Reporting Bases

Data on recelpte, expenditures, and debt which appear in the "Treasury Bulletin" are based largely on two Treasury inancial reporte, the "Dally Statement of the United Statea Treasury" and the "Manthly Statement of Receipts and Expenditures of the United Statee Government." Certain monetary atatiatica are based at least in part on the "Circulation Statement of United States Money." Where these statements are given as sources for individual tables, thay are cited by name only. Their reapactive reporting basea are deacribed below. For other data in the Bulletin, infcrmation on saurces or reparting basee ie given in connection with the tables themselves.

The monthly statement of receipts and expenditurea was firat published for February 1954, and replaced the dally statement as the primary source of information on budget results and other receift and expenciture data claesifled by type of account. At the same time, the dally statement was changed to a otatement of cash deposita and withdrawala affecting the account of the Treasurer of the United Statea. Both publications have provided comparative flgures on thelr reapective bases from the beginning of the flocal year 1953. The announcement of February 17. 1954, with respect to these reporting changes may be found in the April 1954 1asue of the Bulletin.

The monthly atatement ahow all receipta and expenditures of the Government, including these made from caah accounta held outside the United Statea Treasury. The information $1 a$ complled from reporte by the Treacurer of tha United Statea and by all other collecting and dieburaing agencies, including those agencies which maintain checking accounta in commercial banks. These reports cover transactions recordad in the acccunts of the agenciea during the reporting period. The net of the tranactiona ac camplled from these reports 16 reconciled in the monthly atatement te changea in the balance in tha Treasurer's acoount and in caeh held outaide the Treasurer's account and changes in the public debt cutstanding.

Recelpta of taxes and customa duties are reported on a collections basi. Other recelpta are reported partially on a collactione basia and partially on a deposita basia. Expenditurea, except intereat on the publlc debt, are reported on the basia of checka lasuad or cash payments made by dieburaing officers. Tranactions of an interfund or intragovernmental natura are included on the same basie even though the actual lasuance of checks may not be invelved. Interest on the public debt 1a included on an accrual basio beginning with figurea for June 1955 and the flecal year 1955. Prior to that, it wae included on a due and payable baile. The ame reporing bais as that in the monthly atatement provides the ilscal year ifgurea for the mreasury' " "Combined Statement of Recelpts, Expendituree and Balances of the United States Government" and for actual receipts and expenditures in the "Budget of the United States Government."

Beginning with the rinal otatement for the fiscal year 1960, the monthly atatement reporte totale for net budget reosipta and budget expend1tures after deduction of certain int erfund transactions which are included in the detall of both budget receipts and budgat expenditures. The transactions deducted conalat of intereat paymenta and minor amounts of certain other paymenta made by Government agencies to the Treasury. This reporting change was made in accordance with the plan atated in the President'a Budget Message of January 18, 1960. It does not affect the surplus or deflcit. Fleures for earlier perlods shown in the Treasury Bulletin were reviaed to the new reporting basia in the Soptember 1960 18sue. The interfund transactions deducted under thie procedure do not include paymenta to the Treasury by wholly owned Gevernment corporations for retirement of their capital atcek and for diapooltion of earnings. These capital transfers have been oxcluded currently from budget recelpts and budget expendituree beginning July 1,1948 , and ilgures for prior ilacal yeare back through 1932 were revised accordingly at that time.

The dally etatement on the new basio was firat 1osued for February 17, 1954. In the depoalte and withdrawala as ahown no diatinction 10 made ae to the type of acoounts (budget, truat, ato.). The deposita are on the basie of certificatee of deposit cleared through the account of the Treasurer of the United States. Tctal withdrawala are on the basia of checke paid or cash diabursements made out of the Treasurer's account. Some of the withdrawal claesifications ahow are reported on the basis of malled roporta of checka 1 asued and are adjusted by meane of clearing accounta to the total of checks paid. Except for relatively minor amounte, nencash interfund and other intragovernmental transactiona are excluded. The public debt flgures in the dally statement alao are on a clearance" basie, with the exception of those lasuance and retirement transactione reported on the basis of telegrans fram Federal Reaerve Banke. Noncah dabt traneaotions are included, however.

Reporting Bases - (Continued)

The dally statement before February 17,1954 , covered not only transactions cleared through the Treasurer's account but also certain Government agency trensactions which were handed through comercial bank accounta, and included noncash interfund and other intragovernmental tranaactione. It provided information similar to that in the present dally statement with respect to the status of the Ireasurer's account, and similar to that in the preaent end-of-month dally atatement with respect to debt issuance, retirement, and amount outstanding. Recelpts and expenditures, however, were claselfled by type of account, and the budget reaults shown in the dally statement were used as the basis for rellecting the resulte under the President's budget program as enacted by the Congress.

