Reporting Bases

Date on receipts, expenditures, and debt which appear in the "Treasury Bulletin" are based largely on two Treasury financial reports, the "Daily Statement of the United States Treasury" and the "Nonthly Statement of Receipts and Expenditures of the United States Coverment," Certain monetary statistics are based at least in part on the "Circulation Statement of United States Noney," Where these statements are given as sources for individual tables, they are oited by mass only. That respective reporting bases are described below. For other data in the Bulletin, information on sources or reporting bases is given in connection with the tables theselves.

The monthly statement of receipte and expenditures was first published for February 1954, and replaced the daily statement as the primary source of information on budget results and other receipt and expenditure data classified by type of account. At the same time, the daily statement was changed to a statement of cash deposits and withdrawals affecting the account of the Tressurer of the United States. Both publications have provided comparative figures on their respective bases from the beginning of the fiscal year 1953. The announcement of February 17, 1954, with respect to these reporting changes may be found in the April 1954 issue of the Bulletin.

The monthly estatement shows all receipte and expenditures of the Government, including those made from each accounts held outside the United States Treasury. The information is compiled from reports by the Treasurer of the United States and by all other collecting and disbureing agencies, including those agencies which maintain obsoling accounts in commercial banks. These reports eover transactions recorded in the accounts of the agencies during the reporting period. The net of the transactions as compiled from these reports is reconciled in the monthly statement to changee in the balance in the Treasurer's account and in cash held outside the Treasurer's account and changes in the public debt outstanding.

Receipts of taxes and customs duties are reported on a collections basis and partially on a deposits basis. Expenditures, except interest on the public debt, are reported on the basis of checks leaved or cash payments ands by disbursing officers. Transactions of an interfund or intragovernmental nature are included on the same basis even though the actual issuence of checks may not be involved. Interest on the public dobt is included on an accrual basis beginning with figures for June 1955 and the fiscal year 1955. Frior to that, it was included on a due and payable basis. The same reporting basis as that in the monthly estatement provides the fiscal year figures for the Treasury's "Combined Statement of Receipts, Expenditures and Balances of the United State Overnment." and for notual receipts and expenditures in the "Maget of the United State Overnment."

The daily statement on the new basis was first legued for February 17, 1954. In the deposits and withdrawale as shown, no distinction is made as to the type of accounts (budget, trust, etc. ). The deposite are on the basis of certificates of deposit cleared through the account of the Treasurer of the United States. Total withdrawals are on the basis of checks paid or cash disbursements made out of the Treasurer's account. Some of the withdrawal classifications shown are reported on the basic of mailed reports of checks issued and are adjusted by meane of clearing accounts to the total of checks paid. Except for relatively minor amounts, noncash interfund and other intragovernmental transactions are excluded. The public debt figures in the daily statement also are on a "clearance" basic, with the exception of those issuance and retirement transactions reported on the basis of telegrams from Federal Reserve Banke. Noncash deht transactions are included, however.

The daily etatement before Pebruary 17, 195%, covered not only transactions cleared through the Treasurer's account but also certain Government agency transactions which were handled through commercial bank accounts, and included nomenab interfund and other intragovernmental transactions. It provided information similar to that in the present daily etatement with respect to the datus of the Treasurer's account, and similar to that in the present end-of-month daily attacent with respect to debt issuance, retirement, and amount outstanding. Receipte end expenditures, however, were classified by type of account, and the budget results shown in the daily statement were used as the basic for reflecting the results under the President's budget program as enacted by the Congress.

Receipte were on the basis of deposite as they cleared the Treasurer's account were reported on two successive bases. Through 1946 they were on the hasis of checks paid by the Treasurer of the United States. Beginning with 1947, expenditures made through the facilities of the Treasury Department's Division of Disburesment were on the basis of checks issued, while certain others, principally those of the Department of Defense and its predecesor organizations, were on the basis of checks paid. Transactions handled through commercial hank accounts, consisting of market transactions in public debt and guaranteed scountise, were as reported by the agencies. Interest on the public debt was included on a due and payable basis beginning with November 1949 and on a check-paid basis prior to that time.

