Reporting Bases

Data on receipte, expenditures, and dobt whioh appear in the "Treasury Bulletin" are based largely on tro Treasury 1inancial reporte, the "Dasly gtatement of the United States Treasury and the Monthly Statement of Recelpts and Expenditurea of the United States Government. " Certain monetary gtatiutice are based at least in part on the "Circulation gtatement of Unlted State Money. Where these tatementa are given as eouroes for individual tabloe, thay are cited by name only. Their respaotive reporting basee are desoribed below. For other data in the Bulletin, information on sourcee or reporting basas 1s given in connection with the tables themelvee.

The monthy otatament of recoipta and oxpandituree was first publiched for February 1954, and replaced the dally etatament as the primary source of information on budget resulte and other reosipt and expenditure data olaseliled by type of acoount. At the ame time, the daily etatezent was changed to a otatement of cash deposits and withdrawals affeoting the account of the Treasurer of the United states. Both publications have provided comparative ilgures on their respective bases from the beginning of the 1100al year 1953. The announcoment of February 17, 1954, with respeot to thees reporting changee may be found in the April 1954 iesue of the Bulletin.

The monthly tetement shows all reoelpte and expenditures of the Government, inoluding thoer made frow cash accounts held outsice the United States Tressury. The information ie complled from reports by the Treasurer of the Unlted statea and by all other colleoting and diobureing acenoies, inoluding those agencies which maintain oheoking acoounte in comercial banke. Theee reporte cover transaotiona recorded in the accounta of the agenciee during the reporting period. The net of the transaotions as complled frow these reporte is reoonoiled in the monthly tatement to ohanges in the balance in the Treaburer'e mooount and in cash held outside the Treasurer' eccount and changes in the publio debt outstanding.

Recelpte of taxes and cuetome dutioe are reported on a collections bail. Other reoelpts are reported partielly on a colleotions basie and parm tially on a deposit basis. Expendituras, exoept interest on the public debt, are reportad on the basis of cheoke iegued ar oash payment wade by disbursing oificera. Trencaotion of an interfund or intragovernmental nature are included on the cam basis even though the sotual lesuance of oheoks eay not be invalved. Iriterest on the public debt is Included on an accrual basis beginning with i1gures for June 1955 and the f1soal jear 1955. Prior to that, it was included on a duo and payable basis. The ame reporting bais a that in the monthly atatement provide the ileoal year ifgures for the Treasury' "Combined Statoment of Recolpt:, Expenditures and Balances of the United State日 Government" and for aotual recelpto and axpenditures in the "Budget of the United States Government."

Beginning vith the final tatement for the 114oel year 1960 , the monthy otatement reporte total sor net budget recelpts and buaget expenditures after deduotion of oertain int erfund tranesotions wich are included in the detall of both budget reoelpte anc budget expendituras. The traneactians deducted consist of interest payments and minor amounte of certaln otber pajmente made by Government egenoles to the Trwesury. Thle reporting chenge was made in accordance with the plan tated in the President' Budget Maseage of January 18, 1960. It dobs not affeot the surplue or delicit. Pigure for earlier perlods hom in the Treanury Bulletin were revised to the now roporting bain in the saptamber 1960 1e日ue. The interfund transactions deduoted under this procedure do not include paymenta to the Treasury by wholly owned Government corporations for retirement of their aapital stock and for dispoiltion of earninge. These capital transiere have been excluded ourcently from budget reoelpte and budget expenditures beginning July 1,1948 , and Pigure for prior fisoal yeare back through 1932 vero revised aooordingly at that time.

The dally etatement on the new basic was firet 1ssued for February 17, 1954. In the deposita and witberawale as bowa, no distinotion 16 made as to the type of acoounte (budzet, trust, eto.). Tbe deposits ar on the basis of ortifloates of deposit cleared through the account of the mreasurer of the United States. Total withdrawals are on the baela of check paid or cash dibursemente made out of the Treaeurer' acount. Some of the withdramal olassiIlcation shom are reported on the baile of malled reporte of obeck 1 esued and are edusted by meane of olearinc eoounts to the total of obeak pald. Exoopt for relatively minor amounte, noncash interfund anc other intragovernmental traneaotion are exoluded. The publio debt 11guree in ibe dally etatement aleo are on a clearanoes basis, with the exception of those lssuance and retirexent transatione reported on the basis of telegreme from Federal Reserve Banks. Nonceah debt tranesotions are 1ncluded, howerer.