Recelfts were on the basis of deposits as they cleared the Treasurer's account. Expenditures cleared through the Treasurer's acoount were reported on two successive bases. Through 1946 they were on the basis of checks pald by the Treasurer of the United gtates. Beginning with 1947, expenditures made through the facillties of the Treasury Department's Diviaion of Disbursement were on the bsisis of checks iasued, while certain othera, principally those of the Department of Defense and ita predecessor organizations, were on the basis of checks paid. Tranaactions handled throufb commercial bank accounts, consisting of market transactions in public debt and guaranteed securities, were as reported by the agencles. Intereat on the public debt was included on a dua anc payable basis beginning with November 1949 and on a checks-paid basia prior to that time.

Tha circulation statement reflects transactions through the Treaburer's account which affect monetary atocka of gold and allver and tree amounta of coin and currency in the money $\varepsilon$ upply of the country. It is is oued later than the dally statement, however, and the 1 gures are based on transactions consummated during the reoorting period even through some may not have cleared the Treasurer's account during that period.

Treasury Financing Operations

Results of Exchange of $F$ anc $G$ Savings Bonds for Marketable Bonds

On a prelininary basis as of December 6, 1961, \$316 million of the $\$ 970$ million outstanding $F$ and G savines bonds maturing in 1962 were reported as exchanged for the $3-7 / 8$ percent Treasury bonds of 1968. As noted in the Treasury Bulletin for Nov= ember, the new boncs are additional to the $\ddagger 2,137$ million outstanding of this issue, which is dated June 23, 1960. Exchanges of the $F$ and $G$ bonds were made on the basis of equal face amounts and were allotted in full.

The exchange values of the savirge bonds were righer than their current redemption values and were fixed to provide an investment yield of approxImately 1 percent per annum more than otherwise would accrue from December 15, 1961, to the maturity dates of the savings bonde. The exchange will proVide an investment yield of approximately 3.96 percent per annum from the respective maturity dates of the $F$ and $G$ bonde to May 15,1968 , the maturity date of the $3-7 / 8$ percent Treasury bonds of 1968 .

All subscribers were charged accrued interest on the Treasury bonds of 1968 from Noverber 15 to December 15, 1961 ( $$ 0.32$ per $$ 100$ ) and also were charged or credited for differencee between the offering price of the new bonō and the exchange values of the $F$ and $G$ bonds.

The bonds of 1968 were issued in bearer form with interest coupons attached, and boncs registered as to princiral and interest, in denominations of W500, $1,000, $$ 5,000$, ? $10,000, $ 100,000$, añ $$ 1,000,000$. Holdere of $F$ and $G$ bonds aggregating lese than an even multiple of $$ 500$ maturity value could exchange them for the next higher multiple of $$ 500$ upon payment in cssh of the difference.

Any qualified depoaitary was permitted to make payment by credit in itg Treasury tax and loan account for any cash payments authorized or required to be made for bonds allotted to it for 1 tcelf and its customere up to any amount for which it was quallfied in excess of exicting deposits.

Exchange values of Serlee $F$ bonds, the differences between those values and the offering price of the $3-7 / 8$ percent bonds, the interest which w111 accrue on the new bonds, and total amounts pald to or collected from holders of serles $F$ bonds per ${ }_{\beta} 100$ (face amount) are as follows:

1/ In addition, for each $$ 100$, or multiple or fraction thereof, between the face amount of Series $F$ bonds submitted and the face amount of bonds subsciled of $$ 500$ ) the subscribers must pay $$ 99.82$ ( $$ 99.50$ issue price plus $$$.
2) Including $$ 0.32$ per $$ 100$ paid by the subscribers as accrued interest from November 15, 1961, to December 15, 1961.

p Preliminary.

The cash income and outgo data appearing in the Treasury Bulletin, baginning with the February 1956 1saue, are on a basla consistent with recelfts from and payments to the public as derlved in the 2957 and aubBequent Budgets of the Unjted Statea, Special Analyaia A. Reconciliation to cash deposits and withdrawala in the account of the Jresaurer of the United states 18 shown on the same basie as in the Budget documents. There is al80 shown the amount of net cash borrowing from, or repayment of borrowing to, the publlc. By these arrangements, data in accordance with the Eudget classiflcations are made avallable month by month. Flgures for back years have bean reviaed where necesbary in order to wake them as nearly comparable with current Budzet clasilfications as avallable data will permit. For this reason certain of the Ilfures differ somewhat from those published in earlier Budset documenta as well as in the Bulletin.