The circulation etatement reflects transactions through the Treasurer's account which affect monetary stocks of gold and silver and the amounts of coin and ourrency in the money supply of the country. It is issued later than the daily statement, however, and the figures are based on transactions consummated during the reporting period even though come may not have cleared the Treasurer's account during that portiod.

Treasury Financing Operations

Bills for Cash or Exchange

Offerings of two issues of Treasury bills were announced by the Treasury Department on December 30, 1959, as follows:

- $2,000 million, or thereabouts, for cash, of 166-day bills, to be issued on January 8, 1960, an additional amount of the tax anticipation series dated October 21, 1959, and to mature June 22, 1960. Like the $2,002 million of the original issue outstanding, the additional bills will be acceptable at par in payment of income and profits taxes due June 15, 1960:
- $1,500 million, or thereabouts, of one-year (366-day) bills, to be dated January 15, 1960, and to mature January 15, 1961, for each and in exchange for the $2,006 million of 289-day Treasury bills maturing January 15, 1960.

Both bill issues were sold on an auction basis. Subscribers were required to agree not to purchase or to sell, or to make any agreements with respect to the purchase or sale or other disposition of the bills for which tenders were submitted under these offerings, until after the closing hour for tenders. For the 166-day tax anticipation series, this was 1:30 p.m., E.S.T., on January 5 and for the one-year bills at 1:30 p.m., E.S.T., on January 12, 1960.

Tenders were received without deposit from incorporated banks and trust companies and from responsible and recognized dealers in investment securities. Tenders from others were required to be accompanied by payment of 2 percent of the face amount of Treasury bills applied for, unless the tenders were accompanied by an express guaranty of payment by an incorporated bank or trust company.

Any commercial bank qualified as a depositary was permitted to make payment for the 166-day bills allotted to itself or its customers by credit in its tax and loan account up to the amount for which it was qualified in excess of existing deposits. For other subscribers to this issue and for all subscribers to the 366-day bills, payment of accepted tenders at the prices offered was required to be made or completed in cash or other immediately available funds, on January % for the 166-day issue and on January 15 for the 366-day bills.

The average rate of discount for the 166-day bills was 4.726 percent. Tenders of $2,016 million were accepted, including noncompetitive tenders for $400,000 or less from any one bidder of $368 million, which were accepted in full at the average price of accepted competitive bids.

On the 366-day bills the average rate of discount was 5.067 percent. Tenders of $1,502 million were accepted. For this issue also, noncompetitive tenders of $400,000 or less from any one bidder were accepted in full at the average price of accepted competitive bids. The amount of noncompetitive tenders was $350 million.

Weekly Bills Refunded

Regular weekly issues of Treasury bills totaled $8.2 billion in Pecember, refunding the total and weekly amounts of the maturing 13-week and 26-week bills. The five issues of 91-day bills amounted to $5.8 billion and the five 182-day issues to $2.4 billion. Of the new 13-week issues, those for December 3 and 31 were for $1.1 billion each and each of the others, for $1.2 billion. Four of the 26-week issues were for 30.5 billion and the issue for December 3 was for $0.4 billion. Average rates of discount on the new bills were as follows:

The cash income and outgo data appearing in the "Treasury Bulletin, " beginning with the February 1956 iasue, are on a basis consistent with receipts from and payments to the public as derived in the 1957 and subsequent Budgets of the United States, Special Analysis A. Reconciliation to cash deposits and withdrawals in the account of the Treasurer of the United States is shown on the same basis as in the Budget documents. There is also shown the amount of net cash borrowing from, or repayment of borrowing to, the public. By these arrangements, data in accordance with the Budget classifications are made available month by month. Figures for back years have been revised where necessary in order to make them as nearly comparable with the Budget classifications as available data will permit. For this reason certain of the figures differ somewhat from those published in earlier Budget documents as well as in the Bulletin.