Tha dally atatement before Fobruary 17, 1954, covered not only tranaactiona cleared through the Treasurer's account but alao certaln Government agency tranaactiona which ware handled through commercial bank accounte, and includad noncaah interfund and other intragovermental transactions. It provided information almilar to that in the preaent dally atatement with reapect to the atatua of the Treaurer'a account, and almilar to that in the present end-of-month dally atatement with reapect to debt laauance, retirement, and amount outatanding. Receipta and expenditures, however, were clasalifed by type of account, and the budget reaulta shown in the dally atatement were used as the basis for relleoting the reaulta under the Preaident'a budget program as anacted by the Congreaa.

Recelpta wera on the basia of deposita as they clearsd the Treasurer's account. Expenditures cleared through the Treaurer'a acoount ware reportea on two aucceasive basea. Through 1946 they ware on the basia of chacka paid by the Treaaurer of the United gtatas. Baginning with 1947, expenditurea mada through the lacilities of the Treaaury Department's Diviaion of Disbursemant were on the basia of checks lasued, while certaln others, principally those of the Department of Defense and its predecesaor organizations, were on the baaia of checks pa14. Tranabctions handled through comercial bank accounta, consiating of market tranaactions in public debt and guaranteed eecurities, were aa reportad by the agenciea. Intereat on the public dabt waa included on a dua anc payable basia beginning with November 1949 and on a checka-pald basia prior to that time.

The circulation atatemant reflecta tranaactlons through the Treaaurer'a account which affect monetary atocka of gold and allvar and the amounts of coin and currency in the money apply of tha country. It 1s 1saued later than the dally atatament, however, and the figurea are baaed on tranaactiona conammated during the reporting period even through aome may not have cleared the Treaaurer's account during that period.

September-October Refunding and Cash Offerings

A refunding of $$ 7.6$ billion of two World War

 II bond lesues in advanoe of their maturitise and plans for subsequent cash offerings for $$ 5$ billion were announced by the Treasury on September 7. The financing program was outilned as follows:Holders of the $$ 4.7$ billion of $2-1 / 2$ percent Treasury bonds of March 15, 1965-70 and of the $$ 2.9$ billion of $2-1 / 2$ percent Treasury bonds of 1966-71 (both 188u8d in 1944) were offered in exchange additional amounta of any of the $3-1 / 2$ percent outstanding Treasury bond 18 sues maturing in 1980, 1990, and 1998. Subscription books were open from September 11 through 20 for individuals (defined for this purpose as natural persons in their own right) and from September 11 through 15 for all others.
Treasury cash needs over the next two months, estimated roughly at $$ 5$ billion, were to be met in three steps by:
82-1/2 blllion, or thereabouts, of tax anticipation bills to be auctioned September 20, 1961, due June 22, 1962, for payment on september 27. (Commercial banks could make payment through their tax and loan accounts.)
$$ 2$ billion, or thereabouts, of Treasury notes to mature in the spring of 1963 , to be announced near the end of September and to be offered early in October.
$$ 2$ billion of one-year Treasury bllls to be auctioned October 10 (without tax and loan account credit) to replace $$ 1-1 / 2$ blllion of outstanding one-year bille which mature October 16.

Subscriptions to the offerings will be reported In the October Bulletin.

In comment on the offerings, the announcement pointed out that the two bond $188 u e s$ ellgible for refunding were beld largely by insurance companies, savings banks, and private individuals (many of them original subscribers). It stated,
"The Treasury 18 making it possible for investors to gain additional income by extending the maturity of their holcings, as they choose, for additional periods of roughly 10 to 29 years. In order to equal the terms of this offering, holders of the 1965-70 and 1966-71 bonds would otherwise have to reinvest the prooeeds of their bonds on maturity in comparable securities at interest rates ranging from 4.28 percent to 4.36 percent.
"To the extent that investors choose to extend the maturity of their existing holdings, the Treasury will have accomplished some needed restructuring of 1 ts outstanding debt, without diverting from productive purposes in other seotors of the economy new savings currently ilowing into the long-term capital markets...."

And further on the cash offerings,

"Recent increases in projected dafense programs have not necessitated any revision in the Treasury's cash requirements for the months immediately ahead. Added expenditures will affect the seasonal cash surplus that normally occurs toward the end of the placal year. For that reason, the Treasury has reduced the extent of its reliance on a June tax anticipation bill, in comparison With the uses made of similar instruments in recent years. The Treasury is scheduling the maturity of part of its borrowings for the spring of 1963, when the return to a balanced budget for the f1scal year will again assure a seasonal cash surplus of substantial size."