The Budget aerles of cash trancactiona ls designed to provide information on the Llow of money between the public and the Federal Government as a whole, and therefore includes tranaactions not cleared through the Treasurer's account. Receipts and payments include transactions both in budget accounts and in trust and deposit fund accounta. Operations of Govemment-aponsored enterpriaes are included in paymenta on a net basia as reflected in Treasury reports.

Major intrasovermmental transactiona which are reported an both expenditures and receifts are eliminated from both. Noncash Iteme which represent accrued obllgations of the Govermment tomake paymenta in the future are also ellminated from expencitures but are adcec later when actual payments are race. Receifts from the exercise of monetary authorlty (moatis asiznlorage on allvar) are excluded as not repreaenting cabh received from the public. Federal casn borrowing froz the publlc includes net borrowing by the Treasury through public debt transactions and also net borrowing by Government agencies and Governwent-aponsored enterprise日 through aalea of their own securitiea. It excludes changes in the public debt which do not repreaent direct caah borrowing from the public. The net effect of all thes tranaactiona with the public le reflected in changes in the balance in the Treasurer's account and in cash held outside the treasury.

Cash tranasctlons through the Treasurer's acoount are alrilar in general concept to those includsd in the Budgat aerles, but are 11 mited in coverage to transactions whigh affect the balance in that account. On the other hand, they include receipta from the exercise of monetary authority, which are excluded from recelpta from the public In the Budget serlea.

Source and Avallability of the Balance in the Treasurer's Account

The account of the Treasurer of the United States reflects not only budget recelpta and expenditures but also trust, deposit fund, and public debt transactions.

The working cash of the Treasury 18 held mainly in Treasurer's accounts with Federal Reserve Banks and branches. As the balanoes in theas accounts becoma dapleted, they are reatored by calling in (tranaferring) funda prom the tax and loan accounts with thousands of commercial banks throughout the country.

Deposits to tax and loan accounts occur in the normal course of businese under a uniform procedura applicable to all banks whereby customers of banks deposit with them tax payments and funds for the purchase of Government ascurities. In moat cases the tranaaction involves merely the transfer of money irom a customer's account to the tax and losn account in the same bank. On occasions, to the extent authorized by the Treasury, banka are permitted to deposit in these accounts proceeda from aubscriptions to public debt gecurities entered for their own account as well as for the account of their customers.

The tax and loan account system permits the mreasury to leave funds in banks and in the conjunities in which they arlse until such time as the Treasury needs the funds for its operations. In this wsy the Treasury is able to neutrallze the effect of its fluctuating operations on bank reserves and the aconomy.

A detalled description of the Treasury'a depositary aystem may be found in the Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury for 1955, pages 275-284.

1/ Consists of Tressurer's checks outstanding, reserve and other deposits of Board of Trustees of the Postal Sovings System, uncollected items, exchanges, etc., beginning December 1954; prior to that twe included also Post of flce Department and Postmaters' disbursing accounts (see footnote 2).
/ Beginning Decewber 1954, Post Office Department and Postmasters' disbursing accounts are no longer treated as liability accounts of the Treasurer of the United States, but are classified and trested in the same manner as other disbursing accounts, in accordance with the change in method of reporting Post office transsctions (see "Budget Recefpts and Expenditures," Table 3). An adjustment of - 207 m11110n in the balance in the Treasurer's accouni (and in the "clearing account") reflects thia change.

1) Special depositaries are permitted to make payment in the form of a deposit credit for the purchase price of U. S. Government obligations purchased by them for their own account, or for the account of theis customers who enter subscriptions through them, when this method of payment is permitted under the terms of the circulars inviting subscriptions to the issues.
2) Taxes eligible for credit consist of those deposited by taxpayers in the depositary banks, as follows: Withheld income tax beginning

March 1948; taxes on employers and employees under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act beginning January 1950, and under the fisilroad Retirement Tax Act beginning July 1951; and a number of exaiae taxes beginning July 1953.
3) Under a special procedure begun in March 2951, authorization may be given for income tax payments, or a portion of them, made by ceaks of $$ 10,000$ or more drawn on a special depositary bank, to be credited to the tax and loan account in that bank. This procedure is follsed during some of the quarterly periods of heavy iax payments.