The Budget series of cash transactions is designed to provide information on the flow of money between the public and the Federal Government as a whole, and therefore includes transactions not cleared through the Treasurer's account. Receipts and payments include transactions both in budget accounts and in trust and deposit fund accounts. Operations of Government-sponsored enterprises are included in payments on a net basis as reflected in Treasury reports. Major intragovernmental transactions which are reported as both expenditures and receipts are eliminated from both. Noncash items which represent accrued obligations of the Government to make payments in the future are also eliminated from expenditures but are added later when actual paymenta are made. Receipts from the exercise of monetary authority (mostly saigniorage on silver) are excluded as not representing cash received from the public. Federal cash borrowing from the public includes net borrowing by the Treasury through public debt transactions and also net borrowing by Government agencies and Government-sponsored enterprises through sales of their own securities. It excludes changes in the public debt which do not represent direct cash borrowing from the public. The net effect of all these transactions with the public is reflected in changes in the balance in the Treasurer's account and in cash held outside the Treasury.

Cash transactions through the Treasurer's account are similar in general concept to those included in the Budget series, but are limited in coverage to transactions which affect the balance in that account. On the other hand, they include receipts from the exercise of monetary authority, which are excluded from receipts from the public in the Budget series.

Beginning with figures for the fiscal year 1953, the series of transactions with the public is based on the "Monthly Statement of Receipts and Expenditures of the United States Government," which is compiled from reports by all collecting and disbursing officers and includes those transactions not cleared through the Treasurer's account. Cash deposits and withdrawals in the Treasurer's account, beginning with the figures for the same year, are reported in daily Treasury statements. For those years prior to 1953 both cash transactions series are based on a single source, namely, the earlier basis of daily Treasury statements which reported separate classifications for budget results, trust account transactions, etc.

Source and Availability of the Balance in the Treasurer's Account

The account of the Treasurer of the United States reflects not only budget receipts and expenditures but also trust, deposit fund, and public debt transactions.

The working cash of the Treasury is held mainly in Treasurer's accounts with Federal Reserve Banks and branches. As the balances in these accounts become depleted, they are restored by calling in (transferring) funds from the tax and loan accounts with thousands of commercial banks throughout the country.

Deposits to tax and loan accounts occur in the normal course of business under a uniform procedure applicable to all banks whereby customers of banks deposit with them tax payments and funds for the purchase of Government securities. In most cases the transaction involves merely the transfer of money from a customer's account to the tax and loan account in the same bank. On occasions, to the extent authorized by the Treasury, banks are permitted to deposit in these accounts proceeds from subscriptions to public debt securities entered for their own account as well as for the account of their customers.

The tax and loan account system permits the Treasury to leave funds in banks and in the communities in which they arise until such time as the Treasury needs the funds for its operations. In this way the Treasury is able to neutralize the effect of its fluctuating operations on bank reserves and the economy.

A detailed description of the Treasury's depositary system may be found in the Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury for 1955, pages 275-284.

The computed ennual interest charge represents the emount of interest that would be paid if each interest-bearing issue outstanding at the end of each month or year should remain outstanding for e year at the appliof each month or yeer should remain outstanding for e year at the applicable annual rate of interest. The charge is computed for each issue by applying the appropriate annual interest rate to the amount outstanding on that date. The aggregate charge for all interest-bearing issues constitutes the total computed ennual interest charge. The average annual interest rate is computed by dividing the computed annual interest charge for the total, or for any group of issues, by the corresponding principal amount. Beginning with data for December 31, 1958, computation of the average annual interest charge and rate is based on the rete of effective yield for issues sold at premium or discount. Prior to that date it was based on the coupon rate for all issues.

Excludes guaranteed securities held by the Treasury.

Total includes "Other bonds"; see Table 3. Included in debt outstanding at face emount, but discount value is used in computing annual interest charge and annual interest rate.

On United States savings honds the rate to maturity is applied against the emount outstanding.

Note: In these tables Series A-F and J seles are included at issue price and redemptions and amounts outstanding at current relamption values. Series G, H, and K are included et face value throughout. Matured bonds which have been redeamed ere included in redemptions. F and G bonds outstanding are included in the interest-bearing debt until all bonds of the annual series have matured, when they are transfarred to matured debt upon which interest has ceased.

Details by sorfies on e cummlative besis and by periods for Series A-D combined will be found in the Fobruary 1952 and previous issues of the "Treasury Bulletin."