Advance refunding terms and conditions.-- By making the conversion, holders of the $2-1 / 2$ percent bonds obtalned somewhat higher ylelds than could be had by purchasing any of the outstanding 3-1/2 percent bonds in the market at current prices. Also, for tax purposea exchange of old for new securities will not be treated as a sale and purchase, thereby avoiding immediate recording of book galns or loses on the securities accepted by the Treasury. Extension of maturities provided by the offering is shown in the accompanying table.

Exchangee were made on the basie of par for par, with payments by and to the Treasury, and with adjuatments of accrued interest to September 15 , 1961, on the $3-1 / 2$ percent bonds lesued (per $$ 100$ face amount) ae indicated below:

Interest on those of 1980 and 1998 is payable on May 15 and November 15, and on the bonds of 1990, on February 15 and August 15. All of the additional amounts were lagued both a bearar bonds with coupons attached,or registersd as to principal and intereat. They wera lesued in denomInations of $$ 500, $ 1,000, $ 5,000, $ 10,000, $ 100,000$, and $$ 1,000,000$.

For Federal Incoma tax purposea:

(a) Were the exchange was solely of the $2-1 / 2$ percent bonds for the $3-1 / 2$ percent bonds, the Secretary of the Ireasury has declared pursuant to section 1037 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code that no galn or lose shall be recognized for Federal income tax purposes. However, ection 1031 (b) of the Code requires recognition of any gain reallzed on the exchange to the extent that money (other than intereat) was received by the boncholder in connection with the exchange, as in the following paragraph.
(b) Where the $3-1 / 2$ percent bonds were offered with a payment to the investor, if the ialr market value $1 /$ of the $3-1 / 2$ percent bonds plus the amount pald to the investor (diacount) exceeded the cost basis of the $2-1 / 2$ percent bonds to the invastor, auch gain (but not to excead the amount of the payment) muat be recognized and accounted for as galn for the taxabla year of exchange. The inveator will carry the bonds on his books at the same amount as he was carrying the $2-1 / 2$ percent bonds except that the basie in the $3-1 / 2$ percent bonds will be the cost basi. in the $2-1 / 2$ percent bonds reduced by the amount of the payment.
(c) If a premium was paid by the subscriber, no gain or losa will be recognized, but the tax basig in the $3-1 / 2$ percent bonda w111 be the coat basis in the $2-1 / 2$ percent bonds increased by the amount of the premium.
(d) Gain to the extent not recognized under (b) (or loss), if any, upon the $2-1 / 2$ percent bonde aurrendered in exchange will be taken into account upon the disposition or redsmption of the $3-1 / 2$ percent bonde.

The three issuea of the $3-1 / 2$ percent bonds w111 be redeemable at par and accrued intereat prior to maturity for the purpose of using the proceeda In payment of Federal estate taxes, but only if they are owned by the decedent at the time of his death and thereupon constitute part of his eatate. Estates of decedents to which the almilar option in the two 1asues of $2-1 / 2$ parcent bonds had accrued at the date of exchance could not make the axchange with the expectation of using the proceeds of redemption of the $3-1 / 2$ percent bond prior to maturity in payment of eetate taxes because they were not owned by the decedent at the time of his death.

The Comptroller of the Currency, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve system, and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation have indicated to the Treasury that banks under their superviaion may place the new $3-1 / 2$ percent bonds recelved in exchange on their booka:

At an amount not greatar than that at which the ellgible bonds surrendered were carried on their books plua the amount of premium, if any, paid on the new bonds; or

At the amount at which the eligible bonde aurrandered ware carriad on their booka, raduced by the amount of discount, if any, received by the subacriber and increasad by tha amount of gain, if any, which will be recognizad aa indicatad for Faderal incoma tax purposea, as aet forth in an earller paragraph under (b).

A holder of the outatanding eligible $2-1 / 2$ percent bonds had the option of accapting the Treasury's exchange offer or of holding the bonds to maturity. Conaequently, be could compare the intereat he would receiva reaulting from exchanging with the intereat that he might obtain by not exchancing and by reinvesting tha proceeda at maturity. The intereat income before tax for making the axtanaion through exchange is the coupon rate on the naw issua. If a holder of the eligible $2-1 / 2$ percent bonds did not make the exchange, he will receive only the $2-1 / 2$ percent rata to thair maturity and will hava to reinveat at that time at a rate equal to that indicated in the table following for the remaining term of the laaue offared, in ordar to equal the intereat he would have recaived by accepting tha exchange offer. For example, if tha $2-1 / 2$ parcant bonds of $1965-70$ ware axchanged for the $3-1 / 2$ percent bonde of 1990 , tha rate for the entire twanty-eight yaara and IIve months will be $3-1 / 2$ percent. If the exchange was not mada, a $2-1 / 2$ percent rata will ba received until March 15,1970 , requiring reinveatment of the proceeda of the $2-1 / 2 s$ at that time at a rata of at least 4.36 percent for the remsining ninetaen years and eleven months, all at compound intereat, to average out to a $3-1 / 2$ percent rate for twentyeight years and ilve montha. Thia minimum reinvestment rate for the extension period la ahown in tha table following, as are the correaponding ratas for the other leaues inclujed in the exchange.