Note: The computed annusl Interest charge represents the amount of interes? that would be paid if each interest-bearing issue outstanding at the end of esch month or year should remain outstanding for a year at the appl by applying the appropriste annusl interest rate to the amount outstandIng on thst date (the amount actually borrcwad in the case of gecurdtles sold at a premium or discount, beginulng with May 1960). The aggregate charge for all interest-bearing lssues constitutes the total computed annual intereat charge. The average annusl interest rate is computed by dividing the computed arnusl intereat charge for the total, or for any group of issues, by the cormesponding principsl smount. Beginaing -1th data for December 31, 1958 , the computation is based on the rsie of effective yleld for issues sold at fremium or ilscount. Prior that date it was based on the coupon rate for all isaues.

1) Includes only guaranteed securltiles held quiside the Treasury.
2) Total Includes WOther bondsn through May 1961; aee Table 3. Included in debt outstanding gt face amount, but discount vslue is used in computin; annusl interest charge and amnal interest rate. On United States savings bonds the rate to maturity is applied agsinst the amount outatianding.

Note; In theae tables soles of Series A-F and $J$ bonds are included ot issue price, and redemptions and amounts outstanding at current redemption value. Series G, $H$, and $K$ are included at face value throughout. Matured bonds which have been rudeemed are included in redemptions. Matured F and $G$ bonds outstanding are included in the interest-bearing debt until all bonds of the annual seriea have matured, and are then tranaferred to mutured debt upon which interest has ceased.

1) Sales and redemption figures include exchanges of minor amounts of (1) matured Saries E bonds for Seriea G and K bonds from May 1951 through April 1957 and (a) Serles $F$ and J bonds for Series $H$ bonds beginning January 2040 ; however, they exclude exchangea of Series $E$ bonds for Serica $H$ bonda, which are eported in Table 3.
2 Details by series on a cumulative basia and by perioda for Series A-D cumbined will be found in the February 1952 and previous issues of the Treasury Bulletin.
3 Becouse there is o norwal lag in classifying redemptions the distribution of redemptions between soles price and accrued discount bas been estimated. Beginning with the Treasury Bulletin of March 1961 the metnod of distributing redemptions between sales price and accrued discount has been changed to reflect the distribution ahcwn in final reports of classified redemptions. All periods shown have been revised on this basis.
L/ Reductions were made in issues and redemptions of Series $5, H, F, U$, J, and $K$ bonds in July 1954 to compensate for the erroneous inciusiun of relaaue transactions in June 1954 as reported in the dally Treasury statement. The omounts involved were as follows: *18 million fur 1ssues of Seriea E and $H, $ 17$ million for issues of Series F, G, 3, and $K$, and $$ 35$ miliion for unclassified retirewents.
5/ Series F and G sales were discontinued April 30, 1952, and Series J and K sales were discontinued April 30, 1957. Sales Iigures af eer Apr11 30, 1957, represent adJustments.
6/ Includes exchanges of Series 1 thil $F$ and $G$ savinga bonds for Treasury 3-1/4\% bonds of 2978-83.

Table 1.- U. S. Gold Stock, and Holdinge of Convertible Foreign Currencies by U. S. Monetary Authorities

Data relating to capital movementa between the Unitad Stater and forelgn countries have been collected aince 1935, pursuant to Exeoutive Order 6560 of January 15,1934, Executive Order 10033 of February 8,1949 , and Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder. Information on the principal types of data and the principal countries is reported monthly, and is published regularly in the "Treseury Bulletin." Supplementary information 1 p published less frequently. Reporta by banks, bankera, aecurltlea brokere and dealers, and Induatrial and commercial concerns in the United States are mide inftially to the Federal Reaerve Banks, which forward coneolidated figures to the Tressury. Beginning April 1954, data reported by banks in the Territories and posseasions of the United Statea are included in the published data.

The term "forelgner" as used in these reporta covers all Institutions and individuals domiciled outside the United States and Its Territorles and poseeselons, the offlcial inetitutions of forelgn countries, wherever such institutiona may be located, and international organizations. "Short-term" refers to original maturities of one year or less, and "long-term" refers to all other maturities. A detailed diacuasion of the reporting coverage, statlstical presentation, and definitions appeared In the June 1954 1ssue of the "Treasury Bulletin," pages 45-47. As a reault of changes in presentation introducea in that issue, not all breakdowns previously published W111 be exactly comparable to those now presented.