Includes exchanges of matured Series E bonds for Series G bonds beginning May 1951 and for Series K bonds beginning May 1952.

Includes both matured and unmatured bonds; see Table 4.

Includes total value of redemptions not yet classified between matured and unmatured bonds. A change in procedure, beginning in June 1954, for processing redeemed scrings bonds here resulted in e high level of redeemptions not yet classified between matured and unsatured bonds. This increase temporarily obscures the relationship between the redemption columns show-ing seles price and accrued discount in Tables 2 through 4 and elso the relationship between the matured and unmentured sections of Table 4. (See also footnote 4). The subsequent distribution of this high level of unclassified redemptions may be large enough in any month to show redemptions of matured bonds for a series in Teble 4 which are greater than the total redemptions of that series as shown in Table 3, and to show a negative in the unmatured section of Table 4. Reductions were made in issues and redemptions of Serias E, H, F, G, J, and K in July 1954 to compensate for the arroneous inclusion of reissua transactions in June 1954 as reported in the daily Treesury statement. The amounts involved were as follows: $18 million for issues of Series E and H and $17 million for issues of Series F, G, , and K; and $35 million for unclassified retirements.

Serias F and G sales were discontinued April 30, 1952, and Series J and K sales were discontinued April 30, 1957. Sales figures after April 30, 1957, represent adjustments.
Includes axchanges of Series 1941 F and G savings bonds for Treasury

3-1/4% bonds of 1978-83.

Less than $500,000. r Revised.

- Operations," Table 2. Reginning April 1953, prices are closing bid quotations in the overthes-counter market. Prices for prior dates are the mean of closing bid and ask quotations, except that before October 1, 1939, they are closing prices on the New York Stock Exchange. "When issued" prices are included in the history beginning October 1, 1939. Dates of highs and lows in case of recurrence are the latest dates. Of the $2,000 million 4% notes of August 15, 1962, outstanding on October 31, 1959, $1,664, million were exchanged for the k-7/8% notes of November 15, 1963, and $157 million were presented for stamping to be redeemed February 15, 1960, leaving $160 million to mature August 15, 1962.
- The price and yield as of October 31, 1959, on the 4% notes of August 15, 1962, reflected the option evailable to the holder to redeem the notes on February 15, 1960, on 3 months 'prior notice. The prices end yields after November 16, 1959, when the option expired are therefore
- ont comparable with the recent prices and yields prior to the amiration.

  There is no significant range of prices on that portion of the Afrotas of August 15, 1962, which were presented by November 16, 1969, for redemption on Pebruary 15, 1960.

  Concaliable issues market convention treats the yield to carliest call ree: Beginning April 1953, Treasury bond yields are reported to the Treasury by the Federal Raserve Bank of New York, based on closing bid quotations in the over-the-counter market. Yields for prior periods were computed on the basis of mean of closing bid and ask quotations. Moody's Investor Service is the source for the everage of Ase corporate bonds. For definition of taxable bonds, see footnotes to the "Treasury Survey of Ownership" in this issue of the Bulletin.

Beginning April 1953, the everage includes bonds meither due nor callable for 10 years; April 1952 through March 1953, the minimum length (neither due nor callable) was 12 years; October 1941, through March 1952, the minimum length was 15 years. For bonds currently in the everage, see Table 4 under "Market Quotations on Treasury Securities" in this issue of the Bulletin.

A new long-term bond edded to the average.
An extailing bond dropped from the everage (see footnote 1).

Source: Intermal Revenue Service reports for detail of collections by type of tax; daily Trescury etatesem; for budget receipts from internal revenue for the fiscal year 1952, and the monthly statement of receipts and expenditures of the Government for receipts thereoffer (for explanation of reporting bases in these publications, see page II). Certain detail by type of tax is available only from returns filed with the Internal Revenue Service. The figures shown include collections for credit to special accounts for certain island possessions, as reported by the Internal Revenue Service. Beginning with the fiscal year 1955, they include the amounts of tax collected in Puerto Riccu upon articles of merchandies of Puerto Rican manufacture coming into the United States. Figures for 1954, have been revised to the seme heafs. Figures for previous years include only amounts collected at ports of entry into the United States.