Weakly Billa Incraased

New 1aaues of ragular waekly Treaaury bills during August totaled $$ 6.5$ billion, refunding the total of $$ 8.4$ billion of bills maturing and providing $0.1 blllion of caab. of maturity. over $$ 2-1 / 2$ billion of the more than $$ 6$ billion currently outatanding $H$ bonds wll be affected by this action.

Series $H$ bavings bonds isbued from June 1952 through January 1957 have a maturity perlod of nine years and elght months. Their interest rate was originally three percent if held to maturity. Effective June 1, 1959, the rate was increased so as to bring the ilnal yields to maturity up to a range of 3.12 percent to 3.36 percent.

The bonds being extended will mature from February 1962 through goptember 1966. Other outstanding Serles $H$ bonds 18sued since February 1957 will begin maturing in February 1967. Regulations affecting possible extension of these bonds will be announced prior to October 1966, at which time consideration will be given to the terms and conditions, including interest rates, of any extension that might then be warranted.

The Series $H$ bond, when introduced in June 1952, was cuatom-made to satisfy the needs of Americans who wanted a current income bond which would be free from market fluctuations and would possess the same balety features and guaranteed interest rate as the popular Series E bona. There are now clobe to one and one-half million $H$ bond accounts and nearly 160,000 new accounts are opened yearly. Anmal H bond eales are about three quarters of a blllion dollare.

The amount of old-age insurance tax refunds is reimbursed to the geners 1 f und by the trust fund.
10) The Federsi Disability Insurance Trust Fund was established by the Socis 1 Security Act Amendments of 1956, approved August 1, 1956 ( 42 U. S.C. 401 (b)). The cseh income and outgo data sppearing in the Tresoury Bulletin，beginning with the Februsiy 1956 1日日寸e，are on a basin consistent with recelpts from and payments to the public as derived in the 1957 and sub－ sey unt Budzeta of the United States，gpec al Analysig A． Reconcilistion to cash depoelts and withdrawals in the account of the Treasurer of the Undted States 18 bhown on the same berif as in the gudget documents．There is also shown the amount of net cash borrowing from，or repayment of borrowing to，the public．By these arrangements，data in accordance with the Budret clasalifications are nade avald－ able month by month．Flgures for back yeare have bean revised where necessary in order to make ther as nearly somparable with eurrent Budeet clasililcations as avail－ atle data will pernit．Far this reacon certaln of the f1：ures differ bonewhat from those published in earlier Butete cocuments as well B．in the Bulletin．

The Budget serles of cash transactlons 18 desfgned to provide information on the flow of money between the public and the Federal Government as a whole，and therefore Includes transactions not cleared trrough the Treasurer＇a sccount．Recelpts and payments include transactions both In budget sccounts and in trust and deposit fund accounts Operations of Government－sponsored enterprises are included In payments on a net basis as rerlected in Treasury reports．

Major intrasovemmental transactions which are reported as both expenditures and receifts are eliminated frot both． Noncssh 1 tess which represent accrued obligattons of the Governxent to mase payuents in the future are also eliminated from expenĉqures but are saced later when actual payments are $5 a c \bar{e}$ ．Recelpte frow the exercise of monetary authority （mostly gelzniorage on allver）are exoludec as not representing cash receized irom the public．Federal casn borrowing from the public includes net borrowing by the Tressury through public debt transactions and also net borrowing by Government agencles and Government－sponsored enterprises through sales of their own securities． It excludes changes in the public debt which do not rep－ resent direct cash borrowing irom the public．The net effect of all thesa iransactions with the public is reflecied in changes in the balance in the Treagurer＇s account and in cash held outgide the reasury．

Source and Avallability of the Balance in the Treasurer's Account

The account of the Treasurer of the United gtates reflects not only budget reoelpta and expenditures but also trust, depoeit fund, and public debt tranaactions.

The working cash of the Treasury is held mainly in Treasurer's accounts with Federal Reserve Banks and branches. As the balanoes in these accounto become depleted, they are restored by calling in (transferring) funds from the $t a x$ and loan accounta with thousands of commercial banks throughout the country.