The firet three eectiona which follow are published monthly. They provide summariee, by periode and by oountriec, of data on short-tera banking liablilities to and claime on forelgnere and traneactione in long-terim eccuritiee by forelgrere, and present detalled breakdown of the laten avallable preliminary data.

Section IV providee supplementary data in ix tablea which appear at less frequent intervale. Table l, ahortterm foreign llabilltiee and clalma reported by nonfinancisl concerne, is published quarterly in the January, April, July, and October issuea of the Bulletin. Table 2, long-term foreign liabilities and claime reported by banisa and bankere, and Table 3 , eotlmated gold reserves and dollar holdings of forelgn countriea and international institutions, are published quarterly in the March, June, September, and December 1eauea. Table 4, forelgn credit and debit balances in brokerage accounta, appeara semiannually in the March and September isaues. Table 5, ehort-term liabilitiea to foreigners in countries ard areas not regularly reported separstely by banking institutions, is presented annually, appearing in the April 1saus through 1958 and in the March leaus thereafter. Table 6 , purchaes and ales of long-term securities by Soreigners during the preceding calandar year, $2 l$ so appears annuslly, beginning with the May 1959 1asue.

The current financial statements of corcorations and certain other buciness-type activitles of the United Statea Govermment which appear in the "Ireacury Bulletin" beginning with the Aupust 1956 issue are complled from reports submitted to the Treasury under Department Circular 1ssued June 1, 1956. The regulations so 1 ssued are pursuant to Section 114 of the Budget and Accounting Procecurea Act of 195 ) ( 21 U.S.C. 66 b), anc repreaerit another step in the progran of comprehensive and integrated Guvernment accounting anc financial reporting for which authorlty was provided in that act. They aupersede Budget-Treasury Regulation No. 3, 1scued under Executive Oraer No. 5512 of Auguat 13, 1940, as amended by Executive order No. 9084 of March 3, 1942, under whicr. f1nancial statements previously nublished in the Bulletin vere submitted.

In coverage, Department Circular No. 966 requirea suomissicn of financial atatements by all wholly owned and mixed-ownership Government corrorations opecifically Inciudec in the Government Corporation Control Act, as arended ( 31 U.S.C. 346,356 ); anci all other activities of the Governmert operating as revolving funds for which buciness-type public enterprise or intragovernmental fund buceta are required by the Bureau of the Budget. Other ectlvitles and agencles whose operetions, services, or functions are largely self-liquidating or primarlly of a revenue-producing nature, and activitlea and agenciea whose operations result in the accumulation of aubstantial inventorles, Investments and other recoverable asseta, may be brought under the regulations as agency accounting systema are developed to the polrt where they are capable of furnishing the innancial reports required.

Four kinces of flnanclal statementa are called for by Department Clrcular No. 966. They are statements of Ilnanclal condition, income and expence, source and application of funds, and certain coinmitiments and contingencies. The atatements of inancial condition are published quarterly and arpear as Secion I 1 a the strles of tablea. The flrst data under the new resulations are for darch 31, 1356, and were fresented in the Ausust 1356 Bulletin. Statements of income anci expense and source and epplication of funda are rubllshed semiannually, for June z? and December 31 reporting datea, and appear as Sections II and III. The flrat of these st:tetents under the new regulations cover the flecal year 1956, and were published in the January 1957 Bulletin. Within the sections, the agenclea are grouped in separate tablea by type, as follows: public enterprlse revolving funds, intrayovernmental revolvine funas, certain other activitiea, deposit funde, and truat revolving funds.

Supplement No. I added to the coverage by including all executive agenciea and activities not reportin under Department Clrcular lio. 966, but required only a etaterent of financial conaltion annually 86 of june 30 . Table 7.- Loans Outstanding June 30, 1961 , Excluding Interagency Loans and Those Made by Deposit and Trust Revolving Funds, Classified by Types of Loans - (Continued) $\downarrow$

1) In accordance with an amendment issued June 23, 1960, to Department Circular No. 966, purchase money mortgages and similar long-term paper held by the agencies are now classifled as loans receivable and are included in this table. Prior to June 30,1960 , these aaaets had been classified 3 accounts and notes receivable or other assets.
Does not include foreign currency loans.
3 The dollar equivalents of these loans are computed for reporting purposes at varying rates. Where the loan agreements stipulate a dollar denominated figure, the loans outstanding are genarall valued at agreement rates of exchange. Loans execited in init. of foreign currency are valued at the market rates (i. e., thz rates of exchange at whioh Treasury sells such ourrencle. to Government agencies).