Differences between the amounts of internal revenue reported by the Internal Revenue Service as collections for given particle and the amounts reported in Treasury statements as budget receipts for the same particle arose because of differences in the time when payments were included in the respective reports. Tax payments are included in budget receipts when they are reported as credits to the account of the Treasurer of the United States. Prior to July 1954, they were included in Internal Revenue Service collection reports after the returns to which they applied hed been received in internal revenue offices. Under procedure begun in 1950 with withheld income tax and old-age insurance taxes and later extended to relired retirement taxes and many excises, these taxes are paid currently into Treasury depositaries and the depositary receipts, as evidence of such payments, are attached to quarterly returns to the Internal Revenue Service.

Under this procedure, the payments are included in budget receipte in the mooth in which the depositary receipts ere issued to the taxpayers. Revised accounting procedures effective July 1, 1954, extended the seme prectice to Internal Revenus Service collection

2/ Nonthly figures include eocial security tax on self-employment income, which is levied and collected as part of the individual income tax. Fiscal year figures exclude this tax, on the hasis of estimates (see footnote 3), and it is included under "Old-age and disability insurance."

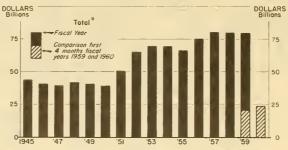

2/ In Internal Revenue Service reports current collections are not separated as to type of tax; the breakdown shown for fiscal years is based on estimates made in accordance with provisions of Sec. 201 of the Sociel Security Act, as emended (42 U.S.C. 401), for transfer of tax receipte to the trust funds (eee "Budget Receipts and Expanditures," Teble 1).

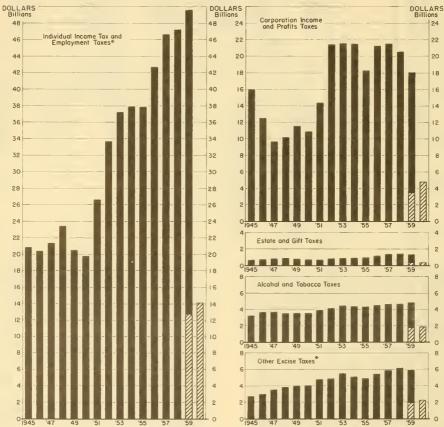

Beginning with the fiecal year 1955, collections shown include undistributed depositary receipts and unapplied collections. For excise taxes these receipts are included in the total only. Total collections include "Taxes not otherwise classified."

5/ Budget receipts for 1956 were reduced by $3,566 thousand representing tax collections transferred to the Government of Guam pursuant to the ect approved August 1, 1950 (64 Stat, 392), but this smount was included in collections reported by the Internal Revenue Service. Beginning with 1957, such collections are excluded else in Internal Revenue Service reports.

6/ Detail is reported by quartere beginning with the fiscal year 1956.

INTERNAL REVENUE COLLECTIONS BY PRINCIPAL SOURCES

* Beginning with the fiscal year 1955, includes undistributed depository receipts and unapplied collections. The whole amount of such receipts for excise taxes is included under *Other excise taxes.*

Data relating to capital movements between the United States and foreign countries have been collected since 1935, pursuant to Executive Order 6560 of January 15, 1934. Executive Order 10033 of February 8, 1949, and Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder. Information covering the principal types of data and the principal countries is reported monthly, and is published regularly in the "Treasury Bulletin." Supplementary information is published at less frequent intervals. Reports by banks, bankers, securities brokers and dealers, and industrial and commercial concerns in the United States are made initially to the Federal Reserve Banks, which forward consolidated figures to the Treasury. Beginning April 1954, data reported by banks in the Territories and possessions of the United States are included in the published data.

The term "foreigner" as used in these reports covers all institutions and individuals domiciled outside the United States and its Territories and possessions, the official institutions of foreign countries, wherever such institutions may be located, and international organizations. "Short-term" refers to original maturities of one year or less, and "long-term" refers to all other maturities. A detailed discussion of the reporting coverage, statistical presentation, and definitions appeared in the June 1954 issue of the "Treasury Bulletin," pages 45-47. As a result of changes in presentation introduced in that issue, not all breakdowns previously published will be exactly comparable to those now presented.