Deposite to tax and loan accounta occur in the normal couree of businese under a unlform procedure spplicabls to all banks whereby customers of banke deposit with them tax payments and funds for the purohese of Government sacurities. In most cases the transaotion involves merely the transfer of money from a customer's account to the tax and loan account in the same bank. On occasions, to the extent authorized by the Treasury, banks are permitted to deposit in these accounts proceeds Irow subscriptions to public debt securities entered for their own account as well as for the account of thelr customers.

The tax and loan account system permits the Treasury to leave funda in banks and in the conmunities in which they arise until such time as the Treasury needs the funds for its operatione. In this way the Treasury is able to neutralize the effect of its fluctuating operations on bank reserves and the economy.

A detalled description of the Treasury's depositary ayotem may be found in the Annual Report of the Secretary 0 : the Trasaury for 1955, pages 275-284.

Note: The computed annusi interest charge repreaenta the owount of intareat that would be paid 16 each intersat-bearlng lasue outsianding at the end of each month or year ahould remsin outatanding for year at the applicoble annus tate of intereat. The charge is computed for each iasue by applying the appropriate annual intereat rate to the amount outatandins on that date (the amount actusily borroved in the case of aecurities sold of a premium or discount, beginning with May 1960). The eggregate charge for all lnterest-bearing laøues conatitutes the total computed annual intereat charge. The average annual intereat rate ia computed by dividing the computed annual interest charge for the totel, or for any group of 1asues, by the corresponding principal amount. Beginaing with dste for December 31, 1958, the computetion is bsaed on the rate of effective ylald for 1ssues aold at premilu or discount. Prior to that date it was baaed on tbe coupon rate for ell issuea.
1 Includes only guspanteed aecurlties held outaide the Treasury.

Source: Internal Revenue Service reports for detail of collections by type of tax; monthly statement of recejpis and expenditures of the Government for budget receipts from internal revenue (for explanation of reporting bases in this publication, see page II). Certaln detail ky type of tax is available only from returns filed with the Internal Revenue Service The figures shown include collections for credit to special accounts for certain island possessions, as reported by the Internal Revenue Service. Beginning with the fiscal year 1955, they include the amounts of tax collected in Puerto Rico upon articles of merchandise of Puerto Rican manufacture coming into the United States. Figures for 1954 have been revised to the ssme basis, but those for 1953 include only amounts collected at ports of entry into the United States
1 Differences between the amounts of internal revenue reported by the Internal Revenue Service as collections for given periods and the amounts reported in Treasury statements as budget receipts for the same periods arose because of differences in the time when payments were included in the respective reports. Tax payments are included In budget receipts when they are reported as credits to the account of the Treasurer of the United States. Prior to July 1954, they were included in Internal Revenue Service collection reports after the returns to which they applied had been received in internal revenue offices. Under procedure begun in 1950 with withheld income tax and old-age insurance taxes and later extended to rallroad retirement taxes and many excises, these taxes are paid currently into Treasury depositaries and the depositary receipts, as evidence of such payments. are attached to quarterly returns to the Internsl Revenue Service.

Under this procedure, the payments are included in budget receipts in the month in which the depositary receipts are issued to the taxpayers. Revised accounting procedures effective July 1, 1954, extended the same practice to Internsl Revenue Service collection reports.
2) Monthly figures include social security tax on self-emoloyment income, which is levied and collected as part of the individual income tax. Fiscal year figures exclude this tax, on the basis of estimates (see footnote 3), and it is included under mold-age and disability insurance.
3/ In Internal Revenue Service reports current collections are not separated as to type of tax; the breakdown shown for fiscal years is based on estimates made in accordance with provisions of Sec. 201 of the Social Security Act, as amended ( $42 \mathrm{~J} . \mathrm{S} . \mathrm{C} .401$ ), for iransfer of tax receipts to the trust runds (see "Budget Receipts and Expenditures," Table 1).
4 Beginning with the fiscal year 1955, collections shown include undistributed depositary receipts and unapplied collections. For excise taxes these receipts are included in the total only. Total collections include "Taxes not otherwise classified."
5 Budget recelpts for 1956 were reduced by $$ 3,566$ thousand representing tax collections transferred to the Covernment of Guam pursuant to the act approved August 1, 1950 ( 48 U.S.C. 1421 h ), but this gmount was Included in collections reported by the Internal Revenue Service. Beginning with 1957, such collections are excluded also in Internal Revenue Service reports.
6) Detall is reported by quarters beginning with the fiscal year 1956.
