the program of comprehensive and integrated Government accounting and flnancial reporting for which authority was provided in that aot. They supersede Budget-Treasury Regulation No. 3, issued under Executive Order No. 8512 of Auguat 13, 1940, as amended by Execut1ve Order No. 9084 of March 3, 1942, under which 11nanoial etatements previously publiehed in the Bulletin were submittsd.

In coverage, Departant Cireular No. 966 requires eubmiseion of inancial statements by all wholly owned and mixed-ownershlp Government corporations epeciflcally included in the Government Corporation Control Aot, as amended ( 31 U.s.C. 846,856 ); and all other activitie of the Government operating as revolving funde for whioh buinese-type publio enterpries or intragovernmental fund budgets are required by the Bursau of the Budget. Otber sotivitlee and agenciee whose operatione, servioes, or functions are largely eelf-liquidating or primarily of a revenue-producing nature, and sotiditios and agencies whose operations rssult in the accumulation of substantial invantorles, investimente and other recoverable aesete, way be brougbt under the regulations as agenoy acoounting systeme ara developed to the point where they are capable of furniehing the inancial reporte required.

Four kinde of financial etatemente are oalled for by Department Circular No. 966. They are etatemente of Inancial condition, income and expense, source and application of funde, and certain commitmente and contingencles. The statements of financial condition are publlehed quarterly and appear as Section I in the serles of tablea. The firet data under the new regulatione aro for March 31, 1956, and were presented in the Auguet 1956 Bulletin. Statemente of income and expense and source and application of funds are published semlannually, for June 30 and Decomber 31 reporting dateb, and appear ab Sections II and III. The plret of these etatemente under the new regulationa cover the fieoal year 1956, and were published in the January 1957 Bulletin. Within the sectione, the agencles are grouped in separate tables by type, as follows: public enterprise revolving funds, intragovernmental revolving funds, certain other activities, depoeit funds, and truet revolving funde.

Supplement No. 1 added to the coverage by including all executive agenoies and aotivitiee not reporting under Department Ciroular No. 966, but required only a statement of financial condition annually as of June 30. These are mainly not bueinese-type aotivities, and those which had not yet developed formal accounting prooedures to provide complete balanoe sheet types of statemente were authorlzed temporarily to report only the asset side. Thus the supplement rounds out provision for the information on propertlee and assets of the United States Government which the Treaeury has been asked to furnieh to the Committee on Government Operatione, House of Representatives, for a continuing study of the assets of the Government. The firet oompreheneive reporting under Supplement No. 1 1s for June 30, 2957, and the data were publlehed in the Deoember 1957 lesue of the Bulletin as Part B of Table 4 in Seotion $I$.

A eummary of loans outstanding for a series of dates is included in Seotion $I$ of the Bulletin presentation beginning with the June 1958 1esue. Two oleesiflcatione of the loans are shown, one by type and one by agency. Data prior to 1956 are based on the earlier reporting requirements, whicb provided for complete coverage of Government lending agencles.