The first three sections which follow are published monthly. They provide summaries, by periods and by countries, of data on short-term banking liabilities to and claims on foreigners and transactions in long-term securities by foreigners, and present detailed breakdowns of the latest available preliminary data.

Section IV provides supplementary data in six tables which appear at less frequent intervals. Table 1, shortterm foreign liabilities and claims reported by nonfinancial concerns, is published quarterly in the January, April, July, and October issues of the Bulletin. Table 2, long-term foreign liabilities and claims reported by banks and bankers, and Table 3, estimated gold reserves and dollar holdings of foreign countries and international institutions, are published quarterly in the March, June, September, and December issues. Table 4, foreign credit and debit balances in brokerage accounts, appears semiannually in the March and September issues. Table 5, short-term liabilities to foreigners in countries and areas not regularly reported separately by banking institutions, is presented annually, appearing in the April issue through 1958 and in the March issue thereafter. Table 6, purchases and sales of long-term securities by foreigners during the preceding calendar year, also appears annually, beginning with the May 1959 issue.

The current financial statements of corporations and certain other business-type activities of the United States Government which appear in the "Treasury Bulletin" beginning with the August 1956 issue are compiled from reports submitted to the Treasury under Department Circular No. 966, issued January 30, 1956, and Supplement No. 1, issued June 1, 1956. The regulations so issued are pursuant to Section 114 of the Budget and Accounting Procedures Act of 1950 (31 U.S.C. 66 b), and represent another step in the program of comprehensive and integrated Government accounting and financial reporting for which authority was provided in that act. They superseds Budget-Treasury Regulation No. 3, issued under Executive Order No. 8512 of August 13, 1940, as amended by Executive Order No. 9084 of March 3, 1942, under which financial statements previously published in the Bulletin were aubmitted.

In coverage, Department Circular No. 966 requires submission of financial statements by all wholly owned and mixed-ownership Government corporations specifically included in the Government Corporation Control Act, as amended (31 U.S.C. 846, 856); and all other activities of the Government operating as revolving funds for which business-type public enterprise or intragovernmental fund budgets are required by the Bureau of the Budget. Other activities and agencies whose operations, services, or functions are largely self-liquidating or primarily of a revenue-producing nature, and activities and agencies whose operations result in the accumulation of substantial inventories, investments and other recoverable assets, may be brought under the regulations as agency accounting systems are developed to the point where they are capable of furnishing the financial reports required.

Four kinds of financial statements are called for by Department Circular No. 966. They are statements of financial condition, income and expense, source and application of funds, and certain commitments and contingencies. The statements of financial condition are published quarterly and appear as Section I in the series of tables. The first data under the new regulations are for March 31, 1956, and were presented in the August 1956 Bulletin. Statements of income and expense and source and application of funds are published semiannually, for June 30 and December 31 reporting dates, and appear as Sections II and III. The first of these statements under the new regulations cover the fiscal year 1956, and were published in the January 1957 Bulletin. Within the sections, the agencies are grouped in separate tables by type, as follows: public enterprise revolving funds, intragovernmental revolving funds, certain other activities, deposit funds, and trust revolving funds.

Supplement No. 1 added to the coverage by including all executive agencies and activities not reporting under Department Circular No. 966, but required only a statement of financial condition annually as of June 30. These are mainly not business-type activities, and those which had not yet developed formal accounting procedures to provide complete balance sheet types of statements were authorized temporarily to report only the asset side. Thus the supplament rounds out provision for the information on properties and assets of the United States Government which the Treasury has been asked to furnish to the Committee on Government Operations, House of Representatives, for a continuing study of the assets of the Government. The first comprehensive reporting under Supplement No. 1 is for June 30, 1957, and the data were published in the December 1957 issue of the Bulletin as Part B of Table 4 in Section I.

A summary of loans outstanding for a series of dates is included in Section I of the Bulletin presentation beginning with the June 1958 issue. Two classifications of the loans are shown, one by type and one by agency. Data prior to 1956 are based on the earlier reporting requirements, which provided for complete coverage of Government lending agencies.
